Plans Are Cancelled To Send Fighter Escorts With Allied Transport Planes

BERLIN, April 6. (AP)—Russia publicly and officially expressed regret today about the "unfortunate" Soviet-British plane crash over Berlin yesterday which cost 15 lives.

UMT FAVORED

Discord Does Not Hamper Draft Drive

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP)—A note of discord in the Senate Armed Services Committee over universal military training today failed to throw the majority off key.

There still was plenty of harmony for revival of the draft. The discordant note was sounded by Senator Edward V. Robertson (R-Wyo.) in advance of the committee's meeting today to start writing draft and UMT legislation.

Robertson, a committee member, said the administration is trying to "ride" UMT through Congress "on the coattails of selective service."

There is a lot of support in Congress for a limited draft. There is a good deal of stiff opposition to UMT.

Chairman Gurney (R-SD) said the Senate Armed Services group "undoubtedly" will decide first whether to handle the two programs in one bill or separately.

Gurney is for both UMT and the draft, but he declined to say whether he favors packaging them.

Said Robertson: "I don't think a 'single package' bill would pass. But I predict that if there were two bills, Congress would pass selective service rapidly and do nothing about UMT this session."

The Wyoming senator said he wants selective service because (1) it would strengthen the nation's armed forces quickly and (2) "the only language Russia understands is power."

Director For Aid Will Be Named

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP)—President Truman today cleared away all but the final obstacle to putting the European recovery program into full force.

The appointment of an administrator for the multi-billion dollar anti-communism enterprise was officially promised by nightfall today or tomorrow at the latest.

Paul G. Hoffman, South Bend, Ind., automobile manufacturer, has been mentioned most frequently for the post. But more recent advance speculation also has included Secretary of the Interior Krug.

That didn't jibe with what the Stassen people said. Senator Joseph McCarthy, Stassen delegate, said a cross-section poll of Milwaukee's all-important voting districts indicated Stassen would win but that Dewey and MacArthur would have a knock-down and drag-out battle for second place.

Dewey backers weren't claiming anything. It was almost like the night before Christmas with them.

Practically all of the politicians were agreed that MacArthur will go over big or won't be a factor at all. A scattering of delegates, placing him in third position, almost certainly would put him out of the Republican presidential race.

On the other hand, he could sweep the state's 27 GOP convention delegates and thus make himself the man to be reckoned with in the Nebraska popularity primary one week from today.

A new spokesman, Judge Stephen J. McMahon, fresh out of MacArthur's civil administration set-up in Japan, voiced that camp's last-minute prediction. It was: "Douglas MacArthur will win Wisconsin's primary by such an overwhelming majority that he will go into the Republican national convention as the people's choice for president."

The official Russian account of yesterday's crash incident said the Russian fighter plane hit the British ship as it was trying to land. The official British account quoted eyewitnesses as saying the fighter pilot was "freaking" when he hit the British ship.

The British plane, carrying 14 persons, including two Americans, crashed in the Russian zone of the city. All aboard were killed. The bodies lay in the wreckage nearly 12 hours before the Russian command finally gave its consent early today for their removal.

The Russian fighter hit the ground in the British sector of the city. The pilot's body was removed four hours after the crash.

Russian-controlled papers mentioned the tragedy in items of one or two paragraphs. They made no mention of the fact that the British commander in Germany, Sir Brian Robertson, made a personal protest to the Russian commander-in-chief, Marshal Vassily D. Sokolov, and the latter's pledge that Allied aircraft henceforth would be assured unhindered access to Berlin.

A sharp decrease from records of the past two years was apparent early this afternoon in number of votes cast in the Big Spring city election.

At 1 p. m. a total of 287 ballots had been issued, less than two-thirds of the volume for the same period a year ago.

Normally something like 60 percent of the city election votes are cast after 1 p. m., but such a trend this year still would leave the total number of votes far short of the 1,263 tabulated a year ago.

Voters are choosing three city commissioners to serve two-year terms from a field of candidates composed of H. W. Wright, George Sims, Dr. C. W. Deats, Jack Y. Smith, T. J. A. Robinson and Doyle R. Thomas.

Mobile Phone Service To Be Ready Soon

With towers complete and other equipment being installed, highway mobile radio telephone service will be available for Big Spring and area soon.

Big Spring will be served by a transmitter here and receivers which have been installed at Stanton and Colorado City, said Don Gaither, Southwestern Bell manager. The period of testing service is to be undertaken before long.

When the complete highway system is in operation it will be possible for a properly equipped vehicle to drive from the Red river on the north and the Gulf and Brownsville on the south, and from Texarkana on the East to Odessa and near the New Mexico line on the west, and keep in touch by telephone with any other Bell telephone or connecting telephone in the nation, according to Gaither.

Transmitters and receivers in the area are links in the state-wide and nation-wide system. At present there are two gaps in the east-west route along highway 80 which will be filled by transmitters at Longview, Abilene and Sweetwater. The latter two are increases over original plans which called for a single transmitter at Abilene.

Receivers in this area are connected to the switchboard in the Big Spring exchange. Any calls from automobiles in the area will be picked up by one of the receivers, whichever is closest, and carried by wire to the switchboard. Connections to phones anywhere in the state and nation may be made conventionally. Of course cars may be contacted from regular exchanges. Receivers pick up messages from cars within a radius of 20 miles or each receiver, while transmitters have an effective range of about 40 miles.

ANDRESEN CAUTIOUS

Says Wheat Exports To Depend On Crop

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP)—Rep. August H. Andresen (R-Minn.) said today this country cannot afford to gamble with added shipments of wheat to Europe until 1948 crop prospects are pinned down.

He told a reporter he is presently opposed to moves by the State and Agriculture Departments to have Congress lift the restriction on the amount of wheat which can be exported.

Andresen is the author of this restriction. It requires this country to have 150 million bushels of wheat on hand July 1. It was passed last year.

Bills supported by the State and Agriculture Departments have been introduced to throw out this limitation at once.

Andresen said he is concerned over reports of current dust storms in the dust bowl area of parts of Kansas, Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska. He said the House Special Food Investigating Committee of which he is chairman — is making a study of the dust storms to ascertain what damage is being done. "No move should be made by Congress to lift this 150 million bushel wheat carry-over provision at least until the middle of May," Andresen said.

"By that time we should have a fairly good idea of just what the 1948 wheat crop prospects are. In view of the dust storms of the Southwest, this may prove to be a wise restriction on the amount of wheat that can be exported. I am going to insist that before this provision is repealed an exact determination be made to discover what damage is being done in the dust bowl area."

Jews In Uniform Kill Six Britishers

JERUSALEM, April 6. (AP)—Jews in military and police uniforms killed six British soldiers and stole arms in a raid on a British Army camp south of Haifa today, authorities in Haifa announced.

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP)—The nation paid special tribute to the men of its Army today—the 31st anniversary of America's entry into World War I.

President Truman and his cabinet were to lead the country's observance of Army Day by reviewing a parade here of special contingents of soldiers, sailors, marines and national guardsmen.

Across the country high ranking figures of all the armed services were to speak at civic gatherings. For each occasion the theme was the same—preparedness through increased manpower.

In his St. Patrick's Day address to Congress President Truman used this phrase to set a keynote for preparedness now—"We must be prepared to pay the price of peace, or assuredly we shall pay the price of war."

Truman Says Solons Are Causing Crisis

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP)—President Truman insists "there would be no necessity for any world emergency" if Congress would follow his leadership. He said so in a letter to Rep. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.), who came back with a few sharp words of his own.

Johnson, a long-time administration stalwart, made public the President's letter, which also asserted: "If there was a little less emergency talk and a little more activity on the part of Congress to meet the international problem we would be able to meet it."

Coal Walkout Is Spreading

East Pennsylvania Miners Stop Work

POTTSVILLE, Pa., April 6. (AP)—The soft coal strike spread today to the Eastern Pennsylvania anthracite field.

Miners reported but refused to work at a dozen collieries in this section and the nearby Ashland district. A preliminary check showed more than 6,000 men idle.

John Eagan, of Pottsville, a board member of District 9, United Mine Workers, said the stoppage "apparently is in sympathy with the bituminous miners."

"It's something the men decided themselves," Eagan told a reporter. "There hasn't been any order by the district, and the district has not sanctioned the strike."

Operators said they had no advance warning. Edward A. Lynch, personnel director of the big Philadelphia and Reading Coal & Iron Company, said he had "no idea of any grievance."

The stoppage, he said, came "without warning" to the company. Meanwhile in Washington soft coal operators, obeying a court order, offered today to meet with John L. Lewis on the mine pension dispute.

The operators proposed a conference at 3 p. m. CST., just three hours after the offer was made. There was no immediate indication whether Lewis would accept or reject.

A court order issued Saturday by Federal Judge Matthew McGuffee under the Taft-Hartley act required the operators to act.

The court also directed Lewis and his United Mine Workers to end the 23-day-old soft coal strike and negotiate the dispute over pensions for retired miners.

Demo Leaders Hit Special Session

HILLSBORO, April 6. (AP)—Eighteen members of the State Democratic Executive Committee have expressed themselves against a special session of the legislature to consider a preferential primary.

Chairman R. W. Calvert of the committee said today 18 of the 23 members of his committee who have replied to a questionnaire are against the move. Two were for the session and three had no fixed decision.

Calvert, himself, is against the move. No reply has been received from Mrs. R. A. Thompson of Gonzalez, vice chairman. Calvert polled the executive committee upon the request of Gov. Beauford H. Jester. Jester made the request after some 30 state legislators asked for a special session.

The legislators seek the primary to guide Texas' electoral vote in the forthcoming presidential election.

Building Workers Will Seek Wage Increase

DALLAS, April 6. (AP)—Wage hikes will be sought for 9,000 construction workers here in negotiations to begin May 1 with Dallas County employers.

ago that Alaskan defense forces consist of only 7,000 troops and less than 100 fighter planes. At the same time, Navy officials reported that one of three mystery submarines said to have been sighted in the Pacific was spotted off the Aleutians.

Present plans call for an increase to 15,000 in the number of troops manning the Alaskan outpost, but there has been no public statement on what additional air strength is scheduled for that area.

However, the armed services indicated further expansion is in prospect in their federal register notice yesterday of a public hearing in Juneau, Alaska. May 4 on plans to restrict the Aleutians area. A spokesman for Secretary of Defense Forrestal said the whole matter was aimed at "regularizing" what already is going on.

Synthetic Gas Seen As Boost For Petroleum

GALVESTON, April 6. (AP)—Gasoline made from coal probably will cost more than petroleum gasoline but automobile owners won't have to worry about supply, a research scientist said here today.

Dr. R. W. Krebs of the Esso Laboratories, Baton Rouge, La., predicted coal gasoline supply will be sufficient to last over 1,000 years.

The Louisiana scientist made his predictions while presenting a technical paper before the thirty-sixth annual convention of the Western Petroleum Refiners Association.

He said anticipated world petroleum demands of the next 10 years make it imperative that the oil industry investigate the possibilities of synthetic oil from natural gas, coal, shale and tar sands.

H. T. Ashton, St. Louis, president of the association, warned the 1,000 petroleum refiners that "sinister influences" plotting confusion and disunion are being directed toward the petroleum industry.

"There is potential evil afoot to wreck this industry in the public's mind," the Socony-Vacuum executive said. "We are being criticized by the misinformed at the time of our greatest achievements," he added.

Ashton did not elaborate on his charges but other convention speakers vigorously attacked proposals for federal control of the oil industry.

Krebs said petroleum industry spokesmen have predicted that the world's demand for oil by 1949 will approximate 10 million barrels per day and that foreign consumption will increase very rapidly through increased mechanization.

"It is not strange that the petroleum industry has been actively looking, since before the war, at other sources of liquid fuels," he said.

He called attention to Secretary of Interior J. A. Krug's recent proposal that $9 billion be spent during the next decade for plants to produce two million barrels per day of synthetic oil.

Two such plants now are under construction at Brownsville, Tex., and Garden City, Kan.

Youths Are Seized, Marihuana Found

SAN ANTONIO, April 6. (AP)—Two men, 19 and 22 years of age, respectively, both out on bond pending trial at the next term of federal court in Laredo, were in custody again today after officers seized approximately 28 pounds of marihuana following their arrest here yesterday.

ONE GOP CANDIDATE MAY FALL

Critical Wisconsin Primary Underway

MILWAUKEE, April 6. (AP)—Wisconsin voters punch the ticket today on three Republican presidential aspirants.

Some politicians think it may be a transfer to oblivion for one of three candidates—Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, and former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota.

As a result of polls in Milwaukee, Dewey was given more chance than previously to pull up among the contenders, despite bear stories coming out of his headquarters here indicating that he might be the third man in the critical race.

Practically all of the politicians were agreed that MacArthur will go over big or won't be a factor at all. A scattering of delegates, placing him in third position, almost certainly would put him out of the Republican presidential race.

On the other hand, he could sweep the state's 27 GOP convention delegates and thus make himself the man to be reckoned with in the Nebraska popularity primary one week from today.

U.S. Plan For Foreign Troops In Palestine Stirs Up U.N.

LAKE SUCCESS, April 6. (AP)—An American suggestion that foreign troops be prepared for Palestine duty touched off speculation today whether the United States is willing to send soldiers.

Holy Land trusteeship plan. Austin did not commit his government to participate in the international force nor say which countries should dispatch soldiers.

to pay for maintaining troops out of their own pocket. In some quarters, this was viewed as a financial barrier to any small nation undertaking such a commitment.

On the other hand the possibility of Russian troops in Palestine is understood to have caused concern in Washington's global planning.

While there was no official Moscow reaction, it was to be supposed that Russia would want Red Army soldiers in the Holy Land if other great powers stationed men there.

The program also covered these points: 1—The UN through the trusteeship council, would be the administering authority.

2—The agreement should make specific provisions for immigration and land purchase. 3—The trusteeship would terminate as soon as a majority of the Jews and Arabs agreed on a plan of government.

American spokesmen said Austin hoped to have at least part of his program approved by the Security Council before the special session of the general assembly on Palestine, which opens April 16.

U.S. Reclamation Draws Blast From Texas Water Men

AUSTIN, April 6. (AP)—Texas Water Conservation Association directors were told Monday that this state's only hope for consistent treatment from the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation is a major change in the national administration.

J. E. Sturrock, general manager of the association, said, "The only reason I am voting Republican in November is to get rid of Krug." He was referring to Julius Krug, secretary of the Interior, who was sharply criticized at the water association directors meeting.

President Guy C. Jackson of Anahac said that all Texas has been able to get from the Bureau of Reclamation is "double talk and tricky actions." Jackson was referring to Texas' unsuccessful efforts to remove rice growing areas from the 160-acre limitation on the size of farms in U. S. Reclamation Bureau projects.

The Bureau of Reclamation has long been the target of criticisms from the Texas Water Conservation Association but political angles boiled into the open at the directors' meeting for the first time.

Sturrock was reporting on his recent trip to Washington during which he and Jackson spoke for the association on numerous water and conservation project bills pending in Congress.

"A number of western leaders told me that there is lots of talk that there will be a change in the White House and that we can only get rid of those fellows that way," Sturrock said.

Two Texas Convicts Are Still At Large

HOUSTON, April 6. (AP)—One of two convicts who escaped from prison farms yesterday remained at large today.

Johnny Crommons, 34, fled the Central State Prison Farm at Sugar Land yesterday afternoon.

Ira McCoy, 29, escaped from the Retriever Prison Farm near Angleton.

McCoy was caught at Angleton in a red jeep belonging to a telephone line crew.

Both men were working in the fields when they escaped.

THIRD PARTY PLANS CANDIDATE FOR THE TEXAS GOVERNORSHIP

DALLAS, April 6. (AP)—Texas supporters of Henry A. Wallace today were in the state political picture with a promised third party candidate for governor.

Herman Wright, chairman of the Texas Wallace for President Committee, said here a candidate would be nominated "at the proper time" and indicated this might be at a convention in Houston April 25.

The Houston convention has been called to form a third party to support the candidacy of Wallace for president in Texas.

Wright gave the first hint of third party candidate for governor in a speech before the Dallas Wallace for President Club.

He told the club "Some of the so-called liberals in Texas are going to be embarrassed when they have to choose between a third party candidate for governor and Beauford Jester — a man they fought tooth and nail two years ago."

Later, Wright confirmed that "in my opinion" a nominee would be selected on a third party ticket to run.

He said he was in no position to say who might be selected.

Alexandria Police End Strike Suddenly

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, April 6. (AP)—Alexandria's striking police force announced suddenly this noon its intention to return to work immediately.

The police struck yesterday, touching off a day of wild rioting and arson which cost 20 lives.

A statement from representatives of the 3,000-man force said they would go back to work because of a feeling of duty and in view of the situation here.

The strike, called to enforce wage increase demands, collapsed only a few minutes before expiration of a government go-back-to-work deadline.

Random firing today claimed two lives. The two deaths brought the official death toll to 15 civilians and seven policemen.

The policemen defied the government order earlier today, and when some 30 reported for work many were hauled from traffic posts by strikers. Looters were out early, prowling the streets behind the backs of soldiers patrolling to prevent a recurrence of yesterday's rioting.

Yesterday's damage was estimated at millions of dollars.

Most of this big seaport's factories were not running today because workers didn't show up. Docks were idle.

Army patrols in brown gun carriers and troopers afoot fired into the air occasionally to disperse loitering crowds, but no real clashes were reported to compare with yesterday's.

A "down with the government" demonstration begun in Cairo, to which the strike spread, died stillborn when troops fired over the heads of a gathering mob. Ten demonstrators were seized by soldiers. No casualties were reported.

Wallace Seeks Place On Ticket In Massachusetts

BOSTON, April 6. — Henry A. Wallace supporters set out today to get 100,000 signatures to place his name on the presidential ballot in Massachusetts after formally organizing the Progressive Party in the Bay State.

Leaders of the new third party movement in Massachusetts expressed confidence they would get the signatures easily, but one veteran Democratic leader predicted they would find it difficult.

Charles McGue, former Democratic state chairman, who is regarded as an expert on vote registration, said: "I wouldn't be surprised if the Wallace people even fail to get enough signatures."

Actually, Wallace needs signatures of 85,000 qualified voters—three per cent of the vote for governor at the last state election. Veteran political campaigners, however, usually try for twice the number required to cover possible challenges.

A new Progressive Party—the banner Wallace will run under—also was formed in Connecticut over the week end.

Plainview 4-H's To Auction Cattle

KANSAS CITY, April 6. (AP)—Cattle from the Plainview, Tex., fat stock show will be auctioned here today by eleven 4-H club boys from Hale County, Texas.

The boys yesterday toured Kansas City with W. L. Trice, Hale County extension agent, and plan to return to Texas sometime today.

Seventy-five lambs sold by the boys brought premium prices at the stockyards. Francis Terrell, Plainview, who did not make the trip, received 50 cents a pound for the grand champion of the Plainview show and 35 cents for the reserve champion.

Spring lambs of the members brought 24 cents and wool lambs 22 cents. They brought about $1.50 more a hundredweight than top commercial wool lambs and $1 more than top spring lambs.

KING BRUCE DIDN'T GIVE UP

King Bruce of Scotland, after many successive defeats, sat alone in his cave, greatly discouraged. He watched a spider trying to climb the wall of the cave. The spider had climbed six times, but each time had fallen before reaching the top. The seventh attempt was successful. Bruce took courage from this, went to battle the next day and won.

So, if you are one of those people who have tried unsuccessfully to obtain the medicine you may need, Mertz Compound may be the answer. This great medicine has been endorsed by hundreds of Texas people. Here is what Mrs. J. R. Bell of Dallas wrote us:

"For the past seven years I have been in a weak, rundown condition. I was troubled with gas and bloated to such an extent that the pain and misery seemed unbearable at times. I had very bad daisy spells, some absolutely blinding me for a spell. I have even passed out at times after setting certain foods. I have had pains and aches all over my body. My bowels were very irregular and caused me no end of misery."

"It just seemed that everything was the matter with me. I have tried dozens of methods of relief in the past seven years, but I honestly never knew what real relief could be until I tried that wonderful medicine, Mertz Compound. Why, I couldn't eat anything without it souring on my stomach. Now I can eat absolutely anything. I could walk four blocks without tiring myself terribly. Now I would rather walk than ride. I eat and sleep much better and I have gained 12 pounds in the past three weeks."

The above is just one of the many endorsements we have received for this splendid general tonic.

Buy Mertz from your druggist at the new REDUCED price. Send a post card to The Fernald Co., 4815 Bryan St., Dallas 4, Texas, for our free booklet, "BETTER HEALTH," and PROOF of what Mertz is doing for sick people.

General Says War Is Not Inevitable

DALLAS, April 6. (AP)—War is not inevitable or just around the corner, Brig. Gen. J. R. Sheetz said here yesterday.

Sheetz, recently in charge of an experimental universal military training unit at Fort Knox, is to speak at an Army Day program today.

He said yesterday 2,000 young soldiers had gone through the experimental program at Knox. He said ratings and conduct of the men after six months training was 42 per cent higher than corresponding age groups in the Army.

Sheetz said "If we are attacked in the next few months the (UMT) plan will not do any good." But he added "I believe we should prepare while we have a chance."

Chick Harbert Hot In Drills For Master's

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 6. (AP) — Chick Harbert, ailing appendix and all, has established himself among top favorites to win the Masters golf tournament.

Harbert, the only player besides Lloyd Mangrum to win more than one event on the winter tour which ends with this 72-hole event, has been the sensation of the practice rounds, now in the third day.

Pain sent him to the hospital last week after he had won the Charlotte Open, and for a time it was feared he would miss this 12th annual tournament because of an appendectomy. He came here direct from his hospital bed to batter par figures for the 6,800-yard National club course.

He turned in rounds of 65, 66 and 68, and then fired a five-under par 31 for the front nine. Par is 36-36-72.

Mangrum, the year's leading money winner with $11,454, holds this course record, a 64 fired in the first round of his debut in this $10,000 meet in 1940. His average of 69.25 strokes for 43 rounds this year has made him the favorite with some of the gallery. He has won three of the 1948 events.

Harbert, who also won the Jacksonville Open, has competed in only five meets this year.

Ben Hogan, twice the runnerup, is another strong contender. He had yesterday's best practice round, a 68.

Bobby Locke, the star from South Africa who looms as another favorite, fired a 69 yesterday.

After today's practice, the 50-odd starters play a final tuneup round tomorrow and start the competition Thursday with the first of four 18-hole rounds.

Nation-Wide Strike Predicted In Italy

ROME, April 6. (AP) — Italy faces a nationwide pre-election strike Thursday.

Executive committee members of the Communist-dominated Italian General Labor Confederation said the strike will go on unless Placido Rizzuto, missing Sicilian Communist, is found before Thursday. Rizzuto, a labor leader, disappeared three weeks ago.

Police, anxious to avoid a strike just 10 days before the critical parliamentary elections April 18 have offered a reward for information on Rizzuto.

The strike threat came just before a burst of machinegun bullets killed Calogero Cangialosi, Sicilian Communist, last week. The Communist press said Cangialosi was the 36th labor leader killed in Sicily in the past two years.

After his death, Giuseppe di Vittorio, powerful boss of the labor confederation's six million members, called on Interior Minister Mario Scelba for action.

To Scelba's earlier announcement that the government was doing its utmost to stamp out banditry in Sicily, Vittorio replied the labor group's executive committee would judge the government by deeds, not by words.

Last night Scelba told a crowd at the Lirico Theater in Milan that the Communists are sabotaging Italian economy. He said Italian factories could produce 30 per cent more if the Communist Party was not doing its best to sabotage production and seize power.

Some observers feel that the calling of a national strike now

FBI Leader Asks More Religion

EL PASO, April 6. (AP) — Warden James A. Johnston of Alcatraz federal prison, San Francisco, and Sheriff Martin T. Pratt, Portland, Ore., head speakers at the National Sheriffs Association convention here today.

Yesterday religion was termed the best preventive of crime by Hugh Clegg, Washington, D. C., assistant director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Clegg called for a "return to religion" and urged officers to "bring the world back to God."

Sheriff Edward Behrendt, Detroit, Mich., said his county's Junior Deputy Sheriff's League had reduced juvenile delinquency greatly.

Out-Blossomed, But Not Entirely Blanked

We wouldn't strain credulity by intimating that we have anything in these parts that approaches a dogwood or an azalea trail, but West Texas, even in a dry year, is not without a few spots of beauty.

glimpse is effective nevertheless.

Many spring flowers are in blossom too—a few late jonquils and daffodils, tulips and iris, flowering quince and yellow jasmine.

Add to these the later blossoming trees, among them plums that literally cover branches in a spray of white, and you have a pleasant picture of a belated spring.

No, we can't approach East Texas and the Deep South in spring time profusions, but there is a spot of beauty about us for those who will see.

Mis-Playing News No Credit To Press

Reaction to editorial comment is more frequently varied than not, and there is seldom universal agreement with content or thesis. Certainly no one would expect that there would be agreement on controversial issues.

But this does not reflect against honesty of the press; indeed it may strengthen it by stimulating thought and intellectual controversy.

Dishonesty seldom occurs under editorial columns or under by-lines (the name of the writer). Dishonesty in the press occurs when an individual or a paper yields to coloring the news, and more particularly in selective playing of the news.

never been noted for any ethical contribution to American journalism, has decided to go all out for Gen. Douglas MacArthur as a possible presidential candidate. That is his right, and he is certainly entitled to give the general every ounce of legitimate support at his command.

Congress Votes At Opportune Time

The U. S. Congress would seem to have registered its approval of the Marshall plan at the psychological moment.

Supporters of this program—which provides aid not only for western Europe but for Greece, Turkey and China—feared that Congress might not act in time to secure the full beneficial effect on the morale of the countries which are fighting communist aggression.

Adoption of the Marshall plan by Congress gives the harassed Italian government the badly needed assurance that America is standing with western Europe.

Had Congress not approved the Marshall plan before the elections, which are set for April 18, it most certainly would have given the communists an additional propaganda weapon to use against the government.

The Nation Today—James Marlow

How Italy's Government Is To Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is an ABC on the gravely important Italian elections of April 18.

They'll show whether the Italians want the communists to run their government or have a strong hand in it.

Mussolini bossed Italy about 20 years. There was a king but only a kind of cardboard king.

Mussolini was forced out in 1943. From then until 1946 the Allies bossed Italy but it completely till they had whipped the Germans there.

On June 2, 1946, the Allies let the Italian people vote to set up a government of their own.

The Italians did two things: 1. They voted to get rid of the king and create a republic.

2. They voted for 556 members of a special, temporary assembly to draw up a constitution for a permanent government.

The assembly did this. Its other main job was to keep the government running until a permanent one could be started.

That's what the Italians will do on April 18. They'll vote for a permanent government, a parliamentary form of government.

The Italian parliament will have two houses: a senate (with about 400 members) and a chamber of deputies (574 members).

The people vote only for members of parliament. After its election April 18, parliament will choose a president.

He's not a key. He has practically nothing to do. He's a kind of front man or symbol of government.

Suppose, though, the Communists get a big vote but not enough for a majority in parliament.

1. The president can select a premier from one of the non-Communist parties. If they stick together they'll have a majority and can outvote the Communists.

2. If they don't vote together—if some of them join forces with the Communists because they don't like the premier or his cabinet choices—the Communists can block any vote of confidence.

3. The outnumbered Communists probably would support—at least for a while—a non-Communist premier who chose Communists for a few important jobs in his cabinet. Once in there, the Communists might try to run the whole show.

4. If the Communists, although lacking a majority, get a big vote and the majority non-Communists try to keep them out of the cabinet, it may mean civil war.

Right now Italy has a temporary president and non-Communist premier whose cabinet is non-Communist.

The key man in the Italian system is the premier, or prime minister. The voters don't pick him, either.

The way he's picked goes right to the heart of the importance of the Italian elections.

The president, after his election by parliament, chooses the premier from one of the parties in parliament.

Then the premier picks a cabinet. It's called the government. The top jobs are in the cabinet, like foreign minister, minister of the interior, and so on.

Then the premier and his cabinet have to get a vote of confidence—meaning at least a majority vote—from parliament.

If he doesn't get it he and his cabinet resign. Then the president must pick another premier. He in turn chooses a cabinet and tries to get a vote of confidence.

If the Communists and their allies win a majority of seats—when they're not expected to—the president will have to choose a Communist as premier.

Then, backed by his group's majority in parliament, the Communist premier can pack his cabinet with his own people and run the country.

Suppose, though, the Communists get a big vote but not enough for a majority in parliament.

1. The president can select a premier from one of the non-Communist parties. If they stick together they'll have a majority and can outvote the Communists.

2. If they don't vote together—if some of them join forces with the Communists because they don't like the premier or his cabinet choices—the Communists can block any vote of confidence.

3. The outnumbered Communists probably would support—at least for a while—a non-Communist premier who chose Communists for a few important jobs in his cabinet. Once in there, the Communists might try to run the whole show.

4. If the Communists, although lacking a majority, get a big vote and the majority non-Communists try to keep them out of the cabinet, it may mean civil war.

Right now Italy has a temporary president and non-Communist premier whose cabinet is non-Communist.

But that's because the Communists and their left-wing Socialist allies have only about 170 of the 556 seats in the temporary assembly.

ments at home will do to the active candidates.

What these polls do show, I think, is that the country would like to replace the Truman administration but that it is not yet sure that the Republican party is a safe replacement.

That is, it seems to me, what the Eisenhower boom meant. It cannot be explained entirely on the basis of his glorious achievements in the war, nor altogether, I believe, because he is the most lovable character in public life today.

These polls were measuring his strength as a theoretical candidate for President of the United States. When they were taken there was no record of any kind, as there is in the case of President Truman, Governor Dewey, Senator Taft, by which to form an estimate of him as a civilian executive or as a politician.

He himself said in his letter of withdrawal that his career as a professional soldier has not given him the experience or developed the qualities which are needed in a high civilian office.

Today And Tomorrow—Walter Lippmann

The Eisenhower Boom

ALTHOUGH quite some time has passed since he withdrew, and though his withdrawal must be taken as final, General Eisenhower's extraordinary popularity in all the polls is still, I think, the most interesting commentary on this year's election.

The polls showed that as things stood in midwinter, in the early days of this session of Congress, and before the primaries, he would have been an easy winner over President Truman. Senator Taft looked like a sure loser. The odds were against Governor Dewey and Mr. Stassen. But they were close enough to give them a fighting chance.

Now no one, least of all Mr. Gallup and Mr. Roper, would argue that these early polls were a forecast of the actual comparative strength of these men on election day.

General Eisenhower was not an active candidate when his political popularity was mounting; no one will ever know what would have been the effect if he had become an active candidate. Nor could the polls predict what the Congressional session, the primaries and the conventions, the world situation and economic develop-

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Army Owes The Nation Something, Too

(ED. NOTE—Drew Pearson's column on Army Day takes the form of a letter to Gen. Floyd Parks in charge of ARMY PRESS RELATIONS.)

APRIL 6, 1948 MAJ. GEN. FLOYD PARKS Department of the Army Washington, D. C. Dear General:

You have written me various letters complaining of my criticism and especially of the deputy chief of staff, Gen. Joe Collins, about certain Army officers who, after writing contract terminations highly unfair to the government and favorable to private companies, then proceeded to take lush jobs with the companies which they favored.

Today is Army Day, when the U. S. Army comes up for special review by the American People. This is also a period when the Army is asking for a special draft, for universal military training, and for extra funds for defense.

Personally I favor voting much of these funds. But I also believe the Army owes it to the nation and especially to the men whom it seeks to draft, to clean up unfairness, favoritism and brass-hat first.

There was a lot of talk about this at the end of the recent war. But not too much was done. That may be one reason why your enlistments are low.

RCA PUBLISHED SECRETS For instance I called to your attention, publicly and privately, as early as Dec. 19, 1947, the amazing fact that the Army had permitted the Radio Corporation of America to make available to the Germans and Japs in 1938 our most priceless radar secrets, and that the army had done absolutely nothing to improve either the Radio Corporation or the Army officers who were negligent.

I asked you first orally, then in a letter dated Feb. 2 to give me the facts on this case. Two months is a long time to wait for a reply to an inquiry. Having heard nothing from you, I have obtained copies of some of the secret reports myself. They tell a shocking story. Here it is.

Back in 1932, the Signal Corps got orders to produce a device for locating the approach of enemy airplanes while they were still out of sight. Lieut. Col. William Blair, commander of Signal Corps laboratories at Monmouth, N. J., put a young civilian named William D. Hershberger on this job, under Dr. Samuel Anderson in the sound and light section.

RADAR IS BORN Hershberger, working on the idea of having radio waves bounce back from an object, finally used heavy filament tubes to produce a micro-ray machine which he tested out on a Signal Corps launch, the Russell, and which was able to detect passing boats, towers and aircraft.

Thus after four years' intensive work, was born the miraculous invention called radar—a secret which no foreign country then knew about and which the Army believed might revolutionize modern warfare. It meant that you could detect ships in the fog and prepare for approaching enemy airplanes before their arrival.

Shortly after perfecting this treasured secret Hershberger left the Signal Corps (April 1936), studied for a time at the University of Pennsylvania, then in the spring of 1937 joined the Radio Corporation of America.

A few months later, Jan. 11, 1938, the Radio Corporation filed at the U. S. patent office for Patent No. 2,401,717, the basic patent on radar. It listed as joint inventors Wm. D. Hershberger and I. Wolfe, an RCA laboratory man who had done some previous work with Hershberger.

SECRET PATENT BECOMES PUBLIC Amazed, the Signal Corps immediately asked the U. S. Patent Office not to make the application public.

This was one of the most priceless inventions in the history of modern warfare, yet the Radio Corporation not only filed publicly for a patent, but also proceeded to apply for patents in Japan, Germany and other foreign countries. This was in 1938 at a time when Hitler had already taken Austria and Czechoslovakia and when every intelligent observer knew war was inevitable.

Meanwhile RCA asked the Army whether the radar inventions were still secret and was informed that they were.

This letter was signed by Capt. David E. Washburn, director of the Signal Corps Laboratories, and I

In Hollywood—Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Bing Crosby's kids—Gary, Lindsay, Dennis and Phillip—are becoming active professionally again and indications are that they are destined for careers in show business.

The boys recently did an air show with their pop and Cliff Webb and this summer they will act in a Walt Disney film. A family source says the boys are developing amazing talent and should go far as performers when they grow up. Bing is apparently not averse to their entering show business—after all, it has done all right by him.

The Crosbys did a couple of pictures three years ago, but their father then nipped their budding film careers. "They were getting a little hammy," he told me.

Betty Field, who has been in four plays by her husband, Elmer Rice, says his next is not for her. "It deals with people unlike the characters I play," she said on the "Great Gatsby" set. The play's title: "Not For Children". Overheard at RKO: "By the time they get around to shooting 'The Robe' it'll be a small show!"

Bob Hope is still testing girls for the "Little Miss Marker" of "Sorrowful Jones." The trouble is that Paramount is trying to find another Shirley Temple. And they're realizing there was only one Temple. Randolph Scott's next for Harry Joe Brown will be "I Ride Alone." A success-story sequel to "I Walk Alone"?

Sonny Tufts plans to make two more westerns for Brown after "The Wrangler," figuring that they are the best thing to bolster his career. "Robert Young, Dan Duray and Robert Mitchell, all jumped in popularity after their first horse operas," he reasons. Embarrassing moment: when Jimmy Durante's false teeth fell out during the Al Jolson broadcast.

Peggy Lee's deal with Metro is cooling. The studio wants too much control over her outside activities to suit her and she figures she's doing too well in other fields to worry about movies. A trade poll just named her the country's top femme singer. U-I finished its Donald O'Connor-Marjorie Main film in 17 days, except for the dances. Seems a new record.

Some are willing to do things that they have no ability to do; therefore can not do them well; but they get them done.

One person has only so much time to cultivate his abilities, but things are worth doing even though he does them poorly.

This article, however, is not justifying the sloven manner in which some things are done when they could be done well with just a little more work and cooperation.

At about this point the old adage, "Practice Makes Perfect" comes along to confuse us, but does practice really make perfect. Maybe it does, that is, if we practiced long and diligently enough; but after we obtained perfection in the art, is it worth what time and energy was expended for it?

We take these sayings as literal truthful expressions, but upon careful examination, are they really so true and meaningful as we sometimes think they are when we apply them to the actual situation.

It might behoove all of us to think about the actual meanings of the expressions that at first sound so world shaking. Another, "A Stitch in Time Save Nine" who knows how many stitches it saves or when is the time for it.

There are a number of such sayings that we should stop applying to situations of today, even though they were in vogue at the time of Ben Franklin and his "Poor Richard's Almanac." —BILLIE BURRELL.

Worth Of An Activity

Remember the saying that goes, "If anything is worth doing at all, it is worth doing well."

As a child this saying was applied to our studies to inspire us to greater achievements and on to ward perfecting our undertakings, but if we have to do something well, in order to do it—we would be had off indeed.

I'm quite sure that my ability to play tennis would not be considered perfect or even distantly related, but I think that it is worth doing, because I enjoy that tennis ball back and forth across the net and even the chasing of the ball, when the necessity arises in my most amateur game.

Everyone who played tennis in order for it to be worth doing, were the Alice Marbles and the Donald Bidges, then the manufacturers of tennis racquets, balls and nets would be bankrupt.

Tennis can be quite helpful to the persons who play and can help even those who play it as poorly as I do, yet we realize that we are not doing it well—and we can get as much enjoyment from it as the professionals.

There are a number of things that some people could never learn to do well, but must do them just the same. For instance, there are women who cannot cook—they do not like to do it and have no ability to cook; yet they are in a position where they must cook because they have families and cannot afford to hire a cook so the woman must prepare the meals in order to keep the family together. Some are willing to do things that they have no ability to do; therefore can not do them well; but they get them done.

NEW YORK, April 5. (AP)—The small man at the bar was nibbling away at a cheese sandwich when the big man next to him said: "Buddy, this is a big anniversary. Drink up on me."

"The return of beer," said the big man. "Come back fifteen years ago this week. A wonderful day in history."

"Why?" "It got me a job with a brewery!"

"The little man looked unimpressed. 'I see,' said the big man, 'you don't understand how important beer is. Do you know why the pilgrim fathers landed in Massachusetts instead of Virginia?'"

"No." "Because the ship ran out of beer!" said the big man triumphantly. "Brewing is at least 5,000 years old. We got proof even that Noah took beer along with him on his ark."

"Hmm, how interesting," said the little man. "Yep, beer's been a big business ever since man climbed down out of the trees."

"Where do you think Joseph Priestley got his theory on how you need air to live? By watching bubbles rising in a brewery vat. Remember that guy John Alden who beat Bayles Standish's time with Priscilla? Why do you think they brought him along on the Mayflower? Because he was back from England, literally the biggest hit of any American entertainer to visit the austerity-ridden island. After he scored his smash, British exhibitors found a way to make the most of the film-skipmy conditions before the ad valorem tax was eased. They dug out all of Danny's old movies and they played to two-to-five times as hefty receipts as on their first time around.

The London Express described him as "the most sensationally successful single entertainer to appear in London in living memory." He was visited by the King and Queen, Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh, and Winston Churchill. . . . Hannen Swaffer of the Daily Herald reported the former Brooklyn kid's final performance was "unequaled in the annals of the London stage."

Danny's last show was a "jam session." He remained on stage for several hours more than a really crackjack comedian whose comic equipment utilized not only the ridiculous facilities of his baggy pants comedy but his many highly ingenious and literate gags, quips and topical situations. . . . They loved every minute of it, and demonstrated their affection in loud, but not embarrassing fashion.

I remember that Sylvia Fine, Danny's wife (they're separated), wanted to write a magazine piece about Danny's experiences during the three weeks of his engagement. . . . Danny was receiving $25,000 a week for his supposed daffy doings, but his material turned out to be as smart as his audience. . . . The fantastic oddities in behavior certainly would have made a lengthy insight into modern American ideas, adolescent division, and it's too bad Sylvia didn't write it.

Danny likes his success, the excitement, the acclaim, even the attention of the bobby soxers. . . . One evening I went to a movie with him and we sat just off the aisle. . . . Someone spotted him sitting there, pestered him for an autograph and Danny willingly scribbled it. . . . Then more came, who attracted more, until there was a small mob around us. . . . Danny was perfectly willing to go on signing all night, except that the manager said it would cause something catastrophic. . . . Danny had missed most of the picture by then, but we simply sat through it until we caught up. . . . And the Kid From Brooklyn was happy that night, even with writer's cramp.

Some of the kids had remained in their seats for two, three and four shows. . . . he recognized some of them from their loyal appearances in the front pews every day. . . . They brought him sandwiches, candy, presents, flowers, and in a gang of ways exhibited an admiration which hadn't been equalled since the early and sillier Sinatra enthusiasm. . . . but these youngsters weren't just gapping bobby-soxers. . . . They seemed to be kids discovering for the first time a really crackjack comedian whose comic equipment utilized not only the ridiculous facilities of his baggy pants comedy but his many highly ingenious and literate gags, quips and topical situations. . . . They loved every minute of it, and demonstrated their affection in loud, but not embarrassing fashion.

When you buy Barretrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet use for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barretrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe to take off ugly fat. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Cigarettes From Out-Of State Subject To Tax

Cigarettes received from out-of-state mail order houses are subject to the three-cents per package state tax provided by the Texas cigarette tax law. The local office of the state comptroller reminded today.

In some recent instances the state comptroller has been required to collect the tax from persons who received individual shipments of cigarettes from outside the state. Local officers said the penalty for receiving cigarettes without the state revenue stamp affixed is from $25 to $200 plus double the tax on all cigarettes received.

The tax is imposed on all cigarettes used or otherwise disposed of in this state, and persons who order cigarettes from out-of-state concerns should purchase the necessary revenue stamps immediately upon arrival of shipments, officials of the local comptroller's office explained.

A total of 5197 passenger automobile license plates were sold by the agency up to Saturday night, compared to the 4855 distributed in 1947.

Another 915 tags for commercial vehicles has been purchased, a gain of 99 over last year.

Broncs Play Lamesa Wednesday At 8 p.m.

Graziano Complains Of Idleness After Winning Over Sonny Horne

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP)—If there's anything that Middleweight Champion Rocky Graziano doesn't need, it's a rest cure. He showed that last night as he defeated Sonny Horne of Valley Stream, L. I., in a non-title bout that went the full 10 rounds. He also showed he will need plenty of work if he expects to defend his title successfully against Tony Zale on June 9, probably in Newark, N. J. Graziano is famed for his knock-out punch. It was completely un-employed last night. Repeatedly Graziano swung, and repeatedly he missed, sometimes by as much as six inches. Yet so powerful is Graziano—a stocky little character with the muscles of a 250-pounder—that his glancing blows did more damage than the straight ones from the light-jabbing Horne. At the end Horne had bad cuts over both eyes, and looked tuckered out. Graziano didn't have a mark on him, and looked as if he was ready to fan Horne for another 10 rounds. The judges all voted for Graziano, but many of the 5,181 customers booed when the decision was announced. Graziano, who at 160 weighed a pound less than Horne, pretty well summed up the situation in the dressing room after the fight. "I needed this one," he said. "If they don't ban me out of the ring, they'll rust me out." He was referring, of course, to the fact that he hadn't fought since he won the title from Zale last summer. New York has banned him because he failed to mention that someone tried to bribe him. Illinois and 13 other states have barred him because he once was derailed off the Army without bothering to ask the Army's consent. So put Graziano's troubles down as rust. After all, he won. So did the National Infantile Paralysis fund. It will get Graziano's share—about $10,000—of the $34,737.92 gate. This was supposed to be the clinching proof of what a good boy the Rock has become.

Angelo Rallies To Edge Hosses

A preview of what the local fans can expect in the way of a professional baseball team will be given here in an exhibition game between the Big Spring Broncs and the Lamesa Lobos of the WT-NM league here Wednesday night. Game time is 8 o'clock. The contest was originally booked for 3 p. m. but the change in weather caused General Manager Claud McAden to move the contest back. The Hosses dropped a 6-3 decision to San Angelo in the Concho City Monday afternoon. Pat Stacey's troops had a 5-3 lead going into the ninth round. A double with the sacks jammed in the final heat pushed the Colts to the fore. Armando Traspuesto hit for the circuit for Big Spring in the first inning. Ace Mendez bounced one off the palms for three bases in the third. Three pitchers labored for Big Spring, Gerry Rodriguez being charged with the loss. Pepper Martin, skipper of the Angeloans, hit twice.

Lineup Shapes Up

PLANT CITY, Fla., April 6. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds' lineup was shaping up today. Babe Young at first, Rookie Virgil Stallcup at shortstop and Grady Hatton at third seemed good bets in the infield with either Benny Zientara or Bobby Adams at second. Frankie Baumholtz is certain to start in right with Hank Sauer or Augie Galan in left and Johnny Wryostek and Clyde Vollmer dividing center-field chores. Ray Lamanno and Ray Mueller will share catching assignments with Ewell Blackwell due to be the opening day hurler.

Back With Sens

ORLANDO, Fla., April 6. (AP)—Outfielder Leon Cuberson rejoined the Washington Senators today after being benched with injuries. Another outfielder, Gil Coan, is still out with a sprained ankle. Newark's Bears furnish the opposition today for the Nets, who have won four straight games.

Rally Too Late

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., April 6. (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics scored as many runs in one inning yesterday as they had collected in any one game against major opposition this spring, but they still lost. The St. Louis Cardinals beat them, 9 to 6. The A's massed five runs in the eighth inning, but the rally came too late.

Banta, Snyder Star

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 6. (AP)—Pitcher Jack Banta and Outfielder Duke Snider are the talk of the Brooklyn Dodger camp at the moment. Banta, a lanky righthander, blanked the Dallas Rebels, 4-0, yesterday to run his streak of consecutive scoreless innings to 26. Snider sewed up the game with a two run first inning homer.

Outfield Set

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 6. (AP)—The New York Giants' first string outfield will be Bobby Thomson, Whitey Lockman and Willard Marshall. Manager Mel Ott said yesterday Thomson would be his centerfielder with Lockman playing left and Marshall right.

McADEN TAKES GAMBLE ON WEATHER WEDNESDAY

McAden figures he's gambling a bit on playing the Big Spring-Lamesa here Wednesday at night, since the freakish weather cannot be trusted. However, he figures more of the citizenry will be free and will feel inclined to come out at that time (8 o'clock). It will probably be the first night baseball game of the year in Texas.

TICKETS FOR OPENING GAME ON SALE DOWNTOWN

Tickets for the April 23 Longhorn league opener here go on sale downtown today. Heretofore, reservations for the duets, which are priced at $1 each, could be made at Elliott's 11th Place drug. Now, Hemphill-Wells and the two banks have them, in addition to Tommie Elliott's place of business.

VARONA PLAYING GOOD FIRST BASE FOR HENDERSON

Mario "T-Bone" Varona, who played left field for the Broncs last year, is holding down first base for the Henderson club of the Lone Star (Class C) league and showing to good advantage. Stacey and McAden, who saw the Henderson-Sherman exhibition game the other day, says the massive Varona was scooping up everything the other day as if he had been there all his life. Humberto Baez, another ex-Bronc worked two innings for Sherman gave up three hits and three runs. He walked one man struck out two. Sherman won the game handily 14-8. Like Sherman and Big Spring, Henderson is a Washington farm.

ALL ASSOCIATION TEAMS MAY TRAIN IN TEXAS

All teams in the American Association may train in Texas in 1949, according to Eastern sources. The big reason the AAA loop clubs lean toward the Lone Star State as a training base is the fact that they can get bigger and better steaks in this section. Half of the clubs are working in Florida now and players are complaining over the lack of good meat.

ANOTHER JIMMY DEMARET TAKES JOB AS GOLF PRO

Another Jimmy Demaret has turned golf professional. This particular one is a cousin to Houston's Jimmy and is a native of Denver, Colo. He's taking a pro job at Trinidad, Colo. He went to the quarterfinals in the National Public Links tournament back in 1941.

Steers Plunge Into Circuit Race At 3

Coach Conn Isaacs was due to do plenty of experimenting with his lineup in this afternoon's baseball game between his Big Spring Steers and the Lamesa Tornados. The contest was booked to start at 2 p. m. at Steer park on State street. The 3AA contest was the first of the season for the Bovines. Lamesa opened against Odesa last Friday and dropped a one-run decision. Howard Jones was scheduled to toe the slab for the locals. James Boatman could also expect to see action on the hill for the locals. Donnie Carter, another tosser, probably was destined to sit this one out due to injuries. The debate will be one of 12 league games for the Herd. Isaacs' troops finished third in the league race in 1947.

Jayhawks Lose 9-5 Decision To Refiners

Howard County Junior college's baseball Jayhawks, priming their guns for Tri-County league play, invade Colorado City Wednesday to tangle with Noble Walker's independent nine. The Hawks lost a six-inning contest to Forsan Monday afternoon in Forsan, 9-5. Harold Davis' clan was handcuffed by Johnny Johnson through the first four rounds but were finding the range on Lefty McCabe when darkness called a halt to the contest. Eight errors led to the Big Spring downfall. Judging from its appearance Monday, Forsan is the team to beat in Tri-County league play. The Oilers put three bunts together in Round Three to score one. A double play enabled the Hawks to escape further trouble.

Browns Look Good At Cubs' Expense

AUSTIN, April 6. (AP)—The St. Louis Browns may make a lot of experts look bad if they keep up their present gait. Generally doped to repeat as American League cellar dwellers, Zack Taylor's men have looked like anything but a last place club in winning their last four exhibitions. They defeated the Chicago Cubs, 8-3 last night to take a 6-3 edge in the series between the two clubs. The Browns collected 14 hits while Fred Sanford and Sam Zoldak dished out six, including homers to Clyde McCullough and Andy Paiko.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Pleased as punch over their Bronc baseball team are Co-Owners Pat Stacey and Claud McAden. The team came within a whisker of beating Abilene's Blue Sox Sunday despite the fact that three of the regular infielders had not yet arrived. The pitching staff appears to be better balanced than it was in 1947, when only Jose Cindan could be counted on week in and week out. The catching has more depth and, for that reason, will be better. The big improvement may be in the outfield. Victor Hugo, Ace Mendez and Roberto Fernandez played the gardens for the Hosses Sunday and all three more than fulfilled expectations. Mendez covers center field like a blanket and has a rifle arm. Fernandez was the surprise package. Patrick seems to think he has the best chance of playing regularly. His outlook might change but, at the present time he's looking at the world through rose colored glasses.

Coahoma Bulldogs Win First Place In 21B Track Meet

Mary Standefer Scoring Leader

Coahoma's Bulldogs won team honors in the 1948 District 21B track and field meet, which was conducted at Steer stadium Monday afternoon. The annual games were originally booked for next Saturday but moved up on agreement of the coaches. John Albers' Bulldogs scored a total of 49.5 points. Forsan had 42.5, Stanton 30, Knott 22 and Sterling City 3. Marvin Standefer of Stanton, who won first place in the 200-yard low hurdles; second in the century dash, second in the 220-yard dash, tied for first in the broad jump and finished in a dead heat for second place in the high jump, copped high scoring honors with 17 points. Forsan's Wayne Huestis was second with 15.4 points, Edwin Dickson of Coahoma third with 11.4 and Louis Stallings of Stanton fourth with 10.5.

Freeman Loses To Ed Gideon In AC Final

In one of the best matches seen at Pat O'Dowdy's Sportatorium in months, Eddie Gideon of Springfield, Mo., improved his local standing by thumping Ace Freeman, Bronx, N. Y., in the stellar wrestling attraction here Monday night. Gideon and Freeman had won their way into the finals in a "rassle royal." They proceeded to roll out all their ring tricks and each of the boys had lots of them. The windup was as close as Joe Louis' decision over Jersey Joe Walcott and perhaps was as controversial at ringside. Freeman had won the second fall with a top body pin and was in the act of copying overall honors with the same hold when his strategy backfired. Gideon listened to a "two count" on the part of Referee Walter Stratton, then flipped the Jewish boy over and pinned his shoulders. Gideon had won the first fall with a grapevine. The opener was as rough as the final was clean. Olan Boynton, Amarillo, slugged and butted his way to a decision over Billy Sandow, Toledo, Ohio, using a reverse crab to win the opening fall and a rocking chair pin to cop the clincher. In between, Sandow rallied briefly to win the second canto with a pin. Stratton was victimized in the "rassle royal" when all four of his opponents sat on him.

Negro Sprint Star To Run In Santone

SAN ANTONIO, April 6. (AP)—Wendell Davis, the spring sensation from Bryan high school, will appear next Saturday night in a San Antonio Invitation Negro track and field meet. But he may not win. Davis had done 100 yards in 9.5 and 220 in 21.7 but last week Tom Brady of Wheatley (Houston) upset the Bryan star in both events at a Houston meet. And Brady is entered in the meet here. Teams from Bryan, Houston, San Antonio, Dallas and Austin have entered the cinder path carnival.

Olan Boynton, Amarillo, slugged and butted his way to a decision over Billy Sandow, Toledo, Ohio, using a reverse crab to win the opening fall and a rocking chair pin to cop the clincher. In between, Sandow rallied briefly to win the second canto with a pin. Stratton was victimized in the "rassle royal" when all four of his opponents sat on him.

Negro Sprint Star To Run In Santone

SAN ANTONIO, April 6. (AP)—Wendell Davis, the spring sensation from Bryan high school, will appear next Saturday night in a San Antonio Invitation Negro track and field meet. But he may not win. Davis had done 100 yards in 9.5 and 220 in 21.7 but last week Tom Brady of Wheatley (Houston) upset the Bryan star in both events at a Houston meet. And Brady is entered in the meet here. Teams from Bryan, Houston, San Antonio, Dallas and Austin have entered the cinder path carnival.

Seats To Be Added To Purple Stadium

Fort Worth, April 6. (AP)—Texas Christian university's football stadium will become a bowl with 33,500 permanent seats this summer. Both end zones will be enclosed up to the ground level, providing room for 8,500 additional fans. Athletic Director Howard Grubbs announces. Work on the new sections, which will be of concrete construction, already is under way. Lights also will be installed. T.C.U. will play three night games here next fall.

First Of TNG Enlistees Sign

First enlistees in Big Spring's new National Guard unit were signed up at a meeting at the Settles hotel Monday night, and further sign-ups Tuesday assured strength enough for formal federal recognition.

This announcement was made by Capt. T. A. Harris, Jr., commanding officer, who said that campaign for other recruits will continue regularly. Men interested in the Guard are asked to contact him, at Cosden, or at phone 765.

Sign-ups Tuesday totaled ten enlistees, which is sufficient to bring federal sanction. Full strength of the Battery will be 97 men and five officers. Since many of the 97 will be non-commissioned officers, Harris pointed out that better ratings likely will go to those who enlist first.

The unit here will be Battery B of the 132nd Field Artillery, 36th Division. Arrangements for army use will be negotiated soon, Harris said. The Guard is to use one of the trainer buildings at the former Bombardier school.

Recruits Monday night were given physical examinations so that application papers might be completed. Harris thanked Dr. Lee O. Rogers and Dr. Ed V. Swift for their cooperation in giving the examinations.

Textile Men See Cheaper Cotton Goods -- But No $2.98 Dresses

NEW YORK, April 6. — The cotton textile men report a decided shift toward the output of cheaper goods. But they say that oldtime favorite, the $2.98 house dress, has gone the way of all inflation. The mills hope for a revival of cotton finished goods sales soon. They base this on last week's spurt in sale of cotton gray cloth, rough, unfinished fabric. And they see some hope for more exports later in the year when ERP funds are available. However, many mills are expecting within a month to cut output. They say the current lull in export orders and growing foreign competition, particularly from Japanese and German looms, make the world outlook gloomy for American mills. Textile looms now being operated on an average of two and one-half shifts a day will be cut down to less than two shifts by May 15, these mills say. Total exports last year amounted to one and a half billion yards. Mill men say this may be cut by 50 percent this year. They point to congressional action in approving funds to finance the revival of the Japanese textile industry, and say they are already losing orders abroad to German mills. Higher priced cotton goods are beginning to back up on the market, the trade reports. More and more mills are turning looms to lower end goods. Production of bed sheets with lower-fiber count, and denims and corduroys is being increased at the expense of finer cloths. In spite of this shift at the mills, the $2.98 house dress is an impossibility at the present time, the House Dress Institute reports after a study of this specific problem. Reasons: piece goods costs are higher than a year ago; a labor pay hike last fall is to be followed by another shortly; and the demand for longer skirts means the use of more cloth in a dress. The Institute reports that last year only 7 percent of house dresses were made to sell under $23 a dozen wholesale. This will shrivel to zero soon, the Institute says.

Fish Breeding May Give Answer To Cancer Cause

MEXICO CITY, April 6. — Dr. Myron Gordon, representing a New York laboratory, said today a Mexican fish may answer some questions on the cause of cancer. Gordon said cross breeding of two types of topepo fish found in southern rivers produced cancerous growths similar to those in humans. Gordon said the fish live side by side but never interbreed. When they were crossed, he said, "the result was surprising." If scientists can find the cause of the quickly developed cancer in the fish, it may provide an answer to the cause of cancer in human beings, Gordon said. A tank of live fish weighing 300 pounds was shipped by air to New York yesterday for further experiments. The Mexican fish also will be crossed with the same type fish found in Guatemala to see if the same growths develop, Gordon said.

Reynolds Escapes Chinese Guards

HONOLULU, April 6. — Milton Reynolds flew into Hawaii late last night enroute to Chicago after an aborted expedition to China to find the world's highest peak. The plane, piloted by Bill Odom, will pick up Reynolds' wife and two children here. Chinese officials, angry at the cancellation of the Reynolds expedition to survey the Amne Machin range of Western China, had impounded the Chicagoan's plane at Shanghai. But he got away, he explained, by screwing a few dozen pens among Chinese guards. In China, Chinese scientists who had waited vainly at Lanchow to join the Reynolds expedition proposed a ground survey of West China mountains. After a long, heated discussion, the geologists and geographers asked government support. If it is forthcoming, they would proceed to the Amne Machin Mountains and measure their height with ordinary surveying instruments. The Chinese said they could do more valuable research on the ground than Reynolds could have by plane, and at far less expense. A Chinese Air Force officer told the group, however, that he was confident a B-25 bomber could be made available.

Two More Strikers Facing Charges

FORT WORTH, April 6. — Two more strikers at the Armour & Company plant here were charged with violating the anti-mass picketing law. Charged yesterday were Odessa Kennedy and Marie Schlieder. District Attorney Al Clyde said flaming jars of kerosene were thrown Sunday and early yesterday at the homes of three company employees. He said they were able to extinguish the flames before the fires spread.

Truckers Hit Weight Law

CARISLE, Pa., April 6. — Parked trucks lined Pennsylvania's super highway today as sleepy-eyed drivers continued their "sit-down." "If we don't get satisfaction today, we'll go to Harrisburg and string our trucks around the state capitol," said Mark Holliday, of Somerset, Pa., a spokesman for the drivers. State police estimated that well over 1,000 of the giant freight trucks are now in the line which started forming Sunday afternoon near the eastern terminus of the model toll highway. Holliday said the "sit-down" protest is against a state law fixing a maximum weight of 45,000 pounds for trucks and pay load. Holliday said some of the trucks weigh 25,000 pounds alone. And added that "We can't make an honest living under the weight laws now." Harold Cobler, another truck driver, said "We are going to stop every big truck that comes into the state. We're going to try and have this tie-up spread to every section of Pennsylvania."

The board, elected Saturday, met here last night and voted to offer the job to Yarbrough. Dismissal of the schoolman started a row that resulted in a brief students' strike and a hearing before State School Superintendent L. A. Woods in Austin. L. J. Crane, a Yarbrough supporter and member of the former board, was elected president of the new board.
