MRS. GARY WEAKS (Cathey Clem)

CANDLELIGHT SERVICE UNITES GARY WEAKS and CATHEY CLEM

Miss Cathey Clem and Gary Weaks were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony in the Roaring Springs Church of Christ at 6:00 p.m. Saturday, February 6. Bill Leftwich, director of publicity at Lubbock Christian College, officiated.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore an original designed floor-length victorian gown made by her mother. The A-line gown fashioned of bridal crepe, featured a scalloped lace yoke with stand up collar and an inverted pleat in the back. The hem was accented by a row of the scalloped lace. The full sleeves were gathered into wide lace cuffs. The bride wore an antique pin at the neck of her gown that belonged to her great grandmother, whose name was Cathey.

Mrs. Key Vaughn of Lubbock was matron of honor and Mrs. Jim Dickens also of Lubbock was bridesmatron. They wore royal blue crepe A-line floor length dresses featuring white lace collars and long full sleeves. Their head pieces were white fur wedding band hats and they carried white fur muffs on which a blue corsage was resting.

Lynn Frizzell of Silverton was best man and Len Gilmore of Houston, cousin of the bridegroom served as groomsman. Guests were seated by Victor Weaks, brother of the bridegroom, and Bill Brooks, both of Silverton, Hal Rogers of Lubbock, and Joe Puckett of Durango, Colo.

Music was by a choir from Lubbock Christian High School. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Clem, is a 1968 graduate of Roaring Springs High School and attended Lubbock Christian College as an elementary education major.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Weaks of Silverton. He is a 1968 graduate of Tullia High School and attended Lubbock Christian College. He is presently engaged in farming.

A reception followed the candlelight ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church. The table featured the bride's chosen colors with a white lace cloth over royal blue. The centerpiece was a large white wedding bell, presented the bride by local friends. Miss Karen Taylor of Texas Tech presided at the punch bowl, and Miss Michelle Smith also of Texas Tech served the cake. Miss Rita Butler of ACC registered guests at the wedding and reception.

Mesdames Caldwell Smith, M. S. Thacker, J. M. Thacker and Horace Redd and Miss Lula Swim were reception hostesses.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor of Portales New Mexico, grandparents of the bride, Mrs. Olga Weaks of Tullia grandmother of the bridegroom and a host of relatives and friends from Paris, Texas, Austin, San Antonio, Lubbock, Lubbock Christian College, Silverton, Tullia, Houston, O'Donnell, Elida, New Mexico, Floydada, Canyon, Texas Tech, Matador and Roaring Springs.

Matadors Split Guthrie Games

by Ann Timmons

The Matador Basketball teams completed a 1-1 situation at Guthrie January 29. The Matador girls dropped Guthrie 47-43, while the boys lost by a heartbreaking one point - 61-60.

The Matador girls put out the whole team effort to keep first place rating. Debbie Smallwood shot in 80% of her free shots and was high scorer for the team with 28 points. Bridget Barton followed closely behind with 17 points. Kay Cooper took 9 rebounds off the board with Charla Wason and Debbie Smallwood getting 8 each.

The boys were harassed by minor injuries during the game but never let the score have a very wide spread. The Matadors led in the first, third and deep into the fourth quarter. Scoring for the Matadors were Rickey Lawrence with 21, and David Lee 20. Lee and Barnhill led rebounds with 17 each.

Matador Nipped

By Late Bucket

by Lance Jameson

Matador High School boys basketball team lost a battle of the boards 70-69 in district play here Tuesday night to Roaring Springs in a second half lidlifter. Davis, who scored 24 points, connected with a second to go to give the Yellowjackets the win. The lead changed hands and the score was dead-locked several times and the Matadors made some breathtaking steals. David Lee paced the Matadors with 22 points, Dwayne "Peanuts" Campbell, 17; Ricky Lawrence, 13; and Stanley Smith, 11.

Girls Are Winners
In the girls' action, Matador's effective zone defense stopped Roaring Springs attack and the Matador fens offense put a 43-34 on the score board. The B team played the entire fourth quarter. Debbie Smallwood led the attack with 18 points, Bridget Barton added 12, Melissa Bailey, 10; and Cinda Simpson, 3; to up Matadors second half mark to a 4-0 and a season record of 9-1.

Beginners Spotlight

by Ann Timmons

Georgia Green is the active brown-eyed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Richardson.

Reading is her favorite subject in the schoolroom, but on the playground the monkey bars keep her busy. When asked what she liked to do outside of school she replied, "Play Mamas."

Georgia says she wants to be a "big girl" when she grows up. Her long range plans also include going to the moon.
