Muleshoe Firms Log Santa's Schedule

Christmas season, 1965, will blast off in Muleshoe officially in 12 days - Nov. 26 - and from then until late Christmas eve, things are going to hap-

Council Advances Plans to Annex West Side Strip

Proposal to annex 21.47 acres of land along the city's western edge in Richland Hills was advanced through the "first reading" stage this past week and the City Council called for official publication of the annexation ordinance (printed in this issue of the Journal).

A continuation session of the council acted on the matter Thursday morning.

Then a week later - Saturday, Dec. 4 - the Old Gentleman from the North Pole, Santa himself comes to Muleshoe for the first of a series of visits with all his young friends here.

On that day, the big Christmas parade will be held with Santa Claus, of course, occupying the spotlight. There will be cash prizes for outstanding entries - like best-decorated ba-

County-Wide Party Set for Oldsters

Senior citizens of Bailey county will have a county-wide party, a senior citizen fellowship party, Monday afternoon, Nov. 22. It was announced Saturday by the Rev. J. Frank Peery, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and will be open to all people in the senior citizen age group.

The first event will be held in the new Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church and will be open to all people in the senior citizen age group.

The first event is sponsored by the "Bailey County Committee for Senior Citizens; by and for the committee of Sixteen," Mr. Peery explained.

The program at this opening meeting of the oldsters will be entirely informal, it was explained, starting at 2 p.m., and this will be followed by singing, games and refreshments.

We don't know exactly what trend we will take from this initial meeting," Mr. Peery explained, "but from this first meeting we hope to set up a permanent organization for our senior citizens."

He said transportation will be provided for anyone who needs it provided notice is given by noon next Saturday. "We'll go anywhere necessary to pick up people who would like to attend," he said, "if we are just informed of the need."

The organization backing the senior citizens' program has several other events in mind, Mr. Peery said. The group has held one meeting already, and a second session of committee is slated for Monday, Nov. 15 at the home of Mrs. J. C. Kennedy. (See OLDSTERS Page 5)

Party Lines Balk

General Telephone Co. here has bumped into a little problem which has sprung up since last Sunday when the Muleshoe system was converted to a 7-digit system. The problem exists in the party-line business.

District Manager Alan Waldrop sent an urgent call to the Journal this last week asking that this paper "help us with the little program of party lines which is jamming lots of switches."

Waldrop explained it is something like this: Party line subscribers in small towns frequently come to know the paragon sharing their party line. In fact, they frequently become friends and visit with each other over General's equipment.

But to call a party on the same line, it has been necessary in the past for the customer to dial 119. That's been the procedure here for years.

But not any more. With the new phone system, 119 won't get the job done. A customer to reach the other party on his line must dial 119, plus all seven of the other digits.

Otherwise what happens? Just about everything, including the jamming of a lot of switches in the exchange in

55 Top 4-H Members Honored at Dinner

Bailey county honored its top 55 club members at an achievement banquet in Fellowship Hall of First Methodist Church this past week when "Cotton" John Smith of RGNV was the principal speaker.

Top awards for the year, Gold Star, went to Ruth Duckworth for the girls and Verlyon Scoggin for the boys. This year too for the first time an "alumni recognition" award was given. The award was given Mrs. Lewis Scoggin.

Club member Joe Adams was master of ceremonies, and invocation was given by the Rev. J. Frank Peery, pastor of First Methodist Church. D. B. Lancaster, manager of Bailey County Electric Co-op gave the welcome and Joe Adams the response. The co-op annually is host for the achievement event.

The awards were presented by Judge Glen Williams.

In his talk, Smith compared 4-H's free-enterprise type of youth organization with the communist - held countries. Smith has led several expeditions into foreign countries, including two into the communist countries of Russia and Red China.

Recognized for outstanding club work last year were these 4-H boys and girls: Achievement - Gus Taylor, David Bickel, Bill Harbin and Joe Adams.

Agricultural: Glen Salver and Tommy Little.

Beef: Jill Wheeler, Jack Allison, Ed Mason and Bryan Brady.

Bread demonstration: Cynthia Puckett, Ladonna Caldwell, Rene Caldwell and Brenda St.

The money is used for upkeep of the building and its contents, she said. "Like, for instance, insurance. You see we have to have it. (See DINNER Page 5)

Drouth 'Victims' Aid is Extended

United States Department of Agriculture has announced that FIA has been authorized to make emergency loans to eligible Bailey county farmers "because of continuing effects of severe drouth which has persisted since October of 1963."

The Journal was informed this past week by Senators Yarborough and Tower and Congressman George Mahon.

Yarborough's telegram to the Journal said "This designation extends through June 30, 1966. Emergency loans bear 3 percent interest and are made to farmers who are unable to obtain needed credit through other sources."

He said that applications should be made at the Farmers Home Administration located in the Pool building, 115 E. Ave. D.

MANAGER of the Bailey county FIA office is John C. Kennedy.

Mules Stage Scrapy Fourth-Quarter Campaign to Nose Out Canyon Eagles

By JAY SPAIN

Muleshoe Mules topped Canyon's Eagles Friday night to win their first conference football game 10-8 in Buffalo, Bowls at Canyon.

The Mules received the kickoff on the 21-yard line and returned it to the 30. On the first play from scrimmage the Mules fumbled the ball and it was recovered on the 30-yard line.

Canyon went on offense but in three plays lost nine yards and had to punt. Muleshoe took possession and moved 4 yards before having to kick the ball.

The Eagles, after running two plays, quick-kicked to the Mule's 20-yard line. The Mules, still not clicking, moved the ball out to the 27 before having to kick to the Canyon 19-yard line. Canyon, taking possession on the 19, advanced to the 41-yard line before they had to punt to the Mules 27. The Mules moved to the 30-yard line then kicked to the 27-yard line of Canyon where they advanced on it to 39 before fumbling and it was recovered by Mule Charles Jones.

The Mules moved to the air and threw three incomplete passes and turned the ball over to Canyon on the 27-yard line.

Canyon, unable to move the ball, punted to Adams on the Muleshoe 25-yard line where he ran it back to the Canyon 46. The Mules had to punt from the 45 to the 10-yard line.

A penalty moved the ball back to the 7-yard line and two plays later, Canyon punted from their nine to their 34-yard line. A fifteen yard penalty moved the ball back to the Canyon 19-yard line.

In six plays, the Mules could move no closer than the four-yard line and Andy Stovall kicked his field goal of the year with 4:16 left in the half.

The Mules kicked to Canyon on their six and moved back to their 30-yard line before punting to the Mule 38.

The Mules, going to the air, had one snagged by Dennis Haley who went all the way to the 19-yard line before being stopped.

Five plays later Lair ran over from the one-yard line for the Eagles first score of the ball game. Lair threw to Larry Robinson for another two points with only six seconds left in the half.

Canyon took the kick-off on the 23-yard line and moved to the 45 before fumbling which was recovered by Mule Paul Swint. The Mules moved to the 37 before handing the ball over on downs.

The Eagles moved out to the Muleshoe 48 before having to punt to the Mule 29.

Muleshoe, starting a drive led by Ronnie Swint marched all the way to the 2-yard line where Swint went over for six points.

Stovall kicked the extra point and Muleshoe led the ball game with 9:33 left on the clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Johnson Are United in Roswell Ceremony

Double-ring vows were exchanged between Mary Maxwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evert Maxwell, Lazbuddie, Oct. 28, and James T. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson, Magdalena, N.M.

Vows were solemnized by Paul Dick, minister of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Roswell, where services were conducted.

Traditional wedding selections were played on the organ by Mrs. Ben Caskins, San Antonio, and sister of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Little, Santa Fe, served the couple as Matron of honor and best man.

Wynn Caskin, nephew of the bridegroom, and David Bryd, young friend of the couple, served as ushers.

The couple are at home in Roswell, where the bride is continuing teaching at Del North School and the groom is with the New Mexico State Game and Fish Department.

The former Miss Maxwell taught in the Lazbuddie school district three years.

Civic Club sets Tour of Homes

Plans were discussed for the coming tour of homes to be held Dec. 12, at the Llano Estacado Civic Club meeting. Shirley Pettit, finance chairman reported the news.

The club met Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the PCA building here with Vicki Young, Sandy Turner and Polly Oliver acting as hostesses.

The program was given by Sandy Turner on breads. Different breads were served and the table was decorated with a Thanksgiving theme.

Next meeting for the club will be a Christmas party on Dec. 14.

Present for the meeting were two guests, Elaine Davis and Diana Jacks; members, Sharon Wollington, Shirley Pettit, Jo Harmon, Joy Tibbitts, Jaquita White, Clara Sudduth, Darlene Henry, Skeet Bliss, Polly Oliver, Pat King, Janelle Turner, Sandy Turner, Wanda Harmon, Bobbie Dunham, Billie Graves, Mary Watkins and Alva Lee Peeler.

Mrs. Beddingfield Goes to Dallas

4-H Club Makes First Quick Fudge

Busy Beavers 4-H club met for their first meeting recently in the home of their adult leader, Mrs. Ernest Ramm with Sherry Bass, Janna Barrett and Ruth Ramm present for the meeting.

The girls discussed measuring cups and spoons and their accurate measuring. They also went through their book and discussed safety rules in cooking, how to remain clean and neat while cooking and other useful points. Quick fudge was next on the list. After making the fudge the girls took some home for their families comments.

The girls will meet next Nov. 23 in the home of their adult leader.

Dinner Planned By Study Club

Roll call was answered by telling the first school each member attended. It was reported to be very interesting as two of the members were in contact with persons they attended Kindergarten with.

The Study Club met in the PCA Building for their meeting Thursday afternoon. The meeting was to be held in the home of Mrs. Thurman White but was transferred because of the illness of Mrs. White.

Mrs. S. L. Benefield gave an interesting program on education. She talked on modern trends and education, dropouts etc.

The pledge of allegiance was observed and the devotional was given by Mrs. Horace Blackburn. It was taken from the book of Job telling not to look at old age as failure or dread but autumn of life.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. Ramon Martin, president of the club under the direction of Mrs. Rufus Gilbreath.

A Thanksgiving dinner for the members and their husbands was planned for the next meeting which will be in the home of Mrs. Gilbreath with Mrs. Rev. Robert Beck, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist Church Splan.

Mrs. Lula Gorrell Undertakes Job

Mrs. Lula Gorrell who lives at 707 W. 2nd here, decided the weeds were just too much for her to take. She got the urge to do away with the weeds which were behind her lot so she began pulling them up by hand. Off and on for a week Mrs. Gorrell worked at the project which resulted in two truck loads of weeds, picked up by the city, less mosquitoes and a sore back.

Mrs. Gorrell was awarded a plaque from the Chamber of Commerce in January of 1960 for being the outstanding woman of the year. She retired as school nurse here in 1963. She has worked in the hospitals here and undertook various other jobs in Muleshoe.

Busyworkers 4-H Elect Leaders

Mrs. Barnhouse's home was the scene of the Busyworkers 4-H Club meeting Friday when they met for their first meeting. Mrs. Barnhouse is the adult leader.

Members present were Deborah Dunbar, Terrie Crane, Mari-beth Dillman, Marvina Barnhouse, and Vicki McDaniel.

Marvina Barnhouse was selected for their first leader; Terrie Crane, second leader; Mari-beth Dillman, inspector. Deborah Dunbar: telephone reminder and Vicki McDaniel for reporter.

Vicki McDaniel will arrange a centerpiece for the next meeting to be held Nov. 19, when they will make fudge.

in charge of the program at 7 p.m. Nov. 18.

Pumpkin pie and coffee were served to Mrs. Effie Bray, honorary life member, Mrs. S. L. Benefield, Mrs. Harace Blackburn, Mrs. Less Bruns, Mrs. Cecil Cole, Mrs. W. H. Elrod, Mrs. John Farley, Mrs. Rufus Gilbreath, Mrs. R. O. Gregory, Mrs. Charles Grow, Mrs. O. N. Jennings, Mrs. Ray Martin, home of Mrs. Gilbreath with Mrs. J. Frank Peery, Mrs. E. M. S.S. Class Feted With Luncheon

The Follower's Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church was entertained with a luncheon, which included turkey and all the trimmings, in the home of Mrs. Arthur Crow with Mrs. Eddie Lane as co-hostess Wednesday.

Plans were made for a Christmas party during the short business session.

Mrs. Tobbie Hatch brought the devotional on being thankful for the little things of life, that we usually take for granted.

The house was decorated with fall arrangements.

Attending were Mrs. Jewel Griffiths, Lela Barron, Mrs. Myron Pool, Mrs. L. C. Roddam, Mrs. George Hicks, Mrs. B. O. McDaniel, Mrs. W. T. Andrews, Mrs. C. M. King, Mrs. Tobbie Hatch, the hostess, Mrs. E. Arthur Crow and the co-hostess, Mrs. Eddie Lane.

Many Trek to Richland Hills

"The Richland Hills school is happy to report that about 450 parents came to visit their school during American Education Week," Milton Oyler, principal, said Saturday.

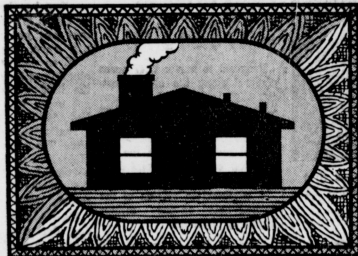

"Open-house was held Tuesday night which was well attended and we wish to thank Mrs. Kitsy Lee and her room of fourth grade students for their portion of the program."

"We would like to encourage you parents to visit your school at any time and to eat in our lunchroom with your children at any opportunity that you may have which would be convenient for you," the principal concluded.

Among American Indians, oldsters masked themselves and children had to buy them off with gifts of tobacco.

Directors Meet Held in Portales

Neal Dillman, Superintendent of School and Mrs. Willa McAlpin, president of Muleshoe Classroom Teachers Association attended the Board of Directors Meeting of the South West Educational Learning Laboratory at Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, N.M. on Nov. 2.

South West Educational Learning Laboratory was incorporated this summer in order to receive money under Title IV of the 1965 Elementary and Secondary Educational Act. It is a non-profit group and will engage directly in research and development of projects in the public schools of West Texas, Eastern New Mexico and West Oklahoma. It may have as many as fifty projects in operation simultaneously. The research done by this laboratory will run the spectrum of new innovations in learning.

Dillman was elected to the Executive Board and Mrs. McAlpin is on the board of directors.

Litter Crows Fish
NEW YORK (AP) — Fishermen are warned against crowding game fish out of the water with litter.

C. R. Guterth, chairman of Keep America Beautiful's national advisory council, estimates that some 50 million people in the U. S. will go fishing this year.

Each of these anglers, if he were a litterbug, would dump about a pound of rubbish in water — or along shores," Mr. Guterth said. "That adds up to a potential of 50 million pounds of rubbish in a single season. At that rate, we would have more litter than fish."

In Ireland, forerunners of trick or treat went about begging gifts in honor of Muck Olla, an obscure folklore character probably linked to the Druids, who provided many Halloween customs.

Autumn Themes Mark Luncheons In Sudan Home

By Evelyn M. Scott
SUDAN — The autumn theme highlighted arrangements for the two bridge and canasta luncheons held Friday and Saturday in the home of Mrs. Edward Gaston. Assisting Mrs. Gaston with the courtesies were Mrs. Ray Wood, Mrs. Kenneth Burgess, Mrs. Gene Duval.

Luncheon tables featured pumpkins bearing pyracantha. An arrangement of mums high lighted the serving tables. Other arrangements of mums were placed throughout the house. Out-of-town guests attending the courtesies were Mrs. Joe Damron, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Evelyn Riley, Mrs. Roy White, Mrs. Pat Nichols, all of Muleshoe, Mrs. Jerry Bridwell of Lubbock.

Miss Linda Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Hayes, has been on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Whitmore were in Waco during the weekend to visit their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Durwood White, who are students at Lubbock. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cargal and family of Amarillo visited during the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Olds and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Lyma.

Among those from out-of-town in Sudan Thursday to attend funeral services for Mrs. E. Pope were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Zimmerman of Bakersfield, Calif.; Mrs. Blanche Jones of Lubbock. Cub Scout Pack 365 met Tuesday evening Nov. 2 in the Community Center for a Pack Meeting.

Presenting awards was Pack Master Thomas (Skinny) Gage. Jimmy Fields, Craig Harper, and Bobby Phillips received the Bear Wards; Curtis Chester and Benny Brodson received the Silver Arrow Bear Award. Presenting a skit were members of Den 4 under the direction of den mother, Mrs. Harold May. Those participating in the skit were Reagan Baker, Jimmy Markham, Brad West, Davis Heard.

Mrs. Jiggs Mathis was scheduled to return home this week after undergoing surgery last week in a Littlefield hospital. Yes Terry and Ed Williams were fishing near Logan, New Mexico, last week.

Larry Shuttlesworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shuttlesworth of Phillips, visited Thursday with his grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Shuttlesworth. Larry is a student at Tech.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Nix returned last week after visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Miller in Baton Rouge. Returning home with them was their granddaughter, Kandy Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Nix visited during the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Nix in Deaton. Accompanying them on the trip was her mother, Mrs. Gladys Glens, who visited relatives in Fort Worth.

Janis Young of Amherst visited Sunday night with Kandy Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Slate returned home last week after visiting a number of days in Central Texas.

Mrs. Jack Riley led the study from the Book of Acts, the meeting Monday morning of the WSCS when the group met at the First Methodist church.

Having parts on the program were Mrs. Kenneth Burgess who discussed, "Lives That Have Been Changed"; Mrs. T. B. Adair spoke on "Saul" and Mrs. Jay House discussed "Paul and Barnabus".

Giving the dismissal prayer was Mrs. House.

Present were Mrs. Riley, Mrs. House, Mrs. Adair, Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. Frank Lane, Mrs. Ralph May, Mrs. Weldon Shaffer, Mrs. Radney Nichols, Mrs. W. V. Terry, Mrs. Gene Duval, Mrs. J. E. Dryden, Mrs. J. S. Smith, Mrs. Joe Burt Markham, Mrs. Joe Rone, Mrs. Tray Gaston, Mrs. Roy Young, Mrs. E. C. Maynard.

The Young-At-Heart Senior Citizens Club met for the monthly meeting Friday afternoon in the Community Center.

Members of the Future Homemakers of Sudan High school presented the program. The meeting was from three to five.

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE THIS SUNDAY

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."

The bible, God's word, has often been compared to a light, for it penetrates the darkness and reveals God to man. It is the light that leads man down life's pathway. For those who study it, it reveals not only the past, but also the future.

"The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding..."

Attend church and hear God's leaders expound on His word.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Continued from Page One • A home lighting contest also is on the drawing board for this year's Christmas, 1965, in Muleshoe, it was explained. The home lighting contest will be similar to last year's but judges will do their job painstakingly at least a week before Christmas. First, second and third-place winners will receive valuable prizes. In addition to the home lighting contest, judging will be done of non-residential places, the winning firm to receive the traveling trophy which has been held for the last two years by Cobb's. Meantime, merchants already are beginning to stock shelves with Christmas merchandise, and each day the Christmas scene takes on new vigor in Muleshoe. "Once again we are going to prove to the shopping public in the entire Muleshoe area that Muleshoe is the best place in the west to 'Christmas shop,'" summed up the committee chairman.

drawn for the Christmas Eve prizes must be on hand in order to win. After the parade, Santa Claus will go directly to his own workshop on the courthouse lawn and start his annual interviews with Junior — one at a time. After that, he will be in Muleshoe and at his workshop every Saturday afternoon until Christmas. There will be other occasions, too, Haynes said, so he should have an opportunity to talk with every Santa fan in the Muleshoe area before Christmas. Of course at the same time, visitors to Muleshoe will be registering at participating stores for this year's big give-away program. Top prize will be a color television receiver, but many people (60, 70 or more, depending on how many firms participate) will get handsome $39.95 AM-FM radio receivers. The colored television and the AM-FM radios will be given away at a mammoth drawing on the courthouse lawn starting at 1 p.m. Friday, Dec. 24. Persons whose names are

Disposal of Elk Meat Announced

Elk meat from surplus animals at the Wichita Mountain Wildlife Refuge in southwest Oklahoma is being sold on a first-come, first served basis, Mel Evans, manager of Muleshoe Wildlife Refuge has been informed. Sales of surplus big game animals are conducted annually on three Federal refuges to prevent herds from exceeding the capacity of the ranges. Completion of sales at Fort Niobrara National Wildlife Refuge in Nebraska and at the National Bison Range in Montana was announced by the Department's Bureau of Sport Fisheries and the National Wildlife Refuge System. Although sales at the Wichita Mountain Wildlife Refuge were about the same as last year, an additional 70 elk remain to be sold because of a greater surplus on the refuge this year. Dressed meat prices range from $130 to $165 for a whole animal, varying with the extent of processing. A half carcass is the minimum quantity that can be purchased, the Bureau said.

Congress Watchdog Proposal Studied

By Walter Rodgers
Members of Congress 18th District of Texas
In the session of Congress just concluded, a joint committee spent many hours conducting hearings to review the organization of the United States Congress. The purpose of the study was to make a full and complete survey of the organization and operation of the Congress and to make recommendations for, in the words of the Resolution establishing the joint committee, "strengthening the Congress, simplifying its operations, improving its relationships with other branches of the United States Government, and enabling it better to meet its responsibilities under the Constitution." The recommendations are to be prepared in the coming weeks for submission early in the Session beginning in January.

The work is some of the most important being done in the 89th Congress because preserving Congress as an effective legislative body is absolutely essential to our system of Government. There has been a mounting feeling among many Members of both the House and Senate that certain procedures have become outdated and in need of remedy, that new, more efficient methods of work could be substituted without changing the basic nature of Congress. It is important, of course, that the fundamental precepts laid down in the Constitution not be affected by any misguided effort to "improve" Congress. The suggestions for reform offered by the many Senate and House members are too numerous to detail in the short space of this newsletter. Fifteen pages of an interim report issued by the Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress are required merely to summarize the variety of proposals offered. However, I would like to indicate the scope of these suggestions so that you can see the kind of "reform" Many of the proposals have to do with rearranging the Congressional workload so that more work can be accomplished with greater efficiency. One suggestion that will receive close attention on this point is scheduling a session so that the majority of the time early in the year is spent on "floor" work, in the terms of the full House and Senate. Now, the practice is generally for mornings to be devoted to committee work and afternoons to meetings in the Capitol of the two houses. Another proposal recognizing the year-round nature of Congress in these days of pressing domestic and foreign problems would write into law the annual basis on which Congress is to meet and would provide definite recess periods during the year, permitting Members to return to their home districts in those intervals.

Other procedures have been suggested to speed up the method of considering legislation when the House and Senate are meeting. Among these is the extremely controversial proposal to provide for electronic voting in the House of Representatives. Some twenty State legislatures permit "pushbutton" voting and there is no disputing the fact that it is a more rapid means of deciding issues than the present Congressional language under which clerk call out an alphabetical roll of members' names and the "yeas" and "nays" are voiced and recorded. However, the great weight of tradition is behind the roll call system in Congress and I predict many other streamlining procedures will be adopted ahead of any change in the present voting system.

In the exercise of Congressional supervision over Executive Branch operations (which Congress authorizes and funds), there are several interesting proposals aimed at providing better control. One would authorize a permanent subcommittee on legislative oversight in each standing committee, thus in effect establishing a Congressional "watchdog" over each agency. Another would provide for frequent briefings of Members of Congress by Department officials. Another would provide for frequent briefings of Members of Congress by Department officials. Another calls for strong laws to assure congressional access to Executive Branch operation and activities. In next week's newsletter, I will discuss points related to this problem in somewhat greater detail.

New Extension Irrigation Man Named for Area

An area irrigation specialist who will work with county agents in the Plains and West Texas area, has been appointed to the area Extension staff office in Lubbock, Bailey County Agent J. K. Adams has been informed.

The new area specialist is Agricultural Engineer W. M. Lyle, 26, who was born in Lubbock and grew up in Crosby County. He will move here from College Station to begin his new assignment December 1.

Director Hutchison said the appointment is in response to requests from county agents and county program building committee members who have expressed a need for professional help on problems of water conservation and use.

Lyle's job will be to keep up with all pertinent water-use research and provide leadership for Extension educational programs dealing with all phases of water conservation and irrigation, Hutchison said.

The new area specialist holds a B. S. degree from Texas Technological College and an M. S. degree from Texas A&M University. Both of his degrees are in agricultural engineering.

Before joining the Extension Service, he did research work for the City-County Health Department of Lubbock and for the agricultural engineering department at A&M. He has been serving as the agricultural extension staff headquarter Extension staff since July 1964.

Lyle joins a staff of specialists who serve the West Texas area and have offices in Lubbock. They include Entomologist Dr. Dixon Hubbard, Soil Chemist Jim Valentine, Information Specialist Mike Hood and Plant Pathologist, Dr. Robert Berry.

He will fill a position that has been vacant since Dave Sherrill retired after 30 years of Extension work.

Lyle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Lyle, of Ralls. He is married to the former Robb of the City-County Health Department.
