

Jail Breaking Trio has 30 Minutes of Freedom

IT WAS A POOR investment in time when three prisoners broke out of Motley County Jail Friday morning about 10 o'clock. They were back behind the bars in about 30 minutes, with an additional charge of car theft on their records.

Three young prisoners from Oklahoma, who were in the isolation ward had a demand for something to read. Mrs. Ray Webb, wife of jailer Ray Webb, responded with some books.

When she opened the cell one of the prisoners grabbed her and secured the keys. The two prisoners then released Fred David Martin, 25, who had recently been sentenced to five years imprisonment for car theft.

Forcing Mrs. Webb down stairs to her living room, the three prisoners, bound her with pieces torn from a bed sheet, jerked the telephone from the wall, and departed north on 1001.

About four blocks north the escaped prisoners found the 1960 Rambler belonging to W. G. Kimbell in front of his home, with the keys in the switch. They drove away.

Mrs. Webb managed to escape and hurried from the jail to the sheriff's office where she notified Deputy Bobby Williams. Williams called Sheriff J. D. Spray on the radio, and set off in pursuit of the escaped prisoners.

Sheriff Spray said he was at the funeral services of C. H. Sistrunk at the Church of Christ, when he received the message. Driving rapidly north on Main Street he drove on FM Road 94 about seven miles from Matador when he overtook the escapees. The car theft prisoner was driving and refused to stop at first. Sheriff Spray leveled a gun at him and all three raised their hands. The driver alternately raising his hands and holding the steering wheel until the stolen car came to a stop.

Two of the prisoners had been picked up the night before, and held for investigation.

About 8:30 Thursday a pickup drove into Bill's Conoco Station at the eastern edge of Matador. The woman driver, who was accompanied by a youth about 16, asked that the pickup be filled, and went into the restroom. When she came out she handed manager Bill McCaghen a note, and said "I need help. Two young men are in the back of the pickup and refuse to leave."

The note bore the following information: "62 red Ford pickup, license No. 234924, small wood camper on pickup."

Mr. McCaghen called officers and the pickup was stopped just west of the Motley county line, with the aid of the sheriff from Floyd County.

The two youths, picked up hitchhiking by the woman, were brought back to Matador. One of them had displayed a large knife. The woman, Ruby Cannon of Wayne, Oklahoma, said she was enroute to Phoenix, Arizona. She said she had picked up the two youths between Coward and Paducah. They had been in the car for several days, and she declared that they were going on to Arizona with her.

Martin is Convicted
Third member of the jail breaking trio, Fred Martin, had been sentenced to five years imprisonment, for taking a pickup from the driveway of Mike Hoyle's home. He also faces charges in Floyd, Cottle and Foard Counties for car and truck theft and charges for stealing two cars in Oklahoma.

One of the two youths in the jail breaking was wanted in Lawton, Oklahoma for breaking probation. The other, Sheriff Spray said, was wanted only for running away from home.

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

Memories often pour oil on coals and would have burned themselves smokeless ashes if allowed their treatment with time.

Regulating the amount of interest paid to individual problems can be a delicate factor in either achievement or destroying it.

Life has few more startling realizations than the absence of concern of others regarding what you say and think, as long as you do not interfere with their personal business.

There is, of course, no method by which the assumption can be verified, but it is safe to assume there are now more boats on West Texas highways than were in the entire Gulf of Mexico a hundred years ago.

Work is the only panacea for a distraught heart, and it fails when it is not intense enough to absorb the sparks of thoughts that fall into the tinder of memories.

The past holds hands with the future and frequently attends to a secret embrace when the world is not looking.

Interesting people are usually too occupied to devote time to the individuals who are interested in them.

I think, perhaps the tracks I leave on the sands of time will dissolve the painful corn which prevented me from making more of them when the impulse of achievement may have been at its zenith.

Being old is a convenience for erasing mistakes which you have made all your life.

Destiny is a comet which leaves a trail of brilliance in the heavens, glowing at most, only a few moments.

BOXES FOR BEULAH VICTIMS—Matador residents have been contributing clothing and supplies, through the First Baptist Church, to be sent to the flood and hurricane victims in the Rio Grande Valley. Above photo shows Rev. Larry Heard, pastor, with donations brought during the first week. Contributions continue to mount as more people find time to pack their commodities. A truck will be through Matador to pick up the goods and take them to the nearest shipping point. —Tribune staff photo

Legion is Lauded By Guest Speaker

A former delegate to Boys State, Monday night paid tribute to the American Legion for its sponsorship, and for other youth work which the organization supports.

Jimmie Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ross of Flomot expressed his personal appreciation for the Legion's sponsoring him as a delegate to Boys State in 1960, when he spoke at regular monthly meeting of Fleming Post, American Legion and the Auxiliary.

The program followed a covered dish supper which featured fried chicken.

Ross declared that the experience of attending Boys State would benefit him throughout his life. He mentioned the influence of the American Legion on the Boy Scouts and commended it for making the Scouts one of its projects. He said that the greatest work the Legion does is for freedom.

He spoke of the friendships found in small towns and communities.

"It is good to have a friend and to be one," Ross declared. "I did not find the friendly spirit while attending Arizona University, that we have here at home."

He voiced his opinion regarding today's delinquent children, and parents, and asserted that "we have more good people in the world today than at any time."

Randall Whitworth introduced the speaker, following the singing of America and Pledge of Allegiance. (Continued on back page)

Church Said Prime Communist Target

THE CHURCH is the prime target of communism in America. The communist is afraid of religion and strives to corrupt it. The statements were made Tuesday by Larry Bostick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bostick, at the regular luncheon meeting of the Matador Lions Club, where he was one of the two principal speakers.

Preceding him was a talk by Deborah Tilson, representative to the Texas Youth Conference in Austin, and daughter of Mrs. June Tilson. She expressed her thanks to the club for making the trip possible.

Miss Tilson said there has been a decrease in juvenile crime since the start of the Youth Conference. She said a teen jury often tries teenage violators, and that the influence of youth in assuming responsibility has been outstanding.

Young Bostick said, "America is great because of two things, Christianity and free enterprise."

He was a delegate to the Texas Farm Bureau's Fifth Annual Citizenship Seminar held on the Baylor University campus in August, and was sponsored by the Lions Club.

"The Communist party is well organized in this country," he declared, "and boasts that 100,000 Americans are under the party influence." He said youth is the major target, but that the communists are working in minority groups.

"The communists are trained to corrupt the young, control publicity, and divide opinion," Bostick declared.

"They also seek to destroy faith in our leaders, encourage strikes and break down the morale of the Christian man," he said.

Bostick said he was surprised to learn that the communists supported the move to force the register of firearms in the home. "They want to leave the homes of America defenseless," he declared.

Lions Ready for Mop, Broom Sale

ENTIRE membership of the Matador Lions Club will be engaged Saturday in the annual sale of mops, brooms and other items manufactured by Texas blind workmen in blind shops, or Lighthouses, which are non profit organizations. Roaring Springs Lions are also conducting a mop and broom sale on the same date, according to Boss Lion Dick Carpenter. Roaring Springs Lions are going to use the profit from their sale to aid the victims of hurricane Beulah.

The blind workmen produce over 30 items in addition to mops and brooms, all of which will be offered for sale.

The following Matador Lions and pickups, with six "salesmen" each will canvass the town: Glen Brotherton, Frank Price, M. L. Hoyle, L. B. Campbell, J. E. Edwards, Frank Pohl and W. D. Lipscomb. Lions are warned to be at the Legion Building ready to work at 8:30 a.m.

Scoreless First Ends 36-24 for Mavericks-Turks

Matador's Junior High football team tucked another win under its belt last Thursday night as it downed the Turkey Turks 36 to 24. It was a scoreless first quarter as neither club could find the right combination to the endzone. But it was not long in the second period before things started rolling.

Early in the second stanza Bill Barnhill found Stanley Thompson in the left flat, who raced from mid-field to the four yard line of Turkey. It was Stanley's brother, Johnny Thompson, who hit paydirt first for the Mavericks from four yards out. The Maverick's defense held Turkey scoreless through the first half.

During the third quarter the Mavericks displayed their driving power as Johnny Thompson again scored his time from ten yards out. Try for extras failed. Then with four minutes and thirty-six seconds remaining in the third quarter, Johnny once more, on a brilliant run off left tackle, added six points to the Matador side. Bill Barnhill, on a keeper, ran the three yard extras. Score at the end of the third quarter was Matador 20, Turkey 8.

In the last quarter with only eight seconds gone, Stanley Thompson again hauled in an on-target Barnhill-pass this time good for twelve yards and six points. Stanley also ran the extras. Next, Johnny Thompson, who ran over, around and through the tacklers all night, powered his way through Turkey's defense for twenty-four yards, refused to go down and came onto the endzone standing up. Kenneth Marshall ran the extras.

Turkey's starters proved to be too powerful for the Maverick's second team as they scored twice in the closing moments.

PESO Supervisor Visits Classes

Mrs. Edith Smith, a supervisor for Panhandle Educational Services Organization of the new English program and former English teacher in Amarillo, visited the classes in Matador High School Sept. 19.

Mrs. Smith visited in junior high also and had conferences with Mrs. Grace McDowell and Mrs. Reece Timmons.

The high school students began the year by studying literature from the standpoint of form in junior and senior literature, of Man's place in Nature in sophomore, and of tone perspective and attitude in freshman literature.

Mrs. Timmons said that the students response to the new approach in teaching has been good. "The literature is up-graded and hard for some of the students to understand, but the progress already shown by many of the students, indicates that the program is very much worthwhile."

Mrs. Smith plans to visit Matador at least once every two weeks to offer assistance to students and teachers.

Students Reminded By Coach Verner to Remember Alamo

In a forceful talk to the high school student-body during the pep rally, Sept. 22, Coach David Verner reminded the Matador Matadors to "Remember the Alamo . . . when the line was drawn, those who stepped across knew that there would be no reinforcements."

"It's your own battle tonight and you must wave your own flag," he told the team.

The Pep Club and cheerleaders displayed their spirits and cheering talents during the rally and head cheerleader Marsha Hale presented the "spirit stick" to Jerry Jones, president of the Freshman class, as a symbol for the class's spirit during the week.

Marsha also gave a gift to Cheryl Moore for being the fiftieth person to whisper "Beat Spur" in secret agent Dynell Timmons' ear.

Later a skit was presented, "Mocking the Players," which depicted how the different players, including the substitutes and the water boy felt about their athletic abilities. Debra J. a. m. e., Debra Stockton, Dynell Timmons, Debra Garrison, Cheryl Moore and Gail Lynn were the characters.

David Garrison, Terry Keltz and Principal Wayland Moore spoke, and Principal Moore emphasized that the boys were already defeated if they felt that Spur was better than they. He also stated that everyone must work together, and not as individuals.

Members of the third line in the Drum and Bugle received the whistle for having the straightest line at the Matador-Crowell game.

STUDENTS FORM READING CLUB

The fourth grade has started a reading club which is to further interest in reading and to teach the children parliamentary procedures. The president of the club is Darrel Moore. The other officers are: Tony Rose, vice-president, Penny Marshall secretary, and Paul Price, reporter.

The meetings which will be held every two weeks are when the students give their book reports.

DRUM CORPS IN LOCKNEY PARADE

The Matador Drum and Bugle Corps performed in the parade preceding the annual Floyd County Fair, Thursday, September 21, in Lockney.

The 31 girls played several songs and performed street routines known to the members as "five-sixes."

Other participants in the parade included Lockney and Floydada junior and senior high school bands.

BEGINNERS SPOTLIGHT

GLEN MOSS IS REPORTER FOR DISTRICT FFA

Glen Moss, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moss and a sophomore at Matador High School, received the title of district FFA reporter September 21, at Tulla in a meeting at which Joey Meador, the outgoing district president, presided.

Glen's duties as district reporter include sending notices to all schools in the district before a meeting and to put notices in the paper about the upcoming meeting.

LARRY BOSTICK NAMED FHA BEAU

Larry Bostick, Matador High School senior was chosen by Matador Chapter as Future Homemakers of America Beau for 1967-68, when the organization held its first meeting of the year, September 30.

The new beau has participated in many of the school activities since he has been in high school. Other than being in football, he was a member of the cast of the one-act play last year, Future Farmers of America for four years, and track team three years. Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bostick.

July Marts, president, presided at the FHA's first meeting and the chapter discussed the events scheduled for the coming year. Several new officers were elected, including Cheryl Moore, who will take Linda Bailey's office as secretary when Linda moves. Jan Hugginbotham was elected as pianist and Kathy Lawrence was elected to take Marva Hale's position as senior social chairman.

For the program several members explained the purpose and project of the organization. While Sue Robbins gave the recipe, Bonita Hand, Ann Brandon, Arleta Meyer and June Sandefer added the ingredients for a salad representing the State Projects of the Matador Chapter.

The meaning of the organization's emblem was then explained to the members. As Jeanette Day narrated the emblem's meaning, Melissa Bailey, Marsha Hale, Debra Garrison, Jan Hugginbotham, Debbie Smallwood, and Bridget Barton put it together. Billie Smith, Vicki Jameson and June Sandefer then told of the dues, motto, creed, flower and color of the organization.

Class Officers Are Announced

The grade school classes have elected class officers to head each room in its activities. Leading the top four rooms as presidents are Bobby Simpson the eighth, Lance Jameson of the seventh, Kelly Keltz of the sixth, and Jim Barnhill of the fifth.

Other eighth grade officers are Gerald Jackson, vice-president, Charla Wason, secretary-treasurer, and Kenneth Marshall, reporter.

The seventh grade officers are Cindy Simpson, vice-president, Berry Bostick, secretary-treasurer, Lou Ann Woodruff, reporter and Ronnie Elliott, program chairman.

Other officers in the sixth are Darla Cruse, vice-president, Debbie Doran, secretary-treasurer, and Rodney Williams, reporter.

The fifth grade officers are Naomi Simpson, vice-president Steve Stevens, secretary-treasurer and Will Palmeyer, reporter. Pepper Nichols is chairman of the program committee which consists of Frank Welling and Lisa Smallwood.

Safety Projects Sponsored by 4-H

Well over half million 4-H members are actively engaged in safety projects, covering farm and home, machinery, recreation, traffic, fire and health.

Accidents have no season, nor are they confined to any one age group. For this reason, 4-H members learn safe practices in their day-to-day living, and influence their families and communities to be more safety-minded the year around.

A hazard hunt is an effective way to start a safety program, and when the hazards are corrected, progress has been made.

General Motors has sponsored this program for 23 years, and eight members receive $1000 scholarships each year for the records.

Faculty Supper Planned by FHA

The Matador Chapter of Future Homemakers of America will entertain a faculty of elementary, junior high school, with a "foreign" supper, October 10. The supper will be at 8 p.m. in the Home Economics room at the high school.

Each faculty member may be a guest, it was announced.

The members in each class are to be responsible for preparing a menu for the country her class represent.

The "foreign" meals will be judged by the faculty.

of 4-H programs for many years, with this year marking the 50th anniversary of sponsorship of the 4-H Livestock Judging Contest.

The 1967 national judging event will take place Nov. 12 during the denominations of $100 to $500 for the five highest scoring participants will be awarded.

ties where members try for places on the county team.

team lost in district by one point.

start soon, with hopes of winning high.

Federal Agencies Programs Listed

Following information is prepared and submitted by Ervin L.
Willard of the Soil Conservation Service.

The following USDA Agencies offer information, financial, and technical assistance to both rural and urban populations through their co-ordinated programs. Many have expressed a desire to have a clear understanding of each agency and their related programs.

FARMERS HOME ADMINIS-TRATION (FHA) — Alfred A. Harrison, supervisor.

This agency provides credit for specific types of farmers who cannot get the financing they need at reasonable rates and terms elsewhere. FHA authority provides for certain types of loans including soil and water conservation loans to eligible farmers and non profit organizations.

COUNTY EXTENSION SER-VICE (CES) — Bill Palmeyer, County Agent Helena Makray, Home Demonstration Agent.

The CES is the educational and informational agency of the Department of Agriculture providing bulletins, leaflets and general information to the public. Educational meetings, short courses, and work shops are offered on various subjects. The County Agent and Home Demonstration Agent work with the youth through the 4-H Clubs.

SOIL CONSERVATION SER-VICE (SCS) — Ervin L. Willard, Work Unit Conservationist.

The technical agency of the Department of Agriculture, SCS administers the GPCP Program (Great Plains Conservation Program) and offers technical assistance of soil and water conservation practices through the Soil & Water Conservation Districts. The SCS carries out certain technical phases of the ACP Program such as survey of terraces, ponds, etc.

GREAT PLAINS CONSERVA-TION PROGRAM (GPCP)

This program is administered by the SCS office and is voluntary. It was started in 1957 throughout the Great Plains states in an effort to solve the serious wind and water erosion problems confronted years preceding. The program stresses complete land use treatment on every acre in an effort to solve these problems.

SOIL & WATER CONSERVA-TION DISTRICT

The district is a legal subdivision of the state. It is completely independent of the Federal Government or any part of the State Government, other than the law under which it was created. The District directs the soil and water conservation work in the county through their Program and Work Plan. The SCS carries out the technical work of the District through trained technicians. The local District Supervisors include W. D.
Lipscomb and J. M. Hill.

AGRICULTURAL STABILIZATION AND CONSERVATION SERVICE

Richard O. Newman, County Office manager. This agency of the Department of Agriculture is responsible for administering farm-action programs in the county under the direction of the farmer-committee system. The farmer committee system is unique in that no other group of citizens has so direct a voice in developing the rural Government Programs.

Farmers in the county first elect the community committeemen, who in turn elect the county committeemen. County Committeemen are Stuart T. Dixon, James W. Taylor, and Newton Flecher. The county committee is in actual charge of administering the programs locally within the basic guidelines formulated by Congress. The elected committees are not Federal officeholders. Congress holds the Department of Agriculture responsible, and the Department in turn relies on the judgement and leadership of the locally elected farmers and the county office employees. The local ASCS Office serves as the headquarters for farmer business connected with program activity.

Many Opportunities

For boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 19, 4-H offers opportunities to develop good character and leadership skills as well as to learn by doing in some field of agriculture or home economics.

Learning to work together and accept responsibility, while exploring and learning skills are all a part of the Texas 4-H Club program.

In Texas and across the nation, 4-H Club work is directed in the counties by the county Extension Agents, with assistance from both adult and junior 4-H leaders. In Texas, more than 13,000 volunteer adult leaders work with the members of more than 2,500 local 4-H Clubs to 'Make the Best Better.'

In Motley County, 171 different leaders have assisted with the activities of nine clubs during the past 15 years.

Statewide, the 4-H program is guided by Texas A&M University, the state's land-grant university. Nationally, the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture administers the program as the youth phase of the Cooperative Extension Service.

Nor is 4-H limited to the United States. The program has also spread to 75 foreign countries who are interested in the "learn-by-doing" youth program.

Parents of 4-H members the world over are on the go, too. They volunteer as club or project leaders, serve as judges of projects such as livestock, safety, health, clothing, demonstrations and scores of others.

They chauffeur members to meetings, fairs, camps, social events and contests. They 'finance' projects that require a cash outlay to get started, and they encourage sons and daughters to keep trying until desired results are achieved. They see to it that 4-H is recognized in the community and throughout the country as a valuable experience for the development of Head, Heart, Hands and Health, and the making of responsible citizens.

Legion . .

Past Commander Edgar Lee introduced the visitors. These included eight Boy Scouts and Scoutmasters Freddie Welling and Ott Hines, Mr. and Mrs. Algie Groves, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ross.

Legion and Auxiliary business meetings were held at the conclusion of the program.

Mrs. Edgar Lee, Auxiliary president, presided at that meeting.

with Mrs. Albert Traveek reporting that her committee is at work on the membership drive for 1968. The quota is 52.

It was also announced that gifts for the Veterans Hospital are to be brought to the November meeting. Auxiliary Chaplain Ethel Payne dismissed the meeting with prayer.
