Hats Off! To Citizens of O'Donnell

Judge B. P. Maddox informed us Thursday that O'Donnell had gone "Over the Top" by raising her quota in the United War Work campaign which starts November 11th and ends the 18th.

Hats off! to the little city of O'Donnell for having raised her quota before the campaign even started. We are proud of these patriotic Lynn County citizens on our south.

In our soldiers' letter in last week's issue, signed James R. Bright, it should have read J. C. May. People who have resided here any length of time recognized the mistake as soon as the paper came off the press. Mr. May was a jewelryman in the Thomas Bros. drug store here before entering the army, and has numerous friends in Tahoka and Lynn County who will be glad to learn that he is hale and hearty with the boys "Over there."

Prof. J. T. Stricklin made a business trip over near Meadow and Lubbock last week, returning to Tahoka Saturday. The Professor was expecting the school to begin last Monday, but on account of the "Flu" it was postponed another week.

Ollie Hallmark Dies at His Home Sunday

Ollie Hallmark, son of S. J. Hallmark, who lives about seven miles southwest of Tahoka, died October 27, 1918, at the residence of his father.

He returned from New Mexico several weeks ago, where he had gone for his health. He suffered with tuberculosis, which would not yield to climatic changes, nor medical skill, and in spite of all that friends could do, he succumbed to this dreadful disease.

The funeral service was conducted at the Tahoka Cemetery, Sunday, 3:00 p.m., by Rev. R. F. Dunn, in the presence of many friends, who deeply sympathized with the bereaved family, in the loss of their son and brother.

Many beautiful floral offerings were placed upon the grave by the friends of the family who were present.

Mrs. W. D. Smith and children left for Amarillo Wednesday, after a pleasant visit with her mother, Mrs. R. S. Davidson.

Mesdames Florence King and Lowrey King returned from Abilene Monday.

W. F. Hudman went to Abilene Wednesday.

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 23, 1918. Lynn County News, Tahoka, Texas.

My dear Sir: The best thanks which I can offer you for your part in the Liberty Loan Campaign is to tell you that unofficial returns show that we are likely to reach our quota.

I am sure you will regard this as a sufficient reward for all of your splendid effort. I appreciate more than I can say everything that you have done.

Very sincerely yours,
J. W. HOOPS,
Executive Manager.

Baptist and the War Work

There is no question as to the loyalty of the Baptist to our National Government in the prosecution of the war against German autocracy. By their earnest enthusiasm and immediate action along all lines pursued by our Government since our entrance into the war, Baptist have proven their unbounded loyalty to the flag and all it stands for, and this attitude, they will maintain until the last moment of the conflict, and Old Glory floats triumphantly over the Kaiser's palace in Berlin. Baptist have ranked among the first in their unstinted subscriptions to liberty bonds and war saving certificates. More than that, they are giving their boys to the war work at home and abroad and will continue to do so. Of course all this is taken for granted; but there are other matters which call for more specific notice.

Baptist colleges all over America, at great sacrifice and much expense have entered co-operantly and whole-heartedly into the educational program planned by our government in giving training to our youth of military age. The Red Cross, one of the great and blessed agencies of the war, has from the very beginning commanded the prompt and generous support of Baptists everywhere, and our Sunday Schools, churches and other Baptist organizations have given in a most generous fashion—their prorate of whatever this great agency required to carry on its beneficent work with our armies. The Red Cross makes its own plea; and this plea has been generously heard, and Baptist people have gladly put their resources at its disposal, and I speak with comforting assurance when I say that their interest and contributions will not decline toward this great and commanding cause.

Besides the Red Cross work, there are a number of relief movements which have constantly made their pathetic appeal, and have met with the heartiest sympathy and generosity of our people. The various funds for the relief of French and Belgium orphans and widows, for the help of the distressed protestant churches in France, and other needy causes created by this terrible war, continue to call upon the people of this country and Baptist people have always nobly responded. Among these funds stands conspicuous that for the Armenians and Syrians. The American committee for this work is located at No. Madison Avenue, N. Y. and the Sunday School feature of this appeal is under the care of Rev. Sidney A. Weston, D. D. It is proposed to make a special drive for this fund in December, and it is now being urged by our great Baptist leaders that the response to this fund be noble and large. In addition to the great causes just mentioned, the Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus, the Salvation Army, the Heb. Ass'n. have already begun their great consolidated drive for $170,000,000. This money is to be raised for the support of religious and related work in the camps in this country and among our soldiers in Europe. It is very unfortunate that at this particular time, two disturbing features have come up with regard to this matter. These are: (1.) The order for the removal of

Seal Him Up With W.S.S.

If you have heeded your Government's call and paid your War Savings Stamp Pledges this is where you have put Kaiser Bill. If for some reason you have not already liquidated that pledge be sure that it is paid by the end of this week. We have a reputation to uphold in this county and so have you. Get those W.S.S. right away. Straighten out your account with Uncle Sam.

camp pastor's; and (2.) The method of raising and distributing this great fund. A large portion of the funds raised will go to the support of the Roman Catholic and Jewish organizations; while in the actual conduct of worship, these are favored at the expense of evangelical denominations who give the most of the money. Baptists stand greatly embarrassed in regard to their contributions to this consolidated fund. Shall we give or shall we not give to help raise this $170,000,000.00, which to some extent will promote unionism and a very large part of which will go to the support of religious organizations, which, however benevolent, are at least, doctrinally, such as Baptists cannot consciously support? It is true, the amount contributed by Catholics, Salvationists and Jews may equal what will be granted to them from the total funds, which will relieve the situation somewhat. It has been suggested that Baptist designate their contributions, but this would only relieve the individual conscience, because all will have to be included in the general fund. In view of the situation, there are just three courses left to Baptist people: First, some may refuse to contribute to this fund at all, and give what they give to the Red Cross and relief funds instead of to this work in the camps, but our hope is that none will pursue this course. Second: Some may find no difficulty and feel no scriptural scruple in going on and giving generously without regarding the issues that have been raised. Third: There are others, who though, they feel keenly wronged by this arrangement, will still give their money, because they know that notwithstanding these troublesome features, the Y. M. C. A. is doing a much needed and helpful work among our soldiers, both at home and abroad, which we cannot afford to, and will not neglect. Not only so, but as a matter of loyalty to our Government, Baptist will give great aid to the raising of the colossal fund, though with a feeling of protest toward the consolidated scheme. On the whole, this seems to me to be the better course for us to pursue. And my appeal to Baptist of this section is for us to give largely to this great fund, knowing that the largest part of it will be used to accomplish work, both of a benevolent and spiritual sort, which we do not desire to see hindered or stopped. I greatly deplore the complications which have arisen to make it impossible for us to enter as cordially and enthusiastically in the campaign as we wish, yet, out of loyalty to the dear, gallant, fellows who are in the trenches, and out of loyalty to Uncle Sam, here goes for the best we can do, under the circumstances.

Respectfully,
L. L. F. PARKER.

Snow and Sleet Fell Over County Saturday

Last Saturday morning the inhabitants of Tahoka and Lynn County awoke to find a snow and sleet storm raging, something very unusual for the time of year. The snow put in its appearance this year before Jack Frost showed up. All day Saturday the flakes fell at intervals, but melted as soon as it came in contact with old mother earth. Sunday was a moderately warm day, but Monday was rather cool, and a fire was comfortable throughout the day.

Church Notes

Regular services at the Methodist Church, next Sunday morning and night.

Rev. W. E. Lyon, Presiding Elder, will preach at night.

This will be the last service until the meeting of Annual Conference at Lubbock, next Tuesday, 7:30 p. m.

Nothing preventing, the pastor will preach at Edith, next Sunday, 4:00 p. m.

R. F. DUNN, pastor.

There will be regular services morning and evening at the Baptist church, Sunday, Nov. 3rd. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

L. L. F. PARKER, Pastor.

General Election Next Tuesday

Don't forget that next Tuesday is General Election day over the United States, and every staunch Democrat should go to the polls and vote on this day, no matter if your favorite candidate was elected at the July primaries. Male voters only will vote at the General election.

P. W. Hamilton, manager of the McAdams Lumber Yard, returned Monday from Comanche, Texas, where he went last week to attend the funeral of a nephew. Mr. Hamilton reports an abundance of rainfall over that section of the country, it requiring four days and nights to make the return trip from Comanche to Tahoka.

J. N. Thomas' Brother Loses Arm and Leg

County Tax Assessor, J. N. Thomas, received a message the latter part of July stating that his brother, Aticus Thomas, had been killed in action on the battle fields in France. Nothing further was heard until the past week he received a telegram stating that his brother had arrived in New York, and had suffered the loss of an arm and leg. He went overseas with the first division of Pershing's forces and had seen active service in the front line trenches for several months. Mr. Thomas resides in the state of Alabama.

Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Callaway, came in Wednesday from Big Springs, Texas. Bro. and sister Callaway are well known to the older inhabitants of our town, he having been pastor of the Methodist church in Tahoka for a number of years. Their many friends here will be glad to meet them again. They are on their way to Lubbock to attend the Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. J. D. Donaldson, while in the city.

S. W. Joplin is in Amarillo on business, he having departed for that city yesterday.

Mrs. Lee Dawson Passes From This Life

Mrs. Lee Dawson was born January, 1890, in Stevens Co., Texas, and moved to Matador with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs, when a girl of seven, where she resided till married to Mr. Fred Dawson, in March 1905. To this union was born a son and a daughter, who together with husband, two brothers, one sister and mother and father survive deceased.

The beloved wife and kind, gentle and patient mother left this world for a better world, which shall never end, on October 25th [4:00 a. m.] 1918.

Mrs. Dawson was converted at the age of 17, and joined the Christian church, and lived ever thereafter a faithful member of same. Her faithful walk with her Master made a sweet loveable character, which proved an influence with her friends and loved ones.

So we would say, to the bereaved loved ones left behind, look up and beyond, this veil of sorrow and trouble—she is not dead, but only gone to wait the coming of friends and loved ones, who are to reap the reward of the faithful and just.

Notes From Our O'Donnell Scribe

D. W. Harris, of Higgins has put in the past few days here looking after his ranch interests. He left for home Saturday morning.

Clyde Frost and Dock Beach have opened up a meat market, selling choice beef about two times a week.

Influenza is still hanging on down here. Several cases at the home of J. J. Weems and Mrs. A. C. Jones in the north part of town.

School opens again at Plainview on Nov. 4th., if no "Flu" interferes.

Mrs. J. F. Shook is reported some better, but is still very weak.

Snow and sleet in October put in appearance Saturday 26th. Very unusual in these parts, and coming so early caught some feed still standing.

Mrs. John Walk, of Lordsburg, N. M., is reported dangerously ill with pneumonia, after a case of influenza. Jim Walk and Mrs. Ches Edwards, of Lynn county went to Midland to catch the west bound train last Wednesday to go to her bedside.

Dr. A. W. Thompson is still on the sick list this week, after an attack of influenza.

R. O. Miles and family and W. G. Allen and family spent Sunday at O'Donnell, at the home of F. O. Allen.

Clay McLaurin and family visited Mrs. E. C. Etter Sunday evening.

Young Folks Celebrate Halloween Last Night

A large crowd of Tahoka's young people celebrated Halloween last night with a social and "Movie" at the Lyric Theater. An unusually large crowd was present and several hours were spent in enjoying the different amusements provided for the evening. The young ladies were elegantly gowned in Halloween costumes. The young men donated the films for the show, which consisted of two reels of comic pictures, and was one of the most entertaining features of the evening's program. Thus it can certainly be said, that Thursday night, October 31, 1918, will be long remembered by these young people as one of the most royal entertainments of a life time.

Morgan Young Couple United in Marriage

Mr. Elmer H. McCall and Miss Eunice Beatrice Thompson, of the Morgan community, were happily married at Wilson on the 17th day of October. These young people have the best wishes of the News for a long and happy voyage over life's matrimonial sea. They will make their home on a ranch near Wilson.

J. E. Stokes, proprietor of the Stokes Hotel, was taken ill the first of the week, and is confined to his room for a few days.

Howard Tunnell went to Clovis, N. M., on business Wednesday.

Miss Christine Swan left Wednesday for a visit to Sweetwater, Fort Worth and Waco, Texas.

W. C. Cowan was down from Abernathy this week on business.

CENTENARY DAY IN THE NORTHWEST CONFERENCE

Lubbock Avalanche.

One of the most interesting features of Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which convenes November 6, at Lubbock, Texas, will be the "Centenary Day" which will be observed November 7. Bishop James Cannon of Virginia, will preside.

Among the speakers who will present the Centenary program will be Dr. W. W. Pinson, Dr. J. I. Neill, Mrs. J. W. Downs, of Nashville, Tenn.; Rev. F. S. Onderdonk, of San Antonio, and E. O. Watson, representing the War Work Commission.

The subjects to be discussed on "Centenary Day" will be "World Reconstruction after the War;" "God's Call to the Church in the World's Crisis;" "The Church's Opportunity to get Out of Littleness into Bigness." Bishop Cannon will be one of the principal speakers. A leading layman will discuss "Can We Put It Over?" and a stereopticon lecture will show the needs of the mission fields.

This year's annual conference session promises to be one of the most interesting and important in the history of the organization and while the Centenary Movement is already well known to the members of the conference, great interest will be aroused by the coming of these specialists who are highly trained in missionary activities.

The Centenary Movement includes a world program based on a careful survey of need and opportunity, and a vigorous campaign will be made to release the prayer power of the church by enrolling tens of thousands in the "Fellowship of Intercession" and training them as prayer helpers. The program also includes a Stewardship Drive to secure enrollment of millions of Methodists who will acknowledge their stewardship by the payment of the tithe.

During the next five years of the Centenary celebration there will be an earnest appeal made for life service, and strenuous efforts will be made to recruit a large number of new workers for the ministry, home and foreign missions, and for service in the local church.

In the next five years, the Southern Methodists expect to raise $35,000,000.00 to be applied to war work home and foreign missions, and church extension.

VOTE IN THE NOVEMBER ELECTION

All democrats in Texas are urged to vote in the November election. Texas is the banner democratic state in the Union and we are under sacred obligations to all mankind. The Texas democracy is directly responsible for President Wilson being in the White House today. At the Baltimore convention it was the superb leadership of the Texas delegation that put Hon. Woodrow Wilson over the top and made him the democratic nominee for President of the United States.

Two years from now the Texas democracy will have another chance to perform an everlasting service to this country and to the other nations of the world, and our ability to serve will be measured by our loyalty to the principles of democracy. Furthermore we owe to our young Gov. W. P. Hobby the unanimous endorsement of the people of Texas for his matchless stand in favor of good government when the interest of the people of the state and nation were hanging in the balance.

Let no loyal democrat be a slacker in this hour of world crisis, but vote Tuesday November 5th, 1918.

INSTRUCTIONS AS TO THE RED CROSS KNITTING

Sweaters.
Important Suggestions.
Casting on and binding off MUST be loose.

When knitting with two needles, always slip first stitch.

To measure a garment, lay it on a level surface and measure with a dependable measure (wood, metal, or celluloid, not a tape line.)

Terms used (applying to plain knitting with two needles): a "row"—once across; a "ridge" or "rib"—once across and back.

Sweater of Light-weight Wool.
Quantity of Wool required—about three-quarter pound of 4-10 yarn.

1 pair of Red Cross needles No. 3. (See diagram below).

Diameter 1-5 inch.

Cast on 78 stitches.
Knit 2, Purl 2, across; Purl 2, Knit 2, back. Continue in this way for 4 inches. Then knit plain for 17 inches.

(A) Knit 28 stitches; knit 2, purl 2, for 22 stitches; then knit 28.

A Letter From Hansford I. Tunnell in France

A. E. F., "Somewhere in France."

My dear Woody:
How is the Kid? Hope you are as fine as "frog hair." I am. Haven't had a chance to write you a letter for some time, and I can't hardly write any more, but will just send you a line or two to let you know there is not an hour passes but what I think of you, and the other "birds" back home.

How is old Prof Happy? Tell him I will give him a few lessons in French to finish his Degree in the Tahoka High School, as I think if I stay here about 80 or 90 years I would learn to ask for a glass of wine correctly. Lots of wine and women, but believe me, Woody, I am going to come home at least as clean as I left.

The French are beautiful, or part of them, but they are not so pretty as our own American girls. But they are far ahead of the British women for looks.

Sure some fine scenery in France. But Texas for me! Without a doubt, we live in God's country, and one has but to leave there to find that out.

Where you see a Limonsine in America you will see a bicycle in Europe, or a two-wheeled cart. Of course four years war makes lots of difference. But we are far ahead of them on most everything civil, and will soon be equal and superior to them in war.

The British "Tommies" are good pals, but I like the French much better than the English, and there seems to be something between the French and American that makes them like each other, but we are all in for the same purpose.

Woody you must hurry and write me, for you can never know how I would like to hear from you. Tell me everything. Now be sure and write a long one. You must not neglect your "buddy" in France, as we will pull some great stunts when I get back. Guess I'll have to take a bunch of lessons socially, as I don't think I could stand hitched in a bunch of women.

Lots of love and good wishes to you and all the folks. Keep the home fires burning in No. 6, because I intend to take a rest when I get home. Answer soon. Address, PRIVATE HANTFORD TUNNELL, Co. D. 5th Am. Tr., A. E. F.

And Not Yet in France.

The troop train had just pulled into the station. A big husky negro stuck his head out of the car window and shouted: "Say boss, what town you-all call dis?"
"This is Accotink."
"And, boss, what state is dis?"
"Virginia; Accotink, Virginia."
"Well, well. Ah dun been travelin' on dis yere train foah days and foah nights. Where de debbil am dis yere France, anyhow?"

A Candidate's Primary Expense Account

According to one of our exchanges, a candidate in a neighboring county, who was required by law to file his expense account in the recent primary, submitted this: "I lost six months and ten days canvassing; lost 1000 hours of sleep worrying over the result of the election; lost fully twenty pounds of flesh; kissed 500 babies; kindled 100 kitchen fires; put up 10 stoves; cut 11 cords of wood; carried 50 buckets of water; pulled 400 bundles of fodder; walked 1,100 miles, shook 20,000 hands, and talked enough to fill a year's issue of the Congressional Record; was baptised four times; and made love to nine grass widows; got dog bit fourteen times and then got defeated."

"OVER THE TOP"

LIBERATE THE SOLDIERS
Over the counter means over the top. When you pay your War Savings Stamp Pledge you have sent a victorious Yank hacking his way through a Hun line. As long as your pledge remains unpaid you keep the American soldier chained in his trench where he can do no good. Liberate our soldiers and speed victory by liberating the dollars representing your pledge. The sooner you pay it the sooner that Yank will charge his way to Berlin and victory. Are you willing to put off paying your W.S.S. Pledge when you are tying a soldier's hands by your delay?

GOVERNOR ENDORSES FREE TEXT-BOOKS; ASKS PEOPLE TO SUPPORT AMENDMENT

Governor's Office
Austin, Texas

October 21, 1918

The free text book amendment to the Constitution of Texas to be voted on November 5th offers the opportunity for the most forward step ever taken to advance general education in Texas. When text books are made available alike to the poor and to the rich it is putting the same sort of Democracy in the public schools of the State that our armies are seeking now to spread throughout the nations of the earth. Free text books will prove a fitting companion to the compulsory education law. Each will help the other. Compulsory education will be made easy when free text books will become usable because of compulsory education.

When the world is democratized education will possess a higher value than ever before, and so it is a propitious time to put education within the reach of every child and at the same time remove the burden that has heretofore been a part and parcel of education in Texas. A vote for free text books is a vote for education and democracy.

TURKISH ARMISTICE TERMS BY THE ALLIES

London, Nov. 1.—The terms of the armistice granted by the allied powers to Turkey follow:

First: The opening of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus and access to the Black Sea. Allied occupation of the Dardanelles and Bosphorus forts.

Second: The positions of all mine fields, torpedo tubes and other obstructions in Turkish waters are to be indicated, and assistance given to sweep or remove them, as may be required.

Third: All available information concerning mines in the Black sea is to be communicated.

Fourth: Allied prisoners of war and Armenian interned persons and prisoners are to be collected in complete and handed over to the allies.

Fifth: Immediate demobilization of the Turkish army, except such troops as are required for surveillance on the frontiers and for maintenance of internal order. The number of effectives and their disposition to be determined later by the allies after conversation with the Turkish government.

Sixth: Surrender of all war vessels in Turkish waters or waters occupied by Turkey. These ships will be interned in such Turkish ports as may be directed, except such small vessels as are required for police and similar purposes in Turkish territorial waters.

Seventh: The allies to have the right to occupy any strategic points in the event of any situation arising which threatens the security of the allies.

Allied Ships to Have Free Use of Ports.

Eighth: Free use by allied ships of all ports and anchors now in Turkish occupation and denial of their use by the enemy. Similar conditions are to apply to Turkish mercantile shipping in Turkish waters for the purpose of trade and the demobilization of the army.

Ninth: Allied occupation of the Taurus tunnel system.

Tenth: Immediate withdrawal of Turkish troops from northern Persia to behind the pre-war frontier already has been ordered and will be carried out.

Eleventh: A part of Transcaucasia already has been ordered to be evacuated by Turkish troops. The remainder to be evacuated if required by the allies, after they have studied the situation.

Twelfth: Wireless telegraph and cable stations to be controlled by the allies. Turkish government messages to be executed.

Thirteenth: Prohibition against the destruction of any naval, military or commercial material.

Fourteenth: Facilities for Purchase of Material. Facilities are to be given for the purchase of coal, oil, fuel and naval material from Turkish sources, after the requirements of the country have been met. None of the above materials to be exported.

Fifteenth: The surrender of all Turkish officers in Tripolitania and Cyrenaica to the nearest Italian garrison. Turkey agrees to stop supplies and communication with these officers if they do not obey the order to surrender.

Sixteenth: The surrender of all garrisons in Hedjaz, Assia, Yemen, Syria and Meopotamia to the nearest allied commander, and withdrawal of Turkish troops from Cilicia, except those necessary to maintain order as will be determined under clause six.

Seventeenth: The use of all ships and repair facilities at all Turkish ports and arsenals.

Eighteenth: The surrender of all ports occupied in Tripolitania and Cyrenaica, including Misurata, to the nearest allied garrison.

Austrians and Germans Must Evacuate.

Nineteenth: All Germans and Austrians, naval, military or civilian, to be evacuated within one month from Turkish dominions, and those in remote districts as soon after that time as may be possible.

Twentieth: Compliance with such orders as may be conveyed for the disposal of equipment, arms and ammunition, including the transports of that portion of the Turkish army which is demobilized under clause five.

Twenty-first: An allied representative to be attached to the Turkish ministry of supplies in order to safeguard allied interests. This representative to be furnished with all aid necessary for this purpose.

Twenty-second: Turkish prisoners are to be kept at the disposal of the allied powers. The release of Turkish civilian prisoners and prisoners over military age is to be considered.

Twenty-third: An obligation on the part of Turkey to cease all relations with the Central Powers.

Twenty-fourth: In case of disorder in the six Armenian vilayets, the allies reserve to themselves the right to occupy any part of them.

Twenty-fifth: Hostilities between the allies and Turkey shall cease from noon, local time, Thursday, 31st of October, 1918.

WITNESSED EVIDENCES OF GERMAN BRUTALITY

Having seen with his own eyes the destruction by the Germans of buildings in the French city of St. Quentin, while it was held by them in the summer and fall of 1917, Dr. Lyman P. Powell, famous educator and publicist, now in Dallas as one of the speakers for the United War Work campaign, absolutely discredits the recent declaration by the German Foreign Secretary, Dr. Solf, that St. Quentin was not destroyed by the Germans but by the allies' bombardment. In his opinion little dependence can be placed upon the statements of the German Government about the war, and he emphatically brands as a lie this particular statement of Dr. Solf.

Dr. Powell, who formerly was president of Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y., is one of the national speakers for the United War Work campaign, having been requested to spend about three weeks in Texas in this work. He has done much work for the Y. M. C. A. and recently withdrew from the presidency of Hobart College in order to give his full time to war activities, being one of the first college presidents to take that action after Dr. H. A. Garfield resigned the presidency of Williams College to become National Fuel Administrator. Dr. Powell is distinguished also as a writer upon religious, social and educational topics.

Beginning in the spring of 1917, he made a study of the effects of the war on American colleges, and then was sent to France for similar study of the effects of the war on the European colleges, spending much time in France and England and being given special opportunities by the French Government to study the war at first hand and to visit the devastated areas of Northern France. He was in Europe as the representative of the American Association of College Presidents of which organization he is vice president.

Witnessed Blowing Up of City.

Discussing the devastations, he referred to the city of Chauny, the worst of the cities laid low by the German armies, which city he personally visited, conducting a special investigation there. He also was permitted with his French military attaché to make his way within the famous Hindenburg line to a point less than two miles from St. Quentin, then held by the Germans, who were expecting to evacuate the city and were preparing to do so by destroying its buildings. He said:

"Nothing, to my mind, can show more plainly how little dependence can be placed on the statements of the German Government about the war than the declaration of the German Foreign Secretary, Dr. Solf, that the Germans did not destroy St. Quentin, but that the damage was done by the allies' own guns. For I have been inside the Hindenburg line and with my own eyes have seen the explosions of German bombs inside the town, less than a mile and a half away from me, as they were destroying the buildings of the city.

"I made a notation of it in my notebook at the time. So Solf lied. The Germans thought they were going to be forced to abandon the city by the French and they were blowing it up. I saw house by house going up in puffs of smoke."

On his visit to England, Dr. Powell found the English universities practically out of commission, due to the war, and there was expressed a great eagerness to open the way to American students during and after the war to study in those universities, and also for English students after the war to study in American universities. The idea had the hearty support of the representatives of the Rhodes scholarship fund, and in conjunction with Colonel Laselles of the Australian expeditionary forces, he saw thirty scholarships for Colonials established at Oxford. The whole movement for educational reciprocity, he said, at once developed, and its latest phase is the presence in the United States now of five great English educators, headed by the acting chancellor of Cambridge University.

Interest in Education. In France he found an even keener interest in opening the institutions of learning to Americans and action was taken while he was there by the University of Bordeaux to that end. Also some of the noblest families of Bordeaux announced that they will open their homes after the war to American students. Young French women were crowding into the great universities, he found, impelled by the belief that so many Frenchmen have been killed that they must prepare to fill their places.

Another outgrowth of the reciprocity movement was in arrangements for the bringing of French girls to American universities, 500 being now ready to accept such scholarships. Already 130 French girls are studying in approximately seventy American colleges, with two of them at the College of Industrial Arts at Texas at Denton.

Dr. Powell in England had some thrilling experiences during German air raids, as well as experiencing submarine attacks in his voyage across. But most important to him was his visit to the devastated regions and his opportunity to investigate at first hand the German atrocities. He said:

"I saw for myself the actual evidences of German brutality, so I know that the stories that have been circulated in this country, and that many people believe are too awful to credit, are far from being exaggerations or distortions of the truth, falling short of actual fact and indeed, many of the atrocities have been of such a nature that they can not even be detailed.

"Everywhere with the allies' forces I found the wonderful work of the Y. M. C. A., the church army, and similar organizations, such as the Knights of Columbus, and the Jewish organization. They are doing more to keep up the morale of the various armies than all other agencies.

"I was the guest of Ambassador Page in London at the opening of the first great Y. M. C. A. hut, the Eagle hut, on the Strand, and the thing that touched me most was to find there the day before the opening some of England's most aristocratic women helping and actually doing the work of scrub women.

Awakened by Air Raid.

"While in London I was awakened one night in my hotel room by an air raid, only to discover that its objective was a great hospital one block from the hotel, and for two hours the Germans tried to destroy it. All of the windows in the district were broken the shop windows were smashed in, and a Y. M. C. A. hut was crumpled into kindling wood. The mortality was the greatest of any air raid up to that time, and the objective was a hospital far from the fighting line.

"At the front I saw everywhere the Y. M. C. A., the Red Cross and the other organizations bringing 'home' to the boys in the armies, who else would have been terribly homesick, and I realized, what I later heard General Pershing had said, that such organizations are absolutely necessary to winning the war. In consequence I have spoken much for them, because I know what is the morale thus created, and that morale marks the difference between the American and the German soldier. Now that the Germans are losing, they have no inner resources such as our boys have to draw upon, for the Germans have not developed this second line to keep up the morale. They believe in force, whereas the American soldiers fight because the heart to fight is put into them by the seven United War Work organizations, and the Red Cross. It is might against right over there, and right is winning."

BIG RAINS REPORTED IN DAWSON COUNTY

The Dawson County Reporter says: "The rain we have looked for two long years has at last come to Dawson county. It has rained and rained and backed off and got a fresh start and rained and hailed and then snowed a little. There is water everywhere. If a well soaked earth is what you are looking for get out and take out your team and let's go look at that farm and get the family in out of the rain or if you are hunting a place to locate a business there are store houses vacant waiting you the man to fill them with goods. Whether you do or don't come, Dawson county will come into her own this next year.

Below we give the weather report as kept by Mr. Austin: We have not been printing this report as it does not this year represent the county, but merely the locality where taken. Portions of the county have received a great deal more. Mr. Austin is very accurate and his figures reliable for his locality and follow:

For the entire year 9 and 64-100 inches.
October	00
November	19-00
December	00
January	00
February	80-100
March	3-100
April	64-100
May	2 35-100
June	3 61-100
July	64-100
August	42-100
September	96-100
Beginning October 1st, 1917, and ending September 30th, 1918.

WEST TEXAS SHEEP INDUSTRY FACING BRIGHT PROSPECTS

Prospects of the sheep industry of West Texas are the brightest of years according to a statement made by one of the pioneer wool men at San Angelo recently. The October rains have insured a plentiful supply of water, and weeds for winter feed and grass for the spring are regarded as certain. But few sheep were dipped during the last season and the flocks will be materially larger in 1919 than the ywere during 1918 because of the prospect of a good winter, little shearing is being done this fall and the 1919 spring yield of wool is expected to be very large.
