Are Strangers Controlling Our Lives?

Column and was written by Brian Quinn,

After watching the recent Breyer confirmation hearings, my wife, a high school government teacher, raised an interesting question. Why do we allow strangers to control our lives?

Each year she quizzes her students on the names of our elected leaders. Annar-

Yet, when it comes to naming members of the judiciary, there's generally nothing but silence.

To test whether this lack of informa-tion was restricted to school students, I conducted my own little survey. The results were quite amazing. Upon being asked to name at least three members of

READY TO GET TO WORK — Rick Copp, formerly of Lazbuddle, is ready to get to work as the new Motley County ISD Principal. He and his wife, Lana have one son, Jody, 17, who will be a Freshman at Texas A&M at Galveston, and one daughter, Kayla, 10, will be a 5th grader. Mr. Copp taught Vo-Ag for 15 years before becoming a Principal at Lazbuddle. He enjoys hunting and fishing and scuba diving. Mr. Copp stated, "I am glad to be here, and everyone I have met has really welcomed us. I plan to work to get the academic program up to the same level as the athletic program."

During the week of July 11-16 approximately 6,000 FFA members and guests from across the state converged on Ft. Worth for the 66th Annual Texas FFA convention. Motley County was well represented among the sea of Blue and Gold as fifteen members and guests took part in the annual gathering.

Motley County FFA members in attendance were Jeremy Jones, Brandon Blanch, Chad Graves, Kevin Keltz, Brad Thacker, Chad Lawrence, and Cody

Thacker, Chad Lawrence, and Cody Timmons, The members were accompa-nied by FFA Advisor Jim Cooper and his wife, Judy. Other guests joining the group were Mr. and Mrs Jeff Thacker and Blair, and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Keltz and Kandi.

In a special ceremony, State FFA President Scot Pollock conferred the Lone Star FFA Degree upon 1100 members, and presented a plaque to the Stars of Texas winners. The Lone Star Degree is the highest degree to be achieved on the state level and is awarded to those mem bers who excell in Leadership, Citizen-ship, Supervised Agriculture Experience and take an active part in FFA activities. Brandon Blanch and Jeremy Jones each received the certificate and Gold Emblem key that is presented to less than 2% of the state membership each year.

Cody Timmons was one of the ten finalists for the Star Greenhand of Texas Award. Cody was presented with the Area I Star Greenhand plaque for his achievements in Leadership, Judging, and supervised experience program.

Fun Night at the convention is a showcase of talented young people who compete in the talent contest. Ten talent teams entertain the audience each year in the special event that is one of the highlights of the convention. Brad Thacker and Kevin Keltz represented Area I and had the packed convention hall on its feet and clapping with a combination of songs and fancy footwork. The talent contest was won by a young man who played the fiddle and delighted the audience with his rendition of Orange Blossom Special. The group was able to take time from

Ms. Brady organized the fair with various health organizations within our service area. See related story on the Health Fair.

Immediately following the meal and some fine entertainment from Lorita & the Band, the business meeting was called to order by board President Ned Ward. Mrs. Ward also served as Master of Ceremonies for the meeting. He introduced special guests attending the meeting and asked Board Secretary, Steve Cochran to read the Notice of 1994 Annual Meeting and Certificate of Mailing. This was followed by the introduction of Directors, and nominees for the three areas up for election. After the introduction of election judges, the ballots were picked up and taken to be counted.

While the votes were being counted, Barbee Word, from the accounting firm of Bolinger, Segars, Gilbert & Moss gave the members an audit report of the finan cial condition of the cooperative. President Ward then addressed the crowd about changes coming for cooperatives all through the state. The possible merger with Midwest Electric was also addressed by President Ward.

Following the President's report, was the Manager's report presented by Gen-eral Manager, Ron Golden. During Mr. Golden's report, he expressed appreciation for the DEC employees and directors who had played a part in making this such an outstanding year. Mr. Golden also acknowledged that dealing with government agencies, both on the federal level and state level plays a role in how we operate our business.

Mary Beth Guy stated that "in 1907 when the TFWC was 10 years old there were 10,000 members; in the 1930s there were over 70,000; and today there are 8,429 members! We are looking at having 20,000 by the year 2000! We need more money in the scholarshp funds and there were ways mentioned that this could be done for only the interest from the principal is used. We need to educate our young people and this is one way we can young people and this is one way we can help - scholarships." It was mentioned to the group Zig Ziegler has written a program of leadership for TFWC and it will be presented at the South Central Convention in San Antonio, Oct. 7-9.

The theme of this administration is "Unity in Diversity - Our Legacy To Learn, Labor, Love Together". The President of local clubs leads the members and should attend local, district and state meetings. She should promote programs, see that the dues are sent in on time, take see that the dues are sent in on time, take the GFWC magazine. The vice president takes over for the president; the treasurer takes care of and spends the money; the recording secretary is the eyes and ears of the club for she keeps records and tells what kind of meeting, how many officers were present, minutes approved, treasur-ers report, balance on hand at the last meeting, amount in the bank, amount spent and balance on hand at "today's" meeting, two copies of all reports. The secretary signs the minutes when approved and not before.

Marion Gamersfelder is "reporting" chairman. She told the group that a program is a program and a project is a project.

During this administration there will be only one copy to send rather than the myriad that has been set in the years past. This report goes to the district chairper-

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Years may

EXERCISE AND WEIGHT MANAGEMENT

Ingrained in our society is a belief that being overweight is caused by overeat-ing. This belief is expressed in an endless array of calorie-restricted diets, diet books, chemical appetite suppressants and other weight loss aids. However, we know from experience that low-calorie diets alone rarely work.

Research shows that those who are successful at losing weight, more than 95 percent will regain the weight lost within Exercise and physical activity go hand-in-hand with weight management. Why? What's so important about exercise? here's a list of very good reasons to make exercise one of your lifestyle choices:

—The more calories your body burns, the more weight you can lose. Everytime you make a choice to move rather than sit or lie around, you use more calories.

—If you exercise daily a higher pro-will decrease your appetite.

— Physical activity speeds up your metabolism while you are exercising.

—As you lose weight, your body will feel firm because your muscles are toned.

 —Your cardiovascular system will improve its ability to respond to stress - Physical activity added to a dull routine will relieve some of the boredom and loneliness that can make you want to

- You will be in a better mood and have more fun and enjoy life more. It is a misconception that training causes body fat to turn into muscle and that when you stop training for a while the muscle turns back to fat. Muscle and fat cells are completely different, structurally and functionally. However, weight

EXERCISING IN HOT WEATHER weather becomes hot and when the weather becomes hot and humid, it is important to adjust your exercise routine to avoid health risks.

According to Ray Irvin, director of the Methodist Lifestyle Centre, "The best time to exercise is in the early morning or late evening when it is cooler." Wearing loose clothing while exercising also will help by allowing body heat to escape.

The most important thing to remem.

The most important thing to remem.

The most important thing to remember while exercising in hot weather is to drink plenty of fluids. Drinking the right kinds of fluids is also essential. Water is the best fluid to drink while exercising. Soft drinks and fruit juices contain 10 to 12 percent sugar and can cause cramps, stomach upset and diarrhea if not diluted first. "Fluid replacement drinks," such as Gatorade, are good for hot weather exercising. You can make your own by diluting fruit juice to half strength with water and adding one teaspoon of salt per gallon.

Following are some guidelines for drinking fluids during hot weather exer-

Drink 1.5 cups of water 15 influences before exercising.
 Drink .5 cups of water every 15
minutes while exercising.
 Drink 2 cups of water for every pound lost to sweat after exercising.
 Drink cooler fluids that are 40 to 50

— Do not drink fluids that contain more than 10 percent sugar. — You can drink "fluid replacement drinks" while exercising.

"Remember that thirst is not a good indicator of how much fluid your body needs," said Irvin. "It is important to drink while exercising in hot weather even if you are not thirsty.

This notice concerns property tax rates for City of Roaring Springs. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

A New Way

What makes Christianity the new and living way's

A Person and that One is Christ.
(Ephesians 3:17)
A Privilege and an honor to follow Jesus (Hebrews 2:9)
A Plan of salvation that centers in the Lord. (Acts 2:36)

A Platform of unity set forth clearly in Ephesians 4.
A Passion that compels us to lovingly

obey (John 14:15)
A Promise of glory divine on a golden (1 Peter 1:9)

Such overwhelming blessings ought to cause us to live soberly, righteously, and godly as Titus 2:12 challenges us to do. Translation out of darkness into light (Collossians 1:13) provides us with incentive, motivation, and hope. With purpose of heart we will cleave to the Lord (Acts 11:24) and be a solid rock in the habitation of God (1 Peter 2: 5-

I want to live above the world Though Satan's darts at me are hurled For faith has caught the heavenly sound The song of saints on higher ground.

Social Security Tips

by Terry Richardson

A WOMAN RAISES THE QUESTION OF EQUITY IN SOCIAL SECURITY

A recent caller to our office said, "I'm a married woman who is working and paying social Security taxes. My married sister is not working and is not paying Social Security taxes. When we're old enough to collect Social Security, my sister's benefits will be based on her husband's earnings even though she has never worked. It only seems fair that my benefit should be based on both my earnbenefit should be based on both my earnings and my husband's earnings. Otherwise, the Social Security taxes I've been paying will have been wasted."

The woman's assertion is one I hear fairly frequently these days - but it is based on some wrong assumptions.

First let me explain some program

First, let me explain some program basics. If a woman is married, she can receive retirement benefits either on her own record or on her husband's. At age 65, a spouse would get 50 percent of what the wage earner is entitled to at 65). But whenever a woman is eligible for benefits as both a worker and a spouse, she gets the higher benefit of the two.

It is important to state that a working woman's Social Security taxes are not "wasted." In fact, they could be considered a very good investment. The married woman who called me has several impor-

Admittedly, the independence courts enjoy is important, but that very same independence creates a chance for abuse.

So, the risk must be minimized. The easi-tant advantages over her sister, just be cause she has her own Social Security eligibility. Four examples come immediately to mind:

* She may get a higher benefit when she retires than she would if her benefit was based solely on her husband's earn-disability benefits.

* If she retires before her hsuband, she can receive benefits based on her own earnings, even though her husband continues to work.

* In the event of her death, her survivors may be eligible for benefits based on her earnings.

Also, it would not be fair to single workers if a working woman, who qualifies for a full benefit based on her husband's earnings, also received a full benefit based on her earnings. To do so would give her a higher benefit than a single worker with the same earnings.

In the whole issue the whole issue the worker with the same worker. The worker with the whole issue the whole issue the worker with the whole issue the worker with the worker w cise of care in selecting judges. At the very least, we should find out who they are. The extent of their real life experience, legal intelligence, and integrity are also important factors to investigate.

Texans are wary nowadays of strangers. Unlike Issac, in the Bible, we shouldn't let people trick us into believing they are something they are not. Nor should we allow strangers to control our wallets, our taxes, our jobs, our families, our homes and our freedom. est way of doing this is through the exer-

thus making the water more potable.
"In essence, what we're doing is buying time until somebody comes up with a better way to desalt the river," said Dennis Duke, manager for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in Truscott, about 80 miles southwest of Wichita Falls.

The project was launched by a 1957 U.S. Public Health Survey that measured about 5,400 tons of natural and manmade salts flowing into the river each day. Chloride contamination made the water mostly unusable for cities, industries and farmers in the four states beside its path, Slowly the salt is subsiding.

State officials in Texas and Oklahoma helped in the 1970s by agreeing to remove chlorides that polluted the river from industrial sources like abandoned oil wells. That agreement, as of 1993, had cost Texas and Oklahoma $116.75 million — $6.7 million per year to eliminate 85 percent of the manmade salts, Glenn

The federal government, meanwhile, has spent $91.25 million on the Truscott lake, a dam and pump station near Guthrie and an earthen dike at Estelline. Those phases are removing about 411 tons of salt per day, documents show.

Planners say their next step is construction of a brine lake north of Crowell.

That lake would function like the sophisticated setup in Truscott, where digital readouts in a control room monitor the principle. The Truscott lake fujished in pipeline. The Truscott lake, finished in 1987 with a 100-year lifespan, is getting deeper and saltier, Duke said.

"The best thing ... one of these ranchers wastream mentioned that his cattle are drinking out of the creek," he said.
"They've never done that before."

Prospects for a repeat of the 1993 cotton crop have all but disappeared on the High Plains according to Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers (PCG). Best estimates peg dryland cotton losses as high as 1 million acres.

In general the High Plains will have a significantly smaller crop in 1994. Estimates of the crops eventual size range from around 2 million to just over 2.5

Irrigated acreage is mostly holding its own and has the potential to be as good or better than 1993 in many fields. Prospects for overall production from the area have dwindled to well below 3 million bales as a result of the dryland cotton

'Dry weather continues to be the major problem we face this year," according to Donald Johnson, PCG Executive Vice President. "Every day we hear about more acreage that is completely lost or which

"Yield potential is below 100 pounds in many fields," explains Kreig. "Most of the acreage is so far gone that in areas recently receiving an inch or more of rainfall, plants have failed to recover to a point that they could make additional

Following his successful heart transplant operation PCG Chairman of the Board Wayne Huffaker of Tahoka has asked PCG to passalong his sincere thanks to everyone on the High Plains and across the rest of the Cotton Belt for the support they have given him during his time in the

THANK YOU

CONGRATULATIONS AND THANKS

Congratulations and our sincere appreciation to the citizens of Motley County for being recognized by the state and regional American Heart Association for surpassing our goal for the 1994 Heart Fund Drive and Memorial donations. We also thank former residents of Motley County for the donations you gave through our local association

Our hearts are overflowing with pride for this Motley County AHA Award of Achievement and your support. May it be a benefit to you and your loved ones.
