

Should Give Thanks

Thursday of next week is Thanksgiving Day.

Many are the reasons that we as a nation, as a state, as a county and as an individual should give thanks to the giver of all things. As a nation, we are at peace with the world, we are prosperous and are allowed the privilege of enjoying the pursuits of happiness. As a state, we are the best favored of the nation; and for all the cry of low prices we will break even when the years total is struck. As a county, we have been more than generously dealt with; lots of feed at a fair price, lots of cotton, and in a position to hold a part of it for better price; labor for the workers and workers for the labor; in fact we are in a well favored portion of a well favored state. As individuals how thankful we should be that our homes are free from the ravages of war and famine, that our loved ones are not away in the trenches and on the open battle field, hourly, laying down their lives for the defense of they know not what.

Let us one and all enjoy the day, but let us not forget to give heart felt thanks to our maker for the blessings he has showered upon us.

A Bit of History

Thanksgiving day is an all American Holiday. Such a day has at rare intervals been set aside in other nations, and such was the origin in this country.

The first Thanksgiving was held in Plymouth Colony in the latter part of November, 1621, by proclamation of Gov. Bradford. It was a religious and social festival to celebrate the harvest. The second observance of the day was in 1623 after the breaking of the great drought; the third not held until 1632, after the arrival of the sorely needed food by ship. These observances were all in the one colony. The form of the proclamation in 1680 indicates that the feast has become an annual observance.

From the documentary history of the second successful colony of Massachusetts Bay, it seems that such a day was annual with little interruption from 1632, the third year after the colony was founded.

In the New Netherlands, (New York) a feast of the kind is on record repeatedly from the sixth year of Gov. Kieft, 1644, to the last year of Gov. Stuyvesant, 1664; and under the English governors in 1755 and 60.

Thanksgiving day was recommended annually by congress during the revolution; but there was an intermission after that, perhaps due to the prevalence of religious discord and skepticism, until 1789, when President Washington appointed a day of Thanksgiving for the adoption of the Federal Constitution. Subsequently various days in November were recommended by presidents and governors, until the third year of the Civil War, under President Lincoln, the regular observance of a regular Thanksgiving began; the proclamation of the President being supplemented generally by the governors of the several states, and fixing by custom the last Thursday in November as the day.

S. S. Ramsey and son, Sam, who are building several houses in the neighborhood of Post City, were in Tahoka to see home folks Sunday and Monday. Sam is suffering from a severe burn on the face. He was cooking some fruit in a bucket and as he lifted the bucket off the fire the lid came off and the steam struck him in the face.

A PUMPKIN

O, Greenly and fair in the lands of the sun,
The vines of the gourd and the rich melon run,
And the rock and the tree and the cottage enfold,
With broad leaves all greenness and blossoms all gold,

Like that which o'er Nineveh's prophet once grew,
While he waited to know that his warning was true,
And longed for the storm-cloud, and listened in vain
For the rush of the whirlwind and red fire-rain.

On the banks of the Xenil the dark Spanish maiden
Comes up with the fruit of the tangled vine laden;
And the Creole of Cuba laughs out to behold
Through orange-leaves shining the broad spheres of gold;

Yet with drearer delight from his home in the North,
On the fields of his harvest the Yankee looks forth.
Where crook-necks are coiling and yellow fruit shines,
And the sun of September melts down on his vines.

Ah! on Thanksgiving day, when from East and from West,
From North and from South come the pilgrim and guest,
When the gray-haired New-Englander sees round his board
The old broken links of affection restored,
When the care wearied man seeks his mother once more,
And the worn matron smiles where the girl smiled before,
What moistens the lip and what brightens the eye?
What calls back the past, like the rich Pumpkin pie?

O,—fruit loved of boyhood!—the old days recalling,
When wood-grapes were purpling and brown nuts were falling!
When wild, ugly faces we carved in his skin,
Glaring out through the dark with a candle within!

When we laughed round the corn-heap, with hearts all in tune,
Our chair a broad pumpkin,—our lantern the moon,
Telling tales of the fairy who travelled like steam,
In a pumpkin-shell coach, with two rats for her team!

Then thanks for thy present!—none sweeter or better
E'er smoked from an oven or circled a platter!
Fairer hands never wrought at a pastry more fine,
Brighter eyes never watched o'er its baking, than thine!

And the prayer, which my mouth is too full to express,
Swells my heart that thy shadow may never be less,
That the days of thy lot may be lengthened below,
And the fame of thy worth like a pumpkin-vine grow,

And thy life be as sweet, and its last sunset sky
Golden-tinted and fair as thy own Pumpkin pie!

Thanksgiving-Day

HYMN

PART I.

Praise to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days,
Bounteous source of every joy,
Let thy praise our tongues employ
All to thee, our God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow.

All the blessings of the fields,
All the stores the garden yields,
Flocks that whiten all the plain,
Yellow sheaves of ripen'd grain:
Lord, for these our soul shall raise
Greatful vows and solemn praise.

Clouds that drop their fattening dews,
Suns that genial warmth diffuse,
All the plenty summer pours,
Autumn's rich o'erflowing stores:
Lord, for these our souls shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

Peace, prosperity and health,
Private bliss and public wealth,
Knowledge, with gladdening streams,
Pure religion's holier beams:
Lord, for these our souls shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

PART II.

Yct, should rising whirlwinds tear
From its stem the ripening ear:
Tho' the sickening flock should fall,
And the herd desert the stall:
Still to the our souls shall raise
Greatful vows and solemn praise.

Should thine alter'd hand restrain
The early and latter rain,
Blast each opening bud of joy,
And the rising year destroy:
Still to the our souls shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

Life and grace, whate'er our woe,
Still to thee, our God, we owe;
Though of earthly hope bereft,
Yet our hope of Heaven is left;
And for these our souls shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

A CHAT WITH OUR SUBSCRIBERS

It has ever been the aim of the News to be just what its name signifies, a paper for the entire county. In the past we have not covered the field as thoroughly as we wished, but today we are in a better shape to do so than ever before in our existence. We are in the middle of the greatest contest ever pulled off in this section and our subscription list is increasing by leaps and bounds.

But, subscriptions are not all we want. We want to tell each subscriber the joys and successes, and when it is necessary the disappointments and griefs of each other subscriber. In fact we want to become the "tie that binds" the several firesides of the county together.

To do this will you help us? Our shop and home is equipped with telephone service, and when friends or strangers come or go, or anything of interest happens in your neighborhood, it would give us great pleasure to have you ring us and tell of it. Or drop us a card if you had rather. The day has past when we may live by ourselves, apart. Therefore, let us each strive to come to know each other better and thereby get the fullest measure from life. The medium of acquaintance with the farther parts of the county is the News. Will you help us make it all that it should be?

Justice court has been in session this week, and the editor had to put down the scissors and put on the judicial robes and keep the scales of justice on a balance while two lawyers with inexhaustible vocabularies earned their fees. As a result the paper is both late and short on news. General Sherman said that war is—er, hum! Well! Being Justice of the Peace is, too, —Slatonite.

The above brings to mind the advice given a shoemaker by an artist. The shoemaker had criticised the shoe of the subject in the artist's picture, and the artist had made the correction. The shoemaker then criticised the shape of the subject's limbs. The artist's reply was, "Shoemaker stick to your last."

JACK JOHNSON'S CAR

Jack Johnson's racing car, which two years ago was the talk of the country, has been purchased by B. C. Rosencrans of the Old Sanitarium at Prairie du Chien, Wis. This monster racing car was built by the Thomas Flyer Co. The solid aluminum body was cast in one piece in England, no manufacturer in this country being able to make it at the time. Its mechanism has a six cylinder engine, each of the cylinders being 5½ by 7 inches which have a capacity of 105 horse-power and will send the machine over the ground at the speed of 90 miles an hour. All the parts of this wonderful speed demon were especially made for Jack Johnson and cost $14,000. However, the reckless career run by Jack Johnson in connection with his famous restaurant in Chicago brought about the loss of his rights in this country as well as his wonderful machine, which was attached for a debt by the Heileman Brewing Company of La Crosse.

WHO WANTS TO KNOW?

"If it takes a 4-months old woodpecker with a rubber bill, 9 months and 13 days to peck a hole through a cypress log that is big enough to make 117 shingles, and it takes 165 shingles to make bundle worth 93 cents, how long will it take a cross-eyed grasshopper, with a cork leg to kick all the seed out of a dill pickle?"—Ex.

When you get the answer, just lay the paper on our desk and pass out quietly.—Hereford Brand.

Pupils will observe the Honor system.

A TYPICAL CASE

A sixteen year old boy studied shorthand three months and then began working for the Santa Fe R. R. at $70.00 per month. An elder brother has worked for years for the same road as an unskilled laborer, and gets only $40 per month for his services. If you were in the condition of the elder brother, what would you do? Let us suggest you go right now and take a course of bookkeeping, shorthand, business administration and finance or telegraphy, at the Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas, the largest and best school of the kind in America. If you can't go, write for full particulars of their correspondence course.

 Simp. A man, to corral whose vote the congressman tramps over forty acres of plowed land.

DE-VE-R-T-I-F-Y

Tell me not in mournful words
 Times are hard as frost-bit gourds.
 Nor that the war has cast such a pall
 That all our farmers will go to the wall.
 Be up and doing early and late,
 Work in the harvest till your muscles nigh brake;
 Then lift your eyes to the fields unreaped,
 And admit that you have your soul in pessimism steeped.
 Learn to labor and to toil
 In your reaping from the soil,
 And let your little hammer lay
 Beneath a stack of millet hay.
 Then upon the sands of Lynn
 Pine the bales home from the gin,
 Hold them till the prices soar
 And next year diversify a little more.
 —With apologies to Longfellow.

GROWING WINTER OATS IN THE SOUTH

Every southern farmer should grow enough oats to feed his work stock during at least a portion of the year. In addition to furnishing feed grain at less cost than it can be purchased, fall-sown oats prevent the washing of the soil, by which much fertility is frequently lost. There is still time to sow winter oats, though this work should be done at once if good results are to be obtained. According to specialists of the department of agriculture, oats sown during October or the first half of November may be expected to produce at least twice the yield of grain obtained from spring seeding.

Winter grain may be sown on land which produced a crop of cotton, corn, or cowpeas the past summer. If this land has not already been plowed, it will be better to make the surface soil fine and loose with the disk or drag harrow than to delay seeding by plowing now. Better results are obtained from sowing with the drill than from broadcast seeding, though if a drill is not available sowing the seed broadcast on well prepared land usually results in a good stand.

The variety of winter oats most commonly grown in Texas is Red Rustproof. Appler, Lawson, Hundred Bushel, Bancroft, and Cook are selections or strains of Red Rustproof which are said to be particularly valuable in some localities. The Fulghum is a promising new variety which matures a week or ten days earlier than the Red Rustproof, and usually produces as much or more grain. As the kernels of all these varieties are large, from 2½ to 3½ bushels should be sown to the acre. The smaller quantity is sufficient if the seed is drilled early on well prepared land, while 3 bushels or more are needed when the seed is sown broadcast late in the season.

The Winter Turf or Virginia Gray is a very hardy variety, which is valuable for pasture or hay production, but which does not yield as much grain as the Red Rustproof. On account of the small size of kernels only 1½ bushels of seed of this variety are required.

The 40 horsepower steam engines and boiler for the Tahoka Cotton Gin arrived on the Wednesday evening train and will be installed during the coming week and connected to the line shaft.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS

Hush money does more talking than any other kind. When you see an overdressed woman escorting a man who looks like a door mat, you know who is boss in that house.

A girl can put in ten years acquiring Culture. But that won't keep her from snoring when she is asleep.

The man who beats his wife isn't a bit worse than the man who robs his family by spending his money on his friends.

The old fashioned man who used to paddle his own canoe now has a son who owns a motor boat named "Ishkabibble."

It is funny what a difference a few years make. The girl used to let you chew her "wax" in school while you took a whirl at her "all day sucker" now has a daughter who carries her individual drinking cup so she won't get any germs in her mouth.

THE OLD FASHIONED MOTHERS

Thank God some of us have an old-fashioned mother. Not a woman of the period, painted and enameled, with all her society manners and fine dresses, white-jeweled hands that never felt the clasp of baby fingers, but a dear old-fashioned mother with a sweet voice, eyes into whose clear depth the love light shone, and brown hair just threaded with silver, lying smooth upon her faded cheek. The hands, worn with toil, gently guided our steps in childhood and smoothed our cheeks in sickness, ever reaching out to us in yearning tenderness. Blessed is the memory of an old-fashioned mother. It floats to us like the beautiful perfume of some wood blossoms. The music of other voices may be lost, but the enchanting memory of her's will echo in our soul forever.

IT ISN'T YOUR TOWN--IT'S YOU

If you want to live in the kind of a town

Like the kind of town you like, You needn't slip your clothes in a grip

And start on a long, long hike. You'll only find what you left behind,

For there's nothing that's really new.

It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town.

It isn't your town--it's you. Real towns are not made by men afraid

Lest somebody else gets ahead. When everyone works and nobody shirks

You can raise a town from the dead.

And if while you make your personal stake

Your neighbor can make one, too,

Your town will be what you want to see.

It isn't your town--it's YOU.

WET AND DRY NEWS

Fort Worth has secured a factory which will manufacture 600 barrels a day. At 64 swigs to the gallon, 3,840 to the barrel, that will mean a barreling capacity of 2,304,000 swigs a day. With a population of nearly five million, a few Texans will have to take less than a swig every other day.

There are 14 states in the dry column, 15 in which one half of the population live in no-license territory, 11 in which one fourth of the population live in no-license territory, leaving eight in the wet column. One of the eight, Ohio, is in the wet column until the question is put to a national vote, having passed an amendment to the effect that no liquor legislation shall ever be introduced in the legislature.

Since the passage of the Virginia Prohibition law, the arrests of drunks has fallen from 100 per day to 15 per day for the city of Wheeling.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Came to Rescue. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

THREE LAKES

The inhabitants of this community enjoyed a real pleasant time Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Porter. The evening was begun with quite a few pleasing renditions on the violin and guitar by Messers Porter, Martin and Dawson. "42" and conversation was the general amusement of the fore part of the evening, later pop corn balls, home made candy and parched peanuts were served to utmost jollification of the entire company. Mr. Porters quaint manner of serving brought more than one hearty laugh. After the refreshments were served the company repaired to the front yard, and by the light of a lantern, engaged in a lively game of cat and mouse with a snap game to lend variety to the amusement. Near the striking of the mid hour of the night the guests departed for their various homes, bemoaning the fact that the hours had flown all too soon. Those present were: Mr. Fred Dawson, wife and small daughter; Mr. Terry and Master Fritz Noble and sister Miss Vera; Mr. Yates and daughters, Misses Eula, Hattie and Lou; Mr. Strong and daughter, Molly, and Messers Holt, John Strong, Martin, and Robert Porter, Prof. Madison Yates and Messers. Russell Ramsey and J. Crie of Tahoka.

There is no school at Three Lakes this year. The children of this district attend the West Point school under the efficient and successful guidance of Miss Vera Vobles.

The Three Lakes farmers have not been heard from much during the summer, but "there's a reason." When looking over the broad acres white with cotton, black with unheaded cane, and brown with unheaded maize, or resembling an Indian village, owing to the extra large shocks of bundle grain, one thinks of the remark a northern negro who came to work for a Southern planter. On arriving at his future home he remarked to a colored brother. "Lawd, Lawd, nigger if Adam and Eve had done diskivered this hyar place, dey'ud never done stole dat apple, would dey"?

Messers. Russell Ramsey and J. Crie were rustivating in this community Saturday and Sunday. They were guests of Mr. Madison Yates.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or have bladder trouble—Take glass of Salts.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become over-worked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

The lineshaft of the Wilson gin broke Tuesday, and held up the ginning at that place for two or three days until repairs could be made. The Wilson gin has turned out over 600 bales so far this season.

Jim, Run This Editorial Tomorrow
THE law-abiding citizens of this city want the privilege of drinking beer—the drink of True Temperance. They are weary of blind tigers, speak-cases, blind pigs, holes in the wall—the off-springs of prohibition.
Prohibition has driven away the material prosperity of the people. It has cut off from this community the revenue derived from decent beer saloons and has increased intemperance. It has largely increased public expense in the vain effort to enforce laws which cannot possibly be enforced. It has added seriously to the burden of taxation. It has depreciated the value of real estate. It has thrown many out of work. It has discouraged investment—capital has learned to shun prohibition localities.
Give the people what they want—the right to drink moderately of beer and practice the teachings of True Temperance.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY
Grandma's recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur darkens so naturally that nobody can tell.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.
Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury
as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
