Alvin Wilson Kicked in Face by Mule

Alvin Wilson, who resides with his parents in the Draw community, came near being fatally injured last Thursday, when he was kicked in the forehead by a mule. He was unconscious for several hours. Alvin was riding a mule in the lot at the home of Commissioner H. W. Callaway, when the animal ran under a shed, he swung off from the top of the barn and fell to the ground. When he attempted to arise, another mule which was in the lot, kicked the rider on the forehead. It was feared by those who witnessed the accident that his injuries would prove fatal before a physician could be summoned. At this writing, however, Mr. Wilson is recovering rapidly and will in due time be about as usual.

S. B. Hatchett returned on Saturday's train from Dallas and Ft. Worth.

Mr. Hatchett had charge of the Lynn County booth during a portion of the time he was in Dallas, and reports that thousands and thousands of persons viewed and complimented our booth. He was quite enthusiastic over the splendid showing made and expects great good to come out of efforts put forth by Lynn County to secure an influx of people to this section.

Many parties have been planned by the young folks of the city and costumes befitting the occasion will be worn. His long experience in the land business enabled him to properly explain the many advantages of residing on the great South Plains of Texas.

The City Dads had the crossings on the northwest corner of the square filled in Saturday. U. S. MARINES KILL HAITIEN RESIDENTS

"PRACTICALLY INDISCRIMINATE KILLING" DISCLOSED BY GEN. BARNETT

INQUIRY HAS BEEN ORDERED

"Shocked Beyond Expression," General Wrote in Ordering Conditions be Remedied.

Washington.—Evidence of "practically indiscriminate killing" of Haitian natives by United States marines was brought to the attention of Col. John H. Russell, commanding the marine forces in Haiti, in a confidential letter written by Maj. Gen. George Barnett, commandant of the corps, in October, 1919, calling for a thorough investigation of conditions.

Gen. Barnett declared in his letter, just made public, in operations in Haiti, while he was commandant of the corps, that he was "shocked beyond expression" to hear of such conditions in Haiti and "to know that it was at all possible that duty could be badly performed by marines of any class."

Approximately 3,250 "armed Haitian bandits" have been killed during the five and a half years of American occupation, General Barnett said.

Total marine corps casualties to date were shown to be one officer and twelve enlisted men killed and two officers and twenty-six enlisted men wounded.

General Barnett said that while Col. Russell made a special report of his investigation to Secretary Daniels on last March 20, it was not received by the general up to the time he was succeeded as commandant of the corps by Maj. Gen. J. A. Lejeune on last June 30.

General Barnett's report on the matter to Secretary Daniels was submitted last month. It revealed that his orders for an investigation resulted from evidence brought out at the courts martial trial of two privates in the marine corps on charges connected with unlawful executions of captive Haitian bandits.

The general declared in his letter to Colonel Russell, marked "personal and confidential," that testimony at the trial, as well as arguments presented by the counsel for the defense, Lieut. F. L. Spear, "showed me that practically indiscriminate killing of natives has gone on for some time."

"I was shocked beyond expression to hear of such things," General Barnett declared, "and to know that it was at all possible that duty could be so badly performed by marines of any class. I know that you will take this up most seriously and I can not too strongly urge upon you the necessity of going into it personally and thoroughly."

RULES PRIMARY PLEDGE IS NOT BINDING

Supreme Court So Decides in Galveston Case, Phillips Dissenting.

Austin, Texas.—The supreme court has granted motions for leave to file petitions for mandamus to compel Secretary of State C. D. Mims to direct the printing on the official ballot to be used in the general election on Nov. 2 the names of Aubrey Miller as an independent candidate for judge of the fifty-sixth district court of Galveston and the name of George N. Defferari as an independent candidate for Representative to the legislature from the seventeenth district, composed of Galveston and Chambers counties.

The court was unanimous in its decision in the Defferari case, the facts in which are entirely different from the Fuller case. Chief Justice Nelson Phillips dissented in the Fuller case. It is revealed by the petition, Chief Justice Phillips wrote in a dissenting opinion, that Fuller voted in the democratic primary in Galveston county in July, in which Robert G. Street was the successful candidate for nomination for the same office, and subscribed to the statutory pledge to support the nominees of the primary.

The right of mandamus is based upon the holding of the majority of the supreme court in the woman suffrage case (Key vs. Schneider) that, notwithstanding the statute requiring a voter in a party primary to agree that he will support the nominee of the primary, he is under no legal obligation to do so and may vote as he chooses in the general election. "I entered my emphatic dissent from that decision, and as emphatically dissent from its application here," said Chief Justice Phillips.

MINERS WILL VOTE ON MINIMUM OUTPUT

BRITISH WORKMEN WILL DECIDE ON NEW PROBLEM THIS WEEK

London.—With the radical mine workers apparently checked and a bulk of the workers willing to accept the mine owners' proposals to avert a nation-wide strike, unions in every part of the United Kingdom will soon begin taking a new ballot—the second since their ultimatum of several months ago.

In the voting—from which boy workers have been barred—the men will decide whether to agree to a minimum production clause, inserted at the behest of the government. The wage increase for which the unions are fighting is made dependent upon this production. In general, however, it is conceded that the bulk of the miners have a vague and confused idea of the issues, and the ballot will really do little more than to determine what their temper is towards a strike.

The miners have seen themselves defeated thus far on nearly every proposal contained in the original ultimatum to the operators. They have conceded the reduction of 14 shillings a ton for household coal, a clause which was to "catch the popular appeal," but which failed of its purpose. They have not even won an increase of any kind in wages—unless they are willing to guarantee the government a definite output, and all wage increases will be contingent upon production.

Robert Smillie, chief executive of the federation, is a moderate. He has urged throughout when it was discovered that he could not force through the original demands—a tone of conciliation. And it was his work in the main that brought about first the postponement of a strike already authorized, and second, the new ballot.

The miners' executive committee will meet this week to consider the results of the ballot, and their decision, it is expected, will be announced on Saturday.

STATE FAIR OF TEXAS OPENS WITH BIG CROWD

Fair Officials and Representatives Join Hands

Dallas.—The thirty-fourth annual State Fair of Texas—and the first international exposition at Dallas—was opened to the public of Texas and of the world Sunday. The first day's attendance was 43,868 against a first day attendance of 27,392 on the opening day of last year.

With the weather as perfect as ever a Texas October produced, with the officials of Texas and the state fair and the official representatives of the Republic of Mexico joining hands in cordiality and with pledges of mutual helpfulness and upbuilding, the 1920 state fair was formally inaugurated. Probably the largest audience that ever attended an opening program of the fair nearly filled the main floor of the big coliseum, and with the new theme of closer relations between Texas and Mexico, which the southern republic has ever made the first step in achieving by sending a national exhibit and a superlative national band here for the fair, along with representatives of the various branches of that government, Governor William P. Hobby and all other speakers joined in predicting a new era not only for the fair, but for Texas and Mexico.

Diaz will be accompanied as far as Havana by an agent of the Mexican war department.

CATTELMEN PLANNING TO SELL OWN STOCK

PRODUCERS PLAN CO-OPERATIVE COMMISSION AGENCY IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Ill.—Within a few months Chicago will, in all probability, have a new live stock commission firm in the yards, one run on the co-operative basis and in whose benefits most of the producers organization and unions will share.

Plans were laid at a meeting on live stock marketing called by the American Farm Bureau, a committee of seventeen representatives of various organizations throughout the cattle raising country was chosen to study the conditions at the close of the session. It was understood that already extensive planning had been done, once recommendations were in order, and the largest of the producers co-operative commission house will soon be a reality.

C. H. Watts of Omaha, head of Nebraska Farmers' Union selling agency in that city, cited the success of his organization as the real reason why all the producers should send their shipments to a co-operative agency here.

"We boycotted the speculators and won out," Mr. Watts said. "Our shippers are highly pleased with the service, and especially the better prices they obtain. What we all need is one big agency in Chicago, the great market."

Co-operative marketing is so successful in Canada, the agency in Toronto last year sold more stock than all the other agencies in the city combined. F. E. Osborn of St. Paul, representing the Equity Co-operative Exchange in that city, pointed out that the co-operative agency would eliminate two commissions, on the buying and selling the speculators' profits and the "fill." He gave an instance of a single speculator making $4,000 on a straight transaction which could have been saved to the farmers.

W. A. McKerrow of St. Paul said "What we need in the live stock industry today is accurate statistics. It should be under government control. An appropriation of $200,000 should be secured from congress to start, and maintain this work. I am not in favor of an independent reporting agency to gather and dispense this important data. The live stock men have been at the mercy of the packers long enough."

5,000 BALES DESTROYED WHEN COMPRESS BURNS

Cameron, Texas.—Fire of unknown origin beginning at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning totally destroyed the plant and all buildings of the Cameron Compress company here, together with 5,000 bales of cotton. Two thousand bales of cotton were saved.

The compress was valued at $150,000. It was insured. The plant was considered among the best-equipped in Texas.

The cotton destroyed included twenty-six carloads ready for shipment. The cars also were destroyed.

$550 Found in Rat's Nest. Temple, Texas.—Deputy Sheriff J. F. Vannoy has recovered a bank roll of $550 of which a farmer was relieved quite recently. The currency was found lying a rat's nest under a log in a lonely spot in a pasture, where it had been secreted by the guilty party, who, it is said, made a confession. The rodents had devoured several of the bills leaving only small shreds as evidence.

Kirby Again Heads Tariff Congress. New Orleans, La.—John H. Kirby of Houston, Texas, was re-elected president at the closing session of the Southern Tariff congress. Arthur J. Draper of Charlotte, N. C., vice president; J. A. Arnold of Port Worth, secretary, and John T. Scott of Houston, treasurer.

Bank in Havana, Cuba, Suspends. Havana, Cuba.—The International Bank of Cuba has provisionally suspended payments. Rumors have caused runs this morning on several of the banks. The Havana Exchange has suspended operations during the crisis.

Two Bell County Banks Suspend. Temple, Texas.—The First National Bank of Killeen, capitalized at $50,000, voluntarily closed its doors Saturday. In a statement given out by officers of the bank this action was attributed to "heavy withdrawals within the last ten days." Immediately following the action of the Killeen bank, the Farmers Bank of Nolanville, near Killeen, capitalized at $10,000, also closed its doors. This is a privately owned institution and is officered by men interested in the Killeen bank.

Trades Day, Saturday Nov. 6.

The Lockney Beacon takes the liberty to state that Hale and Lubbock were the only counties on the plains that had exhibits at the Dallas Fair, and that Floyd was not represented at the Fair. As has been stated in these columns heretofore, the Beacon editor is so prejudiced that he will not give credit to those to whom credit is due. He has his cranium stuck up so high that he cannot see any further away than Plainview, Lubbock, Canyon, Clarendon and Cananadian up on the North Plains. Please bear in mind that Lynn County is on the South Plains of Texas and that Lynn County had an agricultural exhibit at the Dallas Fair this year, which won over Lubbock county by several points. Give us credit, Smith, while you are grinding out your long windy editorials.

Magnolia News

The recent rains has done little if any damage to crops, greatly helping the wheat crops. The advantage of diversifying crops is easily seen on the South Plains. The late coming of old Jack Frost is greatly befriending our people, the gardens still producing.

Little Inez Armstrong celebrated her 9th birthday recently with a party of many happy children. She was the recipient of many nice gifts dear to a child's heart.

Miss Gladys Bosworth is at home again after several days treatment in the Post sanitarium.

We hear the Spooks big little and all are planning to invade the Briley home Saturday night.

Our schoolhouse is gradually taking on a look of convenience and comfort the well being completed with a pump, with Mr. J. F. Williams busy hanging screens, black-boards and so on this week. The Parent Teachers Com. having already hung the shades and oiled the floors. We look forward to the day it is completed.

Quite a few attended the 5th. Sunday meeting at Post this week which began Thursday evening.

There is not one case of sickness in our community, another blessing of the Plains country.

The syrup mill, stationed at J. E. Morgans farm, seems to be the center of attraction these two weeks, turning out near 40 gallons of the finest "Magnolia Honey Drip" ever served with white bread and butter.

The patrons of the school meets Saturday afternoon, the 6th. Each family setting a shade tree of their choice while the youth of our community set flower bulbs around the entire building "A thing of beauty is a joy forever" is our slogan.

The Ladies Aid and Parent Teachers Association, gave a "Rural Bazaar" in Post recently and cleared $48.30 for which they are still giving thanks for the liberal patronage.

Loop-Elevated Aerials.
An extensive research on radio transmissions and reception with various types of aerials has been in progress at the bureau of standards, Washington, D. C. says the Scientific American. One of the most interesting questions at the present time is as to the relative advantages of the antenna, or usual type of elevated aerial, and the smaller coil aerial or "loop." This question is answered by the studies of the bureau. The small coil aerial has many advantages, but is usually not so powerful a transmitting and receiving device as the antenna type of aerial. It may, however, have so much lower resistance than the antenna that it is equal to it in transmitting and receiving value.

Waiting for It to Move.
An old Cornish woman who had never before traveled by rail went to a country station to catch a train. She sat herself down on a seat in the station, and after sitting there for about two hours, the station-master came up to her and asked where she was going. On her telling him, he said:
"Why, my good woman, the train has just gone, and there isn't another for a long time!"
"Why, lor!" says the old lady, "I thought the whole consarn moved!"
—"Humours of a Parish" (John Lane).

It Did.
"Yes," said the girl, "I'll be your buddy."
"My sweet rosebuddy," declared the man.
And didn't that make a hit!

LIFE WAS A MISERY TO HER

Says This Woman Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring my sickness on. I was weak and languid, had no energy, and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to dozens of my friends and shall always recommend it."—LILLIAN THARP, 824 S. 6th St., Carrollton, Ky.

If you have any symptom about which you would like to know write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free of charge.

DISAGREEABLE TASTE IN MOUTH

Stomach Was Out of Order and Head Ached, So Kentucky Man Took Black-Draught.—"It Cured Me," He Says.

Nancy, Ky.—Mr. Marion Holcomb, of this place, says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, also a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache.

"I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble.

"I heard Theford's Black-Draught recommended very highly, so I began to use it. It cured me. I keep it in the house all the time. It is the best liver medicine made. I do not have sick headache or stomach trouble any more."

When suffering from headache, constipation, stomach or liver trouble, try the old and well-recommended, purely vegetable, Theford's Black-Draught.

Just as Black-Draught brought relief to Mr. Holcomb, so it also has to thousands of others, and should help you, too.

CHAMPIONSHIP WON BY CLEVELAND TEAM

AND TRIS SPEAKER, TEXAN, IS IDOL OF CITY AS A RESULT OF OUTCOME

Cleveland, Ohio.—In the opinion of the majority composing the baseball world, the best that ever won the world's series are now champions of the world. Tris Speaker's Indians won this right to the title by putting up five of the cleanest and best-played games ever witnessed by the baseball fans of America.

The Indians ran true to form throughout the entire series, putting four straights at home. The last game being taken to the tune of 3 to 0.

Stanley Coveleskie, star of the stars, gave a fitting climax to the 1920 world's classic by defeating the Brooklyn Dodgers again in the last game by a shut out. But while Coveleskie, Smith and Wambgsans shine out as playing stars, to Tris Speaker, fighting Texan, goes the lion's share of the honor for bringing the highest honor in sports to Cleveland. This scrappy, good-natured, smiling long-horn was the pride of every fan who witnessed the great series. Even Brooklyn fans readily bestow upon him the title of being the gamest and best-liked player. And Tris takes his honors bashfully and with a broad smile.

"I'm just tickled to death, I won. For my home folks in Texas were pulling for me for all they were worth. Tell them that I thank them, for there's no word of hope and praise like those which come from folks in your home state.

"I appreciate their kindness in sending me floral remembrance, and it went a long way in making us stiffen our backs and start our fight here in Cleveland which carried the Dodgers off their feet. I'll have a chance to thank them all in person about Oct. 25. Until then just say for me that I thank them all"

This series will be a great tonic for the game which has suffered such serious injury through the White Sox scandal. Every player was conscious of the fact that he was being watched closely and every play he made scrutinized carefully. And even under such a strain the best exhibition of baseball ever seen was given. There has not been one rumor of crookedness.

The Indians' victory is a clear-cut one and no state ever produced a more popular hero than the one offered up by the Lone Star state in 1920 to the history of baseball.

WOOL GROWERS WILL GET OVER MILLION

Dealers Who Made Excess Profits During War Making Refunds.

Washington.—One hundred thousand and wool growers, a large number of whom are in Texas and New Mexico, are receiving excess profits made by dealers who handled the wool clip of 1918 under the war industries board, and being distributed by the United States department of agriculture. The excess profits amount to more than $1,000,000, of which $460,000 has been paid to the department for distribution. The amount represents that which was illegally held by the wool dealers, based upon the government's price during the war, and which should have, under the government's plan, originally gone to the producer.

Some dealers who accumulated excess profits have thus far declined to refund the entire amount, but they are being brought to face the government machinery which is to be used in forcing the collection. Dealers operating under permits during the war signed agreements with the war industries board to abide by the regulations of the board, which specifically limited their profits.

GIN INCENDIARIES TO BE PROSECUTED

Washington.—Federal prosecution of "night riders" and others responsible for the burning of cotton and cotton gins in the southern states will be ordered if an investigation started discloses violation of any federal laws.

Department of justice agents have been instructed to investigate and report immediately instances where federal laws appear to have been violated. In most cases officials believed the outrages have constituted crimes only under state laws, but the investigation was ordered when it was indicated there might have been interference with shipments in interstate commerce.

Ranger to Get Railroad Shops

Ranger, Texas.—Definite assurance has been given that the machine shops and roundhouse of the Wichita Falls, Ranger & Fort Worth railroad will be located here. The information came direct from Jake L. Hamon, president of the road.

Marquard Fined $1 and Cost.

Cleveland, Ohio.—Richard (Rube) Marquard of the Brooklyn Nationals was fined $1 and cost in the local municipal court here on a charge of violating the exhibition ticket ordinance. President Heydler of the National League, who was in court with Marquard stated that as the violation was merely technical he would take no further action. He also said that he did not believe that Marquard would be in the National League next year.

EMPLOYED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. E. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.) (©, 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 24

WHAT THE KING REQUIRES.

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 5:1-48.
GOLDEN TEXT—Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.—Matt. 5:48.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Lev. 19:18; Deut. 6:4, 5; Luke 6:27-38.
PRIMARY TOPIC—What the Heavenly Father Wants Us to Be.
JUNIOR TOPIC—What Jesus Wishes His Followers to Be.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Measuring Up to Christ's Standard.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Character Which Jesus Requires.

The so-called "Sermon on the Mount" is the king's proclamation of the laws which obtain in his kingdom. These laws do not set forth terms of salvation to sinners, but the principles of life which shall obtain when Christ reigns on earth.

1. The Characteristics of the Subjects of the Kingdom (vv. 1-12).

These characteristics are set forth in the nine Beatitudes.

1. The consciousness of utter spiritual poverty (v. 3). "Poor in spirit" does not mean to be without money (Isa. 66:2), but to come to the end of self in a state of absolute spiritual beggary, having no power to alter one's condition or to make one's self better.

2. A profound grief because of spiritual insolvency (v. 4).

3. A humble submission to God's will (v. 5). The outgrowth of mourning over spiritual insolvency is meekness.

4. An intense longing to conform to the laws of the kingdom (v. 6).

5. Merciful (v. 7). The subjects of the kingdom now take on the character of the king.

6. Purity of heart (v. 8). Since the king is pre-eminently pure, the subjects who enjoy fellowship with him must have heart purity.

7. Peacemakers (v. 9). The one who has received the peace of God through Jesus Christ will diffuse peace to others.

8. Suffering for Christ's sake (v. 10). The world hated Christ, the king, therefore those who reflect his spirit in their lives shall suffer persecution (II Tim. 3:12).

9. Suffer reproach (v. 11). This means suffering falsely. In such case we should glory in it, for it brings great reward in heaven.

11. The Responsibilities of the Subjects of the Kingdom (vv. 13-16).

Man is corrupt, and the world is in utter darkness. The disciples of Christ are to live such lives as to purify and enlighten. Their responsibilities are set forth under the figures of salt and light.

1. Salt of the earth (v. 13). The properties of salt are (1) penetrating; (2) purifying; (3) preserving. Since salt only preserves and purifies in the measure that it penetrates, so Christians only as they enter into the life of the world can preserve it from decay.

2. The light of the world (v. 14). Light illuminates and warms. This world is cold and dark. The devil has set many pitfalls and snares. As sons of the light we should live so as to prevent the unwary from stumbling and falling.

11. The Laws of the Kingdom (vv. 20-48).

1. As to deeds of righteousness. They must exceed that of the scribes and Pharisees.

2. As to sanctity of life (vv. 21-26). "Thou shalt do no murder," means more than simply to refrain from the taking of life. Rash anger is heart murder (v. 22).

3. As to organized life (vv. 27-32). The family is the unit of society. There is no sin that so rots society as that against the relation of the sexes. The two awful sins against the family are (a) adultery (vv. 27-30), (there is heart adultery as well as heart murder); (b) divorce (vv. 31, 32). Moses, for the hardness of the hearts of the people, permitted a man in case of adultery to put away his wife and give her a bill of divorce.

4. As to oaths (vv. 33-37). Speech is the absolute test of character. Whatever is more than the simple form of affirmation or denial comes of the Devil.

5. As to behavior toward those who do not recognize the laws of the kingdom (vv. 38-48). (1) Not revengeful (vv. 39, 40); (2) willing to do more than is required (v. 41); (3) charitable (v. 42)—even the borrower should not be turned away; (4) love toward enemies (vv. 45-48). Love to enemies consists (a) in blessing them that curse us; (b) in doing good to them that hate us; (c) in praying for those who spitefully use us.

God Is Everywhere.

Let us remember that God is at the seashore and in the mountains just as much as he is in our home town and in our home church. We need to resist the devil of license which is always whispering his evil insinuations into the ears of people away from home. We need religion just as much in summer as we do in winter, perhaps more. So when we are away from home let us not neglect our Bible, and our daily prayer, and attendance upon the house of worship when ever possible.

Year Old Lad Killed at Slaton

Just after noon Wednesday the boys were riding on the dining board of G. L. Sledge's car as he was enroute home from school building. Just as he was passing the Singleton Hotel, Sledge stated that one of the boys had a cap from the head of a don W. Preston, and in an effort to regain it, he fell from the car, falling on his head by the roadside. Mr. Sledge immediately stopped his car and went to where the boy had fallen and administered first aid treatment. The boy was then rushed to Dr. Adam's office and then quickly hurried to a Lubbock hospital, as his condition was considered serious.

Upon X-Ray examination it was found that his skull was crushed and he passed away at 8 o'clock Wednesday night as a result of his injury. He never regained consciousness at any time after the injury.

Weldon was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Preston, a highly esteemed citizen residing in the east part of Slaton. He was 13 years, 3 months and 9 days old. Was in the 5th grade school, very studious and also on the honor roll. He was a very little fellow, courteous, obliging and was never seen running around the streets.

and "thereby hangs a tale"—a tale leads to one of the far Marquesan islands where Paul Gauguin "poured his very life's blood into a life of astounding canvases, practicing living on narcotics at the end of the world. He felt that he must, at any cost, give his message to the world." Gauguin, in his endless quest for the endless succession of the "primitive," for his novels and plays, dug up the story of Paul Gauguin's trail from Paris to Tahiti, and even had a door from his cabin, which was written "The Moon and Sixpence."

Little son Gauguin died in his adopted home, an evening passing noted only by a few artists. Then the playwright's visit to Tahiti, then the book—and immediately there is a general gathering of artists, writers, photographers, etc., and to do their way to Tahiti.

Nation-wide Demonstration Sale of Pathe Phonographs and Pathe Records

BEGINNING Saturday morning, a sale of phonographs and phonograph records will be opened in this store, the character and magnitude of which is more far-reaching than has ever before been attempted in the history of music.

This is a sale which will be ultimately carried out in approximately five hundred cities and towns of the United States.

It is a move on the part of the Pathe Freres Phonograph Company of New York City, manufacturers, and the retail dealers in Pathe Phonographs and Records to bring the excellence of these instruments and records, directly, forcefully, and immediately to the close and intimate attention of music loving persons, under a plan which offers exceptional advantages to the purchaser.

The following gives the essential facts concerning this intensely interesting plan:

$25 worth of Genuine PATHE RECORDS FREE

This most unusual sale is a campaign to more directly demonstrate and thoroughly introduce Pathe Phonographs and Pathe Records to the people of this vicinity.

There have been 15 genuine Pathe Phonographs, and their complement of Pathe Records, allotted to us for this purpose. This entire allotment is right now in our store and will be sold upon the special terms and conditions mentioned elsewhere in this advertisement and there will be no delay in delivery to you.

While this announcement is most unusual, in itself, yet this alone does not give the full significance of what this sale really means.

This special sale of 15 Pathe Phonographs in this vicinity is less than one five-hundredth part of a gigantic co-operative campaign which has been planned to take the Pathe direct to the homes of the people in more than five hundred cities and towns of the United States.

It is the purpose of the manufacturers, through this attractive sale and plan to get twenty thousand more American homes right at this time to know and use and praise and boost Pathe Phonographs and Pathe Records.

Every one of the vast number of instruments required, running well into millions of dollars; every statement made, and every condition of sale accorded the purchaser will be identical. The 15 persons in this town who are so fortunate as to obtain the phonographs we have been allotted, will be given the same price to a penny, and the same conditions and guarantees as the persons in New York City, San Francisco and every other large city where this campaign may be carried on.

This sale is to create a closer acquaintance with and to further popularize the Pathe Phonograph and Pathe Records. And nothing will be permitted, in presenting their claims for your approval, that will in the slightest degree reflect upon their standing or tend to break down the great and enviable name they bear.

Origin of the Pathe and What Is Back of It

The Pathe Freres (Pathe Brothers) Phonograph Co. is one of the great, successful and enterprising houses manufacturing phonographs and phonograph records, of the world.

It is an American Company, with its principal factory located at New York City, and is a part of the world-famous European firm of Pathe Freres, which is this year celebrating its twenty-fifth year in the phonograph industry.

Pathe Freres (Pathe Brothers) are French scientists and inventors and are, today, probably the most distinguished authorities on matters pertaining to tone reproduction. They are the inventors of innumerable devices in the fields of radio wireless telegraphy, the motion picture industry and the phonograph.

The Pathe Rooster shown herewith, which is the Pathe trade mark, is one of the most widely known trade marks known to man. In the United States alone, it is estimated that ten million persons see it weekly on screens of international events shown in the Pathe News at motion picture houses.

And it is this same Rooster, this same great symbol of business honor and enterprise, that we wish, through the medium of this unusual demonstration sale, to more thoroughly introduce to the people of this community.

VOTE AND WORK FOR THE SCHOOL AMENDMENT ON NOVEMBER 2ND.

(By Annie Webb Blanton, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.)

NEED OF MANY WORKERS.

It is when we try to inform the people of Texas as to the merits of any measure that we realize that Texas is not really a state—it is an empire. Compare the Lone Star State, with its 252 counties, with its neighbor, Oklahoma, which has 77 counties, or with tiny Delaware, which has three. It soon becomes obvious that to give adequate publicity to even the most meritorious measure, an army of workers is needed.

When we remember, further, that the general attitude in Texas has been to vote against constitutional amendments, we realize that, the patriotic citizens of Texas must go out into the highways and byways to arouse the necessary enthusiasm for the educational amendment to make it the notable exception to the rule its friends all predict it will prove to be.

NATURE OF THE AMENDMENT.

Texas now has a district tax limit of fifty cents on the hundred dollars of property valuation. Only two states, Texas and Virginia, have so low a limit. Half of the states of the Union have no limit on the tax that districts may vote for school purposes. The unjust side of this tax limit is that while large cities are exempt from this provision, the village school and the country school are shackled by its terms. The proposed amendment to article 3 of section VII of the constitution will grant the same privilege to all schools—it will permit the country school district as well as the city to vote for its schools such support as it deems necessary.

THE AMENDMENT DOES NOT RAISE TAXES.

The proposed amendment does not raise taxes, nor does it permit any school board to increase taxes. It simply leaves each district free to continue its present support to its schools, or to increase this support, if it chooses. Before any tax can be increased, the rate must be decided by a vote of the taxpayers of the district. This amendment is, therefore, a measure of local self-government.

ATTITUDE OF THE POLITICAL PARTIES.

The state democratic convention of 1920, at its recent meeting in Fort Worth, endorsed the passage of this amendment as a part of the platform of the democratic party. The republican candidate for governor, in a recent address, stated that he would prefer that the people of Texas should fail to vote for him than to fail to vote for this amendment. At this writing, other parties have not expressed their attitude.

A MISTAKEN IMPRESSION.

A few persons have expressed the opinion that, since their districts receive from the state more than they pay to the state, it would be best to vote against the amendment, and let the state support their schools. The mistake in this is (1) that the state can not and will not continue to support those who do not help themselves and (2) that such an attitude is condemned by most of the right-minded patriotic citizens of the state. The four million dollar appropriation was made by the legislature to tide over the emergency until the amendment can pass. The legislature will have no convenient surplus next year, to appropriate; for the tax rate has been lowered. Moreover, many members of the legislature have declared that, if the people vote down this amendment in November, they will make no more appropriations to the schools from the general revenue. Some of them have asserted that they will even vote to discontinue the two-million-dollar appropriation for rural schools. If the amendment fails to pass, the schools will have no recourse. Two thousand of them closed their doors last year. Our teachers will flock to other states, where a living wage is offered. Many have already gone.

STATE SUPPORT THE SAME FOR CITY AND COUNTRY SCHOOLS.

The politician frequently harps on the difference in support of country and city schools. This difference lies in local support. The state gives the same per capita for the country and the city child. It favors the country child, in that it makes a special appropriation of two million dollars for rural schools. While Texas star's tenth in state support of schools, it ranks as forty-fourth in local support. Shall this continue?

OUR RANK IN EDUCATION.

The Russel Sage Foundation in its recent investigation of all the states of the Union ranks Texas as thirty-ninth in education. Shall a state that is first in size, first in agricultural products, third in production of oil, and seventh in wealth be satisfied to remain thirty-ninth in education?

DANGER TO DEMOCRACY.

Texas is about ten per cent illiterate. Twenty-five per cent of our children do not advance beyond the fourth grade. The average is the sixth grade. That means that, in future, we shall have a sixth-grade citizenship. The only safeguard of the democratic institutions founded by our forefathers, the best protection against bolshevism, the wisest economy for the state, is education. Give the country boy and girl a fair chance! Work and vote for the Better Schools Amendment on November 2nd.

Teach With Rubber Stamps.

"Stick the stamp on the upper right hand side of the envelope," says the French government to the people by way of the rubber stamp that cancels the postage. Since it seems to be rather a late date to be teaching the public elementary rules in the use of the mail, one decides that there must be a new class writing letters. Can it be composed entirely of friends of the expeditionary forces—American, Australian, British, Italian and Indian?

The use of the stamp in this fashion exemplifies how characteristically every nation develops available opportunities. Germany, before the war, would have used it for a verboten sign. Americans turn it into a money-making scheme, for Burleson, yielding to the advice of publicity experts, allowed the cancellation stamp to carry advertisements of Liberty loans, the near East relief and many other patriotic and philanthropic causes. And now the French write a message in accordance with the purest bureaucratic tradition—Indianapolis News.

In a malarial countries the popular remedy is Herbine. People find it a good medicine for purifying the system and warding off the disease. Price 60c. Sold by Thomas Bros. 45t

East Holds Rubber Supremacy.

Until ten years ago rubber meant rubber from Brazil. Today Brazil's supremacy is gone. In less than a decade the far east has jumped to the front and now is producing nine-tenths of the rubber of the world. In the late sixties, just when the first experiments with the automobile were under way, an Englishman, H. A. Wickham, who had spent much time in Brazil, conceived the idea that rubber plants could be grown on plantations.

Securing a commission from the India government he boxed up thousands of seeds, chartered a derelict ship up the Amazon, and started for India. The first trees grew at Heneratgoda in 1881, and that same year the first experiments in tapping began.

MYSTERY OF GREAT LAKES

Scientists Unable to Explain the Rise and Fall of the Water Along the Border.

Why does the water in the great lakes that lie between a large portion of the United States and Canada rise and fall in periods which average seven years? This natural phenomenon has been a puzzle since the days when France held sway in Canada 200 years ago.

In an unpublished diary of an English traveler who voyaged up the St. Lawrence river to Niagara, Ontario, in the summer of 1785, is the following reference to this mystery of the waters: "A remarkable circumstance was told me by Mr. Pansee, our conductor, who had been constantly engaged in this navigation for nearly twenty years, and which he advised me is a matter of fact both from his own observation and that of the oldest inhabitant. Each year the St. Lawrence river settles or falls a little until the seventh year, when it is visible that it has sunk between three and four feet, and then for the next seven years it continues to rise in the same proportion. The river is at this time at its greatest elevation (July 1, 1785). I took pains to gain some information of this uncommon phenomenon. I find that the lakes have the same appearance."

Careful government records were begun about the year 1820 and since then it has been found that the periods between high and low water are sometimes as low as four years and sometimes as high as nine years, although they average seven years. This year the water is again at its lowest in the lakes and river, and freight carriers are having trouble in various harbors.—Christian Science Monitor.

It Sure Helped.

Eight-year-old Raymond came from a small village to visit in Indianapolis the other day. In the village there was no water works and Raymond watered the flowers with a sprinkling can. Neither did they have a bathroom at home. And he eyed it at the shower it contained with wonder.

Finally he made his comments to his uncle, who was very tall.

"No wonder you all grow so big here in Indianapolis," he said. "Why, you have that big sprinkling can in the bathroom so that you can water yourself all the time."

Potatoes Used as Currency.

Potatoes are now used as the standard currency in certain remote agricultural districts of Poland, since the value of the potato fluctuates less than that of paper money. In the district around Grodno, for instance, the American Red Cross reports, all the local help employed in warehousing or in the activities of the field units is remunerated in a weekly wage of potatoes.

IMPRESSED BY SHAKEN FIST

Gesture Marks the Fighter and Wins the Plaudits of Audiences, According to This Writer.

Learn to shake your fist when making a speech in public.

It has been said of the American people that they like a man who is a fighter. An elemental symbol of fight is a well-shaken fist. Has the candidate definite views? Has he policies? Has he constructive ideas? No matter. He shakes his fist. He is a fighter. Cheer him.

The shaken fist is an emblem of destructive criticism. It is a threat to destroy something. Is destructive criticism a good kind? No; telling how to make a thing right is much better than merely saying it is wrong. And it is a tougher job, much tougher. And it affords little opportunity for a negative gesture. The mob will not ask you for a constructive program if only, in a big, virile, outdoor way, you convey the impression that you are there to knock something down, and knock it hard. You are a fighter; a fighter of "the people's battles." It is proved by the fact that you are shaking your fist.

The greatest of our great men might have been greater. For example, take Lincoln. He had a splendid fist, the result of hard, manual labor in his youth. Had he chosen to shake it and been photographed, even without movies he would have come down to us of this day as a man of "the virile type," rather than as the patient man of sorrows. He missed many chances. "With malice toward none, with charity for all"—how much more effective might that have been, for instance, had a gnarled and snowy fist eloquently punctuated it! As it was, many good people didn't even applaud him. They thought him wavering. And weak. And wagged their heads, saying there wasn't enough of "the fighter" in Lincoln.

Learn the lessons of history. Shake your fist.—Arthur H. Folwell in Leslie's.

White Haired Alabama Lady Says She Has Seen Medicines Come and Go But The "Old Reliable" Thedford's Black-Draught Came and Stayed.

Dutton, Ala.—In recommending Thedford's Black-Draught to her friends and neighbors here, Mrs. T. F. Parks, a well-known Jackson County lady, said: "I am getting up in years; my head is pretty white. I have seen medicines and remedies come and go but the old reliable came and stayed. I am talking of Black-Draught, a liver medicine we have used for years—one that can be depended upon and one that will do the work."

"Black-Draught will relieve indigestion and constipation if taken right, and I know for I tried it. It is the best thing I have ever found for the full, uncomfortable feeling after meals. Sour stomach and sick headache can be relieved by taking Black-Draught. It aids digestion, also assists the liver in throwing off impurities. I am glad to recommend Black-Draught, and do, to my friends and neighbors."

Thedford's Black-Draught is a standard household remedy with a record of over seventy years of successful use. Every one occasionally needs something to help cleanse the system of impurities. Try Black-Draught. Insist upon Thedford's, the genuine.

WHALE BIT OFF TOO MUCH

Attempt to Make a Meal of Pacific Cable Proved End of Sportive Creature.

The direct descendant of the whale that swallowed Jonah flapped his huge tail through the tranquil waters of the Pacific, off Mexico. He was hungry—hungry for a new sensation. All the thrills in that neck of the ocean were on land, where the Mexicans were conquering Mexico. Idly he shot a column of water through his nose into the air. What with the submarines out of the sea, life had lost all zest for a whale. The submarine idea flashed through his brain and tickled his ambergris. What a jolly lark, to be sure! He would dive below and scare the saucer and octopus into a fit. Down he went.

Now, the All-American Cable company, which took over the Mexican Telegraph company, has some valuable rubber-wound copper wires lying on the bottom of the ocean off Mexican headlands. They met the gaze of our hero.

He seized the long thing in his mouth. It stuck. History has never recorded any whale who ever attempted to eat a Pacific cable and got away with it. Our hero was no exception. He struggled, and finally wound himself up in several thousand dollars' worth of interrupted messages. When the cable repair ships hove to and grappled for the cable to find out what had interrupted communication between Vera Cruz and Valparaiso, Chile, they dragged to the surface a very dead whale, wound up in several hundred feet of hopelessly complicated cable.

Chief Engineer James Mowat, who went ashore, and lives in New York, says this is the first whale he ever heard of that tried to eat a cable. And other members of the crew of his ship vouch for the story.

LONG A BRITISH POSSESSION

Island of Bermuda Colonized Eight Years Before the Mayflower. Sailed From England.

The island of Bermuda was discovered in 1515 by a Spaniard, Juan de Bermudez. Nearly 100 years later an English vessel with Virginia colonists was shipwrecked on the island, which had been known as the Isle of Devils because of the terrific storms on its coast, and had been shunned. Admiral Sir George Somers, leading the Virginians, died. His body was taken back to England, where the colonists told the wonders of the island. The Virginia company determined to colonize the islands, and had its charter amended to include islands within 300 leagues of Virginia. As a result, 50 colonists were sent out in 1612, eight years before the Mayflower sailed. Later the Virginians sold their rights to a Bermuda company, which so subverted the inhabitants that they formed a parliament and fought for their rights. Three branches of government were devised. Regulations were most severe, and penalties were of the most extreme nature.

Won His Honors Worthily.

First Sergeant Dan Daly, undoubtedly the best-known man in all the services, with the exception of Sergeant York of Argonne fame, has been placed on the inactive list of the Marine corps reserve. Daly won two medals of honor for valor in the Boxer rebellion and in the capture of Fort Riviere, in Haiti, and is said to be the only man in all the services who holds two medals of honor. In the world war his feats of exceptional bravery won for him the medaille militaire and the croix de guerre from France and the distinguished service cross from General Pershing. His passing from the active list to accept a position with a prominent banking house in New York removes from the marines their most picturesque of the old school soldiers.

Artificial Wool Not Much Good.

Widespread interest having been taken in a new artificial wool, an exhaustive investigation into the properties and merits of the fiber has been made by Prof. Eber Midgley, head of the department of textile industries of the Bradford Technical college, and United States Consul A. S. Ingram of Bradford, summarizes his conclusions about as follows:

The new fiber is unsuitable for use in spinning yarn on the worsted principle, it being lacking in uniformity of diameter, strength and elasticity. When blended with pure wool the result is an uneven yarn.

Subduing the Hookworm.

Efforts of the campaign against the hookworm in Jamaica conducted by the government and an expert for the Rockefeller foundation already are felt. In Vere, one of the largest sugar centers of the colony, the laborers now work six days a week, whereas formerly they were able to work only three. On account of their improved physical condition large numbers of the workers are leaving Jamaica to work in the cane fields in Cuba.

"Dead Men's Club."

The formation of a Dead Men's club out of the 2,000 ex-service men who, while living, are officially listed as killed in action is a probability, it was learned at national headquarters of the American legion. William Wart of Akron, O., one of the "casualties," who was gassed and left on the field in Picardy, has suggested the formation of such an organization.

Detects Dirty Work of Huns.
At the start of the reconstruction work in the devastated coal region about Lens, France, the French were taught by several disasters that the retreating Germans, before flooding the mines, had concealed along the walls unnumbered "booby traps," according to a story appearing in Popular Mechanics Magazine. Consequently, in order that the divers, charged with preliminary inspections, should "look before they leap," the government recently purchased from England an interesting apparatus for submerging photography. Lowered down the flooded shaft, this apparatus illuminates a 10-foot zone; then, as switches are pressed at the mouth of the shaft, it photographs simultaneously each of the four walls.

 for "votes for women in 1920," she is going to help them keep their swear-off on wearing aigrettes and wild-bird plumage on their hats.

If all the plans go through Louisiana's bird refuge will be a huge one.
 In any event it's a big one, as such things go. Of course, some of the big national parks with their thousands of square miles of wild-life sanctuary are bigger. But Louisiana's refuge is quite big enough to accomplish its purpose. And geographically it is just exactly where it is needed. It fronts on the Gulf of Mexico, extending back far enough to take in rolling prairie and wooded upper land, ideal territory for the preservation and propagation of bird life of various kinds. It lies directly in the paths of migration north and south through the Mississippi valley, up and down which, according to observers of the United States biological survey, passes more than 87 per cent of the migratory game birds that enter the United States from either direction each season.

By this action of the legislature Louisiana became possessed of 164,300 acres through two gifts. One is 85, 000 acres in Vermilion parish from the Rockefeller foundation and the other is 79,300 acres, including the famous Marsh island, from the Russell Sage foundation.

These two tracts were allotted to the state five years ago on the condition that the state conservation department should demonstrate for five years its ability to protect the wild life and to establish breeding places for all the resident birds and for all the visitors from central and South America, Mexico and the north. The conservation department did a good job and wrote Q. E. D. at the end of these five years. Thereupon the two foundations informed the state that they were prepared to turn over the tract in perpetuity. So the legislature passed enabling acts, permitting the state to receive these tracts and to preserve them forever as wild life refuges.

Prior to this legislative action the state of Louisiana had been the recipient of a gift of 27,000 acres in the same part of the state from Charles Willis Ward and John Avery McGlen-

 a few days of his eighty-seventh birthday, four years ago.

Besides being a soldier of distinc-

million bay, known as Avery Island.
 The McIlhennys have a fine old home
 there on a knoll shaded by great live oaks. H. H. Dunn in the New York Times quotes Mr. McIlhenny in substance as follows, regarding his 40 years of effort in behalf of the preservation of bird life:

"Back in 1881, when I was living, as now, on Avery island, I used to be interested in the birds and in the plume hunters, who, traveling in their long, unwieldy, lateen-sailed luggers would come into the bayous, the decks of their boats covered with the skins of thousands of American egrets, snow herons, and other birds of beautiful plumage, shown from the birds in the midst of the breeding season, with whole nests full of young left to perish of hunger and thirst in the broiling sun of the Gulf coast. As I grew older, these birds, once so plentiful, began to disappear until in 1893 and 1894, I determined to do what I could to save the few remaining birds of the vast flocks which once had fed almost at the doors of the homes of my family on Avery island.

"Just below the house there was a wet spot—Willow pond—partly covered with willow, buttonwood, sycamore and other water-loving trees and an abundant growth of marsh grasses where each year a constantly decreas-ing number of pairs of green herons, least bitterns, coots and blackbirds nested. This marsh I increased to a small lake by means of a dam—since those days the dams have been increased five times, until now the pool covers 35 acres—but I am getting ahead of the story.

"Hunting through the marshes much of the spring of 1895 I found two nests of the snowy heron—where there had been hundreds of nests ten years before. The snowy heron, by the way, and the American egret both supply
 the fairy plumes known as 'aigrettes' and so much in demand at that time, when they could be sold legally, for women's head-dress. In each of these nests were four young birds. These I took and put in a large cage I had built at one end of the pond. Soon they would perch on my shoulder and eat out of my hand. In November I set them free.

Next spring six of the eight came back, straight as homing pigeons to the spot where the cage had been.
 One disappeared, and of the five remaining, two pair reared eight young.
 The 13 left that fall, and all returned the next March. Five pairs nested, raising 20 young, and so on, year by year, there has been a marked increase, until today there are at least 2,500 pairs—5,000 birds—of these snow herons nesting on Willow pond.
 I believe this is the only place in North America where these herons nest in any numbers, though I have recently shipped 1,500 pairs of these and of the Louisiana and little blue herons to another wild-life refuge just being established in Florida.

"Today there are also breeding in Willow pond, some 6,000 pairs of little blue herons, 10,000 pairs of Louisiana herons, 300 pairs of green herons, 50 pairs of purple gallinules, 60 pairs of Florida gallinules, 25 pairs of least bittern, 10 pairs of kingbirds, and so on.
 "In the course of time, I am sure, this whole 75 miles of gulf coast will have become so completely sanctuary to the wild birds that they will be as tame throughout its 500 square miles
 as are those in Willow pond."

DODSON WARNS
 CALOMEL USERS

You Cannot Gripe, Sicken, or Salivate Yourself if You Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.
 If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.
 If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition, and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.—Adv.

PLEASURE HAD SAD ENDING

Four in a Tub, With Soiled Clothing, Too Much for the Patience of Mother.

My young brother Billie was mischievous, and had to be watched carefully. Mother was busy making a birthday gift one afternoon, and Johnny and I were playing near her,
 with our dog Jim.
 Suddenly mother said: "Where's Billie?"
 We said we didn't know, so were sent to find him. I looked everywhere.
 When I came to the bathroom, there was Billie in the tub which he'd filled with water, and he had his clothes on.
 "C'm in," he said, and I scrambled in too.
 We were enjoying ourselves immensely when I came Johnny, dragging the dog Jim. He managed to get Jim and himself in the tub, and we all had a fine time splashing.
 Suddenly mother entered. "Out of that tub," she ordered. We got out.
 "Undress and go to bed at once." We went, supperless.—Exchange.

GIVING NATURE FAIR CHANCE

Sluggard Satisfied He Had an Admirable Excuse for Refusing to Be

"Arise!" we said in a tone admirably adapted for declamatory purposes, addressing the sluggard, who was still slugging at an unconscionably late hour. "The lark is up to meet the sun.
 The bee is on the wing. Remember the manner in which the experienced school boy read aloud the admonition to Lucy. He had been taught that when he encountered two letters of the same kind he should pronounce them 'double-o' or whatever they might be. Instead of 'o, o.' So he sternly recited, but 'Double up, Lucy!
 The sun is in the sky,' and so forth.
 Why do you not double up, and to your tasks away?"
 "That is a very good story," replied the sluggard, "but it does not move me. We are told that nature does most of her repair work on us while we are in bed. It is my intention to lie here until she fixes me up so that I feel like going to work."—Kansas City

Kenya Colony.

A huge volcanic mountain with its base almost on the equator and its summit high in the regions of snow is giving its name to the new British colony which has hitherto been a protectorate, under the title of British East Africa.

The new name assigned to the former German East Africa is also taken from the chief natural feature of the country, the great lake which was the goal of the ancient Arab highway from the coast, and which is now reached by the central railway and is known as Tanganyika Territory from the lake of that name. It is hoped that Uganda, Kenya and Tanganyika will co-operate in opening the vast portion of tropical Africa which is comprised in these three countries.
