

Starnes and Cohen Drawing Crowds

MEETING NOW IN FULL SWAY

Number of Additions Being Made To Churches; Revival To Last Two Weeks

The Starnes-Cohen evangelistic campaign is on in full swing. The party arrived from Post at a late hour Sunday night and their first service was held in the Baptist Church Monday night. Large crowds are already in attendance upon the night services and an ever-increasing interest in the services is manifest. The revival meeting really began Sunday morning, with the pastor, Rev. B. N. Shepherd conducting the initial service. There have already been a number of additions to the church and one or two have given their names for membership in the Methodist church.

Evangelist V. B. Starnes is delivering some masterful blows directed at the devil and his cohorts. Monday night he vividly recounted the story of Jonah, gleaming lessons therefrom for the present day and for the people of Tahoka. At the beginning of his discourse he climbed out of his coat, unbuttoned his collar, and as he proceeded the fighting spirit became more and more assertive. On Tuesday night he delivered a few body blows to some of the popular sins of the day, frequently indulged in by church members, such as card parties, dancing, etc. When he called upon the congregation to know how many of them would let nothing stand in their way but would give their whole length in this meeting, a vast majority of the congregation stood.

It seems to be the consensus of opinion that J. C. Cohen is one of the sweetest singers ever heard in Tahoka. On Monday night he sang "The Ninety and Nine," the great song that Ira D. Sankey used with such telling effect more than a quarter of a century ago when he was associated with the great Dwight L. Moody in evangelistic work. Cohen sang it with sweetness and tenderness that melted every heart. On Tuesday night he sang "When They Ring The Golden Bells." The charm and beauty of this song as sung by Cohen is simply irresistible. Not only does Cohen know how to sing himself but he knows how to get others to sing. He has a great choir and the congregational singing is good. He uses many of the old songs, which everybody enjoys most.

Miss McKnight is likewise an artist at the piano. She has a mastery of the keys, a delicate technique, that is rarely surpassed. According to all outward manifestations this promises to be one of the greatest and most sweeping revivals ever held in our little city. If you are not attending you are missing much. If you go once you will go again and again, for the messages of the preacher are gripping, the singing of Cohen and the choir are most inspiring, and the whole service is uplifting and helpful. A great meeting seems in prospect.

J. N. Goad of New Home came in Wednesday and renewed his subscription and also ordered the paper sent for a year to his brother at Midlothian. Mr. Goad had recently returned from a visit in Ellis county and he reports that financial conditions are bad there. Much of the cotton is poor grade and little feed was raised. He came back mighty well pleased with the plains in spite of the bad freeze that ruined so much cotton here.

Lorraine—Earl T. Williams, editor of the Lorraine Leader announces that he will rebuild his plant which was destroyed by fire recently. Mr. Williams has been editor of this paper a number of years.

JAIL BREAKER IS CAPTURED

Arkansas Sheriff Arrests Man Who Broke Jail Here Some Time Ago

Sheriff J. W. Simpson received a telegram Tuesday from the sheriff at Harrisburg, Arkansas, advising that he held in jail at that place a man named Dowdy, one of the men who escaped from the Lynn county jail a few weeks ago. The telegram further stated that Dowdy would not waive requisition. Mr. Simpson immediately made application to the Governor for a requisition upon the Governor of Arkansas for the prisoner, and as soon as the papers are received Mr. Simpson will leave for Harrisburg for his prisoners. Mr. Dowdy was confined in jail here on a charge of bootlegging. His residence was in Terry county.

Mr. Simpson states that a few weeks ago Dowdy and Boulding, one of the Wilson cotton thieves, were captured and placed in jail at another place in Arkansas but sawed out of jail and escaped the first night. Mr. Simpson was not advised prisoners had again escaped. They were arrested and placed in jail in this instance on a charge of car theft over in Arkansas. It is probable therefore that the Arkansas authorities will want to keep Dowdy in that state and try him upon this charge.

Mr. Simpson has been exceedingly anxious to capture these escaped prisoners and he was much gratified Tuesday to learn that the Arkansas sheriff had one of them in jail. He says that he expects to leave no stone unturned until they are all recaptured.

English Secures Big Pictures In Dallas

"We have purchased some of the very best and newest pictures on the market," states D. B. English, who recently returned from Dallas, where he and Mrs. English spent a week reviewing and selecting pictures for early showing. "We are not only running pictures close to Lubbock," he said, "but we are running them very closely behind Dallas and Fort Worth."

"The Fool," which he says is one of the outstanding pictures for 1926, is now playing at the Palace in Fort Worth, and will be shown here shortly.

Other well-known shows which he has booked include: "East Lynn," from the widely-read book of the same title; "Lightin'," one of the biggest stage plays of the last 20 years, which recently played on the stage at Amarillo, which is said to be almost equally as great on the screen; "The Iron Horse," which Mr. English says is the biggest picture on his books today, and which shows Friday and Saturday of this week; all of the Tom Mix productions, running one each month; and many of the Jack Hoxie and Hoot Gibson action pictures.

Mr. English says he has selected his picture program for over two months in advance.

Forrest Lbr. Co. Has New Manager

Mr. Will Money has removed to Tahoka to assume his duties as local manager of the Forrest Lumber Company. Homer Hall, who has been manager here since the yard was established last spring, will be transferred to another place. He will remain here, however, until the first of next month.

Mr. Money is a Baptist minister, having served until recently as missionary of the Lubbock association. He comes highly recommended as a citizen and Christian gentleman, and will be welcomed into the business and religious circles of the city.

Lockney—Prosperity of Floyd County is responsible for the great growth of Lockney for the past year. Building permits for the year totaled most a quarter million dollars. Three gins were erected here to handle the increased cotton crop. 1926 bids fair to eclipse the 1925 record.

Petition Is In Circulation For New School Building

SIX MAKE H. S. HONOR ROLL

Few Students Attain Coveted Honor Of Making Above 90 in All Subjects

(By A. B. SANDERS)

The seriousness of intent and the quality of the work being done by the students of the high school is expressed in the number who are on the honor roll this time. We call attention to the fact that there are two more on the list who did honor work for the term than for the last six weeks reported. We might infer from this that the number of students doing excellent work is increasing and also that they hold out faithful to the end in that is the report for the term rather than six weeks. Any one can make a good grade for one six weeks period but it takes steady and honest effort for one to complete a term work in a majority of their subjects above 90. We take great pleasure in announcing the following person as our honor student for the term:

Lois Goodrich
Henry Burkhalter
Annette Weathers
Venoy Coughran

There are many other students that are doing very good work but are not making the list this time. The following are the pupils that have made 90 in at least two of their subjects.

Leda Martin
Jeanette Caviness

We are watching for a larger list to report next six weeks period.

Local Business Man Says Diversify

Diversification will be the salvation of this country, in the opinion of a prominent business man of Tahoka. Cotton alone will ruin any country, he declared, and it will ruin Lynn county if we raise nothing but cotton. This is one of the best countries on earth for the raising of hogs and yet there are hardly 500 hogs in the county, he says. "The Cow, the sow, and the hen" is a slogan that Lynn county should adopt, he maintains.

He suggested that this county is losing many thousands of dollars annually by not having a live county agent. Not only should the farmers be shown the wisdom of diversification but they should have the assistance of a county agent in terracing their lands so as to properly distribute and conserve the rainfall. He thinks that the banks and business men of Tahoka will back up any plan for the placing of a county agent in Lynn county and for launching a crop diversification campaign. He urges that the Chamber of Commerce or some other group of citizens take the matter in hand and put it over. He pointed out that other counties are doing it and are reaping rich returns for the time and trouble that it has cost them. Why not Lynn county do the same thing?

Say, folks, isn't this shrewd business man right?

Old Timer Died At Gail Sunday

J. K. Mitchell of Gail, Borden county, died suddenly Sunday while driving his car from his home to town. Heart trouble is said to have been the cause of his death. He was well past the three-score milestone, and was an old-timer in west Texas. He had owned a ranch near Gail for many years and was well known to all the pioneers of this section. A number of Tahoka citizens attended the funeral, which was held at Gail Monday afternoon. Among those attending were Sam Sanford and family, J. S. Weatherford, Horce Hale, and W. D. Nevels. There were possibly others.

Brownfield—Rapid progress is being made on laying the city's new sewer system here. It is expected that Brownfield will enjoy the advantages of city sewerage by spring.

Ford Believes Advertising Draws Crowds

"Henry Ford will increase his advertising during 1926 one-third more than last year," Wm. B. Malcom, of Dallas, representative of the Ford Motor Company, told The News last week-end while here attending to business in regard to the company.

"I noticed an ad. of your own in the Lynn County News," He told The News man, "with the heading Advertising Brings the Crowds." Henry Ford certainly does believe in that slogan. Because he knows that this fact is true and because of the fact that he has practiced advertising, he has made such a success."

Forty per cent of Ford's entire advertising appropriation, he says, goes to weekly newspaper advertising, and "The king of the automobile industry" is said to spend between 7 and 8 million dollars annually on advertising.

And, yet, some Tahoka business men do not believe in Newspaper advertising. Maybe not, but Ford made his success by advertising.

KIWANIS CLUB GUEST OF H. S.

Evangelistic Party On Program; Active Year's Work Planned By Directors

The Kiwanis Club was entertained at luncheon Wednesday at the High School by the Home Economics class. That these girls know how to prepare and serve food fit for a king was the verdict of all present. Besides the Kiwanians, a number of the teachers of the public school were present and other visitors were Rev. V. B. Starnes, J. C. Cohen and Miss McKnight, composing the Starnes-Cohen evangelistic party.

Following the repeat Rev. Starnes and Cohen each made brief but most interesting talks. Two or three musical numbers were also rendered. Mr. Cohen leading.

The board of directors met immediately after the luncheon to discuss matters pertaining to the work of the club. Next week we shall be able to announce the personnel of the new committee. A more active year's work is being planned than has been executed during 1925.

Three Lakes Church Raises Cotton Crop

The Three Lakes Baptist Church, situated twelve miles southwest of Tahoka, has adopted an unusual method of paying the pastor's salary and local church expenses. Last year the church rented 50 acres of land and planted it in cotton, according to Wash Johnson and W. E. Sikes, who were in the News office Saturday, and they have gathered about eleven bales of cotton, which netted the church between $400.00 and $500.00. They have a pastor one Sunday in the month and this cotton crop more than paid his salary in full. "We find this to be the easiest and best way of paying the preacher," Mr. Johnson stated. They are intending to rent another tract of land this year and to raise another cotton crop. This method has been employed heretofore by other churches as an aid in meeting their financial obligations, but the Three Lakes uses it as its chief source of revenue for church expenses.

Over 12,000 Bales At Tahoka Yard

R. C. Wood, public weigher, states that considerably more than 12,000 bales have been received at the local cotton yard. This is about 2,000 bales more than was ever received at the local yard in a single season before. He thinks that by the end of the season the number will have reached 12,500. Had it not been for the ravages of the worms in September and of the freeze in October, there is no telling how much cotton would have been received at the local yard.

NEW BUILDING TO COST $100,000

Present Building Overflowing With Students; Additional Room Deemed Imperative

A petition praying for an election to determine whether or not bonds shall be issued in the sum of $100,000 for the construction and equipment of a new high school building in Tahoka is being circulated by citizens of the city and will be presented to the school board at an early date. It is practically certain that an election will be held within the next 30 or 40 days to determine the issue.

The petition which is being circulated prays for the issuance of serial bonds, due from one to forty years from their date, bearing interest at the rate of not exceeding 5 1/2 per cent per annum. The bonds, if authorized by the voters of the Tahoka Independent School District, will be made payable in such sums annually as to make the total annual payments of principal and interest as nearly equal through the term of years as possible. To be more specific, the amount of principal payable annually for the first five years will be only $500.00; the second five years, $1,000.00 annually; the third five years, $1,500.00 annually; the fourth five years, $2,000.00 annually; the fifth five years, $2,500.00 annually; the sixth five years, $3,000.00 annually; the seventh five years, $3,500.00 annually; and the eighth five years, $4,000.00 annually; making a total of $100,000.00 during the forty years. As these bonds are paid annually the interest will accordingly decrease, so that while the interest the first year will be $5,000.00, the interest the last year will be only $225.00, provided the bonds bear only 5 per cent interest, which is the rate contemplated.

As the property valuations in the district increase during the coming years, the tax rate necessary for caring for the bonds will correspondingly decrease. It is apparent to the Board, however, that to meet this additional expense during the first few years and pay the running expenses of the school some raise in property renditions will be absolutely necessary. The additional tax will be small however as compared with the advantage of having a modern and commodious high school building.

The fact of the business is that the school board is confronted with only one alternative. Additional funds must be provided with which to build a high school building or additional sums in a smaller amount must be provided with which to build temporary shacks. The present school building is entirely inadequate to accommodate the present school body. As is well known, the auditorium is now being used as a study hall and in cold weather it is practically impossible to heat this auditorium so as to keep the children comfortable. Besides, with the crowded conditions, all the school work is being done under serious disadvantages.

The question is being asked as to where the new building is to be located. The location of course has not yet been definitely fixed by the board but it is the purpose of the board to procure a site somewhere north of the highway passing through the city east and west, probably some where in the northwestern portion of the city.

It is probable that an architect will be engaged at an early date, who will supervise the construction of the building in the event the bond

"Cramming For Examination"

We receive knowledge by learning something everyday. Each day something is impressed upon our brains in such a way that we are not likely to forget it. But if we try to learn it all at once we get a smattering idea of parts of it and really remember
no definite facts.

If we bring up the lessons assigned each day, then at the time for examination we remember what we have thoroughly learned, and are able to answer the questions. If we try to learn it all the night before we may remember enough to pass the examination, but in a few days it leaves us. In life we have a constant need to know and remember what we have learned. We will not have the books beside us to study every time we need some information. It is better to learn as we go.

BOOZE CLAIMS TEXAS BABY

One of the sad occurrences of the holiday season was the death of a little Texas boy, less than four years old from drinking bootleg liquor.
The little fellow found the liquor and drank it. He came staggering into the room where his father was singing and shouting "I don't care if Santa Claus don't come."
He was taken to the hospital where the attending physicians were considerably amused at being called upon to treat a drunk baby. But with in a short time the little fellow was

Mr. and Mrs. Dyer Leave For Florida

Our good friend J. V. Dyer and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sanders left Tuesday morning in their car for Panama City, Florida, where they expect to spend several months.

Mr. Dyer spent several months in Florida last winter, and he became so infatuated with the climate and the bathing beauties and the orange groves and the hot air peddlers that he could not stay away a whole year at a time. He promised to write us a few lines now and then in order to let his friends know how he is faring. We shall expect him back in Tahoka in the good old summer time. In the meantime the News will go regularly to his address.

SECOND SNOW VISITS PLAINS

The plains are again covered with a carpet of snow. The fall amount- ed perhaps to three or four inches on the level. The snow began falling early Wednesday night, mixed with sleet. An unusual feature of the storm was that it was accompanied by lightning and thunder, a thing that rarely occurs here in January. By Thursday morning two or three inches of snow lay on the ground and it continued to snow intermittently all morning. Before noon however the snow lying next to the earth began to melt as the warm sunshine broke through the rifted clouds and by mid-afternoon the soil under the melting snow had become quite soft. This snow will be of considerable benefit in softening the top of the ground and putting it in condition for plowing.

Lubbock To Hold Farmers' Short Course

The program has been completed and all committees working out local details for the holding of the farmer's short course at the First Baptist Church of Lubbock, January 28 and 29 have their work in hand, according to D. F. Eaton, executive chairman. Hundreds of South Plains people will gather here next week to hear L. A. Hawkins, Mrs. Gordon W. Randlett, and E. T. Ebersol of the International Harvester Company and D. L. Jones, superintendent of the Lubbock Experiment Station. A. H. Leidigh, dean of agricultural and W. L. Stangle, professor of animal husbandry of the Texas Technological College and O. L. Slaton, president of the First National Bank of Lubbock address the audiences at the six sessions of the short course on practical subjects relating to better farming on the South Plains.

Morning, afternoon and night sessions will be held during the short course. The program follows: Thursday morning, "The Farm Orchard" Hawkins; "Home Conveniences" Mrs. Randlett; "Household Conveniences" Movie reel. Thursday afternoon: "Food for the Family" Mrs. Randlett; "The Farmer's Cow" Ebersol; "The Making of a good Cow" Movie Reel. Friday morning: "Small Fruit and Vegetable Gardens" Hawkins; "Grain Sorghums on the South Plains" Leidigh; "Farm Inconveniences" Movie reel.

Thursday night: "Beautifying our Home Grounds" Hawkins; "Late and Lazy" and "Sheep" Movie reels; "Cotton on the South Plains" Jones, Friday afternoon "Poultry, A to Z" Mrs. Randlett; "Make More from Farm Poultry" Movie reel; "Feeding Home Grown Feed on the South Plains" Stangle; "Boys' and Girls' Club Work" Ebersol. Friday night: "My Neighbors" Ebersol; "Separating Profit from Milk" Movie reel. "Our Agricultural Situation" Slaton. Music will be furnished by the Tech music dept.

Every community on the south Plains is urged to attend the short course and receive the benefits to be derived from the addresses of the experienced men who will speak during the two days session. Lubbock has issued a most cordial invitation to Tahoka and surrounding trade territory to be present.

"It's going to be the most helpful meeting for farmers ever held on the South Plains" says Slaton, Jones, Leidigh, Stangle, Eaton, and other men acquainted with agricultural conditions here.

West Texans aroused Over New Book

Stamford, Jan. 17.—West Texas has been aroused over the publication of the anonymous novel "The Wind" by Harper's denying that the story properly describes conditions in and around Sweetwater, Texas.

Through its manager, Porter A. Whaley, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, whose general offices are located here, recently sent a letter to the publishers emphatically denying the truth of the story and censuring them for publishing a work which illustrates "but one thing, and that is how ignorant the East is of the West."

"In place of the desolate sand flats you describe as being around Sweetwater, there is, as a matter of fact, a very productive farming country, and one that is growing from year to year."

Miss Dorothy Scarborough, formerly of Texas, now of New York, has been frequently mentioned as the author of the book. While not admitting the charge she refuses to deny it. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce received an answer to their letter signed "Anonymous" explaining that the plot of the story was laid in the past when the country had not achieved its present state of development.

Caveness Talks On Superintendent Race

The law provides that when a county has a scholastic population of 3000 the county shall have a County Superintendent. The last scholastic census showed our County to have more than 3000 scholastics. It now becomes the duty of the voters of the county to elect a Superintendent. As you will see elsewhere in this paper I am asking for that place.

With the experience I have had in school work, beginning in a one teacher school, seven years at the head of Tahoka schools, five years County Director of the Interscholastic League, three years as one of District Directors, and all the time a student of the problems of the rural school, I feel that I am well enough acquainted with the school affairs of the County that I can render the schools a service. If you elect me to the office, I shall do all I can for the schools of the county.

I am a Democrat and have always voted that ticket. I shall appreciate the vote and support of every man and woman in the county who can favor me that way.

If I do not get to meet and talk with every voter, I shall appreciate your vote just the same.

Respectfully,
H. P. Caveness.

SEVERAL ARRESTS MADE DURING SUNDAY

While there were no murders, robberies or criminal assaults in Lubbock Saturday night and Sunday, officers have an idea that a lot of people could have spent the Sabbath in a more pleasing manner.

Jake, corn, Choc and other refreshments were prominently displayed and before old Sol peeped over the eastern horizon Sunday morning the city bustle was comfortably filled. One man was arrested on a charge of driving a car while intoxicated, which is a felony, and his case will in all probability be transferred to higher courts. Another man with him at the time is now in a local hospital suffering severe injuries sustained when their car was overturned.

Five "crap-shooters" were also rounded up just before day. They gave cash bonds in the sum of $20 for appearance Monday.—Lubbock Avalanche

We think the people of Lynn County and Tahoka should give Mr. Don. A. Parkhurst credit for the postal service it receives.

Notwithstanding the influx of a host of transient cotton pickers who are here today and gone to morrow, laboring under an equipment that has been in use since the office was first started about, twenty five years ago, insufficient help laboring under disadvantages the public never hear of he as Post Master handled the immense volume of Christmas mail without the loss of a single package, not a single package laid over Christmas, the Office force had a complete rest day, something unheard of in days gone.

Also acting in conjunction with Mr. J. L. Vaughn the Lubbock post master all first class mail and daily papers come down from Lubbock on the line car getting in here about half past nine o'clock instead of two o'clock on the train, thereby giving the merchants and business men time to read and answer all important business mail, get it in the office in time for the evening line car.

The window is never closed to the public from eight o'clock in the morning until six o'clock at night. Another innovation that very few first class offices can boast of.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of the News will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

The newspapers are full of propaganda these days complaining about the great number of laws we have and the immense size of our statute books. Yet we have not noticed that they ever put their finger
on any law that ought to be repealed.
The fact of the business is that there are very few laws that should be repealed. They say that we have so many laws that no man can know when he is violating one. The man who will strive to do right morally and to regard the rights of the other fellow as he goes along will violate very few laws. The greatest trouble with our laws is that many of them need simplifying. Some of them need to be amended and a few perhaps ought to be repealed, but very few.
Usually the fellow who is continually raising a roar about the great number of laws that we have has some particular law in mind that is a thorn in his flesh but which is very necessary for the public welfare, for instance, the prohibition law or the traffic laws. The size of our statute books could be materially decreased by simplifying the laws which we have but not much by repealing unnecessary or superfluous laws.

Senator Copeland of New York
introduced a resolution in the U. S.
Senate a few days ago which would authorize President Coolidge to seize and control the anthracite coal mines of the country until the controversy between the operators and miners can be settled. This seems to us to be about the best solution of the problem. Nearly every year the country experiences a coal strike.
There is continual controversy between the operators and miners. We do not know who is right. Possibly both operators and miners are partly wrong. At any rate the public must suffer because of their differences.
Coal has come to be an absolute necessity. When it becomes scarce and high, thousands of poor families
throughout the country must suffer.
Little children must shiver in the cold. If private capital can not operate the coal mines without closing down periodically on account of clashes with labor, then we believe the Government should take the mines over and operate them in the interest of all the people.

The Dallas Morning News is soon to begin the publication of a series of articles by Col. E. M. House, who was the confidential adviser and personal representative of President Wilson in International affairs during most of the time that Mr. Wilson occupied the White House. These articles will give the inside story of many of the momentous events relating President Wilson's administration and the great World War,
and these stories will be read with great interest by all who wish to have an intimate acquaintance with the history of this period. The Dallas News is to be congratulated upon securing the exclusive right to publish these stories in Texas.

Snyder Times-Signal: Another
prominent business man said to the Times-Signal man one day this week:
"That was a dandy editorial you had in last week's issue of your good paper on 'Ad-grafting and fly-by-right' advertising men. I am another Snyder man that has made up his mind to pass up every out-of-town advertising scheme during the coming year. You have spent lots of time and money in building up a fine advertising medium right here at home and we business men ought to patronize it; besides it will bring as good results, whereas, most of the so-called advertising schemes
are practically worthless."

A Colorado City youth lost his ear recently in an automobile wreck. He was lucky not to lose his head. Too much fast driving in this country.

It sometimes happens that a merchant who is making a big profit on the goods he sells will complain at the prices he has to pay for advertising and printing. Perhaps the printing business involves more hard work and brings smaller returns on the investment than almost any business in town—any town. If you do not believe that there is work to do in a newspaper shop, just drop into our place of business most any day or frequently at night and watch the "force" perform. If you think that there is big money in the business you might ask the local banker. We do not know of any country newspaper anywhere that is profiteering either in its advertising or in its job department. On the other hand many papers are struggling to live, and almost every week brings news of the "merger" of two papers the sale of one to its competitor, which means that both of them were not able to survive and one or the other had to go. Yet you will find a business man now and then who will talk about the local newspaper shop robbing him, and he continually tries to "jew" the management down on its prices. At the same time, if you were to go into his place of business and undertake to "jew" him down on the prices for which he sells his goods, on which he is making a good profit and sometimes a enormous profit, he would regard you as a "tightwad." Now, we are not complaining; we are not "grouching";
we are just stating the plain unvarnished truth. We want all our business men to prosper. They are entitled to a fair profit out of their respective lines of business. But we think that they ought to be willing to pay the printer, the editor, and the devil a price that will permit the local newspaper to live and to reap at least a small return on the investment and the labor involved. Most of our business men have been fair and square with the local newspaper, and we highly appreciate their friendship and their patronage, but if all the business men of Taboka were to treat the local newspaper as a few of them do, there would be no local newspaper. It couldn't survive
a single issue. At the same time, those who support the local newspaper are making no sacrifice in doing so. On the other hand, they reap rich rewards from the money
they spend in the newspaper shop.
If this isn't true, then the newspaper is of no benefit to the town com-mercially, and Taboka would grow and prosper just as well without a newspaper as with one. And yet, can you imagine what Taboka would have been today if there had never been a newspaper published here?
Yes, the coyotes would have been still howling every night within hearing distance of the court house square.

Colorado is to have a five-story hotel. Plans have already matured and it is announced that work will start within sixty or ninety days.
Colorado has prospered greatly by reason of the shallow oil field which has been developed near that city and by reason of the fact that the city is in the center of a fine farming country.

Smoking among women and girls seems to have become general in the North and East. We sincerely and devoutly hope that this habit will never become fixed among the woman and girls of the South. There was a time in the long ago when many women smoked pipes. To see an aged grandmother sitting by the fireside smoking her corn-cob pipe does not seem so incongruous; but we can hardly imagine a modest, ladylike, matronly Southern mother puffing a cigarette. In fact, we can hardly imagine any real lady doing such a thing. Some how or other it does not fit in with our idea of the fitness of things. When we read of ladies and school girls smoking, we involuntarily feel a loss of our respect for them. We repeat that we hope that the women of the South will continue to maintain that ladylike standard of conduct that will inspire respect for them from all men;
for when the men of any nation lose respect for its women that nation is ruined.

The road hog is usually a hog any where you find him. The fellow who has no regard for the rights of the life of the other fellow on the highway has no regard for them anywhere else. The road hog has caused many an accident, in which some other fellow was the victim. We have less respect for him than we have for a boot-legger.

An additional high school building for Sweetwater is being agitated.
The matter was discussed at a meeting of the board recently and it is expected that a movement will be started soon for a bond election.
The building is made necessary by the increased scholastic population of the city.

Yeggs Rob Safe Of O'Donnell Store

The safe in the store of C. W. Moses was opened Sunday evening around eight o'clock and about $400 in cash taken by the thieves. Entrance to the store was made presumably through the back door and the safe taken from the office to the ware room and opened, the combination being worked without damage to the safe, a curtain hung over the door between the two departments prevented people from the streets seeing the work of the yeggs.

Mr. Moses was in the store in the afternoon and had occasion to open before leaving. At about 3:45 his son, Allen Moses, had business in the store and when he entered he noted that the safe had been removed from the office and looking in the ware room discovered it standing open. The city officers were notified and were soon on the scene. They found two gallon buckets of coal oil in the ware room and it is thought by some that the robber intended to burn the building. No clues were left for the officers to work on. The next morning the empty money sack was found in a toilet in the rear of the building.

The robbers were especially bold, as the index force in the same block was in the office during the time of the robbery.—O'Donnell Index.

Concrete Roof "Run" On Court House

The reinforced steel and concrete roof of the new Terry County Courthouse was run last week, an despite cold weather, which was below freezing, fires were kept up under it during the nights, and it seemed to have come through in fine shape.

Brick work is now the order of the day since the concrete and steel work has been finished, and partition walls of tile and concrete floors were run in the basement last week.

Work of putting up the rock trimmings for the bottom of the first story and tile and brick to support them, started this week, and if the weather permits the entire building will take shape and beauty as the weeks go on. Already it can be seen that we are going to have a county building to be proud of.

It is expected now that the building will be ready in every way for the July term of District Court, and indeed the May term of the County Court may be held in the new building.—Terry County Herald.

Improvements Made On Chevrolet Car

Many mechanical improvements, in face of price reductions, were displayed on the new Chevrolet cars at the opening of the New York automobile show Saturday. The numerous mechanical improvements, together with lower prices, coming at this time when high tire costs threaten advanced car prices, concentrated attention on the Chevrolet exhibit.

The price reduction was announced several days ago by W. S. Knudson, president of the Chevrolet Motor company. At that time no mention was made of improvements to the car. These mechanical changes are designed to give even smoother operation, greater engine efficiency and smoother riding. One of the features is an air cleaner, some thing which only cars of much higher price have been equipped with heretofore.

Among the new improvements are: lighter pistons and pins; engine lubricating system of increased efficiency; special three point motor suspension and redesigned motor head with larger cooling areas around the valves, all of which contribute materially toward smooth operation. The new car is well cushioned by long semi-elliptic springs of special design.

The new piston assembly is about a half pound lighter, decreasing by approximately two pounds the total weight of moving parts in the cylinders. The piston is of the skeleton type, combining lightness with ample strength and large bearing surface.

Constant and complete lubrication is assured by the new oiling system which places the oil pump in the crank case where it is primed the movement the engine starts. It is driven from the cam shaft by noiseless spiral gears. The new motor head with its larger cooling area increases value efficiency and life. The generator now is driven from the crank shaft by a silent V-type belt which also operates the fan. The water pump has a new mounting with larger bearings.

Other improvements are: An air cleaner at the intake opening of the air heater; tension springs at the joints of the spark and throttle control rods; greater rigidity in the dash and an increase of one-third in the braking area of the service brake which are operated by an improved type of brake rod.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lynn County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon J. H. Early by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Lynn County, Texas, to be holden at the courthouse thereof in Tahoka, Texas, in the third Monday in February, 1926, the same being the 15th day of February, 1926, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 6th day of January A. D. 1926, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 615, wherein E. S. Davis is plaintiff, and J. H. Early and O. E. Early are defendants, said petition alleging that the plaintiff conveyed to the defendant, J. H. Early on the 1st day of December, 1924, 172.8 acres of land out of Survey No 15, in Block 8, surveyed by virtue of Certificate No. 648 issued to the E. L. & R. R. Co., and being all of that part of said survey lying West of the Panhandle and Santa Fe Railroad right-of-way, and situated in Lynn County, Texas, by a written deed of conveyance of that date, and that as a part of the consideration for said conveyance the said J. H. Early executed to plaintiff ten (10) promissory notes for $533.00 each, dated December 1st, 1924, bearing interest from date at the rate of eight per centum per annum, the interest payable annually, providing for ten per cent attorney's fees, stipulating that failure to pay either of said notes or the interest thereon, when due should, at the election of the holder thereof, mature all of said notes remaining unpaid, payable to the order of E. S. Davis, at Tahoka, Texas, on the 1st day of December 1925, 1926, 1927, 1928, 1929, 1930, 1931, 1932, 1933, and 1934, respectively, and that the vendor's lien was expressly reserved in said deed of conveyance and in said promissory notes; that the defendant, J. H. Early, failed and refused to pay the note falling due on December 1st, 1925, and the interest on said entire series of notes, and still fails and refuses to pay the same, and that plaintiff, in accordance with the provisions of said notes and conveyance, on the 14th day of December, 1925, elected to declare and did declare all of said notes due and payable, and that the defendant still fails and refuses to pay the same or any part thereof; that the defendant, O. E. Early, is claiming some character of right of possession to said land, the exact nature of which is unknown to plaintiff, but that plaintiff's vendor's lien is superior to any right of the defendant, O. E. Early; that by reason of the premises, said deed or conveyance and promissory notes should be cancelled and held for naught, and plaintiff should have the title and possession of said land, and plaintiff sues in the form of trespass to try title against the defendants, J. H. Early and O. E. Early.

Plaintiff further alleges and pleads in the alternative, the conveyance and notes above mentioned, and the maturity thereof, and alleges annual rental value of said land to be $2000.00, and that his damages are $7000.00.

Plaintiff prays for judgment for the title and possession of said land, and for the cancellation of said deed of conveyance and vendor's lien notes, and that writ of restitution issue, and for his rents, damages and costs of suit; Or, in the alternative that he have judgment for his debt, interest, attorney's fees, and costs of suit, and for a foreclosure of his lien on said land.

Herein fail not, but have you before said court on the 1st day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, this 5th day of January, A. D. 1926.

Caveness Announces For Superintendent

In this issue of the News will appear the announcement of Prof. H. P. Caveness as a candidate for the office of county superintendent of public instruction of Lynn county.

Heretofore the county judge has been ex officio county superintendent of schools, but under the law, when the scholastic population of the county reaches 3,000, the office of county superintendent is automatically created. The scholastic population of Lynn county last year passed the 3,000 mark, the total enrollment being about 3,300, and the office therefore came into existence by operation of law. The law does not require the commissioners' court to appoint any one, however, to fill the office, and up to this time no such appointment has been made but Judge Cain has continued to serve ex officio as county superintendent. The voters may elect some one to fill the position at the next election, however, and therefore Mr. Caveness is offering for the position.

That Mr. Caveness is eminently well qualified to fill this important office will be readily conceded by every one who is acquainted with his work. For seven years in succession he served as superintendent of the Tahoka Public Schools, retiring from this position last summer. Under his superintendence, the Tahoka school grew from a small and inefficient institution to a splendid and well organized one. When he became its superintendent it had no affiliation with the higher institutions of learning. When he left the position it was affiliated in many subjects and had more than 20 credits of affiliation. Mr. Caveness is not only an excellent executive but is also a most capable instructor. He is thoroughly acquainted with public school problems and is conversant with the peculiar needs of the common schools of Lynn county.

He has a host of friends in Tahoka and throughout the county who will take great pleasure in supporting him for this position.

Wood Announces For Re-election

R. C. Wood announces this week as a candidate for re-election to the office of public weigher, subject to the action of the July primaries.

Mr. Wood was first appointed to the office by the commissioners' court in 1916. He has been elected to the position at each succeeding election since that time. He has therefore served about ten years as public weigher. That he has given general satisfaction is evidenced by the approval of the voters each time he has offered for office. He believes that he can serve just as efficiently and acceptably during the next term as he has served in the years past, and he is offering for the office again upon his own merits and upon the record he has made.

Mr. Wood has not only served the people in this capacity but he has been called upon to serve in other responsible positions. For several years he was president of the board of trustees of the Tahoka Independent School district, and it was during his incumbency in this position that the splendid auditorium and the class rooms beneath were added to the public school building. During his service as such trustee, much advancement was made not only in the enrollment but also in the character of work done in the public schools of Tahoka. He has been a useful and public spirited citizen, all of which the people of Tahoka and surrounding communities fully appreciate.

Wm. L. Week, who is a specialist in photography of the latest and most difficult class of portraiture, viz. making sittings in the home or office by ordinary window lighting. A display of this newest class of work can be seen in Thomas Bros. Drug Store windows. Mr. Week is located in suite No. 1 over Wells Hardware Store, where he will finish this work and make some of the sittings.

The Ox Knows More Than Man, Uncle Jim Says

The ox or the ass has more sense than the people of this generation. Why do I say this? Because the Bible says so. Read Isaiah 1:3. The ox knoweth his owner and the ass his master's crib but Israel doth not know; my people doth not consider. Also read the 4th verse. Old Isaiah was talking to the Jews but we are all the descendants of Adam. God is no respecter of persons, the same yesterday, today and forever. If Isaiah's prophecy applied to the Jewish nation it will apply also to this nation. We know this nation is corrupt. Understand I am not applying this to every individual but the children of light are far in the minority.

The ox or the ass knows where his sustenance comes from, but the majority of people do not. They can not know without the witness of the Spirit.

Here is a scripture that applies to a great many of this generation, Luke 16:3. They know if their employer finds out what they are doing they will lose their job, and if they do not favor like characters as themselves when they lose their jobs they will have no one to take care of them, and the Lord commended them for so doing. Read the 16 Chapter to the 13th verse.

Uncle Jim.

Simpson Asks For An Elective Term

Wesley Simpson has asked us to place his name in our announcement column this week as a candidate for sheriff, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary election to be held the fourth Saturday in July.

Mr. Simpson has been serving as sheriff of this county a little more than seven months, having been appointed to the position by the commissioners' court to fill the unexpired term of his brother, Marshall Simpson, who died while filling his first term. Marshall Simpson was elected to this position in 1924, took the oath of office as sheriff on January 1, 1925, and died about the first of June of that year.

Wesley Simpson, his brother, has been serving as sheriff since June 8, 1925. Now he asks to be elected to the position to succeed himself. He has never before offered for office in this county. He has resided in Lynn county the past ten years and even before his appointment to the office he was well known throughout the county. Since becoming sheriff he has made many new friends. Mr. Simpson does not claim to have made no mistakes but he says he has done his best and he believes that Lynn county is one of the cleanest counties morally in Texas. While there is some crime in the county yet he feels that it is freer of crime than the ordinary county. He promises if elected to keep the county just as safe as possible and expects to do his full duty fearlessly under all circumstances. He respectfully asks for the kind consideration of the voters, "and if they deem me worthy," he declared, "I want their support."

Mr. Simpson's friends throughout the county will rally to his support and they say that he is going to be a hard man to beat.

Many To Attend Agricultural Meet

Topics of the most practical interest will be discussed at the farmer's short course which will be held at the First Baptist Church at Lubbock, January 28 and 29 at which time Lubbock extends a most cordial invitation to every farmer, banker, merchant, housewife, newspaper man, and school teacher on the South Plains in order that all may receive the benefits of the addresses, according to A. H. Leidigh, dean of agriculture at the Texas Technological College, and chairman of the short course.

The International Harvester Company is co-operating with the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce in staging this short course and will send three experienced speakers, L. A. Hawkins, E. T. Ebersol, and Mrs. Gordon V. Randlett for the two days meeting. E. L. Jones superintendent of the Lubbock Experiment Station, W. L. Stangle, professor of animal husbandry and A. H. Leidigh, dean of agriculture at the Texas Technological College, and O. L. Slaton, Lubbock banker, will also address the gatherings.

Six sessions will be held, one each morning, afternoon and evening of the two days, January 28 and 29. In addition to music and moving picture reels at each session, the following addresses will be heard: L. A. Hawkins, The Farm Orchard, Smalf Fruit and Vegetable Gardens, any Beautifying Our Home Grounds; Mrs. G. W. Randlett, Poultry, A P-Z, Food for the Family, and Horch Farmer's Cow, My Neighbors, a Convienies; E. T. Ebersol, Tri-Boys' and Girls' Club Work; E. L. Jones, Cotton; W. L. Stangle, Feeding of Local Feeds; A. H. Leidigh, Classification of the Grains Sorghums; and O. L. Slaton, Out Agricutural Situation.

Seven moving picture reels will be shown at the short course, each twenty minute reel illustrating agricultural methods, convienies and convienies. Each film will be strictly educational and will serve to illustrate what the speakers have discussed. The films that will be shown are: Farm Inconvienies, Household Convienies, Make Mors from Farm Poultry, Milk, Nature's Perfect Food, The Making of a Good-Cow, Late and Lazy, and Sheep. "Facts, figures, new methods, and other data of interest and absolute necessity to every farmer and business man on the South Plains are going to be available here free of charge." D. F. Eaton, executive chairman of the two committees in charge stated recently, "all we ask is that you come and get your share of the Short Course."

O'Donnell Takes Religious Census

The Pastors' Association completed a census of O'Donnell last week and report the population of the town as being 1430 people. This number shows the wonderful growth the town has experienced during the past two years when the population was given by the enumerators as 350. Following is the report made by the pastors:

Baptist	363
Methodist	251
Presbyterian	53
Church of Christ	158
First Christian	25
Nazarenes	34
Christian Scientists	2
Primitive Baptist	6
Apostolic	1
Episcopal	1
Later Day Saints	1
Total professed Christians	896
Total non-professed Christians	502
Not accounted for	32
Total	1430
Enlisted in Schools	434
Not enlisted in the Sunday Schools	921
Not accounted for	75

The census shows that the number of professed Christians compare favorably with other communities, as it is estimated that only about 50 out of every hundred people through out the country are Christians O'Donnell Index.

ATE UP THE EVIDENCE

Two young men from Lubbock tried to pass some worthless checks in O'Donnell a few days ago, but the intended victims, being suspicious, called in the officers who placed the young men under arrest.

The boys were arraigned before the mayor of O'Donnell for trial. Just as the trial was about to begin one of the young men asked the mayor to let him examine the checks. The request was granted, and before the mayor could interfere, the young man tore the check into bits and swallowed the only evidence against him. The mayor fined the young man $10 for contempt of court.—Scurry County Times.

of them a few days ago for $14.00 and have the two sows and 12 pigs left."

Mr. Campbell thinks that farmers are foolish not to raise their own meat, to keep plenty of chickens and a good milk cow or two. He says that when he rented a portion of his farm recently he made three demands of the renter: first that he procure a milk cow or two, second, that he procure some hogs, and third, that he procure some chickens. By picking bollies and by other means this renter earned the money to buy them with and now has cows, chickens, and hogs. Thus equipped, Mr. Campbell says he knows that that renter can get by this year without having to call on him to stand for him at the grocery store. He thinks it is economy both for the renter and the landlord.

Advance Six Nash Motors To Be On Display Soon

Ragland Brothers, Nash distributors, have just announced that they have in transit two carloads of Nash automobiles, all of which are equipped with the new advance six Nash motors, which are being shown for first public inspection at the New York automobile show.

The motors, which are 90 horse-power and capable of developing 90 miles per hour, are larger in many details than the regular motors, larger bore and stroke, seven main bearings, new design transmission and many other new features being embodied in the motor, but there is no change in the body type.

From outside appearances the new cars will not be different to those now on the sales room floor of the Ragland Brothers company, but performance of the motor will be materially ahead of the older models.

Lockney Woman Cuts Throats of Children

Lockney, Floyd Co., Texas, Jan. 10.—Mrs. Essie Moore, living five miles south of Lockney, became deranged at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning and attacked her two children, killing her 8-year-old daughter, Derenda, and seriously wounded Dorothy, 6 years old. She then attempted to take her own life by slashing her throat with the razor she used on the children.

Ed Pratt, brother of Mrs. Moore, who was working in a field near by, hearing the screams of the children, rushed to the house, where he found that Mrs. Moore had cut a gash from her left ear to the jugular vein. Her condition is critical and little hope is held for either she or her little daughter, Dorothy.

Mrs. Moore has been making her home with her brother for the last year. Her husband, Frank Moore, is in Highland, Cal., for his health. The case came to Lockney from Snyder.

Ford Produced Over 2,000,000 Cars in 1925

The Ford Motor Company, in all its divisions, produced a total of 2,103,588 cars, trucks, tractors and airplanes during 1925, according to figures just given out at the general offices of the Ford Motor Company. Exclusive of airplanes, which is a new industry with the company, this is an increase of 20,033 automotive units over 1924.

In the production of Ford cars and trucks during the year, domestic plants in the United States assembled 1,775,245. Foreign plants of the company produced 136,161 cars and trucks and the output of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Ltd., totaled 79,280. Fordson tractor production was 104,168 and the Lincoln division of the company produced during the year a total of 8,415 Lincoln cars. In the newest division of the company, the airplane factory, the output was ten all-metal planes since the factory was acquired by the Company on August 1, 1925.

The remarkable output of Ford cars and trucks was reached in spite of the fact that for a period of more than thirty days during August and September domestic production was almost negligible due to the introduction of the improved types. The same condition prevailed later on in the foreign assembly plants as the change to the improved cars were made in these places, some of which are just now getting into appreciable production with the improved types.

Direct Road From Lubbock To Ft. Worth

Lubbock, Jan. 15.—A new State highway, offering a direct route from Lubbock to Fort Worth, is to be opened within a short time, with acceptance by the maintenance department of the State Highway Commission of a strip approximately 75 miles through King County and portions of Dickens and Knox Counties, according to George A. Field, division engineer of the State Department, who returned here Friday from an inspection of the new road.

The State, several months ago, offered to take over the highway provided the counties affected would bring the road into shape so that State maintenance could be carried on. Knox and Dickens Counties have finished their work. Field said, and King county is fast bringing work to completion there.

The highway will lead due east out of Lubbock through Crosby, Dickens, King and Knox Counties, thence in a southeasterly direction into Fort Worth.

J. B. Nance returned Monday night from Fort Worth where he has been spending several days attending to business.

proposition carries. This architect will prepare blue prints and drawings of the proposed structure, which will possibly be placed on display in some public place before the election, so that the voters may get an idea therefrom as to the character and appearance of the structure before voting.

The board realizes that taxes every where are already high and they regret that our citizens must be called upon to bear any additional tax burdens, but the inadequacy of our buildings seems to render this step imperative, and school taxes economically and wisely spent are always the best investment a city can make.

Are you ready, people, to take this forward step?

FOR WORKING PEOPLE

The best of workers get out of sorts when the liver fails to act. They feel languid, half-sick, "blue" and discouraged and think they are getting lary. Neglect of these symptoms might result in a sick spell, therefore the sensible course is to take a dose or two of Herbine. It is just the medicine needed to purify the system and restore the vim and ambition of health. Price 60c. Sold by

Chevrolet Sets New Standard of Beauty

A new standard of small car beauty has been established by the improved Chevrolet models which were displayed for the first time at the New York Automobile Show. Besides the landau, latest of the Chevrolet products, the closed group includes a sedan, coach and coupe. All have bodies by Fisher. The company also produces a roadster and touring car and two trucks of one-half and one ton capacities.

Despite the many improvements and refinements on the Chevrolet cars, prices of all models were substantially reduced Jan. 1.

The complete appointments and distinctive lines of the landau make this car the aristocrat of the Chevrolet closed line. The exterior body panels, disc wheels and hood are in the Arizona gray color. The body stripes are in gold. The leather-covered rear quarter with its landau windows and graceful landau bars adds a final touch to the appearance of the car. The gray of the interior harmonizes with the outside panel colors. The landau interior equipment includes dash and dome lights, roller shades, foot rest, robe rail, smoking set and door pockets.

The coupe is finished in the Arizona gray Duco, the coach in Bloomfield gray and the sedan in Algerian blue. The front seat of the sedan has been given a slightly increased tilt. This affords greater comfort to the front seat passengers and increased leg room to those in the rear seat. The sedan has a foot rest similar to that in the landau.

All of the closed cars have the once-piece ventilating wind-shield, automatic windshield wiper, sun visor, parking lamps and Ternstedt interior hardware.

The attractive gun metal gray Duco finish is retained on the two open models.
