LAND SAFETY BELTS?-You probably use safety belts in your car, but did you know that the land needs safety belts, too? They protect the soil against erosion. For instance grass on roadside shoulders stop water from washing away the soil. Crassed waterways and well managed pastures also prevent erosion. In the above picture, on the M. J. Roper farm, two miles southwest of Gordon, Roper is seeding a waterway to sideoats grama grass to protect it from erosion. Soil and Water Conservation Districts assist farmers with the safety belts.

Postmaster Townes said that the new rate structure will mean a reduction of postage on some parcels.

Another rate change that will affect the general public is the increase from four to six cents for the first two ounces of individual pieces of third-class mail. Unsealed greeting cards may be sent at this rate, Tahoka's Bulldogs managed only one win last week in the ABC Caprock Holiday Basketball Tournament at Lubbock, but gained valuable experience while dropping their first tilt to the tourney champion, Stanton, and their second to the consolation winner, Denver City.

Tahoka's victory in the tournament came at the expense of Lubbock Christian High School, 59-54, earning seventh place in the annual tournament.

In the opening game last Wednesday, Stanton's towering Buffaloes earned an 81-62 decision over the Bulldogs in one of the Tahoka crew's coldest shooting games of the year, the locals sinking only 37 percent of their shots over-

The Buffaloes, with practically all of their players over six-foot and one at 6 feet 7 inches, took a commanding 27-13 lead in the first quarter, advancing that to 46-29 at the half. Tally at the third quarter break was 63-44.

Leading Bulldog scorers in the tilt were Doyle Schneider with 24. Charlie Brown with 16 and Cliff Thomas with 13. Holloway led the Buffaloes with 26, followed by D. Jones with 16.

In the second game (Thursday). Denver City took a cliffhanging 73-72 victory from the seconds, when DC went ahead.

At the end of the first quarter. Tahoka held a 31-25 margin and had advanced that to 49-36 at halftime. DC narrawed the gap to 60-55 at the end of the third quarter.

In the final quarter, the Mustangs outscored Tahoka, 18-12, to earn the one-point margin of victory.

Overall for the game, the Bulldogs shot 40 percent, led by Doyle Schneider with 30 points. John Tyler with 16 and Charlie Brown with 10. Young had 20 for DC, followed by Mckee with 16. Jody Edwards turned in a good defensive game for the Bulldogs, leading in rebounds with nine, followed by Cliff Thomas with eight. In their final game of the tourney (Friday), Tahoka downed Lubbock Christian High School, 59-54, for seventh place in the meet. Tahoka was ahead all the way in the tilt, leading 17-15 at the end of the first quarter and 38-25 at halftime. At the third quarter break, the tally stood at 48-40.

The Bulldogs again hit a respectable 40 percent overall in the tilt, John Tyler leading the charge with 21, followed by Doyle Schneider with

The South Plains cotton harvest passed the million bale mark last week, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office of the USDA. Samples from 1,005,000 bales of cotton had been received and classed by the three area offices through Friday, December 22nd. Through Friday the Lubbock Office had classed 769. 000 samples of this year's crop, the Brownfield Office 85, Middling Light Spotted 31/32 - 22.60, Strict Low Midd-160,000 and the Lamesa Office 76,000. This brought the total classed this season at the three offices to 1,005,000. The seasonal classing office at Brownfield closed Friday and samples remaining to be classed from that area will be classed at Lubbock. Spotted and Tinge continued to increase as the harvest neared completion. Light Spotted, Spotted and Tinged cotton made up 80 percent of all cotton classed at the Lubbock Office last week. Middling Light Spotted was the predominate grade at Lubbock last week with 28 percent of all cotton classed. Strict Low Middling Light Spotted made up 17 percent, Middling Spotted 19 percent, Strict Low Middling Spotted 8 percent and all Tinged grades 5 percent.

Staple length improved slightly and averaged 31/32. Seven per cent of all cotton at Lubbock last week was 29/32, 36 per cent 15/16, 25 per cent 31/32 and 32 per cent stapled 1-Iinch and longer.

GORDON-SOUTHLAND NEWS

Mrs. Edmund Wilke

Hello, everybody. Hope this finds all well and happy and looking forward to a New Year. Things here in Southland have slowed down a bit since the Christmas rush and everyone seems to be taking it a bit

I would like to share a letter with you that Herbert Dunn received from one of the girls who was in a wreck here at Southland a couple of weeks

'THANK YOU' LETTER "To the Wonderful People at Southland:

I just had to evpress my thanks to you for your help when my friend, Effie Jones, and I had our accident Friday afternoon. I just don't know what I would have done had you not been there.

I had some stitches in my lip and head and have, of course, many bruises. Effie was bruised and had a slight concussion, but will be okay, I think. We hope she will get to go home tomorrow. As I'm sure you realize, we are both extremely lucky to be alive. Effie might not be alive today if you had not helped her out of the car, given her oxygen, and the many other things you did. Everyone eemed to know the right things

I don't want to forget those who gathered up our things that were scattered. Nothing was lost and very little damaged. Again, thanks for your concern and your assistance. It will never be forgotten, I was rather shaken at the time and probably did not express my thanks properly.

I wish I could thank each of you personally, but this is impossible just now.

God bless you all for being the wonderful people you are. grew up in a small town Petersburg) and know what fine places they are. Sincerely, Judy

Every woman has every right to look younger than she is!

Helena Rubinstein

ESTROGENIC HORMONE CREAM with PROGESTERONE

This is the face cream guaranteed to help you look younger in 30 days . . . or your money back.

ULTRA FEMININE is the only hormone face cream formulated with Estrogen and Progesterone. These are the natural female hormones that your body produces in ever-diminishing quantities as you grow older.

A BEAUTY COMEBACK!

When Helena Rubinstein's medically tested Ultra Feminine supplies these hormones to a mature skin, skin cells can hold maximum moisture. Oil glands produce at a more youthful rate.

This simply means that lines and wrinkles due to moisture loss are reduced. The skin is soft and dewy, and a younger look may be attained.

The annual election for the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 will be held January 9, 1968. Voters will have several issues on which to make decisions.

At the end of this year three of the five men who serve as members of the Board of Directors will conclude their present terms of office. These three are Russell Bean, who represents Lubbock and Lynn Counties, Chester Mitchell of Lockney, who represents Floyd and Hale Counties, and Weldon Newsom of Morton, who represents Hockley. Cochran and Lamb Counties.

The ballot will also include the nominees to fill places for each five-man County Committee in the District. Each county in the District has a "County Committee" that approves well drilling permits and makes recommendations on various matters to the District Board.

The other issue on the ballot will be the annexation of Crosby County into the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1.

Residents of the county are applying for membership and the residents of the District will vote to accept or reject this county.

Residents living within the County of Crosby will vote to either join the District or remain separated from it. To vote on this proposal, one must be a qualified voter and must live in the area effected. A person who owns property in the area under consideration, but does not reside in the area is not eligible to vote on this proposal. All qualified voters living within the District are eligible to vote for the District Directors, County Committeemen,

Newspaper Fodder

(Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm faces the new year about like he always has, his letter this week indicates.)

Dear editar:

At first I thought I was facing the new year completely out of luck. Here was this newspaper which had been used as packing around a Christmas present to keep it from breaking with an article in it that almost threw me. On top of that it didn't work, the present was broken anyway.

According to the article, some agricultural scientists have discovered that you can grind up old newspapers, add molasses, and feed it to cattle and they thrive on it as well as they do on grain.

If this gets out, I thought, it'll ruin my source of reading matter. Who's going to throw a newspaper away if he can pour molasses on it and feed it to his cow?

Like it is, most people with cattle spend more time working for their cows than their cows do working for them, it's sort of like the government, but, I said to myself, if the cows are going to get my newspapers to boot, 1968 looks mighty dismal. Television and radio are all right, but for solid news give me a newspaper. Then I got to thinking. I'm not in this myself. If paper and molasses will fatte cow, sooner or later some smart scien is bound to figure out that it's unscientific run a piece of paper through a press fir what does a cow care whether it has print on it or not, just stir blank paper and n lasses together and save the printing coa You can't beat scientists for thinking thi through, given enough time and appropr

But, and you're bound to see this im diately, where does that leave you?

You going to shut down your printing pr and go into the feed business? You going to change your firm's name

Smart Bugs

(Editor's Note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm comes up with some news this week we hadn't heard about.)

Dear editar:

I know that cities have about all the problems they can handle and then some, the city problem has now pulled up alongside the farm problem, so I hate to report on the latest scientific discovery I ran across at the bottom of an inside page of a newspaper I found under a pile of tin cans and Christmas wrappings in the ditch near my Johnson grass farm out here yesterday.

According to this article, a new bug has been discovered in Australia that eats up paved roads.

That's right. The bug, so small it takes a microscope to see it, can consume matter equal to its own weight every five seconds and can multiply into 17,000,000 in 24 hours. Its favorite diet is blacktop roads.

It eats the oil out and the road then gradually falls apart, scientists have discovered. Miles of roads in Australia have been ruined I have been claiming all along that insects are smarter than men, that every time man comes out with a new insecticide, the insects

come out with a new insect, and this sure

The way I figure it, the insects have b noticing that more and more farm land is ing paved, put into highways and city stre and suburbs and shopping centers -- hundr of thousands of acres a year according to latest estimate -- and they said, "Look this keeps up, there's going to be less less crops for us to work on, we got to a new source of supply, so they've come with an insect that thrives on pavem bears me out.

I feel sorry for the city people. Get road bug started in the United States an telling what will happen to city streets, of which already are in pretty badshape. take a mighty hungry bug to attack som them. And after they finish with the stre you know they'll start on the concrete four tions of buildings.

There are times when I feel like we to let up on the moon for awhile and ge AUS work on our problems on earth, aithoug scientists can't do any better at fighting De sects than I have out here on this Joh grass farm, I don't blame them for trying on his Johnson grass farm broadens his field of worry, his letter this week reveals,)

Recently I wrote you about a public opinion poll which went to great lengths to discover that most people say their number one problem is money, like it's always been and which I knew all along, but I forgot to add that I have taken a poll myself, mostly by wracking my brain, among the governments of the world and can report that money is their biggest problem too.

I didn't know how serious this was until picked up a copy of a newspaper the other day and read that the British government had asked for a billion-dollar emergency loan from the International Monetary Fund to stave Monetary Fund, if it makes emergency loans to individuals please send me the address, I'd qualify, but what I got to thinking about is, what happens when a country goes bankrupt? Who re-possesses it. What do they do with

I know what a bank does when it foreclose on a farm, but what can ye with an entire country?

Furthermore, say England, despite loans which for our part will have to lowe secured by a second lien or is it ath still doesn't make it, goes broke, and assets are put up for sale to pay off creditors. Who's in the market for a but country? The way countries are going a adays, I can't think of many that could under, but the mere idea of a country tak bankruptcy certainly gives a man someth to speculate about.

would run in the newspapers of the wor including The Lynn County News in or to get complete coverage: "For Sale Public Auction to the highest bidder, British Isles, entire contents to go, includ the fixtures, such as Dukes, Earls, all so of Lords and other items too numerous to m tion. It's that last stipulation that's going hamper the sale.

By the way, I believe if I was you, w they send that ad in I'd ask for payment advance.
