SMOTHERING

Texas Lady Tells How She Got Rid of Her Troubles.

"The first time I took Cardui, I was in an awful bad way," says Mrs. Ora Cattie, R. F. D. 5, Troop, Texas.

"I was afflicted with awful smothering spells. My mother had some Cardui in the house, and she was taking it, so she immediately began giving it to me. In a few days I got all right.

"Last fall I got run-down in health. I was weak and puny and I began to suffer with it. I would get so I could hardly walk. Having taken Cardui before, I sent for a bottle of it.

"Almost from the first dose I could feel the improvement. . . I am much better now.

"Cardui has helped me a lot and I am glad to recommend it. I don't feel like the same woman I was last fall.

"My appetite is good now, and I'm sure it's Cardui that's made it pick up, for in the fall I had no relish for food at all, while now I'm hungry for my meals."

P. T. A. Hold Last Meet Soon

On account of the fine rain coming on our regular meeting date, the P. T. A. met Friday evening, April 23rd, with only a very few present. Several children were called on extra and it was interesting to note the selections these fine girls made. Little Wells Edwards said, when called on for a piano selection, "I am not in it," but then he gave of his best. We older ones received lessons worth while from these little folks' ready response.

A decision was reached that the play be given up, since almost all the evenings are taken until the close of this school term. The grown, busy people of the town, whether patrons of the school or not, were giving their best towards the success of "The Old District Skule," and the P. T. Association wishes to thank each and every one for the interest and help rendered either towards the play or the carnival. The latter was very much a success due to the help of the merchants, lumber yards, the scene's fine advertising; in fact, everyone had some part in this unusual way of raising funds for the benefit of our school.

The next meeting will be the afternoon of Tuesday, May 4th, when officers will be elected. Then, no more meetings will be held until next school term with officers elected ahead, the plans for greater work may be made. Have in mind an officer for each place. Come on the 4th and help elect them.—Reporter.

Lynn County Girls Win At Lubbock

Lubbock, Texas, April 25.—Increase in interest in the literary events of the Interscholastic League was displayed on the South Plains Friday and Saturday, when 256 contestants competed for honors in declamation, essay writing, extemporaneous speaking and debating, the largest number that has ever competed in this district since the league was organized.

Winners in the literary events are: Declamations: High school, Junior girls, Burling Boynton, Fluvanna; Junior boys, Jesse Cooper, Prairie Chapel, Floyd County; senior girls, Benita Boyd, Levelland; senior boys, Hubert Hooper, Lubbock.

Rural school, Junior girls, Virginia Mathis, New Hope, Lubbock County; Junior boys, Bryan Medline, Dixie School, Lynn County, senior girls, Susie Gallehon, Garlin, Garza County; senior boys, Boyd Leavelle, Posey, Lubbock County.

Essay writing: High school, class A, Nona Carr, Snyder; Class B, Roaring Springs.

Ward school: Gertrude Collier, Lockney.

Rural school, Lillie Mae Crump, Dixie School, Lynn County.

Extemporaneous speaking: Vivian Keater, Lubbock.

Debates: Boys, Floydada team; girls, Slaton team.

The prairies and woodland of Texas are now blooming with many varieties of wild flowers. No state in the Union has as many beautiful wild flowers as Texas. "Transplanting Wild Flowers" is the subject of an article in the News' Monthly Magazine Section, which will be issued May 13. If you want to know the best wild flowers to transplant to your own yard and how to do it, read this article.

IN RE: ASSIGNMENT, J. F. EUBANKS, TO J. ROGER WILSON, ASSIGNEE THE STATE OF TEXAS, COUNTY OF LYNN.

To The CREDITORS OF THE SAID J. F. EUBANKS, WHO RESIDES AT O'DONNELL, TEXAS.

You are hereby notified that J. F. Eubanks, of the County of Lynn, State of Texas, on the 9th day of April, 1926, executed a deed of assignment conveying to the undersigned all of his property for the benefit of such of his creditors as will consent to accept their proportional share of his estate and discharge him from their respective claims, and that the undersigned accept said assets, and to be duly qualified as required by law. All creditors consenting to said assignment, must, within four months after the publication of this notice, make known to the assignee their claims in writing, and within six months from the date of this notice file their claim as prescribed by law with the undersigned, and address him at Lubbock, Texas, which is his Post Office Address.

Witness my hand this the 9 day of April, 1926.

BIG MASS OF EVIDENCE, NO BIG RESULTS

Washington, April 25.—If the two huge columns of evidence in the Senate prohibition hearings were boiled down to a sentence, the substance of it would be this:

National prohibition is effective in localities where public sentiment favors it and unsuccessful where public sentiment opposes it. In the three weeks of intensive hearings more than fifty hours of testimony and argument was offered and the committee gathered the most complete sets of statistics, observations and opinions that has ever been assembled on the subject of prohibition.

Effect Seems Negligible. But the effect has been negligible so far as can be observed. The wets made a weaker case than many expected and prohibition fared better than some thought it would.

One real job appeared to have been suffered by the dries when Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews said that the sale of light beer under Government supervision would aid law enforcement.

But in the closing hours of the investigation Andrews reappeared before the commission and explained that while this was theoretically the case, he knew of no way of bringing it about and did not advocate any change in the law.

This mild explanation of a statement that a few days before had made a sensation and caused general denunciation of Andrews by the dries removed the last cause of anxiety for the supporters of the Volstead act.

A. Seals, who lives out on Et. B., planked down two plunks a few days ago for the Lynn County News and the Semi-Weekly Farm News. Good reading.

Car of Presiding Elder Doak Stolen

While presiding Elder D. B. Doak of Lubbock was busily engaged Sunday night presiding over the District Conference of the Methodist Church in session at Brownfield, some low-down car-thief took his car from the street in front of the church, where it was parked, according to Rev. John E. Eldridge, pastor of the church here. Brother Eldridge states that Brother Doak had neglected to lock his car thinking no doubt that a presiding elder's car would certainly be safe while its owner was doing his religious duty just inside the church. But a car thief is no respecter of persons. A presiding elder's car standing in front of a church door looks just as good to him as a boot-legger's car standing on a back street. Brother Eldridge says that he himself took no chances and locked his car and put the key in his pocket. He had plenty of confidence in his preacher brethren but he remembered that the good Book says that ye know not the hour when the thief cometh, or words to that effect. He therefore rode home in his own car while the presiding elder had to catch a ride. So far as the News is informed, the good minister has found no trace of his purloined gas wagon, which was a Maxwell Sedan bearing a Pennsylvania number.

Elder Doak's Car Returned To Him

Rev. D. B. Doak whose car was stolen at Brownfield Sunday, was happily surprised when friends at Brownfield arrived here Monday with the car which they explained had been carried back to Brownfield early Monday morning by a man who said he had been given ten dollars to return the car to Brownfield.

The man who returned the car to Brownfield stated that the car was at the roadside three miles from Meadow where he took charge of it, driving it to Brownfield.

J. C. Ansley of Wichita Falls came down Monday to look after business interests here but found things in good shape and returned Tuesday. He reports floods of rain in the Wichita Falls section.

EDITOR'S FATHER CELEBRATES ONE HUNDRETH BIRTHDAY

Judge J. N. Kellis celebrated his one hundredth birthday at his home in Sterling City Tuesday and his baby son, who is also editor of the Index, and no baby chicken in age, attempted to be with his parents on this occasion, but as Chevys were not made to float in water, he was forced to turn back at Ackerly after having spent Monday night in the middle of the road. It is seldom that a man has an invitation to attend his father's hundredth birthday and it was a sore disappointment that we could not be present.—O'Donnell Index.

C. L. Tate came up Monday from Cross Plains and returned Wednesday to that place with his household goods. Several weeks ago he accepted a position with the Higginbotham Company at that place but he had never removed his family there. His wife and daughter have been visiting relatives in Comanche since leaving Tahoka a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Lura Crotzer of Redwine sent us a copy of an Arkansas paper a few days ago, accompanied by a note, in which she highly complimented The Lynn County News; said she was proud of it. NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

The pastor of one of our neighboring rural churches was here Monday making inquiry for a suitable place for the young people of his flock to take an outing, a place of shade and water. We regretted very much that we could not point out to him such a place in our vicinity. His quest raised a question in our minds. Is there not some way by which the citizens of Tahoka can provide just such a place somewhere near its center? When our own young people, or older ones, desire to go out on a little picnic, where can they go? There are many places where abundant water can be had at small cost but there are no trees and no shade. Wouldn't the Sand Hill, for instance, be a much more interesting and attractive place if there were a park out there somewhere, with at least a few trees and a well of water? Or, can not somebody provide a place of recreation, a place for picnics, a place of shade and water, in some other place somewhere near our little city? Will not somebody solve this problem for us?

Let us all work together for the betterment of our schools. Tahoka already has a good school but by cooperation and by giving it proper support we can make it one of the best in Texas. Let's do it, folks.

We believe that the present highway commission is composed of honorable men, fairly competent at least to perform the duties of the highway commission. It occurs to us that they are responsible for their own conduct of highway affairs, and we do not believe that so long as they act honestly the attorney general or any other official has any right to interfere with them in the performance of their duties. Attorney General Moody is eminently right in demanding honesty in the conduct of all the state's business, but something must be left to the judgment and discretion of the highway commissioners, and we believe that their own judgment, and not that of the attorney-general, should be allowed to guide them in matters of policy. We believe the attorney general was right in bringing the highway suits a few months ago, but we fear that he is trying to dabble just a bit too much with the business of the highway commissioners.

Mrs. Ferguson Sunday issued her "platform." This platform was more in the nature of a review and defense of her administration than a statement of principles and policies of government to which she subscribed. As a campaign document it is generally conceded to have been a strong and skillfully wrought paper. The fact of the business is that there is much to commend in the Ferguson administration, as grave as some of the mistakes have been, and Jim Ferguson will arouse a strong sentiment in favor of giving "Ma" a second term when he goes on the stump. Those who hope and believe otherwise had better revise their thinking now, otherwise they may be compelled to revise it later on.

The "wets" started the investigation in congress for the sole purpose of flooding the country with their propaganda and bringing about a modification of the Volstead law, a "modification" that would mean nullification. But about the only tangible result of the investigation was to prove that the prohibition law was not being enforced in some localities as it should be and a determination on the part of the dries to bring about better enforcement. To that end, the Volstead law will probably be strengthened instead of modified.

The other day we saw a hundred boys on the school ground. Among them was one fine little fellow poorly clad. There were holes in his garments and the marks of a hard struggle on his brow. Later, we saw the same boy at church. Even there he wore a coat with holes at the elbow, and we remembered that his home is one of penury. Then we silently exclaimed, How much the school and the church means to this boy! We wonder what his chances in the world would be without the school and the church. Without them, he would doubtless be doomed to direst poverty and ignorance through life. With them, he has a chance to make good and some day to be one of the leading citizens of his community. And then we thought, How insignificant is wealth as compared with character and knowledge. With every pound of our flesh and every drop of our blood we are for the church and the public school.

With a ten acre plot just at the limits of the city on which to build a commodious high school building and with the funds provided for that purpose, we can see a great future for our schools. Not only is there ample room out there for all kinds of athletics, but if in the years to come it should become necessary and desirable for Tahoka to build a junior high school, as some of our larger towns are now doing, we have plenty of room for that. In making our school plans and improvements, we are thinking not only of today but also of tomorrow.

The Democrats have nominated a wet candidate in Illinois for the United States Senate. The Republican candidate, we understand, is a dry. The issues that have heretofore divided the Democratic and the Republican parties will figure very little in the campaign. The big issue will be the liquor question. That being the case, we hope that the Republican candidate wins. Any party anywhere that espouses the cause of liquor ought to be defeated.

MY CREED

"To live as gently as I can,
To be no matter where a man;
To take what comes of good or ill,
To cling to faith and honor still;
To do my best and let that stand
The record of my brain and hand;
And then, should failure come to me,

Still work and hope for victory!
"To have no secret place wherein
I stoop unseen to shame or sin
To be the same when I'm alone
As when my every deed is known,
To live undaunted, unafraid
Of any step that I have made;
To be without pretense or sham,
Exactly what men think I am."

The Mayfield bill, which provided that existing railroads within a state might make extensions without first obtaining the consent of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and which was passed by the Senate a few days ago, was virtually killed by a House committee Monday, according to dispatches from Washington. This bill was given birth by reason of the railway situation in west Texas which has been under public discussion the past year. The Santa Fe and the Denver line each sought permission to make extensions over the plains. Neither has been granted permission thus far but permission was granted to another proposed line from Fort Worth westward. The general public takes the view that if certain sections of the country need more railway facilities and if certain railroads are willing to take the risk and extend their lines into this territory the I. C. C. should have no power to prevent such construction. To us, this appears to be the correct view. We may be wrong, but we believe that if the railway companies are willing to take the risk no commission up at Washington ought to be allowed to interfere. We can not understand why that House committee killed the Mayfield bill.

Since spring has come and clothed our trees in green, we have just a hint of the future beauty of our City Park. When the trees there shall have reached large proportions, as they will in a few years, the park will be a veritable beauty spot in our city, just as our court house lawn is now. Not only will it be a place of beauty but it will be a place of recreation and pleasure. They who are responsible for our City Park have done a good and wise thing for our city.

READY TO DO BUSINESS

Commissioner W. E. Farris was in Wilson last week and stated that he was ready to "crack" down on the completion of the highway to the Lubbock County line as soon as Commissioner Talley of that county started his end of the highway. This road has been graded by the citizens of Wilson since some time in January and has been put in first class condition to within a short distance of the county line and there held up to await Commissioner Talley's move in the matter. So far he has refused to do anything toward making the connection and there is where it now rests. However, at a meeting some two weeks ago at Slaton, Mr. Talley stated to representatives of Wilson, who were at the meeting that he was ready to go ahead with his part of the work. The matter of completing the road is now up to Mr. Talley, as Commissioner Farris emphatically states he is ready to continue the work in this county, but will not make a move until it is seen what the Lubbock County commissioner is going to do.—Wilson Pointer.

Judge G. E. Lockhart was here from Lubbock the first of the week representing some clients in the county court.

THIRD RURAL ROUTE STARTS SAT. MAY 1st.

The third rural route from Wilson, which will run south and southeast from town, will be started May first. While there has been no examination and appointments made by the department, a temporary carrier will be put on until at such time the department set a time for the examination for carrier and make an appointment for the place. Some ten or fifteen applications have sent in to take the examination but the department has not set the time as yet. This route will serve a large number of farmers who now have either to come to Wilson or go to Tahoka for their mail, and is another good index of the growth and development of the section this route will penetrate.—Wilson Pointer.

C. W. Seth of New Home had business in the News office Monday and reported that the rain in his community last week amounted to more than four inches. Farmers were already busy planting Monday and all feel hopeful of a bumper crop.

W. T. C. C. Champions, State Schools

Canyon, Texas April 26, 1926 Saturday two members of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Porter Whaley and Homer Wade, were guests of the West Texas State Teachers College and reviewed with President J. A. Hill the needs of the institution. Mr. Wade said: "President Hill is asking for too little; the needs of the school are great and it is time the State of Texas begins to realize its needs in an educational way and to take care of these needs." Both Mr. Wade and Mr. Whaley called attention to the fact that West Texas is growing by thousands in population and that building programs must be planned to take care of the situation now and to make it possible to take care of the students of this region year by year.

Mr. Whaley stated that the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is ready and willing to champion the cause of all the State institutions of West Texas, and that it will undertake to help the college enlighten the people about its needs. Another guest of the college was Dr. Frank P. Bachman of the General Education Board of the Rockefeller Foundation, New York City. He said: "You are making your plans for the West Texas Teachers College altogether too small. This college needs to make its plans in terms of millions of dollars if it is to be able to serve the needs of this territory in ten years from this time. The need of great road improvement was also mentioned by Homer Wade.

T-BAR NEWS

Hello! How is everybody coming planting their crop? The people in this community are busy planting their cotton and feed.

There will be a pie supper at T-Bar Saturday night, May 1. The proceeds will go to buy lights for the school house. Everybody come out and take part. Everybody invited to come and bring your pocket-books along.

There will be a play at the T-Bar school house on the night of May 8; title: "The Road to the city."

Mr. Buddie Thomas has built him a new house on his place south of the school house.

There will not be a singing at T-Bar Sunday eve on account of it being the singing convention day, which will meet at O'Donnell.

"THE HIGH MARK OF HONOR"

This is the title of a story which will appear in the Lynn County News May Magazine Section to be issued May 13. Don't fail to read it. The story reads like fiction, but is true in all particulars. The principal characters are two Oklahoma Indians, who were sentenced to be shot by the Indian Council at Okmulgee, but were allowed their freedom until the day of execution.

The only bond exacted of the two Indian youths, were their word of honor that on the respective days designated for their execution they would report in person to the Indian police at Okmulgee and there be lawfully shot to death. The TWO INDIAN BOYS KEPT THEIR WORD thereby setting an example of honor and integrity that astounded law courts throughout the United States.

at a reasonable price. This ranch lies west and northwest of Tahoka. Part of it has been sold in small tracts and converted into farms. These farms the past year proved to be among the finest cotton lands of the south plains. Lynn county led all other plains counties in cotton production the past year. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather conditions that prevailed during the summer and in spite of the unusually early freeze in the fall, Lynn county produced nearly 40,000 bales. In 1924, the government report showed the crop to be 38,215 bales. We can sell you land as good as the black lands of central and south Texas at

Ford Highest in Quality Lowest in Price

Ford cars are built throughout of the finest materials that can be produced. The very best steels available are used in Ford manufacture. The plate glass for windshields and windows is as perfect as can be made. Upholstery material contains a larger percentage of wool than is ordinarily specified—even for much higher priced cars. The basic features of Ford design have never been improved upon by any manufacturer.

No other car offers greater dependability. The Ford car has won the favor of millions of users under every conceivable motoring condition. Its convenience is known and appreciated the world over; its performance is taken for granted.

Such quality is possible at Ford prices because every operation, from mining of ore to final assembly, is under direct control of the Ford Motor Company.

Iron is taken from Ford mines in Michigan; coal from the Company's mines in Kentucky and West Virginia. Glass comes from Ford glass plants; wood from the Ford timber tracts in the North. Raw materials and finished products are carried over the Company's own transportation routes; coke ovens, blast furnaces, a steel mill, foundries and saw mills—all are part of this complete organization. There are even salvage plants, paper mill, cement plant, etc., to transform waste materials into useful by-products.

In this way every possible economy is effected. Under no other circumstances could Ford quality be had at Ford prices.

Organize Home Club At Midway

The News is informed that a Woman's Club was organized at Midway last week. A communication from the secretary follows:

"Miss Halsey met with the women of Midway community Tuesday afternoon, April 13, at the home of Mrs. Roy Campbell. We organized a home demonstration club, which will meet the second Tuesday in each month. Our next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Draper. We urge that every woman in the community join us in this work, and we extend a cordial invitation to women of neighboring clubs.

WHO STARTED FT. WORTH-ROSWELL AIRLINE, ANYWAY?

Well, the question of who started the agitation and interest in the Fort Worth-Roswell Airline doesn't make a great deal of difference, yet we love to see fair play, and honor placed where honor is due. In a write-up and brief history of the matter published recently in a neighboring county, the man who really started the matter was entirely ignored. The man who saw that other towns were trying to pull our highway into an elbow northward in order to pass through their towns was never mentioned.

J. E. Shelton, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce was the man who got busy with phone calls and called the first meeting at the matter at Tahoka, which now has resulted in a strong organization of the towns along the airline route that mean business. Yet, this man's name was not mentioned in the write up.

Honor where honor is due.—Terry County Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Haynes, former proprietors of the Lynn County News, were here Monday and Tuesday attending the services at the Baptist Church and greeting their many friends, which includes the entire population of Tahoka. Of course they called at the News office. Mr. Haynes is now proprietor and editor of the Seagraves Signal. He reports fine rains in that section of the plains, a few new buildings being constructed in Seagraves, and the crop prospect just as fine as could be desired. We must mention also that Robert Jr. was also a caller at the News office and immediately made friends with the editor.

1,188 Steers Are Shipped From Seagraves

One Thousand, one hundred eighty eight steers were loaded from the Seagraves shipping pens Monday enroute to the pastures in Kansas.

These cattle were owned by George Tom of Andrews county and were purchased by Crady and McDade of Kansas.

These gentlemen are purchasing agents for a concern in Kansas City and we are informed that more than 5,000 head have been bought for shipment.—Seagraves Signal.

L. R. Mason who lives on Route A out of Post handed the editor the proper amount of coin Friday and asked that we send the paper to his address. Mr. Mason stated that he had read a number of copies of our paper and liked it. He decided it was worth the price. Mr. Mason is a splendid citizen of Garza county and we are glad to add his name to our list.

O. B. Adami left Saturday for Dallas where he will attend the Texas Bakery Association. Mrs. Adami of Winters, mother of O. B. is visiting with Mrs. Adami until Mr. Adami returns then she will leave for California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Doak of O'Donnell and Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Doak of Seagraves were guests of I. S. Doak and family Tuesday.

Elbert E. King of the Hogan Dry Goods Company is to be transferred to Archer City, we understand, where Mr. Hogan has another business. He will leave about the first of next week.

T. J. Kellis, editor of the O'Donnell Index, was here Monday as a witness in a civil suit in the county court and while here called around to hob-nob with the office force of the Lynn County News for a bit. Like all good newspaper men, Kellis is a booster for his town and he thinks the outlook for a crop in his section this year is exceedingly good. He says that much new land is also being placed in cultivation out in the southwest portion of the county.

Mississippi Was Weak, Couldn't Eat Enough.

"I had a bad case of stomach trouble," says Mr. N. A. Smith, of Shaw, Miss. "I couldn't eat enough and was very weak. Everything I ate hurt me, formed gas, and I spit up my food."

"I would feel stupid or staggery. I didn't feel like doing any work. I knew what Black-Draught had done, and I began taking small doses. I certainly got relief. It did me lots of good."

"When I go to town, I look first to see how near out of Black-Draught we are, and then get more. We keep our home remedies and the main one is Black-Draught."

In hundreds of thousands of homes, housekeepers keep Black-Draught as a remedy to relieve indigestion, biliousness, constipation. Containing no harmful or other mineral drugs, Black-Draught is absolutely safe to take for all members of the family.

You should keep Black-Draught always on hand, for use when needed.

Another "Bull" Durham advertisement by Will Rogers, Ziegfeld pillars and screen star, and leading American humorist. More coming. Watch for them.

News Taken from the Daily Papers

A headline in the paper says "In their war China won't fight on rainy days." They don't mind getting shot, but they won't get wet.

Imagine a sign as you start to enter China: "RAIN. NO WAR TODAY." If that was the custom in this country, we could prevent all wars by announcing that all the fighting must be done in Portland, Oregon.

Another paper asks, "Where does a Florida Real Estate man go in the summer?" He goes to California to his all-the-year-round home.

A newspaper asks "Why does a President of a concern always talk at the Company's banquets?" It's an incentive to the workers, who say, "If that's all he knows I may be President some day."

Another paper suggests, "The cheapest way to enforce Prohibition is to have everyone that drinks watched." Who is going to do the watching?

An article in a Business Man's magazine inquires, "What business in this country has the largest turnover?" Cucumbers for supper have the largest turnover, with Fords a close second.

The Congressional Record speaking editorially, says, "Bull" Durham is the best Tobacco that ever entered these Stately Halls."

P.S. There will be another piece in this paper soon. Watch for it.

Uncle Jim Denounces The Profit System

The Profit System. This is what I am going to take for my text. I take the position from a scriptural standpoint that the profit system is and has been a curse to the human family. I expect some fellow or fellows to chew the rag about this but I stand flatfooted on this proposition. This is not the first time I have thrown out the challenge. Let's see whether it will stand the test from a scriptural standpoint. I will not give all the references from the scripture but will give enough to sustain my argument.

The love of money is the root of much evil, which is in the majority, the poor people or the wealthy? We will commence with the Jewish people. Why did Pharo want to keep the Jews in bondage? For the profit of their labor. Exodus, 5th Chap. We will next see what Solomon did. Why did Solomon make the burdens of the people grievous? For profit. We will notice the acts of Rehoboam, 1 Kings, 12th Chap. The oppression of the people was for profit. I do not have reference to a minority of the people but to the majority. The third commandment that God gave to Moses, Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Read Proverbs 1:8 19; Prov. 3; Prov. 11:1-4; Prov. 22:1 These are some quotations from the Old Testament. I will give some from the New Testament. Matt. 26:14-15; Mark Christ's own words, 12:43-44; Matt. 6:20-21; James 1:10-11; 5:1-6.

I have given a few Bible references; we will consider the present generation. The land problem is just for a few men to own or control, Deut. 10:14; Psalms 24:1; 1 Cor. 10:26 God says the earth is mine but man it's his. The fewer men that own the land the greater the oppression of the people. Why do men want to own so much land? Simply for the profit there is in it. God said, in the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread. Through the profit system too many are eating their bread through the sweat of some other fellow's face. Oh, they will say it's legitimate, but is it according to God's Word? If Christ were to come back to this earth he would find many a den of thieves, not only one as he did when he went into the temple but many. When he went into the temple and found them selling all kinds of birds and merchandise, no doubt they said, This is legitimate; but Christ said, You have made my house a den of thieves.

Back to the land question. A few living in mansions and luxury and many thousands living in shacks and poverty. What is the cause of this? The profit system. The profit system is sending thousand to hell. Why do I say this? I will answer, why will a man buy anything for a certain amount and tell his fellow man it cost more. He has lied. What does he do this for? The profit there is in it. Why is the most damnable blight that ever came over a nation carried on, the white slave traffic? It's for profit. Why does the merchant lie to his customer about the cost of his goods? It's the profit. Why does the lawyer defend criminals? It's for profit. Why does man make whiskey? Profit. Why do men gamble? Profit. Why have there been so many wars? Profit. Why is it that so many can not procure financial aid? It is because they can not yield the profit. Why do so many men, so-called Christians, wear the Christian cloaks? It's for profit. It's the profit system that is lowering the morals of this generation. Why do preachers sometimes pose as Christian ministers and yet they are playing the part of a hypocrite? It's for profit. I will say the profit system is here and we have got to endorse it or starve to death.

Levelland Votes To Incorporate

Levelland, April 20.—While one and one half inches of rain drenched the streets of Levelland and broadened the smiles of Hockley County farmers, voters of this city today polled the largest vote in the history of the city, voted four to one in favor of incorporating the town and elected temporary officers.

The election was described by leading citizens as a great forward step in the development of the city as soon as a charter has been secured and the regular officers have been placed, improvements such as a growing population demand and expect will be made.

Bob McCord Enters Commissioner's Race

Bob McCord of Grassland has authorized the News to place his name in its announcement column as a candidate for commissioner of Precinct No. 2.

This is the first time Mr. McCord has ever asked the people to honor him with public office. He has been a leading citizen of his community and of the county for about eleven years, having removed from Baylor county to Lynn county in November, 1914. He is a native of Alabama. He has successfully engaged in farming and has made good money at the business. In fact he is a splendid business man, and he promises, if elected, to bring the same business methods and business judgment into the conduct of the affairs of this office as he has exercised in his private affairs.

All of Bob McCord's neighbors will testify that he is a most excellent gentleman; one of our best citizens, and amply qualified to perform the duties of the office. The News bespeaks for his candidacy your most thoughtful consideration.

O'Donnell Bonds Approved By Atty-Gen.

A dispatch from the Attorney General's office at Austin states that the O'Donnell Independent School District Bonds had been approved, and since the bonds have been sold there remains only the letting of the contract for the erection of the High School building.

This will be done on April 26. The Board of Trustees announces that on this date bids for the construction of the building will be received.

It is planned to have this building ready for occupancy by the opening of the fall term.

The construction of this building means advancement for O'Donnell's school interests. No town can advance faster than its schools.

Schools form the foundation of all civilization.

O'Donnell people are laying the foundation of a town that will advance.

Now watch O'Donnell grow—O'Donnell Index.

windmill on it. It is a high and beautiful location but is rather far out and very sandy.

Fifth, D. T. Rogers offered to give the district a five acre tract situated east of the railway if the board cared to consider locations that far out.

Sixth, blocks 64 and 67 lying north of Judge Cain's residence were offered to the board by Messrs. Chas. Shook and Sid Sanders for a consideration of $4,000.00. They also own blocks 22, 23, and 44 lying side by side at the western limits of the city, extending within one block of the E. S. Davis block on the north and within one block of the Brownfield highway on the south. They offered either two of these blocks to the board for a consideration of $4,000.00. They also own block No. 24, except the two lots on which the Henry McDaniel residence is situated, and they offered these two blocks to the board at the same price, provided the board would bear the expense of moving the Henry McDaniel residence to other lots. They also offered blocks 43 and 46, being the first and second blocks north of block 24, for the same price, $4,000.00. In all these offers they agreed to take as part consideration sixteen owned by the school district situated just west of the cotton yard at $1,600, leaving the sum of $2,400.00 to be paid them in money. Any two of these blocks would afford a beautiful building site.

Lying just across the old Lubbock highway immediately west of this west tier of blocks and north of the Burton Edwards residence is a five-acre tract of land which Mr. Zappe offered to donate to the district if it would construct the new building thereon. Immediately north of this five-acre tract is another which he offered to sell to the district for a consideration of $800.00 if the board desired more than five acres. The building site on these two tracts would be just over the line in the T-Bar pasture not more than 200 yards west of the place where the building would stand if any of the most desirable Shook blocks had been accepted. Since the two Zappe tracts comprise about 30 to 40 per cent more land than any two of the Shook blocks and since they were offered to the board at just one-fifth the price, the board decided to accept the Zappe offer.

Objection has been made that the distance out to this site is too great. But it must be remembered that no adequate site centrally located is available. Any site selected would have been a considerable distance from quite a large per cent of our scholastic population. Besides the site selected, is not so far away as some people seem to imagine. It is less than seven full blocks west of the Lubbock highway leading north from the court house. It is just two blocks from the Brownfield highway. It is no farther from the business section of the town than the E. S. Davis residence. By far the largest part of the building in town during the past few years has been north and west of the business section. The future growth of the city promises to be largely in that direction.

It will be just five miles from this building to the east line of the district while it will be seven miles to the west line. Some day T-Bar lands lying west of the city will be converted into farms and a large scholastic population will reside west of Tahoka in this district. Considering the price paid, the amount of land obtained, the beautiful situation, the geographical position of the site in the district, the future growth of the town and the future development of the country, don't you think that this site was not only the best bargain from a financial standpoint but was also one of the best sites offered from every standpoint?

Irvin Bradley was here from Wilson Sunday. Says everything is lovely in and around Wilson; more rain there than at Tahoka even, and prospects for a crop never better.
