HALLOWE'EN.

Miss Ethel Franklin entertained her friends at the home of Mrs. Swan, Hallowe'en Night, Oct. 30. The young ladies assembled at the home of Miss Ella Butler and arrayed themselves in the ghostly raiment befitting the occasion. The gentlemen gathered at Dr. Windham's drug store, where they transformed themselves into a fine assortment of ghosts by the use of pillow slip masks and sheets, they then repaired to Mrs. Butler's, each to silently select, from the lady ghosts the one he preferred to share his joys and sorrows during the parade of the ghosts. The line of march was formed and the fun began. They arrived at Mrs. Swan's to find the house beautifully lighted with jack-o'-lanterns, and decorated with mottos appropriate to the revel of the ghosts. Mr. Will Nevels was King Guesser, and devoted his attention to guessing who was who. A witches grotto was arranged, where Miss Mabel Porter, disguised in the gorgeous red robe and pointed cap, dealt out fortunes and prophecies, both awful and amusing. After the fortunes were told, unmasking was in order and great was the surprise depicted on some faces. The disguises were so cleverly carried out that very few were sure of any one.

Refreshments consisted of delicious Hallowe'en sandwiches and confections. Games of Panic, Pit and Fling were indulged in as final to the evening's fun. The guests went away thanking Miss Ethel, and Mrs. Swan who so ably assisted her, for one of the very best times they ever had. This entertainment was one of the most enjoyable of the season.

J. L. Van Hook of Floydada was in Tahoka Monday enroute to Kinney Co. to join R. W. Lane also of Floyd Co. who moved there early in the fall. Mr. Van Hook folks visited with the editor during their stay in town. They will take charge of a mercantile business purchased by Mr. Lane shortly after his arrival there.

Entered as second-class matter July 10, 1905, at the post office at Tahoka, Texas, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

FRIDAY, NOV. 2, 1906.

Thursday morning the gin had turned out 112 bales; Lockney gin 180 bales. Lockney has gotten a good deal of the Hale and Swisher county cotton owing to the fact that the Tulia gin was late starting.—Floydada Hesperian.

My, my; just listen at Floydada brag. Their gin is an old well established one and so is the gin at Lockney. Our gin machinery was all set up after cotton began to open and there were gins near enough to compete with us but our out put has been 179 bales in three weeks.

Now we ain't throwing any slams on Floyd because we used to live there. But if some of their farmers would come to Lynn Co. they would think they were strictly it.

Dr. McCoy will office with the new druggist, H. J. Coughran, who is occupying the old printing office. There are two rooms in the back of the building, which the Dr. expects to renovate and arrange as a double office. One will be used as a reception room, and the other as a private consultation and operating room. An adjustable operating chair will be installed and all other conveniences necessary for the comfort and welfare of the patient. The service rendered will be more satisfactory than ever before, owing to the extra equipment and perfect privacy of the new quarters.

A YEAR OF BLOOD.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tacket, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tacket's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a fearful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Throats, Coughs and Colds at Tahoka Drug Store. Price 30c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. For sale by the Tahoka Drug Store.

Patrons of the West Side Drug Store are specially solicited to give me a try. Mr. Cowan opened his meat market for business Tuesday morning. The market is nicely equipped and will keep meat on hand all the time. This will be two markets in Tahoka, and the town is plenty large to support them both if the citizens will appreciate their advantages and give the markets liberal patronage. Help the other fellow, so he can help you.

Caps and Shoes for the Babies at Ousley & McCormick.

The night of Oct. 31 the ghosts walked and worked, if we could judge by the mixed look of the signs in town, the next morning. The meat market sported a barber pole, and the court house was decorated with old buggy wheels and other ludicrous combinations. We were glad to notice that there was no malicious mischief included in the pranks, and where such is the case, no one should become offended.

HAD A CLOSE CALL.

"A dangerous surgical operation involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C.
