TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

We had lost a roan bull and I rode the star-faced black mare bare-back and barefooted beside my father to the chuck-wagon. It was a raw spring day with a sky jammed with low, heavy clouds and my feet were blue with cold when the boss called to us to get down for dinner. In the few minutes before the meal was ready the boss told the cowboys he wanted them to saddle up broncs in their mounts after dinner and let their gentle horses rest.

The Dutch-oven with brown tender steak was close to me and I had made the second pilgrimage in its direction when I noticed that a tall young cowboy, who wore rough new boots, was not eating. He was trying to light a cigarette and sip some black coffee. After dinner the boys began roping out their broncs and someone roped a big blue horse for the tall cowboy. I knew he was afraid and I was afraid for him and I think that the blue horse knew how he felt, too. It took but a few jumps of the most wicked pitching I have ever seen until the boy lay on his back near where I was standing. He was very still and blood came out of his mouth and dripped off his neck. I do not remember ever feeling a desire to be a cowboy.

It is possibly not essential to happiness but soil moistened with moderate showers of rain seems more favorable to sprouting the intangible seeds.

Nature's subtle balance of portions allows the exact amount of grace to the rose and an equal amount of beauty to the west Texas sunset. One iota of extravagance in either case would be to founder the human heart.

A north wind, roaring high in the anaemic heavens, blasted the thin walls of frame buildings and passed fine dry snow into the presence of many futile fires. Cold came everywhere in the little crowd that had just raised its puny defiance against the future at the dawn of a tempestuous century. Three drawn saddle-horses stood motionless at the hitchrack before the saloon as if to move would break the small protection of sleet and snow covering their chilled bodies. There was little sound above the blizzard except the snapping of a loose board caught in the wind or the screech of a wheel-mill horn from its mooring and running madly without burden from a broken sucker-rod loosened in a frozen pipe.

Night was to come early without the prelude of sunset or decoration of stars, and squeeze yellow light from a few frosty windows. The delirious eyes glaring at strange surroundings. There was only one light in the face of the small shack where the old boot-maker labored over his last and after a time it was gone and the wind whipped white snow against the closed door. A few voices carried above the wind, and boot-horns scraped over the frozen ground as men moved quickly from one fire to another, shuffling clumsily on feet more used to stirrups than walking. After a time more of the garish lights yielded to the darkness until only two were left in the mighty roaring sea of night.

Dawn arrived with a caravan of beauty; washed grey sky above a limitless horizon of snow that filled the wagon ruts and trails, covered the sagebrush and spread lavishly on roofs of the small town. White smoke from the tin blues rose straight into the heavens while tracks were made to and from the door-sills, except the door of the old boot-maker. He had gone away with the storm.

Floydada Game To Be Opener On Newly Placed Sod

Matador's extended dream of a modern football field will become a reality on the 13th of next month when Floydada will meet the local eleven on newly placed sod of the PWA project, according to an announcement made by Superintendent B. F. Tunnell at the Matador Lion's Club luncheon Tuesday.

Although the turf which is being placed this week will probably suffer from the conflict as the two teams clash, no serious harm will result, Mr. Tunnell declared, "and," he continued, "it will have a whole year in which to overcome any injury sustained."

Lions Set Up Strict Rules Program Nite

Fines To Swell The Club's Coffers At Ladies' Night

Members of the Matador Lions Club have been warned to be on hand before 7:30 p. m. Thursday night, October 22, and to have one and only one lady companion, unless they expect to meet resistance from Tail Twister Henry Pipkin, according to announcement made at the regular meeting of the organization held at the Methodist Church basement Tuesday.

The event will be the Ladies' Night program which will be held strictly for Lion members and their wives or lady companion. Unmarried Lions and Lions whose wives will be out of town were warned by Boss Lion Campbell, to make their arrangements beforehand.

After the delicious chicken dinner served by the Methodist ladies Lion Cameron Beam, as chairman of the program committee declared that he was on the program by virtue of his new position but that he would surrender part of his time to Lion B. F. Tunnell.

Lion Tunnell explained the new proposed amendment to the state constitution, to be voted on at the general election Nov. 3, which will provide retirement annuity for aged school teachers. Lion Tunnell pointed the many advantages of the plan which is in use by more than half of the states. It will not put the state to any expense, Lion Tunnell declared.

Oscar Vinson, member of the Matador School Board, was introduced as a visitor to the club. Lion Fay Jacobs was presented with a token as an additional Key Member.

Due to some changes in arrangements, the Ladies' Night program and banquet will be served in the Methodist Church basement by ladies of the Baptist Church.

Solon Lea Is Manager New Implement Co.

City's Newest Place Of Business Opens In Bank Building

Solon Lea, former owner of the Lea Ice Company here and later manager of the Leon Ice Company, has resigned his position with the organization to open the Lea Implement Company in the building formerly occupied by the post office west of the First State Bank.

Remodeling of the building was completed this week and the post office fixtures were removed to permit the entrance and storage of tractors in the structure. Mr. Lea has received a shipment of John Deere tractors for which he is agent and is expecting more equipment within the near future.

Mr. Lea, who selected Matador as a site for his plant a few years ago declared that he believed this county and trade territory offered a promising field for the tractor business and that his faith in Matador as one of the potentially best towns in the Panhandle had been more than justified since he has resided here.

"The perfection recently made in tractors", Mr. Lea declared, "have made it possible for farmers to realize a profit from their crops in agricultural areas such as we have in this county and I am confident that more farmers will accept the modern farm methods in the near future. The lack of tractors is apparent in this section after a visit to other parts of the state less adapted to their use."

The implement store will maintain a stock of tractors, parts, plows and other farming requirements at present, Mr. Lea declared.

LOCAL ELEVEN GIVEN DEFEAT AT CHILDRESS

More Powerful Class A Team Gets Score Of 24-0 Fri. Nite

Unable to gain a victory in their own class this season, the Childress Bobcats, mediocre class A football team, handed the Matador Matadors their first defeat of 1936 under the floodlights at the railroad town Friday night.

The Childress Cats ran up the larger part of the one-sided score in the first half with three touchdowns, one in the first and two in the remaining quarter. In the third quarter the host team claimed their fourth trip into scoring territory. In the last quarter Childress was held scoreless, gaining only to the 20-yard line.

The Matadors threatened the class A team in the third quarter, when Seaff intercepted a pass and ran 60 yards, only to have the play called back due to an off-side penalty against his team.

Statistics show the Cats gathered 269 yards from scrimmage as compared with 47 for the Matadors. The class A team made 17 first downs to three by the Matadors. Childress punted four times for a 39 yard average, while Matador nunted 12 times with a 26 yard average. Childress completed six of their 17 pass attempts, as compared with Matador's completing three of their eleven tries.

Included in the new equipment is one of the most modern coffee-making fixtures on the market. A windowed refrigerator will enable the customer to select the steak, chops or other food before it is prepared.

SPUR BANKER IS KILLED IN GUN MISHAP

W. B. Lee, President Of Security Bank, Is Found Dead

SPUR, Oct. 6.—W. B. Lee, 56, president of the Spur Security Bank, was found dead about four miles east of Spur about 1 p. m. Leaving home early this morning to visit a farm east of town, it is thought Lee had stopped to do some hunting. He was found about 50 yards from his car in a pasture with a gun shot wound in the left side of the chest. Coins near the body indicated that he had been accidentally shot while trying to unjam the gun.

The verdict of the inquest was accidental death. The body was found by a party of Spur business men after searching parties had been out about three hours when the banker was reported missing. The body was brought to Spur.

Funeral arrangements were not complete pending the arrival of relatives. Immediate survivors are his widow, three sons, W. B. Lee Jr. of Louisiana, Pershing, Charles two daughters, Anne and Regina of Spur.

W. B. Lee was a native of Haskell County. He graduated from a school at Waco in 1904, teaching for two years in the school. He entered the banking business at Knox City in 1906, later that year going to Rockwell to be vice president and cashier of a new bank there. He came to Spur in 1920 to be active vice president of the Spur National Bank. He was elevated to the presidency of this bank in 1930, a position he held at time of death.

EDITORIAL

As this is fire prevention week we are making special effort to call the attention of everyone to the importance of making an effort to prevent fires. We often forget the importance of fire prevention though millions of dollars worth of property is destroyed annually, not even to mention the number of lives that are lost each year. It is altogether proper and essential that we have a week set aside to study and promote fire prevention.

Though fire is helpful and essential to mankind, it can easily become wild and uncontrollable. This only happens when people become careless and allow rubbish to accumulate, or construct buildings in such a way as to cause fire spreading easily. Everyone should provide his building with fire extinguishers and build a building in such a way that a fire would be improbable. Let us all do our best to promote fire prevention and hinder no plan or project that would help the worthy cause of fire prevention.

Pep Squad News

The pep squad has ordered new hats; they are red and white hats of Mexican style.

From Thursday night at seven o'clock the pep squad holds a rally. The rally lasts about twenty or thirty minutes. Everyone is invited to attend.

A number of the boys have joined the pep squad; with their help the sponsors, the leaders and the girls expect to have the best pep squad the Matador High School has ever had. The pep squad expects to do all within its power to help these boys win these ball games.

The pep squad had a very pretty formation for the Childress game. A new mascot has been chosen for the pep squad, her name is Elizabeth Ann Harp. The other mascots are David Kingery and Sarah Frances Springer.

General News

The high school is very proud of the new Encyclopedia Britannica. There are twenty-four volumes in the new set.

Everyone is sorry to know that B. F. got hurt in football practice last week. Tutu Harcrow has an injured hand. We hope both boys will soon be perfectly well.

The entire high school was well represented at the Childress-Matador football game on Friday night.

Sports

The Matadors went to Childress to meet the Bobcats last Friday night. The Bullfighters let the Bobcats get a long lead in the first half of the game, but in the last half the Bobcats were held to one touchdown.

This week the Matadors will have one of the hardest workouts of the season in preparation for the Plainview game on Friday night, October 9.

A Ballad of Signals and the Plavers

Billie Lawrence (With apologies to Sidney Lanier and other members of the literary profession this parody was written.)

Into the huddle my hero Went Clean forspent, forspent. Into the huddle my hero Came Forspent with dirt and pain. But the signals they were not Blind to him; The little stray numbers were Kind to him

When into the huddle he came. Out of the huddle my hero Went, And he was well content. Out of the huddle my hero Came, Content with dirt and pain. When dirt and pain would Woo him last; 'Twas on the field they threw Him last

When out of the huddle he Came.

Saga Advice For the benefit of the students who need some advice on some of their more serious problems, we have secured the assistance of a very worthy one to help you. Be sure to send in your problems to the member of the staff or Aunt Pure.

Dear Aunt Pure: What can I do to regain Billie's admiration and attention? Lyman

Answer: The thing to do is to show her that you like her. Don't be so bashful; all girls like to be flattered.

Dear Aunt Pure: Is it possible for me to get Henry Etta to pay more attention to me? W. R.

Answer: Yes, it certainly is. You might try talking to her at lunch. The general idea is to be very nice to her.

School Gossip

We have been told that Marion Clements is stepping right up the steps to Jack Robinson's heart.

The red pick-up that Bob Gilmer has been driving is certainly a handsome carriage.

Their Thrill at the Expo

This is a sure way to beat the heat, according to the trio of young ladies who were visiting the Ford building at the Texas Centennial Exposition in Dallas. The mothers were present to see that the daughters keep their clothes on a hickory limb. The picture was made as the children paddled in the reflecting basin of the band shell in the Ford court. They are, from left to right: La Verle Rasdale, two and one-half years old, Dallas; Verlie Joe Gregson, age three, of Grandfield, Oklahoma, and Karen McCray, age four, of Moline, Kansas.

Miss Sutt is violinist with Jose Manzanares and his South American orchestra which appears in nightly concerts at the Ford Court in the Texas Centennial grounds, Dallas. Miss Sutt began to study the violin at nine years of age.

Annette Sutt, whose father and mother were Russians with a love for the violin, began to study the instrument when she was just nine years old. She has been playing it ever since. She is a member of Jose Manzanares South American orchestra which may be heard in nightly concerts from the Ford court at the Texas Centennial Exposition in Dallas.

The first years of Annette's life were spent in San Francisco, and she never learned the English language until she started to school. As a member of the Manzanares orchestra Annette has appeared on the radio, stage and screen.

FROSTINGS

- Chocolate Custard Icing
- 2 cups milk
- 4 squares chocolate

1 1/4 cups sugar
1-3 cup flour
1-8 tsp. salt
1 tsp. vanilla
1 cup shredded coconut
Add shaved chocolate to milk and heat. Then beat until blended. Sift flour and sugar together. Pour the milk mixture over this very slowly, beating constantly until smooth. Add salt, return to double boiler and cook until thickened. Add vanilla, cool and spread on cake. Sprinkle with coconut.

COFFEE ICING

3 cups powdered sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
1/4 cup strong coffee
2 egg whites
Beat on fire until lukewarm, the powdered sugar, coffee and vanilla. Add well beaten egg whites. Ice cake while icing is warm.

STANDARD COOKIE FROSTING

2 egg whites
1-8 tsp. salt
2 cups confectioner's sugar
1 tsp. thick cream
1 tsp. vanilla
Sift sugar 4 times and place in bowl. Add vanilla, salt, cream to unbeaten egg whites and give them 2 or 4 beats with a wire whisk. Add to sugar and beat until smooth. Spread on cookies at once as this frosting is quick to dry. I use it some in making hand molded flowers for wedding cakes.

LEMON BUTTER FROSTING

1/2 cup butter
2 cups confectioner's sugar
1 tsp. lemon juice
1 tsp. grated lemon rind
Wash butter in cold water. Dry on clean dry cloth. With wooden spoon work one cup of the sugar into the butter, adding a spoonful at a time. Then add lemon juice and continue with sugar until all has been thoroughly worked into the butter. Add grated rind during the period of adding the last half of sugar. Spread between and on top of cake, cookies or muffins. Then harden in refrigerator before serving.

LEMON ICING

1 1/2 cups sugar
2 egg whites
1/2 cup water
juice 1 lemon
Dissolve sugar in water, boil until spins a thread. Pour over stiffly beaten egg whites in fine stream, beating constantly. When about half has been added, add lemon juice, then remainder of syrup in same way. Continue beating until icing is stiff enough to spread and hold its shape.

MY FAVORITE ICING

2 cups granulated sugar
4 egg whites
1/2 cup confectioner's sugar
3/4 cup cold water
1/4 tsp. cream of tartar
1/2 tsp. almond extract
1/2 tsp. vanilla extract
Dissolve granulated sugar in water and boil until strings a thread from 4 to 6 inches long. While the sugar mixture is boiling beat egg whites until they foam, then add cream of tartar and beat until almost stiff enough to hold their shape, then add 1/2 cup confectioner's sugar and beat until stiff. When syrup is ready, pour over egg whites in a tiny stream beating constantly until all has been added. Then add the flavoring and beat until the frosting holds its shape. I do not believe you can fail with this recipe if directions are carefully followed.

"GET THE HABIT"

"Aw, Winter's not here yet!"

BUT OIL-PLATING LASTS...

Change today

Right you are. The weather hasn't made up its mind yet. But you don't care, once Conoco Germ Processed oil—patented—is Oil-Plating your engine for Winter.

Change to modern Oil-Plating today, for instance. Then every cylinder, piston, bearing and other part is completely Oil-Plated.

And today . . . tomorrow . . . next month . . . as long as you use Germ Processed, this Oil-Plating will still be up there. It gets there by means of the special "hyper-oily concentrate" which is alloyed into Germ Processed oil under patents. In circulating, this oil renews its genuine Oil-Plating, which doesn't return to the crankcase, but stays up all through your engine.

Thus the old cry of "get your right Winter viscosity" isn't the half of it, now that you can get exclusive Oil-Plating, too—a great big extra. Oil-Plating is all ready to lubricate before your starter even turns, and that lets your battery live. Oil-Plating doesn't run off in any weather, and that saves your engine and oil. You keep away from your next quart—your next battery—your next car, by changing today to Conoco Germ Processed oil. Continental Oil Company

A good mother is the finest thing in the world. But alas, every mother is not a good mother. There are some unnatural ones who desert their unwanted offspring and leave them in care of others to rear, never giving them a further thought.

Recently the mother of Edith Fellows bobbed up and demanded that she be given custom of her child. She had deserted her shortly after birth and the child was reared by her grandmother—a poor woman, who slaved at menial labors she was ill fitted for, so that the child might have some advantages. The grandmother often deprived herself of more necessities for the child's sake and many the time when utter starvation stared them in the face. Finally she bought a very old wreck of a machine, and learning to drive it, she drove to California where fate seemed to beckon. She made the rounds of the studios with her little ward—a very disappointing and disheartening experience—she kept it up for years with hardly the wherewithal to subsist. Her tireless efforts were at last crowned with deserved success. The child was placed under contract—she is now getting about $250.00 per week with an ultimate thousand at the expiration of six years.

Then suddenly appeared her mother and wanted to gain her child. But the child's affections were all centered on her grandmother and she could not be wrenched away from her, try as the mother might. The child remained loyal to the one woman who had sacrificed so much during all the years and refused to desert her for her own mother who appeared as a total, unsympathetic stranger to her.

The judge after impartially trying the case allowed the grandmother the custody of the child. Nor is she the only mother who has come to Hollywood after having deserted her child in infancy, seeking to become her guardian. Such women are not worthy of the name of mother and are a sad commentary on motherhood and do not deserve to share in their offsprings' financial success.

The other evening at the Hollywood Bowl, a very fine musical programme was given. This was in turn augmented with a Ballet who danced to Rimsky-Korsikoff's 'Scherzade' under the direction of the famous choreographer, Adelph Bolm. The evenings program was divided in two parts with an intermission of fifteen minutes.

During the intermission, when the lights were turned on, some-thing espied Joan Crawford in her box. Like wildfire the news spread and in less time than it takes to tell it, many scrambled from their seats and besieged Miss Crawford for her autograph. Some people, not knowing what it was all about, thought it was a fight, and as they always enjoyed a fistic combat, they too left their seats and joined the milling hordes. It was too much for Miss Crawford, all this howling, shrieking mob, and as soon as the lights were again turned off, she made her get-away as quickly as she could without seeing the principal part of the program.

Those who achieve fame find it often a most serious nuisance, especially when dealing with a thoughtless mob.

Two of the most brilliant women I have ever met—they were really geniuses in their line—were each distinguished by their incredible slovenly appearance and atrocious table manners. One of them ate like a barbarian—took her meat off her plate and ate it with her fingers, drank her coffee from her saucer and picked her teeth in public. Both wore clothes covered with grease about their face, their necks were encircled with grooves of black grease and their fingernails were adorned with dark crescents. One of these women was a musical composer, a writer of verse and a playwright to boot. The other one was Doctor of Philology and Romance Languages in an Eastern University that I attended. She had two diplomas, one from the University of Chicago the other was from the Sorbonne in Paris.

The other day, in Hollywood, I saw another one whose slatternly

Six Texas Flags? Here Are Ten More.

Many believe that Texas had only six flags flown over her borders in the four centuries of her history, but in reality there were battle flags from seventeen different states flown during the appearance gained for her the dubious distinction of being included in this trinity of bad grooming. She was a fine character actress—perhaps the finest of them all—and besides that she was a woman of fine literary accomplishments, cultured, travelled and well-read. I saw her coming from her home as she was going to the studio. She wore a pale blue dress, up in front, dragging in the back, covered over with grease spots of varying sizes, her shoes were dirty and run over at the heels and her hat—a thing of greenish-black velvet looked as if a cat had dragged it home on a wet and stormy night.

On the other hand, there are some women—very shallow ones, who spend all their time at beauty parlors and at their dress-makers. Between these two extremes—and both are decidedly lacking in balance—lies the golden mean. Woman's normal inclination is to make herself as attractive as possible and when she fails to do this, there is always something seriously amiss.

FARMER'S LIFE

By ED HOLMES

I've been playing baseball with Floydada in the tournament down at Quitaque. Quitaque, as a town, and especially the ball players that represented them were mighty good hosts. The Quitaque boys were too much for their visitors and won the tournament without losing a single game or any friends. Floydada won second.

You can't have a successful tournament without a good umpire behind the plate. Mr. Trout, a fair "has-been" ball player, called the balls and strikes. There was less "kicking" at the umpires than I have ever seen in a tournament. The umpires were fine.

Floydada will probably start a tournament about August 28. Any of you amateur clubs that wish to try your skill against your friendly neighbors, write Bill Scott or Burl Holt at Floydada.

The majority of farmers from here to Quitaque are caught again in bad shape by having their feed planted in solid rows. I'm in the bunch. My feed just looked so pretty and growing so good I couldn't see to plow up every third row. Some are plowing it up now. Chances are it will not pay. In case of a good rain, where feed has burned pretty bad and the main head damaged, it will pay to bind it in a hurry and let a new crop grow.

On July 2 I hauled 70 bushels of wheat to the elevator at Barwise in a wagon pulled by a team of horses. I didn't think it was so odd but I did notice people staring at me. Come to find out it was the first wheat delivered by wagon and team all this wheat harvest!

As Will Rogers once said, this was the only rig in the bunch that could go home empty.

I saw a brood sow last week with two wire rings in her nose that extended up and were tied through each of her ears. The owner could get a patent on that if the humane society would let him alone. It sure looks like a fool proof cure for hog fever and under fences. As the inventor says "it's a good way to get 'em loaded."

We are milking six little Jersey cows, drinking three gallons of whole milk each day and last week we sold $8.36 worth of cream. Also raising a bunch of hogs and chickens practically on skim milk alone.

You boys that don't milk cows, don't get it into your heads that this is all profit and that it is an easy, get-rich-quick scheme. For cream is not always 28c per pound and hogs 10c per CWT.

Joyce Nell Womack (a little girl four years old) started to eat a small green apple. Her mother told her not to eat it for it would make her stomach hurt. Joyce Nell looked at the runty green apple with disgust and said, "I aren't big enough to make my stomach hurt."

Col. Frank Knox speaks of returning to the system which he says the New Deal has undermined. The only system the New Deal has undermined is the one which was in full operation in 1932. Col. Knox believes in years of prosperity and depression. He is trying to create fear but it is fear of a return to the Coolidge-Hoover 'cycle.'—Louisville Courier-Journal. (Ind.)

AUSTIN, Sept. 22—Building permits in Texas during July were moderately below those of the preceding month but were sharply above those of the corresponding month last year, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research has found. Reports to the Bureau from 34 representative Texas cities show aggregate permits of $4,549,078, which was a decrease of 15.3 per cent from June, but an increase of 83 per cent over the like month last year. All but nine of the reporting cities showed gains in total permits over the corresponding month last year.

Much Food Served Texas Centennial

DALLAS, Oct. 5.—Setting a dinner table daily over a period of 120 days for 38,000 invited guests has been the unusual chore of Dallas caterers having concessions at the Texas Centennial Exposition. These continuous dinner parties have driven the food handler's purchasing agents over the State to buy up the best of foods Texas has to offer.

A careful survey of the food concessions of the Exposition reveal that 1,600 pounds of ground coffee are used daily to make 41,600 cups of the delicious brew served over the counter and table on the grounds. During the period of 120 days an average of 10,000 pints of beer have been guzzled; 1,200 loaves of bread, 2,000 pounds of fish, 7,000 pounds of meat, 6,000 pounds of vegetables, 9,000 pints of milk, 400 pies, 14,400 buns, 400 pounds of hot dogs and 1,200 pounds of hamburger meat have been consumed.

Total For Period This gives a grand total for the period of 1,200,000 pints of beer, 360,000 loaves of bread, 48,000 pounds of coffee, 240,000 pounds of fish, 840,000 pounds of meat, 720,000 pounds of vegetables, 1,080,000 pints of milk, 48,000 pies, 1,728,000 buns, 576,000 hot dogs and 1,152,000 hamburgers.

Checking some of these items back to the producer it is found that the Texas cattlemen has received $100,000 for the beef upon the hoof for the 2,302 head of beefees. A similar sum has been traced back to the vegetable producers and these items do not account for the butter, eggs and poultry that have proven to be a sizeable bill.

No effort has been made to check on the tonnage on soft drinks, doughnuts, cake and pastries other than pies, ice cream, sandwiches, hard liquors, prepared packing house meats, items that run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars. Exposition visitors have spent millions for rooms and hotel accommodations, not only in Dallas, but over the state, and their gasoline bill has been tremendous.

RFC Disbursements $6,500 For County The Reconstruction Finance

Corporation during the period February 2, 1932, to June 30, 1936, distributed the sum of $6,500 in Motley county, according to information received by H. P. Drought, State Director for the National Emergency Council for Texas.

Disbursements in Texas aggregated $96,262,772.48, not including amounts that went to various government agencies, or relief grants to the State of Texas as authorized under the Federal Emergency Relief Act of 1935.

The principal purposes for which the money was disbursed were as follows: loans to banks and trust companies, including receivers, liquidating agents and conservators, $25,993,602.58; subscriptions to preferred stock of bonds and trust companies, $22,742,375; loans to building and loan associations, $1,612,733.98; and an additional amount of $18,747,090.23 to mortgage loan companies.

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation gave assistance to industrial and commercial businesses in Texas totaling $455,274.33. Self-liquidating projects were aided in the sum of $1,093,012.85. A further amount of $199,311 was furnished to finance agricultural commodities and livestock, while the state received a disbursement of $7,952,291 for relief and work relief.

Total disbursements made in the United States during the same period not including amounts disbursed in the form of relief grants to states amounted to $6,012,771,186.71.

Carveth Wells To Feature New York In Radio Broadcast

Via subway, bus and 'L' train, Carveth Wells will take his radio audience on a tour through the 'wonder city of the world'—New York—during his Continental Oil Company broadcast, 'Exploring America with Conoco and Carveth Wells,' on Sunday, October 11.

Speaking from experiences gained through extensive travel in many countries, Wells describes New York as 'a great magical city that is utterly unlike any other great city in the world'—where a visit of only a few hours will leave a lasting impression. 'London, Paris, Berlin, Vienna, Moscow and a host of other cities of world importance are capable of comparison one with another,' Wells declared, 'but New York is just as unique and incomparable as Baghdad, the City of the Arabian Nights.'

Points of interest to be discussed by the famous globe trotter are Bowling Green, Fraunces Tavern, Trinity Church, the Ghetto, Empire State Building, Rockefeller Center, St. Paul's Cathedral, the Bowery, Central Park, Metropolitan Museum of Art, and the American Museum of Natural History. The latter two he describes as places that 'no visitor to New York can afford to miss.'

The Museum of Natural History, Wells relates, 'You can explore all the five continents in perfect safety yet with all the excitement of reality. You can explore the depths of the ocean, and then take a trip to the moon in perfect comfort—for the new Planetarium, built at a cost of nearly a million dollars, enables you to explore the Universe while seated in a comfortable chair especially designed for star-gazing.'

Local listeners who wish to tune in on Carveth Wells Sunday, October 11, may do so by dialing station WFAA at 12:30 o'clock.

THE GRAY NUN

A lovely gray-robed sister came last night To nurse my garden which was slowly dying. And now I see by morning's misty light, Delphinium on tiptoe, magnifying, Lilies whose alabaster bells were cast For music softer than the pine-tree's sighing. I knew when I awoke the drought had passed Since all night long the gray-eyed nun was bringing Perfect and dreamless peace which comes at last With dripping eaves and proteoplasm singing In every living cell, in trees and grain. In mosses from the mold of winter springing. And in my heart—a song to bless-ed rain. —Mrs. H. A. Dancer in Westminster-Bozart Magazine.

Young Folks

Listen Boys and Girls here's something you will be interested in. To-day my secretary came to my private office and informed me that a good-looking young lady wished to see me, without stuttering, I said, 'Show her in.' She did, and to my pleasant surprise she was one of my former students all dressed up and as happy and prosperous looking as could be. I said to her, 'How are you getting along with your position?' She replied, 'Just fine, I am doing both the bookkeeping and shorthand work. I am now answering much of the correspondence myself and my boss thinks I'm a wonder at it.' I then inquired if they had advanced her salary and she said, 'Yes several times, I am now drawing a better salary than I ever anticipated I would. I am thinking your school is wonderful and your training is so thorough and practical—I'm sure a 'Durn Boostin'.

In about three hours a young man that I had recommended for a responsible position walked in to thank me for the good training he had received in handling a good position. He said, 'They told me they would try him two weeks and if he made good they would keep him, otherwise they would pay him off, but in a few days more paying rolled around and instead of getting fired he received a ten dollar raise. Through business training paid the young man and woman and it will pay any former student who will study, work and try to make good. We could tell you the happy experience of many a boy or girl who has recently graduated in Durn College.

A good mother is the finest thing in the world. But alas, every mother is not a good mother. There are some unnatural ones who desert their unwanted offspring and leave them in care of others to rear, never giving them a further thought.

Recently the mother of Edith Fellows bobbed up and demanded that she be given custom of her child. She had deserted her shortly after birth and the child was reared by her grandmother—a poor woman, who slaved at menial labors she was ill fitted for, so that the child might have some advantages. The grandmother often deprived herself of mere necessities for the child's sake and many the time when utter starvation stared them in the face. Finally she bought a very old wreck of a machine, and learning to drive it, she drove to California where fate seemed to beckon. She made the rounds of the studios with her little ward—a very disappointing and disheartening experience—she kept it up for years with hardly the wherewithall to subsist. Her tiresome efforts were at last crowned with deserved success. The child was placed under contract—she is now getting about $250.00 per week with an ultimate thousand at the expiration of six years.

Then suddenly appeared her mother and wanted to gain her child. But the child's affections were all centered on her grandmother and she could not be weaned away from her, try as the mother might. The child remained loyal to the one woman who had sacrificed so much during all the years and refused to desert her for her own mother who appeared as a total, unympathetic stranger to her.

The judge after impartially trying the case allowed the grandmother the custody of the child. Nor is she the only mother who has come to Hollywood after having deserted her child in infancy, seeking to become her guardian. Such women are not worthy of the name of mother and are a sad commentary on motherhood and do not deserve to share in their offsprings' financial success.

The other evening at the Hollywood Bowl, a very fine musical programme was given. This was in turn augmented with a Ballet who danced to Rimsky-Korsikoff's 'Scherzade' under the direction of the famous choreographer, Adelph Bolm. The evenings program was divided in two parts with an intermission of fifteen minutes.

During the intermission, when the lights were turned on, some-thing espied Joan Crawford in her box. Like wildfire the news spread and in less time than it takes to tell it, many scrambled from their seats and besieged Miss Crawford for her autograph. Some people, not knowing what it was all about, thought it was a fight, and as they always enjoyed a fistic combat, they too left their seats and joined the milling hordes. It was too much for Miss Crawford, all this howling, shrieking mob, and as soon as the lights were again turned off, she made her get-away as quickly as she could without seeing the principal part of the program.

Those who achieve fame find it often a most serious nuisance, especially when dealing with a thoughtless mob.

Two of the most brilliant women I have ever met—they were really geniuses in their line—were each distinguished by their incredible stovely appearance and atrocious table manners. One of them ate like a barbarian—took her meat off her plate and ate it with her fingers, drank her coffee from her saucer and picked her teeth in public. Both wore clothes covered with grease spots, their hair hung in wisps about their face, their necks were encircled with grooves of black grease and their fingernails were adorned with dark crescents. One of these women was a musical composer, a writer of verse and a playwright to boot. The other one was Doctor of Philology and Romance Languages in an Eastern University that I attended. She had two diplomas, one from the University of Chicago the other was from the Sorbonne in Paris.

The other day, in Hollywood, I saw another one whose slatternly

Six Texas Flags? Here Are Ten More.

Many believe that Texas had only six flags flown over her borders in the four centuries of her history, but in reality there were battle flags from seventeen different states flown during the

Texas Revolution. Jan. Fortune, author of Cavalcade of Texas, has gotten together all these historic banners for use in the Cavalcade at the Texas Centennial Exposition. These include flags from Ohio, Mississippi, Louisiana, Ken-

appearance gained for her the dubious distinction of being included in this trinity of bad grooming. She was a fine character actress—perhaps the finest of them all—and besides that she was a woman of fine literary accomplishments, cultured, travelled and well-read. I saw her coming from her home as she was going to the studio. She wore a pale blue dress, up in front, dragging in the back, covered over with grease spots of varying sizes, her shoes were dirty and run over at the heels and her hat—a thing of greenish-black velvet looked as if a cat had dragged it home on a wet and stormy night.

On the other hand, there are some women—very shallow ones, who spend all their time at beauty parlors and at their dress-maker's. Between these two extremes—and both are decidedly lacking in balance—lies the golden mean. Woman's normal inclination is to make herself as attractive as possible and when she fails to do this, there is always something seriously amiss.

FARMER'S LIFE

By ED HOLMES

I've been playing baseball with Floydada in the tournament down at Quitaque, Quitaque, as a town, and especially the ball players that represented them were mighty good hosts. The Quitaque boys were too much for their visitors and won the tournament without losing a single game or any friends. Floydada won second.

You can't have a successful tournament without a good umpire behind the plate. Mr. Trout, called the balls and strikes. There was less "kicking" at the umpires than I have ever seen in a tournament. The umpires were fine.

Floydada will probably start a tournament about August 28. Any of you amateur clubs that wish to try your skill against your friendly neighbors, write Bill Scott or Burl Holt at Floydada.

The majority of farmers from here to Quitaque are caught again in bad shape by having their feed planted in solid rows. I'm in the bunch. My feed just looked so pretty and growing so good I couldn't see to plow up every third row. Some are plowing it up now. Chances are it will not pay. In case of a good rain, where feed has burned pretty bad and the main head damaged, it will pay to bind it in a hurry and let a new crop grow.

On July 2 I hauled 70 bushels of wheat to the elevator at Barwise in a wagon pulled by a team of horses. I didn't think it was so odd but I did notice people staring at me. Come to find out it was the first wheat delivered by wagon and team all this wheat harvest!

As Will Rogers once said, this was the only rig in the bunch that could go home empty.

I saw a brood sow last week that extended up and were tied through each of her ears. The owner could get a patent on that if the humane society would let him alone. It sure looks like a fool proof cure for hogs that rot under fences. As the inventor says "it's a good way to get 'em located."

We are milking six little jersey cows, drinking three gallons of whole milk each day and last week we sold $8.36 worth of cream. Also raising a bunch of hogs and chickens practically on skim milk alone.

You boys that don't milk cows, don't get it into your heads that this is all profit and that it is an easy, get-rich-quick scheme, for cream is not always 28c per pound and hogs 10c per CWT.

Joyce Nell Womack (a little girl four years old) started to eat a small green apple. Her mother told her not to eat it for it would make her stomach hurt. Joyce Nell looked at the runty green apple with disgust and said, "I aren't big enough to make my stomach hurt."

"Col. Frank Knox speaks of returning to the system which he says the New Deal has 'undermined.' The only system the New Deal has undermined is the one which was in full operation in 1932. Col. Knox believes in 'cycles' of prosperity and depression. He is trying to create fear but it is fear of a return to the Coolidge-Hoover 'cycle.'"—Louisville Courier-Journal. (Ind.)

There is to be an invasion of Red Men at the Texas Centennial Exposition during September and October. This was announced recently by Walter Matson of the tribal council of the Osages, who served as an advance agent. The Osages are the Nation's wealthiest Indians.

AUSTIN, Sept. 22—Building permits in Texas during July were moderately below those of the preceding month but were sharply above those of the corresponding month last year, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research has found. Reports to the Bureau from 34 representative Texas cities show aggregate permits of $4,549,078, which was a decrease of 15.3 per cent from June, but an increase of 83 per cent over the like month last year. All but nine of the reporting cities showed gains in total permits over the corresponding month last year.

An Ordinance

THE STATE OF TEXAS COUNTY OF MOTLEY CITY OF MATADOR

AN ORDINANCE ENTITLED AN ORDINANCE LEVYING TAXES UPON ALL PROPERTY, EXCEPT SUCH AS EXEMPT, WITHIN THE CITY LIMITS OF THE CITY OF MATADOR, TEXAS, FOR THE CURRENT YEAR, 1936, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Matador, Texas, that there is hereby levied for the year 1936 on all real estate situated in and all personal property owned within the City Limits of the City of Matador, Texas, on the first day of January, of the current year (1936), except so much thereof as may be exempt by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas or the United States, the following taxes, to-wit:

the rate of 15 cents on the one hundred dollars cash valuation thereof, estimated in lawful currency of the United States, for the general fund of said City of Matador.

2. An ad valorem tax of and at the rate of 12 cents on the one hundred dollars cash valuation thereof, estimated in lawful currency of the United States, for the purpose of providing funds for the maintenance of the streets and alleys of said City of Matador.

3. An ad valorem tax of and at the rate of 50 cents on the one hundred dollars cash valuation thereof, estimated in lawful currency of the United States, for the purpose of paying the current interest and to provide one year's sinking fund for the Waterworks Bonds of said City of Matador.

4. An ad valorem tax of and at the rate of 23 cents on the one hundred dollars cash valuation thereof, estimated in lawful currency of the United States, for the purpose of paying the currency interest and to provide one year's sinking fund for the Funding Warrants of said City of Matador.

The fact that it is now time for the taxes for the current year of 1936 to be paid creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity requiring the reading of this ordinance at three separate meetings be dispensed with, and it is so done, and the same is passed by the City Council of the City of Matador, Texas, this 8th day of October 1936, and shall become effective from and after its passage and publication.

G. T. Edwards, Mayor, City of Matador, Texas

That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

Much Food Served Texas Centennial

DALLAS, Oct. 5.—Setting a dinner table daily over a period of 129 days for 38,000 invited guests has been the unusual chore of Dallas caterers having concessions at the Texas Centennial Exposition. These continuous dinner parties have driven the food handler's purchasing agents over the State to buy up the best of foods Texas has to offer.

A careful survey of the food concessions of the Exposition reveal that 1,600 pounds of ground coffee are used daily to make 41,600 cups of the delicious brew served over the counter and table on the grounds. During the period of 129 days an average of 10,000 pints of beer have been guzzled; 1,200 loaves of bread, 2,000 pounds of fish, 7,000 pounds of meat, 6,000 pounds of vegetables, 9,000 pints of milk, 400 pies, 14,400 buns, 400 pounds of hot dogs and 1,200 pounds of hamburger meat have been consumed.

Total For Period This gives a grand total for the period of 1,200,000 pints of beer, 360,000 loaves of bread, 48,000 pounds of coffee, 240,000 pounds of fish, 840,000 pounds of meat, 720,000 pounds of vegetables, 1,080,000 pints of milk, 48,000 pies, 1,728,000 buns, 576,000 hot dogs and 1,152,000 hamburgers.

Checking some of these items back to the producer it is found that the Texas cattlemen has received $100,000 for the beef upon the hoof for the 2,302 head of beefees. A similar sum has been traced back to the vegetable producers and these items do not account for the butter, eggs and poultry that have proven to be a sizeable bill.

No effort has been made to check up the tonnage on soft drinks, doughnuts, tea, candy and confections, cake and pastries other than pies, ice cream, sandwiches, hard liquors, prepared packing house meats, items that run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars. Exposition visitors have spent millions for rooms and hotel accommodations, not only in Dallas, but over the state, and their gasoline bill has been tremendous.

RFC Disbursements $6,500 For County The Reconstruction Finance

Corporation during the period February 2, 1932, to June 30, 1936, distributed the sum of $6,500 in Motley county, according to information received by H. P. Drought, State Director for the National Emergency Council for Texas.

Disbursements in Texas aggregated $96,262,772.48, not including amounts that went to various government agencies, or relief grants to the State of Texas as authorized under the Federal Emergency Relief Act of 1933.

The principal purposes for which the money was disbursed were as follows: loans to banks and trust companies, including receivers, liquidating agents and conservators, $25,993,602.58; subscriptions to preferred stock of bonds and trust companies, $22,742,375; loans to building and loan associations, $1,612,733.96; and an additional amount of $18,747,090.23 to mortgage loan companies.

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation gave assistance to industrial and commercial businesses in Texas totaling $455,274.33. Self-liquidating projects were aided in the sum of $1,093,012.85. A further amount of $199,311 was furnished to finance agricultural commodities and livestock, while the state received a disbursement of $7,952,291 for relief and work relief. Total disbursements made in the United States during the same period not including amounts disbursed in the form of relief grants to states amounted to $6,012,771,180.71.

Carveth Wells To Feature New York In Radio Broadcast

Via subway, bus and 'L' train, Carveth Wells will take his radio audience on a tour through the 'wonder city of the world'—New York—during his Continental Oil Company broadcast, 'Exploring America with Conoco and Carveth Wells,' on Sunday, October 11.

Speaking from experiences gained through extensive travel in many countries, Wells describes New York as 'a great magical city that is utterly unlike any other great city in the world'—where a visit of only a few hours will leave a lasting impression. 'London, Paris, Berlin, Vienna, Moscow and a host of other cities of world importance are capable of comparison one with another,' Wells declared, 'but New York is just as unique and incomparable as Baghdad, the City of the Arabian Nights.'

Points of interest to be discussed by the famous globe trotter are Bowling Green, Fraunces Tavern, Trinity Church, the Ghetto, Empire State Building, Rockefeller Center, St. Paul's Cathedral, the Bowery, Central Park, Metropolitan Museum of Art, and the American Museum of Natural History. The latter two he describes as places that 'no visitor to New York can afford to miss.'

In the Museum of Natural History, Wells relates, 'You can explore all the five continents in perfect safety yet with all the excitement of reality. You can explore the depths of the ocean, and then take a trip to the moon in perfect comfort—for the new Planetarium, built at a cost of nearly a million dollars, enables you to explore the Universe while seated in a comfortable chair especially designed for star-gazing.'

Local listeners who wish to tune in on Carveth Wells Sunday, October 11, may do so by dialing station WFAA at 12:30 o'clock.

THE GRAY NUN

A lovely gray-robed sister came last night To nurse my garden which was slowly dying. And now I see by morning's misty light, Delphinium on tiptoe, magnifying, Lilies whose alabaster bells were cast For music softer than the pine-tree's sighing. I knew when I awoke the drought had passed Since all night long the gray-eyed nun was bringing Perfect and dreamless peace which comes at last With dripping eaves and proplasm singing In every living cell, in trees and grain, In mosses from the mold of winter springing. And in my heart—a song to bless—rain. —Mrs. H. A. Dancer in Westminster-Bozart Magazine.

Young Folks

Listen Boys and Girls here's something you will be interested in: To-day my secretary came to my private office and informed me that a good-looking young lady wished to see me, without stuttering, I said, "Show her in." She did, and to my pleasant surprise she was one of my former students all dressed up and as happy and prosperous looking as could be. I said to her, "How are you getting along with your position?" She replied "Just fine. I am doing both the bookkeeping and shorthand work, I am now answering much of the correspondence myself and my boss thinks I'm a wonder at it." I then inquired if they had advanced her salary and she said, "Yes several times, I am now drawing a better salary than I ever anticipated I would. I just think your school is wonderful and your training is so thorough and practical—I'm sure a Byrne Booster."

In about three hours a young man that I had recommended for a responsible position walked in to thank me for the way I insisted him in landing a good position. He said, "They told him they would try him two weeks and if he made good they would keep him, otherwise, they would pay him off, but in a few days more payday rolled around and instead of getting fired he received a ten dollar raise. Thorough business training paid this young man and woman and it will pay any Byrne student who will study, work and try to make good. We could tell you the happy experience of many a boy or girl who has recently graduated in Byrne College.

CHILD WELFARE HOLDS MEETING

The Matador Child Welfare Association held its initial meeting of the year, on Wednesday, September 9, with a record attendance of sixty patrons, teachers and pupils. The sixth grade won the book at this meeting, which is given the class having the most parents and visitors present representing the pupils in that class.

The annual school carnival which is one of the feature achievements of the association is already under discussion, with plans being made to hold it in the near future.

LISTINGS OPEN TO SELL FEEDS DROUTH'S AREA

More than 250,000 car lots of surplus hay and other roughages have been listed to date with the Federal Livestock Feed Agency, according to F. A. Buckley county agricultural agent. This is in excess of the 1934 figures which show the greatest listings for any one month to be 162,000 car lots.

The Livestock Feed Agency reports that 27,000 of these car loads came from Texas.

The Agency points out that the winter livestock feeding program will soon get under way in most sections of the drouth area. An effort is being made to keep the listings of roughages up to date so that inquiries for feed may be taken care of as rapidly as possible.

Matley county farmers having surplus feed which they want to dispose of in this way are requested to immediately advise the Livestock Agency at 755 Livestock Exchange Building, Kansas City, Missouri.
