B-25 Crashes Into Missouri River; 5 Dead

Bomber Splits Apart When It Hits The Water

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 27. (AP)—An Air Force B-25 bomber, carrying six men, crashed into the Missouri River here today.

Two men were rescued but the other four were believed to have lost their lives as the bomber split apart in hitting the water between Municipal and Fairfax Airports.

Rescued were Leo Hicks, 21, a Navy enlisted man, from Dupo, Ill., and Pfc. Nolan F. Lederle, about 20, from St. Louis.

Both men said they were hitchhiking on the plane which left Scott Field, Ill., for Denver.

Both rescued men were suffering from shock and exposure.

The crash came a few minutes after the pilot had radioed the Fairfax control tower that one of the engines had failed and he was making an emergency landing. The pilot circled the field once and then the plane veered into the river.

"The plane split apart as it hit the water," Hicks said. "The water rushed in. I came to the surface and got rid of my parachute."

He was picked up half a mile downstream from the scene of the crash.

Hicks said he did not know the names of the other men aboard.

The plane crashed near the Kansas shore of the river.

Harriman, Ike Talk

PRESTWICK, Scotland, Oct. 27. (AP)—W. Averell Harriman, newly appointed U. S. chief of mutual security, broke a flying trip home today for a conference with Gen. Eisenhower.

Propaganda Seized

TOKYO, Oct. 27. (AP)—Japanese police today seized anti-American propaganda in raids on 26 distributing hideouts of Korean students in Tokyo, Yokohama, Osaka, Kyoto and Fukuoka.

Carriers See Grid Game

A group of Herald carriers got to see a college football game Saturday, witnessing the Texas Tech-Arizona clash in Lubbock. They won the expense-paid trip as an award for outstanding route work, including sign-up of new subscribers, making prompt collections, and having good delivery records. The boys are pictured as they gathered Saturday morning for their trip. Rear row, left to right: Preston Mason; T. L. Kennedy, Circulation Manager; Jack Kimble, Dean Lowe and Billy Gilbert. Middle row, Norman Williamson, Benson Kennedy, C. D. Downing and Norval Ray Perkins. Front row, Sonny Crocker, Robert Rogers and Carrier Director Gene Kimble.

Red Buffer Proposal Just Not Agreeable

By MATE POLOWETZKY
 MUNSAN, Korea, Sunday, Oct. 28. (AP)—Truce negotiators return to the breeze-flapped tent at Panmunjom today with the Allies standing pat in their refusal to swap hard-won ground for peace in Korea.

United Nations representatives told the Reds Saturday no further consideration could be given to the Communist proposal for a buffer zone which would cost the Allies a strip of hard-won territory as much as 15 miles wide.

The Allied negotiators said, however, their own proposal for a cease-fire, lines generally following the present battlefield was "not a flat take it or leave it position." The U. N. is prepared to make adjustments, but only minor ones.

On the battlefield only patrol met three and a half hours Saturday. Air battles continued in North Korea, with U. S. jet pilots reporting eight Red MIG-15s damaged.

The buffer-zone subcommittee met three and a half hours Saturday. The situation smacked of another deadlock, but optimism persisted in the view that U. N. command clamp that both sides would yield enough to settle the issue.

Brig. Gen. William F. Nye, Official U. N. command spokesman, said the two-member Allied subcommittee made it clear to the Reds there was "no fat on this (the U. N.) proposal that can be trimmed off by compromise."

The Allies insist on holding most of their battle-won present positions in the 28-month-old war because these make up the most defensible line in event of a Red doublecross after an armistice.

Maj. Gen. Henry L. Hodges, chairman of the Allied sub-committee, bluntly told the Communists the U. N. had failed to force the territory it had failed to get by bargaining at the old Kaesong truce talks last summer.

Complicating the issue is a difference of opinion as to where the line of combat exists. The U. N. buffer zone is drawn on the actual fighting line — where patrols clash, rather than along the respective main lines of resistance.

Both sides agreed Saturday to pin-point on maps their patrol contact points. Communist willingness to discuss this added to the feeling of optimism in Munsan.

The battle line extends diagonally — and irregularly — from several miles south of Parallel 38, in Western Korea, to a point more than 35 miles north of the parallel on the East Coast.

Allied Bombers Active Despite Blows By Soviet-Made Planes

EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Sunday, Oct. 28. (AP)—Allied jet fighters and bombers bagged three Russian-type MIG-15 jets, probably destroyed two others and damaged 12 in blasting air battles over Northwestern Korea Saturday.

About 105 Communist jets streaked up from Manchurian bases and intercepted eight B-29 Superforts and their protective cover of 112 American and Australian jet fighters. The bombers pounded a vital bridge, one bomber was damaged seriously enough that it was forced to land at a Korean base. The others returned to Okinawa.

The Air Force said all the jets landed safely.

The air battle highlighted war development. Ground fighting slowed to patrol action Saturday after battalion-sized Communist attacks were hurled back on the Western and Eastern Fronts Friday night.

Target in the B-29 raid was the 1,900-foot bridge spanning the Chongchon River at Sinsanju. It is a vital link in the Communist's north-south railroad supply route from Manchuria.

Reconnaissance pictures showed it was cut in five places 11 days ago, but the damage repaired. The Air Force did not report the results of Saturday's strike immediately.

Escorting the eight B-29s were 64 U. S. F-54 Thunderjets, 32 swept-wing F-56 Sabrejets and 16 Australian Meteor jets. Thunderjet pilots reported damaging six of the MIG-15s.

It was the seventh consecutive day of jet combat. The Air Force reported six MIGs were destroyed, two probably shot down and 14 damaged in the six previous days of dogfights.

Allied losses were listed as two jets destroyed, in addition to the loss of five fighters and one helicopter to Communist ground fire.

The Pyongyang North Korean radio reported "fierce fighting" all along the front and boasted of heavy losses inflicted on the Allies. The Red broadcast said three planes were shot down, a warship sunk, 12 trucks and four tanks destroyed.

It said the ship was sunk off the West Coast. There was no Allied confirmation.

Reviewing The Big Spring Week With Joe Pickle

First place in the news this week goes to the Big Spring high school football team. These young men won the honor hands down by getting up off the mat and walloping Plainview last Friday night. They demonstrated what fire and spirit will do. If you weren't on hand to witness this, it serves you right.

The main stem has a kind of naked look now that the traffic lights have been moved off center and to the sides after a quarter of a century. While this is proper, difficulties arise out of a welter of competing illuminated signs. This puts us in constant fear of moving on the neon rather than the signal, thus getting rammed.

Significant steps were taken last week toward meeting the housing problem. The city put a price on its land in the airport area, and Louis Thompson, local builder, said he would start building as rapidly as possible. If the city is declared a critical defense area, perhaps a rental unit project will be launched.

A wave of petty burglaries seems to be engulfing the city. These things come and go, but while they are on, it is wise to be careful about leaving valuable things

Taft's Brother OFFERED POST TOYATICAN

CINCINNATI, Oct. 27. (AP)—Charles F. Taft, brother of U. S. Sen. for Robert A. Taft, disclosed today President Truman last January offered him the job as United States Ambassador to the Vatican.

"I declined and advised against it," Taft said.

The position was the one for which President Truman recently nominated Gen. Mark Clark.

IS DRIVE UNDER WAY NOW?

GOP Says Ike Is "Anti-New Deal"

GARDEN CITY, Kan., Oct. 27. (AP)—Rep. Hugh D. Scott Jr. (R-Pa.) said tonight that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower is "vigorously anti-New Deal" and by all odds a Republican.

Scott, former Republican National Chairman, said in a speech prepared for a Young Republican convention here that Eisenhower will "revert on a petrotic basis" and accept the Republican nomination if the people "demonstrate x x x that they want him for their President."

Urging the Young Republicans to endorse Eisenhower, Scott said

Formal Note Asks British Leave Suez

CAIRO, Egypt, Oct. 27. (AP)—Egypt formally demanded today that the British pull out of the Suez Canal area immediately.

A note handed to the British charged that continued British occupation of the Suez is a "shameless violation" of the United Nations charter. The note also contained formal notice that the old treaties giving the United Kingdom rights in the Suez and the Sudan have been scrapped by Egypt.

Much Of State Gets A Peek At Winter Weather

Slow-Falling Rain Lends Hope To Few Drouth-Hit Areas

By The Associated Press

A dreary, drizzling cold front inched its way over much of Texas Saturday bringing a preview of winter.

Slow-falling showers in some sections brought hope that the 16-months' grip of dry weather had been broken.

In the Panhandle, there was the possibility of frost. The forecast called for 32-35 degrees Sunday morning.

Gainesville got its heaviest dousing since Sept. 13, 1950 — a total of 2.60 inches. At Gilmer, a heavy Saturday afternoon downpour postponed the town's biggest event of the year, the annual Yamboue parade.

A welcome rain at Wichita Falls failed to dampen the spirits of 4,000 businessmen-marchers during Midwestern University's homecoming activities.

Bonham reported 2.40 inches, its best rain since June 3. Corsicana has 1.12 inches up to mid-afternoon. The Dallas area, driest region in the state, got only .24 inches but it was the kind that soaked into bone-dry subsoil, brightening grain prospects and refreshing parched pastures.

Near dark Saturday the norther's wet breath extended from south of Texarkana and Tyler to south of Waco and west to the San Angelo region. More showers were forecast for the east and south portions of East Texas.

Other rainfall totals included Sherman 1.70 inches; Muenster 1.55; Henrietta 1.57; Haskell .77; Spur .78; Paris .88; Amarillo .72; Quanah .72; Dalhart .40; Muleshoe .18; Childress .24; Graham .30; Electric 2.00; Brownwood 1.06; and San Antonio .48.

This is the latest close-up portrait of dapper Anthony Eden, who at 64 ranks as one of Britain's oldest statesmen. He is expected to be the Conservative Party's choice for Foreign Secretary in the new Churchill government. (AP Wirephoto)

Eden Goes Back To Foreign Office

LONDON, Oct. 27. (AP)—Winston Churchill reinstated Britain's World War II leadership today with himself in the dual role of prime minister and minister of defense, and Anthony Eden as his foreign secretary.

The 76-year-old Churchill went to King George VI with his eight key cabinet appointments less than 24 hours after his Conservatives clinched their victory over Labor.

The King approved them at a meeting of the Privy Council.

The new prime minister appeared at Buckingham Palace beaming and jaunty. Swinging a gold-topped cane, smoking a huge cigar and holding up two fingers in his famous "V" sign, he was almost mobbed by hundreds of cheering Britons.

It took police several minutes to clear a way for his car. Such was the magic of the Churchill name that Britain's towering problems—Iran and Egypt, the cold war with Russia, the recurrent spread between dollar intake and outgo—seemed a little less frightening.

There were no surprises in the cabinet members: All have proven qualifications for handling difficult government problems.

The new cabinet met at the palace. All got a cheer as they left, Eden the biggest of all.

In keeping for himself his wartime post of minister of defense, Churchill is in a position to give impetus to strategic planning and Britain's three-year 4.7 billion pounds ($11.5 billion) rearmament drive.

The debonair Eden, 54, who piloted foreign relations through the war, walked back into the foreign ministry immediately after his appointment. Eden is expected to head Britain's delegation at the United Nations meeting in Paris, Nov. 1. Eden also will be deputy prime minister and leader in the House of Commons.

Nicholas Austin Butler, 51, as co-secretary of the Economics Council, will be the new cabinet.

The wartime food minister, Lord Woolton, 66, becomes head of the council with special supervision over the food and agriculture ministries.

The Marguerite of Salisbury, 59-year-old blue blood, is the new Lord Privy Seal. He will be Churchill's trouble shooter and leader in the House of Lords.

Sir David Maxwell Fyfe, war crimes prosecutor at Nuremberg and former attorney general, was handed two jobs as home secretary and minister for Welsh affairs. He will be responsible for the nation's internal security.

Gen. Lord Ismay, Churchill's wartime chief of staff, was named secretary for Commonwealth relations.

Sir Walter Monckton, 60, got the thankless task of the labor ministry, where he will have to deal with labor unions suspicious of Tory rule.

'NOT GOOD ENOUGH'

Truman Again Hits Price Control Law

By HAROLD W. WARD
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 27. (AP)—President Truman told an American Federation of Labor gathering today he will do his best to curb inflation, but "the tools Congress has given us . . . are not good enough to do the job as it should be done."

Mr. Truman spoke at a ceremony dedicating a triangular plot near AFL headquarters as "Gompers Square," in honor of the late Samuel Gompers, long-time leader (1881-1924) of the federation.

"In this emergency," he said, "you would think that all citizens would want good, strong price controls to protect themselves and the whole economy."

"But this has not proved to be the case. Scores of special interests have ganged up together for the purpose of securing special short-run advantages for themselves at the expense of all the rest of us."

"These special interests have adopted the principle that price control is all right if it does not require them to absorb a penny more in costs, or forego a penny of profits, no matter how high their profits may be."

"This administration will do its best, with the tools the Congress has given us, to curb inflation. But the tools are not good enough to do the job as it should be done."

Today's ceremony came 101 years after the birth of Gompers, who headed the AFL until his death in 1924.

More than 1,000 persons crowded the area today to hear the Chief Executive.

Mr. Truman said that fighting for the things Gompers stood for "means a long, unending fight."

"It is an unending fight because the forces of reaction never give up," said Mr. Truman. "They have money and they have power, and they never really believe that the people ought to govern themselves."

Local Flier Is Due To Get DFC Award

Gene Hardy Flewelen of Big Spring, who has been flying combat missions in Korea, recently was promoted from captain to major in the Air Force and will shortly receive the Distinguished Flying Cross, he has informed his mother, Mrs. Lina Flewelen.

Major Flewelen is taking a rest after having flown 34 missions against the Reds. He expects to complete 50 before coming back to the states for the Christmas holidays.

Gene Hardy's family is in St. Petersburg, Fla., at the present time. If plans work out, they may join him here for the holidays.

Flewelen, a senior pilot, received recommendation for the DFC for the following action, described in an official Air Force publication.

"Shortly after take-off on a Korean combat mission, Flewelen noticed his left engine had become unusually hot. Suddenly it burst into flames. Circling to attempt an emergency landing, he found that the dense black smoke prevented seen from observing the runway sufficiently to make a safe approach. He called on 1st Lt. Kenneth P. Lawrence, his Radar Observer in the right cockpit, for assistance.

"Having observed several hundred landings in his observer career, Lt. Lawrence, as ready with the necessary directions to effect a safe approach with a walk-around landing."

"By giving a running commentary of airspeed, altitude and relative position of the runway, he successfully directed Flewelen to a safe touchdown less than three minutes after the fire broke out."

Mass Construction

Transformation Of Muny Airport To AFB Amazing

The Municipal Airport visitor—if he hasn't been there in some time—might be surprised at the transformation currently taking place.

The future Big Spring Air Force base is rapidly taking on the appearance of a military installation. A few more airmen and some planes in the next few weeks will make it a bona fide air base, whether it's officially "activated" or not.

Taking the place of shattered concrete foundations—remains of the last Big Spring military field—are two score new buildings. The 40 new structures, at various stages of construction, are being rushed to completion by some 600 workmen on all sections of the housing and administrative side of the base.

Swarming over the building area are carpenters, plumbers, electricians, and all the other craftsmen involved in the king-size construction program.

Nearing completion are the barracks, officer quarters and a cold storage plant. Workers on the wing headquarters building and academic facilities are also well along with their phase of the construction.

The 29 dormitories and four mess halls are at all degrees of completion, some having practically all of the exterior work finished while others are just making their appearances with the construction of foundations.

The base communications building is beginning to take on the "finished" look, while general construction is also nearing completion on a base photo laboratory.

Each of the dormitories, which take the place of the old Army-style barracks, includes 28 rooms where airmen will be quartered. Two or three men per room. Dorms also boast individual recreation rooms, and centrally located bath facilities on each floor.

Down on the "line" a new steel control tower is being erected. Located adjacent to the airport terminal building the tower is to be 87 feet high, affording traffic controllers a clear view of the entire operational section of the field.

Probably the biggest operation now underway is the extension of runways. One is being lengthened to 8,800 feet, the other to 5,500 feet.

The longer strip will be used by jet-powered aircraft, while the 5,500-foot runway will serve conventional planes.

Also under construction are base fuel storage facilities, and taxiways will probably be started as soon as runways are completed.

While administrative buildings are under construction Col. Ernest F. Wackwitz Jr., base commander, and his staff are utilizing part of the commercial air terminal building. Personnel have been trickling in for the past few months, and the base complement is now up to around 15 officers and men.

Shooting for a Jan. 2 "activation" date, the airmen are readying plans for the initial flight training operations. Meanwhile, they have a ringside seat while contractors whip the field and its domestic and operational facilities into shape.

About 40 per Cent Saved Due To Cut In Telegram Taxes

A tax saving of approximately $14 million per year is anticipated as a result of a reduction of telegram excise taxes.

The cut from 25 to 15 per cent amounts to a 40 per cent tax savings. This, together with greater word allowances for telegrams and night letters, are expected to civilian use of telegraph service, said R. G. Downing, local Western Union manager. The 25 per cent tax was imposed during World War II in part to discourage civilian use of telegraph service, which then was burdened with military requirements. After the war, however, it was not lifted. Further mechanization at a cost of $100 million is in process of doubling Western Union message capacity to handle anticipated increase in business.

"T&P Day" Set As Dedication Of Station Due

Thursday will be "Texas & Pacific Day" in Big Spring on the occasion of dedicating new terminal facilities here.

Mayor G. W. Dabney proclaimed the special day Saturday, noting that the T&P is the oldest continuous business to operate in Big Spring. The renovation and remodeling of the passenger depot into a modern facility constitutes another milestone worthy of recognition, said the mayor. It is something in which the company and community alike can take pride, he noted.

W. G. Vollmer, president of the Texas & Pacific Railway company, will be honor guest at a joint meeting of service clubs at noon Thursday in the Settles. Bernie Freeman, president of the host Kiwanis club, said that the Lions club would hold its regular weekly luncheon on Thursday, and that many members of the Rotary had pledged to attend, although not as a club. Others including the American Business Club and the Jay cees have been invited to take part.

Exceptionally brief but formal dedication ceremonies of the new passenger terminal will be held at 2:30 p.m. with Mr. Vollmer symbolically presenting it to Mayor Dabney for service of the community.

The T&P president is due to be accompanied by other high officials here, including L. C. Porter, vice president in charge of operations; J. B. Shores, director of public and employe relations. They will be met by W. C. Foster, division superintendent.

Terminal facilities, erected here little less than a quarter of a century ago have been completely remodeled and re-arranged. It has been designed into a modern type lobby and business space, well illuminated, attractively painted and with adequate restroom facilities.

COLORADO CITY, Oct. 27.—Jack Walker, 44, auto dealer of Colorado City and Lorraine has been selected to serve as Red Cross chairman for Mitchell County. Walker replaces Luke Thomas who had served for two years.

Walker has lived in Mitchell County for 40 years and is a resident of Lorraine. He is a member of the Lorraine Post of the American Legion, the Lorraine Lion's club, and the Colorado City chamber of commerce. He is a member of the Masonic lodge and the Methodist church.

Walker's service in World War II was with the Seabees, with a rating of petty officer first class.

Two Local Students Air ROTC Officers

Two Big Spring students at Texas Tech have been appointed officers in the Tech Air-ROTC.

Don S. Spencer has been appointed to the temporary rank of Cadet Second Lieutenant and assigned to duty as assistant flight commander in Squadron E. Spencer, an animal husbandry major, is the son of Tom Spencer of Big Spring.

Steve H. Mize, son of K. M. Mize, has been appointed to temporary rank of Cadet Warrant Officer. He has been assigned to duty in Squadron F of the Tech Air-ROTC. Mize is a management major at the college.

Garden City's Future Ranchers Discuss Project

GARDEN CITY, Oct. 27.—Projects and social activities were discussed at a special meeting of the Garden City chapter of the Future Ranchers of America here this week.

Chapter members now have 45 lambs on feed, all but two being owned by individual members. The two exceptions are chapter property and are being fed as a chapter project. The chapter also has two pigs on feed. Two boys are feeding out calves.

Other projects include a number of breeding cows, breeding sheep, and the production of small grain crops and around 170 acres of cotton. The crops are on both dry and irrigated lands.

Plans were made for a winter roast to be held Nov. 6 with members to invite dates. Plans for raising money were discussed. The chapter will operate booths at the annual Halloween carnival here Wednesday evening. It also will operate a concession stand at the Forsan-Garden City game.

Don Pryor, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Dixiecrat Meeting May Be Postponed

By REX THOMAS
MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 27. (AP) — A cloud of uncertainty hung heavy today over the Dixie Democrats' widely advertised pre-1951 "Stop Truman" rally.

There were indications that the "strategy conference," scheduled next Thursday at nearby Selma, Ala., might be called off.

The three men whose names come to mind whenever anti-Truman Southerners talk of putting up their own presidential candidate have made it known that they don't plan to be around for any such meeting.

Senator Byrd (D-Va.), the No. 1 critic below the Mason-Dixon line, will be at Selma Thursday to speak at the annual meeting of the Dallas County Farm Bureau. But he won't word Friday that he must leave immediately afterward.

The anti-Truman discussions were arranged to start after the Farm Bureau affair. And State Rep. Walter Givhan, who called the conference, had said it could develop into a "Draft Byrd" movement.

After he talked with the Virginia Senator, however, Givhan declined even to discuss prospects of a Dixie strategy meeting. In a prepared statement, he spoke only of the "Farm Bureau meeting which, he said, is non-political and will remain so."

Byrd's notification that "serious illness" in his family requires him to depart shortly after his speech obviously, dulled if not killed plans for the anti-Truman conference.

Even before then, invitations were turned down, for one reason or another, by South Carolina's Gov. James F. Byrnes and Senator

Russell (D-Ga.) along with other Southern congressmen and governors.

Byrnes and Russell are the two mentioned along with Byrd as possible Dixie presidential candidates. The Georgia Senator's name was put up for nomination at the 1948 Democratic National Convention which preceded the famed southern walkout.

Just what could be accomplished at an election strategy meeting next week still stood out as strictly a matter of speculation. Even some of President Truman's most ardent critics are reluctant to go too far with 1952 plans until the President says whether he will be a candidate.

No matter what the outcome of next Thursday's affair, however, there almost certainly will be another effort to deny Dixie's electoral votes to Mr. Truman if he is the nominee. The revolt against the national party three years ago gave 39 votes to the Thurmond-Wright States Rights ticket.

That wasn't enough, and the President remained in office. But this time there are some like Governor Hugh White of Mississippi who say there is still a chance to throw the election into the House of Representatives if not to elect a Southerner.

But Alabama, one of the four states that went down the line for the states rights, may reverse its field next year and stick with the national nominee regardless of who he is.

Since 1948, national party loyalists have won control of the State Democratic Executive Committee, the all-powerful group that runs party affairs.

POLL REVEALS

GOP Could Carry Texas With Ike

By DAVE CHEAVENS
AUSTIN, Oct. 27. (AP) — Seven of 12 Texas political manipulators polled by the Associated Press this week believe the Republicans could carry Texas in 1952 if General Eisenhower is their candidate.

The off-the-record questions put also assumed that President Truman would be the Democratic nominee.

Those polled included county or regional political bosses, managers of past major campaigns, big-time political publicists, but no officeholders.

Among the 12 were Republicans who are already working for Eisenhower and gambling heavily that he will say "yes," and some Democrats who would like to see the general as a candidate for either party.

These political backstagers were interviewed as announcement was made that Senator James H. Duff (R-Pa) will come to Texas, Nov. 3-4, to plug for Eisenhower. He will confer with party leaders in McAllen, San Antonio, Midland, Houston and perhaps other cities.

Meanwhile the Democratic party's family feud here had temporarily simmered down while leaders were awaiting the outcome of a meeting of anti-Truman Democrats at Selma, Ala., Nov. 1. The anti-Trumanites will talk States' Rights strategy.

Governor Allan Shivers will not attend the Selma meeting.

Answers to the question of whether or not Eisenhower could carry traditionally Democratic Texas ranged from a flat "absolutely" to an equally positive "never." The affirmative came from a Republican, the negative from a Democrat.

Another Democratic manager said:

"He might if he got started right. There is a deep-seated feeling against having a military man in the presidency and we haven't had a test like that. It's hard for Texans to vote any way but Democratic in a presidential election."

Virtually all those who said Eisenhower "could" carry Texas agreed he would have to make up his mind soon. They also hedged their answers with many ifs pointing to possible changes in the international situation.

All the politicians polled pointed to the Texas record of not having left the Democratic column in a presidential race but once. That was in 1928 when Hoover's vote was 367,096 to Smith's 341,032 in a bitter high-pressure religious and wet-dry issue race.

Here is how the vote has gone in more recent times: 1948, Roosevelt 940,151, Willie 109,152; 1944, Roosevelt 821,605, Dewey 191,425, Texas Regular (no candidate) 135,439; 1948, Truman 750,700, Dewey 272,240, Thurmond 106,900.

Hopeful Eisenhower Republicans noted a steady slip in the Democratic total from 1940 through 1948 and a combined opposition vote of 326,864 in 1944 that grew to 389,149 in 1948. They hoped they could cash in on and enlarge that "anti" bloc.

Farm Bureau Directors Set Tuesday Meet

Howard County Farm Bureau directors will meet Tuesday to lay plans for the organization's annual countywide convention.

The meeting is set for 8 p.m. in the Farm Bureau office at 4th and Scurry, said Ralph Proctor, president. Directors will set the date for the convention which will probably be held early in November. The State Bureau convention is to be held Nov. 19.

Nominations and resolutions committees for the convention have already been named. Frank Loveless is chairman of the resolutions group which includes M. H. Ulmer and Pat Patterson.

The nomination committee is composed of Robert Brown, Lawrence Adkins, and Edgar Phillips, chairman.

Any Farm Bureau member who has a suggested resolution to be submitted at the county convention should contact one of the resolutions committeemen, said the Bureau president.

Pioneer Net Income Increases Over '50

Pioneer Air Lines net income before taxes for the first nine months of 1951 was $181,777.11, as compared to $123,856.12 earned for the same period in 1950. E. W. Bailey, secretary-treasurer, has announced.

Net income after taxes for the three quarters of 1951 was $89,563.00 or $.99 per share on the 90,000 shares of outstanding stock. This compares to $72,875.16 or $.81 per share in the 1950 months.

Passenger revenues increased 24.7 per cent for the period while air cargo (express and freight) revenues increased 19.9 per cent. Revenues for transporting the U. S. mail decreased 16.9 per cent, providing $818,506.23 in 1951, as contrasted to $963,115.53 in 1950, Bailey said.

Total operating income increased ten per cent from $2,407,332.50 for the first three quarters of 1950 to $2,687,038.30 for the 1951 period, while operating expenses increased 8.44 per cent from $2,286,345.73 to $2,419,518.95.

Pension Hike Is Up For A Town Meeting

TAYLOR, Oct. 27. (U)—Taylor is a nice, quiet town of 9,671 good citizens among the black-land cotton fields of Central Texas. But, by gosh, when something's gonna happen that will affect every one of them they wanna know more about it. So they have a town hall meeting.

Monday night they're expecting 500 to come to the Don Theater downtown and talk about whether the state should increase its public welfare payments, whether the state should raise its present ceiling of $37 million a year on public welfare spending up to $42 million.

That's one of the proposed constitutional amendments to be voted on in a state-wide election Nov. 13. The main part of that question is whether the old folks in Texas should get increased pension payments.

"Take care of the old folks," was the battle cry that embroiled the Texas Legislature for weeks last spring. Legislators finally voted to let the people decide.

The Taylor Townhall Committee got Rep. Lamar Zivley, Temple, co-author of the amendment, to promise to speak 20 minutes for it. And Rep. H. A. (Salty) Hull of Fort Worth, who fought the proposed amendment in the legislature, will speak 20 minutes against it.

Then Mrs. James Hairston, local clubwoman, will speak in rebuttal ten minutes for it. And Miss Mary Elizabeth Fox, head of the Journalism department of Southwestern University, Georgetown, will speak in rebuttal ten minutes against it.

After that — it's up to the citizens. Anybody can ask questions. Mrs. Alma Lee Holman, editor of the weekly Taylor Times will be moderator.

"A considerable amount of interest has been stirred up in advance of this townhall meeting," said Harry Pickoff, Taylor businessman and chairman of the steering committee.

"We hold Taylor Town Hall meetings whenever there is enough local feeling or interest to justify them. Last year we held one for free enterprise and Socialism which was attended by a few more than 425 people. Right now, it looks like we will have about 500 out of this one. You can well imagine that we have people in Taylor who are pretty hot for both sides of the question as to whether public-welfare payments for needy ought to be raised at this time."

The Town Hall Meeting Committee sent out handbills and printed invitations for Monday's meeting.

The invitation reminded the citizens

WANT TO BUY A CASTLE?

ROME, Oct. 27. (U)—Want to buy a castle? Sad-eyed American comedian Jimmy Savo today advertised his for sale.

It is La Rocca Di Poggio, a 13th century castle high in the Umbrial Hills. The buyer will also become lord of the tiny village of Poggio, which has nine inhabitants and is within the castle walls.

Savo — known as "Lord Jimmy" to Poggio's residents — now is in New York City. He offered the castle for sale in newspaper advertisements.

Two Texans Are Carnegie Hero Fund Winners

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 27. (U)—Two Texans have been named by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission to receive awards for acts of heroism. Bronze medals have gone to Dr. Hannibal L. Jaworski, 49, Route 10, Waco, and Russell H. Bowdoin, 41, of Lindale, the commission announced Friday.

Jaworski, who was ill and had been warned by a physician to avoid exertion, saved two men from drowning after their motor boat capsized and sank in Lake Waco, Nov. 15, 1950.

The Waco surgeon, on hearing cries for help, paddled a row boat which had no oars 225 feet to where Anderson J. Sharp, 35, and Charles M. Warren, 30, were floundering in the water. After helping Sharp, who was nearly exhausted, to hold onto the boat, Jaworski got a hold on the boat, Jaworski submerged himself under water to find Warren. Holding the arms of the unconscious Warren against the inside of the boat with his knee, the physician paddled the boat to shore.

Attorney Seeks To Deny Annulment To King's Wife

By WILBUR MARTIN

HOUSTON, Oct. 27. (U)—A Houston attorney today filed a petition asking Mrs. Gloria King's request for an annulment be denied because it mocked the integrity of Texas courts and Texas judges.

This brought a heated denial from her attorney and her husband, Sheppard King III, the red-headed Texan whose romance with an Egyptian belly dancer has intrigued millions.

Robert L. Sonfield's intervention petition charged King and his wife with conspiring to mock the integrity of the courts and judges.

Mrs. King's petition for annulment of her June 2 remarriage to the wealthy Texan is scheduled Monday.

Mrs. King alleged she has consumed too many "fancy drinks" and didn't remember marrying King.

King won Samia Gama, a favorite dancer of the Egyptian king, in three hours. He met her in a night club while on a European holiday with his wife and sister.

The Kings were divorced in 1950 and remarried this year.

Sonfield said he filed as a friend of the court on his own initiative.

He said the entire marital rift reflects on the character of the courts, its judges and particularly Judge Robert A. Hall, who performed the ceremony last June in Dallas.

Judge Hall would not have performed the ceremony if the plaintiff (Glori) was drunk as she alleges," Sonfield said, "and Judge Hall would have known it she was non compos mentis."

He alleged that in his opinion Gloria was in full possession of her mental faculties and asks that the annulment be refused.

He also accused Gloria and Sheppard of a "conspiracy or at least a common understanding concerning the annulment . . . his motive being to become a single man at the earliest practicable time so he could marry another person of Egyptian nationality who is a professional dancer."

King expressed surprise at the petition and said he knew nothing about it.

He said if the annulment was not granted, his wife would file suit for divorce.

Crack Passenger Train Derailed

HOUSTON, Oct. 27. (U)—Southern Pacific Railroad officials expected to have a clear track early tonight after a crack passenger train derailed near Rosenberg.

Seven cars were derailed Friday night and the tender overturned. There were no injuries to passengers. W. H. Hargrove, Corpus Christi, a crew member, was slightly hurt when thrown against a steam pipe.

The train was the Border Limited, enroute to Brownsville. Preliminary investigation indicated a broken rail was responsible for the accident, W. S. Higgins, a railroad official, said.

Strong Faith Asked

VATICAN CITY, Oct. 27. (U)—Commemorating the anniversary of Czechoslovak independence, Pope Pius has addressed an apostolic letter to the Catholic hierarchy, clergy and laity of that nation urging them to be strong in their faith.

Gorilla Is Named

HOUSTON, Oct. 27. (U)—The Houston Chronicle today announced the name "Hugo" had been selected as name for the city zoo's new baby gorilla. The name was picked out of 6,909 letters in the Chronicle's contest to name the gorilla.

Pawnbroker Charged

DALLAS, Oct. 27. (U)—Bob Weinstein, 40, a pawnbroker, was charged Friday with receiving and concealing part of some goods taken by shoplifters from Dallas stores.

Dam Growing

In southwest Scurry county the Colorado River Municipal Water District dam is growing steadily. The earthen structure, indicated by the white outline, has reached a height of more than 30 feet. This is roughly one-third of the final height, but it represents half of the volume of dirt to be moved. This view is from the southern anchor and shows the dam terminating at the Colorado River channel. J. W. Moorman, contractor, hopes to close this gap in March. Note that the rock rip-rap, the white streaks on the dam, is being installed as the dam goes up. Below, forms for the service spillway at the north end of the dam, take shape. Note size of its conduits in comparison to the workmen on them.

Alvin J. Wirtz, Famed Political Figure, Is Dead

AUSTIN, Oct. 27. (U)—Former Undersecretary of the Interior Alvin J. Wirtz, 63, died today after collapsing during the Rice-Texas football game at Memorial Stadium.

Wirtz, outstanding legal authority in the fields of water, oil and conservation, served two years as chief deputy of Secretary of the Interior Harold J. Ickes.

He was appointed to the post in 1940 by President Roosevelt. Prior to that he was general counsel for the Lower Colorado River Authority. He was active in creation of the river agency responsible for harnessing the West Central Texas stream by construction of a series of huge dams.

Wirtz was state senator from the Seguin district from 1922 until 1930. He served as president pro tem of the Senate and was chairman of its key committee on state affairs.

Wirtz was actively identified with such New Deal agencies as the National Youth Administration, which he served as chairman of the state advisory committee.

The former state senator apparently died of a heart attack. Wirtz was born at Columbus and lived there until 1917, when he moved to Seguin. He lived there until 1934 when he moved to Austin. He was educated in the Columbus public schools and the University of Texas.

Wirtz returned to Texas after resigning as Undersecretary of the Interior and resumed the practice of law in Austin. During the turbulent political fight in 1944 between the pro-Roosevelt Democrats and the Texas Regulars, Wirtz was one of the leading strategists for the pro-Roosevelt faction that won.

ANYBODY GOT CIVIL RIGHTS UP FOR SALE?

WICHITA FALLS, Oct. 27. (U)—County Clerk Dora Davis opened a letter mailed from Arkansas. The writer, a woman, wanted to buy some civil rights. She enclosed $1 to cover costs.

IN LOAN PROBE Barkley Secretary To Go Under Oath

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27. (U)—Senator Nixon (R-Calif.) said today Vice President Barkley's secretary and the former counsel of the Senate Small Business Committee "will have to tell under oath and publicly the story of their contacts with government loans."

Nixon said he will insist on public hearings before the Senate investigations Subcommittee, of which he is a member, "with Mrs. Flo Bratten, the Vice President's secretary, and Charles E. Shaver as the primary witnesses."

Shaver resigned Wednesday as the Small Business group's staff lawyer. Mrs. Bratten and Shaver have acknowledged publicly they visited the Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC), huge government lending agency, on many occasions in connection with loans to certain applicants.

Both have denied they exercised any improper influence on the agency, and both have said they derived no profit from the negotiations. Nixon disclosed today that the Investigations Committee staff has seized records of long distance telephone calls from Shaver's office in the basement of the Capitol, and has started a detailed study of his bank account records.

California Cotton Industry Scared

BAKERSFIELD, Calif., Oct. 27. (U)—California's growing cotton industry is scared.

A single larvae of the dreaded cotton boll worm, prevalent in Texas, was found on a cotton-picking machine here before the device had been taken to the fields. Many of the 800 mechanical pickers in Kern County are imported from other states.

Never before has the worm been reported in California. Along with the boll weevil, it is considered the worst enemy of cotton. The boll weevil hasn't been found here either.

Supervisor E. A. Breech of the state's plant quarantine work said Friday that picking machines must be fumigated, a more effective precaution than steam-cleaning, which is supposed to kill the boll worm.

SWALLOWS BAD AS RED FLAK

WITH TASK FORCE 77 IN KOREAN WATERS; Oct. 27. (U)—Now you take swallow, the commander said. They're almost as bad as flak or those MIG jets.

Seems like every time the fast jet Banshees take off from the Carrier Essex a gang of those lumbering swallows gets in the way.

It was really rugged the other morning, said Commander M. E. Barnett, who heads the Fifth Squadron from Jacksonville, Fla. The squadron took off and ran into at least 500 swallows.

"We had to split up to avoid a wholesale butchery," Barnett said.

And if you don't believe it, look at that dent on Barnett's plane. That wasn't flak. That was a swallow, bub.

Pawnbroker Charged

DALLAS, Oct. 27. (U)—Bob Weinstein, 40, a pawnbroker, was charged Friday with receiving and concealing part of some goods taken by shoplifters from Dallas stores.

Sewer System Outfall Line Is Due Completion

Work on the new sewer system outfall line, from the disposal plant, to the alley south of E 15th street at Princeton, is scheduled for completion Monday, E. L. Killingsworth city engineer, reported Saturday. The line would have been completed Saturday, but delay in shipment of one load of sewer tile caused postponement of a short segment, Killingsworth said. Contractor has already started construction of a new main line in the Edwards Heights area, a job that will probably be completed in the next 10 days.

The Edwards Heights main will serve the new elementary school in that area, as well as the Mountain Park addition and other adjacent sectors. The Washington elementary school will be served by the new outfall line.

Extension and addition of sewer laterals will probably be started as soon as work is completed on the main line installations, the city engineer said.

Retailers Set Tuesday Meet

A meeting of local retailers has been scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Tuesday to map plans for observance of the 1951 Yule season. M. C. Grigsby, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce's Retail committee, announced Saturday.

Retail store operators will meet in room No. 3 at the Settles hotel. The meeting is a part of a sub-committee session last Thursday at which committees were appointed to plan various phases of the annual Christmas program.

G. M. Deal is to head the Christmas Parade committee, while R. W. Bates will be in charge of finance. J. H. Kilsner will be Trades Day chairman, and Nat Shick is to handle details of Christmas tree decoration.

Activities, including installation of street decorations, the parade, Treasure Hunt, and a special merchandising event, will be the subject of reports by the committees.

Tentative date for start of the Christmas season is Nov. 23. Another program is set for Dec. 7 when Santa Claus will visit Big Spring in his reindeer-powered sleigh.

Mrs. A. S. Woods Rites Set Today

Last rites will be said at 2 p.m. today at the East Fourth Baptist church for Mrs. A. S. Woods, 54, who died at her home here Friday following an illness of 18 months duration.

The Rev. Maple Avery, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in the Trinity Memorial cemetery with Nalley Funeral home in charge. Members of the Big Spring Rebekah lodge No. 294, of which she was a member, to attend in a body and will meet at the church at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Woods, long time resident of Howard county, leaves her husband, A. S. (Sid) Woods; two sons, Wendell Woods and Lee O'Dell Woods, both of Houston; daughter, Mrs. Clara Bell Rayermann, Fort Worth; her mother, Mrs. Lula Satterwhite, Big Spring; two sisters, Mrs. J. P. Crook, Snyder, and Mrs. Tommy C. Reeves, Corpus Christi; three brothers, R. C. Satterwhite and Royce Satterwhite, Big Spring, and W. S. Satterwhite, Lamesa.

Nearly Half Of Current Taxes Are Paid Up

Nearly half of the current taxes of the Big Spring Independent School district have been paid.

Total receipts on the roll for October amounted to $167,237.76, or almost 47 of the $358,000 roll, said J. O. Haygood, tax collector-assessor, Saturday.

Through early remission, taxpayers have earned $5,012.70 in discounts. Haygood reminded that those who pay through Wednesday will be entitled to the three per cent discount for early payment. Payments postmarked before midnight Wednesday will qualify.

Division of the net current receipts showed $126,571.94 to local maintenance and $35,673.22 to interest and sinking fund. Delinquent taxes in October totaled $710.30 and miscellaneous fees have amounted to $19.50.

Flares Flicker Out As Gas Plant Opens

The gas flares are being extinguished in Scurry county.

In one huge area, containing about one-third of the wells in the Scurry Canyon reef fields, the gas which once lit more than 200 tank batteries in the Kelley-Snyder field now is piped into the huge new Snyder Gasoline Plant. The plant was dedicated in formal ceremonies near here.

The plant, owned by 30 companies and 60 individuals and operated by Sunray Oil Corporation is now processing about 50 million cubic feet of gas daily, from which it produces propane, butane, iso-butane, gasoline and natural gas. Ultimate capacity is 70 m.c.f. per day.

But, long before the plant was put in operation last spring, a high pressure gathering system was installed which resulted in conservation of more than 13 billion cubic feet of gas.

Many changes have been brought about by construction of the plant.

To the casual observer the big change has been the extinguishing of most gas flares in the area west, northwest and north of Snyder covering a 35,000 acre area.

To the oil man and the royalty owner the big change has been the conservation of valuable gas saved by processing. Instead of burning it as waste in flares at more than 850 wells in the area.

To the economy of Snyder, the plant, which gave employment to 250 construction workers, has meant business for local merchants. Forty workers now operate the plant.

Rail and pipe line companies have come in for a big share of business from the plant, too. The Santa Fe now ships about 500 tanks cars of liquid products from the plant each month.

Both the Lone Star Gas Co. and El Paso Natural Gas Co. buy natural gas at the plant for distribution to commercial consumers over a wide service area.

A 90-inch pipe line system of 2-inch to 30-inch pipe gathers gas for processing by the plant. More than 1,250,000 feet of pipe are in the network.

While it has ended the flaring of gas in the field, some gas still is occasionally flared at the plant side, but for a limited time only. According to E. J. Mills, Sunray's superintendent of the processing center, the plant is designed to handle all the gas which comes to it from the 850 oil wells, if that gas is received at an even rate.

While it has ended the flaring of gas in the field, some gas still is occasionally flared at the plant side, but for a limited time only. According to E. J. Mills, Sunray's superintendent of the processing center, the plant is designed to handle all the gas which comes to it from the 850 oil wells, if that gas is received at an even rate.

But the gas production depends upon oil production in the various wells, and sometimes the rate of flow of gas is relatively slow, while at other times it passes the plant's capacity to process. When this happens, the huge flare is lighted, which makes a column of smoke and pillar of fire that can be seen from almost anyplace in the county.

Two more 1,350 horsepower compressor engines are to be installed which will add to the plant's capacity and will enable it to process all the gas gathered in its system. When the compressors are installed, the huge flare probably will be shut off as the plant can then handle the peak loads without waste, Mills said.

How It Works

Principle employed in the Scurry county natural gasoline plant, dedicated last week at a cost of $8 million, is shown in this chart furnished by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas association. Gas, produced in the process of raising oil to surface, is separated from the oil, then relieved of certain components including natural gasoline, butane, propane. The residue is sold to gas companies or is returned to the oil formations for repressuring.

WEEK'S REVIEW

Five Areas Share New Discoveries

SAN ANGELO, Tex., Oct. 27.—Possible new pays in three established fields, one in Crane County, another in Howard and the third in Sperry County, topped news in West Texas oil this week along with completion of Pennsylvania discoveries in Mitchell and Midland Counties.

Oil-booming Midland County gained its Pennsylvania completion when Blackwood & Nichol No. 1 E. Hofferkamp finalized for a flowing 24-hour potential of 201.8 barrels of 46 gravity oil. Production was through an acidized section between 11,123-316 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 1,685-1. Location is 1,980 feet south, 650 feet west of west lines of section 19-38-18-T&P, a short distance north of the Ranchland Hill County Club.

The Parks-Pennsylvania field in Midland gained a one mile north extension on the northwest side, American Viking No. 1 C. E. McCaughey first treated perforations between 10,520-500 feet with 1,000 gallons of mud acid after which test kicked off and flowed out the load oil and acid water and then flowed 144 barrels of new oil in 24 hours. Reacidizing the perforations with 2,000 gallons, 1 1/2 test kicked off again and flowed at the rate of nine barrels of new oil hourly over an extended period. Production tests are continuing. Location is C SE SE 44-40-28-H, G. Purcell survey.

Spraberry production will be sought in a new operation two miles southwest of a recently completed 1 1/2-mile southwest extension to the Tex Harvey sector of Midland County. Mid-Continent will drill its No. 1-U TXL 660 feet from north and east lines of the southeast quarter of section 27-38-28-T&P, two miles southwest of the operator's No. 1-T TXL, recent southwest extension to the Tex Harvey pool. Contract is for 7,500 feet.

The Mitchell county Pennsylvania discovery completion is Richardson & Bass No. 1 J. F. McCabe. It finalized for a 24-hour flowing potential of 77.90 barrels of 42.7 gravity oil plus five per cent water. Completion was natural from perforations between 6,045-060 feet in seven-inch casing set at 6,123 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 1,096-1. Location is C NE NE 5-12-H&TC, five miles north of the Jameson Strawn field in northwestern Coke County. Placid & Gallery & Hurt and others No. 1 A. R. Eppenauer, Crane County, project testing the Devonian after having finalized early in January as the opener of the Eppenauer San Andres field, has indicated Devonian discovery production. It recovered 40 feet of slightly oil and gas-cut mud, 80 feet of oil-cut mud estimated 50 per cent oil and 150 feet of free,

McAlister Test Shows Gas On Devonian Run

Greenbrier Oil Company and Mendota Oil Company No. 1 O.H. McAlister, of Big Spring, north-east Midland County wildcat had a slight show of gas in a drillstem test in the Devonian at 11,232-258 feet.

The tool was open one hour. Gas surfaced in 24 minutes. Recovery was 80 feet of gas cut drilling mud. There were no signs of oil or of formation water.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was zero. Shutin bottom hole pressure, after 15 minutes was 2,800 pounds.

Operators are preparing to core deeper.

Top of the Devonian was called at 11,227 feet. Elevation is 2,722 feet.

This prospector had shown some possibilities of producing in the Strawn line of the Pennsylvania in a drillstem test at 10,335-373 feet.

Recovery was 90 feet of heavily oil and gas cut mud and 200 feet of 40.4 gravity oil in the three hours the tool was opened. On that test gas surfaced in 14 minutes.

This development is nine miles east of the city of Midland, two miles southeast of Germania, and five miles northwest of the Germania Spraberry field.

It is 650 feet from north and east lines of section 40, block 37, T-1-S, T&P survey.

Prospect Of Pay In Wolfcamp Seen In Southwestern Scurry

Prospect of a new pay in Scurry County loomed Saturday on the basis of a test in the Wolfcamp in the Sharon Ridge (Canyon) area.

Humble No. 3-B Sorrells, in the southwest part of the county, took a test at 5,410-5,465 with the tool open one hour and 36 minutes.

Gas surfaced in 36 minutes and mud in 88. There was no fluid to top, however. Recovery was 250 feet of gas-cut mud, 1,800 feet of heavily oil and gas cut mud, 3,000 feet of clean oil, and 600 feet of slightly salty water.

The open flowing bottomhole pressure was 1,500-2,400, and the 15 minute shutin pressure was 2,450.

Currently the test is bottomed at 5,468, still in the Wolfcamp, and another drillstem test is being taken. So far as is known, there is no other Wolfcamp production in the county.

Location is 680 from the south, 1,980 from the west lines of section 97-35, H&TC.

In that area, a Canyon producer was completed in the Humble No. 4-B Ainsworth, 1,980 from the south and west lines of section 99-25, H&TC. It made 428.97 barrels of 44.2 gravity oil with gas-oil ratio of 818-1. Top of pay was 6,628, total depth 6,665.

R. E. Smith No. 8 C. O. Thompson, also in the Canyon line, rated 145.10 barrels of 44.2 gravity oil and gas-oil ratio of 790-1. Top of pay was 6,762, total depth 6,787. Location is C SE NE 103-25, H&TC.

Lion Oil No. 5 Thurston, C SE NE 183-97, H&TC, finalized for 14.45 barrels of 31.3 gravity oil from the Clear Fork, topped at 3,107 and bottomed at 3,230. Treatment was with 10,000 gallons of acid.

Shallow locations in the Sharon Ridge pool in southwest Scurry include those by I. Weiner of Big Spring; No. 1 L. J. Sterling, 380 from the north and east lines of east half of southeast quarter section 123-97, H&TC; No. 3 Sterling 990 from north and 390 from west lines of east half of southeast quarter section 123-97, H&TC; No. 3 Sterling, 990 from south and 880 from west lines of east half of southeast quarter section 123-97, H&TC; No. 4 Sterling, 390 from south and west lines east half of southeast quarter section 123-25, H&TC. All will go to 2,500 with cable tools.

SPRABERRY TREND

Rotary Activity Shifts To Midland And Reagan

Increased activity in the Spraberry Trend areas of Upton, Midland and Reagan Counties pushed there were 708 projects being drilled with rotary equipment. The area east New Mexico to a new record October 15.

According to the Reed Roller Oil Company's semi-monthly survey there were 708 projects being drilled with rotary equipment. The area covered by the survey includes all counties south of Amarillo, west of Sweetwater, north of the Rio Grande River and east of the west line of Chavez County.

Although the new record 708 exceeds the number of active rigs during the Scurry Canyon reef boom by 134, no one county has reached the proportions of the activity in Scurry County. That area had 215 rigs running October 15, 1950.

At the present time, Upton County leads all others covered by the survey with 126 explorations. That is a record for the area since Spraberry activity started booming.

Scurry now has only 33 rigs going.

After the reef boom, drilling activity dropped off to 502 on January 1, 1951. Activity since that time has increased steadily as new Spraberry fields were opened.

Upton County enjoyed the biggest increase in number of rigs during the fifteen day period ended October 25, with 27 more rigs running.

Midland County jumped from 68 to 76 and Reagan County climbed from 19 to 27.

Midland County's 76 operations October 15 made it the most active drilling area at that time—beating second place Lea County, where 90 rigs were going, October 1 there were 85 rotaries in that county.

The overall increase for the past two weeks, when 678 rigs were running, was 30.

Other counties included in the Reed survey, with October 15 figures listed first and October 15 figures listed second, were: Andrews,

Good Pool Has Producer

Another producer has been added to the Good pool in southwest Borden county.

Texas Co. No. 4, A. M. Clayton, 2,118 from north and 1,700 from west lines section 31-32-4n, T&P, flowed 17 hours through 24-64 chokes after washing with 300 gallons acid.

It rated a potential of 1,050 barrels of 43.7 gravity oil and no water per day. Casing pressure was 500-140, tubing pressure 820-660, and gas-oil ratio 870-1. Top of pay was 8,177, total depth 8,202, and the plugged back total depth 8,189. Operator set the 5/8-in. oil string at 8,200 and perforated from 8,180-8,194.

Abandoned Deep Well To Retest

Warren Oil No. 1 Jesse B. Green, an abandoned Ellenburger failure in Scurry county, will be retested for possible Pennsylvania production.

The well was abandoned in November of 1949 at 1,177 by L. M. Glasco, Fred Chambers and Zornes along with Oton Drilling Company as their No. 1 Green.

Warren will drill out and test the section from 7,000-7,730 in the lower Pennsylvania. His geologists say that the section has possibilities of production and that it is below the Strawn.

Texas Production Shows Daily Gain

AUSTIN, Oct. 27. (UP)—Texas calendar day allowable oil production jumped 14,354 barrels daily this week.

The total today was 3,128,700 compared with 3,114,355 barrels daily on Oct. 20, the Railroad Commission reported.

Oil well completions for the week totaled 221; there were five gas wells and 154 dry holes. Seven wildcats were brought in and 61 turned out to be dry holes.

Completions for the year so far total 9,699 compared with 8,798 in the same period last year.

Sharon Ridge Upper Pay Adds Producer

Shallow production in the Sharon Ridge pool on the Mitchell county side has been increased by another well.

William Burlington III Trust No. 8 J. L. Strain, 476 from north and 530 from west lines of lease in section 2-G-T, William survey, pumped 24 hours after 5,000 gallons of acid. It made 53.54 barrels of oil and no water. Gas-oil ratio was 100-1, gravity 28. Top of pay was 1,551, total depth 1,605 and 5/4-in. string at 1,548.

OLD SPINDLETOP

Story Of Well That Grew To Industry Is Related

BEAUMONT, Oct. 26. (UP)—How Texans celebrated the 50th anniversary of their most important oil well has been set down for history in a trim little book entitled "Spindletop—Where Oil Became an Industry."

The 201-page book comprises the official proceedings of the Spindletop 50th Anniversary Commission. With their historic photographs and a lively introduction by John W. Newton, commission chairman, these are among the most interesting official proceedings ever published.

"The beginning of a new era in civilization" came at 10:09 a.m. on January 10, 1901. At that moment a well drilled on the low, flat mound called Spindletop blew a column of oil 200 feet into the air.

For nine days the well went wild. It flowed at the rate of 100,000 barrels a day, about 18 times the volume of any previous well in world history. A lake of oil formed—about 800,000 barrels covering 100 acres. The lake caught fire and burned up but not until the well had been capped.

Capt. Anthony F. Lucas, who drilled Spindletop against the advice of leading geologists, galloped up on a horse minutes after the well blew in. His dreams had borne greater fruit than he expected.

The Spindletop story, has been told and re-told, but this slender, cloth-bound volume, goes beyond that. It tells how the Lucas gusher led to the growth of an oil and chemical empire on the Gulf Coast. A new way of life—automobiles, propellers and then jet planes, fast ships—depended on oil. Without oil the free world could not have won two world wars nor could it face a third with much confidence. And most of that oil came from the Southwest area in which Capt. Lucas was the outstanding pioneer.

All this is told in the words of those men who guide the industrial giants of modern America—Dayvid Rockefeller, Charles E. Wilson, E. DeGolyer, John G. Pew, Glenn H. McCarthy, Walter S. Carpenter. These leaders of the nation's business world came to Beaumont early in January to take part in the historic 50th anniversary celebration, and texts of their speeches are in the book.

"Spindletop—Where Oil Became an Industry" also gives an insight into the immense amount of work and money involved in a big celebration. Innumerable committees worked to provide decorations, supervise slogan contests, line up speakers, etc. A high-priced professional public relations firm in Houston was retained to "coordinate and direct the numerous activities."

Newton, the Magnolia executive who headed the anniversary commission, tells in his introduction why the industry extended itself on this occasion.

"All in all, Spindletop is symbolic of the rise and growth of American industry. It is the typical American story. It is the story of democracy and the unlimited opportunities to be found when men of vision and courage are permitted to work in an atmosphere of free competitive enterprise."

"Therefore, it was felt that the 50th anniversary of Spindletop in 1951 was worthy of more than passing recognition."

Eyes Of Oil Trade Remain On Congress

By CHARLES HASLET

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27. (UP)—The oil industry will be watching Congress, after the lawmakers return in January, to see what comes of the controversy over off-shore leases and other matters affecting it.

The House-passed bill giving states control over oil-rich tideland areas still is pending in the Senate Interior Committee.

The committee held a special session on the tidelands question the day before Congress adjourned. Action was postponed until next year.

If Congress should undertake another tax bill, it is likely the Treasury again would urge cutting the 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance to 15 per cent. Such a proposal was rejected this year.

Most oil company representatives here do not expect action on any new general tax measure next session.

The Senate Interior Committee under Chairman O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) is expected to resume its study of a national fuel policy. Industry spokesmen were heard this year. Government agencies interested in fuel are to be heard next.

A Senate resolution authorizing this study expires January 31 but an extension probably will be asked.

On the House side, the Commerce Committee likely will be concerned with synthetic fuel projects. It held hearings last session.

A group of House Commerce Committee members who will visit South American and Central American countries in November to study supplies of newsprint, sulphur and other materials, also will look into the progress of oil operations in Mexico, Brazil, Peru and Chile.

The group wants to determine if it can, whether anything is holding back oil development in the areas visited.

The gas industry advisory committee, in its quarterly meeting, Nov. 1, discusses proposed conversion of the Big and Little Inch Pipelines from gas to oil transportation in event of all-out war.

One question is whether gas markets now served by these lines could be supplied by other means.

It has been suggested that if the steel could be obtained, another pipeline be built on the Big Inch right-of-way in event of an emergency. The idea is that present oil pumping stations along the line, which have been kept in standby condition, could be used on a new line.

Glasscock Adds Spraberry Well

Amerada No. 1-H-35 TXL, 660 from north and east lines section 35-37-4n, J. P. completed in the Driver Spraberry area of southwestern Glasscock county.

It hydraulically fractured and flowed 19 hours through 32-64th and made 593 barrels of 36.7 gravity oil. Tubing pressure was 180, gas-oil ratio 529-1; top pay 6,996, total depth 7,100 and the 6 1/4-in. string at 6,950.

In the Midland side of the Tex Harvey pool, Forest Oil Corp No. 3-E TXL was staked. It will be 665 feet from south and 660 from east lines northeast quarter section 27-37-3n, T&P; rotary 8,000.

Clark-San Andres Well Completes

York & Harper, Inc., & J. P. Gibbins No. 24 L.C. Clark completed in the Clark-San Andres pool of southeast Sterling county.

The test, located 350 from the east and 3,553 from north lines of lease in section 6-A, R.R. Wade, pumped 24 hours after 500 gallons acid. It made 36 barrels oil and no water. Gas-oil ratio was less than 10-1, and gravity was 31. Top of pay was 1,020, total depth 1,048 and 7-in. at 1,020.

Oxford Thrives On A Critical Spirit

By RONNIE DUGGER

OXFORD, England, Oct. 27. — An ancient timepiece on the wall says it is high noon. One hundred students, all wearing black gowns, sit in the large room, some staring out of its ornamental, geometrical windows, others resting their heads back against their chairs and staring at the high ceiling. We are all waiting for the professor.

In the group, only five are girls. Four of these are like many Oxford girls—striving, unkempt, hair-punch-like overcoats, the stare of unproductive intellectualism. The fifth seems anxious for the don to arrive. Her hair is swept past her temples, falling to her shoulders, and her eyes seem to be asking questions.

Ten minutes late, Mr. Ryle enters, wearing an academic cap, a long flowing robe, and a baggy brown suit beneath it. He has a great mole on his cheek. He takes his place at the rostrum and looks menacingly at the crowd.

"I don't want anybody to write down what I say," he begins. "I will give you almost no facts at all. If you must take notes, record what I don't say—that is, what occurs to you; or else record that part of what I say which seems to be wrong. If I see anyone writing down everything I say, I shall send him out of the room for inattention. If you lose interest in what I say, stop coming."

"The question to be argued in this class is whether you, as a person, are free, or whether what you say, think, and do are all determined by things over which you have no control."

"We won't settle anything here. We'll criticize everything. The thing you've got to do is decide for yourself."

Then he outlined the three groups of ideas which challenge man's free will—fatalism, the idea that "what was" to be, and what "will be," what is called "religious determinism," the view that God creates, controls, plans and foreknows everything that happens in the universe, including all of man's actions; and scientific determinism, the idea that man, in nature, is subject to its laws—that he is not free from causes which form him. The opposite argument is that man is free. Mr. Ryle began to discuss the arguments of each position.

"The thing you've got to do is to decide for yourself," Oxford thrives on the critical spirit. Every idea is here, from right to left, from orthodox to unorthodox. The faith of democracy is that in the competition of ideas in the "mental marketplace," as it were, the best ones will prevail.

"Take for instance the clubs at Oxford. I have already been approached by 22 of them. I have joined four: The Conservative Association, the Labour Club, the Liberal Club, and the Oxford Union Debating Society—the world-famous forum for student ideas, where Winston Churchill, Gladstone, and Lloyd George earned their wings. By listening at the meeting of the first three clubs, and arguing at the meetings of the fourth, I hope to learn."

All of Oxford's clubs—they number in the many hundreds—aren't serious. There is, for instance, the Bath Club, a select society for male members of Oxford who have "bathed within a women's college."

Members' names are secret. Then there is the "Trousers Group," which studies the social convenience or inconvenience of trousers (that is, pants). Its patron saint is St. Pantaleon. The "Old Males' Club" was founded with the avowed purpose of lowering the intellectual level of the University.

Women only can be elected. Students of many political views can find their roost. It is interesting that Oxford has not interfered with the Communist Party (Student Branch), which has about 80 members, compared to 1,400 in the Conservative Association and 1,000 in the Labour Club. Oxford religiously respects a man's thinking. If you want to be a Communist, you can be a Communist. There is no rule against it. While this may seem strange to realists who see the Communist movement subverting the free world, it is a necessary consequence of Oxford's belief that every idea, however unpopular, must have a hearing.

The ancient custom among students of "solving the world's problems" gets official recognition. The Socratic Club organizes "the welter of discussion which goes on in Oxford about ultimate questions concerning the meaning of 'existence,'" following the argument "wherever it leads them." There are many Christian groups, a group for the study of Religions, a Cosmos Club to study international affairs, and many philosophical societies.

There is even a Heretics Club which "promotes free thinking in the widest sense of the term," providing a soap box for views that "challenge social, political, and religious orthodoxy." I'm sure many American Congressmen, in fact, would call this place a hotbed of heresy. But Oxford believes with James Russell Lowell: "And I honor the man who is willing to sink Half his present repute for the freedom to think. And, when he has thought, be his cause strong or weak. Will risk t'other half for the freedom to speak."

Service Awards

R. C. Reynolds, (left), Brady, district manager for Western Union, presented pins to three veteran WU employees here Friday. Standing next to him is Mrs. Jewel Tippie, who got her 25-year pin along with Grady Downing, local manager, right. M. F. Stevens, who began with WU 41 years ago, got his 40-year-pin.

Western Union Staffers Get Service Awards At Ceremony

Service pins, representing nearly a century of combined work, were presented here Friday to three Western Union staff members.

They were Grady Downing, manager, Jewel Tippie, and M. F. Stevens. The presentation was made by R. C. Reynolds, Brady, district manager.

Stevens, who had the longest record of service, got his 40-year pin. He started in with Western Union 41 years ago at Fort Valley, Ga. on Sept. 1, 1910. He was a fledgling Morse operator then. A couple of years later he had mastered use of the "bug" and could send with the best of them. So he got an assignment in Atlanta. In 1917 he came to Texas and worked at the Alpine office. Later he had service at El Paso and Fort Stockton before coming to the Big Spring office in 1941.

Downing also came up as a Morse operator. But about the time he mastered the trade, the great transition set in and instead of sending with the key or bug, he was busy maintaining the new fangled printers. He started out in Durant, Okla., and then had assignments, at Mangum, Okmulgee, Oklahoma City, and Ponca City before coming to Big Spring in charge of the office in 1941.

Mrs. Tippie, known to most Western Union patrons simply as Jewel, began her career in Midland in 1926. She flitted about from office to office in the next half dozen years, serving three different trunks at Midland, and also working at Ballinger, Tyler and Corpus Christi. But when she came here in 1932, her moving days were over. "Jewel" has been on the job right here ever since.

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING

Muny Airport Traffic Picks Up Considerably During Week

Starting from what was probably an all-time low, traffic at Municipal Airport increased sharply during the week.

Barney Edens, airport service manager, said business was "good as we could stand" by the latter part of the week.

Both civilian and Navy business picked up Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Edens said. Most of the Naval traffic consisted of planes being ferried across-country. Two P-51's, Hellcat night fighters, remained overnight Thursday, after one of the craft, a P-51, was damaged on a landing. A Navy RAD (DC3) brought repair parts from Dallas Friday, and Marine Corps P-51's rebuilt the wheel.

Also landing Friday were two

Central Airlines DC3's loaded with North Texas State College football players. The Eagle gliders were enroute to Stockton, Calif., for their Saturday game with College of Pacific.

A complete engine overhaul was performed on J. D. C. reb's Cessna 140 during the week by J. R. Smith. The mechanic also completed an annual inspection on Charlie Holderbaum's Piper Vagabond. Owners of both planes are CAA airport engineers who were "grounded" for the better part of the week by maintenance.

Holderbaum returned by air from Fort Worth Thursday with C. E. McMurray, also CAA engineer.

McMurray piloted his Piper Crusier on an airport inspection tour of the Central West Texas area Thursday. He drove to Meriton Friday for an inspection of ranch strips, and accompanied Holderbaum to Snyder for a project inspection Wednesday.

Holderbaum also visited a field at Crowell during the week. Church and C. L. Burr were in Stanton Friday for talks with chamber of commerce officials concerning possibility of a Martin county airport.

Hollis Liles, instrument student at Hamilton field, made a charter flight to Corpus Christi Monday and Tuesday.

Flying Cecil Hamilton's Cessna 140, Liles made the down trip Monday night and returned to Big Spring Tuesday night. The airman got an opportunity to apply his instrument training on the flight.

Warfarin Available From Health Unit

Warfarin, a "safe and effective rodenticide" is now available at the Big Spring-Howard County Health Unit, Life Fox, sanitarium, announced Saturday.

The rodent-killer may be secured at cost, the sanitarium said. Instructions for its use will be given with distribution of the substance.

The warfarin is one of the safest rat-killers available, according to Fox. It is not a poison, but kills rats and mice by breaking down their circulatory systems. Domestic animals seldom eat the substance, and even if they do a single dose is not fatal.

Training Programs Approved At Meet At DO Council

Training programs were approved at the first meeting of the Diversified Occupations advisory committee meeting Thursday at the high school.

Board members checked the plans submitted by J. B. Neely, co-ordinator. Schedule of work for the year was outlined and committee members inspected the D-O library. J. L. Claxton, Vocational Industrial club president, reported on the activities of the industrial student's organization, and Beverly Friend, secretary, gave a report on student earnings.

Board members participating were L. C. Pettus, H. B. Stansland, Al Dillon, and Roy Worley.

Hi-Y Clubs To Pick Meeting Delegates

Delegates to the district meeting of the Youth in Government program will be named Monday by the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs here.

Approximately 20 will be named by the boys and girls clubs to attend the Northwest Texas party in Lubbock on Saturday. Dr. Sterling H. Fuller, in charge of the department of government, Texas Tech, will be advisor, and B. H. Behrens, Abilene, district president, will preside.

The Lubbock session is a training one for the state-wide meeting in Austin on Dec. 14-16. The Big Spring clubs are responsible for drafting of two bills, one on education and one on conservation.

New Infection Is Listed This Week

A new infection made the communicable diseases report of the Big Spring-Howard County Health Unit Saturday.

It was infectious gastro-enteritis. Local physicians, diagnosed 114 cases of the disease here last week, the health unit said.

Influenza continued to be the most prevalent infection with 25 cases reported. Four cases of pneumonia were also diagnosed during the week.

making practically all of the trip after darkness.

Steve Baker and Ben Jernigan, Texas Electric Service company workers, and Cecil Hamilton, high-line patrolman, turned a day's work into an afternoon outing last weekend.

The trio air-patrolled TESCO's power lines from Big Spring to within 60 miles of Fort Worth, then hopped over to Cowtown to view the Texas A&M-TCU football game last Saturday. They returned to Big Spring Saturday night.

Wally Burrus, CAA control tower operator, is a new flight student at Hamilton field. Burrus has started work on an instrument course.

EVERY time we publish the price of a Buick, it seems to surprise a lot of people, because they come in and tell us so.

They just can't believe that so little money buys such a lot of car—but it's true.

And that brings us to the second surprise—which is how much power and performance—how much comfort and room—what a long list of standout engineering features you get for the price.

Take power. You'll find that no other car at the price of the Buick SPECIAL pictured here delivers the horsepower you get from its high-compression, valve-in-head Fireball Engine.

Take comfort. The best thing to do is try the depth of its seats—their width—and the headroom you get in this Buick SPECIAL, and judge for yourself.

Take the ride. This Buick has big soft coil springs on every wheel, plus the solid firmness of a torque-tube keel—and the way this combination smoothes the bumps is something that's hard to match in cars costing a thousand dollars more.

Take the way it steers. Buick engineers have given this light-handling beauty a special "front-end geometry" that almost does the steering for you—even brings the front wheels back to a straight line when you come out of a turn.

And you can add to all this Dynaflo Drive*—that puts magic smoothness into every mile you drive—and practically repays its extra cost by the way it protects the whole driving mechanism, and by the dollars it adds to trade-in value.

So if you have been hoping, some day, to own a Buick—what's holding you back? If you can afford any new car—better see us now.

England A Divided Land, Governed By Minority

By RELMAN MORIN
LONDON, Oct. 27. (AP)—A brooding sense of dissatisfaction, streaked with pessimism about the future, settled over Britain today in the aftermath of the general election.

Winston Churchill, again Prime Minister, announced his cabinet this afternoon. There were no surprises in his choice of ministers. Most of them are experienced men with proven qualifications for government. And there is a great magic in the very name "Churchill" for all classes of Britons.

But this government confronts the same two towering problems that faced the defeated Socialist Laborite — economic anemia and some badly deteriorated relations with other countries.

Many persons wonder whether the new Conservative regime will be better equipped to handle them.

The essential fact about Britain today is this: It is a divided country governed by a minority party. More men and women voted Labor than Conservative.

This political incongruity may be redressed when the final totals of the popular vote are compiled. (Three remote districts have not yet reported.) Even so, the government will not have received an overall majority. It was the pattern of districts, won and lost, that returned the Tories to power.

The Tories captured 21 districts — each representing a seat in the House of Commons — from the Socialists.

Except for the four in East Anglia, a majority of these were industrial areas, coal mining in Scotland, cotton milling in Lancashire and so on. That was good news for the Conservatives, since Labor policies naturally had favored the laboring population.

But most of the industrial districts stood solidly with the Socialists. It seems obvious that the great majority of British workmen would still prefer a Labor government.

During the campaigning, Socialists dropped a few hints that a Conservative victory might be a signal for strikes and widespread industrial unrest. It was phrased less bluntly — that a Tory government could not expect the same "loyalty" from the workers — but the meaning was no less clear.

Today, Churchill has a majority of 27 over Labor in the House of Commons, and an overall majority of 18. Many close observers suspect that this is not a workable majority. The Tories do not have the same tight discipline that Labor had. Many of the new MPs are business and professional men with commitments outside the Commons.

So there already is talk of harassment by the Socialist opposition, long sessions, a political war of attrition.

In political circles in London, it is considered not unlikely that these tactics could result in the necessity for another general election within six months.

A British government is permitted, by law, to remain in office without an election for five years provided it has the confidence of the House and the people. If the present majority does not prove to be workable, Churchill might have to go to the people, as Clement Attlee did, hoping for a vote of confidence from the electorate as a whole.

Hence, you already hear some dissatisfaction over the relatively inconclusive result of the election. A Conservative official told this reporter today:

"They're already talking about another election. The least that could have been expected was a period of more or less peace and quiet. It doesn't appear that we shall have it."

Because of the slim majority, there are rumors that Churchill might try two maneuvers to strengthen his position.

One is restoration of the University seats in Commons. They probably would be filled mainly by Conservatives. In the past, these seats numbered 12. They were filled by the votes of University staffs and graduates and were over and above the regular constituency seats. They were abolished by the Labor government.

The other possibility is that the prime minister might bid the support of the six Liberal members of the House. He has not, however, taken any Liberals into his cabinet.

Still, if the analysis of the election is accurate, it appears that most of the Liberals, about two-thirds voted Conservative in the districts where they had no candidates of their own. So it is considered possible that the Tories can frequently, if not always, count on the Liberal MPs for support.

Few persons expect that Churchill will start, immediately, to undo the "British Revolution." It has created some political untouchables and the experts believe he will move slowly and cautiously into the vast areas of British life that were changed by the Socialists.

Churchill hinted as much, himself, when he said early Friday "now perhaps there may be a lull in our party strife which will enable us to understand more what is good in our opponents and not be so very clever finding all their shortcomings."

So, he may preserve a measure of the political peace that so many Britons want so much. But sooner or later, to fulfill the purposes of having been elected, the new prime minister will begin to re-draw the pattern made by the Socialists.

The people look to that time with a feeling of foreboding. They expect explosions in and out of the House of Commons.

How will this affect Britain's two greatest problems?

In terms of foreign relations, probably not very much.

One of the assets that probably worked strongly for Churchill during the election was the knowledge of his great popularity in the United States. The British are aware that their relationships, at the top levels in Washington, have deteriorated. They hope and expect that "Winnie" can restore the old liaisons, and nobody will be surprised if one of his first acts is to fly to Washington.

The cloud of anxiety that hung over the campaigning — the fear of war as a result of a strong Churchillian line of policy — still exists today. But if threats do develop in the Middle East, or elsewhere, the immense patriotism of the British people, and their ability to close ranks in the face of an enemy, will quickly become manifest.

The other major problem — a developing economic crisis — is considered more dangerous by reason of the deep political cleavage in the country today.

Britain's dollar reserves dropped by $638 million during the third quarter of 1951. The deficit represented about 17 per cent of the total. These dollar reserves are the backing for the sterling area in its trade with hard currency nations.

This is the core of the economic problem.

Many British businessmen believe that the drain can be offset — easily, they say — by increases in production. Some say total production could be stepped up 20 per cent. They scoff at the Socialist assertion that British industry was working to capacity.

The stimulant, they said, is to remove the tax on over-time work and attempt to persuade the Labor unions to lengthen the periods of overtime permitted by union regulations. In other words, "to furnish incentive to the workmen to work."

At the same time, a re-writing of the taxes on investments and corporation earnings is considered certain. The British hope this will result in attracting millions of dollars from American investors.

In his electioneering, Churchill promised no quick cures. In fact, he almost repeated his wartime "blood - tears - toil - and sweat" forecast on the economic battle.

He had the complete backing of the whole British nation in the war. He does not have it today.

Fleeced Doctor Is Found Dead In Lonely Woods

NAHANT, Mass., Oct. 27. (AP)—A 51-year-old heart specialist — whose stolen $20,000 cash financed an extravagant Manhattan spree last week by three teen-age baby sitters — was found dead by three hunters today in a lonely woods.

The finding of Dr. Albert H. Covner, spraddling on the trees at North Reading, some 15 miles from his Nahant home, gave a grim twist to the fantastic tale told by the teen-agers after their arrest in New York.

State police said death had been violent and that Dr. Thomas P. Devlin, medical examiner, was "looking into the possibility of poisoning." Dr. Devlin said a small bottle of nitro-glycerine heart stimulant was found near the body.

The medical examiner withheld his verdict until after an autopsy.

Dr. Covner, who held a staff appointment at Lynn Hospital, disappeared Friday noon. At the time his body was found, police throughout New England and New York State were searching for him as a missing person.

His purse-receptionist, Phyllis Ble of Lynn, said the doctor was in "a highly emotional state" when he paid her a week's advance wages Friday, announced that he was closing his office, and explained he was going to be "unavailable for awhile." Miss Ble assumed he intended to take a proposed Florida vacation.

He had also told Lynn Hospital authorities not to count on him for contributions for a while.

The doctor, who leaves his widow, Ruth, and a three-year-old son, Richard, gained prominence 10 days ago when he came home at midnight to find his home ransacked and $20,000 missing from a bedroom strong box.

Fifteen-year-old Roberta McCauley, the baby-sitter — was missing. Two days later, the McCauley girl and two teenage friends, Eileen Jeffreys, 17, and Marilyn Curry, 16, both of Lynn, were arrested in New York. They admitted to detectives they had taken the money.

When arrested, they had $40 left among them. New York "sharpies" they met had fleeced them of $12,000 left for safe-keeping in a locker at Grand Central terminal, they said. The rest had gone for a splurge.

Plan Major Effort In Iranian Dispute

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, Oct. 27. (AP)—The United States is planning a major effort next week to produce a settlement in the British-Iranian oil crisis.

Prime Minister Winston Churchill's new Conservative government may be asked to send a high level British team here to undertake formal negotiations with Iranian Premier Mohammed Mossadegh.

Kazem Hagsbi, Mossadegh's chief technical expert on nationalization of the huge Anglo-Iranian Oil Company's holdings, including the great refinery at Abadan, arrived in the United States today on special summons from the premier.

Hagsbi said on his arrival at New York "my presence here is some indication that there might be a chance for a settlement."

Meanwhile it was understood that American officials are prepared to tell Britain's Foreign Minister Anthony Eden that in their view the only settlement possible is one which provides for a complete end of Britain's organized oil operations in Iran and a final liquidation of the old Anglo-Iranian Oil Company's holdings.

With a settlement based on such unconditional fulfillment of Iran's nationalization laws of last spring, the formula for agreement most generally talked about here now would provide also:

1. British marketing of Iranian oil which would be purchased at an agreed wholesale rate and sold in consumer areas — Western Europe, India and Pakistan mainly — at prices sufficient to assure Britain of a reasonable profit.
2. Compensation for British properties which have in fact already been seized by Iranians.
3. An arrangement to assure the success of Iranian production, probably providing for a "neutral" manager under Iranian government control with an international staff made up of Dutch, American and other technicians, as well as British.

The British have been deeply concerned with the production arrangement since otherwise there would be no oil to market. These arrangements might be worked out between Iran and the United States rather than in the formal negotiations with Britain, because of the Iranian government's distrust of the British and its desire to avoid any evidence of a carryover of British influence in Iranian oil management.

Mossadegh, resting at Walter Reed Hospital here, conferred with President Truman and other high officials including Secretary of State Acheson immediately after his arrival in Washington Tuesday. He had been expected to leave today but is staying over during next week.

Mossadegh's conferences with American officials developed intensively through Wednesday, then dropped off. The explanation advanced for this today was that much of the detailed work by the Iranians must go into the planning necessary for final decisions on the settlement formulas being discussed.

Meanwhile the British were being kept informed.

TAX ASSESSORS GOING TO DOGS

DENVER, Oct. 27. (AP)—A move to slap a new state tax of $1 a year on every dog in Colorado is being treated gingerly in official circles.

Money collected from the tax would be paid to farmers and ranchers who claim man's best friends has caused damage at their places.

The damage? Chasing and killing poultry and running the fat off sheep and sometimes even cattle.

The tax would be in addition to locally levied dog taxes.

Everything Set For Resumption Of Atom Tests

By BILL BRCKER
LAS VEGAS, Nev., Oct. 27. (AP)—There appeared a good chance tonight that Las Vegas residents might be routed out of bed early Sunday by an atomic display over Yucca Flat.

Brisk north winds cleared the Atomic Energy Commission test site of all clouds.

Otherwise, everything seemed to be in readiness for resumption of the AEC test series.

It was presumed that planes of the Air Force Strategic Weapons Command were standing by at Kirtland Air Base, Albuquerque, N. M., awaiting the signal to drop one or more atomic missiles on the test range. The Kirtland Field bombers were forced to turn back Friday morning by foul weather.

Three silver B-29's also were readied at Indian Springs Air Base near here for possible participation in the forthcoming experiment.

The AEC will not confirm the timing of the next test. If it is to be held, notice will go out to the Civil Aeronautics Administration after midnight.

Kashmir's Rural Folks In Favor Of Sheikh Sahib

SPRINAGAR, Kashmir, Oct. 27. (AP)—Ask any rural citizen of Kashmir whether he favors accession to India or Pakistan and he likely will answer "I favor Sheikh Sahib."

Muslims have a three to one majority in Kashmir, but if a plebiscite were taken today it appears from a survey of rural opinion that Premier Sheikh Abdullah and his pro-Indian government would win.

Sheikh Abdullah is variously described as a dominating, ruthless politician and benevolent national leader. Whichever he is, he has the Kashmiri country folk solidly behind him.

Two main factors appear responsible.

One is the land reform program by which Abdullah's government has taken great estates from the rich, mostly Hindus, and given land to the people who work the soil, mostly Muslims.

The other is his program of debt conciliation, in which traveling courts hear appeals for adjustment of debts, particularly those owed to Kashmir's money lenders. Each time a debt is sealed down another friend — and another vote — is made for Abdullah. In Kashmir there are vastly more debtors than lenders.

Sheikh Abdullah was one of the earliest freedom workers in Kashmir. Like Gandhi and Nehru, he was frequently jailed. For more than 25 of his 46 years this towering Kashmiri leader has worked for the people.

Encircled Town Favors West; Snubs Soviet

By THOMAS A. REEDY
BERLIN, Oct. 27. (AP)—Steinstuecken set up a one-man government today for its fifty families, surrounded by the Russian zone but bent on remaining western.

The little village on the American-Soviet frontier went on a complete "West Berlin economy" with the appointment of Albert Neumann, one of the residents, as governing magistrate.

Neumann was named by the borough of Zehlendorf to rule the disputed territory in the name of West Berlin.

After this action was taken, two of the three West Berlin policemen assigned to the village since Wednesday were withdrawn across the 600-yard strip of Soviet territory between it and West Berlin. The third probably will return Monday.

East German Communist police, whose patrols surround the village, allowed their Western opposites through their lines without objection.

The Russian zone claimed the village 10 days ago, gave it up after Americans protested, and then sent patrols of Russians and German back into it for an hour Wednesday. The resulting confusion stirred both West German and Allied resentment.

During the hour-long foray, Associated Press Reporter Thomas Reiche was arrested. He was held by the Peoples' Police in Potsdam under house arrest until late today when they turned him loose.

Reiche, a West Berlin German, was given back his camera, without the film he had used in Steinstuecken. He said he was fed well, was well quartered and never was charged with any violation.

Since their quick trip into the village last Wednesday, the Russians and the East German police have not set foot in it.

U. S. authorities said the Soviet Control Commission has now apparently received word to let Steinstuecken return to its former West Berlin status. Therefore, they added, they are willing to meet with the Russians to discuss the legal claim to it, if the Soviets ask such a conference.

Direct Commissions Offered By Army

AUSTIN, Oct. 26.—The Army will give direct commissions up to the grade of captain in the Organized Reserve, with concurrent orders to active duty to men and women with qualifying technical and professional backgrounds, Col. C. M. Culp, Chief of the Texas Military District, has announced.

Technical and professional personnel are needed in the Chemical Corps, Engineering Corps, Ordnance Corps, Signal Corps, Transportation Corps and the Women's Army Corps. In each of these are listed from three to 11 separate categories in which officer personnel is needed.

Applicants who hold master's degrees from recognized colleges and universities or have bachelor degrees with practical experience and with or without previous military service, are eligible. Applicants must be between the ages of 21 to 36.

A breakdown of the categories in the various branches of the Army, requiring technical and professional personnel:

- Transportation Corps—auto and marine engineering, traffic management, harbor craft and railway service.
- Chemical Corps—Chemical and mechanical engineering, and bacteriology.
- Corps of Engineers—Engineers in automotive, civil, electrical, mechanical, mining, highway and marine; geology, geophysics, and meteorology; purchasing, storage and distribution; mathematics, statisticians and physicists; and geographers.
- Signal Corps—Electrical engineering, including radio and communications; purchasing, storage and distribution; business administration and radar engineering.
- Ordnance Corps—Engineers in automotive; chemical, electrical, mechanical, metallurgical, radar, industrial, and aeronautical; and engineering specialists, including radio and communications; business administration; mathematicians, statisticians and physicists.
- Women's Army Corps—Each grade in teaching, personnel administration, advertising or other fields requiring leadership and supervision of personnel.

Former WAC officers, and female officers of other Armed Forces of the United States may apply for appointment in the WAC section of the Officers' Reserve Corps.

For further information, applicants may contact the local Organized Reserve Corps Instructor, Chief of the Texas Military District, Austin, Texas, or Civilian Components Division, Headquarters Fourth Army, Fort Sam Houston.

Princess Drives The Royal Train

EDMONTON, Alta., Oct. 27. (AP)—Princess Elizabeth, retracing her journey across Canada, today drove the Royal train's 315-ton locomotive for 20 minutes.

The fireman was her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh.

"It was a magnificent experience," the princess said as she stepped from the huge mountain-type engine.

She handled the controls for 14 miles from Yates to Pears, Alta. She got the train off to a smooth start and halted it without a halt.

County commissioners shaved $120,000 off the net interest bill of the courthouse bond issue last week by reducing maturities by six years. This was no trick because valuations had jumped from $25 to $35 million plus. The action meant that the entire million dollar issue went just under 2 1/2 per cent.

Final population figures were announced as 17,366 for Big Spring, a gain of about 50 over preliminary figures. The Howard county total is now fixed at 26,723.

Winnie May Seek Meet With Harry

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, Oct. 27. (AP)—Winston Churchill, returned to power, probably will seek an early meeting with President Truman.

American officials anticipate also that he will press for a conference of Western leaders with Soviet Premier Stalin next year.

Churchill may make slow headway with this cherished project, however, for Mr. Truman has been cold to idea — unless Stalin is willing to come to Washington.

Aside from a renewal of intense personal diplomacy at the highest level little if any early changes in British foreign policy are expected to come from the Conservative victory.

One of the first issues for vital decision by the new British government is the Iranian oil crisis. However, most American officials do not see how any British government can do other than liquidate the Iranian holdings.

Some observers here think the task may be easier for a Conservative than a Labor regime because the Conservatives can accuse their predecessors of having so mishandled the whole affair as to leave them no alternative.

The worst split between the U. S. and Britain during the Labor regime has been over Far Eastern policy Britain recognized Communist China; the U. S. refused to do so.

There is speculation as to whether this situation — but diplomatic experts have believed the development of Britain's policies will depend on future events in the Far East than on any deliberate major policy changes.

Aside from policy questions, one gets the impression that at least some administration leaders believe it may be easier to do business with a group of open less devoted to a doctrinaire concept of government than the Labor leaders in most instances were.

Then too Churchill's personal popularity in this country is great. A government led by him and man of his selection may command somewhat more confidence in the U. S. Congress.

On the other side of the ledger there are two big reservations about Churchill. One is that Mr. Truman, unlike the late President Roosevelt, does not personally manage his foreign policy. He runs it on the advice of his State and Defense Department chiefs.

CRMWD Hearing Against Martin Co. Set Monday

Hearing is set for 9 a.m. Monday in Austin on a restraining order against the Martin County Underground Water Conservation district.

A temporary order was granted on Oct. 19 in district court at Austin in response to a petition filed by the Colorado River Municipal Water district. The CRMWD, on behalf of itself and those from whom it acquired water rights in the Martin county district, asked that the Martin county unit be restrained from enforcing certain regulations.

These were adopted recently and set up requirements for spacing of wells and fixed maximum amount of annual withdrawal at 16 inches of water per acre.

CRMWD officials, including R. T. Piner, president; E. V. Spence, general manager; Joe Pickle, secretary, are due to be in Austin Monday for the hearing. Community cities of the CRMWD may also have observers.

On Thursday, Sir James Robertson, British civil secretary of the territory, announced that a new self-governing constitution would be put in force by the end of next year which would result in the "immediate aspirations" of the Sudanese. A new legislative assembly under the new constitution will be elected in 1952, he said.

Ismail El Azhari, as Higgs Party leader, has declared the resolution adopted today was illegal. Under assembly rules it is not permitted to discuss relations between Egypt and Britain.

Cairo's anti-government weekly, Akhbar El Yom, said Winston Churchill, Britain's new Conservative prime minister, may visit Cairo soon to confer with Egyptian leaders.

The tone of the Egyptian press on the Conservative election victory was a sarcastic "Welcome Churchill."

Tech Rambles Past Arizona

LUBBOCK, Oct. 27. (U.S.) — Texas Tech smashed University of Arizona's Border Conference championship hopes here this afternoon with a 41-0 homecoming football victory.

The Red Raiders, turning in one of their better performances, scored twice in the first period, added two more tallies in the second and chalked up another pair in the final quarter.

Quarterback Junior Arterburn was the genius in Tech's first shut-out victory of the season. The Little Ranger senior scored three of the first four touchdowns on runs of 37 yards, one yard and 49 yards.

Arterburn, operating behind a line that was badly outweighted, rolled to a net of 128 yards rushing. He completed six of nine passes for 139 yards, making a total of 267 yards for which he personally was responsible.

Spartans Rise Up To Batter Pitt

EAST LANSING, Mich., Oct. 27. (U.S.) — Michigan State's flashy runners provided the comeback push and finally subdued pass-happy Pittsburgh, 53 to 26, in a homecoming football game.

Michigan State, No. 2 team in the nation trailed 20-19 at the half but ran wild for three touchdowns in the third quarter. It was the fourth successive Saturday that the Spartans have had to come from behind to win from inspired opposition.

The uncanny passing of Pitt Quarterback Bob Bestwick made it look for awhile as if the Spartans might finally be in for an upset.

Michigan State took a 13 to 0 first quarter lead. Then Bestwick started hitting his ends with long ones. His 16 completions in 21 tries for 235 yards in the first half accounted for three Pitt touchdowns.

Cadets In Front

WEST POINT, Oct. 27. (U.S.) — Army's football team pulled itself together for one gallant effort today to topple favored Columbia, 14-0, for its first victory. Time ran out with Columbia inches away from a second touchdown.

25 TO 14

Rotan Triumphs Over Wolfpack

COLORADO CITY, Oct. 27. (U.S.) — The Rotan Yellowhammers tacked a wolflike on the threshold of the 5-AA cellar Friday night, defeating the Wolves of Colorado City 25-14.

The game was marked by spitting rain, spotty passing and frequent penalties. A brief shower wet fans and the field about 20 minutes prior to game time and rain fell scattering during the game.

Wolf passers connected with 6 tosses for 208 yards with 17 incomplete—most of them dropped by nervous receivers. The Yellowhammers made only two good for Wolf passers Berman Corbell, George Swann and Don Williams threatened until the final whistle but were rendered impotent by failure of receivers to hang on to the ball.

Rough play cropped up in spots during the game and officials used a busy whistle. Colorado City was penalized 5 times, the Yellowhammers 10 times and as many were waved off with both teams offending.

The first Yellowhammer score was set up by Berman Corbell, Wolf quarterback, fumbling. Rotan recovering on the 30. A pass from Mickey Martin to Eldon Dowell was good to the two and Cecil Weems made the TD. This put the Yellowhammers ahead 6-0, but not for long as Douglas Gilbert gathered in a 20-yarder from Corbell and sped for 30 more to knot the score. Corbell kicked the point and the Wolves led 7-6 as the quarter ended.

In the second quarter, a Corbell fumble was covered by Jimmy Counts for the birdmen on the Wolf 30 and after a series of line plays with Loyd Cross doing the damage, the ball went to the 2 and Martin scored. Halftime score Rotan 12, Colorado City, 7.

The stage was set for another TD by the Hammers, as Counts covered a fumble by Corbell on the 12. The Rotan squad carried to the 2 1/2-yard line, but failed to score. After the kickoff to the 42, the birdmen reached the 37 in three plays and gave the ball to Jimmy

Maxwell Faces Ohio Strongboy

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27. (U.S.) — Veteran Frank Stranahan and U. S. Amateur Champion Billy Maxwell won their way today to the finals of the Mexican Amateur Golf Tournament.

Stranahan, of Toledo, defeated Dick Perk of Indianapolis, 7 and 6, in the 18-hole quarter finals over the 6,615-yard Mexico City Country Club course this morning. He then disposed of defending champion Joe Conrad of San Antonio, 3 and 2, in the afternoon semi-finals.

Maxwell, of Odessa, eliminated Buster Reed of Denton, 7 and 5, in the morning, but had harder going to beat Dale Morey of Dallas, one-up, over the afternoon.

Conrad defeated Norman Lewis of Houston, one-up, in the morning while Morey eliminated young Gabriel Belmont, leading Mexican amateur, 7 and 5.

Stranahan and Maxwell play the 36-hole finals Sunday.

Cowhands Defeat West Texas, 27-6

CANYON, Oct. 27. (U.S.) — The Hard-Simmons Cowboys today struck for touchdowns in each quarter to trim West Texas, State, 27-6, in a Border Conference football game.

Gaining revenge for two straight licks at the hands of West Texas, the Cowboys moved into a tie with Texas Tech for the conference lead.

Each has won two and lost none in conference play.

The lone West Texas tally came in the third period after the Cowboys had a comfortable 20-0 margin.

Valley Decisions Miles, 52 To 22

MILES, Oct. 27. (U.S.) — Water Valley strapped Miles, 52-22, in a six-man football game played here Friday night.

The Cats picked up one touchdown in the first period, two in the second, two in the third and three in the fourth.

Eugene Alexander scored five touchdowns for Water Valley while Henry Pope went over for the other three.

Hermleigh Wins 13-6 Verdict Over Leaders

HERMLEIGH, Oct. 27. — Robert Lee lost his first District 5-B football game here Friday night when the proud Hermleigh Cardinals took them to the tune of a 13-6 score.

Most of the first half of the game was played in the rain.

The Steers counted first, with Norman Roberts crashing through the line from inside the one yard line in the first period.

In the second, Dickie Wall led a drive that paid off for Hermleigh. Wall himself went over on an off-tackle thrust. The half ended, 6-6.

Wall again made it to pay dirt in the third on a 50-yard sprint. Jimmy Cooper added the point on a pass from Floyd Hacker.

The Hermleigh team was on Robert Lee's ten-yard stripe when the contest ended.

Auburn Crushes Tulane, 21-0

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 27. (U.S.) — Auburn tucked its senior quarterback, Allan Parks, behind a fast-moving line and the skinny youngster sent Tulane to a crushing 21-0 Southeastern Conference football defeat today.

Slashing on offense and immovable on defense, Auburn's tough forward wall, combined with Parks' generalship and passing, proved the difference.

Auburn roared to two quick touchdowns within 75 seconds in the second quarter and added a third for good measure in the final period.

In the third quarter, Tulane drove to Auburn's one but couldn't kick it over. Again in the fourth period the Greenies went to the Auburn eight and fizzled.

Vols On Rampage

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 27. (U.S.) — Tennessee's power-packed football team rolled up its highest score in 22 years in crushing hapless little Tennessee Tech today, 68 to 0.

It was the 15th straight win for Tennessee, the nation's top-ranking team in the Associated Press poll.

SCORE LATE

Coahoma Bulldogs Lick Hobbs, 12-0

COAHOMA, Oct. 27. — The Coahoma Bulldogs remained in the thick of the fight for District 5-B championship laurels by subduing the Hobbs Panthers, 12-0, here Friday night.

The Bulldogs got both their touchdowns in the waning minutes of the game on interceptions.

Jimmy Knight grabbed one out of the air and went 25 yards to score. A moment later, Lynwood Watts gathered in an enemy aerial and breezed 45 yards to pay dirt.

Coahoma led in first downs, 9 and 7, and gained 199 yards to 82 for the losers. The Bulldogs also made 42 yards on six pass completions.

Coahoma drove down to Hobbs' one-inch line in the third but could not get across.

Knight was a standout for Coahoma, along with Watts, Gary Hoover and Murphy Woodson.

The win was the third in district play against one reversal for Coahoma. The Bulldogs play a crucial game with Robert Lee in Robert Lee next Friday.

Irish Thunder Past Purdue

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 27. (U.S.) — Notre Dame touched off a group of teen-aged thunderbolts, fused by Freshman Paul Reynolds, that shot through Purdue today for a 30-9 football victory.

The youthful Irish, trailing 9-7 in the third period, opened up with 23 points within the next 20 minutes to frisk off with their fourth win in five starts.

Four players romped into touchdown territory and Sophomore Mel Mavrades booted a field goal and three conversions. The triumph was reached out before 57,800 fans who sat through a cold drizzle.

Notre Dame went ahead 7-0 at the half, watched its lead overcome 9-7 by Purdue in the first 3 1/2 minutes of the third, then uncorked a field goal and three touchdowns. Two of the scores came in the final period.

Lorraine Nudges Bronte, 13-12

LORLAINE, Oct. 27. — Lorraine nudged Bronte, 13-12, in an exciting District 5-B football game played here Friday night.

McCrutchen booted the point that was to eventually give the Longhorns the victory after going over for a first period TD. A pass from McCrutchen to J. D. Waldrop, covering 50 yards, set up the score.

Dof Martin counted from the four for Lorraine in the second. McCrutchen skirted end from the four for Lorraine's second TD after the intermission while Martin again went over for Lorraine shortly thereafter.

Cotton Bowl Meet To Start Dec. 18

DALLAS, Oct. 27. (U.S.) — The annual Cotton Bowl Invitational High School Basketball Tournament will be held here Dec. 18-22. Al Buschman, tournament director, announced today.

The tournament field will be limited to 32 teams, all competing in the same bracket. It is one of the few tournaments in the state in which Class AAAA, AAA, AA, and A quintets are thrown together.

Although last year's entries have preference in the tournament, teams desiring to enter may contact Buschman in care of the Dallas Board of Education. Already inquiries about the tournament have come from six teams that didn't compete here last year. They are Denison, Seminole, Abernathy, Whiteface, Victoria and Bryan.

Deadline for entering is Nov. 15. Crozier Tech of Dallas is the defending champion.

Victory Costly To Big Spring

Big Spring's victory over Plainview Friday night proved costly to the Steers.

J. C. Armistead, star back, was injured early in the first quarter. Examination proved he suffered a broken ankle. He probably will be lost to the team for the remainder of the season.

Engineers Squeak To 8-7 Victory

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 27. (U.S.) — Georgia Tech's unbeaten Yellow Jackets wallowed to a squeaky 8-7 victory over Vanderbilt in a sloppy, rain-soaked battle here today.

Tech, the nation's third-ranking team, dominated the Southern-Eastern Conference contest and led 8-0 on a blocked punt and a safety until the final eight seconds when Quarterback Bill Wade fired an 18-yard pass to End Ted Kirkland for Vanderbilt's only score.

Mathias Stars As Tribe Wins

SEATTLE, Oct. 27. (AP)—A penalty-plagued tribe of Stanford Indians, led by Gary Kerkorian and Bob Mathias, romped a rugged 64 yards today in the final quarter to trounce the favored Huskies of Washington, 14-7, and remain unwhipped.

Clubbers Retain Fem Bowling Lead

Texas Club retained the lead in the Women's Bowling league through games of last week, smashing Lone Star Chevrolet in three straight games.

Georgia Bulldogs Outscore Eagles

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 27. (AP)—Georgia's great passing battery—Bratkowski to Babcock—came awoke today against Boston College to boost Georgia to a 35-28 victory.

Cornell Is Upset

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 27. (AP)—Princeton's single-wing magic, with Dick Karmaler and Dick Pivrotto as the chief magicians, overwhelmed Cornell, 33 to 15, today to extend the Tigers' winning streak to 18 consecutive games.

Iowan Is Downed

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 27. (AP)—Tony Curello passed for four touchdowns, mostly on long heaves, and sneaked over for two more to lead rebounding Ohio State to a 47-21 victory over Iowa today.

Eli Snap Streak

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 27. (AP)—Sophomore Pete Shears and Jerry Jones helped end Yale's three-game losing streak today and enabled the Blue to wallop Colgate, 27 to 7.

Gridders Dies

BILLINGS, Mont., Oct. 27. (AP)—Wesley C. Salomon, 28, pointer for Montana School of Mines, was fatally injured today in Eastern Montana College of Education's homecoming football game.

Oregon Mauls

FULLAMER, Wash., Oct. 27. (AP)—Sophomore Wayne Berry scored three times today as Washington State maulled Oregon, 41-4.

BISHOP SCORES TWICE

Dogies Surprise Kittens 13-7

The Big Spring B team avenged an earlier loss at the hands of the San Angelo Kittens by winning a 13-7 football verdict here Saturday afternoon.

The contest got exceedingly rough in the second half with officials calling several personal fouls against both clubs.

Rex Bishop scored both of Big Spring's touchdowns, the first on an 18-yard jaunt around right end in the first quarter and the second on a fifty pass interception and a 35-yard run in the third.

In between, Angelo picked up a touchdown when Bill Connally crashed over from the two. The stage was set for the score when Big Spring fumbled inside the five.

Charles Rose kicked the first point after touchdown for Big Spring while Jack White made the Angelo extra point on a plunge.

Both teams threatened in the fourth period. Big Spring drove to the Angelo 29 on one occasion and to the 15 on another but lost the ball each time.

For Big Spring, Bishop, Jerry Don Hughes and Fred Blalock were outstanding on offense while Paulchal Odum, Dean Porter, Junior Suter, Louis Slipp and others were tops in line play.

The victory was Big Spring's fifth in seven starts.

Sooners Crowd Past Colorado

Yearlings Swamp Edison By 25-0

NORMAN, Okla., Oct. 27. (AP)—Oklahoma Quarterback Eddie Crowder threw four touchdown passes in the first 18 minutes to demoralize Colorado today and send the Sooners on to a 35-14 victory.

It put Oklahoma well on its way toward a fourth consecutive Big Seven Conference football title.

Crowder played hocus-pocus with the ball until suddenly it was sailing through the air straight to the receivers.

The duel between fullbacks Merwin Hodel of Colorado and Buck McPhail of Oklahoma failed to develop. Hodel was bottled up except for a 66-yard run and scored second half with an 8-yard romp.

The outcome gives Oklahoma two conference victories for an undisputed seat at the top of the loop standings with no one in sight to challenge it.

Parilli Is Star

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Oct. 27. (AP)—Vito Parilli was the Kentucky Babe today, throwing a pair of long touchdown passes for a 14-6 victory over Florida.

Florida Quarterback Haywood Sullivan found a Kentucky lineman hanging on his neck every time he tried to pass, but he shared in a running attack that gave the Kentucky Wildcats all they could handle.

SCORE IN EVERY QUARTER

Wildcats Routed By Wisconsin

EVANSTON, Ill., Oct. 27. (AP)—Wisconsin's Jerry Witt, a "B" team unknown two weeks ago, scored four times as the Badgers smashed Northwestern from the unbeaten ranks, 41-0, in a one-sided Big Ten game today.

Witt, 19-pound sophomore half back, scored on runs of 69 and four yards and on two passes from whip-armed Quarterback John Coatta covering 60 and 6 yards.

Northwestern, winner of four straight, was completely outclassed, its defense torn to shreds by the prancing of Witt and Freshman Alan (The Horse) Ameche, and Coatta's deadly passing.

Wildcats Routed By Wisconsin

NEW YORK, Oct. 27. (AP)—Rocky Marciano, boxing's latest sensation as the result of his eight round knockout of Joe Louis, said today he'd like to fight Heavyweight Champion Jersey Joe Walcott for the title.

But right now it appears that Walcott will fulfill his contract to give Ezzaful Charles, the former titleholder, the return title shot in June.

President Jim Norris of the International Boxing Club said a Walcott-Marciano scrap was out of the question for the time being and that Charles would get his deserved chance first.

Tide Rips State

STARKVILLE, Miss., Oct. 27. (AP)—Alabama found its long lost punch in the second quarter today and pierced Mississippi State's great football defense for a 14-0 victory.

OVER RICE

Steers Catch Fire To Win

AUSTIN, Oct. 27. (AP)—The Texas Longhorns spluttered and fumbled as if they were going to give the game away in the first half, but finally unleashed a passing attack to whip Rice, 14 to 6, today. Left Half Gib Dawson, who ran lone touchdown three minutes before the midway mark.

Trojans Stage Belated Rally To Nip Frogs

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27. (AP)—Texas Christian almost knocked Southern California loose from its new-found national reputation today, but the Trojans came from behind with counter brilliance, in the last quarter and emerged on the top end of a 25-20 score.

Cal Bears Win By 35-14 Count

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 27. (AP)—California's Bears outscored down football's comeback trail today with a thumping 35-14 victory over Oregon State.

Nebraska Huskers Again Defeated

COLUMBIA, Mo., Oct. 27. (AP)—The Missouri Tigers mustered power for five touchdowns for their first Big Seven conference football success in beating Nebraska today, 35-19.

Louis On Long Way Down

Joe Louis starts on the way down in the first knockdown in eighth and final round of his scheduled 10-rounder with Rocky Marciano (right) in Madison Square Garden in New York City. Louis went down for the count of eight. No sooner had he come up than a flurry of blows by Marciano sent him down again and referee Ruby Goldstein signaled the end of the fight in 2:28 of the round. # WELL SERVED IN THE FIELD OF TRANSPORTATION

All Photos By Culver

Via rail, the skyways or the highways, Big Spring is served completely in the field of transportation, and with fine transportation facilities is a gateway from metropolitan centers to the oil, ranch and farm country of West Texas. Big Spring is a division point on the Texas & Pacific Railway, is at the conjunction of Federal Highways 80 and 87. There is a veritable network of other highways stretching toward all points of the compass. The city is served by Pioneer Air Lines and five bus lines. There are seven air schedules a day through the city, four train schedules, 44 bus arrivals and departures every day. And in town, two cab companies and a city bus line system provide prompt and extensive service. This outstanding transportation service is another factor in making Big Spring a BETTER town.

Women's PE Clinic Is Set Next Saturday

Third annual meeting of the West Texas Women's Physical Education clinic will be held Saturday in San Angelo.

Dr. Agnes Murphy of Texas State College for Women will serve as consultant for the clinic, which is designed to bring common problems into focus.

Ouisa Molen, San Angelo, president of the clinic, has urged every woman physical education teacher in West Texas to attend the meeting. There will be a business meeting on Friday and a health and physical education exhibit to be open on Saturday from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Arah Phillips, secretary, and Anna Smith, treasurer, both of Big Spring, have parts on the program. Miss Phillips will discuss the girls' athletic association requirements and Miss Smith health education as a part of the physical education program. An address by Dr. Murphy will highlight the morning session.

During the afternoon there will be demonstrations on screening, posture work, tap dance. There will be special sessions for elementary junior and senior high groups. A business session will round out the meetings.

DISTRICT SUPERVISOR Loveless Nominated For State Award

A man who believes that conservation practices have increased productivity of his land by 25 percent has been nominated as the outstanding district supervisor for 1951.

Frank Loveless, Coahoma, retiring director of the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District, was nominated by a district bankers committee. His name will be entered in the state contest.

While on the district board, Loveless was extremely active. He served as secretary-treasurer for five years. Frequently, he conducted farmer meetings to explain the district program and to preach his thesis that conservation pays.

Conservation has also been practiced on the Loveless farm as well as talked. All of the cultivated land has been terraced with level closed end terraces and farmed on the contour to conserve moisture.

Cover crops of abuzzi, rye, madrid clover, hubam clover, winter peas, and summer peas have been planted with success. Cover cropping and the leaving of crop residues have improved the structure of the soils and made them capable of holding the moisture that is trapped with the level closed in terraces and contour farming.

Native pasture has been managed to improve the native vegetation by allowing the good grasses to increase and become more vigorous. Twelve acres has been seeded to a mixture of lehmanna lovegrass, sideots grama, weeping lovegrass, and K. R. bluestem.

Loveless stated that the 12 acres has been a life-saver this year as it has been green and growing all summer. Loveless is especially interested in grassland conservation and the use of grass in a coordinated soil and water conservation program.

He harvested 2,000 pounds of native grass seed consisting of sideots grama, blue grama, and sand dropseed on the Big Spring municipal airport plot. He sold these to farmers interested in grass and for use in seeding his own pasture.

Loveless took a lead in the purchase of grass seeding equipment by the district to be used in the district program. He believes strongly in a balanced program of livestock production in connection with regular farming operations of cotton and feed. Loveless has worked closely with Soil Conservation Service technicians assisting the district in applying and maintenance of his conservation measures.

Men In Service Pvt. Floyd L. Pike of Forzan, a member of the 17th Infantry Regiment, is helping guard the UN truce camp at Munsan, Korea.

Munsan is the base for UN negotiators at the peace talks in nearby Panmunjom. The truce camp assignment followed a series of limited offensive operations in which the 17th captured "Bloody Ridge" on the central front.

Pvt. Pike has been in the Army nine months and received his basic training at Camp Rucker, Ala. He arrived in Korea Sept. 20 to serve as a rifleman. He wears the Korean Service Ribbon with one campaign star and the Combat Infantryman badge.

Sgt. Leroy Kohler, son-in-law of Mrs. Zula Reeves, 707 Johnson, arrived here Friday evening after 13 months of service in Korea.

Mrs. Kohler, the former Louise Reeves, has been staying in the home of her mother during Sergeant Kohler's absence. Their home is in Des Moines, Iowa.

Pro Direction Of Lions Minstrel Show Planned Lions will return to a policy of engaging professional direction for their annual minstrel.

And, if it can be arranged, the man who produced the first two shows, Rex Vann, will be the director. Vann, one of the early "Black Crowns," set the pace for the Lions minstrel here, sticking closely to the minstrel routine.

Directors of the club will meet with him here Friday to talk over possibility of a contract. Vann has been working with the Lubbock Lions club on its annual minstrel, and he is due to go to San Angelo next for a production there.

Harold P. Steck, who served as interactor for the first three local productions, is to be general chairman this year. Gil Jones will repeat as Mr. Interactor this year.

Drive Intensified For AFB Workers

Recruitment of applicant for stenographer, typist, clerk, office machine operator and other positions in the Federal service is being intensified in Big Spring and other areas, according to Paul H. Pigg, director of the 14th U. S. Civil Service Region.

In an effort to insure equal opportunity for the largest number of competitors, the 14th Civil Service Region will schedule regular examinations in Big Spring, the announcement said.

Detailed instructions on how to apply, together with complete information relative to positions in the Federal Service may be obtained from A. A. Porter, secretary of the board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Post Office, Big Spring.

Stenographer, clerk, typist and office machine operator are the graded positions for which the demand is greatest in areas of newly established government installations. The Civil Service Commission anticipates that many appointments will be made in these as well as other categories of employment.

Dates for the show have not been fixed, but they probably will be late in February or early in March of 1951. Net proceeds of the show go each year to some welfare or special community project or projects selected by the club.

Price Regulations Told To Operators Of Service Stations Some 200 persons, operators of service stations and automobile agencies, heard a discussion of ceiling price regulations covering their services Friday night.

L. R. Shaddix and Sam Blake, Lubbock, district Office of Price Stabilization representatives, explained the regulations and procedure for requesting permission of increase prices. Operating records must be submitted with applications, the OPS officials said.

Provision is made in the regulations for price hikes in cases where it can be shown that ceilings are at an unprofitable level, they pointed out. It was announced that price increase application blanks will be made available through the local chamber of commerce.

H. L. Robinson, manager of an auto agency here, presided at the meeting in the Battles hotel.

SOLON SAYS

Probes To Continue In BIR Operations

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 27. (AP)—The head of a House committee that has been digging into stories of Internal Revenue scandals declared today that "in many ways it has just begun."
 There should be "no doubt in anyone's mind as to the continuing wide scope of the investigation," Rep. King (D-Calif.) said.
 His assertion came in an announcement that Secretary of the Treasury Snyder and Internal Revenue Commissioner John B. Dunlap had been summoned for another session with the committee next week, behind closed doors.
 One of the things the committee wants to talk about, King said, is Dunlap's speech before the National Press Club last week suggesting the committee's disclosures could imperil tax collections.
 Still smarting from implications that the Revenue Bureau is getting a "kicking around," King said the committee "intends to carry out fully the task assigned to it."
 Saying "many people have gained the impression that the commissioner wants this committee to 'draw back' from its work," King declared he had been assured by Dunlap this was an "erroneous" impression.
 Rep. Kean of New Jersey, senior Republican on the committee, said the committee was following leads pointing to additional disclosures involving alleged irregularities in Eastern collection districts.
 "We are not done here by any manner of means," Kean said.
 Thus far the committee's investigation in the East has centered in Boston and New York City, where three Internal Revenue collectors have either resigned, been fired or replaced.
 King's statement said a question had been raised as to the effects of the committee's disclosures, which thus far have resulted in the suspension or ousting of 26 Revenue Bureau employes.

Farm Bureau Meet Slated Saturday

Annual convention of the Howard County Farm Bureau Federation is scheduled for next Saturday at the Municipal auditorium.
 The convention will begin at 2 p.m.
 Directors and officers for the coming year will be elected, and voting delegates to attend the state convention will be named.
 At the same time the county organization will take action on resolutions to be submitted to the state convention.
 The Texas Farm Federation will hold its annual convention in Houston Nov. 19-21. Convention headquarters will be in the Rice Hotel. Directors of the Howard County Farm Bureau will meet Tuesday night to complete plans for the county convention.

Mack Lands In Berlin For Visit

BERLIN, Oct. 27. (AP)—Rep. Peter F. Mack (D-Ill.) arrived in Berlin today for a three-day visit. He expects to meet West Berlin mayor Ernest Reuter and present him with a scroll.
 He came here from Stockholm, where he learned that the Russians had refused him permission to land in Moscow on his round-the-world good will flight.

Lawyers In Area To Attend Clinic

Lawyers from throughout this area will attend a special clinic in Midland Tuesday to be sponsored by the state bar association.
 The clinic is one of a series being conducted in the state to acquaint lawyers with current legal developments and new rules and procedures of federal and state agencies.
 Well known legal authorities of the state will participate. Judge Meade Griffin of the Texas Supreme Court will be principal speaker at a Tuesday night banquet which will climax the event.

 The Midland session is the second in the series, with the first scheduled for Monday in Lubbock. Secretary Of State John Ben Shepard and C. Burt Potter of Corpus Christi are in charge of arrangement for the tour.

Ex-Resident Dies

Friends here Saturday learned of the death of Gladys Avery on Oct. 25 in a Galveston hospital.
 She had lived in Big Spring for about seven years and had been ill in health for several months.

Sales On Rise In Big Texas Cities

DALLAS, Oct. 27. (AP)—The district average for department store sales in seven Texas cities rose one per cent for the first nine months of 1951 compared to 1950.
 The Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas reported these comparative figures today for the nine months of 1951, compared to 1950: Dallas, down 1 per cent; Fort Worth, down a fraction of 1 per cent; Houston, up 12; San Antonio, down 2; Shreveport, La., up 2; Corpus Christi, down 2; and El Paso, up a fraction of 1 per cent.

County Has An Entry In Eastern Livestock Show

For the first time in history Howard county will have an entry in the Eastern National Livestock Show at Baltimore Nov. 10-15.
 County Agent Durward Lewter said that one Hereford steer has been entered under the banner of Howard County 4-H club. The animal has been fed by Edgar Allen Phillips, and it will be shown by Lewter himself in the open class judging. The steer has been named "Big Spring Return" by the 4-H clubbers, and they hope he will enjoy a career similar to that of "Big Spring Special," Lloyd Robinson's grand champion at the International Livestock Exposition last year.

 In showing at Baltimore the Howard County 4-H lads will be sending a Hereford into a stronghold of the Aberdeen-Angus breed of cattle. In fact, Angus entries have won the championship there in 12 of the last 13 shows.
 Five Howard County 4-H boys have entries posted at the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago, which is set for Nov. 24 through Dec. 1. They are Sonny Choate, Lloyd Robinson, Edgar Allen Phillips, James Shortes and Darrell Robinson.

More Harvesting Crews Needed

Although Howard county's cotton yield is far from spectacular, more harvest crews are needed in the fields, according to Saturday reports.
 In its latest bulletin, the Texas Employment Commission estimated that this area could use at least 500 additional workers. The TEC also estimated that 60 percent of the Howard county cotton is open and ready for harvest and that 35 percent of the crop had been harvested.
 The latest TEC ginning figures showed 8,800 bales processed in Howard county. By the end of the week the total probably had passed the 10,000 bale mark.

Man Fined $125 For Resisting Arrest And Property Destruction

D. D. Douglas Jr., of 1302 Sycamore, was fined a total of $125 in Corporation Court Saturday after he pleaded guilty to charges of resisting arrest and malicious destruction of private property.
 Douglas was fined $75 following his plea of guilty to the charge of resisting arrest. He was assessed a fine of $50 when he pleaded guilty to the destruction of private property.
 A charge of breaking and entering a private dwelling, which had been preferred against Douglas in Corporation Court, was dismissed on recommendation of the county attorney, Hartman Hooser. There was "no felonious intent," Greenlees noted on the court docket.

Three Plead Guilty To Charges Of DWI

Three men who entered pleas of guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated were assessed fines in county court Saturday.
 The defendants were Sam Lawrence Duke, who was fined $250 and court costs, and J. L. Baker Jr. and Ray T. Moore, who drew fines of $100 and costs each.

Houston Fair Opens

Entertainment While She Works

Mrs. Fetter crochets as she listens to a novel being read on the record player at her side. Each side of the record plays for 15 minutes. The machine and records are loaned to qualified blind persons by the U. S. government.

Blind Woman 'Reads' Book As She Crochets

If you don't believe a blind person can read a book and crochet at the same time you should drop in some day on Mrs. Mary Fetter in her home at the rear of 413 Edwards.

A cheerful person very much interested in others in spite of her handicap, Mrs. Fetter is able to accomplish this feat with the aid of her book recorder, actually a "talking book."

The talking book consists of a record player and a set of records, usually about 50, which relates a complete novel. Furnished by the government through the Library of Congress, the records are sent to Mrs. Fetter from Austin. She receives one book at a time, and when that is returned another is sent. At the moment she is "reading" a novel about a troupe of actors called "The Good Companions."

A nurse for 30 years, Mrs. Fetter was forced by ill health to abandon this profession, and high blood pressure caused her to lose sight in her right eye two years ago. She has about 50 per cent vision in her left eye.

When Mrs. Fetter first lost her sight, crocheting, which she had done since she was 7, came to the rescue. She crocheted a bedspread and now has turned to baby things—sacques, caps and booties—which she sells to friends.

Her doll-size house, only a few steps away from that of her only daughter, Mrs. H. F. Jarrett, is filled with pot plants, another of her hobbies.

She also belongs to the Circle for the blind, a club of women and a few men who have either lost or are gradually losing their sight. They meet monthly to chat, hear book reviews and swap ideas.

Mrs. Hays Is Honored At Shower

COAHOMA, Oct. 27—(Spl)—Mrs. Marion Hays was honored Tuesday evening with a pink and blue shower in the home of Suzie Brown. Hostesses assisting were Mrs. P. F. Sheedy, Mrs. Don McKinney, Mrs. L. N. Prater and Mrs. A. J. Wirth.

The serving table was laid with a lace cloth. Centerpiece was a stork surrounded by pink and white rosebuds in crystal containers. Gifts were arranged around the centerpiece. Favores were miniature baby jackets tied with pink ribbon.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Jean Roberts, Mrs. E. H. Harper, Mrs. T. A. Bartlett, Mrs. Burr Brown, Mrs. J. C. Shepard, Mrs. R. D. Cramer, Mrs. Joe Wirsching, Mrs. J. W. Wood, Mrs. Rex Shive, Mrs. Dennis Turner, Mrs. S. R. Hagler, Mrs. Mattie Ingram, Mrs. George Conner, Mrs. Tom Barber.

Mrs. Charles Read, Pat Shepard, Mrs. Doris Hays, Mrs. F. M. Holley, Mrs. Bobby Cathey, Mrs. H. White, Mrs. Verdie Barr, Mrs. Boone Cramer, Mrs. Alfred Cate, Mrs. Edd Carpenter, Mrs. G. A. Darden, Mrs. H. J. Robertson, Mrs. Wayne DeVaney.

Gift Tea Fetes Patsy Young, Bride-Elect Of Charles Wash

Patsy Young, bride-elect of Charles Wash, was honored Thursday night with a gift tea at the home of Mrs. Ted Groebel, 615 Dallas.

Miss Young and Wash will be married in a double ceremony Nov. 1. Juanita Archer, Lamesa, and Bob Wash, will be the other couple.

In the receiving line were Mrs. O. D. Young, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. C. V. Wash, mother of the prospective bridegroom; the honoree and Mrs. Groebel.

Others in the house party were Mrs. R. B. G. Cowper, Mrs. B. L. Coughlin, Mrs. Carlson H. Hamilton, Mrs. Byron B. Smith, Quetta Preston, Charlotte Williams and Mozelle Natalie Groebel. Members of the house party wore elegant and carnation corsages.

The refreshment table was laid with an Italian handmade cloth. Glided white chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece with a miniature bride and groom in the center of the arrangement. Other floral decorations were pink carnations.

Gifts were displayed in the playroom which was decorated with bronze chrysanthemums.

The honoree was attired in a pink taffeta blouse with a black quilted taffeta skirt, and she wore a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Groebel chose a black and brown iridescent pure silk dress.

Mrs. Young wore a black dress with lace insets and Mrs. Wash selected a black dress with red trim.

About 120 guests attended.

Look This One Up

Mr. and Mrs. Keele look up the answer to a particularly difficult puzzle in the encyclopedia. So far Ellicia is no help with such ponderous problems.

Puzzles Are Fascinating Pastime For Newcomers From Littlefield

If it's a puzzle, Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Keele, Jr., are interested.

Right now they are engrossed in a series of puzzles sent with the volumes of encyclopedias they are buying, and they spend many an hour poring over the puzzles in the hopes of winning one of the fabulous cash prizes.

Five-month-old Ellicia is a source of joy in the household but not much help with the puzzles. As a result, the puzzle sessions are held, if possible, while she snoozes.

Originally from Seagraves, Mrs. Keele met Paul in Austin, where he was at work off a degree in pharmacy and she was employed by the highway department. He admits that it took her much less time to obtain her MRS. than it did him to get his B. S. in pharmacy.

Originally from Lubbock, Mr. Keele is now a pharmacist with Westerman Drug. The couple came here from Littlefield and are living at 304 1/2 W. 19th.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Smith and daughter, Linda Kay, 5 months, 605 E. 16th. He is a stockman for Cooper's Glidden paint store.

Stamford is the previous home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tucker and children, Lawrence David, 10; Elfreda, 15; Barbara, 12; Rhonda, 2, and Sue, 5. He is a roughneck with Eastland Drilling Co. and their new residence is 207 W. 5th.

From Rush Springs, Okla., are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tedder, 211 Lindberg. He is a truck driver with J. W. Balason Construction Co. Their children are Donnie, 12, and Joyce, 9.

Newlyweds from Stamford are Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Young. He is a roughneck with Eastland Oil and they make their home at 100 Willa.

Stephenville is the previous home of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Dixon. They are living at the Watson Wheel. He is a carpenter. They have a daughter, Nevyn Sue, 7 months.

New home for Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Parkhill and son, Johnnie, 14, is 1510 Scurry. Former residents of Atoka, Okla., he is with Texas Construction Co.

New Orleans is the previous residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Cappel, 103 W. 15th. Their children are Dangle, 8 months, Jo Beth, 9, and Sue, 11. Cappel is a pipefitter.

District 9 Federated Music Clubs To Convene Here Friday, Saturday

Committees of the Music Study Club are completing final arrangements for the district 9 convention of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs to be held Friday and Saturday in the new HCJC auditorium.

Guest speakers will include Mrs. Ina Woodford Jones of Abilene, state first vice-president; Mrs. Paul Moss, state recording secretary, and Mrs. R. P. Morrison, district president, both of Odessa.

The two-day program will get underway Friday at 6:30 p.m. with a board dinner at the home of Mrs. Herbert Keaton. Registration will follow at 7:15 in the main entrance to the auditorium.

At 8:30 all clubs in the district will participate in a fine arts program which will be open to the public. A reception for out-of-town visitors and local club members will be given in the small auditorium at 10 p.m.

Saturday's activities will begin with registration and coffee at 9 a.m., to be followed by business sessions. A luncheon at noon at the Settles hotel will honor the visiting state officers.

Roberta Gay, president of the local club, has appointed the following committees to handle arrangements: General chairman,

ROBERTA GAY

Mrs. H. M. Jarratt; registration, Mrs. Bruce Frazier; publicity, Mrs. Harold Talbot; finance, Mrs. J. A. Jolly; decorations, Mrs. Chester Barnes; director, assembly singing, Mrs. J. W. King; junior session, Mrs. Bill Grise; program, Mrs. Omar Pittman; and social, Mrs. Robert Middleton.

Clubs in Stanton, Midland, Odessa, Pecos and Monahans will be represented at the convention.

South Ward Carnival

The South Ward P-TA Halloween carnival will be staged Tuesday evening at the school. Supper will be served at 6:30, and there will be booths and games for every age.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Haywood will move to Stanton around Nov. 15. He will open a dentist office in the bank building.

Flowers, Jones Are Halloween Royalty

Sandra Flowers and Dennis Jones were selected as royalty of a ball at the YMCA Friday evening.

The masquerade party was sponsored by Helen Gray and Lou Ann White and a Halloween motif was carried out in decorations and refreshments. Guests went to the "Y" by a special ghost route and were entertained with games and dancing.

Some 45 persons were present.

CAMPUS CHATTER

By Jan Masters

Halloween is the time for crazy stunts—the sanier the better. Then gather your friends and start stunting.

The Jayhawk Choir under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Cope will sing on the Community Thanksgiving program. Also, this choir has been asked to sing April 3 in Dallas for the Texas State Junior College Association.

Platform risers for the choir arrived Tuesday. These risers will be used for practice purposes and assembly programs as well.

Members of the annual staff met Tuesday and selected the cover for the 1952 Jayhawker. Mr. Richter, a representative of the Steck Company in Austin, lectured on "How to Have a Fine Yearbook." Members of the staff present were: Jan Masters, editor; Pat Lloyd, associate editor; Bobby Wheeler, business manager, and Mr. Clements, sponsor.

The Howard County Teacher's Association met Tuesday night. This group visited and inspected our new school plant. They were served coffee in the cafeteria.

Dorothy Thomas held a slumber party in her home Tuesday night. A Mexican dinner was served and the following girls were really having fun: Jo Nell West, Judy Lawson, Charlotte Anderson, Darlene Sneed and Katherine Pitzer. Girl's physical education classes started officially this week. The physical education program for the girls consists of indoor sports, and they have been unable to play in the gymnasium because work was not completed.

Locker baskets for gym clothing arrived Wednesday.

Class officers were elected Oct. 24 and 25. Sophomore class officers elected were: Jackie Jennings, president; Donnie Barnes, vice-president; Harold Ross, secretary-treasurer and reporter; Dorothy Thomas and Howard Jones were elected to serve as Student Council members.

Plans were made to honor the Freshmen with a party in the near future.

Freshmen officers elected were: Cecil Hoggard, president; Bobby Wheeler, vice-president; Betty Gossby, secretary-treasurer; and Robert Williams, reporter.

Lee Harris, personnel manager at Cooden, spoke to the advanced shorthand class Wednesday. Mr. Harris talked about some of the requirements for stenographers. Some were attitude, appearance, ability, and other necessary things which make an efficient secretary. This talk was very timely and profitable.

In addition to the new books placed in the library at Howard Junior College last summer, many new ones have been received recently, including 22 volumes of "The Dictionary of American Biography," edited by Dumas Malone; 18 volumes of "The World Book" encyclopedia and the reading and study guide; 15 new volumes of "Compton's Pictured Encyclopedia" and Fact-Index (the 1951 edition), presented as a gift to the library recently.

Of all the new books of the summer buying list, the most popular or most often requested is an autobiography by Ethel Waters, "His Eye Is On The Sparrow."

Five volumes received this week for the library were: Album of American History: Colonial Period by James Truslow Adams, edited by H. H. Henshaw; Album of American History: 1783-1853; Album of American History: End of an Era; Album of American History, 1853-1893, and the Index Album of American History. These are beautifully illustrated.

There have been many visitors recently to the library at Howard Junior College: Mrs. H. M. Jarratt, general chairman of the district convention of Federated Music Clubs to be held Nov. 2 and 3; members of the clubs, "The Dirty Dozen" and "The Honest Johns."

G. H. Gray, Jr., general service meteorologist, U. S. Weather Bureau, Big Spring; Mrs. and Mrs.

Duling, Mrs. Grace Turney, Kaufman, formerly of Lamesa and Big Spring; Mr. Whipkey, publisher of the Big Spring Daily Herald; members of the Howard County Teachers' Association.

Mrs. David Barlow of New York, sister of Bruce Frazier, our agriculture director; Mrs. Jack Smith, Marvin Miller, Mr. Mathis, and Mrs. Walker Bailey, county superintendent of schools. Also, Gage Lloyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Thompson, pastor of the First Christian Church, and Dr. Diefk O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

We want to welcome anyone who would like to come out and visit our library or any other part of our new school plant.

Woody Groves, manager of KTXC, visited Wednesday afternoon to discuss the installation of facilities for remote broadcasts from the gymnasium and the small auditorium.

Several different types of programs were considered. Some of the programs mentioned were: Spanish or German lessons taught by Mr. Hank; a college variety program under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Cope; a science program directed by the Science Club; and possibly poetry and drama directed by Mr. Bishop.

Mr. Groves was very generous in offering more time than we can use for public service.

Mr. Frazier of the Agriculture Department is still maintaining his position as farm director of KTXC five days a week at 12:30 noon.

The agriculture boys visited the Bigg packing plant Friday morning to watch the slaughter of livestock.

This was laboratory practice in the study of market classes of beef carcasses. The boys watched the complete slaughtering process from the live animal to the beef steaks.

The Science Club met Tuesday to elect officers. Elected were Jim Hahn, president; W. C. Blankenship, Jr., vice-president; Jerry Choate, secretary; Joe Mize, treasurer and Jimmie Bennett, reporter.

Every second Tuesday of the month was decided upon as the regular meeting date for the club. Dues were set at 50 cents a semester.

Members at the organization meeting are charter members. All others who want to become members will be admitted only after initiation.

This club is sponsored by Mr. Clements and J. B. Frazier.

Seen Monday night at the skating rink taking square dance lessons were Jimmy Jennings, Jimmy Cole, Beverly Vaughn, Jackie Jennings, Bobbie Adams and many others.

If these symptoms are due to dietary deficiencies which occur only when the daily intake of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, and Nicotin is less than the minimum daily requirement over a prolonged period, these non-specific symptoms do not in themselves prove a dietary deficiency and may have other causes or be due to functional conditions.

Medical authorities now know that many of the above-mentioned common ailments are caused by lack of vitamins and minerals. So, if that's the reason you are suffering, you may end your complaints in an amazingly short time... by taking the "miracle compound" BEXEL SPECIAL FORMULA.

BEXEL comes to you in easy-to-take, safety-sealed capsules that contain the essential B-vitamins, Iron, and trace minerals known to be essential in human nutrition.

Wonderful New Hope for Older Men, Women

Many troubles which distress older folks can be traced to deficiencies of the essential B-vitamins. So, if you are plagued by any of the above symptoms due to a deficiency of vitamins, iron, and trace minerals needed in human nutrition, take wonderful BEXEL SPECIAL FORMULA... the amazing formula that has benefited thousands of folks just like yourself.

Bexel Great for Mothers-to-Be

A sufficiency of B-vitamins, iron and trace minerals is of paramount importance for expectant mothers. BEXEL SPECIAL FORMULA helps furnish these dietary essentials at a time when the mother's body needs more of these vital components than usual.

Rich Red Blood

Every doctor will tell you that iron in the diet is indispensable to the building of rich, red blood. Well, each Bexel Special Formula capsule provides five times the medically-established minimum daily requirements of iron. It doesn't matter who you are or how old you are—BEXEL SPECIAL FORMULA will help you build good red blood if you are iron-deficient.

Every Bexel Capsule contains these VITAMINS and MINERALS

More than six times the minimum daily requirements of Thiamine-Hydrochloride (Vitamin B<sub>1</sub>), 2 times the minimum daily requirements of Riboflavin (Vitamin B<sub>2</sub>), and 5 times the daily minimum requirements of Iron, plus the full daily requirements of Ascorbic Acid (Vitamin C) together with Pyridoxine Hydrochloride (Vitamin B<sub>6</sub>), Calcium Panthothenate, Folic Acid, Nicotinic Acid, Choline Dihydrogen Citrate, Inositol, Mixed Tocopherols, Potassium Iodide, Copper Sulfate, Manganese Sulfate, Zinc Sulfate, Magnesium Sulfate... plus Vitamin B<sub>12</sub>.

McKENSON'S Bexel SPECIAL FORMULA

STUNNING MONEY-BACK OFFER: We are so certain that BEXEL SPECIAL FORMULA is the right thing if you need extra B-vitamins, iron and trace minerals important to human nutrition, that we make this startling offer: if you don't feel decidedly better after one bottle of Bexel, your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Men Would Gasp Should Fashions Revert To Past

By DOROTHY YATES

If the men who complain about the absurd hats of modern females could get a glimpse of past fashions, they would undoubtedly catch their breath in relief and hope that things would ever remain as they are.

Take a look, for instance at the costumes worn during the reign of Marie Antoinette, queen of Louis XVI in the latter 18th century. The immense headdresses made of puffs and curls held up by a cushion of horsehair and trimmed with beads, feathers, flowers, ribbons, even ships and other absurdities were often times so high that the hairdresser had to use a step-ladder to powder the top curls.

During this time when the bodices became painfully tight and stiff, the skirts were trimmed with elaborate lace, ribbon and embroidery and reached the widest points in history, sometimes eight feet across.

Or consider the fifteenth century when women wore tall, pointed hats called hennins. These were often attached by enormous wire frames covered with stiffed gauze which stood out in starburst or had long veils worn underneath. They reached a length of from two to three feet from the head.

Then there was the time that Mlle. de Fontanges, a great favorite of Louis XIV, set a new fashion in headdress by losing her hat at a garden party. She used her lace trimmed garter to hold her hair in place and it was so becoming that everyone copied it. Later it grew to towering heights of lace and ribbon.

Men who prefer that the weaker sex appear so, would likely gasp in horror if faced with a nineteenth century model. Women wore sheer, white cotton dresses, no underwear and no wraps. They wanted to appear frail and so often practiced fainting and hysterics.

When the Empress Eugenie became the leader of fashion in the nineteenth century, she set the pace with beautiful clothes of pastel colors. Her perishable tulle, gauze and thin lace dresses were so frail that she often had to change during one ball.

So, when the men complain, we might remind them that as history is ever in danger of repeating itself, perhaps they would best leave well enough alone.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH BRANDON CURRY

Kenneth Brandon Curry Married To Midland Girl

Patsy Lou Blanscett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Blanscett, Midland, was married recently to Kenneth Brandon Curry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brandon Curry, 1208 Nolan, at the home of the bride's sister in Midland.

Rev. Fred W. Rogers, pastor of the First Nazarene Church, officiated in the single ring ceremony.

For her wedding the bride chose a grey charmine gabardine suit with navy velvet and suede accessories. Her flowers were a cascade bouquet centered by an orchid. She was given in marriage by her father.

Gail Dixon, Midland, was the bride's only attendant.

Floyd Smith of Littlefield served as best man.

At the reception the bride's table was laid with a lace cloth over pink satin. The wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom and surrounded by gladioli, chrysanthemums and greenery, formed the centerpiece. Cut glass appointments were used.

Mrs. Grady Burkhalter served the cake, Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Loy E. Blanscett poured.

Mrs. Vague Beene of San Antonio presided at the guest book.

Others in the house party were Jan Scott, Lila Curry, sister of the bridegroom, Jerry Fay Bezell and Lackie Lester.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Curry was feted at several pre-nuptial parties in Midland.

Forsan Service Club Has Ladies Night Banquet

FORSAN, Oct. 27. (Sp.)—Members of the Forsan Service Club entertained their wives at the annual ladies night dinner Thursday at the school cafeteria.

A Hall-ween color scheme was carried out in table decorations, napkins and place cards. Featured was an orange and black gum drop tree. Jack-o-lanterns lighted the scene. Corsages were presented to the women.

C. J. Lamb, club president, was master of ceremonies. Glenn W. J. tenberg gave the invocation. Pupils of Betty Farrar, Big Spring, gave three songs and dance numbers. Included in the group were Joe McNamara, Susan Elrod, Nancy Hedleston, Denna Mansfield and Jerry Younger.

Mrs. Hammond Mobley accompanied pupils from the third and fourth grades in three songs and rhythmic games. The children were Elizabeth Story, Glenda Whitteberg, Nancy Sweeney, Mary Billie Stockton, Michael Huchton, Donnie Hedgpeh, Billy Frank Andrews and Davey Howard.

Betty Rose gave a reading, "Henrietta the Eighth."

The meal was prepared by Mrs. Mamie Gandy and Mrs. G. G. Green. Serving were Anne and

Eager Beavers Plan Shower For Former Member In Hospital

Mrs. H. D. Bruton was hostess when the Eager Beavers met in her home Friday afternoon.

It was decided to make nylon corsages and to have a shower for Mrs. V. C. Barber of Midland, a former member, who is in Cowper Clinic-Hospital, recovering from an operation.

Two former members, Mrs. A. F. Johnson and Mrs. W. H. Sneed, were welcomed back into the club.

Refreshments were served to eight members.

Next week's meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. G. Burnett. Secret Fall week will be observed at that time.

The Rainbow girls held a regular meeting Tuesday evening at the Masonic Hall. Plans were made for the girls to attend a school of instruction in Colorado City next Saturday. Marie Love and Nieta Jo Hedleson were initiated by the group.

For the past three Saturdays the Rainbow Girls under the supervision of Patricia Dillon, Jackie Marchant and Annelle Puckett have been holding rummage sales in order to raise the necessary money for a scholarship award for any one Rainbow Girl they find worthy.

At a Tri-Hi-Y meeting Monday night at the YMCA, it was decided that nine members would journey to Lubbock for a special meeting. They will go to Austin in December for a youth and government program. They are Sandy Swartz, Gayle Price, Claudette Harper, Janis Anderson, Janis Boardman, Narell Dene Choate, Libby Jones, Helen Phillips and Ann Mary Gray.

New members welcomed by the club were Marilyn Jackson, Frances Walker, Kay Bonfield, Kay Richbourg and Lynelle Martin.

Afterwards Tri-Hi-Y and H-Y members held a dance at the YMCA.

The Senior Girl Scout Troop is having a campaign to set more girls interested in its work. Along with other activities the girls have an interesting variety of entertainment. Right now they are making flower corsages out of nylon hose. You are invited to visit or join. The troop meets at 4 p.m. Wednesday afternoon at the Episcopal Church parish house.

For further information see any of the following girls: Joyce Burkett, president, Kay Richbourg, vicepresident; Joyce Rankin, secretary; Joe Welch, scribe; Angela Fausel, Betty Earley or Frances Walker.

Tuesday evening after school the Homemaking Club had a tea in the HE room.

Mrs. J. E. Hogan was the guest speaker and chose the subject, "Joys of Homemaking." Refreshments were served in the dining room to approximately 95 persons. A birthday party was given Tuesday evening in the home of Jannie Collins honoring Bobby Adams. Those present were Bobbie and

DESIGNING WOMAN

Combinations Endless With Furniture Units

By ELIZABETH HILLYER
How wide should the furniture be? How tall? How many drawers should it have, how many shelves? Should it have a door-cabinet section?
No matter what the answers, the furniture can be just what you want it to be. Sketched are winning combinations for a bedroom, a living room, a dining room. — to fit wide or narrow wall space, to store anything. But the combinations are endless because drawer units come in six sizes, shelves in three, door cabinets in two more, and there are bases, open with short legs, or taller and table-like which can be either bases or tables. Add to these matching headboards, a dining and occasional table, a smart little chair, a desk — and there's hardly an idea you couldn't work out.
With this new furniture, there's the special satisfaction of seeing your ideas take shape in mahogany. It's called the Composer's Group. Marie and Russell Kirkpatrick designed it so skillfully that each unit is smart by itself but composes smoothly with the others. And the piece of furniture composed of a few or a number of units has variety and style. Even the two mahogany finishes, the dark cordovan and the soft deep champagne shade can be combined for variety of color.

Sectional furniture is said to be the greatest contribution to furniture design of our time. This is sectional furniture that goes a step farther than it did just a short while ago, with greater variety in the sizes and styles of pieces and the resulting more varied combinations.
Underneath these layers of color which you may have something there — a beautiful piece of furniture that needs only to show its wood grain. Learn how to work remaining woodwork with the help of Elizabeth Hillyer's new booklet FURNITURE DESIGNING — HOW TO DO IT YOURSELF. It's yours for 10c in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope sent to Miss Hillyer at Big Spring Herald.

Portrait of a Soul

Did you think a soul was invisible? Did you even suspect that it was a theological concept that only ministers could understand?
Well, look into this boy's eyes! Do you see happiness... the certainty that life is full of beauty and truth? Do you see hope... the assurance that every tomorrow will be better than every today? Do you see courage... the fortitude that will look through defeat to victory? Do you see faith... the confidence that God hears, and knows, and cares, and helps?
You're looking into a soul! You're seeing the spark of Himself which God has put into every one of us. And you're seeing it still unblemished by the cares and disappointments of life.
You can see a soul through your own child's eyes. But unless you give that soul a chance to grow up with the body and mind that possess it... soon you'll no longer see it in your child's eyes... and perhaps, someday, you'll no longer see it in his life.
The Church, through careful religious education, develops that spiritual inner-being which we call the soul. Your child deserves the advantage of the Church's instruction. And, in church worship, you will rediscover the beauty and strength of your own soul.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

HELENS' HINTS

CONGRATULATIONS ARE IN ORDER for the CUNNINGHAM & PHILIPS DRUGS on their 32nd anniversary. November 1 marks the date of 32 years of the highest quality service in filling prescriptions and furnishing other needed drug items to the people of Big Spring. Time tested experience proves the worth of this fine organization in its willingness to serve you in every way, in the best way possible. The PETROLEUM DRUG open Sundays and until 8:30 p.m. every night is added insurance for dependable prescriptions in time of sickness. Exclusive dealers for such outstanding lines as Elizabeth Arden, Dorothy Gray, Yardley, Dorothy Perkins, Lantheric, Chanel, Ciro and D'orsay gives further proof of the fine quality you'll always receive from C & P Drugs.

ARTFUL SERVING from the "Snack-Master" tray that's shaped like an artist's palette. Found at the BIG SPRING HARDWARE, it will mean perfect peace and perfect parties whether you serve indoors or out. You'll keep food, drink and tempers under control with this perfectly balanced tray for your round serving. It's partitioned to hold your favorite party foods, and beverages; there's a thumb hold to eliminate spills; and there's even a slot for your napkin. Molded of plastic in new decorator colors, it's easily cleaned in warm water. Set of four . . . $2.25.

THERE'S A GHOST OF A CHANCE . . . and then some, that you'll be giving a Halloween party this week. Take a tip from a spook who ought to know . . . that HESTER'S is the place to go . . . for unusual Halloween greeting cards, bewitching party invitations, place cards, say table cloths and napkins, and many other party props of ghostly character. All are cleverly illustrated in keeping with the Halloween season, and would be eye-catching, conversation-matching additions to any gathering. Get your haunting license from Hester's to tag the gayest Halloween party of the season.

SPIC AND SPAN AND SPOOKY . . . You needn't be a witch to own a broom—so sweep out your home and dress up your room . . . with an appropriate flower arrangement from FAYE'S FLOWERS for that Halloween party you're planning. Think how effective a large bowl of golden mums would be with a lighted jack-o-lantern grinning wickedly through the foliage, to greet your guest from an entrance hall table. If you're planning a buffet supper or bridge party, Faye can furnish a host of ideas for clever individual table decorations. No matter what you're planning, you'll be headed for happier-haunting with flowers from Faye's.

THE ROMANTIC RUSTLE OF TAFFETA . . . the magic fabric for fall and winter partying. Feminine, full-giddied fascination will be yours in one of the taffeta skirts or cocktail dresses you'll find at ZACK'S or Margie's. Fashioned in solids, changeable or metallic, these outfits are designed with decisive details with a delicate—fall, 1951, it's sophisticated simplicity in dresses with a dash of brilliant rhinestones or trimmed with the velvet touch . . . skirts with the French Empire inspiration—a scalloped waist band that can be worn wide or narrow . . . to accent tiny waists—belittles the waist that is not so small. All are dinner and dance creations designed for memory book evenings.

AT EASE, GENTLEMEN . . . In an Irvy Thompson casual jacket from ELMO WASSON'S, is battle casual style with elastic waist bands in back and zipper front. It's cut for maximum freedom of action. Handpicked edges accent the authoritative look, and the fabric is that favorite . . . Fortmann's Charman gabardine in two tones of golden beige or dusk tan. The man who insists upon superior fabric and tailoring will find one of these jackets a superb addition to his wardrobe. Dress the part . . . and get the most out of leisure.

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY for better eating awaits you in Richelle's "Raggedy Ann" peaches . . . the canned freestone peach that's every bit as good as the fresh fruit itself. Found at the HILLTOP GROCERY, these plump golden "health nuggets" are fully ripened. The extra days of ripening insure extra sweetness, extra flavor . . . because Richelle selects only the juiciest peaches and picks them at the exact moment of sun-sweetened ripeness—when natural tartness and sweetness are in perfect flavor balance. Quality proved for almost a century, Richelle foods always enjoy preference on discriminating tables, so you'll surely want to add this delicious item to your store of pantry-shelf delicacies.

SOME PEOPLE CAN'T THINK OF ANYTHING BUT HOME . . . and who can blame them when the COLONIAL BEAUTY SHOP keeps offering such charming decorator items to choose from. This week you'll find delicate, hand-painted demitasse cups. Made in occupied Japan, they're truly a find in creative artistry. Fashioned from the finest china, they would be adaptable with dignity to a Colonial cottage, a gay provincial parlor, or a modern up-to-date mansion. Their dainty and decorative value would lend that air of luxurious elegance to any home.

THE TIME HAS COME to choose that long wished-for record player for your young'n, and THE RECORD SHOP has the best value you've seen in a month of Sundays. Priced to be kind to your purse, they've come up with a plastic player that sells for only $8.35. Decorated in pink and blue, it's light, easy to handle and operates for even the smallest child. Be kind to your little dependents and regard them as teen-agers as you do when it's time for income tax deductions. Illustration off to play with this fine phone that's so wisely priced not to tax your budget. You'll find the twirl of the turn table will keep your offspring happily occupied for many hours.

A WORLD OF BEAUTY is yours to conquer with Max Factor's new "World of Beauty" lotion . . . the new softening, smoothing cosmetic for lovelier skin that the HARDESTY DRUG is featuring this week. To coax your skin to autumn glamour—to help you look beautiful though busy—radiant though on the run, this fragrant, whisper-light, quick absorbing, non-sticky lotion is perfect for head to toe skin care. The clever squeeze dispenser will grace your dressing room table or take a trip on a train with equal finesse. Once you've tried this lotion, you'll find that fall will cast its reflection on a more radiant you.

HOW MANY "FEET" IN A MILE . . . It takes many busy steps to keep in pace with fashion's latest in the field of footwear and at MARGO'S you'll find just the shoe to keep your feet well and wisely shod. Dramatized by bold color and black diamond trim, it's another triumph by Kaimon of Paramount. In red and black, violet and black and grey and black, it displays the newest views in shoes . . . shaped with unerring skill, the single elastic heel strap accents the cut-out sides to reveal the beauty of your instep. It's truly a provocative shoe to be worn whenever a bit of candid flattery will add to the occasion.

ARE YOU AN ARTIST AT HEART? . . . If so WACKER'S has the newest ideas for that "fresh paint" look. To kindle your talent as well as provide the perfect solution for your gift giving problems, you'll find a wide selection of plain plaster figurines, plaques, heads or animals complete with paints and glazes for your entrance to the field of artistic adventure. Learn how to give humble plaster a new personality—how to make it glow with color and creative imagination. You'll find the art of figurine painting a thoroughly enjoyable hobby that will give you a feeling of accomplishment as well as many hours of pleasure.

Crib Toys

Soft, cuddly, washable crib toys are crocheted of bright wool yarn. Features are embroidered. The sleepy giraffe (he has his eyes closed) measures 13 inches in height and is made of yellow yarn; spots, tail and feet are of black yarn. The "lazy pup"—he is always in a sitting-down position—is crocheted of green yarn and trimmed with red. This pup wears a glasses made of two one-inch white plastic rings. Very dignified and scholarly looking, this pup!

On The Campus

Jeffrey Hunter and Jeanne Crain appear as a couple of collegians in this scene from "Take Care Of My Little Girl," playing Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ritz. The Technicolor picture tells of the operations on a big university campus.

CLOUDS GET PAINTED

Musical Comedy At Ritz Theatre Today

Tunes, gals and gags highlight a late release in the series of musical comedies. This one is called "Painting The Clouds With Sunshine," and is the feature at the Ritz theatre today and Monday. It's in Technicolor.

'Raton Pass' At The Lyric

"Raton Pass" is the title and setting for an action melodrama which is featured today and Monday at the Lyric theatre. It's that gateway between New Mexico and Colorado, where in the old days range wars and differences were settled with bullets.

Dennis Morgan is starred, as the cattle baron who is swindled out of a vast estate. He organizes a band of hardened homesteaders and together they combat the crooks to regain property and re-establish law and order.

Will Rogers Voice To Be Heard Again

Excerpts from the broadcasts of one of America's great folk heroes will be a new presentation by ABC. The hero world, of course, is Will Rogers. The new presentation will bring the voice and spontaneous humor of the famed gun-chucking rope-twirling Oklahoman for the first time Tuesday, at 5:55 p.m. The five-minute program will be heard locally on KBST.

The program has been ordered for two hundred stations of the ABC radio network, for a period of ten weeks. Massive research and editing conducted by the Rogers company, estate for Will Rogers, from the vast collection of Rogers, celebrated radio broadcasts, has made available over ten hours of the best of the Rogers wit and comment. From this material, some 130 five-minute programs, containing the Rogers outlook on life and his commentaries thereof, material as timely today as it was in the recent past, has been made available. The recorded excerpts are of top-flight quality.

For Halloween

A mystery melodrama with emphasis on suspense is "The Scarf," which will be offered as a Halloween attraction at the Jet theatre. This will be a midnight feature Wednesday night. Principals in the picture are Mercedes McCambridge and John Ireland, shown here.

High Steppin'

Gene Nelson and Virginia Mayo are presented in a dance-fouting, one of the specialty numbers in the musical comedy, "Painting The Clouds With Sunshine." This Technicolor piece is the featured attraction at the Ritz theatre today and Monday.

The Week's Playbill

Picture Puts Sorority Life In Spotlight

RITZ
SUN.-MON. — "Painting The Clouds With Sunshine," with Dennis Morgan and Virginia Mayo.
TUES.-WED. — "Take Care Of My Little Girl," with Jeanne Crain, Dale Robertson and Jean Peters.
THURS.-FRI. — "California Passage," with Forrest Tucker and Adele Mara.
SAT. — "Try And Get Me," with Frank Lovejoy.
JET
SUN.-MON. — "Second Woman," with Robert Young and Betsy Drake.
TUES.-WED. — "On The Riviera," with Danny Kaye and Gene Tierney.
WED. MIDNIGHT — Halloween show, "The Scarf," with John Ireland and Mercedes McCambridge.
THURS.-FRI. — "Branded," with Alan Ladd and Mona Freeman.
SAT. — "When The Redskins Rode," with Jon Hall and Mary Castle.

The pros and cons of sorority life are given full treatment in a new picture that is billed at the Ritz Tuesday and Wednesday. Its title is "Take Care Of My Little Girl," and the girl in the case is Jeanne Crain. Youthfulness and brightness of college life is captured in this story, which also dwells into the less pleasant aspects of sorority life when it is brought under the charges of snobbishness. The picture is in Technicolor. The picture brings attractive Jeanne Crain back to a similar setting as that in her popular picture, "Marilyn." Here she takes the role of the daughter of a Greek letter society member who enters a midwestern university idealistic about her mother's sorority. But she becomes disillusioned by firsthand learning of its inequities and infirmities. The story is depicted as being from authentic experiences of the story's author, Peggy Goodwin. Co-starred with Miss Crain are Dale Robertson, Jean Peters and Mimi Gaynor. Others in the cast include Jeffrey Hunter, Betty Lynn, Helen Westcott, Lenka Peterson, Carol Brannon and Natalie Schafer.

STATE
SUN.-MON. — "The Company She Keeps," with Elizabeth Scott and Dennis O'Keefe.
TUES.-WED. — "Scarlet Street," with Edward G. Robinson and Joan Bennett.
THURS. — "Hunt The Man Down," with Gig Young and Lyn Roberts.
FRI.-SAT. — "Trail Of Robin Hood," with Roy Rogers.

Suicide Is Verdict
Farran tests established the presence of gunpowder on the hands of Ben LeFever, prominent Howard county oil man who died of gunshot wound near here Tuesday evening. Justice of Peace W. O. Leonard said that he therefore had entered a coroner's verdict of suicide in the case.

LYRIC
SUN.-MON. — "Raton Pass," with Dennis Morgan and Patricia Neal.
TUES.-WED. — "Last For Gold," with Glenn Ford and Ida Lupino.
THURS.-FRI.-SAT. — "Stallion Canyon," with Carolina Cotton and Ken Curtis.
TERRACE
SUN.-MON. — "The Doolins Of Oklahoma," with Randolph Scott, Robert Young and Betsy Drake.
TUES.-WED. — "Cry Danger," with Dick Powell and Rhonda Fleming.
THURS.-FRI. — "The Great Dan Patch," with Dennis O'Keefe and Gail Russell.
SAT. — "Highway 301," with Steve Cochran and Virginia Grey.

Parole Problems Are Dramatized In State Film

The problems of a girl on parole are dramatized in the picture, "The Company She Keeps," offered today and Monday at the State theatre. Elizabeth Scott, Jane Greer and Dennis O'Keefe are the principal players. Miss Scott plays the sympathetic parole officer and Miss Greer appears as a girl just released from a state prison. O'Keefe is a newspaper columnist who has been Miss Scott's admirer. The arrival of the newcomer on the scene changes things, and the newspaperman falls in love with the pretty parolee. The girl, however, cannot marry without the consent of her parole officer and that of the state board. This restriction imposes dramatic complications which lead to the picture's climax. Background of the story serves to show the work being done by modern parole boards. Others in the cast are John Hoyt, James Bell, Fay Baker and Don Beddoe.

Three Dallas Sisters Build Million Dollar Business In Maternity Frocks

By DOROTHY ROE Associated Press Women's Editor

Half the people in the world are women, and most of them sooner or later have babies.

Starting with this well-authenticated premise, Elsie Frankfurt, a young Texan as smart as she is pretty, built up a business which has just won for her a unique honor.

Elsie has been elected the first woman member of the Young Presidents' organization, one of the most exclusive clubs in America. Each member must be president of a firm doing an annual gross business of a million dollars and all are under 30.

machines and during the first year did a business of $100,000, still making just the one style of maternity dress.

Asked how they managed to hire salesmen to work up a national distribution to stores, Elsie said simply:

"Oh, another of our friends was pregnant, so she wore the dress to New York and sold it to all the big buying offices. Before we got the machines installed we had orders from 60 big stores all over the country."

Today, in addition to their manufacturing firm, the sisters have eight retail stores — two in Dallas and others in Indianapolis, Detroit, Cleveland, Los Angeles, Beverly Hills and San Francisco.

Louise has married since and produced two children, Edna now has three offspring, and Elsie is still unmarried. Each new "expectancy" period among the married sisters is the occasion of a batch of new maternity dress designs, which literally are home-tested. Says Elsie:

"It isn't really necessary for Edna and Louise to keep having babies, but it certainly is helpful."

Keep One Eye On Present Furniture When Purchasing Upholstered Items

In the average household, single pieces of upholstered furniture are generally bought at one time. The one new piece must be reconciled to a room full of old or at least got-so-new-furniture.

The upholstered piece added to the room must settle down amiably in color and style with the furniture that is already there. So your left eye must be kept on the present furniture while your right eye concentrates on the room plan toward which you are working.

In decorating, rules serve only as a departure. For instance, many rules can be made for the selection of upholstered furniture, but every rule can be broken and successful rooms result!

In selecting chairs, consider those who use the room. Father's chair, as a rule, should have a high enough back to serve as a head rest. It is mother who sits and sews and doesn't need a high back. Those upholstered armless chairs are excellent for women who sew because they permit complete elbow freedom.

These small chairs are comfortable—take up little room—relieve a too upholstered look of large pieces—can be easily shifted, for they are light weight.

An upholstered piece does not have to be bulky and overstuffed to be comfortable. Often, a smaller piece, which is well-built, is more comfortable and will not give the room a crowded look. It is better to select chairs and sofas with simple, neat lines.

Let your emotional need of change find expression in the upholstery! By variations in upholstery, trims and flourishes, a chair or sofa can be made to assume a dozen different personalities and fit comfortably and well into as many different types of settings.

To select your decorative fabrics for upholstered pieces, there are many points to consider. There is variety of yarn used in warp and filler for color and surface effects and for interesting weave details. Slub yarns, cross-dyed, offer salt and pepper effects that look new. Blending fiber variety adds to the utility and durability of these fabrics for many are "crush and mat resistant."

Patterned surfaces in upholstery fabrics are found in many types—matelasses in leaf and scroll designs — in multicolors — in self-tones and textures with seed slub yarns—in novelty yarns and boucle trims; damasks—cotton and rayon—mercerized in three dimensional effects—splash yarns in a satin damask—glittering metallic yarns to highlight rich damask patternings; tapestries, some modern—other traditional—machine-made needlepoints that resemble hand-made—yarn mixtures; pile boucles or fringes boast of novel fiber blends—jacquard pile variety adds to the interest combining velvet and jacquards—monochrome—trendy effects—multicolors—florals, large and small.

Pattern may be just a nubby light and shadow effect created by the weave or it may be actual pile in self-tones woven into the fabric. These textured upholstery fabrics are worth a special classification, because they are so useful.

These new decorative upholstery fabrics have three important features in common — soft to the touch; greatly increased eye interest; and, constructed to give the longer wearing qualities people expect of their home furnishing fabrics.

As in working out color effects, the quality of each pattern used is almost as important as the pattern chosen. Either a plain or figured surface should predominate and in most rooms the plain surfaces win.

Miss Baker will be manager of the concern here. She is a graduate of Bob Jones High School Academy in Cleveland, Tenn., and later attended Hardin-Simmons university. She lived in Springfield, Mo., until the fall of 1949 when she moved to Abilene to enter HSU. She moved to Big Spring in December of 1950.

GULP!! - I THOUGHT MISS PAMELA WOULD BE HAPPY, HAVING GOTTEN RID OF HER LAST HUSBAND, THE PRINCE, FOR ONLY 5 MILLION DOLLARS - BUT, LOOK AT THIS!!

-and so I'm coming back to the hills to find a simple girl for my cousin Smelvin. HE'S RIGHT!! THAR'S NO SIMPLER GALS NOWHAR, THAN IN DOGPATCH!!

YOU WILL PRETEND TO BE MY AGED AUNT - AND I WILL PRETEND TO BE POOR!! - THAT WILL KEEP FORTUNE-HUNTERS AWAY. MAYBE I'LL FIND A REAL MAN - A POWERFUL, SILENT, PRIMITIVE TYPE - WITH HAIR ON HIS CHEST -

Synopsis: "MY SIRE RETURNED FROM ADVENTURING ACROSS THE WORLD AND HELD MOMMIE IN HIS ARMS WHILE HE WHISPERED TO HER THINGS THAT MADE HER CRY HAPPILY."

"THEN THEY ACTED VERY SILLY OVER THOSE TWO USELESS INFANTS WHO HAVE TAKEN MY PLACE IN MOMMIE'S ARMS."

"I GUESS THEY DON'T WANT ME ANY MORE. I GUESS MOMMIE LOVES THOSE TWO BABIES MORE THAN ME," BUT JUST WAIT UNTIL MY SIRE FINDS OUT THEY ARE ONLY GIRLS!"

"SO I GOT MY SWORD AND A FEW TRUSTED COMPANIONS AND STARTED OUT TO LIVE MY LONELY LIFE DOWN BY THE SEA WHERE THE SHIPS ARE. BUT JUST AS I WAS PASSING THE DOOR, I MADE A SOUND THAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN MISTAKEN FOR A SOB AND MY SIRE LOOKED UP!"

"THEN THEY GAVE A GLAD SHOUT AND SEIZED ME IN GREAT ROUGH HANDS AND WAS SURPRISED AT HOW BIG AND STRONG I WAS. I GUESS MAYBE I AM TOO BIG A MAN FOR THAT GENTLE PLACE IN MOMMIE'S ARMS. LET THE TWO BRATS HAVE IT!"

"THEN THE MEN ARRIVED WITH HIS SADDLEBAGS AND I WAS TOLD THERE WERE PRESENTS FOR ME....."

"..... BUT FIRST HE HAD BRIGHT THINGS FOR MOMMIE, AND THEY ACTED VERY SILLY, I THOUGHT."

"THEN THE WARRIOR PRINCE WHO IS MY FATHER GAVE ME A REAL SWORD AND SHIELD AND THINGS I HAVE NEEDED FOR A LONG TIME. NOW I AM READY FOR ADVENTURE!"

NEXT WEEK - Adventure.

RUSTY RILEY

CRUM'LL DO ANYTHING TO KEEP THAT HORSE OF HIS 'POO-SAH', FROM GETTIN' BEAT... I FIGGERED HE'D TRY TAMPERIN' WITH OUR HARNESS OR SULKY, BUT I THINK HE'S GOT A NEW GIMMICK!

TELL MR. LEWIS AND MR. JACKSON ALL ABOUT IT... THEIR DETECTIVE AGENCY DOES A LOT OF WORK AT SMALL RACE TRACKS, GO THEY'LL KNOW HOW TO HANDLE IT!

TWO OF CRUM'S STOOGES ARE WORKIN' HERE... RUNNIN' THE SHOOTIN' GALLERY AND THE FERRIS WHEEL... MEBBE YOU'VE NOTICED THE BIG WHEEL IS REAL CLOSE TO THE RACE TRACK FENCE.

YES, I NOTICED THAT... I THOUGHT OF HAVING IT STOPPED DURING THE RACES... IT MIGHT FRIGHTEN A HORSE!

WELL, THESE OWL HOOTS ARE FIGGERIN' TO USE A POWERFUL AIR GUN... MOST LIKELY A TARGET PISTOL... THEY'VE GOT IT HID UNDER THE SEAT CUSHION OF CAR TEN ON THE FERRIS WHEEL... IT'S A GOOD BET THEY'RE UP TO NO GOOD!

LEAVE IT TO US, TEX... WE'LL TAKE CARE OF THEM.

OKAY, RUSTY! GET OUT THERE AND DRIVE A GOOD RACE... JUST KEEP YER EYE ON CRUM'S DRIVER AN' DONT WORRY... EV'RYTHING'S UNDER CONTROL!

RIGHT, TEX... I'M NOT AFRAID!

WHAT'S OUR FIRST MOVE, LEWIS?

COME ON... WE'RE GOING OVER TO THE FERRIS WHEEL AND, IF POSSIBLE, WE'RE GOING TO GET ABOARD IN CAR TEN!!

HOLD IT, JACKSON!... LOOK! THEY'VE STOPPED THE WHEEL WITH CAR TEN AT THE TOP!

PROBABLY WITH ONE OF THOSE HOOTS IN IT! C'MON... I'VE GOT AN IDEA!

I WANT YOU TO GET THAT ENGINEER AWAY FROM THAT MACHINERY FOR A FEW MINUTES AS SOON AS THE RACE STARTS... I DONT CARE HOW YOU DO IT, BUT GET HIM AWAY!

THAT GILLY OLD SCHOOL BOARD AND THEIR STUPID RULES MAKE ME SO MAD I COULD--

CALM YOURSELF, DEAR--

RANTING AND RAVING WON'T HELP US--

BUT ACCORDING TO THEIR SILLY LAW, WE CAN'T ENROLL ANNIE IN SCHOOL, BUT MUST ENROLL ROSE--

IT'S THE COUNTY LAW-- EVERY CHILD BETWEEN THE AGES OF SIX AND SIXTEEN MUST BE ENROLLED IN A SCHOOL BY THEIR PARENTS OR GUARDIANS--

WE ARE ANNIE ROONEY'S GUARDIANS--

COMMON-SENSE AND JUSTICE WOULD SAY WE ARE ACTUALLY AND LITERALLY HER GUARDIANS, BUT COMMON-SENSE AND THE LAW DO NOT ALWAYS AGREE--

AS A MATTER OF FACT WE ARE TWO LAW BREAKERS WHO CAN BE SENT TO JAIL FOR THE CRIME OF HARBORING A CHILD WITHOUT THE WRITTEN CONSENT OF ITS PARENTS OR GUARDIANS--

IT IS OUR DUTY AS LAW-ABIDING CITIZENS TO TURN ANNIE OVER TO THE PROPER AUTHORITIES--

WHY, JOHN HENRY ROBINSON!!

HAVE YOU LOST YOUR SENSES? HAVE YOU--

DONT GET EXCITED, DEAR-- I'M QUOTING FROM LAW BOOKS-- DONT WORRY, WE'LL FIND SOME WAY TO KEEP ANNIE WITH US--

DONT YOU WORRY, ZERO--ME AN' ROSE AIN'T STARTED TO SCHOOL YET, BUT HER DADDY SEZ WE'RE GONNA START PRETTY SOON-- AFTER HE FIXES A FEW LITTLE THINGG--

... LATER, MATO, SON OF THE CHIEF OF KEMBA, STUMBLED ONTO A STRANGE OBJECT WHILE HUNTING-- A HUMAN LEG PROTRUDED FROM THE FOLIAGE!

FEARSTRUCK BUT POISED, MATO AIMED HIS SPEAR. "I AM NEITHER AN ENEMY NOR FOOD," SAID A CALM VOICE. "RELEASE ME-- I WILL GET YOU MEAT."

FURTHER CAJOLERY ASSURED MATO AND HE LIFTED THE BRANCH... AND SOON THE STRANGER KEPT HIS WORD!

THEY PROCEEDED IN SILENCE, TARZAN DEEPLY PERTURBED OVER HIS LOSS OF MEMORY-- WHEN MATO POINTED TO A CRUMPLED BODY AHEAD.

New FAB washes clothes
WHITER WITH NO BLEACHING!

Yes, Whiter and Cleaner than any soap with bleaching!

NEW FAB IS MILD! SO EASY ON WASHABLE COLORS AND YOUR HANDS!

IT'S AMAZING - BUT TRUE! New Fab washes clothes whiter without bleaching, keeps washable colors looking brighter! Yes, Fab washes whiter without bleaching than any soap... whiter than any other "no-rinse" suds or any washing product known with bleach in the wash water. What's more, freshly rinsed Fab clothes are cleaner than you can get them with any soap. Fab washes out the grimy dirt, leaves no dulling soap film in the hardest water. As you use Fab, your clothes get whiter and whiter... colors get brighter and brighter... and you have the sweetest-smelling wash in the world!

SAVE WORK! Fab immediately loosens dirt. No soaking is needed! Since Fab keeps dirt floating in the wash water, you can stop rinsing - save half your work!

SAVE CLOTHES! Fab washes so dazzling white, you don't need bleach! So clothes last longer with no bleach to weaken fabrics or fade pretty washable colors.

SAVE HANDS! New Fab is wonderfully mild to hands... and is safe to use on baby's clothes. What's more, Fab is kind to your own pretty washables.

AND, YOU CAN STOP RINSING! Fab gives you the cleanest possible, sweetest-smelling "no-rinse" wash!

FAB WHITENS AS IT WASHES!
