Church and Society

Tea Is Courtesy For Bride-Elect

A gift tea Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. A. C. Traweek, Jr., was a courtesy for Miss Patti Pipkin, bride-elect of Vernard Alexander of Dallas.

Hostesses with Mrs. Traweek for the occasion, included Mmes. J. R. Whitworth, Albert Rattan, Joe Bloodworth, R. E. Campbell, Sr., Ben Edwards, Jinks Wilson, Frank Pohl, M. G. Brotherton, Eddie Russell, Henry Ford, Jim Ford, Curtis Graham and G. E. Hamilton.

Approximately fifty persons called during the reception hours from 7:30 to 9:30, and were registered by Mrs. Bateman Middlebrooks of Roaring Springs.

Chosen colors of the honoree, turquoise and pink furnished the decor for the tea table, which was laid with a blocked linen and lace cloth. An arrangement of pink gladioli was flanked by white lapers in crystal candelabra. Pink tea napkins were inscribed in turquoise with the couple's names, and small tea cakes were decorated in turquoise icing. Decorated mints in the same colors, and nuts were also served.

Hostesses alternated in pouring punch.

Courtesies Given For E. E. Denneys

Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Denney were named honorees at a recent covered dish supper at the First Baptist Church, given by the Young Adult Training Union.

The affair was a farewell courtesy for the popular young physician and his wife, who, with their small daughters, Debby and Teresa, have moved to Monroe, La., to make their home.

A Coke party Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Wade Berryman was in farewell to Mrs. Denney, with Mmes. Marvin Hunt, John Barnhill, Bennie Keltz, and Bill Seale as co-hostesses.

Centerpiece for the refreshment table was an ingenious replica of the Denney residence here, with miniature figures representing the family in the act of moving. An antiquated model car held the family and their paraphernalia (including an old churn). The decorations were designed and made by Mrs. Keltz.

Guests were "registered" in a unique manner by signing their names in paint on a cup towel, decorated with a beverage bottle and bearing the painted inscription, "The Coke Crowd." Thirty-three guests signed, including three from Roaring Springs, Mmes. Buzz Thacker, David Campbell and Paul Nichols.

Farewell Party Held Recently For Jewel Lawrences

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Lawrence were honored with a farewell party Thursday night in the Methodist Church basement, with the Young Adult Sunday School class as hosts.

The honored couple was presented with a gift, and refreshments were served. Those present included the teacher, Bill Moss, and class members and their families. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Moes and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence and children, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Williams and son, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Cox and sons, Mr. and Mrs. James Priddy and children, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Fromm and children, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wason and daughters. Others present were Glenn Brotherton and his guest, Henry Storm of Canon City, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence and children, Brenda, Jeff and Mike left Saturday for Irving where they will make their home. Ms. Lawrence, who has been employed here by Thacker Butane Co., has accepted a position with Central Freight Lines of Dallas.

Open House To Honor Visitors

Open House Saturday at the V. F. W. building from 2 until 4 o'clock in the afternoon will be held by Mrs. L. R. Browning and her daughters, Mrs. C. M. Barton and Mrs. D. E. Rattan, as a courtesy for other children of Mrs. Browning who are visiting here this week.

The visitors include Mr. and Mrs. Roger M. Griggs of Torrance, Calif., who arrived Sunday (Mrs. Griggs is the former Laurie Browning); Mrs. Malcolm Morris, Jr., (former Eunice Browning) and son, Jerry of Dallas, joining Mr. Morris, who has been visiting his parents at Whiteflat; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Browning and family of Arlington, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Browning of Lubbock.

Accompanying Mrs. Morris and son here, was a 90-year-old aunt, Mrs. Nannie Morton of Murchison, a sister of the late Mr. Browning.

A cordial invitation is extended to all friends of the family to join them during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Craven and daughters, Patti and Francine went to Eastland, Thursday where they visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Craven. They were accompanied home by their other daughter, Rachel, who has been visiting her grandparents, and by a niece, Miss Vernell Craven, who is visiting here.

Monthly Meeting Held By Baptist WMU-Brotherhood

Regular monthly covered dish supper and mission program of the Baptist W. M. U. and Brotherhood was held Tuesday night at the church.

Dale Estes spoke to the Brotherhood on the subject, "The Harvest in God's Kingdom", and the W. M. U. heard a program on Baptist seminaries, led by Mrs. Margaret Newman.

The program, from Royal Service, included the following: "The Haystack Prayer Meeting" by Miss Jan Barton; "Southwestern Baptist Seminary" and "New Orleans Baptist Seminary" by Miss Amy Glenn; "Golden Gate and Southeastern Baptist Seminaries" by Mrs. Velma Fulfer; and "On Mission Fields; and Baptist Hospitals", Mrs. Ben Keltz. Jan Barton also led the singing with Mrs. Jane Latimer at the piano.

Present at the joint supper and following programs, were Messrs and Mesdames George Cullin, Bill Dunning, J. L. Woodruff, Forrest Campbell, Rev. and Mrs. Ray Manning, Dale Estes, Misses Amy Glenn and Maggie Bryan and Mmes. C. M. Barton, Freeman Thacker, Ben Meador, Jane Latimer, C. P. Waybourn, Ben Keltz, L. Rattan and Ed Cammack.

Those who contributed dishes of food for the Stephens and Murphy relatives for the dinner served at the Methodist church, will find their dishes at the church, according to an announcement to the Tribune.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Barmore spent the week-end visiting their children in Loraine and Colorado City, Texas.

Although not closely associated with either couple, we learned to appreciate their work in their respective church groups, and of course saw more of the Denneys at First Baptist too, it was Dr. Denney who ministered to us during the illness and passing of our dad, and his sympathy and understanding will always be gratefully remembered.

Ernest and Lorene gave of their talents to the Lions Club projects and study club programs with an enthusiasm and charm which will be missed in those organizations.

—and speaking of charm, we read this on a placard recently: "What is this thing called charm? ... Charm is a sort of bloom on a woman, if you have it you don't need to have anything else. If you don't have it, it doesn't matter what else you might have."

Attending the convention of the West Texas Press Association Friday and Saturday in San Angelo, was a pleasurable affair and an occasion to meet and visit with many friends in the area and beyond. Among distinguished folk present were Boyce House of Ft. Worth, well-known for his many books on Texas lore, and Frank King, head of the Associated Press, Dallas.

It would be an acknowledged fact that Tucumcari, New Mexico would be a hard word to spell, just hearing it pronounced. A young reporter on a not-too-far distant paper, just learning to report, submitted a local about some people visiting there, and spelled it "Tuet And Carry".

It is with regret that this community is losing some of its fine young couples to larger fields of endeavor with more promising futures. During their few years of residence here, the Ernest Denneys and Jewel Lawrences contributed much to the civic and clerical activities of the communities.

Correction in a recent news item: Charles Robert Keith went by plane instead of train when he left from Lubbock several weeks ago for Quantico, Virginia where he is training in the Marine Corps. (This correction is not made at the request of the family or anyone. In fact, they don't know that we are doing this—we learned of our error after that particular issue of the Tribune was printed, and wish to keep the records straight.)

PIED PINIONS

By Mrs. M.
