The Rattlesnake patrol is composed of the following boys: Lowell Barkley, Jr., Math Barkley, McElton Skaggs, Donald Reeves and Billy Wason. The Comanche patrol is composed of George Doss, Tom Ed Jameson, Elmer Gene Jameson, Lane Decker, and Byron Knight.

Railroad Has Heavy Burden In '39 Taxes

The Quanah, Acme & Pacific railroad, also less than 112 miles in length, paid taxes of approximately $100 per day during 1939, according to a statement issued by Chas. H. Summer, president, appearing in this issue of the Tribune.

The Q. A. and P. Railway paid a total of $35,388.98 during 1939, $7,095.82 going to Motley county. Of this sum $1,946.04 was included for the maintenance of Motley county schools.

"The tax burden of the railroad is a heavy one and has been growing rapidly in recent years. It doesn't require much of an imagination to realize that without these railroad taxes it would mean a substantial increase in taxes to be paid by the citizen-ship to make good the loss. Your support is solicited," Mr. Summers' statement declared.

County Census Work Started; 6 Enumerators Assigned Area In City Limits

If a pretty, smiling, blonde young lady calls at your door and declares she is the census-taker, don't pinch yourself—you will not be dreaming. The Republican Senator Tobey would call off his dogs on the census evil if he knew Billie Lawrence who has been selected to enumerate the census within the city limits of Matador. In fact, taking the census in Matador is likely to be classified as a pleasure instead of a dreaded ordeal, as the daily press has indicated.

Miss Lawrence assured a Tribune reporter Tuesday that although census report blanks have much of the usual Federal red tape, and seemingly useless requirements, the entire task of answering questions will require only 15 to 20 minutes in each home. The work must be completed within 30 days.

Other enumerators for Motley county are Mrs. Mollie Armstrong for Whiteflat, Mrs. Virginia Rose Turner for Flomot, Owen Williams for the rural section of Roaring Springs and Mrs. Mike Hoyle for the city of Roaring Springs. Buddy Smith has been assigned the Matador rural area, Fairview and Northfield.

The enumerators were selected by their examination grades; of the 21 applicants from this county. They attended a two-day school in Memphis two weeks ago and received their full instructions at a meeting held in Pampa March 29.

Monday night, April 8, has been designated for enumeration of the traveling public, when all hotels, rooming houses and tourist camps will be covered, so that Uncle Sam will not miss any in his vast nose counting project.

The new route will be 133 miles in length, extending from Vernon to Plainview and will probably be carried by the local bus company Mr. Springer declared.

The new schedule, which is a temporary one, is to go into effect on Thursday, April 11 and continue until June 30, however the notice posted in the postoffice here declares the award of contract contemplates regular service.

Sealed bids for the route will not be considered to exceed $1,080 per year. The proposed schedule is worded as follows: Leave Floydada daily at 10 p. m. and arrive Vernon railroad station 2 a. m. Leave station Sunday at 3 a. m. and arrive Floydada at 7 a. m.

The order for bids states: Temporary star route, under Section 1847. One round trip 6 one-way trips per week. Towns listed are Foydada, Matador, Paducah, Crowell, Thalia and Vernon.

Altho the effect of the new service has not been made perfectly clear, it is assumed that Matador will be provided with an easy outlet for mail posted until about 10 o'clock each evening, but that the incoming service will not be affected, except probably on Sundays.

Sale Of Car Tags Lower

Motley county motor vehicle owners are slightly more reluctant to come up to the lick-log and buy new license tags this year than in 1939 according to figures received from Miss Rachel Patton, deputy in the office of Sheriff L. A. Carlisle, late Tuesday. With one day past the deadline to use 1939 tags, automobile owners had purchased only 720 sets of the expensive accessories, while on the same date last year 787 cars had been registered.

Trucks showed a slight gain with 81 registered Tuesday as against 76 on the same date in 1939. Farm trucks gained by a margin of one over '39, with 124 for 1940 and 123 on the same date in 1939.

A total of 1,034 automobiles were registered in Motley county for 1939, 217 farm trucks and 136 trucks. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pohl visited Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Chesnut of Floydada Sunday.

Lions Praise Four Youths' Declamations

Caravan Arranged To Invade Zone Meeting Tonight

Four youthful declaimers, students of the Fairview school, received the unanimous praise of the Matador Lions Club with brilliant declamations on the program of the civic organization's regular meeting held in the Methodist church basement, Tuesday. Many Lions declared the eloquence of the four boys, Norris Fulfer, Jack Bloodworth, Harris Johnson and Jewell Lawrence, to be most inspiring ever heard.

Jewell Lawrence is the winner of the county declamation contests and will go to the district meet to vie for honors, according to W. E. Ballard, who is at the helm of the Fairview school where the boys are students.

Lions To Childress Tonight A caravan of automobiles will journey to Childress tonight bearing approximately 25 members of the Lions Club to attend the last zone meeting in the fiscal year. The entire Matador delegation will be attired in full cowboy regalia, advertising the Matador Roundup and Rodeo here May 17-18.

Terror Grips Audience At Senior Play

An audience which filled practically every seat in the high school auditorium, Tuesday evening witnessed the senior class present "Murdered Alive", and declared it a screaming success from the standpoint of both actors and spectators.

The three-act drama was directed by Miss Zona Beth Faulkner. The characters were well-cast in roles of almost equal importance, and all parts were convincingly played. Proceeds of the play amounted to $42.00, and are to be used by the class in defraying cost of the new stage curtain which it has donated to the school this year.

Cast Of Characters Mrs. Libby Ryder, a society matron, was played by Tom Nell Darsey; her charming daughter, Arden Ryder, by Lela Carpenter; Tillie Meek, their maid, Marie Hunsucker; Stella Backus, who ruled the roost, Aileen Russell; Frank Backus, her weaker half, Elmer Gene Jameson; Iris Alda, who gets messages from the dead, Wandell Berryman; Otis Marvin, a lawyer, Kenneth Simpson; Warner Melton, in love with Arden, Rudolph Carpenter; Luverne Speed, from Creston Corners, Onieta Kimbell; Acton Chance, a correspondence school detective, Raymond Rattan; Arline Evans, charming and refined, Willens Wilkinson, and The Mysterious Man, Alton Titus.

Next Tuesday evening, the class will present another play, "Where's Grandma?" This is a comedy farce, directed by Bert Ezzell, class sponsor. Due to the size of the senior class two plays were chosen to be presented this year, in order that most of the class might be presented.

Dee Cates Accepts Place At Paducah Dee Cates, who has been in charge of the market department of Campbell's Food Market for the past two years, has accepted a position in the same capacity with Massie-Probasco Company of Paducah, where he assumed his duties Tuesday.

N. J. Smalley of Turkey, who has been employed in the market department of the M-System there for the past seven years, has accepted the position formerly held by Mr. Cates. Mr. Smalley declared that he liked Matador and the friendly attitude of the people here. He said he would move here within the next two weeks to make this his future home.

Rushing Named New President Of Association W. I. Rushing was named president of the Motley County Game Management Association when the organization met in a called meeting at the courthouse Thursday morning of last week.

Willie and Willie Meyer being named as alternate directors. Two directors of the present board Gus Bird and L. B. Robertson, will again serve for the 1940 year.

Plans were made for the year at the meeting, and several matters in connection with the special license law were discussed.

Governor To Be Candidate

Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, speaking over the radio last night, relieved some slight speculation regarding his entering the race for re-election, when he announced his name would be on the ticket.

In a full hour's broadcast, the Governor held back the announcement of his candidacy to the latter part of his speech. He did not make any outstanding changes in the platform which swept him into office in 1938 on one of the greatest gubernatorial landslides in the country's history. The Governor explained he would yet fulfill his promises made during the former campaign, providing the voters of Texas would continue to support him, according to radio listeners who heard the broadcast.

Rodeo Group Plans For Big Crowds

Plans are being made by the Matador Roundup and Rodeo Association for the largest crowds in the history of Matador, expected to attend the celebration scheduled here May 17-18, it was disclosed last week by L. B. (Bob) Robertson, president of the organization.

Mr. Robertson declared that additional capacity will probably be needed for the football stadium at Matador Arena and that extra seats may be leased from an Amarillo organization, for that purpose.

Arrangements with Matador hotels are being made to secure accommodations for certain sponsor groups, officials and others who may depend upon the association for lodging while attending the celebration.

Appeal To Residents Mr. Robertson has asked all residents who may have one or more rooms which are available or can be made available, to list them with the Matador Tribune in order to accommodate those who may find difficulty in securing lodging. The Tribune's service will be without charge.

All details will be needed as to number of people the room or rooms will accommodate, when available and the rate which will be charged.

Mr. James Haynie of the Oil Belt Flag and Decoration Company, who has an agreement with the association for decorating business places and streets, declared Monday that practically every business place in the city had either ordered decorations or agreed to do so. He said that in none of the many towns where he has done decorating, had he found more complete cooperation than in Matador.

A large banner advertising the roundup and rodeo, has been placed on special posts, over Highway 28 and now tells the traveling public of the celebration and the dates.

SENATOR SHEPPARD HAS AMBITION FOR RECORD IN OFFICE

Senator Morris' Sheppard of Texas dispels the assumption of a Dallas News Washington correspondent regarding his candidacy in 1942, with the following statement:

"I note your statement in the Dallas News of February 8 to the effect that it is felt by some that I might be willing to step down in 1942, after having reached the age of 67 years and having seen 30 years service in the Senate.

"In order to dispel this illusion let me say that I shall be a candidate for re-election in 1942. I have an ambition while continuing to serve the people with the best energies I possess to break the all American record for length of service in Congress. Another election will enable me to do this. There are still five men, none living, who have served Congress consecutively or non-consecutively longer than I but after another term my record will exceed the record of each of these."

OIL-PLATES YOUR ENGINE

Swell "Youth Treatment:" Change oil for Spring Better yet: Change to OIL-PLATING

What's worse than a late Winter? ... The late Winter's oil still slopping around in your engine! Changing now is true economy—and you're a regular economy "shark" to change to OIL-PLATING—at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station today.

All he does to give you an OIL-PLATED engine is to drain and then re-fill with Conoco Germ Processed Oil—at a perfectly usual price. But extremely unusual is the costly man-made extra substance in this patented oil. It bonds lubricant to engine parts—like fine PLATING. That's your OIL-PLATING, which can't fly off, or drain down during all-day runs and all-night stands. That's why your OIL-PLATED engine can't even start unlubricated. The less of that oil-starved starting, the less risk of a worn engine that over-eats oil. Change to OIL-PLATING today at Your Mileage Merchant's. Takes no extra time. But it's an extra long time till you need your next quart of Germ Processed oil. Continental Oil Company

NEW BOOKS

From time to time, Miss Mary Keith, librarian for the Matador City Library submits reviews of recent books added to the shelves.

THE BOOK—This book can only be described in superlatives. It is one of the grandest stories ever told of that last thrilling period of naval sailing ships, the Napoleonic era, when the wooden walls of England's navy were the envy of the world and American sailors were the only ones who cared to meet English sailors ship for ship.

THE MAN—Captain Hornblower is a character who should live as long as "Midshipman Easy." He is a real man sailing real ships on real seas. He is a minor Nelson, a Hamlet of the seas, hero to his crews and genius to his officers. To the reader he is an authentic human being, humanly torn by doubts of himself, humbly torn by doubting his courage with desperation and covering his sensitiveness with discipline, all too humanly involved in personal worries which have nothing to do with the Lords of the Admiralty.

THE AUTHOR—Critics on both sides of the Atlantic have hailed Mr. Forester as the peer of Marryat, Cooper and Nordhoff and Hall as a story-teller of the seas. He has been credited with the capacity of Conrad, the ability of Massfield and the adventurous spirit of Lever. Seamen praise him for the accuracy and lucidity with which he writes of ships. Landmen praise him for his knowledge of human nature.

THE STORY—The first and second parts of "Captain Hornblower" were published separately under the titles of "Best to Quarters" and "Ships of the Line." The final part entitled "Flying Colors" has just been published. There has never been any doubt in the minds of readers or reviewers that these were parts of a whole and that the whole would be greater than the sum of its parts.

Coffee Goes Scotch in this Spice Cake!

COFFEE in the cake and coffee in spices; add alternately with coffee, a small amount at a time, beat after each addition until smooth. Bake in an oiled pan (12" x 8") in a moderate oven (350° F.) 40 minutes. Frost with Coffee Scotch Frosting and place pecan halves on top of frosting.

Coffee-Scotch Frosting: 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1/2 cup double-strength, freshly-made coffee, 1 tablespoon light corn syrup, 2 egg whites. Combine sugars, coffee and corn syrup in a sauce pan. Place over heat and stir until sugar is dissolved and mixture boils; continue cooking without stirring until a small amount dropped from the tip of a spoon spins a thread (240° F.). Beat egg whites stiff; pour the syrup slowly into the egg whites, beating constantly. Continue beating until the frosting holds its shape.

The Fashion Frock Of The Week

EMPIRE WAISTLINE EFFECT As worn in Hollywood by BINNIE BARNES Glamorous Screen Celebrity

If one is looking for a dramatic style, this latest one from Paris is the answer. It gives the wearer a feeling that one is fashionably dressed. Perhaps it's the Empire waistline effect or some of the other fashion details. But whatever it is, that sense of smartness is evident in every line. This week's frock has a lovely notch collar that can be worn open or closed. Fabric-covered buttons lend to the beauty of the high Empire waistline. The dainty, self-fabric belt has a clasp buckle. Fabric-covered to match the buttons. Shallow pockets, adorned with buttons, are charming aids of flattery to the hips, as are the draped folds in the skirt. The glove-length sleeves are details of distinction that are seen on the most ultra fashionable frocks. The material and color are of prime importance. Miss Barnes wears hers of rayon in a haze blue. Another good shade is rose rust.

TRIAL VICTORY WON
"HOPPER GROUP"
 WASHINGTON.—The Senate's "hopper bloc" won a partial victory today when House consented to a deficiency bill agreed to a $500,000 increase in funds for fighting grasshoppers.

The argument over grasshopper aid had tied up a $93,000,000 deficiency appropriation bill for several weeks after House spokesmen refused to agree to an increase from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 voted by the Senate in these bills.

The Senate rejected the first version of the deficiency bill, Wednesday.

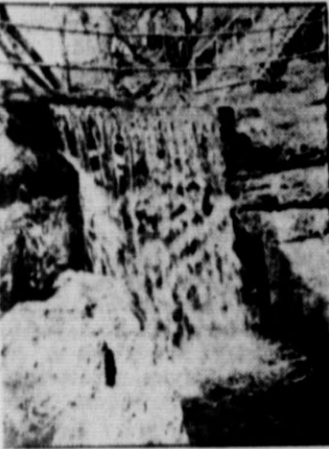

tern senators insisting that poison bait for grasshoppers must be made available at once to be effective.

The deficiency bill includes $60,000,000 of soil conservation payments and funds for numerous reclamation projects previously agreed upon.

Texas Stands Behind John Garner

Texas State Democratic Executive Committee gave a ringing endorsement to the presidential aspirations of John Garner, despite some protests which were not warranted.

Mr. Garner is of high ability and probity. He has won great distinction. He aspires to the presidency. Above all, he is a Texan. He has a right to go to the national convention with the solid backing of his state, just as every other state's favorite son may have a right to expect his state's support.

This implies no party split, no discrediting of President Roosevelt or anybody else.

It is just pro-Garner, that's all. Entirely proper.

Cites Need Of Brooder House

"Farm folks planning to raise chicks this season should remember to have the brooder house all set to receive the chicks when they come from the hatchery," states Lewis Newman, owner of the Matador Hatchery.

Clean, scrape and scrub the house, using hot water and a high-test lye. Following this, the house should be thoroughly disinfected with a reliable disinfectant. Every avenue of infection must be eliminated before mortality losses of chicks can be reduced to a minimum.

When the cleansing job is over, make sure you have sufficient brooding capacity to handle the chicks you plan to buy. Overcrowding is one of the major mistakes in brooder house management.

Have at least one square foot of floor space to each three chicks and seven inches of hover space to each chick.

In addition, keep several inches of clean, dry litter under the chicks at all times. One bale of peat litter will cover 100 square feet of floor area three inches deep.

Several days before the house is to receive its new occupants, place your brooder stoves in operation. This will not only give you a chance to learn how to more accurately regulate the stoves, but it will dry out the houses so that no dampness will remain.

Mr. Newman recommends that the brooder be placed in operation prior to arrival of the chicks so that the house will be warm. The temperature under the hover the first week should range between 95 and 100 degrees, while the room temperature of the brooder house should be kept between 70 and 75 degrees.

Have feed and water available for the chicks at all times.

How Relieved From Pains and Sluggish Feeling

daily Praises Herbal Remedy. Many Years Had Been Wasted in Search For Something To Help Him.

Her Feels Dizzy Now And Aching Pains In His Joints All Gone Since Constipation Was Believed. Great Medicine He Says.

"I can never thank Herbtex enough for the amazing relief it brought me, yet it seems so simple after having tried so many expensive treatments which did not help me at all," said Mr. Horace F. George, former Pennsylvania Railroad Engineer, now residing at Market St., Wheeling, W. Va.

MR. HORACE F. GEORGE

There is no doubt but that constipation is what was causing my troubles, but I thought almost anything was wrong with me. I ached so bad that I could hardly keep at work. My back was so stiff and I ached all over my body most of the time. Every time I stooped over I'd feel so dizzy I had to grab hold of something. My nerves kept me awake for hours every night, then the next morning I felt all tired out.

"I have thanked a friend of mine many times for telling me to try Herbtex. I wish I had started taking Herbtex years ago. Herbtex worked off my bowels thoroughly, yet no griping or pains, and now I'm regular every day. I feel like I've had a bath inside. All the poisons seem to move out regularly instead of staying there and causing trouble.

"Since Herbtex cleaned my bowels I am free of backache and pains in my body, neither do I have sour gas that I always belched after eating, all the dizziness has passed off and my nerves have calmed down so that I can now enjoy restful sleep at night.

"I wouldn't take anything for the good that Herbtex has done for me. I know that Herbtex is really a good medicine. Herbtex gives relief for common ills like Stomach Trouble, Sluggish Liver, Weak Kidneys, Painful Joints, Aching Muscles, when due to constipation."

SPECIAL OFFER: regular price of Herbtex is $1.25, send only $1.00 Money Order Cash or Check to Herbtex Co., Dept. XT14, Wheeling, W. Va., and a package of Herbtex (over a two weeks supply) will be sent you postage paid.

Institute Of Student Opinion Suggestions For This Poor Column

Question: What question would you ask for student opinion? Ruth Rushing: I would ask what they think of The Poet's Corner because I'd like to know. Juanita Mize: I would ask what their favorite sport is and why. Frances Stearns: I would interview some seniors and ask what one thing is most outstanding in their high school days. James Fish: I would ask why there is so much red tape in getting our senior rings. Frances Carpenter: I would ask who their favorite teacher is and why. Varnell Markham: I would ask where they would like to spend their summer vacation. Mary Gaines: I would ask the students when we want our spring holiday. Zona Ruth Scaff: I would ask if they will be glad when school is out. Glenn Woodruff: There are two questions I would ask. What is your favorite book? What book would you like for the Matador City Library to buy?

Lela Carpenter: I would ask what is something that some senior class might leave to help beautify the campus, or something that any of us could do to help beautify the campus.

Bennie Keltz: I would ask the students what they think of our present merit system.

Ruth Keith: I would ask which class will get the next holiday.

Jewell McCoy: A good question to ask would be what age would you prefer to live in, now, when Queen Mary lived, or some other time.

Joyce Irby: If I were asking the question, I would say, "Say, Butch, which country of all the countries had you rather live in?"

Wandell Berryman: I would ask what certain luxury do you spend most of your money on.

Rachel Carpenter: I would ask them which countries had they rather would win the wars that are going on now.

Alla Mae Pulfer: I think a good question to ask would be this. Do you like the student opinion, and, if so, why, and if you don't, why don't you?

THE TERRORS OF "THEY" MAY SAY

Don't do this; don't do that; don't do anything because of what "they" might say. To hear anyone say that or for anyone to try to restrain us from doing something that is perfectly all right because of what "they" might say just burns us up. We are in favor of each person doing just what he wants to do, when he wants to do it, and how he wants to do it just as long as no legal or moral code is broken. We don't care if it is the unconventional thing to do; one gets in a rut if he does the conventional thing all of the time.

There are certain long-tongued people who will always gossip. Since they will always be with us, we see no reason for our acting staid and stiff just to try to keep their tongues still. Their tongues would keep on wagging if they had been cut out of their heads for a month.

We don't dare admire a person for being squeamish and afraid of "they" all of the time. So here's to unconventionalism, youth, and life! May they last for ever!

SPRING STYLES FOR RIGHT NOW

Each season designers gather inspiration from many sources. Fact and fiction supply the history and romance that are reflected in the fashions this spring. The work of designers, especially those abroad, shows the influence of the European war. Some of the movies have influenced the American designers who have adopted those fascinating fashions of yesteryears into practical, wearable ones for this year.

The beauty and elegance of costumes tying in with the picture "Gone With the Wind" have been revived this year. Altho full skirted styles have been popular among us for some time, "G. W. T. W." has given an impetus to swaying skirts, fitted basques, off the shoulder lines, and tiny puffed sleeves.

Though skirts may be flared, circular, gathered, pleated or simply straight, they remain short. Don't spoil the appearance of your costume by a skirt that is too short or too long.

Pockets are at the height of their popularity this spring of 1940. They are high fashion in at least a dozen different shapes. They may be patch, set-in, or roomy saddle pockets. All are quite popular. Buttons vie with pockets. They parade down the fronts of garments or march down the back of dresses. The classic tailored bone buttons lead, but brass, bronze, steel, and self-covered ones follow close behind. Gaiety, variety, and becomingness briefly tell the story of color for this season. The dusty pastels are closely crowding black and navy for the lead, especially the war tones are in favor.

Dame Fashion presents a wide choice for your selection. So study yourself—see what is best for your lines, coloring, personality, and purse. When you have assembled a smart outfit and wear it well, you bring joy to yourself and you cause people to pause and look in admiration.

SENIOR PLAY TO BE TUESDAY

The theatrical season in Matador High School will be completed with the presentation of the last senior play, "Where's Grandma?" on Tuesday evening, April 9, at 8:00.

The cast is as follows: Grandma, a young old lady, Jewell McCoy; Gretchen Blake, a young wife, Myrnaevae Barkley; Bob Blake, her brand new husband, Keith Patton; Jack Worley, Gretchen's brother, Glenn Woodruff; Lucy King, Jack's sweetheart, Marion Clements; Arline Truesdale, a man hunting female, Maurine Hall; Carol Worley, Gretchen's sister, Mary Gaines; Midnight, a chocolate Brown houseman, Norman Harp; and Dahlia, high yallar wife of Midnight, Zona Scaff.

The play is a delightful, three-act comedy. The admission prices will be 10, 15, and 25cents.

Grade Gatherings

The May fete, to be composed only of grade school students this year, is to be held around the first of May. Katherine Martin, of the seventh grade, was chosen by popular vote as the queen of the May fete. The king has not been chosen yet.

The title of the program is "The Garden of Singing Flowers." There will be three dances, which include a May pole dance and the Virginia Reel. The rest of the program is to be composed of singing.

Miss Poe returned this week to resume her teaching in the first grade.

The Child Welfare Committee recently donated twenty-five dollars for new books for the grade school library. The books are mostly fiction, and it is believed that they will improve the library very much.

This And That!

Loyd Latimer and James Ed Russell have been steppin' out and I mean that! In fact, boys, you've practically been robbing the cradle—purt nigh. We hope you don't rush the Bishop twins too much. They are cute, but—use just a little discretion, please. ('Tis a good thing the gals didn't move back to our dear city earlier this year.)

Quite early, we agree, but he must believe in the saying, "Never put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today." We're speaking of Jack Martin's making a date with Corine Briggs for the banquet. Now, Now, don't get all excited 'cause it's only gossip and we can't vouch for it's being true! It isn't a bad "idea" though, is it?

Poor Mary Ellen! Her beau found another attraction! Thomas Bourland and Doris Stephens had fun plus at Quinn's the other night. Why, oh why can't these guys (or gals) make up their minds? Oh well, variety is the spice of life ya' know.

Another couple who had a delicious (?) time is Leroy and Frances Carpenter. They probably have no broken hearts behind them so we see no reason why they shouldn't have all the fun they want. Personally I love the two-some! Romance, ah-me.

Oh, but here is a juicy little item destined to work havoc among several of our M. H. S. students. Bennie Keltz and Zona Scaff went datin' the other night. Just whose hearts will hurt over this bit of information, you can guess for yourself. (It won't be hard). And so we leave this heart-breaking little scene.

We heard of two high school Seniors, Lela and Jewell, who got sorta "peev'd" at a Junior and a Sophomore the other night. (E. A. and Johnny respectively) It seems they were to call for the gals at seven o'clock, and low and behold they "napped" until eight fifteen! Ardent Romeos, eh, what?

A most disgusting story has been relayed to the reporters that I must include here. Three young men I know of have been snooping around parked cars. We didn't know before that some of us have snake ancestors (evolution in a new form), but J. D. (snake) Payne might give us some data on the subject (Rattlers, I'd bet!)

Por la Escuela

Last Thursday Mrs. Morrison, an instructor from McMurry College at Abilene, visited the high school and talked to the seniors about what they planned to do after graduating. She made the statement that McMurry had a very good speech department and gave each student a folder which contained various facts about the college.

Well, Roaring Springs didn't come. We have nearly given up hope of their ever coming.

Congratulations, juniors, on your fine presentation of "Aunt Tillie Goes To Town". This is a little late, but it is sincere.

Congratulations, seniors, on your fine presentation of "Murdered Alive!" We all enjoyed it a great deal.

Theatre Crowded As Travel Film Shown

Thursday morning at the Rogue Theatre, about 500 members of farm families had the pleasure of seeing motion pictures and hearing A. C. Williams, President of The Federal Land Bank of Houston, tell of a trip last summer to European countries. The pictures were made by Mr. Williams while on a tour with a group of students from A. and M. College, visiting England, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, and Germany. As the principal purpose of the tour was to study the cotton spinning industry in all its phases, visits were made to manufacturing centers as well as the docks and warehouses where cotton is handled.

Many Interesting Facts

In telling of his experiences on the trip, Mr. Williams brought out many interesting facts about agricultural and economic conditions and the operations of farmers' cooperative societies in European countries. Spinners with whom the group talked liked American cotton, but for various reasons they have been using large quantities of cotton produced in other countries. He suggested that farmers who grow cotton give more attention to the quality of their products and the condition in which it reaches the market, and that they cooperate in campaigns to find new uses and increase the consumption of cotton.

Of particular interest was Mr. Williams' description of the manner in which the farmers of these older countries take care of the soil. They plan first, he said, for the family food supply and feed for their livestock, and by intensive cultivation they make a few acres do the work of many. Land is valuable, and not only do the farmers make every effort to prevent erosion, but they are constantly striving to build up the fertility of the soil so that it will produce bountiful crops.

Impressed By Gardens

In traveling thru England, the group was impressed with the gardens and pastoral beauty of the English countryside. From the windows of the train they saw countless vegetable gardens, the green pastures of the rolling stockfarming section, dotted with well bred livestock. Pastures are all small as compared with those in Texas, but special attention has been given to increasing the carrying capacity.

"Norway is one of the most picturesque countries of Europe," Mr. Williams said. "One of the things that interested us most was the fact that most of the farms are so small. About 90 per cent of the farms have 25 acres or less in cultivation, of which 85,000 have five acres or less of cultivated land. Nearly two-thirds of the land in cultivation is in tame hay, and the agriculture of the country is built largely around livestock—dairy cattle, swine and poultry. Many farmers raise silver foxes and some have herds of reindeer. Another important crop is Irish potatoes."

Visit Big Cotton Mill

In Sweden, the group visited a large cotton mill that took cotton from the bale through all the various processes to finished articles of clothing, towels, etc. Farming units were larger in Sweden than in Norway. Not only in the private gardens and the parks, but in the most unexpected places there were blooming flowers in profusion. Even the lamp posts in Gotesborg were decorated with a sort of urn encircling the post in which bright flowers bloomed.

A brief stay in Holland afforded a glimpse of yet a different type of farming. With much of the country below sea level, drainage is sometimes a serious problem. In some sections, the water level in the canal is higher than the adjacent farm land, and pumps must be employed to take care of heavy rains or overflows. As a result, much of the land is devoted to pasture, butter and cheese production being one of the principal industries of the country. In Holland, Mr. Williams saw many holstein and some Dutch belted cows.

Danes Are Progressive

"The Danish people," he said "have made more progress than the people of any other country in the development of cooperative organizations. It is reported that half of the people in Denmark belong to some form of cooperative, and the social, business, and political life of the people is built largely around these associations. Cooperative farm credit and cooperative marketing of farm products have reached a high state of development in all of the Scandinavian countries. In Copenhagen, a city of about a million people, we visited a large livestock show at which they exhibited only one type of cattle, the red Danish dual purpose cattle, and only one type of hog, the white Danish hog that is noted for its fine bacon. It is hard for anyone who has not seen the country to realize the intensive type of agriculture that is practiced in Denmark."

Germans Are Thrifty Farmers

Of his trip to Germany, Mr. Williams said, "While I was in Germany, they were busy harvesting a bumper grain crop, and being short of farm labor they issued an order for the mobilization of college boys to assist with the harvesting. The German farmers are thrifty and industrious, take excellent care of the soil and produce good yields of staple crops. Most of the people I saw working in the fields were the older men and women. The younger men were either in the army or employed in the war industries."

Mr. Williams found that the Germans were manufacturing a wood fiber substitute for cotton. In addition to agricultural and beauty and places of historic industrial scenes, the films contained many scenes of natural interest.

Cold Winter Checks Worms

According to information from County Agent, J. Rufus Emmons, the past winter cold has been especially hard on screwworms. From field observations and laboratory studies conducted by the USDA's Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine it was revealed that practically all of the screwworms wintering in the soil were killed.

Cattlemen now have the best chance they have ever had to get through the year without serious screwworm losses, R. R. Reppert, entomologist of the Texas A & M Extension Service, points out. Experience has shown that every female fly that gets thru March will beget around 160 female offsprings by May or June.

If screwworms now developing in livestock are treated so that all worms are killed before they are three days old, the screwworm fly population will be so far reduced that injuries from marketing, branding, shear cuts and other causes are not likely to be infested.

Reppert recommends benzol to kill worms and diphenylamine to protect the wounds against reinfection. If the diphenylamine cannot be obtained, then treatment with pine-tar oil is recommended, altho it is not as effective.
