THE REVIVAL MEETING HERE

The protracted meeting at the Methodist church is still in progress. Rev. J. T. Hicks, of Lubbock, is doing the preaching, and holds the audience with an intense earnestness that engages the thoughtful attention of the whole congregation, in a remarkable manner.

It is a misfortune to miss any of these helpful messages.

The meeting will probably continue on into next week. The arrangement for the night service in the open air makes it comfortable for the large audiences that attend the night service.

The pastor was remembered with a liberal pounding, last Tuesday evening, which has brought us under renewed obligation to this kind and generous people; and a deep sense of gratitude for their thoughtful and bountiful provision for our material needs.

God bless them for their liberality, and send rain and fruitful seasons to reward their kindness.

Let everybody remember the meeting. Services at 11:00 a. m. and 9:15 p. m. Prayer meetings at "sunset."

R. F. DUNN, Pastor.

Grandpa Small was operated on at Lubbock Wednesday and is reported to be getting along nicely.

The young woman was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Simmons, of Lubbock, and was to have been married August 14th.

A Visit to the Oil Derrick South of Tahoka

Last Tuesday afternoon the News force had the opportunity of seeing the big derrick and other improvements of the Tahoka Oil and Gas Company, 2 1/2 miles south of Tahoka.

This company has made a vast amount of substantial improvements at the well and we were really surprised at the big preparations that are being made to drill down into old mother earth after the much sought oil and gas.

The Company is now waiting on the arrival of the machinery which they expect right soon, and a large force of workmen have everything ready to install and set the machinery in motion when it arrives, which will be good news to our many readers.

Rev. J. T. Hicks, pastor of the M. E. Church South, at Lubbock, arrived in Tahoka Sunday, and is assisting the pastor, Rev. R. F. Dunn, in a revival meeting here this week. Bro. Hicks is an interesting and forceful speaker, and holds the strict attention of his hearers throughout his discourses. Two services are being held each day and he is speaking to large crowds at each service.

Rev. L. L. F. Parker, and family are in a revival meeting out in the New Home community this week. Mr. Parker was back in town Monday and reports the conditions fine in that part of the county.

Your attention is called to the advertisement of the McAdams Lumber Co in this issue, urging the people to build coal bins to store up their winter coal.

District Attorney, G. E. Lockhart, and County Food Administrator, J. L. Stokes, are over in New Mexico this week on business matters.

Mitchell Jones, of Treadway, Borden county, was visiting S. N. McDaniel and family, Monday.

Judge Price, of Brownfield, was in the city Tuesday.

Couldn't Get a Drink in Collin County

A Lynn county man, who thought he was hitting it hard on account of the drouth, went back to Collin county in search of work. Everything went alright till he reached dear old Collin, and he had to have some water for drinking purposes. The first farm house that he stopped at they refused to give up any water. The next one the same way, and the third one likewise, but he finally got a drink. Now old Collin may have good crops and her people may be prosperous, but this little incident looked mighty bad, and those people appear mighty short to a West Texas man. Out here the people are big hearted—will divide to the last cup full of flour, and as for water, there is an ocean of water just fifty feet under the surface of Lubbock and Lynn counties, and there are enough wells tapping that body of good water to supply all of Texas, and its free as the winds. No scarcity of water in the Plains country even with two years dry spell still in progress. Want a good cool drink without ice. Come to the South Plains.—Lubbock Avalanche.

.49 RAINFALL WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Rain, which amounted to .49 of an inch in Tahoka, fell over a large portion of Lynn county last Wednesday night, and will be of untold benefit to suffering crops in parts of the county, and also aid the stockmen in securing a quantity of winter grass for the cattle left on their hands. While the amount of rainfall was not sufficient to insure bumper crops all over the county, it will add materially to the consumption of feed gathered in the fall.

In some parts of the county the precipitation was heavier than was reported here in town, and if the country is blessed with several more of these showers along there will be a considerable amount of feed raised in Lynn county and the South Plains.

Rev. C. H. Ledger, of Rotan, was in Tahoka for a short time the latter part of last week, the guests of W. M. Lamb and family. Mrs. Lamb and children returned home with him for a visit of several days.

A Letter From Wm. M. (Pap) Moore

Sadler, Texas, Aug. 7, 1918.

Editor News: On July 22nd, in company with my daughter and three of her children, who had made us a visit out there, boarded the train at Southland for Sadler, Texas.

We arrived here the next day, and will say right here it nearly broke my heart to leave old Lynn County, but take the condition of my part of the county out there, I expect it was the best thing to do.

I found things looking pretty good when I first came here, but it is very dry here now. It has not rained here since the 2nd of July. The corn is light and the cotton is shedding every thing but the grown bolls. The oat crop was very light.

This country has changed very much since I lived here 20 years ago. The old ones, many of them have passed to the great beyond; others have moved away, and their places filled with strange faces. Then roads have been changed and many new improvements gone up, so that it does not look natural. I am not satisfied, or in other words, I am homesick already, and when it rains out there and the conditions get back to what they once were, you folks may look for Pap back. Perhaps that is one thing that makes me home sick, I have not heard "Pap" or "Dad" since I came here.

The people of Lynn County have my best wishes, and hope they may never see another drouth, such as they have gone through the past two years.

Yours,

WM. M. (Pap) MOORE.

COMMISSIONERS' COURT MEETS

The Honorable Commissioners' Court was in session Monday with County Judge Cain, presiding.

Among the matters of business attended to by this body was the lowering of the tax rate of the state and county. The county rate was reduced 17 cents and the state rate 5 cents, making a total reduction of 22 cents, which is very commendable on the part of these gentlemen, considering the condition of the country and other things which go to make hard times over a large portion of the State.

We are sure this reduction will be received gladly by the tax payers of the county and we are proud of the honorable body of men that controls the affairs of the county and we are sure they will at all times do all that they possible can for the benefit of its citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. White, of New York City, arrived the first of the week and will make this their home. They are at present stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Weaver in North Tahoka, until the arrival of their household furniture. Mr. White is the owner of a track of land southeast of the city and also some property in Tahoka. News From Lamesa, Dawson County

Lamesa Reporter:

Some time since court declared Mrs. Clarence Holly to be of unsound mind, and due to crowded conditions at the State institutions, Mr. Holly undertook to care for her in their own home. On Sunday morning before he awoke, she took a brick and hit him several blows on the forehead, after which, believing she had killed him, she went to a neighbor's and informed them that they had best go over and see what she had done, that she had killed her husband when help reached him, Mr. Holly had dragged himself out on the galery. At present he is able to be out on the streets. Mrs. Holly is now in confinement to await an opening. She is a good woman and leaves her husband and children. The sympathy of the entire community is with them in this sorrow.

Joe Tarlton's little son and Buck Bennett's were playing Wednesday morning with a 22 caliber rifle and the gun went off, shooting Mr. Bennett's boy through the forefinger. It was an exceedingly fortunate thing that it only proved to be a flesh wound.

Under the Tents at Camp Travis

That there is more than hard work for the recruit in Uncle Sam's Army is best indicated perhaps by figures recently announced by the Y. M. C. A. for Camp Travis. When it is to be considered that the soldiers is likewise entertained by the Knights of Columbus and by several other organizations the civilian can see that the United States Government really appreciates the fact that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" and is doing everything possible to obviate this.

During the month of July alone 44,938 men played in various recreational and athletic games, such as baseball, indoor baseball, volley ball, quoits, boxing, wrestling, etc. Athletics have become a part of the soldier's training. Because of this the American soldier is quick to act, quick to think, has speed and stamina. Each and every company has its athletic box with athletic equipment and drill is deftly sandwiched in with boxing, running, etc.—all to the same end—the development of a soldier in every sense the word implies.

The athletic is of high standard and perfected by the finest physical directors and instructors in the country is evidenced perhaps in the fact that 95,501 people witnessed various athletic contests during the month. They came not only from San Antonio, but from surrounding towns. At one baseball game there were more than 5,000 people, and it is estimated approximately that number saw a championship boxing card on one of the drill fields. These contests are arranged by such men as Johnny Coulon, former bantamweight champion of the world, assisted by Bobby Burns a former contender; Bud Goodwin who holds several world's records at this time as the champion swimmer of the world. The soldier has an opportunity of free instruction in boxing, swimming, etc. by these men sent here by the Commission on War Activities.

But athletics are not all the soldier has as a diversion. There are entertainments galore. The finest dramatic talent in San Antonio and neighborhood entertains the soldiers at the army camp. During the month there was a total attendance of 49,086 at entertainments of a various nature. These range from musical programs to lectures on military subjects, and it would surprise the civilian to know the interest the soldier takes in lectures on military subjects, combined with moving pictures. Some of the lectures have been on thrift, on social and economic questions, on health.

Camp Travis has a splendid library open to the soldiers. Here all the late periodicals, newspapers and war books are available. Every late war book as soon as it comes off the press is sent here immediately. There are 25,000 volumes or more available to the soldier in the camp through the general library and company and branch libraries and they are all well patronized. The Y. M. C. A. alone gave away 23,178 volumes during the month of July to soldiers.

In religious circles, much has already been said. There are 159 classes in Bible study in operation at present. Religious meetings numbering 163 were held by the Y. M. C. A. during the month of July and the total attendance was 46,289. The religious activities are not confined to any one faith, for every one has its ceremonies at regular appointed times.

All of this is optional with the soldier. But there is a portion that is compulsory. It is a series of lectures given by the company commanders on health, hygiene, care of the feet, care of equipment, "Why we are at War" etc. All of these are intended to better fit the soldier for the part he is to play in the Army. Then there is the regular exercise periods conducted by the company commanders in which the soldiers is required to take part each morning before breakfast and during the day's before breakfast and during the day's drill periods. These exercises cles, to develop agility and strong winds, to start the blood in circulation and quicken the brain action.

This is all in the army camp. San Antonio nearby offers numerous other opportunities for pleasure, amusement and improvement, physically and mentally.

TO THE EXHIBITORS AND PATRONS OF STATE FAIR

The War Department, through the Division of Aeronautics, having taken over Fair Park for continued use as an aviation concentration camp, the Board of Directors of the State Fair of Texas, in patriotic deference to war demands, and feeling that any sacrifice, no matter how great, should be made to cooperate in the speedy and successful winning of the war, have promptly acquiesced in every demand that has been made at all times.

For this reason, the Thirty-Third Annual Fair and Exposition announced for the dates of October 15-27, 1918, has of necessity, had to be abandoned.

While keenly appreciating that the abandonment of the Fair for 1918 is a supreme sacrifice by the citizenship of all Texas and the entire Southwest, the Board of Directors is confident that this action of cooperation with our Government, will be unanimously commended.

STATE FAIR OF TEXAS.

FAMILIES OF SOLDIERS
SHOULD NOT VISIT CAMPS

St. Louis, Aug. 12.—At a conference of Red Cross workers held in St. Louis a decided stand was taken against relatives going to cantonment towns to be near soldiers. It was pointed out that the practice injured the moral of the soldiers, brought about impoverished conditions in his family and in some instances created a condition that threatened to disrupt the family.

It was agreed at this meeting to ask chairmen of all Home Service Sections to warn relatives against visiting camps. This may best be done by telling men about to depart for camp the danger of having relatives visit them and asking that they advise relatives against it.

The Red Cross has been called on to aid thousands of stranded wives and mothers who left home and relatives to visit camps. The efforts thus expended by the Red Cross could be diverted to aiding dependents who remain at their homes.

DON'T CASH YOUR WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

There is too much inclination on the part of some people to cash their War Savings Certificates, for the general good of the cause. It is the desire of the Government that stamps be kept until the war is over if possible, and we believe with a very few exceptions that every purchaser could well afford to put these certificates away and forget about having them so far as cashing them is concerned, till we have whipped the kaiser. The sale of these stamps was the means of raising money by the government for the prosecution of the war, and large sums have been raised from that source, but if we buy them this month and demand cash next month the government is not benefitted any—fact of the business you have done more harm than good—better not have bought any at all, because the cost of printing the stamps, the cards and all other literature connected with the sale of the certificates amounts to a great deal, hence the Government has lost money in the deal when you buy and cash them in almost the next hour.

Of course it is the intention of the Government to cash them when presented at the proper place for that purpose, and there are instances where reverses have come that this is necessary, but let us implore you to hold on to them to the last moment, that the Government may get the benefit of your loan as long as possible.

The cost of carrying on the war is enormous, and we should be striving to buy more war savings stamps rather than disposing of them. The amount of money that this government is having to put up to keep our army in good shape and assist the allies in keeping their armies in fighting trim, is staggering, but we are into it and we must fight it out, and under the circumstances we are glad that we are in position to stand and defend our principles and protect the weaker nations against the beastly attacks of an uncivilized autocrat, and while many of us are not in the army, shouldering a gun or wearing an army uniform, we can all help to win the war, by keeping all the war stamps we buy till Uncle Sam tells us to cash them.

We do not charge disloyalty in this warning, but we believe that many of those who are cashing these stamps are doing so because they have not given the matter the necessary thought. It is said that less than two per cent of the English purchasers of stamps in that country have cashed them. We are not less patriotic than they. Think about it very seriously before you ask Uncle Sam to pay money back. He needs it. It is your part in winning the war. Is it not a very small part? We answer, yes, but taking the total amount of money raised in this way and it means a great sum. Keep your stamps. Help win the war! It is your patriotic duty. Who would do less than perform a duty to his country?

THE AMERICAN FARMER

There are optimists. And there are dreamers. And there are amateur clairvoyants whose rosy visions look like the phantoms of an alcoholic trance.

Some of us believe that after the war food prices will go back to where they were in 1910, and earlier. They say that the farmer gets too much profit now, but they do not realize that until lately he never got enough.

There is only one class in this country in which most of the labor is entirely unpaid. A farmer's wife and children constitute the bulk of his working staff, but they are not on the payroll—a condition existing in no other trade between the two oceans.

Yet a farmer is as much a specialist as an electrician. He needs as much scientific training as a dentist. His employees must be skilled workmen, and they must be paid skilled workmen's wages.

If, when the war is over, we find that the prices of farm products show a tendency to stay where they are we will know that the American farmer is coming into his own.

REGISTRATION IN EACH COUNTY VOTING PRECINCT

Official advices state that legislation extending the present draft ages will be enacted by Congress at an early date. According to plans of the Administration, immediately upon enactment of the new law and after issuance by the President of the required proclamation the registration will be effective. It cannot be ascertained at the present time with exact certainty just what ages will be rendered subject to registration and draft, but it is safely assumed that a very large number of men, probably equal to or greater than the number of men required to register on June 5, 1917, will be called upon to stand in readiness to discharge the obligation of allegiance, and that the day of registration will be early in September.

The Local Boards will have immediate direction and supervision of the registration within their respective jurisdictions. The actual registration will be made in the customary voting precincts in the jurisdiction of each Local Board.

The man who buys the "made in Germany" article after the war will know that he is aiding to prop up the Junkers for another attack on the world. To meet this condition, the American Defense Society has formulated a pledge which is being generally circulated and signed, and which pledges the signator to buy no German products.

How proud we are to have some wheat in our household now that we realize that our saving is part of the magnificent total that has fed our army and saved the allies' morale.

ACTIVITIES OF THE BAPTISTS OF THE PLAINS

The Harbinger, Plainview, Texas: Pastor P. F. Fronabarger is to assist Alanreed Church in a meeting. Gospel singer, Brashear, who lives near Estacado, conducts the music in the Becton meeting. He knows how. Prof Denney Rankin is at home a few days with his father, Rev. J. D. Rankin. He expects to sail for France. Evangelist H. D. Heath and Pastor Meador, are in a meeting at Petersburg. At first service Saturday night there was five up for prayer and three professions. On Sunday there was one other profession and two received for baptism.

We have just gone through several days meeting with the people of Abernathy. We were raised to believe in protracted meetings and have not departed from our raising. Some pastors advocate and claim conversions at regular service. We believe in that, too. There ought to be weekly conversions—there would be if the pastor tried to do it and the people were trained to it. But even then, the protracted meeting would be a necessity. The concentrated sustained effort will accomplish what the intermittent effort will not and cannot accomplish. Rapid firing guns are a necessity—the frequency and rapidity with which the hammer falls determines the heat generated thereby. Pastor Hardesty, of Silverton, did the preaching. We have not for years heard a series of sermons their equal. Brother Hardesty combines teaching and evangelism in a fine way.

Pastor J. F. Nix has just closed a great meeting with his church at Texico, having a good number of conversions and additions which brings the number of additions up to ninety-six and about sixty conversions since he came to us a year ago last month. One of the remarkable things about the meeting just closed is that the congregation read scripture and reported from time to time amounts that totalled 7,600 chapters. Never before have the people here taken such interest in reading the Bible. Possibly the largest crowd that ever gathered here for a religious service assembled here Sunday night to hear Brother Nix in his last message of the meeting.

Brother B. B. Stearns, of Rusk, Texas, assisted G. I. Brittain in a ten days meeting at County Line Church in Lubbock County. There were 14 conversions, 12 additions to the church, 8 by baptism, 4 by letter. Brother Stearns is a young man of great promise, a good preacher and an untiring worker.

RAILROAD MEN MUST BE COURTEOUS—McADOO

Santa Fe, N. M., Aug. 7.—The state corporation commission has been informed in a letter from regional director Hale Holden, that railroad employes must be courteous and that the government will enforce measures against discourtesy.

It seems that some station employes and train hands, overwhelmed with the dignity of being government employes, have been abrupt in their bearing toward the public. One flagrant case is cited where officials refused relatives any formation about passengers on a derailed train.

The giving of information in a courteous manner to the public is described by Mr. Holden as "the first importance," and railroad officials are urged to correct a "growing tendency in the wrong direction."

C. J. RUSSELL IS SLATON'S NEW POSTMASTER

A telegram from Washington Tuesday stated that C. J. Russell has been appointed postmaster at Slaton to succeed Mrs. Annie F. Higbee, whose term of office expired over a year ago. Mr. Russell has been in this community for several years. He is a school teacher and he will make Slaton an efficient and accommodating postmaster. His many friends are glad to congratulate him in his success. The selection of postmaster was made under the civil service examination. Mrs. Higbee will remain in the post office until Mr. Russell files his bond and qualifies. She has been assistant postmaster and postmaster at Slaton for over seven

A REVIEW OF THE NATION'S FINANCE

As the war progresses the cost increases steadily. We are manufacturing a much greater amount of munitions, and as the number of our forces in Europe increases, a steadily increasing volume of supplies is necessary for their maintenance.

In addition to the expense of our own participation in the war, the United States is acting as banker for its allies. Since the opening of the war we have loaned $6,091,590,000, and we are loaning at the rate of about $400,000,000 a month. These loans have been granted as follows: Great Britain, $3,170,000,000; France $1,765,000,000; Italy, $660,000,000; Russia, $325,000,000; Belgium, $131,800,000; Greece, $15,790,000; Cuba, $15,000,000; Serbia, $9,000,000; Roumania, $6,666,000.

According to figures made public recently, the war has cost the United States and England more than $52,000,000,000, of which the United States' share is more than $15,000,000,000.

More than $10,000,000,000 of the money spent by this country was raised by bonds and Thrift Stamps, the balance being provided by taxes. Great Britain's war expenditures total some $36,515,496,978, of which $27,277,027,062 was obtained by borrowings and the balance by revenues, including loans raised in the United States.

The aggregate expenses of some of the other allied nations are: France, $6,808,300,000; Italy $2,545,000,000; Russia $6,175,000,000; Canada $770,000,000; Australia, $683,000,000; New Zealand, $102,330,000, and India $171,000,000.

The Teutonic Powers have spent nearly $30,000,000,000, divided as follows: Germany, $20,814,000,000; Austria, $5,914,000,000, and Hungary, $2,246,000,000.

FEDERAL OCCUPATION TAX IS PROVIDED FOR

Washington, Aug. 13.—Proprietors of all business and professional men with only a few exceptions will pay an annual Federal license of $10 and heads of wholesale concerns doing a yearly business of $200,000 or more will be required to pay an annual fee of $25, according to a schedule inserted today in the draft of the $8,000,000,000 revenue bill by the House Ways and Means Committee. Farmers, mechanics, ministers and teachers will be exempted from the $10 occupational tax, as will concerns doing an annual business of less than $2,000.

Secretary McAdoo will appear before the committee tomorrow in support of the Treasury plan for new excess profits and alternative war profits taxes. Members of the committee at the close of today's session said the bill would be ready for presentation to the House when that body reassembles next Monday.

Chairman Kitchin, in announcing tonight that the bill would provide means of raising all of the $8,000,000,000 originally allotted to be raised by taxation, made the following statement.

"Today we put a 10 per cent tax on all jewelry composed wholly or partially of platinum, in addition to the 10 per cent manufacturers' tax on all forms of jewelry as agreed to already by the committee. We require vendors to keep a record so the Government may know where all the platinum in the country is located and how much.

"The committee adopted an occupational tax. There is no definite estimate yet as to how much it will raise in revenue. Under the plan adopted, the proprietor of any concern doing business of $2,000 a year or more will pay $10 annual tax on wholesale concerns doing business of $200,000 or more will have a tax of $25 along similar lines. This does not apply to clerks, employes of concerns nor the women. Farmers, clergymen, teachers and mechanics also are exempted.

"The income tax was amended as to provide for payment to or any foreign country of the on incomes earned in those countries by American citizens or corporations. The tax to be paid as provided by the laws of those countries.

"We discussed the question of allowance for depletion of oil but deferred action until later. The Committee amended the 10 per cent tax on amounts leased wires and talking lines in addition to exempting newspaper associations and publishers leaving the original provision as to everything else, in stock brokerage leased lines cuts."

No one has a right to tax on luxuries, but the means committee should take great care that the enormous that they have in mind does not too far into the necessity. It will become very oppressive many of the people of the means.
