OLD CITIZEN DEAD

It is with profound regret that we record the recent demise of Ima Nocker, the oldest resident of our city and section. Deceased was born at Everywhere in the state of Dissatisfaction on January 1st, of the year One B. C. 1922, after a lingering illness of several years duration. His health had declined rapidly during the past year, which persistent rumors attribute to the unscrupulous attacks of a group of local exponents of optimism, who have been giving vent to their vandalistic impulses through the medium of an organization known as the CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The remains were consigned to their final heritage on the morning of New Year's day being laid to rest in the window of the Chamber of Commerce under the auspices of the Order of Public Spirited Citizens. As the casket was lowered to its final resting place members of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce rendered a fitting requiem and performed the ancient rite of "taps and three volleys." Deceased was an honorary member of the Ancient Amalgamated Order of Chronic Kickers, and his untimely passing will be deeply mourned by the cohorts of that creed. He is survived by a brother, Ima Ginnit, and a sister, Miss Lotta Gossip, who have checked their trunks to Borneo and will reside there in the future.—Contributed.

A CORRECTION

In publishing the official statement of the financial condition of the Guaranty State Bank, of Ta-hoka, in the last week's issue, an error was made in same, which we are printing in corrected form this week. Instead of the item "Other Resources" it should have read, "Acceptances and Bills of Exchange. Cotton 51.

The printers made the error owing the lines being printed crooked on the form turned in at this office.

Jno. S. Golding Accidentally Killed Sunday Morning

One of the saddest deaths ever recorded in Lynn county, occured Sunday morning near the Dixie school house, when Jno. S.
Golding, age 18 years, was acci-dently killed from the discharge of a shot gun when he attempted to climb on a loaded wagon.
It is thought that the hammer of the gun caught on the wheel which caused the discharge, the entire load entered the lad's breast, causing instant death.

The horrible tragedy occurred about ten o'clock in the morning.
Justice of the peace, I. P. Metcalf, was called to hold the inquest. He was accompanied by County Attorney B. P. Maddox.

Young Golding was in the employee of Messrs. Ketner and DePriest when he met an untimely death.

The accident is deeply deplored by the citizens of Lynn county, and especially those who reside in the Dixie and New Home communities, who had formed a close acquaintanceship of the young man.

Thurman Wells, of O'Donnell, spent Wednesday in Tahoka.

A deal was recently consumated whereby M. H. Portwood purchased the wagon yard belonging to J. N. Jones, located just northwest of the public square.
This is a valuable piece of property and Mr. Portwood will be in position to accommodate all travelers passing through Tahoka either by wagon or auto.

Mrs. H. C. Crie departed Saturday for Dallas, where she will accompany Mrs. Otho Shook to this city. Mrs. Shook has been in poor health and it is hoped that her removal to this section of the country will prove beneficial.

Miss Era Small, teacher of music in the Tahoka Public schools, presented a part of her large class in recital at the Star Theatre last Thursday evening.
A large crowd was present and pronounced the program as being excellent, the pupils showing careful training under the instruction of Miss Small.

Following Completion of Oil Field Work, Other Sections Will Be Given Attention.

Merit, Texas—Quarantined in the Texas of bandits, bootleggers, gamblers, murderers and other classes of lawbreakers, Governor Neff has in his initial step for a State-wide campaign against the lawless element, took vigorous action.

Wolters, Texas National Guard, in supreme command.

Five hours after the declaration of martial law, orders were issued for the movement to Merit of headquarters troops, Fifty-Seventh Texas Cavalry of Frontier Captain E. A. Depue, commanding Captain Depue was ordered to carry full field equipment for a six-month stay.

The declaration of martial law was made according to the Governor's proclamation, because of the "open and flagrant violation of the law in this town, the highway robbery is of frequent occurrence, accompanied by a wide array of the murder of peaceful and law-abiding citizens, gambling houses are in full operation day and night, prohibited by armed men, including others are being operated all over the town at all hours of the day, as well as in houses and other premises, a multitude of unfortunates whom the lawless element has enslaved and whose and the local officers are either unable or unwilling to maintain and enforce the law."

Discussing the conditions which brought about the putting into effect of martial law in the oil field town, Adjutant General Depue says: "We agreed to issue this order as a last resort with the streets without being blocked, and we are going to do it open possibility, violation of the gambling laws and of the liquor laws must be stopped."

PREMIER OF FRANCE AND CABINET HAVE RESIGNED

Paris—President Millerand has announced Premier Raymond Poincaré to the Chamber of Deputies and formally invited him to assume the task of forming a new French Cabinet to replace that of Aristide Briand, which resigned Thursday.

M. Poincaré agreed tentatively to assume the task.

A. Briand's resignation came with dramatic suddenness in the Chamber of Deputies, for the Premier returned Thursday morning from his six weeks' vacation with the British Prime Minister at Cannes, and brought the surprise news that he had resigned his office with his cabinet.

President Millerand accepted the resignation of Premier Briand and his cabinet.

NEWBERRY IS WINNER; ENTITLED TO HIS SEAT

Washington—Thomas D. Newberry was declared by the Senate and Thursday night to be entitled to the seat which he now holds and which was made the basis of a contest by Harry Ford, the Democratic opponent in the 1918 Michigan Senatorial election.

The seat was held by G. W. Smith, a Republican leader in the Senate, but Mr. Newberry was entitled to the seat, but abandoned it in favor of Mr. Ford, who was elected in 1918.

Senator Newberry, in the following statement issued to the Senate, stated as a condition:

"I have a little work with Senator Ford, but the three years and four months of prosecution have made a complete condition and consideration of myself as of consequence."

The Poet's Business. The duty of the poet is like unto that of the naturalist; it is to pursue and capture those rare specimens of thought that have hitherto escaped the hunter's net; to increase in crystal-clear nature these captive beauties of nature; and offer them, "told the wildflowers of their native haunts, for the admiration, reverence and love of all mankind."

BELIEVED IN SAFETY FIRST

Small Ruth Wanted to Be Quite Sure About Her Proprietorship of That Apple Pie.

There was never any haste at Aunt Dorothea's table; consequently Ruth, the youngest of all the nieces and nephews who gathered at Hunting Hill in the summer, had learned what to expect. Everything was served by Aunt Dorothea herself, and age had strict precedence.

There came a day, however, when Ruth, returning to the family dining room after a season spent in her room with a sore throat, found at her place a little delectable apple pie, so small that it seemed as if it must be meant for her alone. Nevertheless, she determined to be cautious.

"Am I—" she looked anxiously toward the head of the table, where sat her awe-inspiring relative—"am I to be aunty for this pie, or is it all mine, Aunt Dorothea?"—Wayside Tales.

A Compliment. "What do you think of our city, Mr. Newcome?" asked the landlord of the tavern at Grudge, who was distended with local pride.

"Well," replied the guest, who was evidently of a pessimistic turn of mind, "it seems to me that the hogs wallowing in the puddles along Main street look as healthy and contented as any swine I have seen similarly occupied anywhere."—Kansas City Star.

After all, there's nothing worth worrying about.

THINK UNCLE SAM FAIR GAME

Postmaster Asserts That Even the Best Class of Citizens Will Attempt to Cheat Him.

"Many good people," said the postmaster, "try to cheat the post. Clergymen, you know, will smuggle. Well, I've caught missionaries flim-flamming the post office.

"A missionary in Spain used to send thick bundles of Spanish newspapers to his sister. Inside the newspapers would be hidden kid gloves, boxes of sardines, fine Spanish embroideries, letters, all kinds of things.

"There's a deacon in this town who can't see a poorly canceled stamp but he must peel it off the envelope, wash it and use it again. Of course, we always bowl him out.

"The worst game ever tried on us, though, was the work of a professional revivalist. He took an old, canceled postcard, scratched out the cancellation marks with a sharp knife, wrote his message on a piece of paper that he pasted on the card's reverse side, and then tried to send the thing through the mails.

"All these people are good people. Good people, as I said before—people who wouldn't steal a cent—are continually tempted to cheat the customs and the post."—Detroit Free Press.

Smack That Child.

A mother was reproving her little six-year-old girl for being naughty.

"If you are so tiresome and disagreeable," she said, "you will not be loved, and when you grow up your friends will be few."

The child replied at once:

"I shall not want any friends, for I shall get married."

"Oh, no," replied mother, "you will not get married if you are disagreeable, for gentlemen are particular."

After a short pause, the little girl remarked:

"Well, mummy, I don't think daddy was particular."

Daddy in a Bad Way.

Six-year-old Lois, whose father is professor of English at the university, delights in using "big" words. One day she heard her mother saying over the phone to one of her husband's students:

"No, Mr. B— cannot keep his appointment, I'm afraid; he is very much indisposed this afternoon."

Some days later Lois, while playing, was overheard to say to an imaginary caller at the door:

"No; my husband cannot see you today; he is very much decomposed!"—Indianapolis Star.

"Your enemies are now saying that you eat with your knife and use bad grammar."

Connubial Plesantry.

After Thorough Trial a Detroit, Mich., Man Endorses Pe-ru-na

The following letter writer from Detroit, Michigan is no snapper judgment expressed on the merits of Pe-ru-na, the well-known cathartic remedy, but rather a mature, sober opinion formed after a full year's trial.

This is the way Mr. Michael Fako of 906 East Palmer Avenue, in the Michigan Metropolitan, writes: "After using PE-RU-NA for about one year will say I have found it a very good medicine for catarrh. It has helped me a great deal and I am very well satisfied. I have gained in weight, eat and sleep well, my bowels are regular and better color in my face."

"PE-RU-NA has done wonders and to me is worth its weight in gold. I shall continue to use PE-RU-NA as long as I live and recommend to my friends who are troubled with catarrh. Nothing can be more convincing than an endorsement of this nature from an actual user. There are many people in every community whose experience, in using Pe-ru-na, has been identical with Mr. Fako's. It is the standby for coughs, colds, catarrh, stomach and bowel disorders and all catarrhal conditions. Put up in both tablet and liquid form. SOLD EVERYWHERE."

If your cold is in the chest, and head is all stopped up, heat a little Nash's salve in a spoon held over a lighted match, close mouth and inhale the vapors. Head will be cleared instantly. Now apply salve in both nostrils with finger; this is to keep nasal passages open.

Apply hot wet towels to throat and heat to open pores; take off before cooling and with hand rub Nash's Salve on liberally—thickly; cover immediately with warm flannel. Do same to back. Arrange bed coverings in a sort of tunnel form at chin so that vapors can be inhaled all night. Swallowing a small amount of the salve the size of a pea (slowly) will help.

This is the "one-night treatment." It works, too. You will find the cold completely broken by morning and can probably go about your duties at once. Nash's Salve is sold in 30 and 60-cent bottles at all drug stores everywhere.

TOO VALUABLE TO DISCARD

Why Pretty Young Artist Has Decided to Celebrate Her Birthday for Years to Come.

"I had a birthday recently," said the pretty young artist to the Business Woman, when they met for luncheon. "And the results were most pleasing."

"Gracious," said the Business Woman. "I thought you told me last year it was positively your last; mine come and go, and I've gotten to that stage where I really am in ignorance of the date."

"I had planned to let November 20 pass and not even think of it. But I suddenly realized I needed so many things, like handkerchiefs, hose, gloves, etc.—things that somehow go with birthdays. I had an inspiration—a lovely, practical one. I'm the youngest of a big family—so I typed on note paper a subtle reminder, my name, November 20, 1897, and my present address—you see, nothing but suggestion! It worked beautifully—every day for a week I've been getting something. I've decided it's silly to give up birthdays—expect to keep mine every year."—New York Sun.

Geraldine—I'm so glad to hear your voice.

Gerald—Thank you, dear.

Geraldine—I mean at this distance.

To be disappointed in love may save you a greater disappointment in marriage.

Some of the most successful magazine writers devote their talent to the advertising pages.

His Condition.

"How are you coming on, Uncle Bragg?" asked an acquaintance.

"Well, I'll just—p-tu—tell ye, Gabe," answered old Bragg Sockery of Mount Pizay, Ark. "I ain't doing no particular good. 'Pears like the doctor and the neighbors don't understand my case. Some says one thing about it and some says something else, till I'll be dogged if I don't get to sorter wondering whether none of 'em have got any sense. I don't like to disappoint my friends, though, and I hate to waste what I pay the doctor for. So I've took enough of one thing and I t'ber to float a boat, and have kinda got the notion that what's the matter with me is simply what's the matter with me, and there ain't no—p-tu—help for it."—Kansas City Star.

Now the "Hydro-Glider."

A new "hydro-glider" just completed on the west coast is described in Popular Mechanics Magazine. It is said to provide all the thrill and speed of a hydroplane gliding over the surface of the ocean. In fact, it amounts practically to a flying boat without wings, and is driven over the surface of the water by an air-propeller motor at a speed of sixty miles an hour.

It's easy enough to become a great financier if you have money for experiments.

Petting parties, so-called, don't seem to be much different from the old-fashioned "kissing games."

The mold of a man's fortune is his own hands.

Any story told over a long-distance telephone is a sort of distant relation.

MILLIONS of PEOPLE

ALL OVER THE COUNTRY KNOW

This about Post Toasties

There is a substance, a flavor, a crispness about Post Toasties that you do not find—and you cannot find in ordinary corn flakes.

That's because the patented process of making Post Toasties unusually delicious cannot be successfully imitated.

The golden brown food-flakes you get in the YELLOW and RED package are firm, deliciously crisp, yet tender. Post Toasties do not crumble in the package, mush down, or become pasty and tasteless when milk or cream is added.

This YELLOW and RED package is your protection against ordinary Corn Flakes

IS YOUR HEALTH GRADUALLY SLIPPING?

Interesting Experience of a Texas Lady Who Declares That if More Women Knew About Cardui They Would Be Spared Much Sickness and Worry.

Navasota, Texas.—Mrs. W. M. Peden, of this place, relates the following interesting account of how she recovered her strength, having realized that she was actually losing her health:

"Health is the greatest thing in the world, and when you feel that gradually slipping away from you, you certainly sit up and take notice. That is what I did some time ago when I found myself in a very nervous, run-down condition of health. I was so tired and felt so lifeless I could hardly go at all.

"I was just no account for work. I would get a bucket of water and would feel so weak I would have to set it down before I felt like I could lift it to the shelf. In this condition, of course, to do even my housework was a task almost impossible to accomplish.

"I was . . . nervous and easily upset.

I couldn't rest well at night and was . . . just lifeless.

"I heard of Cardui and after reading I decided I had some female trouble that was pulling me down. I sent for Cardui and began it . . .

"In a very short while after I began the Cardui Home Treatment I saw an improvement and it wasn't long until I was all right—good appetite, splendid rest, and much stronger so that I easily did my house work.

"Later I took a bottle of Cardui as a tonic. I can recommend Cardui and gladly do so, for if more women knew, it would save a great deal of worry and sickness."

The enthusiastic praise of thousands of other women who have found Cardui helpful should convince you that it is worth trying. All druggists sell it.

IMA NOCKER DEAD

Old Ima Nocker is dead. His obituary noticed is carried on the front page of this issue. He is a direct descendant of the late General Gloom, whom we are reliably advised has been succeeded in command by General Optimism. He is survived by certain pestiferous relatives, but we are informed they have folded their tents like Arabs and silently stolen away, and will no longer impede our progress.

1922 will reward honest effort and good business methods as surely as tomorrow's sun will rise. The future of Tahoka and the surrounding territory is unlimited, and our opportunities are proportionate. Nature has blessed us with unbounded riches and resources, and only self-imposed barriers can deter our progress. What we need is vision and the courage to launch out for bigger and better things. The command is forward.

Considerable complaint has been made by various citizens of the town regarding the practice of small boys shooting targets within the city limits. One citizen reports that his cow was shot through the nose, and bullets have been heard to whiz close by. This practice should be stopped, if not by the parents of the children, then by the officers of the law. If it is continued, it may be the means of costing the life of some innocent citizen. Boys should be exceedingly careful where they shoot in town.

John Pennington, who recently moved to Tahoka from Azle, Texas, is this week moving his family to Robstown, Texas, to make their future home.

Mrs. G. A. Napier and daughter, Miss Coy, are this week moving to Canyon, Texas, to make their home. Mrs. Napier recently disposed of her property in Tahoka, and is moving to Canyon in order to get the benefit of the State Normal at that place.

The News has heretofore failed to mention that Mrs. Becky Roberts has charge of the Home Bakery & Cafe on the west side of the public square, she having taken over the business upon the departure of W. R. McQuiston and family for Dalhart recently.

Mrs. G. W. Harrison left this week for O'Donnell to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Claudie Wells, after spending some time in Tahoka as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. R. McGonagill. Mrs. Harrison makes her home in Clovis, N. M.

The old Lynn school house, which was advertised for sale to the highest bidder, was bought by Frank Pennington, residing southwest of Tahoka.

Come to our Sunday School, we are proud of our work and wanting every one that will come and enjoy it with us.

Rev. H. D. Heath filled his regular appointments Sunday and Sunday night.

Rev. Bogue, of Amarilo, preached here last Monday night. He also made an interesting talk to the school Monday and made some interesting talks to the different people.

B. W. Baker, of Lorenzo, was in our town Sunday afternoon.

Homer Scott and family visited in Tahoka Sunday night.

Mrs. S. F. King and Mrs. Elvira Dawson were visitors in the Pilley home Tuesday.

Mrs. Metcalf and Miss O'Bera Forrester have been on the sick list this week but reported better at this writing.

Miss Addie Adair visited the Misses West Sunday.

Mrs. Adah Dawson has a cousin visiting her this week.

A Suggestion Worth While

JACKSON, Miss.—"My trouble was feminine weakness. I suffered misery at times and was weak most all of the time. I was reading in a newspaper about Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription and I saw that I could order one of Dr. Pierce's books, the 'Common Sense Medical Adviser,' from him, so I did, and I found my complaint was woman's trouble. I started on the Favorite Prescription, and am glad to say it did me all the good in the world. I had three doctors; they all said that I had to be operated upon, but after using the Prescription I began to feel better. I have now taken three bottles and feel fine. Am glad to recommend Dr. Pierce's medicine to all my friends."

COUNTER-EVIDENCE IN INVESTIGATION

ONE WITNESS SAYS HE SAW OFFICER KILL RUNNER IN COLD BLOOD.

Washington.—Nearly a dozen witnesses, all from Virginia, broke about even in numbers Tuesday in testifying for and against Major H. L. Ople, Staunton, Va., before a Senate committee investigating charges that American soldiers had been hanged without trial in France.

But at the all-day session there was no evidence relating specifically to hangings. It all swung around charges that Major Ople, as commander of the Third Battalion, 116th Infantry, had shot some of his own men.

Men who had served with the regiment, supplementing testimony submitted last week, declared they saw Major Ople shoot runners in October, 1918, while his command was in the Argonne defensive. Others who were with the officer on the dates mentioned asserted that he had shot no one and that he only fired to stop some of his men, apparently in disordered retreat, in an effort to reform his line and get troops back into fighting state.

Stonewall Jackson Albin declared he saw Major Ople shoot an American soldier in cold blood.

"The runner, who was shot, was running toward the Major," said Albin. "I saw him hand the Major a piece of paper which Major Ople glanced at. Then the runner turned his back and started to walk away when Major Ople shot him. Ople gazed at the fallen man for a few minutes and then moved on."

James Carlton testified that he saw Major Ople shoot a soldier Oct. 9, 1918.

"I saw Major Ople seize a rifle and order him to stop," said Carlton. "He shot and a man fell." No other bullets were falling at the time, the witness said, but some shells were dropping.

Called as the first witness for Major Ople, Frank M. Bondurant, Norfolk, Va., machine gun officer with the third battalion of Ople's regiment, declared there was no truth in statements that the Major had killed a machine gun Sergeant on Oct. 8 or 9.

CHILDREN KILLED AT RAILROAD CROSSING

Van Wert, Ohio.—Four children were killed instantly and twenty-one others were injured Tuesday morning when a school bus was hit by a Pennsylvania fast freight at Colby crossing.

Nine of the children were seriously injured and two of them are not expected to live. Twelve of the children were only slightly injured, and were taken to their homes.

The dead: Lucile Fackler, 9 years old; Jessie Fackler, 14 years old; Mary Imler, 7 years old; Ronald Imler, 8 years old.

Those fatally injured and expected to die: Joseph Overholt, 17 years old, the driver, and John Stegeman, 12 years old.

The accident occurred at a crossing just a half mile from a centralized school. The bus driver, Joseph Overholt, stopped the bus at the crossing got out and looked up and down the track. Not seeing the approaching train because of a heavy fog, he started to drive across the track when the engine struck the bus.

GASOLINE TAX PROPOSED TO PAY SOLDIERS BONUS

Washington.—A tax of 3c a gallon on gasoline as a means of raising funds to meet the soldier bonus legislation is proposed in a bill by Representative Bacharach of New Jersey, member of the Ways and Means Committee. The tax would be on sales and deliveries by the manufacturer or producer and collected at the sources. Operation of the tax would not be through retail sales, yet it is anticipated that the effect of the tax would be passed out with every gallon of gasoline going into the tanks of farmers' tractors, or into automobiles, and that the users of gasoline would pay the tax.

Mr. Bacharach estimates that the tax would produce about $250,000,000 annually, and says that this form of sales tax can not be considered as being "on the backs of the poor."

GRIFFITH IS CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF DAIL

NEW CABINET NAMED TO SERVE UNTIL IRISH FREE STATE REGIME SET UP.

Dublin.—Amnesty has been agreed upon as a result of negotiations between the new Irish Cabinet and the British Government, according to a report current here and Irish political prisoners, including those sentenced to death, confined in both Irish and British prisons, will be liberated, at once. The death penalty prisoners number about forty.

Dublin.—For a second time within three days Edmond de Valera has been repudiated by the Dail Eireann. A two-vote majority by which he was defeated for re-election to the presidency of the Republic Monday makes his defeat no less bitter than the rebuke administered to his policies through the passage of the Irish peace treaty, for he had looked at least for support on the grounds of his personality and past service.

The Dail Eireann adjourned without forming a new Government and thus the situation in Dublin becomes more complicated than ever.

De Valera, on the strength of his popularity, had hoped to return to the leadership and thus force the treaty supporters out of the Dail Eireann, to form a new party of their own. Instead, he is faced with one choice of withdrawing himself from the Dail and setting up a new "Republic" of his own.

The efforts of Collins and Griffith have been entirely conciliatory. Collins declared the time for talking was over and that the necessity of forming a Government now is paramount.

"In view of the vote on the peace treaty which tends to subvert the Republic," said De Valera in his address of resignation, "I can continue no longer I resign and with me goes the Cabinet."

The treaty leaders will not announce their plan of procedure until De Valera has signified his intentions. It is wholly possible that before the whole Parliament tangle is solved, a general Irish election based flatly on acceptance or rejection of the treaty may be called.

BENEFICIAL RAINS FALL OVER SOUTHWEST TEXAS

San Antonio, Texas.—Rain worth much to farmers and stockmen of Southwest Texas fell over a large area Monday. In some places the rain came as a heavy aftermath of several days of off-and-on drizzling showers. The result is that stockmen will be saved large sums which they had expected to pay for feed, while the ground is put in much better condition for winter plowing and early spring crops.

The heaviest rainfall was southwest of San Antonio, the amount seeming to increase in intensity toward the Gulf and further west to Brownville; north and east of San Antonio the fall was comparatively light. This also seemed to be the case on a direct line west. There was rain, but not more than fell in San Antonio. But south of the line from San Antonio to the border the fall increased.

Uvalde had the first rain since the beginning of October.

ONE SHOT AND NINE ESCAPE FROM FARM

De Kalb, Texas.—One convict was killed, another recaptured and nine make good their escape in a break for liberty by eleven prisoners at the Shaw Prison Farm, twelve miles from here, after a guard had been overpowered early Monday afternoon. The escaped men are being closely pursued near Red River, it is reported. B. W. Bourland was killed by one of the guards, who pursued the men, accompanied by Will Barfield and Jack Morrison, other guards.

George Harvey In Auto Accident.
Cannes.—George Harvey, American Ambassador to Great Britain, narrowly escaped death here Monday in an automobile accident. Accompanied by Richard Crane, former American Minister to Czechoslovakia, in whose car he was riding, and Wyckham Steed, editor of the London Times, Ambassador Harvey was on his way for a round of golf. The axle of the machine broke and Mr. Harvey was thrown out, landing heavily on the road.

Binder Twine

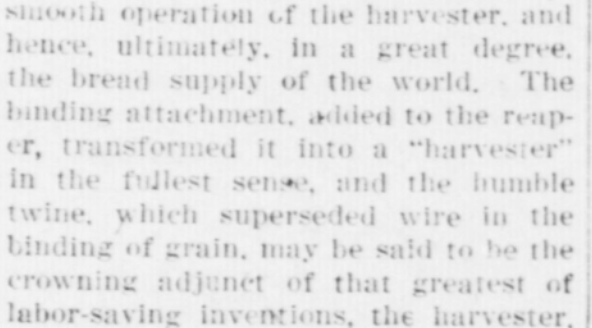

By Robert H. Moulton

YUCATAN RAHWES CUTTING SISAL

INSPECTING FIBER AT WAREHOUSE

SPREADING MACHINES

SPINNING ROOM

BALL of twine, hidden away on the inside of a great harvesting machine, is certainly an inconspicuous thing. Few would realize, who are not themselves makers or users of agricultural machinery, that on the uniform size and tensile strength of that twine depends the smooth operation of the harvester, and hence, ultimately, in a great degree, the bread supply of the world. The binding attachment, added to the reaper, transformed it into a "harvester" in the fullest sense, and the humble twine, which superseded wire in the binding of grain, may be said to be the crowning adjunct of that greatest of labor-saving inventions, the harvester, as it is known today.

If no harvesting machines were manufactured for a whole year the farming community would, undoubtedly, be put to some inconvenience, but would manage to get along with no serious loss. On the other hand, if the supply of twine for one harvest were suddenly cut off, it would mean not simply a national, but an international calamity, as it would be impossible to secure help enough to gather the crops.

Chicago, the world's center for agricultural machinery, has very naturally become the world's greatest producer of binder twine. Here are located the two largest binder twine factories in the world, having a maximum capacity of 110,000 tons a year. A few additional figures will serve to visualize this vast capacity. It takes approximately two feet of binder twine to bind the average-sized bundle of grain, and the harvester averages 750 bound bundles to the acre. There are 500 feet of binder twine to a pound.
Reducing Chicago's potential 110,000 tons to pounds, we get 220 million pounds, which would bind 55 million bundles, help to harvest 73 million acres of grain, or girdle the globe 833 times.

The bulk of the binder twine manufactured in Chicago is made from the fiber of a plant known as sisal, a native of Mexico. Of this Yucatan yields the largest crop, supplemented by some from Java and East Africa. Manilla hemp fiber from our own Philippine islands is also used here for the purpose. It makes a twine which averages more feet to the pound than does the sisal, but is more expensive and not produced in sufficient quantities to supply the world's needs.

It is to the tropical region of Yucatan, then, that we must turn our mental vision to see the very beginning—from the ground up—of the greater part of standard binder twine industry. The sisal plant, or henequen as it is known in Yucatan, looks something like a century plant, with a low core, and stiff pulpy leaves standing up around it, considerably higher than a man's head when it reaches maturity, which takes about seven years.

A plant yields from 12 to 20 leaves which the natives cut with sickle-shaped knives from the mature plants, and such is the climate that they can continue cutting all the year round.
The leaves average a little less than two pounds in weight. Usually from 3 to 3 1/2 per cent of marketable fiber, or about one ounce, is secured from an average leaf, making an average of perhaps one pound from each plant, or one thousand pounds per acre. This is the result of a year's operations.

Each leaf is handled individually. It is first cut from the plant, then the spines are removed from the edge of the leaf, then the leaves are packed in bundles of about 50 and carried to the nearest tramway. From there they are conveyed to the cleaning plant, which is centrally located on each plantation, and then are run through a decortica-ting machine. This machine, as its name implies, takes off the hard cortex of the leaves, and reveals inside a pulpy substance through which runs

THE ANNOYING PART

"I'll just about have to fill up that there old well one of these times," grumbled Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge. "The children are everlasting-ly threatening to tumble into it. Most every time the presiding elder comes to dinner he goes rambling about afterwards and acting like he was going to fall in. An' whenever there's a peddler around after he's gone I have to go out to see whether he's navigated the all-important fiber from which twine is made.

The fiber which comes from the decorticator is carried into the drying yards and is spread on galvanized wire where it dries and bleaches in the sun.
After this it is gathered and taken into the warehouse where it is pressed into bales in the same form in which it finally reaches the mills. From Yucatan the bales are conveyed by boat across the Gulf of Mexico to New Orleans, Mobile, or some port in Texas.
From these points it is transhipped up the Mississippi river to Cairo, at the southern tip of Illinois, but comes into Chicago aboard of railway trains.

The trains bearing the sisal fiber bales unload directly in the factory, at the rate of 800 to 900 bales a day, or more, and we see great heaps of these fiber plants piled up in the storage room. They are taken, as needed, to the opening department, where men split them up and release the closely-packed fiber, mixing together various grades of hemp to be put through a "spreading machine" to further prepare it. After inspection, sorting and spreading, the fiber is put into big box trucks and trundled away to be prepared for spinning into twine.

As the best twine is made of a mingling of coarse with thin fiber, each man has four bales to work from, graded to give the desired thickness and texture. On the first machine employed, a combing machine, there is a scale and as the fiber passes through it, at intervals a bell rings indicating a certain weight per foot for that particular lot of fiber. The appropriateness of the name "combing machine" in connection with the fiber is apparent to the eye of the most uninitiated. The long ribbons of fiber as they pass into the machine look like nothing so much as hair. Long, luxuriant, it is coarse hair, with a slight wave in it, due to the compression of the bales. The difference between combing fiber for twine and combing one's head is that in addition to separating it into parallel lines and straightening out tangles, the fiber-combing machine pulls it out to a greater length.

This pulling or drawing out of the fiber is accomplished by combing it with revolving cylinders, armed with teeth. Some of the cylinders revolve faster than others, so that the layers which they pull will necessarily be pulled out farther than the first ones, and the whole mass of fiber will be thinner and longer than when it went into the machine.

Any one who has watched a moth circling round a candle will have noticed that the intensity of the fascination does not prevent the moth from coming at intervals to rest on the rim of the candlestick. In the same way naturalists have discovered that if perches are fixed around the lighthouse beacon a little below the strongest beams the birds will use them as resting places. In Holland these perches are now employed with gratifying success.

BLANCHE BLAIR

THAT Tanlac is a wonderful medicine for delicate children is conclusively proven by the remarkable results accomplished in the cases of the three children shown in this picture.

Little Blanche Blair, of Providence, R. I., age 13, gained 10 pounds; Regina McCabe, at right, age 9, of Scranton, Pa., gained 15 pounds; little Richard Leary, Jr., of Philadelphia, who was very delicate, is now in fine, robust health. The statements made by their parents are as follows:

Mr. A. M. Blair, residing at 20 Atwood street, Providence, R. I., said:
"We are just so happy over the change Tanlac has made in our little girl that we can't do or say enough to show our appreciation. She had lost nearly 20 pounds in weight and looked so frail and weak that her mother and I were both almost worried sick over her condition. Since taking Tanlac, she has already gained 10 pounds, her color is better than it ever has been and she looks and acts like a different girl."

Mrs. Catherine McCabe, 414 Dickens Ave., Scranton, Pa., said: "The flu" left my little Regina in such a bad condition that I have no idea she would be with me now if it hadn't been for Tanlac. It is a mystery to me how she lived on the little she was eating and was so lifeless she never even cared to play with the dolls and toys she got at Christmas.
Since taking Tanlac she is as hardy and well as any child could be and has gained 15 pounds in weight. I will always praise Tanlac for restoring our little girl's health."

Richard Leary, 2342 Palethorpe St., Philadelphia, said: "There is no doubt in my mind but that Tanlac saved my little boy's life. For two years I wouldn't have been a bit surprised to have seen him drop off at any time. He had stomach trouble and many a time the gas pressed up into his chest until his heart palpiated so I thought sure he couldn't breathe but a few more gasps. But Tanlac gave him back to us strong and well and we will praise it to our dying day."

The effect of Tanlac on the delicate stomachs of the young is one of the strongest evidences of its wholesome-ness as well as its unusual merit. Although a powerful reconstructive, Tanlac contains no harmful ingredients, minerals or opiates which are so often found in other medicines. Being composed of the most beneficial roots and herbs known to science it is purely vegetable and can be taken by the most delicate children, and does not upset or injure the weakest or most delicate stomach.

Cities as Thunderstorm Spots.

The conclusion has been reached by a well-known engineer who has given the subject considerable attention that certain cities, if not indeed most inland cities of say 100,000 population or more, appear to be "thunderstorm spots." The observation has been made by E. R. Horton, of Voorheesville, N. Y., who also points out that "a shallow lake with sandy margins located in a forest may serve as a thunderstorm breeder" and cites as proof observations made by him over Oneida lake, New York.

Old Court Has Much Power.

In Liverpool (Eng.) there still exists one of the very few remaining medieval borough courts of record. At one time there were 215 in various parts of the kingdom. The Liverpool court of passage, as it is called, has practically unlimited jurisdiction in cases of action arising within the city, and has more power than has the City of London court which has jurisdiction only when the defendant is employed in the city itself.

Misery loves company, but the company isn't apt to make a second call.

Nature's Supreme Wisdom.

If it were not for the check that winter interposes, vegetation would climb skyward until we had tropical jungles and flowers high in the branches of the forest, instead of violets and daisies and lady's-slipper orchids. As it is, the year's tender growths decay in the wet and cold of winter, furnish shelter to the seeds of grasses and small woodland plants, and so foster a new growth for the coming of spring.
Even in decay there is a purpose; in nature always there is a new beginning.—Youth's Companion.

Jewish Physicians to Popes.

Many examples might be enumerated of popes who patronized Jewish physicians. An exception was Paul IV, who introduced the Ghetto into Rome, but at least a score of popes seem to have gone out of their way in extending friendly recognition to the medical members of this race.
