RAIL DUST Sunshine Cheers Area Farmers

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

A WEST WIND early Monday that cleared West Texas skies of more than a week of intermittent rainfall, was welcomed by cotton farmers and businessmen. The heavy autumn rains have greatly improved the farming and ranching outlook in Motley County. The total rainfall registered in Matador was 3.50 inches. Other communities report similar precipitation.

Despite the fact that the waves of showers brought the cotton harvest to a halt, farmers say the benefits greatly exceed the damage to crops ready for the pickers.

While West Texas in general received great benefit from the rains, other parts of the state did not fare so well in central Texas rivers went over their banks, covered highways and swept away homes.

1960 FORDS ON DISPLAY TODAY

The 1960 Fords — "comfort engineered" and redesigned from bumper to bumper — will be on display here today at the Matador Auto Company. Motley County Ford and Mercury dealers.

Hip, shoulder, leg and head room all have been increased substantially over last year's model, according to Glenn Woodruff, manager of the firm.

"With the new body design, new frame, redesigned suspension and improved power train, the 1960 Ford rides, handles and performs better than any Ford in history," he said.

The 1960 line includes 15 models offering a total of six different roof lines.

The outstanding Ford Falcon is rated to create wide attention as the "breakthrough" in American's "new size" cars. It is three quarters of a ton lighter than conventional models, yet has ample room for six people.

The public is extended a cordial invitation to see the new cars today.

★ IN DENVER

Mrs. Harry Willett is visiting in Denver, Colo., with her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Rogers, who recently underwent surgery.

hundreds of families were driven from their homes after torrential rainfalls put creeks and rivers out of their banks.

Tornadoes struck in East Texas areas and several people were injured, although no deaths were reported.

Fields Drying Rapidly
Soggy fields are drying rapidly here under bright sunlight and west winds. Farmers and gin operators were seeking housing for Mexican cotton pickers Monday in an effort to start the harvest as soon as the cotton is sufficiently dry.

In most instances reports indicate an adequate supply of pickers is available. The traditional migration to Plains fields is expected, however, as soon as the irrigated cotton matures sufficiently.

Each Sunday school class will have a special responsibility for those who should be in their class. After enrollment into Sunday school and active church participation, the church will endeavor to give each one, as nearly as possible, a place of individual responsibility in the work and life of the church.

"We are now in the preparatory stages," explained the pastor. "These include listing our prospects, selecting teams of visitors, finding the type of jobs in the church each individual likes to do for proper placement, and other essential measures."

Highlighting the preparatory program is a "Prayer Fellowship" made up of children, young people and three separate adult groups which meet each Wednesday evening for study and prayer. As the fellowship continues to grow, it is hoped to enlist 100 persons by January 1st in this prayer effort.

All members are urged to attend these Wednesday evening services, which are being led by Rev. W. B. Vaughn, Mrs. Fred Simpson, Mrs. G. E. Hamilton, and Rev. and Mrs. Tucker.

The climax will be reached January 3-10, when the entire week will be given to preaching, praying and witnessing for Christ.

Although a revival preacher has not been announced at this time, every Methodist church in the Plainview, Lubbock and Brownfield districts will be engaged in holding revival meetings in a simultaneous effort to win for Christ and restore the inactive.

Methodists Announce Evangelistic Program

A program of total enlistment culminating the Methodist quadrennial promotion of evangelism from 1956-1960 is getting underway at the Matador First Methodist Church. The program is gaining in both number and interest, said the pastor, Rev. L. W. Tucker this week.

Aims of the "Enlistment for Christ" mission are evident in the theme, "Find them, win them, lead them, and keep them."

"Special effort is being launched to find and win new members as well as inactive members into our church school," Rev. Tucker said.

Each Sunday school class will have a special responsibility for those who should be in their class. After enrollment into Sunday school and active church participation, the church will endeavor to give each one, as nearly as possible, a place of individual responsibility in the work and life of the church.

New Ranch Brand Is Map Of Creek

A new brand was registered Monday here in Matador. The Red Lake Ranch, owned by E. E. Moss & Sons of Lubbock, was registered in both Motley and Dickens counties.

The brand design is the course of Sanders Hollow as it looks on the map, or from a plane. It resembles the Panhandle V brand made famous by the Matador Land & Cattle Company which formerly owned the land for more than 60 years.

Moss and sons purchased the 18,600-acre ranch early this year, and on it is located the old Red Lake line camp.

The new owners will place 350 head of cattle on the ranch this week. They have applied mesquite and scrub oak (shiner) poison eradication on 14,280 acres of the land which has developed excellent blue stem grass coverage.

The new brand will be applied on the left hip, Mr. Moss said.

Palmer Massey Lions Speaker

PRINCIPAL SPEAKER on the regular luncheon program of the Matador Lions club here Tuesday was Palmer Massey of Childress, Dist. Engineer of the Texas Highway Department for 37 years. He was introduced by County Judge Lion Elbert Reeves, program sponsor.

Mr. Massey outlined the history of the Texas Highway Department since organized in 1917 by an act of the Legislature. He said the state of Texas now has 60,000 miles of highways, or more than twice the distance around the world. He said that there are now more farm to market highways than state and national roads.

Motley County has 148 miles of improved roads with 80 miles of farm to market roads and 68 miles of state and federal roads.

Mr. Massey pointed out that Matador is the only point in Texas where a state and Federal highway of the same number cross (State Highway 70 and U. S. Highway 70).

He said the longest highway in Texas is No. 83 which goes from Perryton to Brownsville, a distance of 902 miles. Mr. Massey has 2,000 miles of highways in his district.

He concluded his speech with the suggestion that more courtesy among drivers would be the best way to reduce accidents.

LIBRARY LAPSE

by Frances Cooper

In the book Mama's Bank Account by Kathryn Forbes you will meet a wonderful character called Mama. Mama became a San Franciscan the minute she arrived in America from Norway. But Papa decided to give chicken farming a try so they moved across the bay.

Later the family of seven were forced to move back to Mama's beloved city because of failure at chicken farming. Still they never had to worry about financial problems since Mama was the proud possessor of a bank account.

Even through Dagmar's and Papa's operations, the small money box at home sufficed without taking from the account.

Through trials, heartaches, and sickness Mama was always the strong shoulder for all to lean on and the mastermind of all successful endeavors.

By reading this book which may be found in the MHS library, you will share with foreign immigrants the joys and trials of a poor family getting a start in a new country.

Annual Trip Taken By Eighth Graders

The eighth grade class took its annual trip to Lubbock for the South Plains Fair and educational tours around the Tech campus Wednesday, September 30.

The group's first activity was a show at the Tech planetarium, which was "Our Neighbors In The Sky." Following the show they were conducted on a guided tour through Tech museum with special emphasis on Cow-trails to Rails, celebrating Lubbock's 50th anniversary.

The group found this tour to be of special interest because of so many items which had come from Motley County. To conclude the day they attended the South Plains Fair, where they saw many exhibits and enjoyed the Midway.

Those accompanying the class included Messdames J. E. Edwards, Charlie Scaff, E. M. Timmons, Less Terry and Furman Vinson.

About Your Health

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.

Henry A. Holle, M. D., Commissioner

Does your body profile look like the bent part of a capital "D"? Would you like to acquire a bright new outlook on life? Then get rid of that pretzel posture.

Good posture is the starting point of good health and appearance. Luckily, it is fairly easy to attain. Here's how:

Hold your head high and pull your chin in until your eye level is parallel to the ground. Pull your shoulders back and make the shoulder blades form as near a flat surface as possible. Raise your chest up and push it forward until the buttons strain. Draw your abdomen up and in, and when you breathe make sure its your chest that rises and falls and not your abdomen.

Flatten the lower part of your back, tucking the buttocks as close under the hips as possible. Tip your hips down in the back. Hold your knees straight but not stiff. Put your feet parallel, with the weight evenly balanced.

Be careful not to revert to the old slouch when you sit down. Be conscious of good posture at all times, and the first thing you know it will be second nature. You'll begin to feel uncomfortable in a bad posture.

The old saying that "there is a place for everything" is doubly true for the human body. Each organ has a specific place in which to function, and functions best in that space. Vital organs—heart, lungs, abdomen, etc.—tend to be cramped when the body is slumped or slouched over.

Cramped lungs cannot deliver a full supply of oxygen. Circulation is slowed down when the heart is cramped. And a cramped stomach impairs digestion.

The advantages of good posture go far beyond the purely physiological. Standing straight and tall, relaxed and comfortable, will give you a broad outlook on the world. You'll get a "lift" far out of proportion to the little bit of conscious effort it takes to assume a correct stance and make it a permanent habit.

Try it the next time you walk by a plate glass window. Gaze at your reflection—chin up, chest out, shoulders back and stomach flat, stretched to your full height. What a fine figure you cut!

Another fresh one...from Pontiac!

The 1960 Catalina Convertible

You find it attractive because of the simplicity of lines, the absence of over-design.

You're drawn to its crisp freedom, its perfect form, its exhilarating freshness.

You'll find it amiably obedient because of Wide-Track Wheels and a thoroughly new suspension system. Wide-Track firms the foundation, stabilizes, balances. A softer suspension makes it responsive, quick and easy to take direction.

Pontiac's Tempest engines for 1960 are more vigorous than ever. You have a wide choice of V-8 power packages, ranging from the high performance 425 to the economical 425E which prefers regular grade gasoline.

The car, the keys, the catalog, the courtesy—all await you at your Pontiac dealer.

Wide-Track Wheels give you swiftness, stability, solid comfort. You maneuver with skillful sureness, accurate control. It's the sweetest, most precise, most rewarding driving you've ever felt.

Toughest Driver in Town!

Careful Percy McFidget—who would believe that he's harder on his car than anybody in town? Why, he never goes over 35 or takes a trip over 10 miles!

Actually this kind of driving is very hard on a car engine because the engine seldom gets "warmed up" sufficiently. The oil tends to be sluggish. Sludge forms in the crankcase. The way is open for dangerous wear and corrosion.

But there's something you can do about this, to protect your motor. If you have to do a lot of start-and-stop driving at low speeds, as most of us do, use Trop-Artic Motor Oil. It flows fast... resists sludge formation... helps your car run better, longer. Get Trop-Artic Motor Oil at any station where you see the Phillips 66 Shield.

Safe Driver' Rate Insurance Plan will be Effective Jan. 1

STAN—Texas drivers who own their automobiles with liability insurance will pay less for coverage after Jan. 1, the State Board of Insurance recently announced.

A small minority of care-free drivers will find their collision and liability insurance higher under provisions of the new Texas safe driving plan.

Penn Jackson, board chairman, said the plan will penalize careless drivers about $20,000 in 1960 while accident-free drivers will pay $20,000.

The effect will be to shift the burden of insurance cost to those most responsible for increasing traffic deaths, the board said.

Other states have this type of plan, although a few have experimented with a program in about half the states.

The heart of the plan revolves around the point system, by which a driver will be penalized according to the number of moving vehicle accidents for which he is responsible for. No points are assessed when the operator of the other car is convicted.

Per Cent Reduction

Under the plan, a driver with no accidents and with no moving traffic violations for a period of three years will be eligible for a 20 per cent reduction when he renews his policy.

Drivers with one point charge against them will pay the same rates and the drivers with two to five points will pay rates based on a sliding scale. Motorists with six or more points will pay double.

The board recognized long ago that the increasing population and increasing density in the state's urban areas resulted in high costs which have necessitated increases in automobile insurance rates. At the same time, the board is of the feeling that such increasing costs do not fall upon those drivers who avoid accidents and obey our traffic laws," the board said in a statement.

The board also said it will conduct a cross-sample of more than 40,000 accident reports at the department of Public Safety yardstick the board calculated that 57 per cent of the drivers will be subject to the 20 per cent rate reduction.

But 16 per cent will retain current rates and about 15 per cent will be subject to a 10 per cent increase. The drivers with remaining number of violations will pay up to 100 per cent more.

The new plan applies to all passenger automobiles of any vehicle of the truck type with a load capacity of 1,500 pounds not used for commercial purposes. Taxicabs, police and fire department cars and commercial vehicles are not eligible.

Points Govern Rates

Two points will be assigned for each auto accident resulting in damage over $25, bodily injury or death. Four points will be charged for conviction of driving while drunk, failure to stop or render aid or negligent homicide with a vehicle. Other violations, such as running a red light, penalize a driver one point.

The number of points places a driver in a corresponding classification. For example, a vehicle operated by a man and his wife which has three points charged against it will require an increase of insurance rates of 40 per cent.

The state is divided into 26 separate territories based on number of vehicles, accidents and other factors in determining the minimum rate required by the board.

Odds Vary

The board said the 40,365 accident reports reviewed showed that drivers who have had no motor vehicle offenses have only a 9 per cent chance of being involved in a future accident, while drivers who have one or more accidents in record have a 34 per cent chance of being involved in another wreck during the three-year period.

In a warning to agents, the board said no policy effective prior to Jan. 1 may be cancelled or revised to take advantage of the new plan except at the request of the insured.

No portion of past premiums will be refunded to drivers who have had no accidents. If a new owner did not have a car in the past he is assigned the lowest classification.

"Battle Border"
Little known facts about Texas boundaries.

(Editor's Note: Attorney General Will Wilson goes to Washington Oct. 12 to fight another border battle for Texas when the tidelands case will be heard before the U. S. Supreme Court.

This is the first in a series of articles outlining the numerous boundary conflicts dating back to 1716, pointing up little known facts which shaped the Texas of today.

The following is released as a public information service by the Attorney General's Department.)

The Texas boundary line stretches over some 4,000 miles and a sizeable portion of it has been forged and tempered in the fiery heat of conflict.

Since 1716 to this good day its location has been fought over.

The Attorney General, a dedicated Texas historian, looks at the overall picture.

"The cold facts are, regardless of motive, that down through the years there has been bite after bite attempted on our territory," Wilson says.

"The worst and most tenacious of these land biters has been the federal government."

The first conflict arose along the East Texas-Louisiana line befor some wild characters—adventurers, fugitives and outlaws. They played for keeps.

The wildness is gone now but the old neutral ground has generated a tradition all its own and a breed of independent people whose names and deeds wrote Texas history.

Consequently there is a strip of land about 150 feet wide and some 70 miles long between Texas and Louisiana that the turn of events has left shadowed with doubt.

Roaring Springs FFA Booth Among Winners At Fair

The Roaring Springs FFA Chapter won fifth place in the educational FFA exhibits division at the recent Panhandle South Plains Fair for 1959 at Lubbock. Fourteen FFA booths were entered.

The Monterey (Lubbock) Future Farmers won first in the division with a booth showing that machine pulling can net farmers more profits than hand gathering. Other entries included Brownfield, Dawson (Welch), Tom S. Lubbock, Lamesa, Muleshoe, Spur, Idalou, Seminole, Kress, Snyder, Plainview, and Seagraves.

Thanks Friends For Kindnesses

Rev. Ray Manning left Wednesday afternoon to return to his home in Wichita Falls, following illness and hospitalization in Stanley Hospital for almost two weeks. Rev. Manning suffered an attack while en route to Matador, and was critically ill for several days.

"We wish to take this means of expressing our heartfelt gratitude to the people of Matador for every kindness shown us," said Rev. Manning. "I appreciate, personally, those who sat by my bedside, and my wife, Frances, joins me in saying thank you for the flowers, food, visits, cards and other messages of encouragement. Words are inadequate when we attempt to convey our feeling of appreciation for these expressions of your friendship and concern."
