General Rains Improve Outlook

Heavy Precipitation in Most of County With Some Crop Damage in Flomot Area

GENERAL RAINS fell over Motley County during the week end, beginning late Friday (July 4) and continuing until Monday morning. Bob Stanley recorded a total of 3.42 inches here over the four day period, bringing the 1958 total to 14.47 inches. Heavier rainfall was recorded in other areas. Elbert Reeves recorded more than 4 inches and D. I. W. Birnie Ranch received over 5 1/2 inches. The crop and range outlook has been greatly improved and is considered by many to be the best in years.

Hail, high wind and a severe electrical storm ushered in the "rainy spell" with the greatest damage being reported in an area east and southeast of Flomot. Some crops were completely destroyed by the hail while others were buried by torrential rainfall. No damage has been reported in this immediate area, except in some instances where young crops were buried.

Many Matador residents watched the turbulent clouds and lightning which reached here about sundown Friday. Rainfall at Roaring Springs was slightly less than recorded here. Hugh Vinson of the DuMont community said he received 2.50 inches. Northfield reported about the same.

Cattlemen are elated over the early July rains which have replenished dwindling stock water supplies, reduced the hazard of prairie fires and generally improved range conditions.

Farmers, starting the endless battle with weeds, say the outlook could hardly be more ideal. Total rainfall on July 1, was 11.05 inches as compared with 22.59 on the same date last year (after floods) and 2.18 on the same date in 1956, before the drought was broken.

NORTHFIELD ONLY 30 MINUTES TRIP ON NEW HIGHWAY

A ribbon of smooth asphalt has brought Northfield, Motley County's most remote community, to within less than 30 minutes of the county seat (and without breaking speed regulations).

New FM Highway 94 which was completed recently may develop into an important travel artery. Northfield residents say that tourists are now traveling the road as a more direct route between Childress, Wellington and Oklahoma points, and the Lubbock, South Plains, Midland, Big Spring and Odessa points. Monday several large loaded trucks were observed traveling the road and headed west after striking U. S. Highway 70 in Matador.

Within the experience of living pioneers the more than half a day buggy or hack trip has been reduced to minutes. Pioneer freight wagons traveled the same route between Childress, Matador and Floydada.

In many places the modern highway crosses the deep, grassed-over ruts where freight wagons and mail hacks traveled. The road is not straight because it traverses some of the most rugged terrain in the immediate area.

Miss Sue Glenn will leave Saturday from San Antonio, on an escorted tour to Mexico City. The 16-day tour will include visits to points of interest in the city and surrounding area.

Surplus Commodities Cost County Only $50

BIGGEST BARGAIN in the world is the surplus commodities which Motley County receives through the State Department of Public Welfare. The cost to the county is $50 per year and more than $8,000 worth of commodities (wholesale price) are received in return. The $50 cost is for administrative purposes at 20c per person.

Motley County applies for 250 although at present only about 190 receive commodities.

Commodities are distributed through the Motley County Welfare Association. Committee of the association is composed of the commissioners court, chairman of the Matador Community Chest and chairman of the local Red Cross welfare committee.

In Roaring Springs any application for commodities must be approved by the city council. In the north part of the county any individual or family requiring commodities must be approved by the Flomot Home Demonstration Club.

Distribution of surplus commodities is made available to those who receive old age assistance; dependent children who require assistance and people who are ill and would otherwise require county assistance.

Aid Saves Taxes
Aid through the commodities to people of Motley County who would otherwise require county tax money, provides a saving to the taxpayer. People who receive old age assistance have some more money to spend for necessities other than the food which they receive through the commodities program. Stores derive (Continued on back page)

OFFICIAL VISIT of R. E. Shepherd of Denton, Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows to the lodges of District No. 35 is scheduled for Friday, July 25, it was announced here this week. Floydada Lodge No. 34 will be the host lodge. All lodge members of this district are urged to make plans to attend the meeting in Floydada on that date.

'HOPPER INCREASE NOTED IN COUNTY

An alarming increase in the number of grasshoppers has been reported in some areas of the county. B. F. Simpson of Northfield said Sunday that grasshoppers are destroying his black eye peas as fast as they farm.

Other farming areas have reported large numbers of grasshoppers along fence rows and pasture areas. A bulletin from vo-ag instructor Bill Moss says hoppers are much easier to kill when they are young.

The following poisoning methods are outlined: In tall or dense succulent crops, weeds, and in range grasses he prescribed dosages per acre: Aldrin sprays, 2 ounces; Chlordane spray 1/2 to 1 pound; Toxaphene sprays 1 to 1 1/2 pounds. The label on the chemical will designate the pounds per gallon. The correct amount of chemical per acre is an important factor (amount of water will depend on sprayer). Lower rate chemicals are recommended for young hoppers when long killing action is not essential. Higher dosages are required for older hoppers and when kills must extend over a longer period.

WORK IS STARTED ON 2 NEW HOMES

Continued steady growth of Matador as a community of homes was augmented further this week with work starting on two new residences the same day.

Foundation work was started Monday on the L. M. Cox home in the Walton Heights addition, located immediately east of Mrs. U. L. Willie's home and facing Walton Road.

Lumber was unloaded Monday in the same area to start construction of the John Barnhill home, also located in Walton Heights, on South Bailey Street, north of the Frank Montgomery home.

Work is progressing on the Bundy Campbell ranch home which was moved from Dougherty to Matador and is being rebuilt into a modern ranch-type residence. The home is located west of the H. H. Campbell home.

In north Matador the John Stotts home is being completely remodeled into a modern ranch-type residence. Several other homes have been repaired and remodeled and reports have been circulated of plans for other new homes and remodeling work.

Absentees Start With Heavy Vote

Two days of absentee voting in Motley county indicate interest in the July 26 Democratic primary County Clerk Pat Sheridan said yesterday that 21 applications for absentee votes had been filed and that eight had already voted.

In the 1956 election only seven absentees had filed applications on the corresponding date. In that election a total of 88 absentee votes were cast.

July 22 is the last day in which absentee votes can be cast. Two of the absentee applications which Mr. Sheridan received went over seas to servicemen.

They are 2 of 48 selected from a field of over 100 boys nominated by coaches from 69 area high schools. Boys were selected on the basis of their high school football performance record and on the basis of their coaches' recommendation as to character and attitude.

Graham and Thrasher were both elected to the All-District Team while in high school, and Graham made the All-South Plains Team. Both served as captains for the 1957 Matadors, and were highly recommended by Coach Clifford D. Bradshaw.

If past history repeats itself there will be standing room only in the 3,000 seat Childress Municipal Stadium on the night of Aug. 15. This Greenbelt Bowl game each of the past eight years has drawn an overflow crowd of football fans to this pre-season football classic. Tickets can be obtained by writing P. O. Box 28 in Childress. GRAVE of a cowboy, "Pitchfork Kid" is buried in this small marker in Llano Cemetery, Amarillo. The grave was placed by the cemetery after the grave was located by F. I. Hale of Amarillo a few years ago. Until that time the grave was unmarked. The above marker is about the size of a house brick. This picture was made by Earl Golt, a reporter on the Amarillo Globe-Times who recently wrote an article on the picturesque cowboy. The Tribune is co-sponsoring a fund to place a memorial at the grave.

Newspaper Feature on "Pitchfork Kid" Increases Interest in Memorial Fund

A feature article on the tragic death of "Pitchfork Kid," one of Motley County's most picturesque pioneers, written by Earl Golt, published in the July 3 issue of the Amarillo Globe-Times has increased interest in the memorial fund started by the Tribune. The "Kid" is buried in Amarillo's Llano Cemetery and the memorial fund is designed to buy a suitable marker.

Doc Burleson of Wichita Falls contributed $5 to the fund two weeks ago. He "batched" with the "Kid" two or three winters at a Matador Ranch Linecamp about 1904.

"He was a wonderful man," Mr. Burleson said, "and a fine cowboy. He suffered an impediment of speech after he was seriously injured when thrown from a horse."

F. I. Hale of Amarillo (who located the "Kid's" unmarked grave) sent his check for $5 and expressed hope that enough funds would be raised to erect a memorial. H. H. Campbell made a $1 contribution.

A total of $53 is now deposited in the First State Bank here to the "Pitchfork Kid" memorial fund. The largest contribution received yesterday has not been deposited.

Jno. S. McMurtry of Muleshoe who read Golt's article (he is also a Tribune subscriber) sent his check for $25, which will bring the total collections to $78. "I am sending a check for $25 to be applied to the fund," Mr. McMurtry wrote, "if every friend of the 'Kid's' will send $1, a fund of $300 can soon be reached."

Mr. McMurtry was a close friend of Pitchfork Kid. He had previously believed that a marker had been erected at his grave. The feature article by Golt and pictures of the "Kid" will be published in a subsequent issue of the Tribune.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM THE CAPITOL

Besides the state agencies working cooperatively through the new Council, other groups are part of the crusade. A major source of help is the 20-year-old Texas Safety Association, a pioneer group which finances its efforts on a voluntary basis.

Texas Legislative Council is studying traffic problems and will report to the 56th Legislature.

Bringing new weight is the Governor's Highway Safety Commission. Scores of prominent Texans answered Governor Daniel's call to give citizen support to official efforts. First Commission meeting is set tentatively for Fall.

Results thus far are encouraging. For the first 23 weeks of this year the toll was down by 101 persons, about 11 per cent, from last year. There were 163 fewer deaths, down about 17 per cent, from '56.

Goal for 1958 is a year-long 10 per cent drop or 254 lives saved—a real stab at the dragon.

JULY SNOW STORM—Next summer's Democratic precinct conventions will be like an extra after-hours election. There'll be rival "platforms" and rival candidates, but only one key issue—who's to control the party.

Battle lines were drawn when the State Democratic Executive Committee held its June meeting in Austin. Governor Daniel, as head of the party in Texas, called on his moderate-conservative cohorts to "snow under" the liberal-labor Democrats of Texas at the conventions. He accused DOT of trying to usurp the party name for a "splinter group."

SDEC is recommending electing precinct delegates to county conventions by primary ballot and moving primaries up to May and June. It also suggests a search for means to prevent party line crossing at primary time.

DOT is pushing for its "code of ethics" for conducting conventions and a party registration law to keep out Republicans.

Relative merits of the two "platforms" may be as confusing to some voters as a snow-storm in July. What's clear is that if the moderate-conservatives win out, Governor Daniel will continue at the helm of party affairs in Texas. If the DOT prevails, Mrs. Frankie Randolph, national committeewoman and DOT chairman, will take the wheel.

For Motley County to be credited so that cattle without shipped out of the state without a test, 10% of the livestock in the county must be tested. There is no charge for the TB test, but a serum must be injected and cattle checked 72 hours later to see if there is a reaction.

Livestock owners are urged to contact Dr. Allison or County Agent Pallmeyer to get animals tested. The test can be scheduled to fit the convenience of the livestock owner.

FALSE CHINCH BUGS THREAT TO COTTON

Entomology Dept. of Texas A&M College notified County Agent Bill Pallmeyer concerning the small fly-like insect, black and white colored, that have moved into the cotton fields from the pastures in this area.

Pallmeyer said that these bugs are known as False Chinch bugs. They can be controlled by spraying the cotton with toxaphene at the rate of 1 pint to 1 quart per acre.

These small bugs kill cotton by sucking the sap from the plants.

About Your Health

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.

Henry A. Hollie, M. D., Commissioner

If you are the parent of a youngster who will start school for the first time this fall, you can help yourself and the State Department of Health by requesting a copy of his birth record now.

Most school systems require a birth certificate to prove the child was six years old on September 1. By making early requests for birth records, parents can save themselves needless anxiety, their children some missed classwork, and the Department a great deal of time.

Several hundred parents have already requested and received records of their children's birth, but tens of thousands of additional records will have to be processed between now and the time school doors swing open for the new term. If too many people delay until August—as they usually do—the resulting bottleneck could very well mean your youngster will be barred when that first school bell rings.

The reason is obvious: The limited staff of the Division of Vital Statistics—despite long hours of night and week-end work without overtime pay—can search just so many files, extract just so many records, and photostat just so many copies in time for school's opening.

Birth record keepers shudder when they think of the 247,500 children—an estimate supplied by the Texas Education Agency—who will be eligible to enter school for the first time this September.

Many of them have copies of birth records and will create no problem. Others live in areas where school officials do not require proof of age before admitting the child to classes.

But the majority do not have certified proof of age, despite the fact that they live in areas where school authorities insist on such proof. This is the category that means sleepless nights for health department statisticians and clerks.

Social Securities Same For Farmers

John G. Hutton, district manager of the Lubbock social security office points out that the purpose of social security for farmers is the same as social security for other working people and their families. Social security insurance old-age benefits are intended to replace part of the income lost because of lower earnings or loss of earnings due to retirement.

Hutton stated that the farmer who has no earnings after he becomes entitled to his social security payments may receive his benefits regularly. Even though a farmer did not retire after he applied for the social security payments, he may receive the benefits for all months if his earnings for the year are not more than $1200. The farmer whose earnings are more than $1200 may still receive benefits for some months if his earnings for the year do not exceed $2080.

The Department is prepared to give immediate service to requests coming in between now and mid-July. All parents have to do is give the child's name and date and place of birth, the mother's maiden name and the name of the father. That information, plus the legal fee of one dollar will buy anyone a copy of their birth record, providing the original is on file.

It's a good bet the original will be filed, since the Department keeps track of some 10 million birth and death records, some dating back to 1903.

There is just one more thing: If you don't care to write to the State Department of Health in Austin, check with your local registrar or county clerk. Chances are he can supply the record.

In either case do it soon. That fall bird can get mighty tight.
