Movement Starts at Turkey, Meeting of Interested Counties

TO SEEK DESIGNATION

Chamber Commerce Re-Elects Judge C. L. Glenn for Director

Matador may be located on the "Road to Mexico," across the continent from Canada to Mexico if plans discussed at the meeting of the Motley County Chamber of Commerce held in the Motley Hotel at the organization's regular Tuesday luncheon, are successful.

A complete report of the movement to get a state designation on Highway 18 between Turkey and Clarendon, the only break in the planned "Road to Mexico," as a result of a meeting held in Turkey last week, was given at the Chamber of Commerce meeting by D. L. Granberry, president of the Spur Chamber of Commerce, who, with George S. Link, prominent merchant of Spur, were visitors at the luncheon. It was revealed that less than one hundred miles remains to be improved to make the road complete. There are no gaps north of Texas to the Canadian border.

John Neighbors of the State Highway Department was also a guest at the luncheon and made a short talk on the possibilities of the road, declaring that the state had no funds available at the time with which to complete certain it would be given consideration in the future.

Judge C. M. Glenn was unanimously elected to re-fill the place of Chamber of Commerce Director and act as delegate to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention to be held at San Angelo, May 14, 15 and 16.

President E. M. Rice gave a brief outline for the plans of the Chamber of Commerce during 1934, including the program for civic improvements of better streets, better lighting and the promotion of construction of more side walks in the city. Particular stress will be placed on beautification by the planting of trees and improving yards, he declared. No immediate plans were offered for the present. The co-operation of the City Council will be enlisted in the movement.

PROCLAMATION

I, Harrison Williams, Mayor of the city of Matador proclaim the week of April 16th-21st as "Clean-Up week" and solicit the co-operation of every resident in making the campaign as effective as possible.

All trash and rubbish should be burned and that remaining should be piled so that access with a truck can be made. A truck and driver will be provided to haul away tin cans and other junk which can not be burned.

"THERE IS GLORY ENOUGH FOR ANY MAN TO LIVE AND DIE A TEXAN"

"BUY IT IN MATADOR"

This newspaper and the Motley County Chamber of Commerce received considerable criticism recently regarding a news story to the effect that the Chamber of Commerce had Matador, from communities outside of Matador. Those who found fault with the slogan said it should have read, "Buy it in Motley County."

It is doubtful if the officials of the Chamber of Commerce had any intentions of advertising Matador above the other towns in the county when the slogan was adopted. The real purpose of the slogan was aimed at Matador citizens and particularly at business men and their families who either order or buy merchandise outside of Matador.

As far as the Motley County Chamber of Commerce is concerned, the fact that it is composed almost entirely of Matador business and professional men does not mean that it has a selfish motive of benefiting Matador alone.

ties in the county. Yet the response to this welcome has been very small. Interest and support from other towns has failed to materialize.

The fact that the organization has continued to function during the past three years when towns like Amarillo had to disband is certainly in its favor. The cost of maintaining the organization through these three years has been paid almost entirely by Matador business men and they can hardly be justly criticized for making the most of any benefits that might come from it.

BEER FLOWS QUIETLY

With the sale of beer finally becoming legal in Matador Saturday the casual stranger would have known nothing about it unless he should have passed one of the business places where the sale started and noticed that the trade was a little brisk in comparison with other towns.

There was no arrest for drunkenness and there were no loud voices and no other indication more than had some new brand of beverage been introduced. The reaction was so mild that many were not aware that the sale had commenced until hours afterward altho they were only a short distance away.

VOTERS ARE VOTING

The returns of the school trustee election Saturday is impressive indication that people who are legal voters have not buried their poll-tax receipts away and left the voting to some one else. The three elections held in Matador during the past thirty days offer conclusive evidence that the people are concerned about what happens to their town.

The fact that Matador is interested in her schools to the extent of voting with a ballot like the one polled Saturday is proof to the skeptical regarding the progress of the town. The progressive town is always the town that is interested in its future and a good school system is about the most progressive step that can be made toward a greater future.

Long ranked first as an agricultural state, Texas during the last computed year has climbed to the rank of second into total value of minerals produced. This figure of $390,000,000 is a gain from the rank of 23rd of the forty-eight states less than a generation ago.

Approximately three-fourths of Texas' 5,824,715 population are white people. The Mexican population is 11.7 per cent and the negro population is 14.7 per cent.

Irrigation is utilized to aid crop production on 10,861 Texas farms. The first such project was achieved by the Franciscan fathers who built their missions at the present site of San Antonio.

It took the forces of the United States Navy to dislodge the pirate Jean La Fitte from Galveston island in 1821.

Says Mrs. Lee Ketner, Winston-Salem, N. C., Who Made The "Two Trip"

"I DROVE FROM WINSTON-SALEM TO WASHINGTON USING MY REGULAR 25c MOTOR OIL—AND HAD TO ADD A QUART AT RICHMOND."

"TWO WEEKS LATER I REPEATED THE TRIP AGAIN. THIS TIME I USED GULF-LUBE—AND DIDN'T NEED A QUART UNTIL I GOT TO WASHINGTON."

Drive a Chrysler? Read Mrs. Ketner's story...

"I made your 'two-trip' test," says Mrs. Lee Ketner, 705 Melrose St., Winston-Salem, N. C., "and to say I was surprised would be putting it mildly."

"Gulf-lube outlasted my regular 25c motor oil by 115 miles—it went 51% further before a quart was consumed!"

Thanks, Mrs. Ketner. You're one of thousands of motorists who have cut their oil costs with Gulf-lube—the oil that was tested by the American Automobile Association in 6 average cars—and outlasted every oil in every car!

Start saving! Switch to Gulf-lube now. You'll buy less oil between fillings. You'll get better, smoother lubrication. At 25c a quart Gulf-lube is America's biggest oil value. At all Gulf stations.

Though Texas heads the lists of states in agriculture, only 18.5 per cent of the total area is in cultivation.

Men outnumber women in Texas. Of the 5,824,715 population of the state, 2,965,994 are males, 2,858,721 are females.

Although history generally refers to San Francisco de las Tejas as the first mission founded in Texas, it is a matter of record that the missions near the present city of El Paso were founded earlier. The mission at El Paso del Norte, now Juarez, was established in 1659.

Dairy Show to Have Many Interesting Features

Canyon, Texas, April 11.—Eugene Butler, editor of the Progressive Farmer, will open the first educational program of the Seventh Annual Texas Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show at Plainview, on April 17, and will be followed by State Superintendent L. A. Woods who will relate schools and the dairy business.

A second education session at 1 p. m., April 18, will feature Dr. Bradford Knapp, of Lubbock, and Dr. J. A. Hill, of Canyon, presidents of Northwest Texas, two-state institutions, and on April 19, Dr. Verne Scott of John Tarleton College, and Colonel Edward R. Coppock of the Palo Duro State Park CCC camp will share time.

Another feature of the April 19, program will be a mounted basket ball game between Lubbock Lions and Plainview Lions.

According to Professor Frank R. Phillips, who has arranged the educational sessions, this mounted basket ball game was one of the most diverting features of the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show where it made its first appearance. Many agriculture students from Canyon, as well as dairymen, will attend the show.

One of the first campus newspapers in the Southwest was The Calendar, which since has become the Daily Texan at the State University. Its first editor was Edgar E. Witt, who since has filled the offices of Senator and Lieutenant Governor, and this year seeks to become Governor.

The largest vote ever cast for any candidate for office in Texas was 973,041. This just short-of-a million ballot was in the Democratic primary in 1932 for Edgar E. Witt, who was re-elected Lieutenant Governor by that popular acclaim and this year seeks the Governorship.

The State of Texas is the undisputed leader of the states in mohair production, but there is not a mill in the state to fabricate it.

SUGGEST ONE ACRE SUDAN PER ANIMAL

College Station.—With plenty of land for living at home in the form of retired cotton and wheat acres, farmers should plant at least one acre of sudan grass for every horse, cow and mule on the farm, it is pointed out by Extension Service specialists at Texas A. and M. College. March, April and May are the chief months for planting this greatest of all Texas grazing crops, they say. At least one-eighth acre of sudan should be planted for each hog, and at least 1-4 acre for each sheep. Sudan pasture should if possible be fenced hog-proof to get the most out of it.

Sudan grass does better as a rule if planted in 2 to 3-foot rows at the rate of 5 to 10 pounds of seed per acre. The land should be prepared as for corn, cotton or grain sorghums. An ordinary planter with a sorghum plate is satisfactory for seeding the crop. The grass should be kept free of weeds by shallow cultivation until it is ready to graze which is when the grass gets 15 to 18 inches high. When the grass gets tough and stemmy it may be renewed by mowing.

"Get the Habit"

MOVIE CHATTER By A Rogue

Friday and Saturday we have SON OF KONG, a sequel to "KING KONG" which we showed some time ago. Its mad story of the giant monkey, in the land of prehistoric beasts, and their battles with modern man.

If you liked "KING KONG," then you will like this one very much.

Sunday and Monday we have that versatile little actress Lillian Harvey in I AM SUZANNE; and listen folks, using the high school language, this little show is just as cute as a "speckled pup."

Lillian is supported by Gene Raymond in this picture. It has been pictured to me as being the show that appealed to more types of people than any picture released this year.

Contrary to generally accepted history, Alonzo Alvarez de Pineda and his companions probably were the first white men to explore what now is Texas soil. When his party touched the gulf coast in 1519, nine years before Cabe de Vaca, they gave the country the name of Amich.

lated. Back of this improvised taxi, a process screen is placed and a projection machine plays the street scene upon it. This motion picture scene is again photographed, and on the screen, as you see it, the scene looks like the real thing. These process shots save the studios much money, but they throw many people out of employment.

Met two interesting personalities recently. Miss Winifred Landis and Mr. Eric Mayne. Miss Landis played the Governor's wife in "A Lady for a Day," starring Miss Robson. She is related to Judge Landis, the baseball czar, and to Miss Pankhurst, the famous English suffragette. And strange as it may seem, she cares nothing about baseball nor is she at all interested in the ballot. She designs all her own clothes and spends about $2,000 on her wardrobe yearly.

Mr. Eric Mayne plays distinguished character roles on the screen, but what interested me the most about him, was his culture. Mr. Mayne lectures on Shakespeare at the Los Angeles Public Library. He goes into exhaustive analysis of the plays and characters of Shakespeare. So far he has given Hamlet, Macbeth, King Lear, Anthony and Cleopatra. At present he is lecturing on Carionanus. So very little is known of Shakespeare, that many think "William Shakespeare" was a pseudonym used by, perhaps Bacon or the Seventeenth Earl of Oxford, and which happened to coincide with the name of the actor. No matter who the detract a particle from the author really was, it does not detract a particle from the fine writing. However that may be, Mr. Mayne still thinks Shakespeare is no other than the actor. When traveling in England, I visited Stratford-on-Avon. I went to Shakespeare's birthplace, the Shopper, where he wooed Anne Hathaway; and finally ended up at the church showing the date of his baptism and his tomb. I was not permitted to muse much upon the incomparable author, as every minute of my time was taken up looking at post cards, souvenirs and trying to dodge the local guides who insisted that I must hire them. When I visited the Shopper, the door-sills were so low, I knocked my head against the top and instead of thinking of Shakespeare and Anne Hathaway as spooning lovers, everything went blank and the darkness was shot through with fiery stars.

Saw Anna Sten in Nana. Having read Emile Zola's realistic novel of French Society, I wondered how much of this could be shown on the screen that would pass the censors. First, there were Nana's promiscuous lovers, and their number was legion, and then there was the problem of showing the Lesbian, Satin, how this could be told, was indeed a question at issue. But when I saw the picture, it was so refined I did not recognize Zola's Nana at all. Great liberties had been taken with the story, the whole thing was changed and distorted to meet the present day requirements of the censors. Miss Sten's performance was, however, artistic and masterful and you will enjoy this picture, if you have never read the original.

Did you perhaps know that: Ruth Roland recently made a call on Billie Dove. Miss Dove was not at home, but her large police dog was, and to show the visitor how very welcome she was, he bit her in the leg. In her hurry to leave, Miss Roland forgot to leave her card, but she did leave a piece of her dress behind, in Fido's mouth, so that showed someone had called.

When Clark Gable recently made a personal appearance in New York, his adoring admirers tore the buttons off his clothes, knocked his hat off, and a dozen women threw themselves upon it to take home as a souvenir of the visit, one lady had a pair of shears with her to cut a lock of the Great Lover's hair, while several ladies formed a flying wedge and started to throw their arms about our hero, for it was indeed he, it was no other, and started in to kiss him as he had never been kissed before. After his glorious reception he was rushed to the hospital so he might recuperate. One has to be very tough to be a matinee idol and stand the public embrace.

Edmond Lowe, husband of the late Lilyan Tashman, has a double here in Hollywood. I refer to Theodore Von Eltz, and the similarity is indeed, very striking. It happened the day after the public had read the news of Miss Tashman's death. Some visitors were on the set watching Theodore Von Eltz in a gay scene. He was laughing and talking with the greatest abandon. "And to think," said one of the visitors, "he has to act, just as if nothing had happened." After the scene was over, she went lover to him and said, "Oh, I have my sympathy, you poor man—I don't see how you could do it." The visitor thought she was addressing the bereaved husband of Lilyan Tashman—Edmond Lowe.

Just a Little Fun

"Confound you, sir," said the general "Why don't you be careful. Here, instead of addressing this letter to the intelligence officer, you have addressed it to the intelligent officer. You should know there is no such person in the army."

Once an old darky visited a doctor and was given definite instructions as to what he should do. Shaking his head he was about to leave the office when the doctor said: "Here, Rastus, you forgot to pay me."

"Pay you for what, boss?"
"For my advice," replied the doctor.
"Naw, suh! I ain't gwine to take it," and Rastus shuffled out.

A Western stockman who had mortgaged his cattle to the local bank, was called in by the banker and told that the note was due and must be paid the following day. The cattleman asked: "Were you ever in the cattle business?"

"No," answered the banker. "Well, you are now," replied the cattleman, and walked out.

George: "I'm afraid I am not good enough for you."
Mable: "Well, to tell the truth, I don't think so either, but you're too good for any of the other girls."

Wife: "That was a very beautiful picture of Mrs. Gabber, but there was something about it that was not natural, what it was?"

Hubby: "She had her shut."

The number of people living on farms in the States mounted during the year to a total of 32,509,900.
