HOM/NY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVING

I'VE HEARD, via the grapevine that I've picked up a few readers of the younger group .-- Surely, if they read the grits, they must be starved for something to read!

Could be that they are amused at the sight of a guy with his foot in his mouth .-- But, you cats, if I do have your attention for a few minutes, let me offer you a little daddylike advice.

THESE, DEAR HEARTS, are the "Good Ol' Days, about which you'll be tellin' YOUR kids, in about 20 to 30 years!

Make 'em happy ones .-- Lots of our youngsters don't really enjoy their "Golden Years" simply because of their impatience to grow up! -- (Just can't wait 'til I'm grown!)

Take it easy! -- Time enough to face the serious responsibilities of life when the time is ripe.

GO AHEAD and do your "Thing" -- BUT KEEP IT CLEAN! Filthy and lustful living will only bring shame and regret to mature age .--You see, I didn't say: "Just let yourself go!"

There's a difference. Live each day as tho you were going to give a report about it, before the whole school!--(Are you still reading?)

HERE'S A "no-no" -- Don't look too closely, at the grown-ups of these days, for your examples .--SOME set good patterns to follow, --BUT, many do NOT!

The "do-nots", are the ones that have no respect for you, themselves, or anyone else, -- They use vile and filthy language, tell dirty jokes, revel in lust, and use sex as a plaything works .-- Liquor and "pot" is their strength!

What's worse, they want to make you to be just like they are! -- Their kind have control of Hollywood now, and, are moving in on the tv net- it off!

THEY HAVE NO respect for marriage, the home, church, or authority, -- They will divorce, at the drop of a hat, if they think they've found someone they think they'll "enjoy more," for awhile,

Their children that are orphaned by this process are of little concern to them! -- (Still with men)

The Church, (to these people), is only a "Society, or Club." ligion is just a superstition, or a game, IF they think of it at all -- Little they care that YOU'RE watching them to learn about life

SO, PLAY IT COOL, take your time about growing up! -- Latch on to what you think is solid, and you can live with from now on.

But, look the thing over carefully, before you buy, -- it may be counterfeit -- AND, don't take for granted that it's right just because the grown-ups do it, -- They may have been mislead, themselves!

No, I didn't say "Rebell" -- Rebellion is for those that don't respect the law, authority, or the rights of others. I'm challenging you to search for truth, and follow it! -- There's nothing that will compare with an intelligent conscience that's clean -. And, (contrary to the well-know tv ad IT'S THE CLEAN, THAT HAVE MORE FUN!

GO AHEAD, live it up, laugh it up, and clown it up! -- But, DON'T MESS IT UP!

And if it's of any importance to you, KNOW THIS: Cornball's pulling for you!

Pretty soon we, of this older generation, are going to hand you a pretty "hot potato" .-- It's gonna take some mighty solid citizens to cool

Miss Swann-Mr. Harris Pledge Double Vows

Miss Karen Sue Swann and le ring vows at 8:30 p.m. Friday, May 15, in the First Baptist Chruch, Wilson. The Rev. Heights Baptist Church in Luboock officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. ments in Lubbock. and Mrs. Jiggs Swann of Wil-

Harris of Colorado City. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory alencon lace of silk gros de londe. The all over lace bodice featured a camelot neckline and long sleeves with scalloped cuffs flaring over the hands. The controlled skirt was softly shirred at the waistline and swept to bouffant fullness at the back forming a chapel train with tiny button and loop closure. Her tiered veilin of silk illusion was caught to a maching hair bow with lace and pearl motif.

Mrs. Dwain Harris of Afton was matron of honor. Bridemaid was Debra Williamson of Elfrida , Arizonia, cousin of the bride. They wore pale pink floor length gowns of peau de soie with silk chiffon overskirts and long full sleeves.

Best man was Dwayne Har. ris of Lubbock. brother of the groom. Groomsman was Eldon Harris of Colorado City. brother of the groom.

Guest were seated by Bob. Martindale of Abilene, Haynes Melton and John Conner of Lubbock and Jerry Bigham of Lockney.

About the seniors. They're quite a group, these young men and women. They're a big, big part of our home town. Once they were the little boys you saw playing football on a vacant lot, and the little girls having play tea parties for their dolls.

Today, they are mature young people on Graduation Day and ready and confident . . . eager to take up new challenges, strive for new goals.

We're exceptionally proud of you, Seniors, and we wish each of you a full measure of success and happiness in every endeavor.

Heart Attack At The Wheel

Triple trouble may befall the person who suffers a heart attack while driving his car. His woes may include not only the heart attack itself, not only the accident that might follow, but even legal liability for any injuries he happens to inflict upon somebody

When will the law impose liability on such a person? Generally speaking, when he had reason to foresee the likelihood of a heart attack (or some other sudden disability). Anyone who takes the wheel under these circumstances is committing an affirmative act of negligence

A man went for a drive, even though he had a severe, chronic cardiac condition. He did suffer a heart attack, did collide with another car, and did cause injury to the other driver. And, in due course, a court held him responsible for the injury. Reason: he should have avoided the accident is proud of the new Seniors! It is a traditional pride of a nation in the accomplishment of its youth.

On the other hand, courts usu-

We are especially proud of the young men and women who make up this class of graduates in our community. The reason is more than tradition ... it is because in our memory we have never observed a finer group of young people who worked harder, or more confidently than these Seniors.

We wish the very best of everything to all of them.

and Mrs. J.B. Reese who reside three miles east of Tahoka, was the victim of a most serious accident Tuesday when he fell from a tree and sustained a compound fracture of the thigh. Following the accident he was rushed to Tahoka in a car and was taken from here to Lubbock sanitarium in the Harris-Applewhite ambulance. An x-ray examination revealed that the thigh bone was broken in two places and a portion of the bone slivered out. One end of the broken bone was driven through the flesh and was protruding, thus casuing considerable loss of blood. The limb was placed in a plaster cast and the indications are that the patient will be confined to his bed for a number of weeks. I t is feared that the boy
