

LYNN COUNTY NEWS.

VOLUME 11

TAHOKA, LYNN COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 24 1914

NUMBER 17

VINSON-MASON

Henry C. Vinson, of near Tahoka, and Miss Clyde Masson, of Fort Worth, were quietly married in Lubbock Monday, December 21.

The ceremony at Lubbock was the culmination of a school boy and girl romance, the young people having first met in one of the Fort Worth schools.

Mr. Vinson is an industrious young farmer of Lynn county and is well liked by his large circle of friends. Mrs. Vinson is highly spoken of by those who her in Fort Worth.

The young people will make their home here for the time being.

Dave Terry, of San Saba, came in Saturday from a prospecting trip thru Hale and other northern counties, and spent a few days with his old friend W. J. Crouch, of two miles west of Tahoka. Mr. Crouch tells us that Mr. Terry likes our county better than any he has yet seen and will move here if he can dispose of his San Saba county holdings.

GILTS FOR SALE

I have a few choice gilts for sale, ready to breed now.

D. W. Harris, O'Donnell, Tex.

WALLS-EXUM

The W. O. W. hall was the scene of quite a unique ceremony last Saturday night.

After the picture show County Judge and Mrs. Joe Stokes, Mr. Holt Stokes, Mr. Homer Lemon and Misses Smith and Davidson, in company with Sov. J. W. Walls and Miss Annie Exum repaired to the choppers camp. Judge Stokes advanced and gave the mystic sign that admitted him to the lodge. The camp received instructions and was declared at ease by Council Commander H. C. Smith. Sov. Walls was then admitted in due form, and led the Mrs. Walls to be into the forest; the party in attendance followed. The happy pair advanced to the stump and saluted the flag. Judge Stokes then approached, and bidding Mr. Walls and Miss Exum grasp the helm of the axe, pronounced the words that made them one.

Mr. and Mrs. Wall are at home in the Denton house in east Tahoka.

DRESS MAKING

Mrs. Hardy Montgomery is located at McDaniel's store, and is prepared to do all kinds of plain and fancy sewing. Dress making a specialty.

161J

ATTENTION!

ALL PARTIES INDEBTED TO THE TAHOKA HARDWARE CO., OR HAVING PAST DUE PAPER TO THIS FIRM WILL BE COMPELLED TO TAKE UP THEIR OBLIGATIONS BY JANUARY 1, 1915, AS THE BUSINESS WILL CHANGE HANDS.

B. H. ROBINSON, MANAGER.

Claude C. Donaldson, of Seth Ward College, Plainview, came in Monday to spend Christmas and New Year's Day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Donaldson. He will return about January 4.

Misses Blanch Cathey and Cassie Jackson, of Seth Ward College, passed thru Saturday enroute for their respective homes at Pride and Lamesa to spend the holidays.

Guy Shook left Monday for Amarillo, at which place he will make will remain indefinitely.

Miss Fay Gooch passed thru on the Wednesday evening train for her parents home west of O'Donnell to spend the holidays. She has been attending the Normal at Canyon.

At the just past term of District court of Lubbock the case of the Crosbyton South Plains R. R. Co. vs Geo. C. Woffarth et al, to collect balance due on bonus notes, was changed to the District court of Lynn county on motion of plaintiff. It will come up for trial next term of court.

Misses Grace and Tommy Turk left Saturday for their home in Roby to spend the holidays.

H. C. Smith, R. D. Morris and Mr. Robison left Monday on a prospecting trip in New Mexico.

Miss Noba Stroud and Mr. Ros' Ketner came in Wednesday eve from Crosbyton, where Miss Stroud has been attending the Crosby County Teachers' Institute.

PRIVATE SAM HIGGINS

Tuesday night the immortal soul of Private Sam Higgins of the Confederate Army of the Tennessee answered the roll call to the camp on the other side.

Sam Higgins was born 1834 in east Tennessee, served thru the four years of the war, married miss Ida King in '72 to which union was born three children, Tom, Will and Mary. Mr. Higgins came to Texas when this great state was practically a wilderness roamed by the lone prairie wolf, band of Indians and vast herds of buffalo. He has followed the retreating frontier all his life and was making a stand on the last frontier of the state when the dark rider overtook him. Mr. Higgins has been numbered among the Presbyterian flock since early manhood and breasted the chilling tide with a faith unshaken that he who died upon the Roman cross would gather him into his bosom when he reached the other side. The death of the young is pathetic, but to an old man who has finished his course, and holds the lowly Jesus by the hand, it is as a crown of glory. Interment was made Wednesday

SUCCESSFUL PLAYS

"Tompkins Hired Hand" produced by the Dramatic Club of the Tahoka High School at the Star Theatre last Friday night and "Dot, the Miner's Daughter," staged by the Wilson Home Talent Club at the same place Saturday night were individual and collective successes, both dramatically and financially.

Each performance was preceeded by the usual excellent picture program that the Star management gives its patrons.

The proceeds of the Tahoka play will be used to add a new set of histories to the High School library.

The Wilson Club took their play to Lamesa Monday night and scored another success.

day in the Tahoka cemetery, Rev. C. H. Ledger officiating.

Mr. Higgins is survived by a son, Tom Higgins and only daughter, Mrs. Mary Risinger, both of Tahoka.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved.

W. J. Crouch returned Saturday from Terry county where he has just finished a neat little dwelling for Mr. Lindsey, one of Terry's prosperous stockmen,

