FAILURE OF SCHOOL BONDS FEARED

Dr. J. E. Bristow Expected In Big Spring Tonight

HOME TOWN TALK

By Beddy
The community's indispensable organization, the Chamber of Commerce, merits the strongest support possible.

Of course, there are always those who stay out of the Chamber of Commerce so that they may the better have an opportunity to criticize it.

It is very easy to enumerate many accomplishments of the organization that have been worth much more to the people of the city than the money put into its operation and maintenance.

He's right when he says Big Spring cannot afford to lay down on a job that is three-fourths finished.

These districts comprise that portion of the city east of Main and south of the Texas & Pacific tracks.

VOTE VERY LIGHT; NEED BUILDINGS

Polls In County Courthouse Close At 7 P. M.

Sponsors of the $125,000 school bond issue on which voters were casting an opinion Thursday foresaw defeat of the measure because of the citizens' apathetic attitude. Only 134 votes had been cast at 2:15 o'clock Thursday afternoon with less than six hours remaining during which voters may poll their ballots.

Very Serious

The school bond election was called after a committee appointed from the citizenship at large had conferred with the school board and had reached the conclusion that immediate steps must be taken to relieve the crowded school condition which now exists in Big Spring.

If bonds are passed, the school board proposes to construct new buildings in the eastern and the western sections of the city and to make necessary and adequate improvements to buildings now in use. Various tables of statistics revealing the crowded condition in schools at present and the greater handicap that will be created next year when six-year-old children become eligible to free public instruction have been prepared and printed that voters might know just how serious is the condition facing the school system of the city.

Evans Claims Story Injured Annual Salary

DALLAS, April 17 (AP)—The salary of Dr. Hiram W. Evans, imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, dropped from $30,000 to $27,000 after the publication of alleged libelous statement by the Austin American, Dr. Evans testified today.

Dr. Evans was a witness in the trial of the $150,000 suit brought by him against the Austin newspaper. He said he thought shrinkage of Klan membership brought about by the publication of the alleged defamatory speech was one of the contributory factors to the salary decrease.

The address was delivered by M. M. Crane of Dallas before the state Democratic convention in 1924.

In 1927, Dr. Evans' yearly stipend was reduced to $20,000 and about the first of 1929 to $12,000, the executive head of the Invisible Empire related.

The witness was cross-examined by Sidney L. Samuels, chief counsel for the American. Samuels, however, was unable to get District Judge Towne to instruct Dr. Evans to procure the membership of the Klan in Texas for 1924. Dr. Evans "guessed it was between forty or fifty thousand and one hundred thousand." He said the figures would have to be obtained from Atlanta. In that year the Klan issue divided the Democratic party into two factions. The convention was held immediately after the runoff primary in which Judge Felix Robertson, favored by the Klan, was defeated by Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson.

In the alleged defamatory speech, Crane accused Evans and W. J. Simmons, ousted head of the Ku Klux Klan, of splitting $150,000. A deposition from the late Amos W. Brazelton of Atlanta, who represented Simmons in the transaction, was introduced by Dr. Evans' attorneys. The deposition stated that the money in settlement of Simmons' claims was not handled by Dr. Evans and that Dr. Evans made a counter-offer approximately $100,000 less than Brazelton's offer. The offer of the smaller amount of money was accepted as the basis of settlement.

Thompson was cited for "courtesy, discretion and intelligent application of first aid knowledge in an emergency," his act having saved the life of at least one and perhaps two men who were fumigating the Galveston telephone exchange January 29, 1929.

The men, T. Wakefield and W. H. Harrison, employed by the Fumigating Service, Inc., became unconscious while fumigating one of the rooms in the building. Thompson applied first aid methods to both men, Wakefield being revived after an hour and forty-five minutes of work while Harrison was unconscious about twenty-five minutes. Thompson also maintained order among the alarmed operators who were on duty at the time.

Brewton's reward came as the result of his saving a fellow employee's life in an accident on a country road near Henderson last December 18.

Caudle

With T. P. Caudle, Brewton had set out on a muddy road to locate a break in a toll line when the car they were driving became mired. While Brewton was standing in the road, a 45 foot tree fell on the car, breaking Caudle's back, pinning him in the car. Unable to remove the tree, Brewton held it off the suffering man for twenty minutes, until help happened along. Near-zero weather prevailed and Brewton stripped off most of his own clothing to bandage Caudle's wounds and keep him warm.

Brewton administered first aid to the injured man until a doctor could be obtained, which was nearly two hours. Caudle is recovering from the injuries.

Other telephone employees who were cited with the Texans are: Miss Margaret Lucille Woolsey, Chautauque, Kans.; Mrs. Myrtle Dorothy Dull, Elmdale, Kans.; Miss Audrey Groves, McPherson, Kans.; Mrs. Eunice Armstrong and Rebecca Armstrong, Mayesville, Oklahoma.

He said the first trip he remembered making was Tuesday at noon. He said he met his three companions at Seventh and Houston streets and drove to the courthouse, where the three got out of the car. He said he then went to a Crump street address where he "got two negroes and took them to Fifteenth and Commerce."

Boyt said he told the negroes, both of who had guns, to rent a service car, and go to Polytechnic. He said they decided to go out on the street car.

That night, Boyt said, he again saw the "ringleader," who told him (Boyt) the robbery hadn't gone through. Boyt said he and another of his companions went to 303 Crump street, where they saw the "one-eyed negro who later was killed." Will Tate fitted this description. The other negro slain after the bank robbery attempt was George Terrell.

At about 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning the day of the robbery, Boyt said he was in the lobby of the Texas Hotel when one of his companions came after him. The "ringleader" was in the car. The three talked, Boyt said, and he and his companion wanted to withdraw, but the "ringleader" called them "a couple of kill joys."

He said he then went after the two negroes and took them to Polytechnic, letting them out in front of the high school. He said he noticed a "little girl watching us."

Boyt declared one of the negroes was not armed and both had been drinking.

He said that last Monday the "ringleader" called him by telephone and that he "didn't know him no time no where."

One of the men under arrest, when informed of Boyt's statement, said: "I don't know about any statement, I've told everything I know."

County investigators Carter and Chollar Wednesday night located two cars said to have been involved in the holdup plans, one of which was alleged to have taken the two negroes to Polytechnic on the day of the robbery.

Overall Suit Called To Trial

COLEMAN, Texas, April 17 (AP)—A suit involving the estate of Mrs. Martha Tyler Overall, valued at several millions of dollars, was called here today. A motion by heirs of the late Col. R. H. Overall for a continuance was overruled by Judge Miller and attorneys read pleadings of the litigants.

A. G. Ellet of Kansas City, whose wife is a niece of Col. Overall and Mrs. Overall, was here representing a majority of the blood heirs of the latter.

Charles J. Schuck, attorney of Wheeling, W. Va., represented Mrs. Agatha M. Fennell of the same city, one of three nieces of Mrs. Overall who was to share the residue of the estate.

The fifteenth clause in Mrs. Overall's will was said to have asked that all monies remaining after all bequests were paid go to the nieces, Mrs. Fennell, Mrs. Mary, McCully of Britton, Okla., and Mrs. Lucy Van Cleave of Macon, Mo.

According to J. P. McCord, executor of the will, there is only about $2,500 in money remaining. If the term "money" is elastic enough to include land, notes and oil royalties, then there is remaining more than $300,000, it was pointed out.

Mrs. Van Cleave died prior to Mrs. Overall's death in 1927, and no alteration was made in the will, and it is now desired to know whether her share shall go to her two children or to direct heirs.

The suit was filed by McCord for a legal construction of the will. Thirty-six individuals and seven

Another Chicago Bandit "Paid Off"

CHICAGO, April 17 (AP)—While the city was reading of a consolidation of metropolitan gangs and a peace pact for control of liquor, vice and gambling, an automobile sped through south side streets today after a fleeing quarry. The smaller car was overtaken, and from the "pay" car came a spray of machine gun bullets.

A score of bullets struck the driver, and he slumped over the wheel, dead. Joseph Blew, 50, "King of Pickpockets" fifteen years ago and long known to police as mail robber, safe blower and bootlegger, had been "paid off" for reputed meddling in the liquor trade or double crossing of pals.

CLEAN UP WEEK

Big Spring is participating in the observance of National Clean-Up Week, which opened on Monday, April 14 and the public schools are cooperating in this campaign. Monday afternoon, a big clean up parade was staged, in which more than two thousand school students took part. Splendid interest is being shown in this work.

The school students can play a big part in making the clean-up campaign a success, by spending several hours working at home, in cleaning up their yards and premises. If everyone will go just a little, a great deal of good can be done.

An essay writing contest on "Clean Up" was staged in high school, and Miss Dorothy Driver was successful in winning first prize. Miss Pauline Melton won second place with her essay, and third place went to Miss Elsie Duff. This contest created much interest in the campaign.

We want to urge each and every one to get busy and do something to make the Clean Up campaign a success. Help your part of town to take on a neat and clean appearance, and help make Big Spring a safer place to live in.

Hazel Nance spent Sunday in Lorraine.

Margaret Bettie Called Honor Senior Of The Wheel For Year

When one girl has been president of two classes, secretary of one, treasurer of another, club editor of the El Rodeo, a member of the cast of the senior play, president of the pep squad, president of the Glee Club, salutatorian of her class, vice-president of the Commercial Club, a representative to Abilene in oratorical contests, and is a member of such social organizations as the F.U.N. Club, the I.K.K.A.H. and the Rainbow, it is easy to see why she is selected for the Wheel's first honor student.

Margaret Bettie was born in St. Louis, Missouri, April 28, 1912. She moved to Big Spring in 1920, where she has resided since. She was salutatorian of the graduating class from Junior High in 1926, and has carried this same distinction throughout her scholastic career.

The Wheel takes pleasure in presenting its honor senior, Miss Margaret Alvira Bettie.

Who's Who In High School

JARRELL "JAKE" PICKLE

Jake Pickle, the jolly president of the Sophomore class, was born in Roscoe, Texas, on October 11, 1912. His family moved to Big Spring in 1920 and that fall Jake started to school to Mrs. Della Agnell at Central Ward. Football and baseball are his favorite sports and he is considered a very versatile young man in that he is able to master Latin and mathematics with equal ease. Jake entered high school in the fall of 1928 and was an assistant corporal in Scott's mighty army of freshman boys. His enthusiasm and pep have made innumerable friends for him. Though he will be with us two years longer, may we at this early time wish him success in the profession that he decides upon whether it be journalism or law.

Maryin Sewell will visit in Gall next week-end.

PRIDE TAKEN IN RESULTS AT LUBBOCK

The high school is duly proud of the contestants who went to Lubbock to compete in the Latin tournament. Two teams went from the high school, one from second year Latin composed of Hudson Henley and Leonard Van Open, and the other team from the first year Latin composed of Ruth Mellinger and Margaret McDonald.

Out of a group of twenty nine contestants Ruth Mellinger was judged to be the most proficient and was given first place. She was rewarded with a pin bearing the inscription, "Summa cum Laude," and a five-dollar gold piece.

In the second year contest Leonard Van Open won second place and Hudson Henley third place. There were twenty contestants for the second year honors.

Among the schools with whom Big Spring was competing were Amarillo, El Paso and Lubbock as well as a host of smaller schools.

Students' Work To Be Displayed

Exhibits of students' work in the various subjects taught in the Big Spring schools, will be on display at the various school buildings Monday, April 21. The teachers and students have worked hard to make these exhibits interesting, and to show the improvement the students have made in their work during this school year.

You are cordially invited to visit the various schools throughout the day and see the different exhibits. Show your children that you are interested in what they are doing by

DEBATE PREP FOR TOURNEY

On Thursday evening of last week the boys and girls debate teams journeyed to Stanton for practice debates on the Interscholastic League question. The girls teams composed of Louise Hayes and Elsie Duff upheld the negative side of the question and won by a decision of 2-1. The boys also had the negative side, the team consisting of Frank Martin and Robert Curry, having lost to the Stanton team 2-1.

Both boys and girls teams lost to Midland Monday. In the afternoon the girls upheld the affirmative, Monday evening the boys lost to the Midland boys, who had the affirmative. Monday evening the boys lost to the Midland boys, who had the affirmative. Steve Ford, after a week's absence, has returned to the regular debating team. His being out of several practice debates is detrimental to the team, but it is hoped that the team will be at its best this week end in Abilene.

Juniors Take Essay Prizes

The Junior class is quite proud of the fact that the winners of the essay contest sponsored by the Civic Committee of Big Spring during Clean-Up Week are from the ranks. Dorothy Driver, Pauline Melton, and Elsie Duff won first, second and third places respectively and received the awards of $5 for first prize, $3 for second prize, and $2 for third prize.

Mrs. J. O. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Currie, Misses Davis and Wingo went to Stanton Thursday night to hear the debate between Stanton and Big Spring.

Tech Visited By Students

Last Saturday morning a party of high school students journeyed to Lubbock to attend the Engineers Fair at Texas Tech.

Everyone expressed surprise at the size and equipment which was found at Tech.

Civil, textile, petroleum, geological, and many other phases of engineering were witnessed by the visitors. Architecture and art caused many to look on in awe.

GIRL'S TENNIS TEAM GOES TO SEMI-FINALS

Dorothy Driver and Zillah Mae Ford were defeated in the semi-finals of the eighth district interscholastic meet by Earline Sivley and Loree Guffy of Abilene high school, 4-6, 6-8. The Abilene combination later won the title from Haskell 6-2, 6-1.

The two Big Spring girls entered the second round at the expense of Colorado, whom they defeated in a grueling three-set match, 9-11, 6-4, 7-5.

Ruby Smith, singles represented, defeated the Iatan contestant in the first round match 2-6, 6-4, 6-2. She was defeated by Juanita Adams, title winning girl from Haskell.

Cast Of Senior Play Finished: Vanatta And Ripp's Given Roles

Roles in the cast of "The Royal Scapgrace" to be presented soon in the high school auditorium, were awarded to Bill Vanatta and James Ripp after tryouts held Tuesday afternoon. The cast now has been completed.

Vanatta, cast in the part of a scapegrace brother of a genius, will bear the brunt of the plot with Burma, Barley as McMullan and Clara Brenner as "The Bra."

The cast: The Bra—Clara Brenner. Steve—Bill Vanatta. McMullan—Burma, Barley. The Butler—Hugh Sweet. The Bishop—James Ripp. Angela—Margaret Bettie. Mrs. Forester—Johnnie McElhannon. Mrs. Wray—Mildred Patterson. Dot—Maxine Thomas. The Maid—Emma Louise Freeman.

New Spelling

It was the fourth period on Monday afternoon, a very romantic time for seniors. Miss Cox was giving the usual ten-minute spelling drill, King Francis was making faces across the hall and Clara Brenner was making eyes at Buster.

Miss Cox now called on Bill Henley. "Bill spell ecclesiastic!" Bill spelled slowly, "E-C-C-E-L-E-S-T-I-C-A-L."

"Fine, now, Henry, spell 'awkward,'" said Miss Cox. "Ceck, spell 'picknick,'" she said, and stop talking to sloppy."

THE LANDINGS ON THE STAIRWAY

Soon the Class of 1930 will reach another landing on the stairway. How many of these landings there are altogether dependent on how high one climbs. Baby feet climb the first steps and reach their first landing when babyhood is over and they start to school. From the first grade to junior high is the longest climb, and by the time that landing is reached just a few get too tired of climbing and fall by the wayside. Then high school—the thrill that comes but once in a lifetime. Always teachers have been teachers; they have mothered pupils and loved them, but now teachers become professors, with more initials after their names than they have before them; condescending seniors of the ripe old age of sixteen looking down from on high and students are referred to as "poor fish."

Students have always been taught that George Washington, Robert E. Lee and Sam Houston were heroes worthy of emulation, but now they pale into insignificance before the mighty football captains, ends and tackles on the football team. Pupils have been taught that General Pershing was one of the greatest directors of men that the world has ever seen but they soon find that he can not even hold a light to the coach that directs the athletic activities. But they keep climbing and at last are the Seniors. Some of them have been great football heroes, yell leaders and class leaders. But they are right at another landing on the stairs. Some will start on up another flight in an educational way, and others will start up the flight of achievement in their life's work. One thing sure, but few of them will climb together from this landing on, but let them not forget the many steps

WATSON-REED WRESTLE DRAW

"Marine" Watson and "Tiger" Reed wrestled forty-five minutes in a heated deadlock in the feature match of the Big Brothers Club Athletic entertainment Tuesday night in the high school gym. Each of the heavyweight contestants captured a fall, Watson and the latter reversing the action in 21 minutes. Time was called before either contestant could throw his opponent.

In the preliminaries Fred, Tony and defeated George Nel in the rounds; Chalmre, York won a 10 minute wrestling decision from Reuben Chelighton; Hildreth won a four round boxing decision from Homer Eddie; Cook forfeited the fifth round to Graves because of an injury to his hand; Sand defeated Smith in a three round fight.

A special free for all event was won by Conway Cochran, Fust Roberts and Short were other contestants. McGill refereed the boxing match while Homer Eddy was the time man in the ring during the Watson-Reed go. Hardy and McPeak acted as timekeepers.

GOOD SPORTS
"What is a good sport? We like a poor sport is the guy that goes around telling his so-called friends that he didn't deserve to fall in my report card. The teacher just doesn't like me, that's all." Another example of poor sportsmanship is the fellow who "would have won, only—"

"Are you a good sport? If not, why not? Why not take what goes with a smile? Don't mar the other fellow's victory by your failure. Some one has to lose. Take your turn and quit riding that ground long enough to give the other fellow a great big hand.—Exchange.

Sport Review

By CURT BISHOP

The hard luck champion has hit it again. Two years ago Euren Edwards, one of the star players of the basketball squad, was unable to participate in the county meet because of illness. Due to the absence of its scoring ace the Big Spring squad was defeated. This winter is his last year, already accorded the honor of being chosen all-district center, and with the eyes of West Texas upon him, Edwards suffered a sprained ankle that interfered with his work all during the year. This injury probably cost his team the district title.

Edwards III

And now Edwards, premier track man in West Texas, will not be in excellent shape for the district track and field meet because of illness. And Big Spring, accorded the chance of making its name well-known in Abilene, will suffer.

Tuesday Howard Green and Smoky Brothers, star tracksters from Abilene and San Angelo, respectively, raved over four hundred and forty yards in a special event. This week-end Edwards will tangle up with the flying Eagle. Green will meet a man who can enter six events and win through it, running all of them at top speed. Edwards will meet a man who is the greatest high school four-footer in the district, and who in addition runs the 100 and 220 in exceptionally fast times.

In the hurdles two former all-district basketball stars are the favorites over the field. Edwards will do well if he beats the lanky Jack Smith to the tape in the low hurdles, as the Eagle's time of 25.3 will testify.

Big Spring vs. Abilene

San Angelo throws her best man against two of Abilene's stars. Big Spring sends Edwards into four races, and each one of the quartet finds Abilene the strongest. It was San Angelo vs. Abilene in special events Tuesday; it will be Big Spring against Abilene Saturday.

The tennis team, weakened by the loss of its No. 1 player, turned in a creditable performance in the district meet last week-end. Tommy Hutto and Fred Townsend went into the semi-finals before losing to Roscoe, the team that lost to the championship. Eagle combination in the finals.

The second of the courtiers affects a sophisticated, conceited attitude that he recommends for usage as far as blondes are concerned.

"Every other girl I know," he goes on, "is crazy about me except you, the only one in the world that I care for."

A letter from a reader: "I have enjoyed your columns fairly well but I was astonished to discover you did not possess any sex appeal." Did you ever hear me singing through a megaphone when I had just had my hair curled?

The debating teams composed of Louise Hayes and Elsie Duff, Robert Currie and Steve Ford with Frank Martin as alternate, were accompanied to Midland Monday night by Misses Wingo and Davis and Maurine Garrett.

Miss Georgia Kirk Davis spent the week-end in Lubbock and Tahoka.

Walter Deats' orchestra, officially named the Kiwanis orchestra, accompanied local Kiwanians to Sweetwater Thursday night to play at a banquet at the Bluebonnet Hotel.

Ox Johnson, Franklin Orr, Ed Maxwell, and Jack Glenn plan to spend the week-end in Fort Worth.

Katherine Meadow and La Velle Barber plan to spend Sunday in Colorado.

Valera Singh and Jamie Barley plan to visit in Midland Sunday.

Alden Ryan is to spend the week-end in San Angelo.

Ozelle Orr spent last week-end in Abilene.

Emma Louise Freeman, Burma Barley and Alva Shultz spent Sunday in Midland.

Farrell Squires was in San Angelo Monday.

O. C. Hart plans to spend the week-end in Cisco.

Odle Jordan spent the week-end in Sweetwater and plans to spend this week-end in San Antonio.

Neuritis Pains Quickly Succumb To New Konjola

Dallas Lady, 78, Relates Splendid Experience With New and Different Medicine

MRS. SADIE WILLIAMSON

"No words of praise can do justice to new Konjola," said Mrs. Sadie Williamson, 3621 South Fitzhugh street, Dallas. I was a victim of that dreaded ailment, neuritis. Sharp agonizing pains shot through my entire body but the most severe attack centered in the left side of my face. I went for days at a time without a wink of sleep and became very nervous. I thought at times that I could not bear the awful pain. No medicine I tried did me any good until I found Konjola. "I started treatment with this medicine and the results have been truly wonderful. I am not suffering a particle of pain and I can recommend Konjola as being a medicine of outstanding merit. In spite of my age—I am 78—my entire system seems to have been benefited by this new medicine as I feel better and stronger in every respect that I have felt in a long time."

Although Konjola works well and quickly, six to eight bottles are recommended as a fair trial. Although many people are benefited within a few weeks, it is well to take this medicine from six to eight weeks for the best results.

Konjola is sold in Big Spring at Collins Bros. drug stores, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—adv.

26 On Camping Trip To New Camp

Twenty-six Big Spring men went on an over-night camping trip to the Lytle ranch Wednesday evening. They were members of the "model scout troop" formed here by those who were enrolled in a recent scout leadership training school.

A meal of broiled steaks, baked potatoes and "all the fixings" was cooked for supper. Men who stayed all night were C. P. Harrett, Monroe Johnson, J. H. Smith, Hayden Griffith, W. B. Hardy, Frank Boyle, Fred Hopkins, Harold Blue, A. C. Williamson.

Others present for the evening only were Bill Stevens, George Gentry, John Coffey, H. S. Faw, D. H. Reed, Lewis Rix, L. F. Smith, Philip Slusser, C. C. Carter, C. S. Holmes, Carl Blomshield and two sons Pat Ray, Bill Turpin, Raymond McDaniel, Sam Raney and H. Lyle.

H. Q. Lyle, owner of the ranch, has offered the use of the campsite to scouts at any time. It is a week-end camp with lots of trees, grass and good water. It is a beautiful place for overnight and 13 miles southeast of the city.

20 DEAD IN MILL FIRE

MANILA, April 17 (AP)—Twenty persons were known to be dead and 5,000 homeless late tonight as the sm mill fire at Caddis, province of Occidental negroes was brought under control after burning two days.

Constabular official reports estimated the loss at $2,500,000. The fire destroyed the Insular Lumber Company's saw mill and the homes of many mill workers.

Doctors, nurses and food have been sent to Caddis, and the Red Cross has offered to take relief measures.

TEXAS U. GETS ROYALTY CHECKS FROM LEASES

The general land office at Austin announced this week the receipt of oil royalties from lands leased by the University of Texas totaling $115,742 for March. This total is expected to reach $160,000 with receipt of late royalties. The larg-

Large Crowds Attend Revival

The revival services at the First Christian church continue to grow in interest, with new members being accepted into the church at each service. Last night the Rev. Mr. Lindley chose as his text the words "They Crucify to Themselves the Son of God Afresh, and Put Him to Open Shame." He said, "If Jesus Christ were to come to Big Spring, would he be crucified? It is not a question of what you would do if you recognized him, for the Jews thought they would recognize him and worship him. They crucified him because they had permitted certain sins to control their lives. Christ is here, and he is being crucified afresh by the sins of Big Spring."

"If the same sins that dominated the lives of the Jews are dominating our lives, then we are among those to be found at the foot of the cross screaming for his life. The first sin that led to the crucifixion of Jesus was the sin of slander. They perjured themselves before the judgment seat of Pilate in order to bring false charges against Jesus. They could not have brought him to trial had they not slandered his name. Those who are slandering that which is good are crucifying the Son of God afresh."

"Jesus was also crucified because of the sin of greed. One of his own disciples betrayed him for thirty pieces of silver. He was crucified because of the sin of pride. Men like Nicodemus refused to support him because they were too proud to confess him before the crowd they were running with. He was crucified because of the sin of ingratitude. The very men he came to save drove the nails in his hands. He was finally crucified because of the sin of stubborn rejection. They said, 'Give us Barabbas, crucify Jesus.' That is the sin that broke his heart and drove him to the cross. Those who are committing that sin tonight are grinding their hard heels on his bleeding heart."

The subject of the message announced for tonight was "The By-standers of the Cross." There will be special music by the choir, and services begin at 7:45 p. m.

The cattleman came here from Hot Springs, Ark., for a visit with a daughter, Miss John Anne James, student at an El Paso school for girls. He was owner of the famous Rocking Chair Ranch in Bailey county where he had been a resident for more than 35 years.

Burial will be in Amarillo where James had made his home in recent years. In addition to his daughter the cattle man is survived by a brother, J. D. James of Abilene, and a sister, Mrs. Julia Holden of Childress, Texas.

She Lost 19 Pounds of Fat In 27 Days

During October a woman in Montana wrote: "My first bottle of Kruschen's is lasted almost 4 weeks and during that time I lost 19 pounds of fat—Kruschen is all you claim for it—I feel better than I have for years."

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Every morning take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast.

Be sure and do this every morning for "It's the little, daily dose that takes off the fat." Don't miss a morning. The Kruschen habit means that every particle of poisonous waste matter and harmful acids and gases are expelled from the system.

At the same time the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are toned up and the pure, fresh blood containing Nature's six life-giving salts is carried to every organ, gland, nerve and fibre of the body and this is followed by "that Kruschen feeling" of energetic health and activity that is reflected in bright eyes, clear skin, cheerful vivacity and charming figure.

If you want to lose fat with speed get an 85c bottle of Kruschen Salts from Collins Bros. Drugs or any live druggist anywhere in America that you must be satisfied with results or money back.—Adv.

Deputy Is Killed In Houston Liquor Raid

HOUSTON, Texas, April 17. (AP)—Deputy Sheriff W. C. (Dubbs) Williams, 23, was dead today, shot through the heart during a liquor raid last night about six miles from Satsuma.

C. A. Botkin, 50, who had accompanied the officers on the raid, was charged with murder in connection with the slaying.

Botkin said he fired the shot which killed Williams, but he thought the deputy was connected with the still then being raided and he fired when Williams did not obey a command to halt.

After Sheriff T. A. Binford had taken statements from witnesses, the charge was filed against Botkin.

The statements said Botkin accompanied the officers to point out a still being operated in a barn near Satsuma, and while other officers were in the barn, the shooting took place.

Williams was the son of W. C. Williams Sr., veteran member of the Houston police department. In addition to his parents, he is survived by a brother, Eugene.

In connection with the raid, liquor charges were filed against five persons.

Dr. J. D. Sandefer Is Honored At Abilene

DR. J. D. SANDEFER

ABILENE, Texas, April 17.—This city will pay homage Thursday to one of West Texas' foremost pioneer builders—Dr. J. D. Sandefer, president of Simmons University here.

A banquet at the Hillside Hotel in Thursday night—a testimonial affair—will follow a morning program at Simmons university. Both occasions will officially recognize 20 years of accomplishment on the part of President Sandefer in molding the West Texas Institution. The celebration will be conducted by civic and luncheon clubs and the Abilene Chamber of Commerce.

Through efforts of the First Baptist church of Abilene—the college was founded in 1890 as an "associational school." It was named Abilene Baptist college and the cornerstone of the first building was laid in 1901.

With the resignation of Dr. O. H. Cooper in 1909, Dr. Jefferson Davis Sandefer, then chief executive of John Tarleton College, succeeded to the presidency of Simmons college. He started at once his program of vision with a determination characteristic of hundreds of West Texans who contributed efforts and money to the cause of the infant institution.

Dr. Sandefer received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Parker Institute in 1892. During summer school of 1903 he did graduate work in the University of Chicago, becoming president of Tarleton in 1908.

The program to honor the university builder was planned by officers of Abilene's other two colleges and of public schools here. The idea was endorsed at a meeting of the executive board of the chamber of commerce.

The chapel hour program at the university will include addresses touching upon the history of the institution with sketches of President Sandefer's work.

High School Track Team Takes Final Speed Drill

STEERS ARE READY FOR TRACK MEET

Eleven Men Represent High School In District Races

Eleven members of the Big Spring Steer track team take their final laps around the improvised track at the ball park Thursday afternoon before embarking Friday for Abilene where the district track and field meet will be held Saturday.

Coach Bill Stevens preceded the tapering off work Thursday afternoon with a strenuous grind Wednesday afternoon. The entire team loped around the quarter mile course 16 times during the afternoon and then practiced specialty events between laps.

Captain Buren Edwards has recovered from illness that last week end threatened to bar the Steer leader from competition in the district meet. Edwards will probably be called on to run both hurdle races, the century and may enter the high jump.

Bill Flowers, Edwards' running mate in the hurdle events, is showing still greater improvement. Flowers may also enter preliminaries in the 100 and 200 yard dashes.

Coach Stevens will take his entire squad of 11 men to Abilene. Men slated to make the excursion are Captain Edwards, Richbourg, Flowers, Pardue, Reed, Phillips, Vines, Glover, Orr, Morris and Squeaky Thompson.

GOOD IDEA

We believe that a West Texas League organized on that basis and with six managers interested in developing young baseball talent in charge can be made into a self sustaining proposition.

By the Nebraska State League plan, the strong teams and the winning clubs that are packing in cash customers, assist the weak sisters with financial obligations.

We would be interested in seeing some such plan attempted in West Texas, but it's too late to start this summer. The plan needs much deliberation, so the logical thing to do is start work on arrangements and get things lined up for the 1931 season.

With all check writing done in the president's office, it would be an easy matter for the executive to halt any breach of the salary limit.

We will welcome communications on this plan. There may be a bug that makes it unwieldy. We may have overlooked the "nigger in the woodpile" that a more observing individual will ferret out.

WASTE BASKET We had a neat story all prepared about how Big Spring baseball backers would make one last drive to secure subscriptions to pay off $5,000 in accumulated indebtedness.

MR. RABE We have at hand a communication from Neal Rabe, the peppery little catcher of last season's Cow boys, Rabe is now at home in Seury, Texas, and writes in wanting a job with some local organization, so he can play city league baseball.

After a day's enforced idleness for four of the eight teams, the Texas league race was resumed today with the Beaumont Exporters still comfortably in the lead.

Beaumont's closest adversaries, Wichita Falls and Dallas, fight it out on the Spudder diamond, the Steers hoping to climb back into a tie for second place lost yesterday when they lost to the Fort Worth Cats at Fort Worth.

The league leaders, rained out yesterday in a game scheduled with the San Antonio Indians on the Beaumont field, journeyed to the Indian camp today. Shreveport, whose game with the Spudders likewise was called, were hosts to the Fort Worth Cats who broke their losing streak by the 4 to 1 victory over Dallas at Fort Worth.

Waco, fighting to get out of the cellar, and Houston, fighting to stay out, play a return engagement at Houston, their meeting at Waco ending with a 10 to 3 victory for the Buffs.

MINIATURE GOLF PLANT WILL OPEN

Course at Meyer Court Is Unique Layout Of 18 Holes

Those golfers who like their game at night under powerful floodlights or who like to play the little white spheres in diluted doses will welcome opening of Meyer Court Miniature Golf Course, which is scheduled tonight.

Charles Quereau, manager of the court, made final plans for opening the novel course during the day and was prepared to entertain visitors at the course.

While the course is in miniature, there are few golfers who will find they can play the entire 18 holes in less than 90 strokes. Mr. Quereau has improvised some of the most complex hazards imaginable and the boys that have been shooting just over the 40 mark on the country club's fairways will find the going rather tough.

All play is confined to fairways on the miniature course, but some of the hazards are more complex than playing in the rough. A complete lighting system has been installed permitting play after dark and the opening tonight is expected to attract numerous curious golfers.

Bob Warren, former football and basketball star at North Carolina State, has been named freshman football coach. He has been a member of the staff at Virginia Poly.

and also from the discovery that in Canada this law, so widely applauded in the United States, is coming under general and severe criticism because of the resultant increase in the use of liquor and its encouragement of bootlegging. Thus far these two propositions are virtually all which the "Association Against" has been advocating. Doubtless, now, out of its foreign investigations will come discussions of the Carlisle plan, maintained at one spot in England; the Götterburg system; the partial prohibition in force in Finland; and a number of other foreign devices.

This discussion is to be welcomed. But in receiving the suggestions which Mr. Wadsworth tells us will shortly be made, two things must be kept thoroughly in mind. To begin with, the temper of the people of the United States is distinctive. What is successful abroad may not, and probably will not, be successful here. The problem of liquor, a vital and a fundamental one, whatever prohibition opponents may say, must be handled with reference to the mental characteristics of the American individual. And the second point, never to be forgotten, is that the investigation, so called, will have been prosecuted by inveterate foes of the idealism which would accomplish the complete destruction of the liquor power by honest prohibition, and that the recommendations to be made will have for their purpose the opening once more of the American market to the sale of intoxicating liquors, and to the inevitable return of the saloon, however much that end may be deprecated.

HOW'S your HEALTH

How About It?
 ONE FIFTH OF THE voters of Texas resided in West Texas in 1929. The same ratio is, it is indicated, preserved for 1930.

But there are almost twenty candidates for governor, subject to this year's Democratic primary. It just occurs to us that if West Texas could and would settle upon one gubernatorial candidate he could very handily be sent into the run-off primary, at least.

Several West Texans have been suggested. None more popular, more deserving nor wiser in the phases of legislation most vital to West Texas than Clint Small of Wellington has been suggested.

His position might be similar to that of Walter Woodward of Coleman, another member of the senate. Mr. Woodward has repeatedly refused to run for governor, chiefly because his personal affairs demand attention, that occupying the governor's chair would prevent.

It is a real sacrifice for a man of any ability to serve as governor of this state; most any of those capable of being elected or of serving acceptably can earn a lot more money each year than the $4,000 paid the executive.

OPINIONS OF OTHERS

The Wets Seek A Program
 Christian Science Monitor.

THE announcement of former Senator Willworth of New York that the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment has been conducting a three-year investigation of liquor control in nine foreign countries and that it hopes soon to make "definite suggestions as to what can be done in the interest of temperance" is interesting and important. Importance may be ascribed to it notwithstanding the fact that the investigations have been initiated by an organization violently opposed to prohibition, and have been conducted presumably, by investigators with that mental background. The report in a sense will be ex parte. It will proceed from those friendly to the use of liquor, although professing eagerness to limit and to regulate that use. Nevertheless, it is an activity of the organization which friends of good order may find it easy to appraise.

It is a weakness of the anti-prohibition campaign thus far that it has suggested nothing of a constructive nature whereby the flood of liquor which its promoters would let loose upon the land can be controlled. True, there have been individual suggestions of continued prohibition of so-called hard liquor with a relaxation of laws against light wines and beer, but it is notable that in the last six months this particular contention has almost entirely disappeared. It never seemed based upon any sincerity of purpose, but was rather an expedient wedge for the general breakdown of all liquor regulation. There have been suggestions for the adoption of the Canadian system of regulation. This program, too, suffers from the immediate situation of the disastrous failure of the South Carolina Dispensary Law, which was essentially the Canadian system.

Hollywood Sights
 By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD—Personal appearance tours sometimes are an education for the movie actor.

El Brendel, the comedian, for instance, learned on a recent trip to St. Louis that the movie actor should investigate rather than merely smile when lads announce to him their intention of coming to Hollywood.

Three youngsters told him enthusiastically they would see him here soon—and now here are, on Brendel's hands as it were, looking for jobs in a town where those are pretty scarce, especially for the uninitiated.

AN ANSWER LADY
 Then there is Lillian Roth, who as a result of a recent out-of-town personal appearance, probably never will venture out of Hollywood again unarmed with a complete encyclopedia of movie information.

Fans asked her questions about everything and everyone in Hollywood, from the true color of Clara Bow's hair to Gary Cooper's real height, from the size of a star's income to the color of Colleen Moore's eyes—hundreds of questions which might stump even a professional "answer man."

True respect for the job of the motion picture cutter can be acquired only in a projection room where the "rushes," his raw material, are being shown.

The "rushes" are what their name implies, the hastily developed bits of film which, when joined in logical order, will be the talkie the audience sees and hears in the theater. In the projection room the cutter sees these bits, makes mental notes, and then proceeds to the cutting room where his real work begins.

CUTTER SEES ALL
 Every scene is photographed from half a dozen angles or more, and the cutter sees them all in order to determine which had best be used. He selects the most effective and discards the rest, and pieces them together so that the screen will get a moving, many-angled an logical sequence.

To the lay mind the task seems bewildering, but the experienced cutter assails it without trepidation.

JACQUELINE ON HER OWN
 by RICHARD STARR

SYNOPSIS: The diamond necklace stolen from a wealthy patron at Ciro's night club vanishes from the place where Jacqueline had hidden it, pending its return to its owner. Her fears of arrest are allayed when Detective McAllister of Scotland Yard calls and tells her the newspaper announcement that they were seeking her was a subterfuge. Days pass without Teddy Montrose calling again and Jacqueline is surfeited by the pleasures of the wealthy. Then she receives a letter in which Teddy declares his love and regrets that his poverty prevents him from proposing. Jacqueline realizes she loves him but replies that, under the circumstances, it will be better not to see each other again.

Chapter 25
SUBTERFUGE
 After that Jacqueline set herself to enjoy life with a sort of desperate earnestness, determined to get as much value as possible out of the rapidly diminishing store of money which was left to her.

But she found it uphill work. Many times every day she dismissed Teddy completely from her mind, and told herself sternly that she would not think of him again. But as a subject for reflection she found him rather hard to dismiss.

She was relieved when Mr. Carew came one afternoon. Any company was acceptable which would distract her thoughts, even if it did so unpleasantly.

She found herself now sometimes thinking that she would be precious glad when this so-called glad time of hers was finished, and she had to go back to work for her living again. She had always found that when you had to work pretty hard for your living you had not nearly so much time to think of unhappy things. In places like Byrnes particularly one did not have a lot of time to reflect on unprofitable things.

But Mr. Carew had not come it seemed to suggest another evening's enjoyment.

"I want you to come with me to see a friend who wishes to see you, and is unhappy unable to come to you," he said.

"Good gracious!" said Jacqueline. "What do you mean, Mr. Carew? I have no friends."

"You must allow me to differ from you there," he answered with a significant look. "I for one must ask to be allowed to count myself your friend."

"Very nice of you," replied Jacqueline. "Who is the other?"

"Mrs. Porter Mason." "Goodness gracious! Where is Mrs. Mason, and why does she want to see me, and what is it all about, Mr. Carew?"

"I have found out at last where Mrs. Mason is," said Carew. "She is in the country, at a place called Talverton, some 30 miles from here. She is staying with some friends. As a matter of fact she at the corners of her soft, childish mouth.

"Any way," reflected Teddy, "she doesn't look so darned happy over it."

Which, though he honestly had no wish for her to be unhappy, was a reflection that seemed to cheer him up. He went on his way, still frowning thoughtfully, but swinging his stick with an air of jauntness.

Presently he muttered: "Very well. Let him have her for today. It may not be for long. The end is not yet, as the fellow says in the book, and the world is full of a number of things."

By the aid of the dash lamp Jacqueline looked at her watch. It was nearly 9:30.

They were crawling along in a thick fog at about four miles an hour. From the narrowness and roughness of the road it was very clear to her that they were not by any means on a main road.

She was getting more and more exasperated, and knew that it was a question of minutes before she gave Mr. Carew what she called a piece of her mind.

The drive had been a chapter of accidents. First there had been a burst tire, which had taken nearly an hour to change. Then they had run out of gasoline. Then something went wrong with the engine, and a prolonged stay at a garage was necessary.

Finally, Jacqueline insisted that they must give up all hope of reaching Talverton that night, and must immediately return to London.

So Mr. Carew had turned the car and taken what he described as a short cut to make up for the time they had lost. But on the short cut, further minor troubles had developed. They were in a thick fog, and there was not the slightest sign of the main road which Mr. Carew insisted they would reach at any moment.

Eventually the car slowed up by easy stages, and came to a halt.

"What's the matter now?" asked Jacqueline acidly. "Another puncture, or is it only a wheel off?"

"I believe we're lost," returned Mr. Carew dully. "In fact I feel sure we are."

"That's cheerful. Well, what are you going to do about it?"

"We must keep on, I suppose. At least until we come somewhere. This fog is very dangerous, and we ought to put up somewhere until it clears."

"But will it clear?" asked Jacqueline in consequence.

"Not much likely to be any better until the morning. These coastal fogs usually get worse."

Jacqueline became even more thoughtful. Her wits were remarkably clear, and she was getting very suspicious of Mr. Carew. She had the feeling that instead of getting nearer to London they were getting further away from it.

She sat silent, and presently exactly as she had expected, the car stopped again with a wheeze and a grunt, and the engine abruptly ceased its musical hum.

"Something wrong again," muttered Carew, as he descended. Jacqueline descended with him and stood by while he eput his head under the hood.

Rain And Cold Stops Games In Major Circuits

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer
Old Man Weather has delivered his first severe blow of the baseball year.

Mr. Weather, in the form of rain and cold, wiped off five games from yesterday's major league program, leaving but two in the National league and one in the American. And the Chicago White Sox and Cleveland Indians still are trying to stage their opening at Chicago, hopeful of getting it done today before the Indians have to move on.

It might have been better for the National league champions, the Chicago Cubs, if the rainy area had extended as far as St. Louis. Playing their second game there, the Cubs took a 13 to 3 beating from the rampant Cardinals, starting in the first inning, the Cards collected 20 hits, six of them doubles and one a home run by Jim Bottomly. George Fisher, slugger recently obtained from the New York Giants, led the parade with four hits, giving him a record of eight blows in nine times at bat for the first two games.

The other National league game gave Cincinnati an even break in two games against Pittsburgh with a 3 to 1 triumph. Pete Donohue of Cincinnati engaged in a duel of right handers against Ervin Brame and came out ahead because of support he received. Donohue kept ten hits scattered, and Critz, Ford and Kelly put a quick stop to Brame's threats by completing three double plays. The Reds bunched a pair of their seven hits off Brame for two runs and Walker provided a third with a home run in the seventh.

In the American league, Washington's Senators became the first team to win two games by nosing out Boston 5 to 4, on the strength of two home runs in early innings. Sam West, the first man up, got one; then Ossie Bluege cracked out another with two on base. After the third inning, Milton Gaston gave the Senators only two hits, but Bump Nadley kept the Sox in check by allowing them only six altogether.

Sweden Goes After Olympic Prospect

KENOSHA, Wis., April 17. (AP)—Sweden wants a winner in the welterweight division for the 1932 Olympic bouts and is out for one.

Karl Orgen, Kenosha schoolboy who won the welterweight crown in the recent New York-Chicago Golden Gloves contests, has been offered a good paying job and all expenses paid by a Swedish newspaper if he will go there and represent that country in the Olympics. He is a native of Sweden.

San Angelo Contractor Is Glad It Came

ORGATONE (ARGOTANE) BEATS ANY MEDICINE HE EVER SAW FOR TROUBLE LIKE HIS, SAYS DICKSON

"I'm certainly glad Orgatone (Argotane) came my way," said W. D. Dickson, a well-known building contractor residing at 709 Spaulding street, San Angelo, Texas, in an interview.

"My health has been broken for the past several months," continued Mr. Dickson. "My stomach was all upset, my food would sour and I would bloat up after eating and have awful pains in my stomach. I would get so nervous it was almost impossible for me to get a full night's rest. I was in miserable shape and got to where I had to quit work for a day or two at a time.

"I began to pick up in just a day or so after I began taking Orgatone (Argotane) and I have been gradually improving ever since. My stomach feels stronger and I can eat and digest many things now I couldn't eat before without suffering afterward. I'm not constipated like I was, my headaches are broken up and my appetite is enormous. My nervousness has disappeared. My general health has greatly improved and I'm getting better right along. I have suffered a long time and have tried many different kinds of medicine, but Orgatone (Argotane) beats them all. I could never get the right relief until I began taking it, therefore I have the best there is."

Genuine Argotane may be bought in Big Spring at the Cunningham & Phillips Drug Stores.—adv.

NEW YORK—Bert Lytell is returning to the screen handsomer than when he left it to go on the stage. His nose has been beautified.

Favorite Net Artists Fall By Wayside

PINEHURST, N. C., April 17. (AP)—Tennis experts hereabouts are viewing with amazement the Davis Cup team selection are being bumped-off.

In quarter-finals of the north and south tournament yesterday, casualties were George Lott, who campaigned against the French for Uncle Sam's net glory last year, and John Van Ryn, also a member of last year's Davis Cup team.

Gregory Mangin, Newark, N. J., showed Lott how tennis should be played and Berkeley Bell, Texas collegian, gave Van Ryn his lesson. Lott and Van Ryn follow Francis T. Hunter, number 2 in the national ratings, Frits Mercier, number six, and Wilmer Allison, number seven, also rans. Only Johnny Doeg, California giant in number three position, remains of the six ranking players who started and he was called upon to summon all his resources to defeat Gifford Sutter of New Orleans.

SIMMONS BEATS TECH ABILENE, Tex., April 17. (AP)—Simmons University Cowboys yesterday defeated Texas Tech 72 to 59 in a track meet featured by performances of Captain Lester Weatherly, Simmons, who ran the 800 in 2:3; and U. S. Marshall Simmons, who tossed the discus 128 feet 8 inches.

By The Associated Press
EL PASO—Nine eagles have been killed at Marfa by an El Paso police marksman hunting in the plane with a pilot. The birds were carrying away a dozen sheep daily and easily got out of range of gunners on the ground. In the air they paid no attention to the plane till it was ten feet or so from them. It took eight hours to destroy the flock.

"Lord, suffer me to catch a fish so large that even in talking of it afterward I shall have no need to lie."

The suggestion, from R. T. Blackwell, president of Randolph-Macon College, was submitted by Senator Swanson of Virginia.

LONDON—Peter Freeman, a Welchman, is perturbed by the groans of lobsters after they are put into boiling water in the house of commons kitchen. Telling the house about it, he was informed by a government spokesman that if he would provide a humane method of killing it would be used. The government insisted death was instantaneous.

BALTIMORE—Arthur W. Baumann and Viola McKeith, known on the stage as Yola Mack, divorced two years ago, are to be married again. They are so happy about it that the second ceremony will be in the presence of the audience of the show in which they are playing.

Why it's wise to choose a CHEVROLET SIX!

Choose CHEVROLET for Smoothness . . .

The only way to get satisfactory smoothness in a low-priced car is to choose a car with a six-cylinder motor. Six cylinders save the whole car from the destructive effects of vibration. And they make motoring far more comfortable. In the new Chevrolet Six, you get every advantage of six-cylinder smoothness.

Choose CHEVROLET for Beauty

Chevrolet brings you the greater beauty of bodies by Fisher—styled by Fisher's famous artist-designers. Long, low and properly proportioned—and complete with every feature of modern automotive coachwork—Chevrolet-Fisher bodies introduce a new measure of quality and beauty into the low-price field.

Choose CHEVROLET for Economy

The new Chevrolet is just as economical as any car you can buy. It costs no more for oil. It costs no more for tires. It costs no more for service. And, in a recent officially-observed economy test, a Chevrolet won first place—averaging over 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline.

Choose CHEVROLET for Service

Chevrolet's owner service policy calls for free replacement—including both parts and labor—of any material that may prove defective within the terms of the standard warranty. Chevrolet's flat-rate charges are the lowest in the industry on many service operations—and, furthermore, Chevrolet service is available at more than 10,000 authorized service dealers.

Choose CHEVROLET for Re-Sale Value . . .

From the standpoint of re-sale value, it's especially wise to choose a Chevrolet. The big swing is to the Six. And when you buy a six-cylinder Chevrolet you are assured a car that will be modern tomorrow as well as today. This is important to remember, for obsolete design always lowers re-sale value.

Choose CHEVROLET for Low Cost

Priced as low as $495 at the factory, the Chevrolet Six is one of the lowest-priced cars in the world. And this low first cost is emphasized over and over again—in gasoline and oil economy, in inexpensive service, and in the low cost of replacement parts.
