Picnic Party

Mr Weathers and family accompanied by Mrs Burke and Maud King started on a pleasure trip last Friday. While going through Ed Henderson's ranche we located a large rattlesnake whose life was taken by Irvin Burke who took his ratlers which numbered 15. While going through Mrs. Milliken's lots, one wagon hung up on the gate post throwing Irvin and two more men out, injuring none of them seriously. At 12:15 we dined at the H's windmill and every body enjoyed the meal very much.

A drive of a few hours landed us at the cap rock near the H headquarters. Crossing the Yellow House canyon, the sand being very deep we unloaded the livestock letting them help push the wagon through the sand.

After crossing the canyon a hard shower accompanied by a heavy wind struck us, twisting the bows and sheets almost off and rocking the wagon in a way to scare us all. Every one did their part holding bows and sheets in place until the shower passed.

All danger being past we drove up the canyon and camped for the night, had supper, after which we gathered around the fire and told jokes and sang cowboy songs. While singing Mr. Coyote perched himself among the crowd causing quite a little excitement after we had retired for the night at 11:30.

Saturday morning starting early from camp after enjoying the night very much, we soon reached the little city of Emma, where we purchased some bacon and onions, then drove out about five miles and camped for dinner.

We reached Blanco Canyon about 4:30. Fishing lines were brought out and every one caught fish for supper.

Miss Maud King caught a turtle weighing 40 pounds. One young lady was so badly frightened she fell off the bank getting some bruised and scratches as a result. One of the young men was badly frightened on the recovery of the turtle.

Sunday while still camped on the Blanch we had company for dinner; Mr. Fullerto, who was very much enjoyed by the young folks.

About three o'clock we hitched our horses and started for Pease where we camped for the night. Monday morning arriving early we drove down the river two miles where we camped at Roaring Springs. We had breakfast prepared to which every one did justice there being plenty of water and magnificent trees.

Roaring Springs is a beautiful place situated about seven miles from Terry, Yoakum, Gains, or any other county to trade for well improved city homes, brick buildings, stocks of merchandise, write to Lubbock, Texas, and we will do a trade.--Robinson Bros.

Must Come Across

One of our North Dakota exchanges tell the following: A man canceled his subscription to the paper by refusing it at the postoffice, and left the country owing the editor over $3. Recently the scribe was greatly astounded to receive a letter from the delinquent in which was enclosed the amount of his debt. He said he had been converted at a revival meeting and felt in duty bound to pay the bill. The editor is under the impression that his old subscriber got the right brand of religion.

Special agents of the postoffice department are traveling around over the country dropping into newspaper offices when least expected to examine the regulation requiring payment of subscriptions is being observed. Several Iowa newspapers have been in trouble and here is a case told of by the Des Moines Capital:

"Editor Fay of Lyons, Ia has been called to Washington city because his subscription list is not as well paid up as the law requires. He will have to explain to the government officials why he has not compelled his subscribers to pay up according to the postal rules. An inspector had visited him two months previously and his list was said to be pretty thoroughly paid up, but evidently it was not sufficiently so. It seems a little thing that country editors have to be hauled up before the government under the charge of violating federal laws just because they do not eternal keep dunning their subscribers for the small sum they owe on subscriptions, but it is like the end of the world, no one knows when it cometh, and no editor knows what day an inspector may pop in and ask to see his list. And if too many subscribers are behind on their paper it means trouble with the government. It puts an editor in such shape that he is compelled to force his collections unless he has an unusual prompt paying list of subscribers."

While standing near the spring one young lady fell in causing her to almost drown.

Tuesday early they all gathered their buckets and started for the plum thicket, picking plums for several hours. We found a bountiful supply and returned to camp for dinner laden with the fruit of our labor.

After dinner we noticed a new camp which proved to be that of Messrs Mickey and Reagan of Lockney who were acquaintance of ours.

While the girls were walking about they located a bell and began ringing it and the horses belonging to the Lockney boys ran away and several hours search failed to find them and the boys decided to go home for another team. The girls begged us not to tell it on them and so we will stop before we do.

Wednesday morning Mr. Weathers pulled out for Lockney where he and Irvin Burke will work through harvest.

At one o'clock Mr. John Burk and the rest of the party made a start for home, and we drove into Wake City about 6 o'clock.

Thursday started early and arrived in Emma where we sold part of our plums as we were over loaded.

Friday on our way to Yellow House Cannon we sighted about fourteen Tahoka people in a plum patch who we met with a hearty greeting.

At last we camped in nine miles of town and arrived here Saturday at ten o'clock. Every member of the party report a fine time and join in the wish that plum hunting time lasted the year round. A Plum Hunter.

It has always been the policy of the Lynn County News to look after the interests of Lynn County and Tahoka.

When ever there has been a chance to work for a railroad or other new enterprise, The News has always done all in its power to encourage the project and bring the people and the promoters together.

The News is strictly a non-political country newspaper. We can live in Tahoka no matter who is elected, either to the state or county offices. But what we want to see is first the Commercial Club reorganized and a true Tahokan put in the secretary's chair, one that will sieze every opportunity for Tahoka's good and also good roads to the near by towns and communities that will draw thousands of dollars of trade to Tahoka. Another petition for a school bond election circulated. Inducements offered wholesalesale houses and factories to locate here, brick and concrete buildings put up, sidewalks paved, streets and alleys cleaned, sewer system and water works put in, the town incorporated. And More Farmers In Lynn County. And an east and west railroad. LOTS OF BOOSTERS.

We have the railroad, good season and the opportunities. Let's get together and start the wheel rolling. Every boby come prepared to help, for it will take a combined effort. Come, Every man with Tahoka's growth and development at heart inspector had visited him two months previously and his list was said to be pretty thoroughly paid up, but evidently it was not sufficiently so. It seems a little thing that country editors have to be hauled up before the government under the charge of violating federal laws just because they do not eternal keep dunning their subscribers for the small sum they owe on subscriptions, but it is like the end of the world, no one knows when it cometh, and no editor knows what day an inspector may pop in and ask to see his list. And if too many subscribers are behind on their paper it means trouble with the government. It puts an editor in such shape that he is compelled to force his collections unless he has an unusual prompt paying list of subscribers.

The Bee, a newspaper published at Jefferson, has also been jerked up. This is what its edit says about it:

"The Bee this morning received its first official summons from the postoffice department to conform with the ruling which requires subscribers to keep their subscriptions paid up. We can no longer send the paper to delinquents, no matter how willing we may be to accommodate them. We some times question the right of Uncle

Sam to interfere in the conduct of legitimate business, and say we shall not extend credit if we wish to, but whether right or wrong, we must conform to the regulation. It will distress us greatly to cut off a lot of good and long time patrons who we know intend to pay, but are careless about the matter, and if such really want the Bee we know they will come to our assistance and relieve us from this embarrassment.—Publishers Auxiliary.

Auto Turns Turtle

A. F. O'Donnell received a telephone Thursday morning telling him that his brother, T. J. O'Donnell, had happened to a severe accident near Soash sometime Wednesday evening, by his auto turning over on him, and that he was still in an unconscious condition.

A. F. O'Donnell left for the scene of the accident about nine o'clock Thursday morning in Johnnie Hall's auto.

T. J. O'Donnell left Tahoka in his auto Wednesday afternoon having with him, a gentleman whose name we failed to learn, and Mrs. Pearl Farmer, of Big Springs, and her two children, a little boy three or four years old and a girl about ten or twelve.

Mrs. Farmer and children had been visiting her father, Rev. H. S. Hatchett, of Lynn, and was on her way home. It is reported that she had several ribs broken, and the little girl both arms broken, while the boy was not hurt much, only bruised up some.

Thursday afternoon: Later reports state that O'Donnell is again in a conscious condition and that his brother A. F. (Gus) is now on his way home with him.

Mr. O'Donnell is our candidate for Representative for this the first District and we should be sorrowful indeed if this accident should prove serious, for the hope of this end of the District rests on the success of O'Donnell's candidacy.

Friday morning as we go to press we learn the particulars of the accident.

Mr. O'Donnell was running at a good rate of speed and when he turned out for a mud hole the machine skidded, struck an obstruction and turned over three times.

Mr. O'Donnell escaped and serious injury and Mrs. Farmer and daughter were not hurt. The boy had one arm broken and Mr. Sharp had no bones broken, just bruised.

Merchants

Live merchants make a alive market, and live makets attract alive buyers. Upou the merchan of any town is the responsibility of maintainig public If the storekeepers manifest no interest in getting the trade to town, the trade cannot be expected to get excited over coming. No one is enthusiastic about trading at a store where fly-time lasts the year round.—Dallas News.

Just a few Sundays ago I went to church, and sat betwixt two ladies and immediatly behind another.

The preacher preached and the singers sang. I could hear both and see none of them expect a rear fragment of the choir. The view to the left and right was unobstructed, and the ceiling was eaiely studied. But forward all was dense foliage and feathers and an opaque circumference of straw. Decorating the hed of the lady seated this conglomeration of millery trebled with the dulstrions of her nervions syshium, and I amused myself by watching a sblit feather playfully teasing a bnch of grapes. "I am the vine, ye are the branch," declaimed the preacher, and I wished that I were a whole tree that I might fall upon that hat and smash it into the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things that ought uever be worn like autlers to church. The Apostle Paul bidn, t lay muchstress on women. He had a few things to say about ladies' headgear in church, but if he were alive now he would write another epistle, full of muscle, that would result in the establishment of a hat room in every church.—S J Tomas in the C ranche Chief old confidential clerk in a big house has just died, leaving an estate of between $2,000, and 3000,000, all saved out of wages and acquired by investment. Far from being a difficult, that is rather easy. A bright boy who fancies such a career can repeat it. Suppose any office boy of 20 has in two years by pinching and self-denial $100. He can invest it at legal interest on good real security or invest it to yield 5 per cent. In the former case the yield is kept reinvested and will grow to $3200 by the time he is 35; in the latter case to $2,000. The boy keeps on saving. His wages are raised occasionally and his $100 come more quickly. In turn is set on its way to thousands. At 35 he has a salary of perhaps $2500 a year and saves $1800 of it or more. The saving of that single year is kept invested at legal interest and grows to $20,000 in forty years. But already he has made more dollars at work for him than he has for his unloving heirs. His salary grows he saves more, and still more. Probably he will see frequently the faces of profitable usury. He will not become dispirited or discouraged, and so has no use for a doctor. His employers appreciate him, and he coins their appreciation into more living, growth.

Of course he never marries. He spends nothing on enjoyment, culture or travel. In the end he dies a lonely death and the famous will case that the lawyers profit mightily from all such a life is a failure. —York World.

Hog Raising

When coarse straw is used for bedding the little pigs often get tangled up in it and are unable to get back to the sow. They become chilled and frequently do not recover. The way to solve the problem is to cut the straw and provide a finer bed. Before farrowing the sows need good nutritious bone developing foods. At farrowing time they need something that will stimulate milk production. Hog tight fences have always been considerable of a problem. The woven wire fence solves the problem both in economy and ease of construction. Even farrowing pens should have a good fender to prevent the sow from lying on and smothering the pigs. Hogs, especially brood sows, should have salt when they can go to it any time. The old dirty pen as a factor in hog raising is fast losing popularity, much to the joy of the hog raiser. Plenty of clean bedding will not engender disease. It's the filthy nest that does the harm. The brood sow needs a mixed diet in which there is plenty of food rich in protein. There is something wrong on the dairy farm that does not have a few hogs. Both the grass and the exercise gained in getting it are helpful to the hog. If you doubt whether a pig enjoys grass give him a chance to show you. Nothing stimulates the system of the hog like pasture. —Kimball's Dairy Farmer.

Mexican Barred

The San Angelo school board objects to the intermingling of Mexican and white children in the schools of that city and 300 Mexican residents in a rousing mass meeting Sunday, passed resolutions of protest and retained counsel to carry the issue into the court to force the board to accede to their demands.

Members of the board, when informed of the action, declared that they would not change from their position. President Sam Crowther said that if they should grant Mexicans access to the white schools it would demoralize the public school system.

The committee appointed by the Mexicans to represent their interests in conjunction with their counsel, set up the claim that the present facilities are inadequate and that they will not accept the offer of the board made recently for a separate and new school. —Big Springs Enterprise,

A 12 year old son of A. M. Woodard, who lives about 20 miles from Stanton deserves the credit for possessing more nerve than any boy in this county.

While plowing with a cultivator last Saturday his foot was caught in the wheel and his leg wrapped around the axle breaking it above the knee and fracturing the bone at the ankle. While in this condition he unhitched the team, backed the cultivator, untwisted his broken and mangled leg, drove a mile, opening two gates on the road, and summoned a doctor by phone. His parents were away at the time and he was far from any neighbor, but not once did he faint or get excited. Drs. Williams & Brown set the broken limb and he has suffered little pain. This is explained by the Doctors on the theory that the nerves were paralyzed by the pressure of the bone upon them and the limb became as dead, otherwise he would never have reached home alone. —Stanton Reporter.

The trade territory of a town is not all dependant upon the distance to neighboring trading points. The territory depends upon the enterprise of the merchants and the residents of the town. If the town don't reach after the trade, it will only grow as fast as it has to, and it will grow as it is forced to.

But if the merchants go after the business in the surrounding country, advertising in every possible way and making every word of their advertising trade will come from an ever increasing radius, the town will awake and it will forge to the front. It is the men in the town and not altogether the miles living within a certain number of miles from it that make a town good for noting. —Baltimore Ledger.

FOUR REAL ESTATE WITH A. F. O'DONNELL, TAHOKA

HARD TRUTH

With out any thought of sentiment or suggestion that we owe allegiance to any one, the cold hard truth is that the merchant of a town are the best business friends the people have.

The retailer conducts a school of commerce for our education and tuition is free. Every man, woman and child gets the benefit of seeing in the home about anything that is of real importance. He protects us against fraud and deceit. He stands for a square deal.

You never ordered a $10 lighting rod of your home merchant and then found notes for a thousand dollars in the bank next day as a result. You never paid him $60 for a range that warped out of shape in six months—without your wife getting the money back. He never charged $75 for a "trailer" buggy that you found out afterwards could be bought anywhere for $60.

No, the home merchant is just like you. He lives where he does business and his success depends on making a friend of you and your neighbor. Like you, he has to make good.

The retail merchant is now the one great factor in our commercial system, and this is true solely because he has rendered us better service than we can get elsewhere. Take him away and our home town is gone and we deprive our children of the retail store, which is the greatest single educational factor in modern life. No, it cannot be. The retail merchants will continue to abide in our affections as long as we value our homes, because the average citizen is proud of his town (he always tells how close his farm is to it) and he secretly despises the methods of the pedlers—and the peddler system is now known to be the legitimate father of the whole catalogue house business.—McGregor Mirror.

We clip the following from the Clairmont Enterprise, as perhaps it would interest some our readers.

Dallas, Texas, June 2, 1910. Hon. B. L. Glenn, Clairmont, Texas.

Dear Sir: In replying to yours of May 30th. A young man coming of age since Jan. 1, 1910 and before July 23, 1910 does not have to a certificate exemption to entitle him to vote in the general Democratic primary on July 23. The law would not permit the issuance of such a certificate after Jan. 31 for any person. If any question is raised against such a voter all he needs to do is to demand a challenge and swear in his vote.

Very truly yours, J. C. McNealus.

L. Lumsden, of the Wilson County School Land, was in town Wednesday and told The News man, that as he and his wife were returning home from Lubbock Tuesday evening he was caught in the heaviest rain he ever saw. It was so heavy that in many places the water was knee deep to his team.

Bigham & Weathers, Proprietors of the Palace Meat Market, received a car of ice Monday. It don't sound so very big, but it means 15 tons, 30,000 pounds, or 100 blocks. Since this ice arrived the atmosphere has been perceptably cooler with local showers.

It's better to be prepared and not have a fire than have a fire and not be prepared. Insure with McMill Clayton. His companies pay the loss.

The laziest man is on a Western paper. He spells photograph "4-to-graph." There have been only four worse than he. One lived in Kansas and dated his letter "11worth," another spelled Tennessee "10AC," still another wrote Wyandotte "Y&," and the other was John Hole, who signed his name by writing J and punching a hole in the paper.—Mineral Wells Index.

A prolonged dry spell is the best road maker and this should teach us that to get rid of the water is the first step in road making. If a certain per cent of the road money could be set aside for tilling the roads even through it were necessary to go up on the land to get an outlet it would be better than piling more dirt on the grades where the water cannot be carried off by drainage.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Clayton who have been on the sick list for the past month are convalescing slowly.

Three trains in Tahoka at the same time is the usual thing these days.

THE REASON.

Somebody wants to know "What's the matter with our country?" To which a Kansas editor makes reply as follows: "We throw away ashes and buy soap; we raise dogs and buy hogs; we grow weeds and buy vegetables and brooms; we build school houses and send our children away to be educated, and at last send our boy out with a $40 gun and a $19 dog to hunt 10 cent game." That seems to be a pretty good diagnosis of the case, all right, whether it be in Kansas or Texas.—Orange Leader.

Burton Edwards, of 10 miles south, was in town Thursday and reports good rains and every thing doing well in his neighborhood. He also told us of a number of his neighbors going in together and taking 350 head of cattle to pasture for 20 cents per head. These men control something over nine sections of fine grass. The cattle belong to parties on the Texas & Pacific railroad south of here where it is very dry this year.

THE ROAD TO BROWNFIELD.

The Commissioners met last Saturday in extra session to consider bids for the building of the Tahoka road to the county line. After receiving all bids which ranged from $80 to $90 per mile, all were rejected. Nearly all day was spent in discussing plans and specifications, and it was decided to let 3 miles of test road to three men in order that they could see just what it would take to build the road. The following is part of the proceedings of the court:

"It is ordered by the Commissioners of Terry County that Joe Fisher, Redge Burnett and Jim Walker, be employed to construct one mile of road each as follows: Grub twenty feet wide plough 3 inches deep and 16 ft wide on the Tahoka road as designated by Commissioners Copeland and Gist, at $66 per mile to be paid at completion of each one's mile."

It is to be hoped that every thing will take shape in a few weeks and we will have a good road leading out to the east. Some people complain at the cost of good roads when they can quit knocking long enough to use a little common sense and figures, they will soon find that bad roads are the most costly, for example.

Suppose a man can pull 3000 pounds over the road in its present condition—which is improbable and he hauls for 25 cents per hundred, one way, the load only nets him $7.50, and with good roads it is possible to pull 6000 pounds, he can of course make more money and haul freight for at least a third less. Figure how many pounds of groceries you use per year, not to say anything of cotton, corn and other products you are sure to carry to the railroad. And you'll never notice the advance in your tax rate. See if you do. Let us have the good road by all means.—Terry County Herald.

ulation must have the offices of Sheriff and Tax Collector combined and of County and District Clerk, but when they exceed a prescribed minimum, they are permitted to separate them, and the counties are anxious to know the true figures at once in order that their primary elections of July 23 will name the nominees for the four offices instead of to as heretofore.

Assistate Attorney General Ledty, in an opinion to the Comptroller Saturday, advised that a merchant, who moves about from place to place and at each place sells goods for a week or two and then moves, on does not have to pay an occupation tax under subdivision 2 of article 5049, unless he offers for sale a bankrupt stock of goods or advertises the stocks sold by him to be "fire sale" or "water and fire damaged stock."

Mr Leddy, in his ruling, says that the above mentioned subdivision does not apply and levy an occupation tax upon merchants removing from place to place and offering for sale merchandise for limited periods of time, unless they are selling a bankrupt stock or are putting on a "fire" or "fire and water" sale.

said that the special session may adopt a resolution calling upon the governor and the penitentiary board to sell the aforesaid State railroad.

If such should prove true it would present an interesting situation and causes no little discussion. The Texas & New Orleans and International & Great Northern or Cotton Belt might be bidders.

WHEN I CASH IN

When I cash in and this poor race is run my choree performed and all my errands done I know that folks who mock my efforts here, will weeping, bend above my lowly bier and bring large garlands, worth three bucks a throw, and sow the ground in ecstasy of woe; and friends were crape bowknot upon their ties, while I look down (or up) a million miles and wonder why these people never know how smooth I was before my spirit flew. when I cash in I will not care a yen for all the praise that's heaped upon me then. Serene and silent in my handsom box I shall not hear the laudators talk, and all the pomp and all the vain display will be just fess and feathers thrown away. So tell me now while I am yet on earth; your estimate or my surprising worth. O tell me what a looloo bird I am and fill me full of tady and of Jam.—Fx.

It has rained somewhere in the county every day this week.

LYNN COUNTY OPPORTUNITIES

And Tahoka The New Railroad Town

Ten years ago Lynn County had ten voters and three women in it, and was attached to another county for judicial purposes. One could buy land here for 50 cents to $1 per acre. We were eighty miles from a railroad and one postoffice supplied the people for fifty miles around. Today Lynn County has a population of Two Thousand Five Hundred, twelve organized schools, three postoffices and cotton gins, Four Hundred Voters, Four Hundred Fifty School Children, and thousands of acres of fine farming lands which produce a bale of cotton per acre with one hoeing and two plowings. Don't shake your head, for I can show you men right here who have done it. Our lands will grow sixty bushels of corn and oats to the acre, sixty bushels of kafir corn maize, abundance of millet and alfalfa, big crops of sweet potatoes, two good crops of Irish potatoes per year, eighty pound watermelons, two pound tomatoes, twelve to fifteen pound cabbages and not half try. Lynn County soil grows fine grapes, several kinds of berries, squashes, pumpkins, cantaloupes and all vine products. Apples, Peaches, Plums and Apricots do well here and are freer from pests and diseases than East Texas fruit. Lynn County cannot be excelled as a corn and feed producing country, and it is well that such is the case, for the Great State of Texas spends twenty-five million dollars annually for imported corn, and several million for imported meat. The Plains country is destined to become the future bread basket of not only Texas but a large part of the United States. She will also be expected to furnish a big per cent of beef and pork for hungry millions. What country under the shining sun is better adapted to pork and beef production than this? There is none. It is easy to raise abundance of feed, and our water is as pure as God ever made. Our air is cool and bracing all the year round, so mister hog and miss cow grow to maturity under the most favorable conditions possible.

VERY SOOTHING

A prominent young doctor took his best girl to the opera house not long since. The curtain was late in rising and the young lady complained of feeling faint. The doctor smiled sweetly upon her, took something out of his vest pocket and whispered to her to keep the "tablet" in her mouth, but not to swallow it. She shyly placed it on her tongue and rolled it over and over, but it would not dissolve: she felt better, however, when the show was over she slipped the tablet in her glove, being quite curious to examine at home this tasteless indissoluble little substance which had given her such relief in the opera house. when alone in her room she pulled off her glove and out came a pants button.

There were only two pieces of cake and three hungry boys up stairs throwing their clothes on in the race to get down first.

Tommy won out, rushed into the dinner room breathlessly. "Thats a good boy, Tommy. The early bird gets the worm. Take a pice of cake." said his mother.

Tommy looked at the cake quizzically, inspecting it from all sides.

"what's the matter, Tommy?" asked his mother "what are you trying to do?"

"Say, ma; which piece has the worm in it?" he inquired soberly.

Lumber Sheds

The sheds of the Higginbotham-Lewis Lumber Company east of square on Porterfield street are mainly showing up well and are a credit to the town and are strong evidence of the fact that this company has in the future of Tahoka and will do much to help make that future a bright one. The main shed is 20x125 feet, the office 20x20 feet, the and door warehouse is 16x50 feet with a shed annex 16x74 feet. These enterprising people already have seven car loads of stock now in the yard or on the switches being unloaded. They have been mentioned in The News and are all ready to do business with you.

Remember the date and come to the get together meeting Wednesday July 6th. Come prepared to help boost.

J. Harry Binckley returned to Lubbock Saturday after a stay in Tahoka of three weeks. Harry certainly made good while here making friends of every one he met, and we were sorry that he could not remain with us. He has accepted a position on the Avalanche force.

Bob Majors and family, Mrs. Edwards, Miss Sadie Edwards, Mrs. York Skinner and several others whose names we failed to learn, went on a plum hunting trip last week and they returned Monday laden with the spoils in the way of more plums than they knew what to do with. They made sure of their plums and then went on to the fishing grounds in Blanco Canyon where they fished a couple of days. They report a very nice time and lots of fish.

Seven deaths in Chicago June 27, from heat.

Will Estes went down to O'Donnell Tuesday night and says he was caught in the hardest rain he ever saw.

Thursday the Hadk service will be discontinued between Tahoka and Gal. The mail will come by way of Lubbock as train service has been established between us and the outside world. Thus the old order of things is giving way before the steady march of the iron horse and the attendant with in front of our print of view. The white topped hack and the little sdanish mnles are a Plains institution and wherever there is mail service they may be seen in rain or shine wending their way across the Plains, keeping us in touch with the signs of the times. It is with sadness that we see them go; but with gladness that we welcome the new order of things bringing development for our wonderful resources. In no other part of the state is the diversity of resource to be had and the railroad is the factor that makes all things possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant accompanied by Mrs. Bryant's brother Dr. Snodgrass left Wednesday for Fort Worth where Mrs. Bryant will have her arms treated for the severe burns she received last spring in a gasoline stove accident.

Still Tahoka Grows

The Burton Lingo Company began work on their immense lumber shed last Saturday and from the window of The News it office looks like a vast forest of scantlings. This lumber shed is 25x150 feet, besides which they will have an office and storehouse 20x40 feet. This yard with all this storing capacity and situated near the railroad as it is will be in a position to handle a large stock of lumber and will command a good trade right from the start. Mr. New, the genial local manager, informs us that it will be only a short time until stock lumber will begin to arrive and he will be all ready for his customers.

The Holiness meeting under the auspices of Bro. and Sister being held at the Baptist Church is well attended.
