Co. Commissioners Purchase Four Road Graders

At the regular meeting of the County Commissioners' Court, which covened this week, a deal County is to come into posession of four bran new road graders. These graders were bought through C. C. Barnes of this city, who has already placed the order for the machines. This action by of the court is a step forward in maintaining good roads in the county, and will be the means of inducing more automobile traffic to come this way. These graders are the first machinery of this kind ever purchased by Lynn County. Guy Sherrod Returns

Gomez Farmer Brings Cotton Here to Gin

T. H. Gien, a prosperous farmer, from Gomez, Terry Co. Texas, brought to Tahoka last Sunday six wagon loads of cotton, which he gathered on his farm near that place. The staple was ginned here Monday at the Click gin, and Mr. Green loaded the six bales and carried them back to his ranch. This brings the total number of bales ginned in Tahoka to date up to 601, according to figures obtained from Weigher, R. C. Wood.

A good sized crowd was present and considerable interest manifested. A splendid program consisting of special songs and speeches was rendered by local talent during the evening. Quite a number of important matters came up for discussion at the meeting, one among the most important topics was a suggestion made by Judge G. E. Lockhart, that the association place the cemetery property in the hands of the City Council, and levy a tax against the property holders of the city, and in this way the problem of collecting dues to keep the grounds in perfect order would be overcome, and Tahoka would always have a nice clean burial ground. The suggestion met with the hearty approval of those present and a committee was appointed by the chairman, Mrs. W. D. Nevels, to meet with the Council at their next regular meeting and confer with this body on the matter of taking over the property. It is hoped that the city fathers can see fit to annex this addition and thereby insure the proper upkeep of the last resting place of our dead.

SMOKING TOBACCO FACTS FROM THE ENCYCLOPAEDIA

The Use of Flavorings Determines Difference In Brands

The Encyclopædia Britannica says about the manufacture of smoking to-bacco: "...on the Continent and in America, certain 'sauces' are employed
...the use of the 'sauces' is to improve the flavour and burning qualities of the leaves." Which indicates that a smoker's enjoyment depends as much upon the flavoring used as upon the tobacco. Your nose is a sure guide in the matter of flavorings. Try this simple tent with several tobacco brands: pour seme tobacco into your palm, rub briskly, and smell. You will notice a distinct difference in the fragrance of every brand. The tobacco that smells best to your will smoke best in your will smoke the your will you will smoke best in your pipe, you can rest assured.

Carefully aged, old Burley tobacco, plus a dash of pure chocolate, gives TUXEDO Tobacco a pure fragrance your nose can quickly distinguish from any other tobacco. Try it and sec.

Reserve District No. 11. NO RUSSELISM, THANK YOU

The News editor this week re ceived a batch of Russelism literature from a citizen down Star Drug Store Lamesa way, requesting that we give the same publicity thru the columns of our paper. The Russelite agaitator even went so far as to refer us to two of Tahoka's most prominent citizens, as to whether it was alright or not for us to print the dope sent us. We did not have time to look up the parties referred to, and if we had, it might have been 0.06 a long time before we would have asked their advice about running the Russelite doctrine in the News. We returned the manuscript to the party at Lamesa by return mail.
