KIWANIS CLUB VISITS T-BAR

Town People Enjoy Banquet Served By People Of The T-Bar Community

About twenty members of the Tahoka Kiwanis Club were royally entertained at a banquet served by the members of the T-Bar Women's Club, assisted by their husbands, at T-Bar school house on last Friday night. The Kiwanians report that the feast was fine and that the spirit of friendship and co-operation manifested by the good people of T-Bar was wonderful. They are loud in their praise of the fine way in which the good women of the club and the citizens of the community put this meeting over.

Tables for the banquet were placed end to end on the campus near the school building and they literally groaned under the good things piled thereon. Mrs. R. L. Moore delivered a short but appropriate address of welcome, after which she introduced Happy Smith, President of the Kiwanis Club, who acted as Master of Ceremonies. Happy's first act was to command everybody to eat. Everybody obeyed. While the feast was being enjoyed, the Tahoka orchestra dispensed sweet and amusingly hilarious music.

At the close of the feast, Judge C. H. Cain made an address, his subject being The Principles of Kiwanis. Prof. G. H. Nelson spoke on the need for a county agent in Lynn county and about the Fair to be held this fall. Messrs. M. A. Dorman, I. H. Moore, and J. W. Nichols of T-Bar each made a splendid talk. They spoke of the value of co-operation and voiced their sentiments in favor of a county agent.

Miss Millie M. Halsey, home demonstration agent, was present to assist the good women and men of T-Bar and they say that her services were invaluable.

Kiwanians present from Tahoka were: Judge C. H. Cain, I. S. Doak, W. G. Briley, H. B. Howell, A. J. Edwards, W. D. Nevels, J. H. Holloway, G. M. Stewart, Walter Slaton, Robert H. King, Happy Smith, J. W. Simpson, B. R. Tate, Thos. H. Speight, Franklin D. Brown, Dave Houston, Jim Burselson, W. J. Langford, and G. H. Nelson.

Club women and their husbands of T-Bar present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCarley, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Crews, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Dorman, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Beasley, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Lindly, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Townsen, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. C. A. Dorman, Mrs. De Henderson, Mrs. Cora Johnson, Miss Esther Nichols, J. W. Ivins, J. B. Moore, M. L. Carson, and J. R. Thoms.

SCHOOL BONDS ARE APPROVED

Attorney General Passes On $100,000.00 Bonds For New High School Building

The President of the school board received a telegram Tuesday morning to the effect that the school bonds recently voted in the Tahoka Independent School District in the sum of $100,000.00 had been approved by the attorney general. The school board met Tuesday afternoon and fixed Monday, June 28, at 2 P. M. as the date and the hour when bids for the bonds will be considered. Many bond buyers are being notified and it is expected that the bonds will be sold at that time.

As soon as the bonds are sold the school board will be ready to consider bids for the letting of the various contracts for the building. Nothing in the future is certain but it is hoped that work on the building may begin in July or August. It is also hoped that the building may be completed ready for occupancy by February, but of course the board can make no promises in this respect.

T. H. Speight, manager of the local Jones Dry Goods Store, made a business trip to Slaton Tuesday.

Boy Breaks Arm; Falls From Horse

The little son of J. T. Cunningham, about eight years old, residing in the Lynn community, fell or was thrown from a horse Sunday night, sustaining a fracture of both bones of the left fore-arm. A physician was called to dress the wound, and it is knitted together again perfectly and that the arm will soon be strong and well as it was before the accident.

CHRISTIANS IN A BIG REVIVAL

Interest Growing In Meeting; Sam P. Jones Preaching Excellent Sermons

The Christian Church revival, which has been in progress at the City Tabernacle since last Thursday night, conducted by Evangelist Sam P. Jones and wife of Cleburne, Texas, is growing in interest. Members of other churches are giving splendid cooperation by their help as well as their presence. So far there have been 17 responses to the call of the evangelist.

Brother Jones is bringing some most interesting messages. One of the unique and attractive features of his services is that he reads his scripture lessons from memory and he reads them with such expression and emphasis as to put into them new life and fire. The Bible as he reads it seems like a new message brought to men.

Mrs. Jones is very capable as a leader of the song services.

Mr. Jones has announced the following subjects, at future services and the public is cordially invited to hear them:

Friday, June 18: Seven Reasons Why I Believe It is Right to Use Instrumental Music in the Public Worship.

Saturday: The Eyes of Jesus. Sunday, A. M.: Is Your Christ First or Second Place Christ?

Sunday, P. M.: What Would Jesus Do?

Monday: The Sin Against the Holy Spirit.

Tuesday: In the Steps of Jesus.

Wednesday: The Great Salvation.

Thursday: So Near and Yet So Far.

Subjects for the rest of the meeting will be announced later.

Former Employee Of The News Seeks Legislature Job

Whitaker Announces For Legislature Friends and acquaintances in Tahoka were greatly surprised last week to learn that Emmett Whitaker, formerly linotype operator for this paper, had announced as a candidate for the legislature. Emmett has been employed in newspaper and printing shops at Sweetwater, Lamesa, Plainview, Tahoka, and other places, and is a pretty good printer. For the past two or three years he has also been preaching occasionally and recently he was called to the pastorate of the Baptist church at Sparenburg in Dawson county. He is a young man about 21 years of age and has a robust ambition to climb to the top. He made many friends while here but nobody dreamed that he had any designs on the legislature.

Mexico Sends Representative To Meet

Amarillo, June 16.—The Mexican government is taking official notice of the annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Amarillo June 21-22-23 by sending a representative to convey the greetings of that nation. Consul General of Mexico A. P. Carrillo, it is announced, will be officially sent to perform this mission and he has been assigned a place upon the general program Monday morning. Consul General Carrillo will also be invited to speak to the executive board at its meeting.

Senor Carrillo speaks the English language with great fluency and possesses a very pleasing personality.

WILL GET GOOD WATER SUPPLY

Work Goes Forward On Wells; Doak Says Water Will Be Plentiful Soon

The prospects are that Tahoka will soon have plenty of water, according to I. S. Doak, alderman, who is looking after the drilling of additional wells for the City.

A stratum of water-bearing sand was struck Monday at a depth of about 80 feet in the well being drilled east of the water plant. Casing is being put in the well and it is being gravel-treated, and Mr. Doak thinks that it will probably be one of the strongest wells the City has. The well drill was moved to another location further east and a second well was begun Wednesday morning. It is the intention of the council to drill three other wells following the completion of this one. If they prove to be of average strength, they ought to furnish a water supply sufficient for all the purposes of the city. Mr. Doak says that they are going to procure a sufficiency of water at the earliest date possible, if it is possible to find it.

The citizens of Tahoka will greatly appreciate an abundant water supply and we feel sure that they strongly approve the efforts of Mr. Doak, the mayor, and other members of the city council in their efforts to procure water.

PRESBYTERIANS BEGIN CHURCH

Will Be Modern Structure. To Be Completed At An Early Date

Work was begun on the new Presbyterian Church Tuesday morning, and today there are 12 or 15 carpenters at work on the building. It is hoped to have it completed and ready for occupancy by July 1.

The building is situated just northwest of the Methodist Church and is in a splendid location. The building is to be 32 by 44 feet in size. It will have a stucco finish on the outside and a sheetrock finish inside. It will not be a large building but will be a very neat and attractive one. The estimated cost is $3,500. It faces the west and the north.

The Presbyterian Church here is not numerically strong but it has been growing under the leadership of their splendid pastor, Dr. W. K. Johnson of Lubbock. The people of Tahoka are congratulating the Presbyterians that they are to have a beautiful church home of their own. The building will not only be of great utility to the Presbyterians but it will add to the civic attractiveness of the city.

Business Men Are Cleaning City Park

At the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis Club Wednesday it was decided to ask the business men to meet at the City Park this afternoon (Thursday) for the purpose of cleaning it up. Each business man and other citizens of the city are asked to come and bring a hoe. The rains this spring and summer have caused the weeds to grow luxuriantly and they not only mar the beauty of the park but they sap the ground and hinder the growth of the young trees. Just by a little attention the City Park can be made a real beauty spot. We are sure that the civic pride of our citizens will cause them to respond to this call.

Tahoka Band To Give Second Concert

W. R. Lacey announces that there will be another band concert given by the Tahoka band on the court house lawn next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A great number of Tahoka people will doubtless be present to hear the program. Come out and enjoy the program and at the same time give encouragement to the band.

KIWANIS MAY PROVIDE PARK

Talk Establishment of Play Ground For Tahoka And Lynn County

At the Kiwanis luncheon Wednesday I. S. Doak proposed that the Kiwanis Club consider the matter of procuring a tract of land out at Tahoka Lake and converting same into a park. Other sites were also mentioned. A committee was appointed to investigate the feasibility of the plan and report back to the Club. There are a number of places in the vicinity of Tahoka where water could be procured, trees set out, and a beautiful park created within a few years time. Tahoka Lake affords possibly the best natural location for such an enterprise. Tahoka is beginning to feel the need for such a playground.

W. G. Briley also suggested that the business men of the town take some concerted action toward procuring U. S. flags to be displayed on all patriotic occasions. The matter was discussed by other members but no definite action was taken. The suggestion was a most timely one and the probabilities are that the business men will take some definite action in the matter at an early date. It was pointed out that most neighboring towns display U. S. flags lavishly on all patriotic occasions, and Tahoka should certainly not lag behind in this respect.

WOMEN TO HAVE CONTESTS SOON

County Wide Biscuit And Dress Making Contests Will Be Held Here

On June 23, the Women's Biscuit Contest will be held in the Domestic Science laboratory at the high school building in Tahoka.

At 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon the Women's and Girl's Clothing Review will be held, at the Baptist Church. Other sewing completed by girls will be on exhibit.

Then on June 23, the one woman in each Club who made the best score in the Elimination Contest will compete for the Kiwanis Short Course Scholarship.

Strickland Locates In Rio Grande Valley

W. A. Strickland packed up his earthly belongings a few days ago and headed south. The News received a communication from him this week dated at Rio Hondo, which is situated in the lower Rio Grande Valley only a short distance from the Gulf. Mr. Strickland writes as follows:

I am in a land where they have plenty of streams; where they raise bananas, oranges, grape fruit, lemons, limes, carrots, raspberries, strawberries, sugarland dates, egg plants, and a thousand other things. Now I want the Lynn County News to read while I eat.

The News will be sent to his address.

Goodnough Operated On For Appendicitis

D. H. Goodnough was taken to a sanitarium at Lubbock last Friday where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. Reports from the sanitarium are to the effect that he is recovering nicely and he is expected to return home next Sunday. Mrs. Goodnough is with him at the sanitarium.

Tahoka Girl Wins Honors In Tech

Miss Floy Anglin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Anglin of this city, won first prize for the highest grade made by any student in Home Economics in the session of the Texas Technological College just closed.

Miss Anglin was the valedictorian of the class of 1925 of the Tahoka High School, having made the highest average grade of any member of the class of that year. Her many friends here are congratulating her upon her success at the Tech.

ADULT SCOUTS SEE NEW CAMP

Inspection Made Of Camp; Men Enjoy Half-Day's Outing Near Post

Featuring cooking over an open fire, games and contests, and swimming, a combined meeting of the Men's Training Classes of the South Plains Area Council, B. S. A., was held at the newly acquired Scout encampment grounds southwest of Post Tuesday afternoon and night.

Fifty-four men were present at the meeting, fourteen of whom were from Tahoka. Talks were made during the evening by Camp Commissioner K. N. Clapp, Executive H. B. Palmer, and Executive W. S. Barcus of the Buffalo Trail Council composing Nolan, Fisher, Scurry, and Mitchell counties.

The primary purpose of the meeting was expressed as being to acquaint the men with the camp site. All present were highly elated over the gift from the C. W. Post Estate, and big plans are being made for the improvement of the property. The land is very rugged, grows several species of trees, bird and animal life is very abundant, and sufficient water may be had for camp purposes. Officials are seeking to raise $5,000 within the next few weeks with which to build a bunk house, cook house, mess hall, and a dam to afford a lake. The old headquarters ranch house is located on the tract, and this large building is now being repaired for the use of the Scouts.

Plans are under way for a huge celebration and barbecue to be held on the encampment grounds on June 29, when all the people of the 12 counties composing the South Plains Council who are interested in the work of the Boy Scouts will be urged to visit the camp as guests of the Boys Scouts and Officials.

Lamesa, O'Donnell, and Lamesa ran neck-and-neck for first place in the various Scout contests held during the afternoon and evening.

Many Will Hear Moody At Lubbock

The indications are that many people from many points on the south plains will be in Lubbock next Saturday night to hear Dan Moody, candidate for governor. According to the Big Spring Herald, a delegation from that city will be there. Since Moody will not likely visit this part of the state again during this campaign, almost every town in this section will afford a delegation. Many are going from Tahoka. Quite a good many from the eastern portion of the county will hear him in Post Saturday afternoon, and it is expected that he will address an immense crowd there. But the biggest political meeting in the history of the south plains is expected at Lubbock Saturday night.

Welch Buys Hall Robinson Building

J. C. Welch closed a deal last week whereby he became the owner of the Hall Robinson building, heretofore occupied and used by C. D. Keever as an automobile sales room.

Mr. Welch says the interior of the building will be remodeled and repainted throughout and that a new glass front will be put in. As soon as the desired repairs are made he will move his grocery business into this building.

OIL PROSPECTS ARE EXCELLENT

Company Thinks They Will Get Oil: Will Push Work As Soon As Possible

J. B. Nance had a letter this week from J. J. Hart, president of the Hart Oil Corporation, in which he states that despite the fact that the Company has had much trouble and delay in drilling their well west of Tahoka and have already gone to enormous expense, they are determined to complete it as soon as possible, and express the utmost confidence that they will find oil at this location.

Mr. Hart also states that they expect to begin work on the well southeast of Tahoka at an early date.

We take the liberty of quoting one paragraph from Mr. Hart's letter, with the consent of Mr. Nance, as follows:

"We have a great deal of trouble with the present well and have spent enough money to have drilled it and certainly enough time to have drilled it twice over, but regardless of cost and regardless of time the well will be completed and we are going to open up an oil pool in your county that will make your city the best town on the plains. I have no doubt what ever of this."

We understand that the drillers are down 800 feet with the T-Bar well but drilling operations are shut down temporarily.

C. C. Committees Are Announced

G. H. Nelson, secretary of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, has announced the appointment of the following committees.

There will be plenty of work for each of these committees to do, Mr. Nelson thinks, and if they all keep busy great things will be accomplished for Tahoka and Lynn county.

The committees follow:

Finance: W. B. Slaton, R. H. King, Buck Briley, E. H. Boulton;

Membership: Mrs. J. B. Walker, Mrs. Raymond Weathers, Mrs. Grover Stewart, Mrs. Buck Briley, T. H. Speight, Emory Nance, I. S. Doak;

Publicity: W. E. Smith, B. P. Maddox, E. L. Hill, Mrs. Frank Hill, Highway and Immigration: Belton Howell, T. J. Bovall, R. H. King.

Industrial: J. B. Nance, W. C. Wells, Chester Connolly, Hall Robinson, A. L. Lockwood.

Social: Mrs. W. B. Slaton, Mrs. C. B. Keltner, Mrs. Buck Briley, Mrs. C. B. Townes.

New machinery is arriving every day now, according to E. Lam, for the repair of the old red gin. He and S. N. McDaniel are busy putting the same in repair for the cotton season next fall.

NEW BUILDINGS ARE COMPLETED

Robinson and Craft Buildings Completed; Both Are Modern Structures

The Hall Robinson building which has been under construction on the west side of the square for the past several weeks has been completed and it will be occupied at once.

Hubert Davis will conduct a confectionery in the front portion of the building and already some of his fixtures have been placed. His fountain, he says, is the latest and the best of its kind in the county, with a 30-gallon ice-cream capacity. He expects to open for business the latter part of this week or the first of next.

The City Bakery will occupy a portion of the building. We are unable to state just when it will move in.

The new brick of L. F. Craft on the west side of Sweet Street has also been just completed, and Mr. Craft is moving his tailor shop into this building today (Thursday). This is an attractive little building and Mr. Craft's shop will be the south plains.

HE KNEW TOO MUCH ABOUT IT

A college professor, says the Argonaut, calling at the home of a friend, was engaged in conversation by the latter's small daughter, who apparently felt called upon to entertain the guest. So she announced she would tell him a story. "There was once, a man named Columbus," she began, "an," a queen sent him on a voyage, an' his ships were named the Ninta, the Pinta and— and—"Santa Maria," prompted the professor. "Yes, and the queen's name was—was" Isabell," suggested the professor. "Professor," demanded the child, with sudden suspicion, "have you ever heard this story before?"—Youth's Companion

O'Donnell Water Bonds Defeated

The majority of those voting at the bond election Tuesday signified that they did not want waterworks for the city. The issue was defeated by twelve votes.

The bond issue in the sum of $18,000 to take up the curb and gutter warrants was carried by one vote.

Those opposing the issue gave as their reasons for so doing was the fact that O'Donnell could not afford to pay the price to cover the entire city with a system of waterworks, but almost to a voter favored constructing a system in the down town district and when the taxable values grew to warrant it, they would vote for its extension.

The campaign for or against was not heated and the election came to a close with everybody in a good humor.—O'Donnell Index

O'Donnell Street Preacher Is Fined

The second trial of a street preacher arrested a couple of weeks ago for begging, was held before Mayor Kibbe Wednesday. The jury in the case brought in a verdict of guilty and a $5.00 fine was assessed. The first trial was held last week in which the jury failed to agree.

According to the defendant's testimony, he had been warned by the City Marshal not to solicit money on the streets without first obtaining a permit from the proper authorities. He declined to do this, giving his reason that he believed the law unjust and did not intend to obey it. The case was appealed to the county court.

The report had been circulated that the preacher had been arrested for preaching and that the city had an ordinance against street preaching. This is a mistake. Acting upon a petition of a number of business men who were being embarrassed almost daily by beggars of almost every description, the city council passed an ordinance against soliciting money on the streets without first obtaining a permit from a committee appointed for the purpose of investigating the merits of each case. This was the first violation of the ordinance, all others soliciting alms have complied with the law.—O'Donnell Index

REDWINE NEWS

I know not how true this news may be,

I'll tell it as 'twas told to me. One thing I know, we had a few hours of hot wind Monday. I can't like that much.

Mr. Wilbur Holloway and his wife and sister, Mrs. Thos. Smith, had business at Littlefield and Amherst Saturday.

Mr. West Tunnell and family have returned from Llano and other eastern cities, where they visited old-home friends, and relatives. Had a fine time, of course.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Garrett have a real sick baby, caused from eating fly poison. We are glad to report it better. Other young mothers take notice.

There is sickness in the Pennington home this week and Jewell Smith is helping there. I do wonder what these people did for sick help before Thos. Smith's family lived here. They are forever on the job. Such people are worth while.

I was glad to read the Lynn news last week. We did miss them so much while they took their vacation. Say, Lynn, I want to congratulate you in getting Mr. and Mrs. Price to teach your school. Now you will grow. You can organize a joker's club, for Prof. Price is full of wit and sense. I knew him of old. We are glad to have him in Lynn county.

Have you people ever heard Brother Eldridge talk on the subject of young folks. If not you have missed a great treat. I agree with him. Never was there better boys and girls. We have them at Redwine right in the Sunday School class but not at all Saturday dances. We don't mind them going to their little games of ball on Sunday eve. They have to go somewhere.

My! My! This is such a busy time everywhere there is farm work. You know there is a time for all things, and the blue weeds and careless wait for no one.

There was quite a number of people who attended the big singing at Post Sunday.

Mrs. Nell Berry has a real sick child. Also her mother, Mrs. Langford, is sick but is better.

Visiting Lady Victim Of Painful Accident

Miss Annie Moss of Fort Worth and her mother, Mrs. Sophie Moss of Elmer, Oklahoma, arrived Saturday to visit the family of J. S. Weatherford, Mrs. Moss being a aunt and Miss Moss a cousin of Mr. Weatherford.

On Sunday Morning Miss Moss became the victim of a peculiar and rather serious accident. While walking across the room at the Weatherford home she stepped off the rug on to the floor, when her foot slipped and she fell, inflicting an injury to the knee. The injury became so painful that a physician was summoned, who advised that the patient be taken to Lubbock for an X-ray examination. The examination at Lubbock revealed the fact that the ligaments at the knee had been torn loose and it was necessary for the injured limb to be placed in a plaster cast. Physicians advised that the patient might be able to walk within the next few days while on the other hand she might be unable to walk for several weeks.

Miss Moss is a teacher in the public schools of Fort Worth and has held her present position for more than twenty years.

Frank Johnson of Roscoe, who has been elected coach and teacher of Science in the Tahoka High School for next year, was in the city Saturday, looking over the situation and getting acquainted with the people. Frank was delighted with the town and had many compliments to pass upon its beauty and attractiveness. He had several old-time friends here, upon whom he called while in the city.

Roy Dobbins of Roscoe, who holds a responsible position in the offices of the R. S. & P. Railway Company of that city, visited Tahoka last Saturday, being the guest while here of his sister, Mrs. G. M. Stewart.

PROCLAMATION
By The Governor Of The State Of Texas

TO THE CITIZENS OF TEXAS:

In an effort to decrease the hazard of collision between trains and automobiles upon grade crossings, the railroads of the United States have, for the fifth consecutive year set aside the period June 1st to September 30th as a "no accident" period and will, by all means at their command endeavor to add to the education of the public in a campaign which has for its watchword or slogan "Cross Crossings Cautiously".

Mindful of the fact that many of our people are killed and injured upon railroad grade crossings within the State because of collisions between trains and automobiles, and realizing that the majority of the accidents could have been averted by a greater caution, and many tragic disasters prevented, by the exercise of greater care; and further appreciating that only in the education of our drivers to the extreme hazard of the grade crossing can we hope to secure a greater freedom from these unfortunate accidents.

I am therefore urged by the dictates of common humanity to make cause with the railroads in their efforts to save life and limb, and would call upon the people of Texas to make the period June 1st to September 30th, a period which shall give happy testimony of their adherence to a primal law of nature that of self preservation and the preservation of those dear to each of them. Let caution be your guide, and thought, destroy a hazard that carelessness is certain to engender.

The automobile has become one of the potent influences of our existence. Let us make it a greater and more permanent blessing by robbing it of part of its capacity for harm, and in the complete education of the driver find some sort of panacea for an evil that we cannot disregard. Life is worth every possible protection and a minute lost at the grade crossing is surely a small price to pay for safety.

Therefore, I, Miriam A. Ferguson, as Governor of Texas, do proclaim and set aside the period from June 1st to September 30th as "No Accident" period and urge the people of Texas to help to lessen the hazards of the grade crossing.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name and affixed the Seal of State at Austin, this the 29th day of May A. D. 1926.

Canyon, Texas, June 9, 1926.

Dean E. W. Grabill of Los Angeles, one of the foremost piano teachers of the United States, with Mrs. Grabill, arrived in Canyon Sunday to take up his work with the West Texas State Teachers College.

Dean Grabill is offering two courses the first six weeks of the summer session, one in keyboard harmony, the other in aesthetics of piano playing; a very limited number of advanced piano pupils are being taught by Mr. Grabill.

The music department of the Teachers College which is headed by Professor Wallace R. Clark has in its summer faculty besides Dean Grabill, Miss Pauline Brigham, Hazel Allen, and Mae Slack, pianists, Mary Clark, violinist, Hall Axtell, cellist.

Housework Worth
$300 a Year, but—

Nine hundred dollars a year is the value of the average housewife's services in the home, and statistics show there are 20,700,000 women engaged in housework according to Mrs. Leonora Z. Meder, prominent Chicago woman lawyer and economist.

"The wife," said Mrs. Meder, who was formerly commissioner of public welfare of Chicago, "is an executive, purchasing agent, budget expert, and producer rolled into one. The successful home maker studies food values. She arranges her budget so that the food she buys will have all the necessary body building qualities.

"The woman who would keep down her food bill will do better to spend her money on milk and green vegetables than on butter, though butter is one of the best sources of the essential food element, vitamin A. There are butter substitutes, but nothing can take the place of milk and vegetables.

"Milk, food experts say, is the most nearly perfect food. Science solved the problem by inventing evaporated milk, which is simply fresh cow's milk sterilized in cans and with sixty per cent of the water removed. Because evaporated milk is of double the richness of ordinary market milk many housewives dilute it half and half with water for cooking purposes. Keeping longer than ordinary milk, there is no waste from souring. Then too, it is cheaper.

"Savings also can be made on meat. Cheaper portions of beef skillfully cooked are highly nutritious and often better tasting than portions which cost more. The shoulder, breast and stew meat of lamb are excellent. Pork shoulders, feet, tails, heart, spare ribs and hocks are in the same category."

Dr. McCoy Returns To Tahoka Again

Dr. J. H. McCoy has moved back to Tahoka from Desdomona and has opened offices on the second floor of the Wells building, the lower story of which is occupied by J. S. Wells and Sons.

Dr. McCoy was a resident of Tahoka many years, having first removed here 23 years ago for the practice of his profession. In fact he was here when Lynn County was organized and he helped to organize the county. Twice he moved away, he has been practicing medicine the past few years. He now comes back to Tahoka with the intention of remaining permanently.

Dr. McCoy is a son-in-law of J. S. Wells and is well known throughout the county, particularly among the old settlers. Many friends will welcome him and his good family back.

Mrs. Ollie K. Carson of Washington, D. C. is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Knight. She will remain here through the summer.

THE COMMITTEE GIVES ITS ORDERS TO THE PARTY

One is led to wonder what the Executive Committee of the Democratic Party in Texas will be thinking about if the voters disregard instructions and vote in conclusive numbers for some other candidate for Governor than Mrs. Ferguson. Ostensibly the committee is the servants of the party and its recent meeting was for the purpose of arranging things so that the party might speak its own mind as to gubernatorial timber. The committee's action in singing out one of the candidates for its indorsement is not of unprecedented assurance, not to say impudence. But that is only because Texas has many political precedents of usurped and misused authority.

Issued later in the year, when the standard bearer of the party is, proforma at least, making war upon its traditional foe, the indorsement might properly come from the committee, although even then it might be looked upon as a superfluity without probable weight or influence. The point is not that the executive committee has no real function of usefulness. Quite the contrary is the case. But the point is that the majority of the committee has deserted its post of representing the party to seize that of healding the alleged virtues of a single candidate. If we needed any evidence of the vice of allowing a candidate to pack the executive committee following election we have abundant illustration of that evil in this action.

But if the committee overstepped its authority, it might at least have kept within hailing distance of the realities of the situation. In pretending to argue for a second term for the Fergusons, of course, it affects to ignore practicalities which are within the knowledge of every Texan who knows enough to count as high as four. The Fergusons are now serving their third term on a quantitative basis. That a good Governor should have to depend upon the second term tradition or that a bad one should be able to derive strength from it is perhaps shameful to the intelligence of Texas voters. But this is an election in which that fetich of petty politics is, or ought to be, obsolescent. The Fergusons have had more than their second term already. All that the Democracy of Texas has to do is to make up its mind which of the candidates will make the best Governor. And that it is able and likely to do so without the regard for officious and specious indorsements of the incumbent by a committee which has no business to indorse anybody at this time.—Dallas News.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of the News,
will be gladly corrected when called
to our attention.

If any one will undertake to go from Tahoka to Three Lakes or to Wells or to New Moore he will come to realize how badly Tahoka needs a good public road leading to these communities and how badly these communities need a good public road leading to their county seat. There is no public road leading to Three Lakes.

In order for the people of that community to reach Tahoka they must follow a winding, unworked road that wears its way through the T-Bar pasture. The News has heretofore agitated the matter of a public road to Three Lakes. The people of that community have implored and pleaded with their commissioner for a road to Tahoka. The only excuse for not opening such a road, as we understand it, is that some of the land lies along the proposed route are in dispute. But when is the location of these lines to be settled? Are the people of Three Lakes and Tahoka to wait until some party at interest may go to court and after years of litigation get his land line established? If so, they may wait forever. By all means this road should be opened. We believe that if the people of Tahoka and the communities interested will go to work on the proposition in earnest and in unison, they can bring sufficient pressure to bear on the proper authorities to get the road opened and graded. As long as we do nothing, nothing will be done. There is a road leading to Wells and thence to New Moore, but from the point where it leaves the Tahoka-T-Bar
road to the point where it intersects
the Wells-O'Donnell road it has never been graded nor otherwise worked.
Those people are entitled to a good graded road to their county seat. Tahoka should have a good road leading into these communities. But Tahoka will never have such a road as long as Tahoka does nothing to procure it. We think this road business is of vital importance to Tahoka. It is of prime importance to the communities affected. Let's get busy on the public road situation.

Jim Ferguson seems to be getting disgusted. In a speech at Arlington a few nights ago he advised his hearers to vote for Lynch Davidson
if they were too prejudiced to vote for Ma, declaring that Lynch was a good man. The next day Lynch made a speech in which he stated that he could not return the compliment and he has since been denouncing Ferguson's endorsement of himself as a trick of Jim's to make it appear that the race is between Jim and Dan. Lynch appears to be afraid that Jim's endorsement of him will hurt him. He need not worry.
Jim was only trying to win the favor of Davidson and his followers, for he feels sure that he will need them in the second primary. Lynch and a few of his followers will probably support Ma in the second primary.
If a second primary is necessary,
but we are predicting that most of Davidson's followers will fall in line
for Dan Moody after Davidson's elimination. Most of them are tired of the Ferguson regime. But many are now predicting that there will be no second primary, so far as the governor's race is concerned. Dan's the Man.

SOME ODDIOUS COMPARISONS THAT ARE NOT SO ODDIOUS

Comparisons are frequently made as to the number of murders committed in the United States and in England annually according to population, to the great disparagement of our own country. Like comparisons are made as between the northern and southern states, to the great disparagement of the South.
Like comparisons are also made as to the percentage of convictions for murder in this country and in England, to the discredit of this country
and especially of the southern states.
England is held up as a model in law enforcement and our own southern states are continually berated
for their laxity in this regard.

It is true that there are a great many more murders according to population in the South than in any other civilized country in the world.
We say this with a sense of shame
for our own beloved Southland.

But there are certain reasons for this not usually taken into consideration by those who wish merely to gain a point or to chide our Southland.

In the first place, we have a large negro population and in some sections a large Mexican population—a condition which does not obtain elsewhere. Many of our homicides are committed by members of these races. Many others are committed as a result of racial troubles between whites and negroes or whites and Mexicans.

But there is still another reason why more homicides are committed in the South than elsewhere. The chastity and virtue of womanhood is nowhere prized quite so highly nor guarded quite so scrupulously as in the South. In Texas and in the South, when a man's female relatives have been outraged or even im-mured, he feels that he has a God-given right to immediately procure a gun and sniff out the life of the offender. Marital infidelity on the part of a wife is regarded as sufficient provocation for the husband to blow out the brains of the third party to the triangle. Public sentiment sustains the fathers, and brothers, and husbands of the Southland in this attitude, and consequently when one of them is arraigned in court for a homicide of this kind, he invokes the "unwritten law" and a jury acquits him. Perhaps two thirds of the homicides committed in the South arise out of family troubles of this nature. In England public sentiment does not justify nor sus-tain any man who commits a homicide from any such provocation. The public regards him as a murderer, in the same class with the midnight assassin or the highway robber, and when he is arraigned in court he can hope for no mercy nor clemency by pleading the "unwritten law." When the men of the South change their attitude toward womanhood, when they cease to respect and secretly

guard the sanctity of their homes, when they leave the women to take care of themselves and refuse to be concerned because of insults to ward and seduction of their female relatives, then will homicides in the South be decreased at least fifty per cent.

The Klan issue is dead. Let all good people, regardless of past differences and past affiliations, get together on a good man for governor.
We believe that man is Dan Moody.

The excessive rains recently have caused the weeds to grow exceedingly rank in parts of the city. We wonder if some organization could not foster and put into execution
some plan to get rid of the weeds.
They are both unsightly and un-sanitary.

A SMALL BOY'S SONG

It was a Sunday-school entertainment, and one of the participants was a small boy, the son of the sexton, an Englishman who had served his country as a leading signalman in the World War. The boy had never taken part in any of the public affairs of the Sunday school before and was known to his classmates chiefly for being the most amazingly skillful and aggressive little boxer of the Boy Scout troop that meets once a week in the vestry. His father had trained him.

But this occasion was quite a different matter. His part was a humorous song, to the accompaniment of the piano. He had committed it to memory, and he sang without notes; but as a precautionary measure he carried the words on a card that he held half concealed in one hand.

The first two or three stanzas went well. Then memory failed. There was a moment of smiling hesitation, then a frank look at the card. Meantime the piano waited. The light on the platform was poor, and the boy couldn't read his lines. With a slight shrug of the shoulders and an engaging smile at the audience, he stepped over to the side of the accompanist,
where the light from the piano lamp fell on the card. He glanced at it a moment, nodded to the pianist; the music started, and the song went on smoothly to the end. Then the boy bowed and stepped down.

ASLEEP ON THE JOB

"They say Germany is hoisted," said the man from the South, "but she is today shipping nitrogen products into the United States. Before the war Germany was importing from 700,000 to 800,000 tons of Chilean nitrate annually. Now, by the use of her war-built plants (like our Muscle Shoals) she is not only supplying her domestic needs but is selling her surplus to the United States. Funny, isn't it? Take the dye situation. Before the war we were dependent largely on Germany for our dyes. Then came the war and stoppage of importations. Germany had taken out patents on dye manufacture in the United States but she had purposely left gaps in the formulas. Without the missing links we were helpless. Later on a manufacturer imported two skilled German dye workers who filled in the missing portions of the formulas and we are today independent of the German supply. It takes a crisis to bring results in the United States, but no crisis seems sufficient to call the United States to free the farmers of the country from their dependence on Chile for nitrates. Keeping over every acre of our land, in the atmosphere,

are 33,800 tons of nitrogen
and yet with processes
for fixing the nitrogen of the atmosphere commercially we dawdle along at Washington and seem to suffer no humiliation of national pride that Germany is shipping us air nitrogen fertilizer. Meantime, eight years after the war, one of the largest air nitrogen plants in the world, built by the government at Muscle Shoals during the war, remains idle and the only thing at work at our air nitrogen plant at Muscle Shoals is rust."

STATE COUNSEL FOR DEFENSE IMPRACTICABLE

Dallas News.—In "Letters From Readers" in Wednesday's News, A.
H. McCarty of Fort Worth advocates free counsel for all litigants in both civil and criminal cases.

This may seem strange to some but is it any more unusual than the case of the man who recently applied to a County Judge, Sheriff and County Attorney for free medical treatment, admitting that he had caught a disease in an adjoining county and demanded that he be given such treatment at the expense of the county and that it was the duty of the county to care for and support him while he was undergoing such treatment.

The result of Mr. McCarty's free counsel would be to say to the criminal:
"Go, commit crime, murder, robbery, burglary, theft and rapine, for the likelihood is that you will never be caught; but if you are, you can demand free counsel at the cost of the good, law-abiding citizen taxpayers of the State, and it will be the duty of the great State of Texas to see that you get defended absolutely free of all costs to you, the criminal."

It is a well-known fact that punishment of criminals is much surer in England than in America, and thoughtful observers of history will note what makes the difference. In England, Government comes first and criminals are taught that crime is certain to be punished, while the American Government was built up on an entirely different theory. America was settled by a liberty-loving people, and we have always been sight that personal liberty and personal rights are supreme, and our

Kentucky Man Finds Relief
from Dizzy Attacks.

"I suffered with severe bilious attacks that came on two or three times each month," says Mr. J. P.
Nevins, of Lawrenceburg, Ky.

"I would have dizziness and couldn't work.

"I would take pills until I was worn-out with them. I didn't seem to get relief. After taking the pills my bowels would act a couple of times, then I would be very constipated."

"A neighbor told me of Blacknever have found so much relief as it gave me. I would not be without it for anything."

"It seemed to cleanse my whole system and made me feel like new.
I would take a few doses—get rid of the bile and have my usual clear head, free bill of 'pep' and could do twice the work."

Made from pure, medicinal roots

EUZELIAN CLASS WILL CONDUCT PRAYER MEETING

Various classes of the Baptist Sunday School are conducting the prayer services on Wednesday nights, each taking its turn. The Euzelian Class will have charge of the services on Wednesday night of next week, and they have prepared a program for the occasion. You are cordially invited to be present. The program follows:

J. A. HUMPHRIES

Candidate For State Superintendent Writes

I have served in the public schools of Texas for twenty years. I have acquainted myself with the operations of the high schools, colleges and universities of our state. I know the methods used and the lessons taught and the too often stress placed upon the one to the neglect of the other. You realize with me that the great voice of Texas does not come from the centers of knowledge. It comes murmuring from the pines of East Texas; the farm lands of central and north Texas; the rugged and broken hills of south and south-west; the remote plains of the matchless panhandle country and the farm and factory belts of the coastal southeast, rolling and gaining volume until it comes to the home of the common people.

I propose, if elected, to dedicate my service to a democratic regeneration in the spirit of Education and as far as possible to unite a common sympathy of our higher institutions for the whole system of education, from the improvised rural school on up to the carved and frescoed dome of our state institutions.

My voter friend, you will admit that there is as much education in the analysis of an ear of corn as in the analysis of a complex sentence. Ability to analyze cotton and clover savers as much as the study of the dead languages.

If in these statements of fact you agree, then I am sure that you will also agree on another policy of government viz: That rotation in office is not only time-honored but time-respected. In this respect I desire to call your attention to the fact that Superintendent Marrs is seeking re-election for a THIRD term, in the face of an unbroken precedent of thirty years, while at the same time there is nothing in his record to justify his request.

During the next fifty days I will be busy campaigning the state but I invite questions touching the principles and policies of the office if elected. In the meantime I am glad to assure you that I have the endorsements in my office at Austin of state and federal officials, school teachers, college presidents, faculties and school boards but beyond and above all these is the expression of confidence by the boys and girls who have been an inspiration to me in the years past.

Sincerely yours,
J. A. Humphries

BACK HURT BAD

Lady Had Severe Pains in Back and Got Very Weak.

"I think very highly of Cardui for I have had great benefit from its use," says Mrs. Coors Nicholson, of Ware Shoals, S. C.

"I was in bed quite a while. It looked like my strength would not come back, and I suffered with severe pains in my back whenever I would try to get up. Sometimes I would scream out, my back hurt me so bad.

"My husband got me some Cardui and I took two bottles. Very shortly after I began to take it I could notice I felt better. I began to get stronger. My appetite was improving and I could see that I was much better.

"After I had finished the second bottle I was able to be up and do all my own housework, so of course I think Cardui is fine. It is the best tonic for women that I know anything about, and I am glad to recommend it. Not long ago I told a lady friend of mine about it, and it did her as much good as it has done for me."

Tahoka Men Attend Republican Meet

Postmaster Don A. Prikhurst county chairman Jack Alley and other citizens of Lynn county attended a big "get-together" meeting at Lubbock Wednesday. The meeting was held in the District Court room and a banquet was spread by the citizens of Lubbock at the Dormitory of the Texas Tech. Senator Bledsoe was toastmaster and presided in a most entertaining way, according to the Tahoka gentlemen in attendance, among the Republican leaders present were R. B. Creager, National committeeman from Texas; T. P. Lee, District Chairman from Houston; Orville Billington of Wichita Falls, vice-president of the state organization.

Many talks were made by the distinguished visitors and the delegates and the matter of holding primary elections in every precinct was stressed. Almost every city and town in the entire district was represented at the meeting.

MRS. JACK APPLEWHITE PAINFULLY SCALDED

Mrs. Jack Applewhite's feet and lower limbs were painfully scalded Wednesday morning when a kettle of boiling water was turned over and the contents spilled. Mrs. Applewhite had climbed upon a step ladder in her kitchen when she fell, her dress catching on a kettle of boiling water sitting on the cook stove, and turning it over. A physician was called and dressed the wounds. It is not thought that the injury will prove to be serious.

THREE FIRES DURING THE WEEK IS O'DONNELL RECORD

Two fires in one night was the record for Monday night. The first occurred at about 11 o'clock when the toilet in the rear of Carrol's blacksmith shop was destroyed, no alarm being turned in. At 1:30 the big siren called out the department to extinguish the flames from a toilet in the rear of the Chevrolet garage. The truck and fire fighters arrived in short order and prevented the destruction of a wire pole, but the building was a total loss. No insurance was carried on either building. How the fires originated is not known.

The fire department was again called out Thursday afternoon when an oil stove exploded in a shack home near the laundry Nightwatchman Parker had the fire put out when the truck arrived, very little damage being done—O'Donnell Index

It takes money to make money. It takes work to make the money produce. It takes co-operation at his task of work to make a creditable showing. My friends it is going to take all three of these to build Tahoka. The Chamber of Commerce is here to do the work of constructive building. Your moral and financial support are the things with which we are going to build. When some member of the membership committee calls on you, what is going to be your response? Are you going to do all the riding while a few do the pushing? or are you willing to push a little too? Let's make it mean something personally for one to be a member of the Chamber of Commerce; Let's make it mean something to Tahoka for us to be a citizen of the town. Let us put your name on the booster's record sheet this week.

J. A. Kinard of Big Springs, now connected with the State Weight and Measures Department, was here Wednesday on official business.

W. R. Lacey is in Amarillo this week, having left here Wednesday morning.

Dan Herdon and J. A. Childress of Sweetwater, long-time friends of the editor, had business in the city Monday.

Mrs. Sallie Hudson, sister-in-law to Chester Connolly, spent a few days here visiting, after which she went to Abernathy to visit other relatives.

Roy Golden and father, of Snyder were here Tuesday attending to business. They are very much interested in the oil well being drilled west of town.

Handling Of Traffic Is Question At C.-C.

Amarillo, June 16—One of the most serious problems confronting officials of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce in their preparations for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention here June 21-22-23, is that of traffic regulation and proper policing of the city. It is declared. This feature especially that of traffic, has been given a great deal of careful consideration, by those in charge.

As some of the measures being taken to solve the problem, it was announced by Toney Chisum, chairman in charge, that no parking will be permitted on Polk Street, from Third to Eighth, and on Fifth and Sixth streets, from Tyler to Lincoln, the street upon which the city auditorium is located. Fifth and Sixth are the streets which will be used most by traffic to and from the auditorium and it is necessary insofar as possible to keep these thoroughfares clean. Amarillo citizens are being urged to keep their cars out of the business district and at home as much as possible.

Emmett Flemming returned Sunday from Dallas where he spent his vacation. He was granted a four weeks vacation by the Santa Fe and as he wanted a quiet place in which to rest, he went down to Dallas. Emmett says he put in his time eating, sleeping, and attending the ball games. He had a great time. While in Dallas he was the guest of his sister. He went back on the job at the Santa Fe station Tuesday morning.

Wichita Falls—Bob Penick has been elected chairman of the On-to-Amarillo committee of the local Chamber of Commerce, Wichita Falls will operate a special train and will contest with San Antonio and Lubbock for the 1927 Convention.

POPULAR TENT SHOW HERE NEXT WEEK

The L. B. Wesselmans Comedians will commence a week's engagement here Monday night, June 21, and if we are to judge from newspaper reports and other recommendations, you will make no mistake in visiting this peerless company, for the press in our neighboring cities; where they have played, are very lavish in their praise of the company, their plays and vaudeville.

In addition to the well selected plays this company prides itself on its wonderful stage setting with special scenery and electrical effects, which contribute much to the beauty and impressiveness of the shows. It is worth the while of any one who likes clean amusement to attend these attractions and enjoy an evening in their spacious theatre.

The opening play will be a wonderful production entitled, "Honest Sinners and Sainly Hypocrit," a tremendously impressive story with more than its share of dramatic situations, unexpected turns and thrilling episodes. Be sure to see this feature.

Vaudeville will be given between the acts as well as popular selections from opera to jazz by our syncopated orchestra. Remember, all new plays, all new vaudeville specialties and one lady free Monday night with each paid adult ticket. Adv.

Crouch Writes Interestingly On Trip To New Mexico

The News has received the following communication from W. J. Crouch who left last week for Hot Springs, N. M. Mr. Crouch is a farmer living four miles west of Tahoka, but he knows how to wield the pen or the pencil in this case. If you love vivid descriptions, read this letter.

"In the course of human events," Thus the Declaration of Independence started off in the preamble to that famous document. So I am using the same words to get started off on this rambling letter to your readers, the only difference being that those old patriots were seeking independence and the writer is seeking health and banishment of rheumatic pains in the healing waters of these hot springs, "America's Carlsbad."

In company with our better half and youngest son, Clarence, we boarded the Studebaker car at 1 P. M. on Monday, June 7, and headed west across the level, treeless plains, a panoramic view familiar to most of your host of readers. We glided along the gravel-surfaced highway on schedule time, coached down the western caprock and out on the "Sand and Cactus and hot, dry wind, And the desert's parching heat, Only a lizard for sign of life As he darted in the sand at our feet.

Suddenly swinging to fertile lands With fields of the richest green, An oasis of promise and plenty to pay For the weary journey you have been."

We gazed out on the vast, enchanting scene as the incense of evening enfolds us. Far away to the west, across the blue outlines of the Capitan Mountains, two great piles of clouds reached for the last glow of sunset. We rolled down "Lovers Lane" with its majestic cottonwoods and sweet-scented alfalfa fields and gardens on either side, spent the night in a beautiful shade tourist park in Roswell, the Gem City of the Pecos Valley, noted for its mammoth apple orchards, artesian wells, and beautiful shade and ornamental trees. Irrigation has indeed made a veritable oasis of this magic valley.

Tuesday morning found us on our way, rolling upward and onward to the blue outlines of the mountains beyond. Scrubby cedars appeared on the foothills, and as we travelled up a canyon we passed the "Lone Pine" filling station. Other pines came into view and the trees grew taller and taller the higher up you go. We turned aside from the main highway and spent our noon-day hour at Ruidoso Springs, a new tourist resort, amid forests of evergreen. Off to the north only a few miles the snow-capped White Mountains glisten in the summer sun. We climbed upward over the driveway through the National Forest Reservation, amid pine-clad hills and mountain oak. We are now on the summit and the gas is turned off as we experience the thrills of coasting for several miles down the western slope. Indian villages of rude structure and the original tepee or wigwam appear by the roadside. Squaws, with shawls over their shoulders and raven-black locks, with a red bandanna band around their heads—relics of tribal days—then Mesalera, the headquarters of Uncle Sam, a nicely-built town with modern residences. What a contrast! There we saw some of the younger generation of Apache lassies with short skirts, bobbed hair, and the conventional face powder and lipstick. We here met Rae and Bonnie King and sister and Mrs. King on their way back from Hot Springs to Tahoka. Rea was feasting his eyes on the Indian Maidens and seemed reluctant to leave the fascinating scene.

Our next town was Tularosa, on the western slope of the mountain range. A few irrigated farms along Tularosa Creek were all that relieved the monotony of the route. To the west and southwest the Tularosa sands glisten on the desert like the sun-kissed waves of the ocean. Eighty miles west across one of the most desolate regions the writer ever traveled over, sage brush and bear grass are about the only vegetation that grows. Some of the latter grow six or eight feet tall and are a foot in diameter, look like they might be a century old. Then we pass up a rock-bottom canyon through the San Andres Mountains. Here we found the roadbed almost impassable, but a crew of hands were blasting and grading a road through the mountain passes, and when that is completed a direct route will be opened from here to Roswell.

The shades of night had fallen and lights were turned on as we rolled along the highway. The giant forms of beargrass presented a grotesque and weird picture by the wayside. A light came into view and soon we halted in front of a filling station, where a few scattered adobe houses dimly showed around us. We parked our cars (we had overtaken Mr. Davis, former owner of the St. Clair Hotel), prepared our evening meal, and while partaking of same the whistle of a locomotive sounded on the desert air and soon a train came speeding up to the depot near our camp. We had never discovered the track and had no idea that a railroad was in 50 miles of us.

Wednesday morning we crossed the railroad and headed west over rugged hills and deep, yawning chasms. Our roadway wound around curves and ledges of granite-walled hills. The roadbed had been cut from the solid rock walls. Another turn and the great Elephant Butte Dam burst into view. Blue, clear water stretched as far as the vision could behold toward the north. We parked our cars and walked out on the dam to admire this wonderful piece of masonry, the work of the United States Reclamation Service. Started July, 1910, and cost $5,000,000, used 655,000 barrels of cement. It is 1700 feet long at the top with a roadway 18 feet wide, 317 feet high from the foundation. The lake is 45 miles long and eight miles wide in places. The lake contains enough water to cover the state of Delaware two feet deep and is the largest artificial reservoir in the world. Motor boats and bass fishing furnish amusement for the tourist. After viewing the scenic grandeur and picturesque beauty of this wonderful scene we crossed over the dam, and for the first time in life the writer had passed "Beyond the Rio Grande." A few miles drive and we arrived at our destination in the town of Hot Springs, formally known as Palomas Hot Springs, where we are domiciled in the Gate City Apartment House, "Where the road goes gaily winding, Through the friendly foothills climbing, Many vagrant hearts are gypsying today; Where the deep blue waters plowing In the sunshine warm and glowing, There the silver Rio Grande winds its way."

LYNN COUNTY LEADS

Lynn county last year took her place as the leading cotton producing county of the plains. The number of bales ginned in Lynn county of the 1925 crop, according to Government report, was 42,189. This was an increase of about 4,000 bales over the crop of 1924 and an increase of about 17,000 bales over the crop of 1923. This increase was due largely to the fact that

Gypsum Plant Will Make New Product

Sweetwater, Texas, June 15.—Equipment for a new Texas industry the manufacture of a fireproof rock lath now is being installed at the mill of the United States Gypsum company here. According to present plans the new unit will be in production June 14.

Not only will this new factory give employment to more men, but it will increase the number of miners and the number of workers in the calcining plant where the gypsum is prepared for manufacture into the lath. Additional warehouse facilities also are being added to the property.

Construction is such that the daily capacity of the new unit can be increased as consumption of the product in the Southwestern states demands. The product consists of large panels of processed rock, encased in a heavy fibre binder, which are nailed to the inside framework of a building of any type, to be surfaced with plaster.

This lath, according to officials of the company, adds fire-protection and insulation to a home, because gypsum is incombustible and a low conductor of heat. And these advantages may be had at a slight cost, from the new product will sell for only a small percentage more than the cost of ordinary inflammable wood lath.

KEEP YOUR SHIRT ON

"I see you had a reference in your paper to the expression 'Keep your shirt on,' said the Friendly Reader. Your author explained it passably but not accurately. The origin of the matter goes back pretty far back to the time when they say that our forefathers were savages. Of course, that is untrue. We of Anglo-Saxon origin were civilized when Rome was a wilderness. The ancient Briton was thought a barbarian because he stripped for battle. Every British schoolboy, every British sailor does the same today. You see the dockmen stripped for action. The Anglo-Saxon soldier in battle has an irresistible propensity to get rid of every incumbrance that hinders his hardest blows. This was so foreign to what the Romans did that they thought the Britons barbarous. Indeed, in no other race will you find the propensity to strip for action. Taking off the shirt is, therefore, the sign of battle. It is a deep-rooted instinct in our people. Thus, when reference to this habit crops up in modern slang the expression 'Keep your shirt on,' it simply means, keep your fighting temper down.—Dearborn Independent

Vernon—More than seventy-five delegates are expected to attend the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention at Amarillo. Three cars of the special train has been reserved for Vernon, which will arrive in Amarillo the morning of the 21st returning to Vernon at 5:45 the morning of the 24th.

Fireman's Convention Great Delegates Say

Garrett Richards and Pete Coleman have returned from the State Firemen's Convention, which was in session at Harlingen in the Lower Rio Grande Valley last week. Garrett came in Monday afternoon and stated that Pete had stopped over in Coleman county to visit relatives, and he came in later.

Mr. Richards says that they had a great convention. There were about 4,000 delegates, and these together with many other visitors swelled the crowds to something like 10,000 people, it was estimated. Great addresses were heard. The matter of fire prevention was especially stressed and most of the speeches were educational in their nature. Garrett says that the crowd became impatient, however, as Jim Ferguson continued to speak on the day of his visit after his time was up, overlapping on the time for the races, and that the crowd finally broke up without his having finished his address.

The convention proper was in session Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. On Friday a big parade was staged from Harlingen to Brownsville and thence across the bridge to Matamoros on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, where a big barbecue was enjoyed. We did not embarrass the boys by asking what they had to drink at the barbecue and they did not volunteer to tell us. But Volstead has never been heard of on the other side of the Rio Grande. You can make your own guess.

LEVELAND VOTES $60,000 FOR SCHOOL BUILDING

Leveland, June 3.—The $60,000 bond issue for a school building voted on June 1, carried by one of the greatest majorities in the history of the county.

The bonds will be used to construct a $30,000 building in the town of Leveland, and $30,000 to construct a ward building 10 miles northeast from Leveland, but in the Leveland Independent district. The remaining $20,000 will be used to equip the two buildings and buy ten acres in the west part of the city to build an up-to-date high school building later on, and everyone seems to be of the same mind, that it will be necessary to erect the building the first of the year.

Building Gin

A new gin is being built nine miles east of Grassland at Graham Chapel by Thomas Bros. of Grassland. The gin will be one of the best in this section and will contain the very latest in gin machinery. A residence has been built for the manager E. S. Stewart has just opened a new filling station and store, and prospects are that a nice little country town is to spring up at Graham Chapel.

Amarillo Is Ready For Convention

Amarillo, June 17.—"All Set." This is the message Amarillo is broadcasting to the world on the eve of the 8th Annual Convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Fifty thousands of people who will swarm this city during the convention June 21-23-24 will find this sort of welcome to greet them, a welcome that has been the result of weeks of careful preparation and determined effort in the face of obstacles. Never before in the history of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has a convention loomed with such magnitude nor attracted such widespread attention as this.

Among the many thousands who will be here will be visitors from every portion of the United States, men and women drawn here by the influence which the phenomenal development of West Texas and especially of that section of West Texas of which Amarillo is the center, is exerting.

To all these Amarillo is opening her homes and her institutions with a hospitality not unworthy of her reputation. Everything that would assist or permit of greater convenience to her visitors and their entertainment while here has been done in so far as it has been possible. The citizens of Amarillo has shown themselves eager and energetic in their efforts, co-operating with their own Chamber of Commerce and the West Texas Chamber at all times in a manner that has meant much toward the successful consummation of the plans which have necessarily been attended with a great mass of detail. All that is humanly possible to do has been done, and Amarillo is ready. Her homes are open and her people are eagerly awaiting this opportunity to fulfill the pledge made at the convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Mineral Wells last year.

5,000 Pesos Paid For Shanklin's Release

Mexico City, June 12.—The American embassy has received official information that the Potra Sugar Company paid a ransom of 5,000 pesos on May 31 for the release of the American J. W. Shanklin from the hands of the bandits who had kidnaped him. Shanklin is an employe of this company, and his death was threatened unless the ransom was forthcoming. Up to now the embassy has been unable to ascertain whether the ransom had been paid, although Shanklin had returned to his work.

The embassy expresses satisfaction at the measures taken by the Mexican authorities to apprehend the bandits, although unsuccessful as yet.

Scout Camp Offers Many Opportunities For Nature Study

Sliton, June 14.—Camp commissioner K. N. Clapp, after making a two day's visit to the new Boy Scout Park near Post, recently donated by the heirs of the C. W. Post estate, has announced that he found twenty-six birds, and that in reality, he was not looking for birds! He says that he believes, forty varieties can be found by the Scouts, when they make a thorough study. Such a large variety of wild fowl, in so small a plot of ground, is very unusual and since bird study is one of the features of Scouting, from this standpoint the boys have a wonderful opportunity before them.

Commissioner Clapp, said that during his stay he found almost thirty varieties of wild flowers and nearly that many species of trees. The Boy Scouts, during their encampments will have a wonderful opportunity for the study of natural woodlore. An effort is to be made to further stock the camp will all sorts of various sorts are to be imported and loaned there to give the place a greater taste of wilderness.

Shrubbery from giant cottonwoods to small cedars about in the rugged canyon, including in the camp, and serve to make of it a place of unusual natural beauty. The Boy Scouts plan to preserve the present wild life and add to it whenever possible, that it may be a natural zoological garden, of the sort very seldom seen. On his trip, Clapp said he caught a fleeting glimpse of a bob-cat and that he thinks others will be found.
