TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

A freshness from pounding waves and help churning against rocks and sand remained in the mist swinging upward to permit the entrance of dawn behind foot-hills of purple mountains. Bowing above the shaggy palm tree, a mocking bird was singing in final encore after completing the night's repertoire. Peaan silence, woven with an unreal breathlessness, lay over the mad city that would soon leap from its couch and scream into the skies, but not a leaf moved on the crimson bougainvillea vine lacing the small trellis beyond the rose garden. One could not move for breaking the spell of tranquility as the smiling slumber of a child.

It should fear to ever return to that garden and wait for dawn lest one blundering sound or a restless breeze spoil the portrait of memory. Besides, I am not so young now and the colors do not seem so bright as when youth held the brush.

Compassion may often fail to receive its deserved appreciation and lead to acute losses in the value of gratitude. I shall never cease hearing the piteous bawling of a doggie calf after it had attracted the attention of my brother and myself as we rode toward home in the heat of a scorching summer day. Since our purposeless journey could not be effected by a change in course, we loped toward the unearthly sound. A bone, wild-eyed cow bogged in quick-sand half way up her sides and a terrified calf free to starve was the situation at a glance. We tied our horses to the bull-rushes on the river bank, removed our clothing and started to work. Several hours later we had completed the engineering task, and clustered and weary, dragged the bow to firmer sand. Staggering until use of her long-imprisoned legs returned, she looked as us, sniffed the air and started. Without stopping for our clothing, we ran for the horses, both of which immediately broke from the improvised mooring. Fortunately some very rough-barked cottonwoods were within running distance and after we had waited for the outraged animal to go away, we secured our clothing, making it possible to catch the two willow-tailed ponies. It was one incident for which I felt hampered by inadequate words to express my mood.

Our friendship was that of a boy and man because he had lived a long hard life never to gather any of its bitterness from the salty mines of empty dreams. Many times I used to think of him as a twisted borsaire post in an abandoned fence row, as solid as the soil in which it was planted but with a gentle nature and clear eyes that must have seen all the beauty visible from a saddle joggling along lonely trails. He sought me to seek the pin-cushion cacti berries on the south side of mesquites in the early spring and to see birds flying high against the silver disc of a Texas moon before the first norther struck. Whenever summer clouds pile up like silver smoke from the funnels of a steamer below the horizon of the sea, or at night when each far star gleams as the sod-house window of a home-steader on the plains of space, I remember his voice, his gentle faith and a tear on his cheek one spring.

Upon returning after years and journeying, I found him alone before sunset, a little frailer, shades before his eyes and clutching at a cane. He grasped my hand as if all others in the world were gone and asked me quietly to tell him what I saw, but there is not much to see through the barred windows of pain. I could not tell him about the world he had shown me for his beauty had been sucked into the vortex of wretchedness and there was only the sun going down behind the hills.

With its priceless diadem of freedom, the night wind sweeps through the alleys of time as a fugitive monarch searching in the

ROBBERS BIND MAN AND TAKE CAR THURSDAY

Daylight Hold-up Is Staged by Trio Near County Line

A daring hold-up just inside the Motley county line on Highway No. 18 about 9 o'clock Thursday morning cost Hubert Taylor his automobile and much inconvenience. Mr. Taylor, who had been teaching school in Dickens county and has recently accepted a position as superintendent at the Whiteflat school, was on his way to Matador when the trio, two men and a woman hailed him and asked him to assist them to get their car to a gas station. Immediately after stopping, a revolver was pressed to Mr. Taylor's side and he was commanded to throw up his hands. Working swiftly, the robbers bound him head and foot, placed him in the back of their old car, covered him with the cushion and drove away.

Secures Freedom
Before anyone came to his rescue, Mr. Taylor secured his freedom from the binding, walked to the Midway service station and notified officers. Later reports declared the car had been seen heading west and that a filling station was believed to have been held-up by them Friday morning. A later, unconfirmed report said that the robbers had been arrested at Ft. Sumner, N. M.

FARMERS PLANT DAY AND NIGHT

Motley county is being turned under and planted. Tractors and teams are working day and night in order to get crops planted before moisture from the recent rains is dried out. One field in the Roaring Springs section is reported to be working five tractors and as many as four horse teams late Wednesday. In the Flomot community many farmers owning tractors have made night plowing lights and the machines, operated constantly since the fields became dry enough to plow.

Rainfall in Matador over the past week finally totaled more than five inches and fell in such a manner that very little was lost. Ranges are improving rapidly and cattle are likewise on the incline. The rapid growth in vegetation will make it necessary that all planting be done as rapidly as possible in order to prevent loss of fields to the weeds.

Expo Grass To Be Free Of Chiggers

DALLAS, Texas, June 1.—Grass at the Texas Centennial Exposition, which opens here June 6 and continues through November, will be chigger-proof. Chemicals that instantly kill old fashioned "red-bugs" have been sprayed on 2,500 cubic yards of bermuda used in decorating the grounds. A. L. Simpson, supervisor for the Dallas Park Board, said today. The process will be continued during the Exposition, so that visitors will not be required to resort to old-time remedies for killing the pests.

MISS ALLIE TRAWEEK ARRIVES HOME SUNDAY

Miss Allie Traweck arrived home Sunday from Goose Creek, where she is employed as music instructor in the school. She will spend the summer vacation here with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Traweck.

Miss Traweck was accompanied home by her sister, Dr. Mary Rosenstein of Houston, who is visiting her parents here this week. Music classes will be conducted during the summer by Miss Traweck, and those interested may secure particulars from her.

Truck Depot Opened Here

Fast Daily Services Provided Matador and Territory

Matador is now provided with a modern trucking depot located on Highway 28 just west of the old railroad depot, which is under the management of W. H. (Bill) Pharis. The Miller and Miller Trucking company operating west from Wichita Falls and affiliated with other major truck lines, is now maintaining fast over-night service into Matador from principal wholesale centers. Freight arriving here in the night will be delivered by Mr. Pharis the following morning.

Trains End Sunday
Several Matador citizens watched the last train pull out of town Sunday afternoon, and with little regret since the faster, more economical truck service will afford local merchants with earlier delivery than that in towns forced to depend upon rail service. It was pointed out that Matador is only 24 hours away from the Rio Grande Valley by truck service and that fresh vegetables, fruits and other produce is now obtainable which could not be effected at equal prices by rail delivery.

Local merchants are delighted with the prompt, faster delivery of merchandise since Monday morning and welcome the trucking line to locate a depot here. The telephone number is 177—the location the Moore building formerly occupied by the Henderson filling station.

FIRST SUBSIDY CHECKS ARRIVE

The first shipment of Cotton Price Adjustment Payment checks for this county was received Friday last week. County Agent Frank A. Buckley announced. There were 203 checks in the shipment amounting to $7,979.28. This represents less than one third of the total amount due. Buckley said. The checks averaged $39.30 each. The payment for each farm is made in the check, it was explained, and the operator is required to distribute the proceeds to all parties interested in the crop. Notices have been mailed to all those whose checks have arrived.

Farmers to Receive Special Concessions With New Program

Special concessions to Motley county farmers under the new farm program as recommended by the County Conservation Committee have been approved by the State Committee according to a wire received Wednesday by Frank A. Buckley, county agent. The special provisions will be of considerable importance in this county where limited rainfall and wind erosion are major problems.

The recommendations as approved by the State Committee provide that the following soil conserving practices may be substituted acre for acre for soil conserving crops:

1. Summer fallow by listing often enough to keep the weeds down and the furrows open.
2. Alternate strips sorghum and fallow, sorghum strips two rods wide and fallow strips 8 to 10 rods wide; or single or double rows 10 to 16 feet apart. Stalks must be left on the land, and if any heads are gathered from the strips the actual acreage of such strips will be counted soil depleting crop.
3. Any sorghum, including maize provided all the crop including heads is left on the land and not harvested nor grazed.
4. Crop land being restored to native pasture which is co-listed and not grazed.

Another provision of the new ruling is that a soil-building payment of fifty cents per acre may be made for properly contouring a row crop. The soil-building payment cannot exceed one dollar per acre for the 1936 acreage of soil conserving crop on the farm.

Control your thoughts, and your tongue will not misbehave.

Interment Made Here After Death At Gainesville

The Tribune joins the many friends in extending sympathy in this hour of bereavement.

Representative In Governor's Shoes

"I'd like to be in the governor's shoes—" many of us have remarked at some time or the other. And State Representative Bob Alexander of Childress was in the governor's shoes for a time last Thursday at the Cottle-King Counties Jubilee celebration.

Governor James V. Allred, who was honor guest at a luncheon of the Paducah Lions Club and later rode at the head of a two-mile parade, decided to dress for the Centennial celebration and borrowed Mr. Alexander's white boots. In order that the representative would not be forced to go bare-foot, the governor loaned his shoes to the Childress man.

A large delegation of the Matador Lions Club attended the jubilee and were also guests at the luncheon honoring Governor Allred.

The Cottle-King Centennial Jubilee was declared to be one of the most entertaining and colorful events to be staged in this section and was attended by large delegations from surrounding counties.

Judge J. Ross Bell presided as Master of Ceremonies for the highly entertaining program of exceptional talent arranged by Jerry Debenport, Secretary of the Childress Chamber of Commerce, assisted by Representative Bob Alexander, which was followed by the governor's address.

"It is a matter of bookkeeping," Governor Allred declared, in discussing the financial condition of the state, "times are better in Texas and we are on our way out of the red. We are in better condition than the rest of the country. Texas owes less than fourteen millions of bonded indebtedness, while as a comparison, the neighboring state of Arkansas owes over seventy seven millions."

MAKES SECOND SUICIDE TRY
Man Again Attempts Death by Own Hand

Paul B. Crump, 36, residing in the Whiteflat community about eight miles north of Matador made the second attempt to take his life last Saturday by plunging a knife into his throat and slashing deeply across the left side.

Dr. A. C. Traweck was called immediately by members of Crump's family and rendered treatment. Dr. Traweck declared recovery probable unless infection set in.

Second Attempt
This is the second attempt Crump has made in effort to take his life, the first being about five weeks ago when he slashed his throat, wrists and plunged the knife into his left side, piercing his lung.

A sanity trial for Crump was held here yesterday afternoon and he was declared insane with recommendations that he be sent to a state insane asylum. However, the crowded condition of the institutions will make it impossible to secure entrance for several weeks and relatives are making bond after accepting the responsibility of his care.

Boss Lion, B. F. Tunnell said, "we take credit for the remarkable membership and attendance of our club and I feel, overlook the fact that much of our success is due to the wonderful meals and the co-operation furnished by the women's circles of the two churches. After all, it would be pretty hard to stay away when we know such a splendid meal is waiting." Loud applause followed Lion Tunnell's statement.

Directors Meeting
The directors of the club met in the First State Bank Tuesday morning and the following committees were appointed: City clean-up: Tom Harris and Fay Jacobs. Road signs: Douglas Meador and Elmer Stearns. Ribbons for Centennial singers: Douglas Meador and R. E. Campbell. A concentrated city clean-up campaign will be carried out by the Lions. The truck owners maintain that they contribute much more than they are given credit for to the schools and roads. It is pointed out that according to government figures, truckmen paid over fourteen millions of dollars in taxes last year while the railroads paid only four millions in taxes over the same period of time and through the same source of estimation.

The purpose of the meeting next Wednesday is to organize a local group to work with the state organization known as the Texas Truckers Association. R. H. Water, regional organizer of Amarillo, will speak at the meeting.

ALLRED GETS THINGS DONE

Governor Allred who has been criticized for his many travels over the state is credited with an unbelievable drive, which wears down those around him but seems to find him continually fresh and ready for the next job. He answers more mail, sees more people, gets around over the state
better than any recent governor.
West Texans for the first time in a number of years are having the pleasure of seeing their governor in their cities and towns. Mr. Allred gets things done. That appeals to most everybody. People are at-

FOR GOVERNOR

F. W. FISCHER

F. W. Fischer, candidate for the office of governor advocates payments of old-age pensions in full,
take the tax burden off of lands
and giving the school teachers more pay—to tax the untaxed and untax the over taxed through taxation on Texas' natural resources.

Tyler Candidate In Governor Race Will Take Tax Off Lands

TYLER, Texas, June 1.—F. W.
Fischer of Tyler who is running for governor of Texas on the platform of paying old age pensions
in full, is spreading his philosophy of taxing natural resources from one end of the state to the other.

"A new source of revenue means a new deal for Texas", he says.
He thinks prosperity can be returned through taking the tax off
land and putting it on oil, gas, sulphur, etc. This new source of revenue would provide means of helping schools, highways, the agricultural interests and the Texas consumers of gasoline who are now having to pay a tax of 4 cents a gallon.

Fischer, an oil attorney who gained fame as a constitutional lawyer in the legal squabble over the East Texas oil field, dealt the first death blow to NIRA when the United States Supreme Court upheld his contention against Section 9 (c) of the oil provision of the NIRA.

Fischer was born in West Virginia, spent his boyhood riding bronchos in southwestern Oklahoma, and later studied law on the farm. He is a Mason, a Methodist and a member of the American Legion.

ment they have given her in that

MISS SUE GLENN
LAUDED IN WORK

Included in a recent series of articles pertaining to East Lake Personalities, conducted by Gordon Daline, of Minneapolis, Minn., was a very interesting story concerning Miss Sue Kathryn Glenn, and her work with the South-town Y.
W. C. A., a branch of the Minneapolis organization.

In part, Mr. Daline wrote:
"Southern culture seems to impart
an indefinable charm, a lingering presence of a graciousness and poise that is different. Speech is a part of it, the soft shading and slow turning of syllables, an ease of language that is graceful and yet precise. But that isn't all. It is a culture that has its own distinctions and depths of style. A true southerner is always a southerner.

I am offering this as an introduction to Sue Kathryn Glenn, for although she has been in the northern states for years, she has that nuance of personality that reveals a southern background.

Before coming to Minneapolis as Branch Executive, Miss Glenn
was active in Y. W. C. A. work at Wichita, Kansas. A graduate of Baylor College, Texas, she attended the national Y. W. C. A. training school in New York. The decision to make this work her career was made when she was in the Government service at Washington, D. C. during the World War. She has been Girl Reserve executive, and especially active in the Religions Interest groups.

"Minneapolis is recognized as having one of the foremost Y. W.
C. A. movements in the United States," Miss Glenn said, "and I was very glad to associate myself
with it."

Miss Glenn is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. C. L. Glenn of Matador.

Students Get Prized Belfour Scholarship

On Friday night, May 22, the Matador Public Schools closed one of the most successful school years
in the history of the community.
Diplomas were awarded to 38 graduates that night and two will be given at the end of the summer. The famous Belfour Honors which go to the boy and girl in the senior class ranking highest in loyalty to the school, scholarship and achievement went to R.
E. Campbell Jr. and Oma Mae Jameson. This is considered the highest honors that can be received in the local school. Geneva Cooper and R. E. Campbell received scholarships.

Honors Awarded

Dora Ratcliff was awarded a perfect attendance certificate, as she had not missed a day or been tardy for four years. Fred G.
Simpson Jr. received a perfect attendance award, also; he had not been absent or tardy for his two years in high school. Distinguished

CENTENNIAL TO CLIMAX FIRST
DAY FORD BLDG.

The opening day of the Texas Centennial in Dallas June 6 will find many events originating in and revolving about the Ford Exposition building. The principal feature, outside the actual opening of the building to the public, will be the ceremony signalling the dedication of the "Roads of the Southwest", sections of trails and highways which have played a vital part in the history of this part of the country.

Mammoth Spectacle

The "Cavalcade of Texas", mammoth spectacle, which has been likened to a "grand opera" pageant, will introduce the "Roads of the Southwest" as a part of the elaborate opening day's program.
The Cavalcade, consisting of several hundred actors, livestock, covered wagons, cowboys, Indians
soldiers and other colorful units
will march over the nine sections which total approximately one-third of a mile and wind around the lagoon opposite the Ford Exposition building.

Another event which promises to draw much attention on the first day is the termination of the strangest horse race to be run in the Southwest in years. This race will finish on the "Roads of the Southwest" the Lampasas race, as it has been called, will be sponsored by ranchers and entered by both men and women riders.
About 200 entries are expected.
There is no relay of mounts. Each rider must finish the 180 mile race from Lampasas to Dallas on the same horse. The race will begin June 3 and end on the "Roads of the Southwest" within the Exposition grounds sometime June 6.
Cash prizes will be awarded, and the Ford Motor Company will present the winner with a saddle.

McDonald Attacks
Rival's Traveling

EASTLAND, June 4.—A new issue in the history of state politics has developed in the race
for State Land Commissioner, according to W. H. (Bill) McDonald of Eastland at home for a brief stay after a two weeks' swing through South Texas which he described as very encouraging.

"It has been the custom for an elective official—holding his commission direct from the people—to retain office and make a race. But my opponent, J. W. Hawkins, chief deputy in the land office,

continues to hang on to a fat, appointive job where he is supposed to look after the people's business down at Austin but he is spending this week campaigning in North Texas."

"He is drawing a salary for shaking hands and making political speeches."
McDonald predicted that the people would manifest their disapproval of this course on July 25.

These are the things I love, my

Then give me these; I'll know no

Work Sheet Time Again Extended

The time for accepting work sheets at the county agent's office has again been extended by the State Committee so that everyone might have ample opportunity to share in the benefits of the new Farm Program. In announcing the extension of time to June 10 County Agent Frank A. Buckley expressed the hope that all those who were prevented from coming to town because of rainy weather and muddy roads might now be able to participate. Mr. Buckley commended the farmers of this county for the fine spirit of cooperation shown thus far. Up to Tuesday morning 547 work sheets had been signed, which represents

Citation By Publication

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Motley County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Frank Cates by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the 110th District Court of Motley County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Matador, Texas, on the 4th Monday in July A. D. 1936, the same being the 27th day of July A. D. 1936, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 23rd day of May A. D. 1936, is a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 947, wherein Winnie Cates is Plaintiff, and Frank Cates is Defendant, and said petition alleging:

That on or about the 27th day of October, 1933, Plaintiff was duly and legally married to defendant in the State of Georgia and continued to live with him as his wife until about the 1st day of December, 1935.

Plaintiff has been an actual bona-fide inhabitant of the State of Texas for a period of 12 months and has resided in said County of Motley, where this suit is filed, a period of six months next preceding the filing thereof.

At all times while married to defendant, plaintiff conducted herself with propriety, doing her duty as a wife, has at all times treated defendant with kindness and forbearance and has been guilty of no act bringing about or causing the hereinafter described acts, omissions and conditions on defendants part.

Defendant disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows and his obligations to treat plaintiff with kindness and attention within about one year after their said marriage commenced a course of unkind, harsh and tyrannical conduct toward plaintiff which continued with very slight intermission, until plaintiff finally separated from defendant on or about the 1st day of December, 1935. On divers occasions while plaintiff lived with defendant aforesaid, defendant was guilty of excesses, cruel treatment and outrages toward plaintiff of such a nature as to render their living together insupportable.

Defendant is a man of violent passions and of ungovernable temper and during the year 1935 would often get drunk, curse and abuse plaintiff. Would go away at times and would not let plaintiff know of his whereabouts, leaving her destitute to provide for herself as best she could. Plaintiff picked cotton during the months of October and November, 1935 to get money to buy her some clothes and defendant got drunk, took her money and left the country, and has not offered to support her or to provide any means of support and she has been forced to go to the home of her father for his protection and support. That said conduct on the part of defendant toward this plaintiff has caused her great mental anguish and worry and the said cruel treatment has rendered their further living together insupportable, premises considered.

That during said marriage there were no children born as issue of said marriage; that Plaintiffs maiden name before she was married to defendant was Winnie Johnson and it is her desire that she be restored to her maiden name.

WHEREFORE plaintiff prays that defendant be cited to, answer this petition; that on final hearing plaintiff have judgment of divorce dissolving the marriage between plaintiff and defendant and that she be restored to her maiden name, Winnie Johnson, and for such other and further relief as the Court shall deem proper to grant.

Herein I fail Not, and have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND and the Seal of said Court, at office in Matador, Texas, this 27th day of May A. D. 1936.

Jack Robinson, Clerk, District Court, Motley County By Lillie Seay, Deputy.

Predicts Millions To Travel In 1936

Who's Touring the Country by Motor This Year? "Who Isn't?" Asks Conoco's Chief Travel-er

It must be the gypsy in us. One of the country's best-known travel experts predicts—and stakes his reputation on the prediction—that between 35 and 40 million Americans will take Interstate trips, averaging more than 3,500 miles each, this year.

The predictor, Joe H. Thompson, national director of the Conoco Travel Bureau, Denver, declares that indices of this imminent travel boom are "plentiful". For instance, he says:

"We recently let it be known we would furnish a free "Touraid"—a bound personal itinerary containing maps and a hotel and tourist guide, and bearing the motorist's name in print on the cover—to motorists planning long trips. This was to replace old-style folding road maps.

"Requests for these touraides have come in so fast from all over the continent that we have had to employ 327 clerks on three seven-hour shifts. Although they're putting out 4,000 touraides a day, 25,000 requests have piled up. We'll probably give out 400,000 of these touraides before we get through with the year's travel business."

Explaining how he arrived at his estimate that upwards of 35 million others, who had not requested help in plotting itineraries, will take to the road this year, Thompson said:

"Approximately 35,000,000 persons, averaging 3 1/2 to an auto, took such trips last year. This spring there are more automobiles on the road, and from all indications a little more money to spend.

"Even a little more money has a profound influence on travel in this country, because here live the most restless people on earth.

Give an American a car and a tankful of gasoline and he'll take his family and head for the open road. The predominant American malady is nostalgia for the mountain, plain, river, plateau or verdant valley beyond the horizon, and automobile touring is the favorite antidote."

The Musical program of the $25,000,000 Texas Centennial Exposition which begins June 6 will use more than 150,000 musicians, vocal and instrumental, during the six months.

Railroads are drafting tariff that will bring rates down to as low as a cent a mile for travel to and from the $25,000,000 Texas Centennial Exposition which opens June 6 to continue through November 29.

Securities Act Is Bane To Racketeers

Kilgore, Texas, May 27—"Like rats leaving a sinking ship, the racketeers in securities are leaving Texas," Governor Allred said here in an address before the North and East Texas Press Association Friday night. "The Exodus has been caused by the operation of the Texas Securities Act which went into effect approximately a year ago and has resulted in the saving of millions of dollars to Texas investors."

"Mail fraud violators have decreased by 50 per cent, we are reliably informed," the Governor continued, "and indictments are pending against many prominent swindlers. The Federal government has convicted several of these high-binders, who were ferreted out by the Securities Division. The Texas Securities Act has done all and more than we had anticipated. The school teacher and business man, the small investor and thousands of other small investors have renewed confidence in the state to protect them from the depredations of the smooth tongued swindlers."

The Governor called attention to the fact that Texas has long been known as the "end of the crime corridor." The drive against the confidence man has not been as spectacular but equally as effective as against known gamblers and their notorious charlatans. The legitimate dealers in securities and oil instruments are supporting the administration of the Securities Act 100 per cent, the Governor stated, as is evidenced by the increasing supply of letters in the files of the Securities Division. Texas now has one of the best Securities laws in the Nation.

TO THE VOTERS OF MOTLEY COUNTY

Veteran Cowboys to Ride Trail Toward Stamford July 2-4

Stamford, Texas, June 1.—Veteran cowboys who rode the ranges of west up the long cattle trails in the days of the open range will hold their seventh annual round-up in Stamford during the Texas Cowboy Reunion July 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

During the meeting, the old-time cowhands will elect officers for their association, which limits membership to cowboys or cattlemen who saw service no less than 35 years ago. Clyde Burnett, Benjamin Cattleman and former trail driver, is president of the organization this year and will preside over the July meeting.

In their gathering here during the Reunion each year, the old-timers revive memories of the old west, swap yarns and renew acquaintances. All members in good standing are guests of the Reunion management during their stay in the city. Their membership badges entitle them to free admission to the rodeo and grandstand, a chuck-wagon dinner each day and admission to the cowboy square dance at the bunkhouse each night.

Made of Native Stone The bunkhouse, a unique native stone structure, is the property of the oldtimers organization and serves as their headquarters. On the outside walls of the building are engraved in stone the cattle brands of scores of ranches of the Southwest, past and present. The building is near the shore of a little lake and overlooks the Reunion grounds.

The veteran cowhands are among the most enthusiastic spectators at the cowboy rodeo and their participation is not confined altogether to the grandstand. One of the rodeo events each year is the oldtime calf-ropers contest, which is limited to cowboys 55 years of age and over. A fine saddle is the prize for the winner.

Early History Of Tee Pee City Told To Local Resident

Sam Lazarus, now deceased, of St. Louis, Missouri, President of the Quannah Acme & Pacific Railroad Company, related this story concerning old Tee Pee City:

"In 1877 I was traveling for Leon and H. Blum, jobbers of Galveston, Texas and reported to the house by wire at Henrietta.

"They directed me to proceed to Tee Pee City in Motley county to collect an account against Armstrong, who operated a general supply store at Tee Pee City.

There was no town or settlement between Henrietta and Tee Pee City, so I equipped myself with a pack horse and a horse to ride and made the trip. When I reached Tee Pee City I found Armstrong had gone to Liberal, Kansas with a load of buffalo hides and to bring back merchandise. The smallpox was raging in the town, many people suffering from the equat a mile and established my camp and waited.

In about three or four days Armstrong returned, and I took up the matter of settlement with him. I had learned by wire, when I left Henrietta that there had been a sensational rise in price of buffalo hides, and I found a mountain of hides stacked up at Tee Pee City. Armstrong offered to pay me off in buffalo hides and sold me the balance of what he had on hand. He had not learned when he left Liberal, that the rise in the buffalo hides had taken place, so I bought all the hides he had and gave him credit for the account he owed and wrote a draft on the house for the difference.

I then chartered all the wagons that could be had, which was 7 or 8 that had returned in a caravan from Liberal, loaded the hides on these wagons and started them for Fort Worth, and then hastened back to Henrietta to wire my house about the draft. In the deal I made several hundred dollars for my employers."

At that time Tee Pee City had one or two saloons, a dance hall and a gambling hall in connection with the saloons, a little hotel and one or two eating houses, and several other small establishments with most of the population living in dug-outs and tents.

The above story was related by Mr. Lazarus to G. E. Hamilton about 1921 on board his private car en route to Roaring Springs from Quannah.

PENSIONS WILL BE FROM $9 TO $30

Carpenter Says Tuesday That Payments To Start July 1: Average Payment To 65,000 In State To Be $20

AUSTIN, June 2.—Orville Carpenter, old age assistance director said today that pensions ranging from about $9 to $239 would be paid approximately 65,000 persons beginning July 1. The average will be about $20.

All payments will be made on a basis of need, the director said, in accordance with statutory requirements. The maximum permitted is $30, or $15 from the state and $15 from the federal government.

Granted Federal Aid

Carpenter said there was no doubt payments would start July 1 "because both state and federal money will be in the Texas treasury". Texas was granted $1,181,250 recently by the Social Security board.

"As far as I can estimate now," he said "there will be approximately 65,000. Each will receive up to a maximum of $30 a month."

"Payments will be based upon need because of the federal social security law and the Texas law. People who do not need as much as $30 will receive less."

Seeks Commissioner of Agriculture Office

CLIFF DAY

Cliff Day, 47, Hale county farmer, has announced candidacy for office of Texas Commissioner of Agriculture. A native Texan, Day has farmed for 25 years. He is married and has six children. A year ago he sprang into national prominence when he led 4,500 farmers in an orderly visit to Washington in interest of national farm program. He was chairman last year of state cotton advisory board, chosen by farmers of the state.

Large Expenditure WPA Funds in Texas

San Antonio, June 3.—Sponsors and the federal government expended $3,404,635 on 768 projects the first reported completed from the 20 Works Progress Administration districts, State Administrator H. P. Drought disclosed today. At the same time he estimated that more than 1,500 projects have been finished and said he expected to receive completion reports on the remainder shortly.

Federal expenditures of $2,253,396 of these completed projects were closely followed by contribution by sponsors of $1,151,239. "Counties, cities, independent school districts and state departments, actively sponsoring these participation indicates a gratifying faith in the integrity of this program."

The state administrator said more than 3,000 projects have been operated throughout Texas in providing employment for 120,000 persons, former occupants of the state's relief rolls which now are largely dissipated.

"It is significant," Drought continued, "that $1,445,073 of the projects, have displayed an eagerness to assist in our work," said Drought. "Their large financial WPA expenditure on these completed projects went to workers in the form of semi-monthly security wage pay checks. This is the gratifying figure of the analysis. Our job has been that of keeping this stream of small but all-important checks moving steadily into thousands of homes in order that destitute Texans might be able to provide for themselves and for their families."

"Stimulation of trade by the purchase of materials and equipment and the construction of permanent, worthwhile public improvements are essential by-products of this program, but we have not lost sight of the fact that the giving of employment to persons formerly on relief rolls is our fundamental objective."

Next largest WPA expenditure on these completed projects, $307,794, was for equipment used by workmen. About one-third of this equipment cost was in the form of wages to truck operators, many of whom came from Texas relief rolls, it was pointed out.

Materials were procured at a cost of $301,536. Non-relief workers, including project superintendents, field workers and other supervisory personnel, received $183,667, the analysis discloses.

Travel and other incidental project expenses amounted to $15,324.

Grange and Farm Organization Day at the $25,000,000 Texas Centennial Exposition will be July 30. More than 30,000 members of the Grange will greet National President L. J. Taber, of Columbus, Ohio, here on that day.

A box of earth from Stratford-on-Avon and a bottle of water from the Avon river will be used in dedicating the replica of the Old Globe theatre at the $25,000,000 Texas Centennial Exposition which opens June 6. The theatre is intended primarily for the production of Shakespeare's plays.

Governor Speaks . . .

Other points in his statilizing speech included his policy of hands-off the state highway department, which has, incidentally, completed the greatest year's work in its history. Stressing the necessity for fair and unbiased decisions in granting pardons and paroles to inmates of the penitentiary, Governor Allred advocated the removal of the power to grant clemency out of the hands of the governor and placing it with the Pardon Board. "In this manner," he stated, "friendless culprits who have, through good behavior, rated a parole and possible pardon would have a better chance for consideration, and a number of criminals undeserving of clemency who have in the past been able to secure freedom, would have less chance to escape full penalty."

In working out a plan whereby prisoners released from the penitentiary might have assistance in starting life anew, Governor Allred recently appointed recommended committeemen in counties throughout the state to whom ex-prisoners might appeal, and the wonderful work being done by these parole committees was highly praised by the executive in his address.
