W. M. S. Notes

The W. M. S. met Monday in Bible Study with Mrs. Geo. Springer as Leader. After singing "Love Lifted Me" and prayer by Mrs. Gipson, the leader took charge and gave a very interesting discussion on the last two chapters of our Bible Study Book. These lessons have been extra good and so many have expressed themselves as having been helped so much by them. Those that have not been attending have surely missed some great lessons.

In the absence of the President, Mrs. C. B. Cargile, the Vice President, Mrs. A. Freeman, conducted a short business session in which it was decided to continue the Bible Study twice monthly in question form. The little book of "1200 Bible questions" by Hill. If you are interested and want a book, see your Study Superintendent. The books are only 10 cents. They cover every book in both Old and New Testament.

Some of the places were vacant Monday. Remember no one can fill your place but you, and that your face was missed too.

Glad to welcome Mrs. B. M. Nelson as a new member with us. May we prove a blessing and help to her in our work.

We were dismissed by Mrs. Campbell in short prayer.

ROARING SPRINGS POOL POPULAR WITH THROUGHS EVADING INTENSE HEAT

Known by many as the coolest spot in West Texas, the Roaring Springs Swimming pool, owned and operated by the Matador Land and Cattle Company, is showing a marked increase in popularity during the intense heat wave that has held this section in its grip during the past weeks.

Crowds from neighboring counties and many from distant towns frequent the resort which provides a cool oasis in a land of simmering heat. The beautiful natural location of the pool and springs and the abundant shade, also provide a chosen spot for many picnicking and swimming parties.

The low prices of admission to the pool established at the beginning of the season, still prevail.

ENTERPRISING TURKEY OWNED BY J. L. FARRIS BECOMES 'PROUD' FATHER

Abandoning his proud strut for the more serious business of raising a family, a turkey gobbler owned by J. L. Farris in the Teepee Flat community, has assumed the duty of setting on a nest of eggs recently deserted by a turkey hen and is now the 'proud father' of one baby turkey.

Taking his work earnestly, the hen-pecked turkey gobbler, talks 'baby talk' to his baby and continues faithfully covering the unhatched eggs.

Viewed Sunday by several neighbors who had learned of the unusual tom, he left the nest only one time, to get a drink, returning immediately to his one child and eggs.

MAIL DUST

Scattered skeletons of long forgotten things left in sorry array of parts by ghouls of time, always remind me of the bodies that have been buried in service, and denied the rust in iron eats that rot in bone. No one from the coughing old engine struggle to a gloryless mass of ruins which pride in some owners of the rusty tin once gleam-point in a Sunday sun. Million faithful miles of seraphic unchosen missions of and secret destinations, and hearted slaves of man, Vanguard's blazards for the countless product in following, are left to the worms of time, where in the struggle.

Simple mind fails to understand many damn the world younger generation for its cynicism when the records country's greatest churches lost 650,262 new members every church pews. One of the great gains in the world's nearly 61 million people United States belong to the depression has caused to seek the consolation. Financially the depression made a better show of secular enterprises. As depression began, one of every six has closed, twenty-two business concerns has failed, but only one out of 2,344 churches has closed.

positive the world is becoming a better place in which to live, believe people are becoming. This possibly seems absurd to us of what we read in our papers and what we know our realities, yet, unfortunately, as news in the fact that there is a good man, has been a good man, and that his family attend church Sunday. There are millions of good men in this country. This is the great stone foundation which sets the destiny of perhaps a world.

We Have Turned The Corner

It looks now like we have definitely turned the proverbial corner that we have been looking for for the past three years. The President's programme of relief is rapidly being whipped in to a working program. Billions of dollars are being poured in to the various channels of trade primarily to aid unemployment.

With the vast sums of money distributed as it will be, no doubt, it will create thousands of places where a knowledge of business will be needed. The young man or woman having just finished high school will act wisely if they will now prepare themselves by a few months of extensive training this summer and be ready for the rush. LOSS through wasted food
LOSS through spoiled food
LOSS through small-quantity high-price buying

Modern Electric Refrigeration Will Plug These Budget Leaks!

You're throwing away 20 per cent of your food bill—if your home lacks modern refrigeration equipment—through losses in wasted food... spoiled food... and small-quantity high-price buying! This substantial sum will make the payments on a modern, efficient, money-saving Electric Refrigerator!

Food experts agree that in the average home an Electric Refrigerator will have at least one-fifth on the cost of your food. Half of that sum will be saved through the elimination of spoilage and the safe preservation of valuable left-overs. The other half will be realized through quantity buying at "week-end bargains" offered by your grocer. These important savings are possible with a modern Electric Refrigerator, because this invaluable "Electrical Servant" provides the proper temperatures for safe and healthful refrigeration... automatically!

Let a new Frigidaire earn its way in your home. You can pay as it saves—then bank the balance. Ask for a demonstration—and about present low prices and easy terms—TODAY!

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

is hard to tell to which of these the palm should be given-- perhaps the Music has a little the edge on the others.

Jan Kiepura-- remember that name-- the Polish tenor is a logical successor to the late Caruso. In fact this tenor sings with far greater ease than was Caruso's want. No such grunting emission of breath at the end of his arias as was Caruso's habit. Physically, Kiepura is prepossessing in appearance-- fine eyes, teeth, hair and a physique that would associate with that of a singer. He sings in this picture besides the theme song, three arias from Rigoletto, La Traviata and La Boheme. And his notes rush forth in glorious tumult--in cascades of liquid music. He is surely the tenor of this decade.

Then you enjoy the delicious comedy-- the cameo-like characterizations of the versatile but lovable crook, the over-zealous female business manager, the mayor--his wife so coyly smitten with the charms of the pseudo-tenor--the old grand opera singer--. All these must be seen, no futile words of mine can convey their individual charm to you. And then the scene under the balcony--where the pseudo-tenor pantomimes while the real singer, secreted, does the glorious singing--all this recalls to mind Cyrano de Bergerac's immortal scene.

Last, but assuredly not least, is the beautiful scenic charm of the Swiss landscape -- snow-covered mountain, romantic looking lakes nestling at their feet, winding roads through it all that lure you on and on and here and there towns picked out in the dusk as they scintil-late their glorious crescents beside the water's edge. This scenery in itself constitutes a fine foreign travelogue and through it all there floats the haunting beauty of the tenor's voice enriched, ennobled by his great love.

You leave the theatre and even as reality encroaches on your dreams there still lingers in your memory the witchery of its haunting melody and you start to hum or whistle the catchy tunes.

Church of Christ

We had a good crowd Sunday morning. The evening service was held jointly with the Churches of the County on the Court House lawn in Matador. The six preachers present made short talks and Judge Hamilton made an impressive address on the statistics of prohibition, its enforcement and the cost of its violation. He then introduced Dr. Atticus Webb, of Dallas, superintendent of the Anti Saloon League of Texas. Dr. Webb's masterful address, supporting every law, that has for its purpose, the protection of society and the morals of all the people. He is a recognized authority on everything that relates to the prohibition movement. This writer was present in the great prohibition rally in Dallas in 1918, when Dr. Webb was selected as director and superintendent of the anti-saloon forces, and has ever felt since that he was the ablest man available. He has become an ambassador of righteousness. It is hoped that all true believers in the Christian religion will rally for the fight now waged for sobriety and righteousness.

BEN WEST, Minister.

Methodist Church

This pastor hopes to see the membership of our Church at the union service at the Church of Christ next Sunday night. This is to be a combined service of all the Churches in our town. We are for the retention of the 18th amendment and the defeat of the proposed Beer Bill in our state. The purpose of Sunday nights service is to generate enthusiasm among our prohibition people and to give some plain cold facts on the question. No abuse for anyone. An outstanding Dry, in the person of Judge G. E. Hamilton, of Matador, will be the speaker for the evening. All are urged to be present.

Had a good day on last Sunday. Good attendance at all of the services, especially was that true in the Sunday School and morning service. A number of members were out of the evening service, but were in attendance at the Prohibition Mass Meeting at Matador. This pastor will preach at Croton next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 3:30 p. m., back here for the Mass Meeting at 8:30. Shall expect each of you in your place at Sunday School and Epworth Leagues.

Pray for the pastor and Church.
