County Receives Bicentennial Flag

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

(From Dunedin Florida)
The seams of cities are bursting with people, hurrying, driving automobiles hurriedly, impatient to cross endless rivers of private destinies. The tempo of life has become so tense that even leisure must quicken its pace. We need to recapture the lost talent for loafing and return it to the store of basic human needs.

The other night in New Orleans, a National Air Lines plane which was several minutes away from the field, turned around and landed again. A passenger with scheduled passage had failed to get aboard. His absence had escaped the usually thorough check of the passenger list. The air lines placed an extra price on courtesy and found that the public is more than willing to pay. Air travel is making staggering gains. The terminals are crowded to capacity and passengers stand in line for a chance at cancelled reservations. The hard-pressed railroads are being forced to nail boards over the windows of more depots.

Here in this area of Florida, great trailers are parked by the citrus groves, like cotton or cattle trailers in Texas. They are loaded with tons of grapefruit and oranges being hauled to the concentrate plants. The juice is quick frozen and placed under refrigeration. The trees are loaded with golden fruit and in almost every grove the ground is covered with windfalls. It seems that as much is decaying as is being gathered.

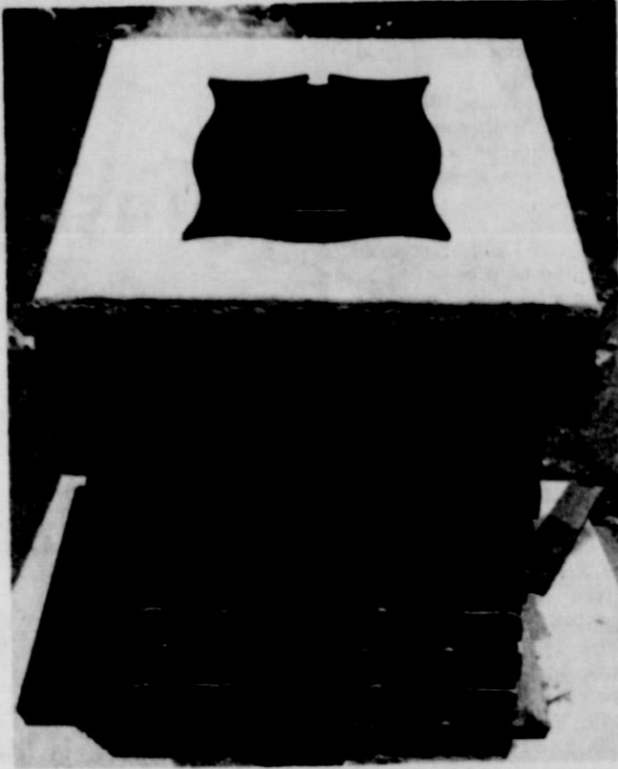

People are friendly and make an extra effort to be of service to strangers. Yesterday, the woman manager of the Dunedin Chamber of Commerce called a car dealer in another town, and within 40 minutes a new Chevrolet was at the door of our motel. I did not know a person in this town and when I tried to show the dealer my credentials, he waved them aside and asked only to see my Texas drivers license. He wrote my name in a form, asked me to sign, and was gone. I did not pay a dime, make any kind of deposit or even talk to him more than five minutes. I have decided that my face is either honest or that the friendly man knew it would betray me if I ever tried to escape with his new automobile.

It is fun to fly, but the pleasure departs rapidly when you begin walking under the Florida sun. The new automobile solved our very distressing problem. Within an hour I had become lost more times and gotten on more wrong roads than is possible in Texas in a month. (Tribune files June 28, 1956)

CLINIC OPENS TUESDAY

The Motley County Clinic will open Tuesday morning.

Park To Be Dedicated

Congressman Jack Hightower, who will speak here July 10 in bicentennial ceremonies, will also dedicate the Pioneer Memorial Park just north of the courthouse, it was confirmed this week.

The small park has been developed by Matador Garden Club as one of its bicentennial projects. The park site was designated as a memorial by the late Douglas Meador, Tribune publisher, honoring his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Meador, pioneers of the county.

The Garden Club led by Mrs. Edgar Lee, President, erected a brick foundation on which has been mounted a plaque presented in 1972 to the longtime newspaper publisher and author of the column Trail Dust, as a tribute to his literary accomplishments.

The brief dedication will be held following the flag-raising and address by Congressman Hightower on the courthouse lawn.

July 6, for patients, it was announced this week. The opening had been planned for Monday, but due to the holiday, it was decided to postpone the time by one day. Open House has been set for July 10, from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. during Bicentennial activities.

The public is invited to visit the clinic, in the former Traweek Hospital, and visit with the new doctors, Dr. Thuy, Danh Do and Dr. Y Hoang Do, and with Dr. Albert Traweek, who will retain offices as long as he continues his practice.

Bells To Ring

A simultaneous nationwide ringing of bells for two minutes on July 4 will herald the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Communities, churches, schools and individuals will toll bells and carillons in conjunction with the ringing of the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia at 2:00 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time. The time selected is exactly 200 years from the precise moment that the Liberty Bell proclaimed the independence of our nation.

Three local churches have indicated that they will join in this phase of the celebration by ringing the church bells Sunday at 1 p.m.

Motley County has received its Bicentennial Flag, making official its status as a Bicentennial Community. Mrs. Clay Jameson, chairman of the bicentennial committee received the flag Thursday.

Flag raising ceremonies on the southwest corner of the courthouse lawn will be held following the parade Saturday morning, July 10.

The parade at 10 o'clock will start the day's activities.

After the flag ceremony, the Senior Citizen of the Year award will be presented, and Congressman Jack Hightower will address the crowd. He will go from the courthouse lawn, to the small Pioneer Memorial Park for a brief dedication ceremony. Afternoon activities will start at 1 p.m. with an Old Fiddler's Contest in the County Courthouse at the courthouse. Cash prizes will be awarded.

Other contests, games, concession stands and display booths will be in Matador City Park, where live musical entertainment will be in progress during the afternoon. Games will include bingo, turkey shoot, turtle races, cow chip throwing, penny pitch, cake walk and other attractions sponsored by various organizations.

Judging for the beard and moustache contest will be at 2 p.m. in the park, followed by judging of women's best pioneer costume. Prizes will be awarded winners in these contests.

Scheduled at 5 p.m. on the courthouse lawn are drawings for three quilts, a C. B. radio and bread raffle. Also starting at 5 o'clock, the VFW will serve barbecue suppers at the VFW building adjacent to the city park.

A square dance demonstration is set for 6 p.m. and a street dance at 9 a.m. south of First State Bank.

Booths containing arts, crafts, antique displays and a short Bicentennial film will be open all day, following the opening events. Concession stands will be featuring baked goods, drinks, hot dogs, etc.
