TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

Each time Washington starts on a witch hunt some member of the posse always rides up bareback astride a broomstick.

Love is like lightning playing in the summer night's troubled skies. beautiful, brief and terrifying. The night is blacker when it is gone and the wagons of thunder have rumbled away. Sometimes a life, like a tree in the forest, is splintered and broken to remain a gnarled and twisted thing for the remainder of its days.

Watching star fires burn low in the lush and silent savannas of the Milky Way, the souls of old cowboys must ponder the value of the heritage they left in following the herds and remudas into eternity. Unless their wisdom is fortified with that of the angels they will be helpless to understand satin riding shirts, alligator boots and Nylon lariats ropes.

Value of a man's life is a difficult thing to measure. Perhaps the harm which he failed to negotiate should have a line above the total of his good qualities.

A dollar is a coin used as a medium of exchange to purchase about twenty five cents worth of merchandise.

Except for consistency youth knows at the beginning all that he has learned at the end.

The world is more impressed by our qualities and possessions which are held in reserve than those which we tie to the wind sack of our conversations. I have yet to meet a great man who felt it necessary to impress the world with his greatness.

If all the tripe that comes from Washington were placed end to end it would make a line.

This age may belong to the thinking man but he had better think fast and be in motion or he will cease to be in it.

No man can be helped until cooperation has reduced his spirit to the state of being humble.

A sanguineous sun was held in the cool palm of a winter evening as the lanky cowboy leaned in the stirrups of his saddle and watched the bellowing steers crowded in the railroad loading pens. A swollen cloud drifted across the sun when the whistle of the cattle train came to his ears. The bobbing headlight was whipping through a long lane of telegraph poles. He rode to the fly tent and chuckwagon near the pens, tied his horse to a mesquite and filled a tin plate with thick tender steak and sour-dough biscuits. Leaning the massive smoke-stained coffee pot, he poured a tin cup brimming full of the black liquid. When he had finished he unshod his horse and walked to the tracks where work of loading the steers had already started. Holding a lantern and prodpole he began climbing the inclined cleated walk outside the narrow loading chute. He heard the steers bellow as they reluctantly followed in a stream of weaving backs and brandished horns entering the car. The cowboy thought of the chute as funnel through which the fruit of the plains was being poured. A steer struck the prodpole and knocked it from his chilled hands, leaving his fingers numb. The moon was high and cold when the last car door had been secured. The cowboy stood for a moment before placing his foot on the step of the caboose. The train lurched and he swung toward the platform with his lantern and prodpole. The air had chilled his hands to leave them stinging with the warmth of the car. Through a window he watched the moon following the lumbering train.

GIFTS SOUGHT FOR FRIENDSHIP TRAIN BY MATADOR LIONS

Little children of Europe crying from the pain of hunger will not know if you fail to make a contribution of food to "The Friendship Train." The hungry aged men and women, the crippled starving people of France and Italy will not come to you and ask for a gift of food. Many will die before the winter is passed but it is in your power to possibly save a life, to bring a little hope in a bleak existence.

Today the "Friendship Train" is rolling across America. It started in Los Angeles with 11 cars. Yesterday it entered the Rocky Mountains with 31 cars; wheat, flour, dried beans, dried peas, sugar (Honolulu sent a plane loaded with sugar), evaporated milk, macaroni and spaghetti. The bare needs to sustain life. You can give money that will be used to buy these foods or you can buy the foods. (Canned goods can not be shipped).

The "Friendship Train" will pass through Childress. The Matador Lions Club is cooperating with other Lions Clubs and civic organizations throughout the United States, as a sponsoring and collecting agent. Contributions may be made to Zone Chairman Howard Traveek, Boss Lion C. W. Giesecke or Secretary-Treasurer J. R. Whitworth. The train is rolling our way. Exact date of its arrival in Childress is not known.

Drew Pearson, originator of the plan, has this to say on distribution: "Friendship Train food will be distributed abroad (See TRAIN back page)

LOANS REFLECT LOW LAND BANK INTEREST RATE

Money is cheap but it may not always remain that way. The opinion is reflected in the increased number of loans made by the Federal Land Bank of Houston, of which the Matador National Farm Loan Association is a member. J. Tom Hamilton secretary-treasurer and G. T. Edwards director of the local association, who attended a meeting of NFLA leaders in Lubbock this week, declare reports show a greater number of loans were made in 1946 than any year since 1935. "The increase in loans indicates a desire of landowners to put their financing on a long-term basis and tie down today's low interest rate," Mr. Edwards declared.

Reports disclosed at the Lubbock meeting showed that the program of loan servicing decentralization, begun five years ago, is almost complete. Today most of the business the farmer and rancher has with the bank can be transacted with the local association.

Federal Land Bank of Houston is completely owned by Texas ranchers and farmers through the 143 local associations. The bank, with no government funds of any kind invested in it, has a combined capital, surplus and reserves amounting to more than $43,000,000. This amount is in addition to approximately $6,000,000 in reserves and surplus of the local associations in the own local accounts.

RADIO BAND IS SCHEDULED HERE

Jake Miller and his "Musical Mustangs", Lubbock radio station KSEL band will appear at the Matador high school auditorium Thursday evening, November 18, under the sponsorship of the senior class, according to an announcement released this week by Superintendent Bert Ezell. The band performance will start at 7 p. m.

The show is being advertised over the Lubbock radio station each morning at 7:45 (950) on the dial. Ticket-buyers are assured an evening of unusual entertainment with plenty of music and comedy. Net proceeds of the show will go to augment the senior class fund.

Mrs. L. C. Harp drove to Abilene Saturday, where she visited her mother for several days.

Veteran School Teacher Resigns

MISS AMY GLENN

Effective November 21st, at the close of this six weeks period, Miss Amy Glenn, veteran of 12 years continuous services in Matador schools, tendered her resignation last week. Vacancy resulting from Miss Glenn's resignation was filled by Mrs. Vernon Doss' election by the school board.

Miss Glenn, a leader in the community's religious and civic life, declared her retirement resulted from the press of home duties. Graduate of the Baptist Theological Seminary of Fort Worth and of Baylor University, Miss Glenn taught four years at Wayland College, Plainview.

Following World War I Miss Glenn worked two years in Washington, D. C. Civil Service War Risk department (1918-1920). She has taught school for 16 years in Motley county and served 12 years and three months under the present Matador school system.

Regarding her resignation, Miss Glenn declared, "It is with regret that I have found it necessary to retire from my chosen profession of teaching. My work in the Matador schools has been a joy and pleasure to me and I wish to take this opportunity of expressing my profound appreciation to the pupils and their parents for the fine cooperation which they have extended me at all times."

Mrs. Doss is well known here, having previously taught several years in the local schools. Resignation of Vernon Doss from the board of trustees was filled through the election of Curtis Graham.

Church Nursery To Be Maintained Again

Beginning next Sunday, a nursery will again be maintained at the Baptist Church during morning worship hour, Rev. Clifford Potts, pastor has announced.

The nursery was discontinued several months ago, due to lack of help, but at this time Miss Barbara Ketchersid has consented to take this responsibility, Rev. Potts said. The nursery is maintained for the convenience of parents who have small children who, they feel, might disturb the service, and therefore are unable to attend themselves. It is hoped that the nursery will enable many to attend church services who have heretofore remained at home with their children.

Lions Plan Special Thanksgiving Meet

In advance of the national holiday Matador Lions will observe Thanksgiving at the club's next regular meeting, Tuesday, November 18.

The program will include a Thanksgiving address by Rev. Clifford Potts, pastor of the Matador Methodist church and special music arranged by Miss Rachel Patton, Lions Sweetheart.

Lions chef Henry Pipkin is preparing the Thanksgiving luncheon.

Board of directors will meet Monday morning, November 17, at Marvin's cafe. Meeting hour is 6:30 a. m.

CHILDRESS VISITORS
Mrs. Colquet Warren, accompanied by her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Joe Latimer of Lubbock, visited in Childress Sunday and attended the wedding of her sister there.

BEN EDWARDS IS NAMED PRESIDENT OF FARM BUREAU

Unfavorable weather restricted attendance Thursday night at the Motley County Farm Bureau annual meeting, however membership and interest in the organization exceed all previous records. An enthusiastic crowd attended the Thursday meeting, heard and passed resolutions rapidly.

Ben Edwards was named president for the ensuing year. Other officers elected included J. W. Pritchett, vice-president; Elbert Reeves, secretary-treasurer and the following directors: J. L. Speer, Fiomot, E. S. Jones, Matador; Delmont Hays, Northfield; J. M. Jameson, Whiteflat and Melvin Thacker, Roaring Springs.

Directors in a business session immediately following the meeting, named the following delegates to attend the Amarillo convention November 17-18-19: J. W. Pritchett, Ben Clements, Ben Edwards, E. E. Jones, J. M. Jameson, R. L. Jameson, Sr., Sam Ross, R. H. Tanner, Elbert Reeves, and L. E. Kingery.

Delegates named to attend the Chicago national convention in December, are Ben Edwards, E. S. Jones, J. R. Nall, Ben Keltz and J. W. Pritchett. Plans are underway for a large Motley county delegation to attend the Amarillo state convention, and at present five or six automobile loads are scheduled to go.

DEATH CLAIMS FLOMOT PIONEER

Death claimed the life Monday of Mrs. Dove Washington, pioneer of this section, and a resident of Flomot community for more than forty years.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from Flomot Methodist Church, by Rev. R. L. Jameson of Whiteflat, assisted by Rev. J. E. Lee, Flomot Baptist pastor. R. M. Morris of Plainview led the singing, with Mrs. Edgar Morrison of Quitaque at the piano, assisted by Frances Jones.

Pallbearers were: Tom Bynum, Ralph Merritt, Alfred Martin, Austin Tanner, L. B. Turner, Baldo Martin, Harley Gunn and Winfred Bush. Flower girls were: Nita Martin, Dena Martin, Lillie Wanda Gilbert, Mabel Sue George, Ima Nell Gunn and Geneva Tanner.

Dove Miller was born January 9, 1880 at Breckenridge, Texas and passed away at 7:15 Monday morning, November 10, 1947 at her home northeast of Flomot.

When ten years of age she moved with her family to Silverton, Texas. She was married to Clarence S. Washington, December 16, 1900. They made their home at Quitaque for five years, then moved to Flomot where she had made her home for more than forty years. To this union were born three sons and one daughter. They are, Mrs. Lois Martin of Flomot, Omer Washington of Spring Lake, Dick and Gordie Washington of Flomot. Her companion, Clarence, passed away in February, 1912.

"Aunt Dove", as she was lovingly called, was converted and united with the Methodist Church in early married life, and was an active Christian until her death.

She leaves her four children, sixteen grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and a host of relatives.

Matador Observes Quiet Armistice

Twenty nine years after the document that ended World War I had been signed (11th minute of the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, 1918), significance of the historic act was overshadowed by memories of World War II and the "lost peace" which has followed. Stores and business places and Matador schools closed Tuesday in observance of Armistice, but there was no program. Near noon only one automobile was observed on the business streets of the city. A few flags fluttered in the autumn breeze; another Armistice day passed.

Chiefs Take Matadors' Scalp, 13-12

Crosbyton Chiefs tossed the District 4-A cellar keys to the Matador Matadors under the Mazdas in Crosbyton Friday night when they tied the score scalp to their belts by the narrow margin of 13-12. It was the fourth straight conference loss for the Matadors.

Matadors LH Bonner Nelson took the ball for 30 yards around right end for the game's first tally. Giesecke's kick was futile.

The Chiefs scored in the second stanza when Simmons placed a pass in the right half's hands and then toed the conversion between the goal posts. The Matadors scored again in the third quarter through a series of approximately 30-yard drives, followed by RH Albert Marshall receiving the ball on a reverse run and racing 35 yards to pay dirt. Giesecke's conversion toe, again off key, struck a sour note.

The Chief's set up the pattern for their second score through a pass from Simmons to Black. (See CHIEFS back page)

COUNTY HIT BY KILLING FROST

First killing frost of 1947 autumn hit Motley county Thursday night November 6th, following a "duster" which ended about dark. Unusual feature of the frost was the "spotted effect" which some farmers declared left part of a cotton field black while the remainder was still green the following day.

Lower temperatures over the week end which dropped to about 22 Monday night, evened the "spotted fields" to a solid black. Removal of foliage from cotton fields will hasten harvest, farmers declare.

LUMBER FIRM TO BUILD WAREHOUSE

Work was started this week by Higginbotham-Bartlett Company on a cement and storage warehouse immediately south of the company's present buildings. The "air-tight" stucco building will be 30x50, construction of the building has been contracted by Jimmy Green.

HOME FROM CLOVIS

John Briscoe drove to Clovis Sunday to accompany his mother, Mrs. Doug Meador, home. She has been visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elvis Lebow, while recuperating from a recent operation.

Father And Son Are Partners In Farm Supply Business

L. R. Bishop, left above, and son Billy R. Bishop, right, formed their business partnership in January, 1946, resulting in the present L. R. Bishop & Son Farm Supply stores located on the east side of the court house square. Billy R. Bishop was in the U. S. Navy for 3 1/2 years, spending approximately 22 months overseas. L. R. Bishop entered the feed and grain business here in 1935 and expanded his business to include feed-grinding and mixing, and later to include groceries. After forming the partnership at the conclusion of the war, the firm constructed a new building and opened the present modern grocery store in March, 1946. The firm has been Purina representatives since 1940. This is the fifth in a series of articles on father-son partnerships in Matador. —Photo by Douglas Meador

Ranchers Move To Close Quail Season

'No Cause For Alarm' Advice on Quarantine

Cotton growers, ginners, truckers and others interested in the cotton industry have "no cause for alarm" as result of the pink boll worm quarantine which was applied in Motley county recently when screening of trash and burrs produced evidence of infestation. D. J. Markwardt, U. S. Department of Agriculture plant quarantine inspector stationed at Paducah and having control in Motley, Cottle and King counties, Wednesday said the infestation in this county is slight and that there is no cause for alarm.

All cotton burs are required to be burned and seed-haulers are required to use trucks and "tarps" of certain specifications in hauling, but ginning and sale of cotton and cottonseed will continue under the same conditions previous to the quarantine. Over 35 West Texas counties have been added to the pink boll worm quarantine in recent weeks until now most of the cotton-producing area is affected, Mr. Markwardt declared.

Removal of planting seed out of the quarantined area is prohibited and movement of cottonseed is restricted to oil mills which are approved with "heat treatment" used in cottonseed oil processing. Cottonseed truckers desiring federal permits to haul seed may obtain them through Mr. Markwardt whose address is Cattle hotel, Paducah.

Wayland President To Speak At Baptist Family Night Affair

President Bill Marshall of Wayland College, Plainview, will be the principal speaker for the annual "Family Night" observance of the Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church here, next Thursday evening, November 20 at 7:30 o'clock.

All members are invited to attend with their families, and bring a covered dish for the meal. The dinner will be followed by a program and games. Many in this community have been looking forward to hearing Dr. Marshall, and this will be an excellent opportunity for them to do so.

HOLIDAYS NAMED BY SCHOOL BOARD

Holidays to be observed by the Matador public schools were named at a recent meeting of the board as follows: (Armistice already observed), November 27-28 Thanksgiving, December 20-29 Christmas holidays and one spring holiday, to be announced later.

Action Stems From Drought Condition

LANDOWNERS representing approximately 500,000 acres in the Motley County Game Management Association, meeting in the District Court room here Monday evening voted to close the quail season for five years. Since the action must be sanctioned by the legislature and the next meeting of the Texas lawmakers is scheduled for January 1949, immediate action was outlined and approved.

Severe drought conditions in the "below-the-Cap Rock" region have depleted the stock of quail until in many areas it is near the vanishing point. Second factor in the movement is the prairie-fire hazard. Thousands of acres of parched ranch land provide a tinder-box of dry grass (no rain has fallen since the last week in May). It was declared that a prairie fire driven by high winds might destroy much of the county's valuable grass despite all efforts to bring it under control. Third factor in the movement to curb quail hunting was the loss of livestock because of careless hunters in recent years.

First action in the plan approved by the group will be the circulation of petitions in each county community in effort to secure the complete and "stick-to-it" corporation of every farmer, rancher and stock farmer in the county. Association secretary Elbert Reeves declared, "unless we all stick together we might as well let the foreign sportsmen come in and kill what quail we have left and quit trying to protect them."

County agent J. R. Emmons, acting as chairman, asked the (See QUIL back page)

Large Stock Of Feed Saved In Farm Fire

Cooperation of neighbors and the Matador Volunteer Fire Department saved a large amount of valuable cottonseed meal, thrashed grain and other stock feeds about 1 p. m. Sunday when fire of unknown origin partially destroyed a barn belonging to Jess Perkins 1/2 mile northwest of Whiteflat.

About 15 members of the fire department accompanied the truck to Whiteflat and through the aid of the truck, "booster" tank and pumping equipment, managed to save part of the barn and most of the feed. Neighbors and friends brought water to augment the tank's supply in barrels, tank trucks and other means. They managed to keep plenty of water for the fire truck pump throughout the battle to save the property. In appreciation for their services, Mr. Perkins Monday presented the firemen with a check of $35.

An earlier Sunday call (about 10:30 a. m.) resulted from burning weeds and grass near the Albert Rattan and R. E. Campbell, Jr. homes. The fire was soon extinguished.

According to information received by Mrs. Tilson, the car in which her daughters were riding, collided with a truck between Dallas and Denton and their car was completely demolished. The two women received severe bruises and lacerations with stitches having to be taken in Mrs. Jackson's face. They are recovering in a Denton hospital. Mrs. Davis is the former Ophelia Tilson and Mrs. Jackson will be remembered as the former Ruth Tilson.

CHILDRESS SERVES AS CENTER FOR "FOOD-FOR-PEACE"

Childress will serve as a collecting point in the "Food-for-Peace" program for surrounding towns, it was announced Saturday by Dr. Roy Barr, president of the Lions Club, sponsor of the movement.

"The Lions clubs in Matador, Paducah, Turkey and Memphis were to assemble their collections here," Dr. Barr said, "and we will be glad to handle the gifts for them."

"Although there are no Lions clubs in other surrounding towns, everyone should give to such a movement and all donations will be picked up," he added.

A warehouse at Childress Army Air Field will be opened Friday and Saturday to assemble the goods.

A special collection will be held in Childress schools Monday, it was announced by Supt. Joe A. Gibson. All students who care to may bring food to school Monday.

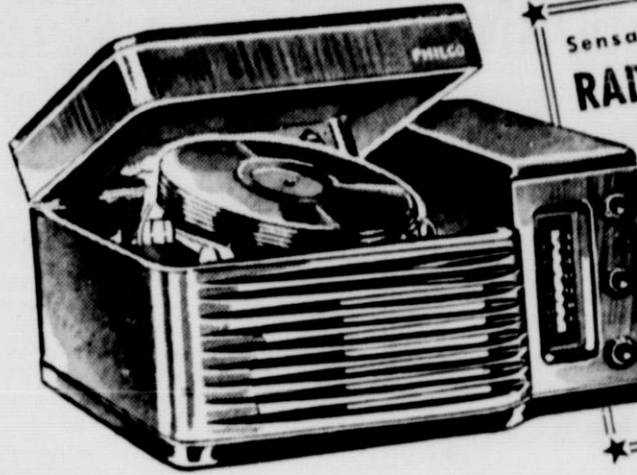

"Canned goods that have little water content such as canned meats, canned spam, canned beans, canned macaroni and spaghetti will be accepted," Dr. Barr said. "Of course we prefer dried beans, peas, evaporated milk, bulk wheat and flour and dried spaghetti and macaroni."

Mrs. G. N. Wilson and Mrs. C. E. Woolery of Lubbock spent the week end here visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meador.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Smith of Shamrock visited from Friday until Sunday in the home of their daughter, Mrs. R. H. Bearden and family.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Prissy's Got a Man! (Maybe)

Yesterday Sis Martin, our librarian, found an article cut from their file copy of the Clarion. When she compared it with another copy that I gave her she found it was my column on "How to Keep a Husband Happy."

Nothing unusual about that. Except the last person seen reading the paper was Prissy Hoskins (our town's proverbial Old Maid)!

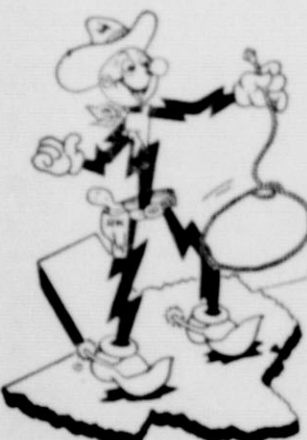

Well, if Prissy has finally got a man, more power to her. And more tolerance to both of them... because that's what my column was about. Tolerance of a husband's taste for old hats, old pipes, old friends, and mellow beer. And tolerance on the husband's part of a wife's tastes and habits.

From where I sit, nobody begrudges Prissy taking that clipping from the Clarion. But I'd like to hint that if she'd just subscribe, she'd get my thoughts on tolerance firsthand. And in return I'll treat her to a glass of beer.

World Community And Prayer Week Services Are Held

An all-day Week of Prayer and Self-Denial service, held Friday at the Methodist church by the Woman's Society of Christian Service was well-attended, and concluded with taking an offering for four colleges.

Mrs. Oscar Bruce was leader of the program on "The Christian Life," which was presented in five divisions as follows: Mrs. A. J. Daffern on "Love"; Mrs. G. E. Hamilton on "Dependence"; Mrs. S. S. Ripley on "Sacrifice"; Mrs. Clarence Jenkins on "Prayer"; and Mrs. Frank Pohl on "Vocation."

Following luncheon which was served in the church basement, and preceding the afternoon session, Mrs. John Hamilton conducted a brief devotional on "Prayer."

Mrs. H. H. Schweitzer presented data on four colleges, National College for Christian Workers, Kansas City, Mo.; Scarritt College for Christian Workers, Nashville, Tenn.; Hwa Nan College, Foochow, China and Methodist Institute, Ribeirao Preto, Brazil, which will be recipients of the offering of the Week of Prayer and Self-Denial services held throughout the world by Methodist women. The local organization contributed offerings totalling $70.

World Community Day
The Methodist women were joined by other women of the community in listening to a program on "The World is my Community" which was held at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. W. F. Jacobs led the program and made a short talk on the work which the United Council is doing toward European relief, and Mrs. Bill McCaghren conducted the devotional.

Five bundles of clothing and two boxes containing shoes and school supplies were dedicated and prepared for shipment to European school children.

The bundles were valued at $30.00 each, and the boxes at $10.00 each.

Judge and Mrs. G. E. Hamilton returned Friday from a business trip to Laredo.

FFA To Compete In District Contest

The Matador chapter of the FFA will go to Spur Saturday, November 15, to compete in a chapter conducting contest which will include chapters from Aspermont, Crosbyton, Paducah, Lorenzo, Spur, Patton Springs, Ralls and Jayton, which all together comprise the Spur district of the Future Farmers of America.

The program will include opening ceremonies, eight abilities or demonstrations of parliamentary procedure, and the initiation of Greenhorns, followed by a regular closing ceremony.
The chapter winning first place receives a banner for its meeting place, and the Matador chapter is trying hard to win one for MHS, according to President, Bobby Ray Thompson.

Did You Know That...

Matador graduates are ranking right along with students from Amarillo, Lubbock, and larger high schools all over Texas in scholastics in college work.

This is proved by the fact that Matador High School is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Any time our graduates fall below the par set by students from other schools, this school will be automatically expelled from the association.

Some Matador students who fail in college were sent to college against their will or did not have the capabilities required for college work in the first place.

There are some college students who had much rather blame this school for their failing grades than to admit they cut classes to spend time with girls, have fun etc.

That 75 per cent of the seniors who graduated from here last year are now in college, most of them doing good work.

Some Matador graduates are among the highest ranking of their college classes.

The students of MHS will all but swear that the courses up here could not have been harder.

Regardless of all this, our school officials are setting out to raise the standards of the school?

It seems to the staff that we may as well be in college ourselves if the courses are made stiffer.

TEAM SURPRISED AT PICTURE IN LUBBOCK PAPER

The football squad of the Matador Matadors was surprised and delighted to find their picture in the Lubbock Avalanche Journal last week. Accompanying the picture was a generous article on condition of the team etc.

Wondering who could have done it, they found that the praise goes to Douglas Meador, publisher of the Tribune, and as the picture makes apparent, a pretty good photographer too.
The picture was a group photo of the football squad taken by Mr. Meador during a workout.

The Fort Worth Star Telegram, Amarillo Times, and Amarillo Globe News, have also been carrying Matador game stories, and will continue to do so until the end of the season according to El Matador editor, Noran Spray.

Well, we wonder who Geraldine W. and Joyce R. were with Saturday? Bonner and Anette, Bobby T. and Pauline B. were seen, also, Saturday night. Cute kids, don't you think?

Well, dat's all de' doit' for this week.

Lettuce Profitable in Lubbock County

Jack R. West, farmer near Monroe, Lubbock county, sounds like he might be one-man competition for the Rio Grande Valley.

West owns 550 acres of irrigated land, with six wells. He has eight crops on the land, some already harvested, some to be harvested.

Potatoes were put in 162 acres, and produced up to 200 sacks per acre. The 140 acres in cotton harvested out to one and a fourth bales per acre.

Crops yet to be harvested are sugar beets, 70 acres; 22 acres of tomatoes; 40 acres of peas, to be combined; 29 acres of onions and 3 acres of bell peppers.

The surprise crop from the farm was lettuce. Some ten specialized irrigation farmers around Monroe planted a total of 230 acres of head lettuce, and West's 25 acres harvested to the tune of 300 crates per acre.

County Agent D. W. Sherrill says that the cool fall weather in that irrigated area is ideal for lettuce and the crop grossed about $300 per acre.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Scott visited friends and relatives in Seagraves over the week end.

Stinnett Girl On Grid Team

STINNETT, Nov. 8— A 120-pound girl will play right tackle for Stinnett High School next Friday and Coach Truman Johnson thinks she'll do all right.

When the girl, 16-year-old Frankie Groves, asked the privilege of performing for Stinnett at the line position, Coach Johnson was a little dubious.

First, he wasn't sure what the rules said about it. Next, he didn't know what her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Groves, would say. So he thumbed the Texas Interscholastic League rule book and could find nothing that said a girl couldn't play football. Then he asked her parents and they declared if she wanted to play it would be all right with them.

Coach Johnson, whose team lost 26-0 to Panhandle last night, said he would have used Frankie in that game but she had a turned ankle. It wasn't in football, however; she fell down some stairs.

Frankie, who thinks woman suffrage should include the masculine sports, says she has played football all her life.

She's only 5 feet, 4 inches tall but she's quite an athlete. Last year she played basketball on the school's girls team and liked it immensely but says right now it's the pigskin game that interests her.

Stinnett plays Groom in a homecoming clash next Friday and Frankie will get her chance.

Who knows—maybe Frankie will be opening the way for feminine All-American with her request for the tackle spot. Also, there may be the psychological side, because how many high school boys would be so uncouth as to play rough when the "fellow" across the line wasn't a fellow?

For the period 1942-46, 500 million bushels of wheat were used for flour in the United States, and 8 million bushels for breakfast cereals.

If citrus fruit trees are properly spaced so that plenty of sun reaches the fruit, the general juicy quality, color, and vitamin C content are increased.

Grade School Taking Capabilities Tests

Students of Matador grade schools are taking capabilities tests this week to find out exactly where they stand in the subjects they are taking, according to school superintendent, Bert Ezell.

"Once it is ascertained what a child is doing, he will be given a mental aptitude test, to see what he is mentally capable of doing," Ezell said, "then the teacher will know what to expect of the individual, and if he is below this standard, the teacher can give the child special attention."

If it is found that on a whole, the students are not keeping up to what they are mentally capable of doing, teachers will be instructed to stiffen the courses in that they will grade stricter, and demand more from students.

Such tests will also be given in high school at a later date, Mr. Ezell said.

Football Squad Sees Tech-Arizona Tilt

The Matador Matadors were transported to Lubbock Saturday, by way of private cars, where they saw Texas Tech tilt Arizona University by a 41-28 score.

Practically all the squad went, and besides enjoying the ball game immensely, most found pleasure in talking to numerous MHS graduates who are now attending Tech.

Cars were furnished by coach Red Amonett, Leo Archer, and W. F. McCaghren.

RAILROAD BUILDERS BELIEVED IN COUNTRY

The building of the first railroad west of the Mississippi is only one of the hundreds of stories of courage and perseverance in the development of America's great railway system. There was no timidity about the railroad builders, they believed in themselves and the country and they gladly took their chances with their chins high. They opened up America. They played a major part in making the United States a great world power in a few decades.

LUBBOCK EDITOR OFF TO EUROPE

Chas. A. Guy, editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal is on his way to Berlin, on a tour of U. S. and British occupied zones in Germany and Austria, and also to study conditions in some parts of unoccupied Europe.

Guy left Washington today in a special mission Army C-54 plane with 13 other American newspapermen making the trip at the invitation of Secretary of the Army Kenneth C. Royall and Gen. Lucius D. Clay, who commands this nation's occupational forces in Europe. Flying directly to Berlin, the group will meet for opening conferences with General Clay and members of his staff.

Secretary Royall has informed the touring editors that they will have every opportunity to write their findings without censorship. All members of the party have been fully accredited as foreign correspondents. The Lubbock editor will make an attempt to file a story daily during his 30-day stay in Europe. Guy told Douglas Meador, Tribune publisher, several weeks ago that he wanted to apply the "West Texas yardstick" to conditions in Europe. Account of his trip will be published daily in the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal in "The Plainsman" column.

landowners to indicate their desires regarding the proposed plan to close the county against hunting. The vote was almost unanimous. The petitioners will ask each signer to promise "not to hunt or allow hunting on his land." Fields and pastures will be posted with "no hunting" and "no trespassing" signs. Part of the group of landowners favored employing a paid and deputized game warden (perhaps more than one).

Brought together by the common bond of necessity and emergency the enthusiastic Monday night meeting of members pumped new blood into lagging game management association. Present set of officers and directors were reelected with Gus Bird as president and Elbert Reeves as secretary. Members asked to be sent statement for dues and offered additional funds that might be needed to promote the closed season movement.

Antelope Eat Crops
Wild antelopes are eating ranchman Harry Carter's valuable feed and he wants damages from the owners. He told the group of landowners Monday night that the herd of antelope placed on the Harry Campbell ranch by the State Game Commission several years ago, had been destroying his crop all year. He had tried every known measure to discourage them but his efforts had been futile. The antelope continue to go through and over the fence. He said he had reported the problem but that no action had resulted. Mr. Carter said that shooting straight up in effort to scare the antelope away was a waste of time. Chairman Emmons promised to write the State Game Fish and Oyster Commission immediately in effort to secure a solution to the problem.

wood. Driving to the four-yard line for a first down, the Chiefs were held for three consecutive tries. A center plunge on the fourth try was effective. Albert Marshall led a solid wall of Matadors defense to block Simon's conversion kick.

The entire Matador team showed a fine quality of mettle in the Crosbyton game. Fans placed extra helpings of praise on line-backers Leo Archer and Colonel Garth, L. E. Wayne Spray, who blocked a punt and LT Norman Spray who once broke through and downed the punter before the ball was kicked.

Team Drilling Hard
Waltzing up against the District top bracket team Friday night, the Lockney Longhorns, the Matadors have spent a week of intensive drilling. Out-classed and out-weighted, the Matadors expect no quarter, nor do they expect to give any except that which is marked up against them on the score board. The game, called at 7:30 is at Lockney. It is believed that a large cast of supporting fans will drive up to the Cap to add their sideline support.
