

First Bracero Group Is Due This Week End

First of some 500 Mexican Nationals to be brought here from the Rio Grande valley area are expected to arrive this weekend, Ralph Proctor, Howard county Farm Bureau president, reported today.

Vanguard of the group is expected Friday night or Saturday, Proctor said. The braceros are being brought here by the Valley Products Cooperative, Harlingen, and the Howard Farm Bureau.

Local Bureau members have already submitted applications for 348 of the workers, the president said. These applications are now being processed and additional requests for pickers are being accepted.

Joe Gore, West Texas representative of the VPC, was in Big Spring Wednesday to complete arrangements of the transfer. The braceros are being contracted for a six-week period.

Farmers must provide bedding, housing, utilities, and cooking utensils. Cost for crews and trucks is $15 deposit on each worker (no refund), wages of $1.50 per hundred for picking and 50 cents per hundred for weighing, hauling, and crew management, including transportation and insurance. An option is available for farmers not wishing to have cotton hauled, said Proctor.

Farmers who plan to share crews can go together in paying the $1 charge, according to the Farm Bureau officer.

Texas Oil Heir To Wed Egyptian

Shepherd King III, wealthy young Texan, places an engagement ring on the finger of Samia Gamal, Egyptian belly dancer, in Paris. King, 26, from Houston and Dallas, is 6-feet, 3-inches tall and red haired. His fiancée, 27, and a movie actress, has danced before King Farouk of Egypt a few times. Wealthy Young Texan Plans To Wed Egyptian Fencer

PARIS, Oct. 4. — Sheppard King — wealthy young Texan — philosophically shrugged off today his mother's threats to disinherit him and said he still plans to marry an Egyptian belly dancer.

"My mother has often made those threats before," said the tall red-head, who got engaged to Samia Gamal after knowing her about four hours.

King said his mother, Mrs. Bonner King, telephoned him from Houston last night to protest against his wedding plans, which include King's becoming a Moslem.

"She told me to come home immediately," said King, adding that the conversation never got very far and that his mother had hung up on him.

"It's nothing to get worked up over," said King, who put Samia, 27, dancer and movie actress, on a plane for Cairo Wednesday night.

"I've gone through this most of my life. You know how mothers are. The future will take care of itself. Things have a way of ironing themselves out."

He said Samia had been sort of upset but "I explained that it had nothing to do with her personally. Matter of fact, we had anticipated this from the very beginning."

King saw Samia dancing — for pleasure, not professionally — in

Leaking Boat Brings Curtain Refugees To US

FORT PIERCE, Fla., Oct. 4. — A leaking boat with 11 refugees from behind the "Iron Curtain" made port here Wednesday and the passengers asked for asylum in the United States.

The Immigration Service arranged to place the group — four men, four women and three children — aboard a train to be taken to this detention station on Ellis Island in New York Harbor.

Their boat, an auxiliary schooner of Swedish registry named the Walprio, had a hole in its side and was leaking badly when it docked.

Their food supply was down to emergency rations.

The refugees reported they left Sweden, July 22, and made a brief stop in the Dominican Republic. None had travel papers.

All the passengers were Estonians except one Polish woman.

Numerous other groups have made the hazardous Atlantic crossing in small craft since the Russian move into Eastern Europe. A total of 488 refugees from Soviet-dominated territory have arrived in small boats since 1945. Charitable and church groups have sponsored many of them for permanent residence in this country. None has been returned.

THIS LAD IS IN A HURRY

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 4. — Three years ago Jerry Buckley flibbed about his age and enlisted in the Army. He was 14.

The Army learned the truth about his age when Jerry was wounded in Korea. Jerry was sent home with an honorable discharge.

Wednesday Jerry persuaded his mother, Mrs. Marie Ballouza, to go to court seeking appointment as his legal guardian. As such, she can authorize him to enter the Navy. Within three months Jerry will be 18 and can enter the Navy without having to obtain permission.

But Jerry can't wait that long.

HCJC Cafeteria To Open On Friday

Cafeteria for Howard County Junior College is due to open Friday morning.

This unit of HCJC has been out of operation due to renovation and repair of the building which it occupies. The frame structure, moved from the air base area last year, has been brick veneered to match the remainder of the college plant.

Other improvements at the college are progressing. Sidewalks in front of the buildings are complete except for finishing touches. Most of the canteen base for the drives is in place. The drives will be paved as soon as the base has been properly compacted.

Plan Guided Missile Plant in Tennessee

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4. — A $25 million plant for the production of guided missiles of a type not disclosed will be built at Bristol, Tenn., the Navy announced today.

The Navy said it is now acquiring the necessary land, and that the plant will be built by Sperry and Company, as general supervisor. It said construction will require about 15 months.

The plant will employ some 1,500 workers, the Navy said.

Puppet Show Due To Be Shown Here

A puppet show, "Jack's Friend Herbert," will be presented for the benefit of students in Howard county and Big Spring schools Monday.

It will be staged in the Municipal auditorium with three performances scheduled at 9 and 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. James Sargent, nationally known teachers-puppeteers, will be in charge of the show.

The puppet program will deal with the subject of dental health. Designed to emphasize the fundamentals of dental hygiene, it is interspersed with wit, humor, dialects and music.

The show consists of a miniature stage on which the drama is performed with hand puppets. Parents and pre-school children in each school district are invited. There will be no admission charge.

The educational program is presented through the cooperation of

Enrollment At HCJC At 402

Enrollment at Howard County Junior College has reached 402.

For the first time, non-veteran registrations have exceeded those of veterans, President E. C. Dodd announced.

Of the total enrolled, 172 are veterans.

Dodd said that there was a possibility that the head count of those taking courses at or through the junior college might reach 450.

Pending is a class for employes at the Big Spring State Hospital. Dodd said there also was a possibility of some other extension courses being offered.

Tyrone And Linda Have Baby Girl

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 4. — Tyrone Power has a new sweetheart.

Her name is Romina Francesca Power, an dsh's two days old.

The six-pound, 11-ounce youngster was born Tuesday to Tyrone's wife, Actress Linda Christian. Mother and daughter are "doing fine."

The Powers coined the name Romina to recall Rome, where they fell in love. The Francescas come from the church of Santa Francesca Romana, where they were married in January, 1949.

West, Central Meet Saturday

The pace setting College Heights team will be idle this week while other contingents in the World School football circuit have at it. Play is scheduled to get underway at 9 a.m. Saturday at Steer Stadium.

The 9 o'clock engagement pits Central Ward against West Ward. At 10 a.m., North Ward tangles with Airport while an hour later Kate Morrison goes to the mat with East Ward.

Outside of College Heights, which has won two games, West Ward is the only other unbeaten club. West has played only one game.

College Heights swings back into action next week, meeting North Ward.

Yearlings Host Colts At 7:30

The Big Spring Junior high school Yearlings, shaping up as one of the finest teams in history, take on the Sweetwater Colts here at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

A good turnout is expected, barring a change in the weather. The Yearlings, coached by Earl Crawford and Roy Baird, have caught the fancy of the local 'ns.

The Yearlings, who look all the more impressive because they wear bright red uniforms, have bowled over Odessa's Crockett, Lamesa and Snyder in that order.

Part of the team went to Colorado City Tuesday night and played that school's B squad to a 13-13 deadlock. They'll all be in action tonight.

Sweetwater could provide the locals' sternest test of the season. The Colts also come up with a crackerjack eleven.

Probable starters for the Yearlings tonight are Lefty Don Reynolds and Larry Isaacs at ends, Dub Graves and James State at tackles, Jack Milam and Warren Anderson at guards, Carlisle Robinson at center and Nugent Reid, Tom Taylor, Brick Johnson and Buddy Cooley in the backfield.

The Yearling line is big and mobile, the backs fast and hard charging.

Only weakness the team has shown thus far is the passing department but the aerialists have exhibited marked improvement of late.

Game time originally was down for 8 o'clock but moved up 30 minutes.

Sweetwater has defeated Colorado City 20-7, and lost to Robert E. Lee of San Angelo, 7-0. Probable starters for the Colts will be Shillings and Arnold at

Wildcats Sook Scoring Punch

ABILENE, Oct. 4.—(Sp)—Battered but perhaps wiser as a result of their 23-7 beating last week in Chattanooga, the Abilene Christian College Wildcats go to Midland Saturday for a night skirmish with the Texas Western College Miners.

The game is being sponsored by the Midland Optimist Club.

After three games the 'Cats are still hunting an offense that will produce touchdowns rather than statistics. ACC held the statistical edge over Chattanooga but lost by 26 points.

The Miners also are acquainted with defeat, having lost their opener to the strong North Texas State Eagles, but TW rebounded nicely last week with a second half spurt that swamped Joe Coleman's New Mexico Aggies, 41 to 7, after holding only a 13-7 halftime lead.

ACC lost its opener to Johnny Bright and his Drake Bulldogs but came back to trim East Texas State, 14 to 6, before the mis-match with Chattanooga.

The Miners, although advertised as young, inexperienced and laden with beginners, will be plenty tough, according to scout reports from Assistant Coach Bill McCure, who watched the Miners trounce the Aggies last week.

Scribe Opines A&M Will Win

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK, Oct. 4. (AP)—How can you concentrate on football when all you hear is World Series? But here are the gut-edge winners of this weekend's big games.

Texas A&M over Oklahoma: Oklahoma supposedly has some worries about its line.

Texas over North Carolina: Both teams come into this inter-sectional contest with good marks.

Arkansas over TCU. Rice over LSU. Tulane over Baylor. SMU over Missouri.

Ohio State over Michigan State: The big game of the week possibly the big game of the season. The home field and Vic Janowicz give Ohio State a thin edge.

Notre Dame over Detroit: Now that the Notre Dame coaches have found the fullback they needed in Nell Worden, the Irish could make their season at least 8-2.

Tennessee over Duke: Tennessee has that old Army man, General Nayland, and that experience.

Northwestern over Army. This is the wrong year for the Cadets in Big Ten territory.

Washington over Southern California: The Washingtons should have enough to get by the Trojans, who are just beginning to find themselves.

Pennsylvania over Dartmouth-Illinois over Wisconsin. Finishing the others in a hurry: FRIDAY

Boston University over Louisville, Miami (Fla.) over Florida State, Mississippi over Boston College, Washington State over Oklahoma A&M.

SATURDAY EAST: Columbia over Harvard, Cornell over Colgate, Holy Cross over Fordham, Penn State over Lafayette, Princeton over Navy, Yale over Brown.

SOUTH: Alabama over Vanderbilt, Clemson over North Carolina State, Georgia over Mississippi State, Kentucky over Georgia Tech, Maryland over George Washington.

Trapped Dodger Scores On Error

The sequence camera catches sixth-inning action as Brooklyn Dodger third baseman Billy Cox gets home safely after being trapped in a squeeze play in the second playoff game for the National League championship at the Polo Grounds, New York. Giants' pitcher George Spencer (30) tags Cox (upper left) but

Lippy Leo's Incredible Giants Underdogs In Series Today

Dave Koslo Set To Face Yanks

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK, Oct. 4. (AP)—The incredible New York Giants miracle man of '31 charge into the World Series today in the familiar but becoming role of 8-to-5 underdogs to the seasoned New York Yankees.

Floating on a pink cloud in a world all their own after the greatest comeback in baseball history, the Giants face the stern reality of Alie (Double No Hit) Reynolds (17-87) in Yankee Stadium opener at 12 noon (CST).

To meet this challenge of the well-fed Yanks, accustomed to World Series hullabaloo, Manager Leo Durocher has named Dave Koslo (10-9), a journeyman southpaw who hasn't started in two weeks. It's another gamble by Take-A-Change-Leo in a series of inspired managerial moves.

Nothing that left-handers gave the Yanks fits all season — and Yogi Berra, in particular — Leo reached for the only lefty starter on his arm-weary staff. Koslo spends at least half his time in the bullpen, except when his "cousins" from St. Louis are in town.

No matter what Leo does, the Yanks who watched the Giants snatch Wednesday's dramatic 5-4 clincher from Brooklyn, will not take his club lightly. The record books show the Giants often are slow — but never out.

Bobby Thomson's three-run homer into the lower left field seats in the ninth inning was one of the most dramatic blows ever struck. It rescued the Giants from the brink of disaster and wrenched a pennant from the grip of the desperate Dodgers. In dollars and cents it probably meant about $200,000 to the winning athletes in World Series money.

The Giants flopped in a miserable 11-game losing streak in April. They were given up for dead Aug. 11, trailing Brooklyn by 12½ games. They clawed back, game by game, until they tied Brooklyn and forced the second National League playoff.

Winning the first playoff game, 2-1, losing the second, 10-0, they were backed up against the wall in the ninth inning of the final game. After pulling up to lie in the seventh, they saw their hard work go down the drain in the eighth when Sal Maglie wild pitched one run home and the Dodgers hammered home two more with their bats.

Trailing 4-1 in the ninth with big Don Newcombe firing a four-hitter, Al Dark stirred a faint hope with a single off Gil Hodges' glove. When Don Mueller singled, the Polo Grounds settlement of 34,320 began to stir. But Monte Irvin soured to Hodges for out No. 1.

Whitey Lockman set the joint field wall to score Dark, narrowing the gap to 4-2. Sliding into third on the hit, Mueller twisted his ankle and was carried from the field. On the way he passed Ralph Branca, striding in to replace the weary Newcombe.

Thomson, the goat on some home-base running and inadequate fielding, looked at a called strike

The next pitch was a high fast ball and the Scot from Staten Island slammed a sinking liner that just cleared the high green wall in front of the lower left field seats.

A hoarse roar echoed off Cogan's Bluff as Thomson rounded the bases with a wide grin. Wild-eyed Giants pounded Thomson's back and climbed on his shoulders as they loosened the pent up emotion of weeks of back-bending strain.

The old Polo Grounds which saw the great John McGraw's teams of years ago never saw any wilder victory celebration than it did Wednesday afternoon. Thousands grouped on the centerfield grass and raised volleys of cheers toward the clubhouse windows.

They yelled for Thomson. They yelled for Durocher. They yelled for anybody. It didn't make any difference. No pennant had flown from the Polo Ground flagpole since 1937 and they were making the most of it.

If history repeats itself, this determined Giant club could go on to win the Series too.

The 1914 Boston Braves, miracle men of their day when they surged from last to first to win the pennant, swept past the favored A's in four straight.

In 1943 the Cardinals stormed past Brooklyn in the stretch and knocked off the Yankees in a tremendous upset.

Because the Yanks have more pitching depth, a steadier infield, better catching and at least an even break in the outfield, the pick here is the American Leaguers in six. But then you never can figure inspiration on paper.

Hank Thompson was slated to replace the injured Mueller in right field for the Giants against the right-handed Reynolds.

Williamson Foresees Wins For Baylor And Arkansas

By PAUL B. WILLIAMSON
The game of the week from the standpoint of sheer football will be Tennessee to stop Duke.

Additional real rock'em 'n' sock'em will be seen in Baylor over Tulane, Oklahoma over Texas A&M, Fordham over Holy Cross, Xavier Ohio over Miami Ohio, Heidelberg over Muskingum, Navy over Princeton, and Camp Pendleton to stop the zipping San Francisco U. (the last on Sunday).

Among older big games of the week take Arkansas over TCU Saturday, Cornell by a point over Colgate, Illinois to make a touchdown over Wisconsin, the same for Georgia Tech over Kentucky, Stanford barely eeking out over Michigan, the same for Navy over Princeton, College of the Pacific to trim Oregon.

Others include Dartmouth a touchdown better than Penn., Purdue and Iowa pretty even but take Purdue, the same for Temple over Rutgers and Texas over North Carolina.

Also close should be Washington and Lee to shave West Virginia. All the other contests in the upper brackets should go by from one to seven or more touchdowns to the opponent with the respectively higher Williamson rating.

PREDICTIONS FOR WEEK ENDING OCT. 5, 1931

EXPLANATION: Team in first (left) column is picked by Williamson as the WINNER. It is also the HOME team unless its opponent is second in right column. In such cases the second column LOSER is the home team.

Under general group: (1) Major football games. (2) All other football games by regions. (3) Junior College games. Home teams in alphabetical order under each division. All teams below with no ratings given these have not started previously this season or their scores to date have not hit the wire service.

Buffs Seeking To Even Set

HOUSTON, Oct. 4. (AP)—Houston's Buffs stage a back-to-the-wall fight tonight in the Dixie Series.

Birmingham's Barons, leading 2 games to 2, and Houston came here for the final games — if more than one is needed to decide the issue.

Mike Clark gets the pitching call for Houston, opposing Mickey Haefner, the former big leaguer who trimmed the Buffs in the first game last week.

Birmingham won the opener 7-3. Houston took the next two — 1-0 and 3-0, but Birmingham came back to win the fourth 3-2 and the fifth 4-3.

WRITERS PICK YANKS TO WIN

NEW YORK, Oct. 4. (AP)—The majority of the sports writers covering the World Series see the New York Yankees beating the New York Giants for their third straight world championship.

Most of those who picked the Yankees in a poll conducted by the Associated Press figure the American League champs will take the series in six games.

Brooks Is Top 1-AAA Scorer

Leading scorer in District A-AAA is Ralph Brooks, rugged Midland senior, and Ray Taylor of Lamesa, each of whom has scored 36 points.

Taylor is an end. Jerry Millsaps, the Tornadoes' all-district performer last year, has been on the throwing end of all of Taylor's aeriels.

Third man in the scoring parade is Tom Caskey of Plainview, who has counted five touchdowns.

Three Big Spring players—Speck Franklin, Doyle Maynard and J. C. Armistead — have counted 12 points each.

Dressen Is Due To Retain Job

By WILL GRIMSLEY
NEW YORK, Oct. 4. (AP)—Did Bob Thomson's dramatic ninth-inning home run which propelled the Giants into the World Series strike a nail for Charlie Dressen's job as manager of Brooklyn?

Some baseball men insisted today it did, but the only man who could say for sure, Brooklyn President Walter O'Malley, hinted broadly in the peppery little pilot would be back in 1953.

"When all the furore of the baseball races and World Series has died down we'll make an announcement," O'Malley said.

Asked if the Dodgers' collapse to the final weeks, during which Brooklyn lost a 13 1/2 game lead, might militate against Dressen's re-employment chances, O'Malley replied:

"We made up our minds on this matter before we started losing ground. I'll say this and you may draw your own conclusions. We don't feel the Dodgers collapsed. We have to give some credit to the Giants' near-900 ball the last two months."

"Also, a manager can't hit and can't pitch for his players," Dressen is confident he did a creditable job and is willing to bet he'll be back at Ebbets Field next year.

B STRINGERS PROMOTED Injuries Could Handicap Steers Against Ysleta

The manpower problem has become so critical in the Big Spring high school football camp that a number of players have been promoted from the B string to fill the gaps.

At least seven boys are favoring injuries of some sort. One of them, Ben Hill, may be out for the season. He was injured in the first game of the season and hasn't reported back since.

Others with assorted hurts include Jimmy Phillips, James (Ray) Ellison, Frank Long, Bill Dorsey, Billy Martin and Speck Franklin.

Most of the lads will be in action Friday night against Ysleta but, of course, will be handicapped.

Among those who have been promoted to A string duty from the reserves are James Hollis, a stout sophomore who has been a star in the B string games to date; Don Sweeney, back; and Louis Stipp, tackle.

The Steers have been working hard to perfect defensive strategy in the game, which opens the home season for Big Spring. They made lots of defensive mistakes against Morris last week but stand to profit by them.

"They'll be the decided underdogs in their game with Ysleta but, if they play the ball they're capable of winning, they could achieve their first win of the season. The youngsters have been a little slow in finding themselves but there is lack against Big Spring, an attack built around Jesse Whittenton and Enrique Mata.

Local Lad ENMU Star

Fine passing and points after touchdowns are well known talents of Jack Barron, Eastern New Mexico University quarterback from Big Spring. But it has taken more than these accomplishments to keep his name a constant repeater in the ENMU starting lineup.

Add to these attributes his polished talent as a ball handler, his acute ability to spur his teammates to higher accomplishments, and his aptitude as a mastermind of ENMU offensives. Barron has often been praised for his uncanny ability to hide the ball. His competence in this field has added considerably to the ground gaining averages of Greyhound ball carriers who take in his handoff.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Time was when the Hermleigh Cardinals provided the whole show in District 5-B.

Now, the Coahoma Bulldogs and the Hobbs Panthers appear to be the standout teams and, if Tommy Proctor's Coahoma club can subdue the Panthers in their all-important tussle Oct. 23, the Bulldogs could enter the throne room.

That would probably call for a celebration in the East Howard county town, the likes of which has never been seen.

The Bulldogs, which of course will continue to play their opponents as they come—and the next one is Bronte Friday night—will have the advantage of playing Hobbs in Coahoms.

Hobbs humbled Hermleigh, 21-0, last week to remain unbeaten, untied and unscored on. The Panthers have beaten Leuders, 20-0, Snyder B, 33-0 and Divide, 33-0, in addition to Hermleigh.

Lorraine remains a top contender in 5-B, too. The Lorraine outfit beat Divide, 27-0; Rule, 19-0; and Leuders, 19-0, in that order.

Coahoma also catches Lorraine at home, on Nov. 9.

Trent could provide trouble in the circuit. The Gorillas belted Aspermont, 31-0, in a non-conference tussle last week. Trent plays Lorraine this week. Hobbs will be idle.

FRNKA HAD FINE HIGH SCHOOL RECORD

In ten years of high school football coaching in Texas, Tulane's Henry Frnka scored 163 victories against eight losses and seven ties. At Tulane university, Frnka's teams copped 37, lost five and played one deadlock.

Most everyone knows that Johnny Mack Brown, the Western movie star, played football at Alabama university. Some think he was an All-American.

Actually, Brown won one grid letter at Alabama (in 1925), starred in the Tide's 20-19 win over Washington in the Rose Bowl, then accepted a movie pact. He was never recognized as an All-American.

TECH LOSES STAR BACK FOR HOUSTON CONTEST

LUBBOCK, Oct. 4.—Their best offensive gun silenced, Texas Tech's Red Raiders expect a rugged game with the University of Houston Cougars Saturday night in Houston.

Frank Graves of McKinney, who has averaged 10 yards on his 10 carries, is scheduled to be absent from his right half spot. Graves' leg injury suffered in the Texas A&M game turned out to be more serious than earlier believed. In his place, Coach DeWitt Weaver plans to use Bobby Cavazos, sophomore from Kingsville.

Houston's showing in dropping a 19-0 decision to Baylor and plastering Detroit 33-7 for one of the worst defeats in Tilton history convinced Tech scouts that the inexperienced Red Raiders will be in for a rough evening.

Three freshmen will start defensively for Tech: Kenneth Elmore, tackle from Carlsbad, New Mexico, and Dean White, end from Lubbock, earned starting berths through their work in Tech's 20-7 loss to A&M. Already in the defensive starting lineup is first-year man Vernon (Punk) Whitaker, guard from Batesville, Mississippi,

TECH DUCAT SALES AT ALL-TIME HIGH

LUBBOCK, Oct. 4.—Season ticket sales for Texas Tech's home games reached an all-time high this fall, according to Jimmie Wilson, business manager for athletics.

They totaled 5,975—an increase of nearly 49 per cent over last year's 4,025 sales.

Tickets to the Texas Tech-Texas Christian University game Oct. 13 at night are still available.

Texas Hit Hard By Injuries; Others Ready

By The Associated Press

Southwest Conference teams tapered off today toward a tough round of football games this week end. Except for Texas, all squads appeared at virtually top strength.

In the conference opener at Little Rock Saturday night, when TCU and Arkansas play, there'll be few missing from either squad.

TCU isn't counting on Jim Amburge, reserve fullback, who has a neck injury, but everybody else is ready. Arkansas has Jack Troxell, a halfback, and Pat Summerall, end, favoring assorted hurts but both are expected to be able to go.

Texas had an injury list a yard long. Included were Fullback Phil Branch, Linebacker June Davis, End Bill George, Center Hugh Reeder and Fullback Byron Townsend. All are doubtful participants in Saturday's game in Austin with North Carolina.

Rice was at full strength for LSU at Baton Rouge Saturday night. The Owls went through an hour's rough scrimmage Wednesday.

SMU, which has passing plenty but little running, spent time on its ground attack as the Mustangs polished their offense for Missouri when they meet in Dallas' Cotton Bowl Saturday night.

At College Station, Ray George had his Texas Aggies practicing in private. Spectators were shooed out of the stadium. All members of the squad, including Bob Smith, who had been favoring a back injury, worked at full speed. The Aggies play Oklahoma Saturday.

Baylor's Bears labored hot and heavy for their Saturday night date with Tulane at New Orleans. Ed Moak, a tackle, hasn't recovered from illness to go full duty for several weeks. That means Ken Casner will play both offense and defense.

Opinion Divided On World Series

NEW YORK, Oct. 4. (AP)—Here's how four former major leaguers think the World Series will finish: Met Ott, former Giant manager, Giants in seven games.

Rogers Hornsby, former Giant player, Yankees in six.

Spud Chandler, former Yankee pitcher, Yankees in five.

Bucky Harris, former Yankee manager, Yankees in six.

We May As Well Be Forewarned As To Probable Windy Winter

In an optimistic, if not weak, moment a couple of months back, we suggested that when autumn rains came, farmers would be wise to plant winter cover crops. Not that we are experts in farming any more than weather, but the general idea was that unless something was done to anchor our drouth ridden soils, we would be in for a dusty winter and a choking spring.

Of course it hasn't rained, and the immediate prospects are anything but bright so far as seasoning is concerned. Although time is slipping by, it has not run completely out on us. If some major miracle should come to pass and moisture put in its appearance in any appreciable amount, we still think that an all-time record planting to some kind of small grain or winter peas would be in order.

France Talks Back To Reds And Indicates A Rising From Defeat

Even French diplomacy is perking up these days and talking back to the Russians—something that was unthinkable a year ago, when France was walking on eggs and thanks to its large and active Communist Party, afraid to say boo to the Kremlin.

German units in the NATO forces was strictly defensive in concept, and therefore in no wise violative of the French-Soviet pact of 1944.

WASHINGTON. — Sen. Owen Brewster of Maine is leading an undercover drive to depose GOP National Chairman Guy Gabrielson—because Gabrielson won't join the covert anti-Eisenhower campaign.

It is a firm reply, the French reminded Moscow that it was Russia, not the democracies, which encouraged Hitler's war aims in 1939 by signing a non-aggression pact with Der Fuehrer. The Stalin-Hitler pact freed Hitler to attack the West, in which France was the principal sufferer.

The French further reminded the Kremlin that "every effort to organize the European community seems to be considered by the Soviet government as an act contrary to the interest of peace." The note insisted that the idea of including

German units in the NATO forces was strictly defensive in concept, and therefore in no wise violative of the French-Soviet pact of 1944. Had they been so minded, the French might have pointed out that the Russians were opposed to giving France any voice in the postwar settlements, and objected particularly to allowing France to occupy any part of Germany.

3. Exit Henry Wallace

(On Sept. 12, 1946, the Democrats in New York were to open their political campaign with a "beat Dewey" rally, under auspices of strongly Left-liberal coloration, at which the principal speaker was to be Henry Wallace, Secretary of Commerce.

It would in a large part repudiate the foreign policy which this country has been trying to establish for the last year. In response to my question Mr. Clayton stated that the speech was to be delivered at 7 p.m. Washington time. I then inquired whether or not this speech had been submitted to the Department of State, and the reply was negative.

Tractor Company Stresses Broad Tire Service

The tire department will become a major phase of the Big Spring Tractor Co. business now that the firm has been appointed Firestone dealer for Big Spring, with D. C. Wilkinson in charge of the department.

The Big Spring Tractor Co., which serves as area headquarters for Ford tractors, intends to carry a complete line of Firestone tires for all types of vehicles. Service in this line is due to become a specialty.

Wilkinson, an experienced tire salesman, is well-known in Big Spring, having followed that vocation here for some time. The stock of tires he will have at the Big Spring Tractor Co. will be among the largest in this section.

Wilkinson also will be in charge of Quonset building sales at the Big Spring Tractor Co.

The firm has been distributor for Quonsets here for several years.

The Quonset buildings can be put to many uses on the farm, one of the most important of which is grain storage. They are so valuable for that purpose that in proper cases farmers can get Quonset buildings approved as grain storage in the Agricultural Conservation program. When such approval is granted, the buildings can be purchased for 15 per cent down with payments spread over five years.

Farmers of this area are invited to visit the Big Spring Tractor Co. and inquire about the Quonset buildings.

Triple Service
Rowe's Garage, 1001 Gregg, has three way service for its customers—new cars, used cars and top mechanical work. The business grew out of the expert and careful work of H. M. (Curley) Rowe and his mechanics, and it has never lost that special touch. But it also is popular because of its distributorship for Packard, a hallmark of quality, and those flexible Willys cars. Heating Equipment Due Checking Now

With cold "fronts" already foretelling the approach of winter, E. A. Fiveash, operator of a local plumbing concern, reminds Big Springers that it's time to get their heating equipment in order.

The Fiveash Plumbing company manager called special attention to floor furnaces which should be put in working condition before icy winds start their blasts from the north. Fiveash is fully staffed and equipped to service all makes of the floor furnaces, and also has a few of the heating units for prompt installation.

Also in stock are a number of new water heaters which can be installed immediately. Fiveash offers all types of plumbing and heating service, including repair, adjustment, and installation.

For exposed plumbing, the concern affords an insulation service that could save you the expense of repairs in event pipes are fractured by ice during the coming winter.

Fiveash Plumbing company is also featuring Red Jacket water pumps for persons in this area who secure their water supply from private wells. The automatic, electrically operated pumps are available in a number of sizes, ranging from those suitable for purely home use to large models especially designed for irrigation purposes.

In fact, practically anything in the plumbing line, from new fixtures, fittings, and lines to modernistic white and colored fixtures, is available at Fiveash's, located at 821 E. 3rd street. Any type of repair or installation service may be secured as simply as phoning No. 310.

Loans Available For Improvement On Plumbing

Two types of plumbing loans—FHA and get plan—may be secured through the Fiveash Plumbing company, 821 E. 3rd street.

Terms of up to 36 months are available on the FHA repair loan, which may be secured for either installation or repair financing. The budget plan—"where you pay as you get paid"—may be arranged and service initiated in a single day. The latter is suitable for the purchase of fixtures, service or repair.

Further information may be secured from E. A. Fiveash, telephone No. 310.

Whitest White Goes In Paint Made Here

When it comes to a white paint, hiding power is certainly one of the key factors.

Cactus Paint company, a Big Spring manufacturing concern, uses titanium dioxide for its pigment. Not only does this mineral exceed the hiding power of whites used by several times, but it is not affected in the least by gas and soot fumes. Consequently, Cactus white is a super-white that stays white.

Cactus Paint Company Adds New Mill To Factory Here

A new mill has added substantially to the productive capacity of the Cactus Paint company here.

This new equipment, which helps round out the instruments needed for quality paint manufacture, is capable of turning out 100 gallons per hour.

The precision machine can be adjusted to turn out all grades of paint from rough primer to the finest enamel. This is possible by changing the grinding stones, revolving at tremendously high speeds, to obtain the exact degree of fineness specified.

Gene Campbell, in charge of production, pointed out that this complements the original flint mill which does anything any mill can do but requires longer time.

The addition is another evidence of Cactus progress, just as the selection of Cactus aluminum industrial paint by a major gas company evidences the quality of the product.

Numerous paints, including those from some of the country's leading makers, were tested for the job. On the basis of performance, Cactus got order.

This is not surprising, for the patronage Cactus paints has enjoyed is a progressive thing. Every month brings still more new customers—the industrial and architectural field to add to hundreds of satisfied users.

To handle the growing trade, distributorships have been opened in Odessa, Snyder and San Angelo. In the Big Spring area, all types of Cactus paints can be had at the factory on U.S. 80 just west of the old airport terminal.

In addition to seeing how your paint is made, you also have the advantage of a substantial saving in price. That's because there is no added expense for distributing the paint—a fact that is passed on to customers. The net result is that you can obtain just as good—and indeed better in many cases—paint at unusually attractive prices.

New Label Coming Up For Cactus Paints
Cactus Paint company will market its products soon under a new label.

Design for the label has been approved and the layout has been turned over to the printers. It will be more attractive than the one now employed and will make it easier to identify the high quality paints manufactured here for special use under the rigid West Texas conditions.

It's Time To Lay In Your Winter Anti-Freeze Stock

It's not too early to purchase anti-freeze for your family automobile, that with the colder weather just ahead.

A concern which has plenty of the permanent type anti-freeze on hand at the present time is the R. C. Thomas Magnolia Service Station, located on the Lamesa highway in Big Spring.

The motorist can either purchase the anti-freeze and take it back to Thomas' station for use at a later date or reserve it for that time when he will need it.

All of finest Magnolia products, including gasoline, motor oil, tires and tubes, are stocked by the Thomas establishment.

Complete servicing of vehicles is also accomplished by personnel on duty at the Thomas station. The modern automobile ordinarily requires an oil change every thousand miles. A recommended place to have it done is the Thomas station.

If you are in doubt what type of oil to use in your car, you can consult the employees of the Thomas station for proper briefing.

Expert polishing jobs are also undertaken by the Thomas concern.

The Thomas station also maintains an emergency service subject to call from any motorist within the area. Business telephone number is 600.

Allied Guns Opened Artillery Barrage

Allied guns opened a terrific artillery barrage (1) Oct. 2 in western Korea. Reds entrenched on hills and ridges running northeastward from Korangpo were the targets. Censors held up details on the attack. Meanwhile on the other end of the line South Korean troops who spent three bloody weeks attacking a peak (2) northwest of "Heartbreak Ridge" were driven off it only a day after gaining the summit. Gabrielson Asks Senate Probe To Clear Him Of Any Charges

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4. (AP)—Guy G. Gabrielson, Republican national chairman, asked Senate investigators today to clear him of any "tinge of influence peddling, bribes" or other improper conduct in his contacts with government agencies. Gabrielson made the plea in a statement he filed with the RFC. At immediate issue is his role in negotiations concerning $18.5 million of RFC loans to Carthage-Hydrocol, Inc., a Texas firm of which he is president and general counsel. Gabrielson denied his contacts with RFC in connection with the loans were improper. He said he was appearing before the Senate Investigations Subcommittee at his own request "to refute slander with facts."

He referred only obliquely to demands from some Senate Republicans for his resignation, but did declare he will not quit under fire. "It seemed to me that to resign as Republican chairman in the hope of saving my party embarrassment would have been construed as an admission of improper conduct," he declared.

The subcommittee, headed by Senator Hoey (D-NC), billed today's inquiry as parallel to one it is conducting into the contacts between William M. Boyle, Jr., Democratic national chairman, and the RFC.

Gabrielson, a portly man with a crisp voice, acknowledged he had participated in negotiations with the RFC for modification of the terms of the loans, but emphasized: "In such discussions I neither asked for nor received favors. These were business details, discussed and decided on their merits."

He said the last of the series of three loans themselves had been made five months before he became the GOP chairman. "It is perfectly clear, therefore," he said, "that neither before nor after I became chairman did I receive a fee, or any other compensation, for obtaining a government loan."

"I expect this committee to so state in its report," he added.

In each case, Hoey says, the committee plans to speak out on propriety of the party chairman's conduct.

The twin inquiries drew from Senator McCarran (D-Nev.), chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, a demand that Congress swiftly enact a law forbidding any political party official from accepting a fee or other financial benefit from his contacts with government agencies.

One of Gabrielson's sharp critics on the investigations committee, Senator Nixon (R-Calif.), promised "thorough but fair inquiry." This he said, should include a scrutiny of the awarding of government contracts to the John H. Wood Co., of New York, of which Gabrielson is a part owner.

Another committee member, Senator Mundt (R-SD), phrased his interest this way: "I view both Gabrielson and Boyle as impartially as a couple of guys named Joe. My interest is in whether either of them used improper political influence with government agencies, and profited. We'll go as deeply as we must to get at the facts."

"A Senior at Water Valley" high school has the admiration of Supt. John Frank Jones at Garden City.

Supt. Jones received this note, with a 10-cent piece attached: "Enclosed is one dime that belongs to your school. A mistake in change was made when I bought a drink last night (at the Water Valley-Garden City football game). I think it only right for me to send the dime for the class fund."

CLASS FUND GAINS DIME

"A Senior at Water Valley" high school has the admiration of Supt. John Frank Jones at Garden City. Supt. Jones received this note, with a 10-cent piece attached: "Enclosed is one dime that belongs to your school. TALKS AT SENATE PROBE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4. (AP)—Warren R. Austin told senators today the United States needs men like Ambassador-at-Large Philip C. Jessup on its delegation to the forthcoming United Nations General Assembly in Paris.

Austin was before the subcommittee before Jessup himself returned to resume the day-long testimony he gave Wednesday.

Jessup declared under oath that Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) gave false testimony in swearing earlier that Jessup has been affiliated with six Communist-front organizations.

Jessup said he was presenting evidence which would "unmark Senator McCarthy's alleged proof as a mixture of barefaced falsehoods, distortions and misrepresentations."

As a result of frequent challenging questions by some committee members, Jessup got only about halfway through his 42-page prepared statement, which does not deal with the issue of recognition of Communist China.

Jessup's attitude regarding that matter has come up in testimony before another Senate committee by Harold E. Stassen, former Republican Governor of Minnesota, and by Brig. Gen. Louis J. Feltner, a former Far Eastern intelligence officer now retired.

Stassen on Monday quoted Jessup as saying at an October 1948, roundtable conference at the State Department that "the greater logic" was on the side of those arguing for recognition of Red China.

The State Department followed up with a statement that Jessup does not recall the remark Stassen attributed to him, the department also questioned the accuracy of other testimony by Stassen.

Wednesday night the State Department said Mr. Truman, an adviser of congressional leaders, turned down a 1949 proposal that arms shipments to the Chinese Nationalists be halted.

Stassen had testified Monday that Jessup and Secretary of State Acheson had made such a recommendation at a White House meeting. In its original reply, the State Department said it could find no trace of such a meeting.

Wednesday night, however, the department said in a statement that a session was held Feb. 5, 1949, to discuss a previous recommendation by Maj. Gen. David E. Barr, senior U. S. military representative in China, to stop U. S. arms shipments to the China mainland.

The department said Stassen was erroneous in saying Jessup was present. It did not say whether Acheson had made any recommendation to halt arms aid.

Stassen said in a statement issued in Philadelphia: "The State Department's confession now confirms that my memory did not play me tricks. Why did the Secretary of State deny this conference yesterday? Does the Secretary of State now also admit the correctness of my memory of the October 1948 conference?"

Giant Hurricane Skirts Carolina Outer Banks

CAPE HATTERAS, N. C., Oct. 4. (AP)—A giant hurricane with winds of 100 miles an hour skirted North Carolina's outer banks today and headed northeastward into the open Atlantic.

A sudden shift in direction spared the coastline from possible major damage. Only stormy gusts of rain and unusually high tides told coastal residents of its passage at sea.

The weather bureau said the center passed this stormy point, about 75 miles to the east.

The bureau at 10 a.m. (CST), said the hurricane was centered eastward about 15 miles an hour. Warnings were flashed to all shipping in the hurricane's path. Coast Guardsmen were kept busy as the blustery winds grounded two ships, the Freighter Marcor and the Belvin K., a small vessel, near Cape Henry, Va. The Marcor later freed itself.

A tug boat, the Tern, lost her tow, a coal barge, and called for Coast Guard assistance.

Man Dies Here Today; Body Is Being Sent To Alabama For Rites

Clive Jackson Betterton, 84, an employee of the Chicago Bridge and Iron company, died in a local hospital at 1:05 a.m. today. He had been confined to the hospital a week.

The body is being shipped overland by a Nalley carrier to McCullough, Ala., where funeral rites will be held Sunday.

Survivors, in addition to his wife, include three brothers, A. C. of Pensacola, Fla.; and F. A. and K. F., both of McCullough.

Seagraves Lash May Lose Eye After Being Hit By Bit Of Glass

Sherry Ann Brown, 9, Seagraves, sustained an eyeball laceration Wednesday when struck in the eye with a jagged piece of glass.

It was not known this morning whether doctors would be able to save the eye or not. Sherry Ann, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Brown, Route No. 1, Seagraves, was brought to the Malone and Hogan hospital for treatment. The accident in which she was injured occurred at the Brown home.
