Red-Tainted Violence Makes Death Toll 73

SEQUOIA, May 10. (AP)—U. S. occupied South Korea voted heavily on a Russian-boycotted self-rule election today despite week end violence and sabotage with a Communist imprint which cost 73 lives.

Two Koreans were slain in Seoul today. U. S. Army reports indicated at least 20 others were killed elsewhere in sporadic outbreaks. Wire snipping interrupted communications from outlying districts.

Police probably forestalled more serious trouble here. They confiscated 50 home-made bombs and materials for many more in the house of a well-known local Communist.

Undaunted voters turned out in large numbers for the United Nations-observed election which brought loud threats from the Soviet zone. Associated Press Correspondent Frank L. White visited a dozen polling places and found 80 percent or more of the eligible voters had marked their ballots by late afternoon.

The long-awaited election gave the people the chance to help choose the first popularly-elected government of this ancient and troubled land—"land of the morning calm." Kings have ruled here; so have the Japanese. But today most of the eight million registered voters were picking their own assembly which in turn will establish Korea's first independent government.

Even though the balloting proceeded with comparative quiet, Seoul uneasily awaited the close of the 12-hour election. New trouble was feared tonight as ballot boxes are carried to central points to be counted.

Authorities blamed Communist attempts to sabotage the voting for the 73 deaths since Friday. The fatalities included 39 confirmed or suspected Communists, two election officials and two policemen.

Communists and some liberal groups shunned the election. South Korean Communists were exhorting by the Russian-controlled radio in Pyongyang, North Korea, to do everything they could to wreck it.

CARRY FIGHT TO JUDEAN HILLS

Jews Drive Arab Forces Off Supply Route To Jerusalem

JERUSALEM, May 10. (AP)—Two Haganah brigades drove the Arabs off the Tel Aviv-Jerusalem supply route today and carried the raging fight into the Judean hills. The road itself, though still slashed by Arab barricades, is safe. The Haganah fighters scored their success at Bab El Wad, ten miles west of Jerusalem.

This reporter and three other newsmen walked through the mountain pass today. Sounds of fighting came from all four sides of us and occasional stray bullets whined above.

Inside the deep gorge through which the Macadam road winds as a funnel for supplies needed in Jerusalem, there otherwise was deadly stillness. A Haganah escort got within sight of the first layers of Arab stonework across the road and refused to go on.

"We haven't taken those two hills yet," he said, pointing to crests he identified as Hills 7 and 21.

We left him by the roadside and walked on. There was not a movement in the hills. Not a shot was fired at us, although we were obviously targets because we walked from the Jewish lines.

After climbing over eight barriers of stone, we returned to the command post of the Haganah advance battalion. A young and battle-seasoned major there expressed surprise that we weren't shot. He sent a patrol out hastily to investigate.

A reliable Jewish source previously had said Haganah had occupied all strategic heights on both sides of Bad El Wad.

Red Leading Presidential Race In Italy

ROME, May 10. (AP)—Enrico Nicola, choice of the Communist-led Popular Front, got more votes than Carlo Sforza, candidate of the dominant Christian Democrats, on today's first ballot for president of the Italian republic, but not enough to elect him.

De Nicola, provisional president the last two years, received 396 votes and Carlo Sforza, foreign minister, 353. A two-thirds margin was needed.

The president is being elected by parliament in a joint session of its two houses. On the first three ballots, a two-thirds majority is needed to elect. On the fourth, a majority suffices.

The proportion of votes cast for the leading candidate is figured on the basis of the total number of senators and deputies declared elected and seated. This is now slightly more than 900, though only 868 were present.

The announcement of De Nicola's vote caused an outbreak of cheering which started on the left of the house, where the Communists and pro-Communist Socialists sit, and then spread over the house. This delayed the announcement of the vote for others.

One of the big questions now is whether the Popular Front deputies and senators will, as reported in the last two days, abstain from voting on successive ballots.

There was a scattering of votes for Luigi Einaudi, governor of the director; Alessandro Casati, former war minister; Cipriano Facchinetti, Republican and present minister of defense; and Ivanoe Bonomi, elder statesman elected Senate president two days ago. There also were some blank ballots.

Winds Damage Vernon Airport

VERNON, May 10. (AP)—North Field, Vernon airport, began to clean up today after high winds last night demolished a hangar and an office building and damaged six light training planes.

No immediate estimate of damage was available. No one was injured. The storm, described as a "strong, gusty wind," hit the airport at 7:30 p. m.

Vernon escaped damage. Some limbs were ripped from trees. The Santa Rosa Roundup was not interrupted by the storm.

At Wichita Falls, 60 miles east of here, lightning struck a residence, causing a fire. Damage was estimated at $8,000. No one was at home at the time.

Lewis Gives Notice To End UMW Pact

Hard Coal Operators Recipients

WASHINGTON, May 10. (AP)—John L. Lewis today gave hard coal operators a 60-day notice of intention to end the UMW contract covering 80,000 anthracite miners.

Lewis told the producers that he wants a new contract for the United Mine Workers by July 10. He asked for wage conferences to begin May 20, unless a later date is mutually agreed upon.

The hard coal industry has been operating since 1946 under a contract carrying no termination date, but allowing either party to give 30 days notice of termination whenever desired.

By giving 60 days notice, Lewis apparently was conforming to a Taft-Hartley labor act requirement that a party wanting to end an agreement allow that much time. Lewis gave similar notice on April 30 to the soft coal operators, whose contract expires June 30. The bituminous contract negotiations are to begin May 18 in Washington.

Lewis made no recommendation where to hold the hard coal negotiations but usually they are held in New York City.

Draft-UMT Bill Progresses

WASHINGTON, May 10. (AP)—Chairman Gurney (R-SD) today announced general acceptance by the Senate Armed Services Committee of most provisions of a bill to combine a temporary draft and a military training program.

Gurney told reporters he expects the bill to be completed tomorrow.

The measure as it stands authorizes a two-year draft of men 19 through 25 and a year's military training for 18-year-olds.

It also requires registration of all men 18 through 25 and of doctors up to age 45.

Most veterans would be exempt from the draft.

Gurney emphasized that all of these provisions are subject to change before the final committee vote, but he said "There is quite complete agreement on the bill."

He added that the group has "about three more things" to decide, including an amendment by Senator Russell (D-Ga) to require industrial plants to accept war production orders.

Gurney said that when the vote has been taken, it will be introduced in the Senate as a committee bill. It is slated for early action.

The chairman said the section dealing with doctors will assure that no community will be "denuded" of physicians.

He said another section will credit each state with the number of men already in the services in the determination of draft quotas in order to equalize the call.

In the House, sponsors of a $207,930,350 Army construction bill tried again to get it through the House. Cost of officers' quarters balked the first attempt.

President Seizes Nation's Railroads

No Word Comes From Union Heads

WASHINGTON, May 10. (AP)—President Truman today seized the nation's railroads.

There was no word from the three strike-threatening unions whether they would run the trains for the government. They have called a strike for 6 a. m. local railroad time tomorrow.

The President signed a seizure order two minutes before 1 o'clock EDT (11 a. m. CST) in an effort to bar a strike. The order places operation of the trains under direction of the U. S. Army.

Mr. Truman appealed to all railroad workers to stay on their jobs.

"I call upon every railroad worker to cooperate with the government by remaining on duty," the seizure statement said.

"I call upon the officers of the railroad labor organizations to take appropriate action to keep their members at work."

Mr. Truman's statement added: "It is essential to the public health and to the public welfare generally that every possible step be taken by the government to assure to the fullest possible extent continuous and uninterrupted transportation service."

"A strike on our railroads would be a nation-wide tragedy, with world wide repercussions."

The seizure order was issued after a week end of almost continuous negotiations, directed by Presidential Adviser John Steelman, failed to bring a settlement of the dispute between the three brotherhoods and the railroads over wages and working conditions.

The heads of the three unions left a White House conference just as the President's executive order was being released. They would not say whether their union members would remain on the job under government seizure.

"We're going to take that up now with our committees," President Truman's statement said. "The union leaders went right to their hotel for a conference with their strike committees. They said they would return to the White House at 12:30 p. m. (CST). They would not promise they would be able to notify Steelman at that time of their decision about working for the government."

Mr. Truman's order directed that, for the time being, present wage and working conditions in effect on the railroads shall be maintained.

The President said these wage conditions shall be continued until further order from himself or from the Secretary of the Army, Kenneth Royall.

A presidential fact-finding board has recommended a 15½ cents an hour increase as a settlement of the wage dispute. Railroad management accepted it, as did nearly a score of other railroad unions. The engineers, switchmen and firemen refused to accept it. They ask a 30 percent increase.

These unions have about 190,000 of the 1,300,000 workers in the nation's rail system.

Johnston told reporters that in the week end negotiations, "we have reduced our demand and tried to get a compromise. We have endeavored to get a settlement by cutting down to the limit our demands."

"We've done all the giving. They want to make a compulsory arbitration board out of the fact-finding board."

"We're not going to do it," Johnston and Robertson said it was "too complicated" to explain how they had receded from their earlier demands.

Approximately 100 city officials from points extending from El Paso to Abilene and from Lubbock to the Big Bend are expected to attend.

FOUR OTHERS INJURED

Lamesa Woman Is Killed In Mishap

Mrs. Geneva Bernice Morris, 16, Lamesa, was killed and four others injured, one critically, in a car mishap in the city park 11:00 p. m. Sunday.

Mrs. Morris' neck was broken when she was tossed from a convertible coupe which smashed into a culvert just north of the museum building.

Leonard Jack Mayfield, address unknown, had a critical skull injury and doctors at Cowper-Sanders hospital, where victims were rushed, despaired of his life. Mayfield had been a short-time employee of a carnival which put into town over the weekend, and efforts to locate his home had been unsuccessful at noon Monday.

Mrs. Ruth Parks, Lamesa, sustained a fractured jaw and severe lacerations, and her brother, O. T. Taylor, had broken teeth and severe gash under the chin. Winston Menges, other member of the party, had a broken nose and lacerations about the leg.

Police surmised that occupants of the car were pitched out of the car by the sudden impact with the concrete culvert shoulder.

The body of Mrs. Morris was at Valley Funeral home pending arrangements.

Survivors include her husband, Herschel Morris, reportedly en route here from San Antonio where he is assigned by the Army; her mother, Mrs. Ida Nelson, Lamesa, a half-brother, J. W. Brown, Lamesa; three sisters, Della Audine Willman, Millersville, Texas; Lillie Lorraine Willman and Dottie Marie Willman, Lamesa; and one brother, J. C. Willman, Aspermont.

Burial may be beside the grave of her father and brother, William Walter Willman, Sr. and W. W. Willman, Jr., who were killed May 27, 1947 north of Stanton in a highway mishap. They were buried in Evergreen cemetery in Stanton.

Anderson Released From U.S. Cabinet

WASHINGTON, May 10. (AP)—President Truman formally accepted the resignation of Secretary of Agriculture Anderson today with an endorsement of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the Senate from New Mexico.

"In consenting to your release at this time," the President wrote, "I do so in the hope that the period immediately ahead is but the preliminary to your re-entry into the halls of Congress—next time as a member of the Senate."

Anderson formerly was a member of the House of Representatives.

Two Perish In Derailment

VALLEY FORGE, Pa., May 10. (AP)—Two persons were killed and more than 200 others bruised and shaken up last night in the derailment of a Reading Company passenger train near the George Washington Memorial Chapel in historic Valley Forge Park.

A railroad spokesman identified the dead as Buch Demmy, 51, the engineer, and Howard R. Jackson, the fireman, both of Allentown, Pa.

Warren Hampshire, 27, of Philadelphia, one of the passengers, said "There was a lurch, and people flew all around me."

Hampshire, who was in the second coach with his wife, Jean, 27, and their four-year-old daughter, Janet, said "There was some hysteria, mostly among elderly women. There was about six children in the car. Someone kicked out a window and we passed the youngsters out the window. Then we made our way back to the door."

LEADS UNOFFICIAL 'CONGRESS'

Churchill Says United Europe Would 'Revive The Old Glory'

Yesterdays the congress unanimously okayed a cultural committee resolution to set up a permanent European cultural organization.

The political committee voted down a proposal of former French Premier Paul Reynaud to call Western European elections of a consultative continental assembly by the year's end.

Two other Frenchmen had praised the plan as something positive, but R. W. G. Mackay of Britain had contended the various parliaments could not authorize elections within six months and held the parliaments themselves should appoint assembly delegates.

Mackay, urging caution, said Reynaud was "trying to make a

It's Time For Traffic Control

Police Chief Pete Green has under study, we are told, for submission to the city commission a recommendation for general, correlated traffic control in the city. He is to be congratulated for his movement, and it is to be hoped that something concrete will evolve from such recommendations.

We repeat in these columns that the broad extension of surfaced streets has created more traffic hazards than existed before, particularly in the matter of paved-street intersections, and it is going to be a "must" for the city to spend some money for methods of lessening these hazards.

The average motorist doesn't like stop signs, and he doesn't like stop-and-go signals, where the traffic isn't heavy all the time. But he can be made to like them. The acceptance of the light signals in the high school area is indication that observation can be had, because the situation on Johnson and 11th Place has been aided immeasurably.

Some more electric signals may be necessary. More economical, and perhaps just as effective, will be the more generous use of stop signs. Intersections which formerly were fairly safe because the "cross" traffic automatically yielded to the streets are no longer that way because "cross" traffic has become "through" traffic itself, thanks to paving. This is an item that must be taken into consideration in any traffic control recommendations.

Everyone Loses In Rail Strike

Between the time this is written and the time it reaches readers, developments may have occurred which will forestall the nationwide railroad strike.

It is hoped that leaders on both sides of the controversy and those in participating governmental agencies will have found the vision, the acumen, the mutual understanding and the practicality to reach an understanding, if they don't—everybody loses.

For the second time in two years, the nation will be treated to an economic paralysis that will cost—even though a train stoppage were to last only a few days—millions upon millions of dollars. The railroad operators lose, to be sure, because they're out of business; the railroad workers lose, because their pay stops while their living expenses go on. The heaviest losers are Mr. and Mrs. American Citizen, whose very livelihood—and in some parts of the nation, very existence—depends upon a continuing smooth flow of commerce, communications and transportation. Without it, business in every community stagnates, and that stagnation will not be long in coming.

The food situation already is being affected, by railroads' decision not to accept perishable freight. Producers in various sections of the country already are feeling the pinch. When this stricture reaches up to the processor and the distributor, everybody feels the pinch.

Government intervention, of course, will have to come before the nation could be protected by a lengthy transportation tie-up. The public—the big loser—hopes that a more practicable and a more lasting solution can be found.

Affairs Of The World—

'One World' Draws Men

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Delegates of 22 European nations, attending the congress at the Hague to consider formation of a United States of Europe, appear to be drawing heavily for inspiration on that dream of the generations—"One World."

The proposed organization is linked with the western European union formed recently by Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg. All "free European countries" are invited to join, and it's interesting to note that exiled leaders from Czechoslovakia, Romania, Yugoslavia and Finland, are participating unofficially in the congress.

Britain's wartime prime minister, Winston Churchill, set the pace for the party with one of his dramatic speeches in which he envisaged, in effect, a peaceful three bloc world. This ultimately would comprise Pan America, the Russian bloc and a union of Europe which would include the far-flung British commonwealth. These three groups would be a subordinate but necessary part of the United Nations.

Thus the congress is furnishing fine old silver.

The nineteenth century saw much discussion of a United States of Europe. However, it didn't click. There was too much power politics, which finally precipitated World War One. Still, the ideal was pursued by such stalwarts as Aristide Briand of France, Dr. Thomas Masaryk, first president of Czechoslovakia, and his successor, Eduard Benes, who was unable to prevent the communistic rape of his little republic.

And do you know where much of the inspiration for this union of nations came from? It was from the success achieved by the federation of the United States of America.

Today And Tomorrow—

Churchmen's Petition

By WALTER LIPPMANN
Last week the President received from the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America a petition—addressed to the Administration and to the people—pleading with them not to "tolerate any complicity about war," and to "reject fatalism about war." Now it may be argued whether in fact there are many, or even any, men in high places who are complacent about war. But there is no doubt that the fatalistic view is widely held that war is inevitable, that nothing effective can be done to avert it, that all that can be done is to prepare for it.

The belief that war is inevitable rests on the idea that the two ways of life and systems of government—the Communist and American—are so antithetical and so irreconcilable that no settlement, even if one could be negotiated, would be observed. This view is plausible. There is no doubt, so at least it seems to me, that the Soviet government and the Communist movement, seek, if they can, to dominate the world, and that they are not bound by any agreements which seem to renounce this grandiose ambition. But in a conflict of this kind what they can do is more important than what they seek to do. Therefore, it does not follow at all that war is inevitable, that negotiation is useless, and that settlements are impossible.

Those who draw this conclusion, the fatalists about war, are in the last analysis the victims of the same fundamental fallacy, though in reverse, as is Mr. Henry Wallace. Like him they believe that peace can be had only when there are no radical conflicts of interest and purpose. He thinks that peace is possible because the conflict is imaginary. They think peace is impossible because the conflict is real. Both identify peace with the absence of conflict.

But the fact is that diplomacy is the art of dealing with real conflicts, and its object is to make peace and keep the peace by regulating these real conflicts. Diplomacy would be as easy as rolling off a log if it were concerned only with peace among peoples who think alike and trust each other. It is the most difficult of all the arts of government because it is concerned with peace among those who do not think alike and do not trust one another.

The fatalistic view, against which the Protestant churchmen have raised their voices, has its ultimate root in the naive notion that two rival systems of government, religion, and morality cannot exist on the same planet, and that the one must destroy the other.

The alternative view is that rival systems have always existed on the same planet, and though they have clashed, their wars have usually been indecisive. Great conflicts of great rival systems, as for example between Catholicism and Protestantism, have almost invariably died down in a stalemate. They have ended not in a universal triumph but in a partition of the contested area, and a modus vivendi, and then of a willingness to live and let live—because a universal triumph has become demonstrably impossible.

"TAKES US JUST UP TO ANOTHER ELECTION — GET IT?"

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

Power Behind The Great Oil Lobby

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON.—No. 1 industry in the nation's capital has now become lobbying. Despite the lobbying act, the hotels, the cocktail lounges, the corridors of congress now swarm with more of these oleaginous back-slappers than during the war. Standing out above the rest is the oil lobby—king-pin of them all.

The oil lobby has just scored one great victory — Palestine. Now it's concentrating on perhaps the richest of all prizes — tides.

Tidelands oil, the great continental shelf extending under the water off the Pacific and Gulf coasts, is estimated by some as more valuable than Arabia and the oil fields of the United States combined. Around 100 billion barrels lie buried in these underwater oil fields, as against only 20 billion barrels remaining in the dry-land oil fields of the United States.

"The petroleum resources of the continental shelf are ours to exploit whenever we exploit them becomes worth while," said Standard Oil in a statement to stockholders. And since the Supreme Court now takes a contrary view that the continental shelf belongs to the federal government, not the states, the oil lobby is focusing all its power on a bill introduced by Senator Moore of Oklahoma, himself an oilman, which would reverse the Supreme Court.

Having reversed the United Nations on Palestine, the oil lobbyists quite openly boast that they can put a law through Congress reversing the highest tribunal of the land.

THE LOBBYIST ARMY

Like a well-organized army, the oil lobby operates through a front-line commander, shock troops, deputy commanders, plus psychological warfare agents, financial backers, and camp followers. Front-line commander—is Senator Ed Moore, Oklahoma Republican, who made millions from oil, is about to retire from the Senate, doesn't care what the voters think of him, and has introduced bill 1988 turning the continental oil shelf of the United States.

Back to the states—chiefly to California and Texas. Senator Moore was able to afford a $25,000 contribution to Senator Pappy O'Daniel's radio fund in 1944.

Shock troop commander—is Walter Johnson, attorney general of Nebraska, who draws a salary of $1,500 a month from the oil lobby and spends part of his time in Washington directing its legislative battle, despite the fact that he is supposed to be attending to the law business of Nebraska.

Just why Nebraska, a landlocked state, with no oil lands remotely near the sea, should be so interested in the tides—oil bill, is difficult for the average person to understand. The reasons and ramifications will become evident later.

Deputy shock troop commander—is William W. Clary, assistant attorney general of California. Although working for the State of California and paid $6,500 a year by the taxpayers of that state, Clary also works for the law firm of O'Malley and Myers which in turn represents 23 oil and utility companies, most of which will profit from tides. A lush bonanza of $270,000 in attorney's fees was dropped into the lap of Mr. Clary and his associates by various clients last year, and Mr. Clary even explains that he pays his salary as a "state official into his law firm's kitty, splitting it with his partners.

How these state officials can get away with working for their state governments and for the oil companies at one and the same time is not only interesting but indicates why the oil companies are so anxious for state control of tides.

oil. State officials will be so nice and easy to get along with.

JAILED AS GERMAN AGENT

Psychological warfare chief—is Dr. Edward A. Rumely, once jailed for concealing his operations for Germany during World War I, later pardoned, and now amazingly and sanctimoniously successful at enticing all sorts of people to put money into the tides-oil fight.

Rumely employs a staff of 50 people to shovel out propaganda to the American public, and has a neat game whereby big businessmen can buy up his literature for so-called "educational" purposes and send it to schools and colleges. This makes it deductible from income taxes.

Rumely has done a skillful job of deluging an unsuspecting public with propaganda, especially doctors and lawyers, and many people have fallen for it.

THE CAMP FOLLOWERS

One of Rumely's camp followers and assistant propagandists is amiable Homer Dodge, ex-Washington newsman, frequently seen in the National Press Club, and who drew $2,075 from Rumely's Committee for Constitutional Government during the last three months of 1947.

Another deputy in the army of oil-lobby propagandists is able Eugene Kelly, another ex-Washington newspaperman, who was hired by Attorney General Fred Howser of California at $500 a week. Admitting this to a Senate Committee, Howser explained:

"The money has not been appropriated nor have I obtained it from the State of California. I must go home and get it for him."

Howser did go home, and did get the money appropriated—$43,000 by the California legislature. However, when it was reported that $25,000 of this was "ear-marked for lunches and entertainment of congressmen," California congressmen raised Cain and Governor Warren, in the end, vetoed the bill.

This leaves Attorney General Howser, Eugene Kelly and some of the other eager battlers in the army for tides oil, with a big hole in their pockets—at least theoretically. From a practical viewpoint undoubtedly the oil companies will fill up the hole.

That is just a brief bird's-eye view of the most skillfully organized lobby which has ever wrapped California's Sheridan Downey around its little finger. More about the lobby which plans to have its cake and eat it too—Arabian and tides oil—will follow soon.

Handy Film Yardstick For Story Measurement

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD.—Want to know why you didn't like that movie you saw last week? Here's a handy yardstick to show you the reasons.

It comes from genial Charles Brackett, who has formulated 10 rules for screen writers. Brackett doesn't wish to seem professional, but he is in a good position to deal out advice, being the producer and co-writer of such successful films as "The Lost Weekend," "To Each His Own" and "The Emperor Waltz."

As he delivered his 10 points, I realized they are good measurements for the average movie customer to know. So, for our better evaluation of films, here they are:

Help Themselves

CHICAGO (U.P.)—Chicago voters may be honest in their political convictions but not otherwise. John S. Rusch, chief clerk of the election board, said they generally take about 4,000 polling booth curtains, 300 national flags and considerable other equipment at each election.

Information

MOUNT MORRIS, N. Y. (U.P.)—The $20,000,000 federal dam flood control project here is having its effect on housing conditions. A classified advertisement in the weekly newspaper offered a reward of a $100 savings bond for "any information leading to rental of a house or apartment."

Wind Helps Out

ROCK ISLAND, Ill. (U.P.)—The senior class at Rock Island high school needed an apple tree to complete the stage setting for the production of the play, "All My Sons." Along came a wind storm and blew one down, breaking it off at the base of the trunk—just in time for the play.

Big Avenue 'Buffer' Growth Underground Aid To Shrubs

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK. (U.P.)—The subway is an underground avenue to and from work.

It is also a place where you can pick up a bedbug or a cold, make a home, commit a murder, hear a harmonica duet, meet a girl, close a business deal or buy a pencil from a blind man.

Some people believe the subway made modern New York city possible. Others are just as sure it has made the city impossible.

The subway is a twice-a-day purgatory to millions who ride to work during the rush hours. To out-of-towners it is first an adventure, then just one more reason why "New York's a great place to visit, but I sure would hate to live here."

It is the safest railroad in the world, but it remains a claustrophobic hell for many who get nervous when the train rolls under the east river. They go on for years dreading a tube collapse and swift drowning in rushing waters. It is futile to point out to these people this isn't likely to happen.

"Here anything can happen," they say. In that they are about right.

Some natives here when asked to give their place of birth can put down truthfully: "A subway station at so-and-so streets." A few have been born in the subway, many have died there. The roaring wheels—fascinating invitations to death for the life-sick—have extinguished the problems of living for hundreds who put their nickel in the turnstile for pass to eternity. Beginning July 1 it will cost a dime.

The "leapers" are the bane of subway workers and cops who must jack up the trains and lift out the dreamless flesh. This interrupts the schedule ten to twenty minutes andangers thousands of riders who complain, "Why didn't he jump off Brooklyn bridge?"

Air Force Explained

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON. (U.P.)—Here's an ABC on the 70-group Air Force, what it means, will mean, and why.

A group can be any number of planes, depending on their size. A group of heavy bombers will have fewer planes than a group of small fighters.

The Air Force now has 55 groups. Congress this week approved an increase to 70.

That doesn't mean we'd have the 70 groups next week or next year. We wouldn't be up to 70 groups before 1952.

Last year President Truman appointed five civilians to study this country's future air problems.

In January, 1948, this five-man group, called the President's air policy commission, made a report called "Survival in the Air Age."

Among other things, the commission told the President: An enemy nation—no one doubts Russia was meant—may have a lot of atomic bombs by 1953, enough to start a war.

If such a nation attacks us, the attack may be sudden. To be prepared we need a stronger Air Force than we have now. How strong? At least 70 groups by 1952, said the commission. To get that, we must start building up the Air Force now. Why?

Because, first, contracts for building the planes must be given to the manufacturers so they'll know how to plan production. Expanding the plants to make the planes takes time.

Backed by the commission's recommendation, W. Stuart Symington, secretary of air, told Congress we need a 70-group Air Force.

Mr. Truman didn't think we needed that many so soon. Neither did Secretary of Defense Forrestal. Forrestal said maybe a 66-group force would be all right.

But Congress agreed with Symington and approved a 70 group Air Force. The bill passed by Congress probably will reach Mr. Truman next week. He is expected to sign it into law.

Then the Air Force can start ordering the planes. It has its plans for the 70 groups ready.

When the U. S. Air Force was at its peak in World War II, it had 243 groups, or a total of about 40,000 combat planes.

Now it has 55 groups, with a total of 5,500 combat planes in active service and 7,500 in storage. The 70 groups will call for 6,869 active combat planes and $100 in storage.

Stream In Home

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (U.P.)—Fred A. Filkins has realized a 20-year ambition—to have a trout stream running through his home. Filkins built his new house so that a two-foot stream runs through the recreation room and solarium.

Tall Ones Flock

DALLAS. (U.P.)—The Dallas Tip Toppers club members always have their heads in the clouds. Requirement for membership is that the women be at least 5 feet, 11 inches tall and the men 6 feet, 2 inches. The Dallas club has 25 members.

Around The Rim—By The Herald Staff

'Buffer' Growth Under Aid To Shrubs

Stroll along most any thoroughfare in town where trees and shrubs line the sidewalks and you'll see a crimp peculiar to other vegetation. The herbage facing the street likely as not is swayback, full-blown perhaps at the top and the bottom but undernourished in the middle.

Property owners, as well as the experienced horticulturist, know well what causes the cancerous deficiency but, for the most part, are powerless to combat the menace. The foliage, that which is accessible, is picked away a leaf or two at a time or perhaps by the handfull, by unthinking passers-by. Likely as not, the guilty biped who snatches the leaves and scatters the loot in much the manner of a flower girl as he ankles on is a disciple of the rustic life. The fact is, he oftentimes commits his crime against Mother Nature without thinking.

There is fatal fascination for humans in growing things. Witness the bowl of flowers that adorn most any woman's house. The "keep off the grass" signs that can be found in our parks were put there to discourage the manswarm from getting too near the lush and the green.

Signs obviously won't stay the damage wrought by the ambulators. They may scurry away after scanning such printed warnings as "beware of the dog" or "poison ivy" but likely as not they take part of the landscape with them.

Perhaps planting the shrubbery a little farther away from the traffic lanes would help but that isn't considered fashionable. You probably can't afford to run the water sprinkler in that vicinity all day, either.

The only solution seems to be a "buffer" growth between the foliage and the pathways. Something like cacti, which will snap the pillager back into a conscious and repentant state, might eliminate the problem.

'State Of Union' Worries Capra

By JACK O'BRIEN

NEW YORK.—Frank Capra was a little concerned, he said, about the way Congress has reacted to his new movie, "State of the Union."

"After all," he after-alled, "when another of my movies, 'Mr. Smith Goes to Washington,' was shown down there, they treated me like a traitor. And, you'll remember, 'Mr. Smith' was a big money maker. The way Congress likes this new one, maybe it will lay an egg."

The tongue-in-cheek Mr. Capra was merely being facetious. He was excited about President Truman's attendance at the Washington preview of the picture.

"I was worried about how the President, a graduate of Congress, would take all the political criticism in the picture. I was so nervous I walked out right in the middle, and didn't come back until it was over. Then the boss of the secret service men told me to go down the aisle and say hello to the President. I said I didn't know whether it was polite, and anyway maybe he didn't like it."

"The secret service man said he'd been talking the President so long he knew practically all his moods, and that he'd watched Mr. Truman laughing all through the evening. So I rather timorously inched down the aisle, and someone introduced us. I was all set for anything, including an official protest to be delivered by the State Department, but it didn't come. The President said he was delighted, and could he show the picture a few nights later on the Presidential yacht?"

Capra said he was particularly on edge because the White House Correspondents association had sponsored the showing—without seeing it first! After the screening years ago of "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington," Frank said he was backed up against the wall of the hotel in which a post-screening party was being held and had to undergo a verbal barrage which left him mentally bruised and bleeding for weeks.

"That was a weird experience," he said. "At a party before that screening, I was treated like a hero, patted on the back by senators and congressmen who didn't know what the picture was about. After the screening, I was a bum. One senator even suggested I might be a propaganda tool of some enemy. The other night the same senator came by after the screening and offered congratulations. We both remembered that other night, and we both smiled without saying anything. We didn't have to speak. I knew I was vindicated."

Tarts, Darts And Dashes

An opportunist is one who gets a haircut and shampoo when he has a bad cold, because it always gives him a bad cold anyway.

If it's true that only two per cent of the people in the United States are morons, they sure do get around.

Every day when we arise we're more surprised than ever—when we raise the shades, look out the window, and find the world is still present.

A girl may wear a golf outfit when she can't play golf, and a bathing suit when she can't swim, but when she puts on a wedding gown she knows what she's doing.

ON US 80*Mesa Addition, Courts Popular

Public acceptance of Mesa addition has been enthusiastic, A. McNary, developer, reports.

Only about 25 lots remain in the tract, south of US 80 highway and adjacent to the municipal airport terminal. These are conventional sizes—30x140 and 60x140 feet. The entire area is on three feet of good top soil and the terrain is perfectly level.

One house is being started now.

and soon, said McNary. It is hoped to have water piped into the area. Other utilities are handy. Prices of the lots are extremely economical and modest down payments can close a trade.

Immediately to the north of the addition and on the highway is the Hitching Post trailer camp, equipped with electricity, sewage, gas and water facilities.

Popularity of the camp is increased by the tile-finished restrooms and showers, which have caused many patrons to volunteer that they are the best they have seen in this area. Germicide lamps—to keep air free from odors and germs, are to be installed.

McNary provided the Hitching Post because he felt there was need of a place where trailer houses could tie up and know that they had all the conveniences and sanitary arrangements to make living comfortable. There are cafes, stores, etc. in reasonable proximity to the camp.

McNary invited the public to drive out US 80 west and inspect the camp and the new addition and to make inquiry about both.

Sweden's export of iron ore in 1947 amounted to 8,500,000 tons, but it is estimated that this year the figure can be increased to 10,000,000 tons.

SMILE—That's what the sign says and that's what Roy B. Reeder, head of the Roy B. Reeder Agency, and his staff, consisting of Wendell Parks, left, and Dorothy Loudon, do while giving service on insurance problems, both in the life and casualty fields, or in handling automotive or real estate loans, or even (and this is the acid test) settling a claim on a car. It's all done cheerfully at the Reeder Agency where a smile says "thank you." (Jack M. Haynes Photo).

Culligan Plan

The Culligan Soft Water Service, 505 East Sixth street, is furnishing a service in Big Spring that makes it possible for homes to have water softer than rain from every faucet. Under the Culligan plan, the soft water is provided on a public service basis, just like telephone and electricity, with no equipment costs to consumers. There are no contracts to sign and all work connected with the service is performed by Culligan personnel.

Gives $23 Million

NEW YORK, (U.P.)—Rockefeller Foundation appropriated $23,413,615 in 1947 for public health, medicine, science and the humanities. Raymond B. Fosdick, president of the foundation, said the sum was the largest appropriated in its 35-year history.

Retain Lead In TC Race

Howard County Junior college copped an 11-9 decision from Forsan in Steer park Sunday afternoon by pushing across six runs in the seventh inning to gain a permanent lead in a see-saw battle.

The victory left the Hawks perched on the top rung of the Tri-County diamond league.

Before the big seventh, the lead changed hands four times, and the Forsan nine boasted a 7-5 advantage when the explosion came.

Pete Cook sparked the game-winning rally by rapping out a long double which came with the sacks jammed.

Forsan threatened in the ninth inning by putting two men on with a hit and a Hawk error. Leftfielder Bob Coffee raced back to take H. E. Johnson's high fly against the wall to retire the side, however.

A. J. Cain, who turned in a sterling relief job on the mound for the Hawks, gained credit for the victory. Cain replaced Don Clark on the hill in the fourth. Clark struck out nine Forsan batters before retiring in favor of a sore shoulder, and the Forsan crew was able to register only three safeties off Cain during the remainder of the route.

Don Clark narrowly missed a home run in the first inning when his line drive over the left field wall went foul by less than 10 feet.

The victory was the fifth in as many starts for the Hawks in league play.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

The life of a baseball manager is not an enviable one, even when one's team is setting the pace in league play.

Take Our Town's Pat Stasey for example. The Broncs have been near the Longhorn league lead nearly all season but Stasey has more troubles than you can shake a stick at, to use an overworked phrase.

Three new boys sailed in here from Cuba last Friday, two of them hurlers who were to spell an ailing pitching staff. Neither one of the fingers appeared to be in top shape and chances are it'll be a couple of weeks before they are.

TWO STARTING HURLERS NOW ON SHELF

The newcomers are Miguel Albarron, a rookie righthander who lasted less than two innings against San Angelo Saturday night; Albert Matos, who was due to take the rubber against Angelo today; and Ramiro Vasquez, a short stop.

Stasey can hope for the best from those three and try, meanwhile, to get Gerry Rodriguez and Jimmy Perez back in shape. Gerry discovered he had a lame arm immediately prior to that Friday night debacle in Sweetwater but thought he could work the soreness out. In just one inning, he found out he couldn't. Now he's taking special treatments from a masseur, didn't make the last rode trip.

JACOME SOLD OUTRIGHT FOLLOWING SS'S ARRIVAL

Perez, who had been counted on for 16 or 18 wins this year, has been put on the disability list because of an internal disorder.

When Vasquez put in his appearance, Stasey decided to accept him without seeing him work out. He and his business partner, Claud McAden, sold Skee Jacome, who had been playing short regularly in the absence of George Lopez, to Henderson of the Lone Star circuit. Jacome departed Saturday morning.

STASEY NOT YET SET ON BIG SPRING LINEUP

So they come and they go. Stasey is still far from set on his lineup. He'll get more help from time to time but wants the fans to expect the team's share of losses because the club is still very much in the experimental stage.

SIFFT NOT HAPPY AT TENNESSEE STATION

Jake McClain, the Hosse's second sacker, had word from George Sift, the Canton first baseman-outfielder, who was here early in the season.

Sift, at Newport, Tenn., says he doesn't like the town or the league in general, and wished he were back here.

CRAMER SAYS AZPIAZU SMARTEST IN LEAGUE

Burl Cramer, the Coahoma Bulldogs' manager and a fellow with vast baseball knowledge, says Justo Azpiazu, the Bronc first sacker, is not only about the handiest thing with the mitt he's ever seen, he's undoubtedly the smartest player in the league. A lot of other local fans think the same thing.

HENDERSON TRYING TO PEDdle GROVE TO BRONCS

The Henderson management has been trying for some time now to peddle Lefty Grove, the former Midland hurler, to Stasey and McAden. The local brain trust apparently is not interested, however.

Joe Traspuesto, the former Big Spring, has been getting into a few ball games for Henderson but hasn't been faring so well. His pitching arm seems to still give him trouble, despite the fact that he had some bone chips removed during the winter.

Bulldogs Clip Westerner Nine

COAHOMA, May 10.—Coahoma's Bulldogs kept in the running for the Tri-County baseball league crown by thumping the Big Spring Westerners, 17-4, here Sunday afternoon.

Bill Brown, on the hill for Coahoma, set the Westerners down with four hits, two of them home runs by Jimmy Arrington and Frank Dunn.

The Canines tallied nine of their runs in the last three innings.

Broncs Beaten Again By San Angelo, 7-4

SAN ANGELO, May 9.—The Big Spring Broncs headed for Del Rio today still in first place in Longhorn baseball league standings but reeling from the effects of two consecutive lickings at the hands of the San Angelo Colts.

The Angelenos measured the Hosse's 7-4, again Sunday behind the effective elbowing of Jimmy Baker, a rookie from Denver, Colo.

A two run outburst in the eighth inning clinched the decision for Baker and his mates.

Angelo combed the offerings of two Big Spring hurlers, Larry Shaw and Jake Matos, for 16 assorted blows while Baker limited the opposition to ten.

The Steeds play Del Rio three games before returning home Thursday to tangle with the Colts in a three-bout set.

Ray Clements Seeks Revenge In AC Duel

They'll clear the decks at the Big Spring Athletic club this evening for the 'battle of the century.' Storm warnings have been out since last Monday when a rematch was announced between Big Train Clements of Lubbock, Texas, and the Masked Marvel, who refuses to tell where he's from.

The Marvel got the better of a wild struggle last week, thanks to a bit of last maneuvering by the referee, which Clements said wasn't legal at all.

It seems Big Train upended the Mighty Marvel and deposited on yonder side of the ropes, which isn't according to the book.

Prior to that development, Clements had managed to hold the upper hand nearly all the way and seemed very near victory.

The Marvel is yet unbeaten here and seems to be proud of that record, for he gets roughest when backed into a corner.

At 8:15 p. m., Billy Hickson of Knoxville, Tenn., and Abilene's Ace Abbott open the show in a best two-out-of-three fall match.

Hickson reached the height of his popularity here when he held the highly touted Eddie Gideon to a draw here several weeks ago.

He hasn't been on the downgrade since then. Abbott remains a local favorite and a mighty hard one to beat.

Patched-Up Athletics Continue Mad Pace With Double Victory

By The Associated Press

This is kindly old Connie Mack's 86th year — his 64th in baseball and it promises to be one of his happiest.

The venerable manager of the patched-up Philadelphia Athletics, who has experienced innumerable thrills in his life watching his "castoff crew" make monkeys out of the so-called elite of the American League.

Only a mathematical oddity keeps this much-abused outfit from occupying first place in the American League. Over yesterday's double victory over the Detroit Tigers, 10-5 and 5-3, which boosted their winning streak to eight games, the Athletics actually lead the first place Cleveland Indians by a half game. The percentage table, however, shows the Indians in front by eight points.

Here is why. Cleveland, with its two triumphs over the Red Sox in Boston yesterday, 4-1 and 9-5, has won 10 games and lost four for a .714 percentage. The A's have won 12 and lost five for .706.

The New York Yankees, in third place, have a 10-6 mark, a game and a half behind the Athletics, but only one game back of the leading Indians. The Yankees drubbed the Chicago White Sox, 8-0.

The Indians surprised the Boston Red Sox by coming from behind twice to capture their doubleheader. Trailing 1-0 on Ted Williams' fourth-inning home run, the Indians drew even in the next stanza when Ken Keltner connected for the first of his three home runs. Keltner's second four-base knock came in the 10th inning which enabled Bob Feller to gain his third victory of the season.

Williams' second home run of the day and seventh of the season gave the Red Sox a brief 5-2 lead in the second game, but the Indians came back with three round trippers to win.

The St. Louis Cardinals moved into first place in the National League. They pushed a half game ahead of the New York Giants by downing the Boston Braves, 6-4, while the Cubs were shutting out the Giants, 2-0, in Chicago.

Frank Shea held the White Sox hitless for six and two-thirds innings, to record his first shutout and second win. A single by Bob Kennedy ended Shea's dream of a no-hitter. Charlie Keller, George McQuinn, Billy Johnson and Tommy Henrich poled home runs for the victors.

Washington turned back the St. Louis Browns, 3-1, to move into fourth place in the American League.

The third place Pittsburgh Pirates remained a game off the pace in the National League by dividing a doubleheader with the Brooklyn Dodgers at Forbes Field. The Dodgers won the opener, 14-2, as Pee Wee Reese knocked in six runs with three hits, including a grand slam homer. Ralph Kiner swatted his fourth and fifth round trippers to lead the Pirates to a 10-8 nightcap decision.

The Philadelphia Phils clubbed the Reds twice in Cincinnati, 14-2 and 8-0, as Lefty Ken Heintzelman registered his second straight shut-out.

Arrangements Are Pending For Kings

Arrangements were pending Monday for Mr. and Mrs. Leland Ray King, 200 Lexington, Big Spring, victims of a plane crash Friday in California.

The bodies were to be flown back to Merkel for burial. Both of their families lived or had lived in the vicinity of Merkel. Mrs. King was the former Eugene Dye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Dye, who now reside in Sacramento, Calif. She and Mr. King, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. King, route No. 3, Merkel, were flying to Sacramento for a visit at the time of the crash.

Relatives are driving through from California and no time has yet been fixed for the funerals. King was a pumper's helper for Corden Petroleum. Mrs. King had been associated with Hester's for the past five and a half years. They were killed when their light plane plied up and burned in the rugged San Bernardino mountains. Apparently they were off course at the time of the crash.

Shooting Brings No Arrests Here

He didn't give his reasons, but a Latin-American who was questioned by Sheriff Bob Wolf at Sand Springs last night in connection with the firing of a pistol in the direction of another Latin-American said he was leaving for Nebraska 'as soon as possible'.

Wolf made no arrests. The man said he was provoked into the shooting when the other party refused to quit throwing rocks in the direction of his house, despite repeated appeals from the direction of the house.

Enraged, the besieged fired through the window without taking the trouble to raise the glass but the bullets came no where near his antagonist.

FUTURE FORECAST

Senate Has Battle Over Segregation

WASHINGTON, May 10. (P)—In a forecast of civil rights battles to come, the Senate found itself all would up today in the issue of southern race segregation.

The immediate controversy revolves around an interstate compact aimed at setting up regional universities in the South.

The compact is before the Senate as the final step in required congressional sanction.

Although the House already has passed an approval bill, 236 to 45, Senate action was stymied last Thursday after half a dozen members got into a spirited debate over a move by Senator Morse (R-Ore.).

Morse offered an amendment specifying that none of the proposed schools should apply entrance qualification based on race, creed or color.

Senator Holland (D-Ia), ready to take up the fight today, told a reporter this would be "the complete destruction of the compact because the states have constitutional provisions which are binding on them."

The compact, agreed to earlier this year at a conference of Dixie governors, would permit southern states to pool their finances to create regional universities in the medical, dental, veterinary and similar fields.

Sponsors contend most of the southern states do not have enough money to maintain such institutions individually.

Holland said that if the legislation is stymied in the senate for any reason, Meharry Medical College for Negroes at Nashville, Tenn., will be forced to close its doors and a study to determine the needs for regional schools will have to be stopped.

Visitors' Home Damaged By Fire

The Mother's day visit of Mr. and Mrs. Felton Smith and family of Fort Worth was cut short Sunday when they received word that their house had caught fire.

They left immediately but called here later to say the blaze had been confined to one room, the kitchen. The fire occurred apparently when their electric ice box shorted out. A neighbor saw flames coming out of the kitchen window and summoned firemen.

The Smiths had been visiting in the home of his mother, Mrs. Felton Smith, Sr.

Aggies Honored

COLLEGE STATION, May 10. (P)—Outstanding units and students at Texas A&M College were honored yesterday in ceremonies witnessed by more than 5,000 spectators. The ceremonies carried a Mother's Day theme.

Stella Mae Clanton Becomes Bride Of Harry Eugene MacBeth Saturday

Miss Stella Mae Clanton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hassie Clanton became the bride of Harry Eugene MacBeth, son of Mr. and Mrs. William MacBeth of Tarrs, Penn. Saturday evening.

The informal double ring ceremony was read in the Apostolic Faith church by the Rev. Paul Bailey by candlelight. The church was decorated with bouquets of pink roses and tall white tapers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Paul Clanton, wore a blue crepe dress with white accessories and pink rosebud corsage. She wore a watch as something old; pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, as something new; earrings as something borrowed and her dress carried out the blue ensemble. She also wore a penny in her shoe.

Wanda Clanton, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in a pink crepe dress, white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

James Gortney was best man. Kitty Roberts accompanied Mrs. Paul Clanton, who sang, "Because" and Mrs. Richard Thompson who sang, "Indian Love Call." She also played the traditional wedding marches and pre-nuptial selections.

Mrs. MacBeth graduated from Big Spring high school and is now employed by the Ideal Cleaners. The bridegroom is a graduate of Tarrs, Penn. high school and is now with the Oppgaard Well Service company in Big Spring.

The couple left immediately following the service for a wedding trip in New Mexico. For traveling, the bride wore a black and white frock with white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. MacBeth will be at home in Big Spring following the trip.

NOTICE

We, the undersigned, would like to present to you for your careful consideration a problem confronting the local milk producers. During the past several months there has been an outside milk distributor operating in Big Spring which is causing a gradual surplus of milk in this area. This surplus in time will cause the local dairymen to have to sell our milk at a surplus price which we cannot possibly do and keep operating our dairies.

We feel that we should be given first consideration for a market at home for our products due to the fact that we make our homes here, we pay taxes here and do all our buying locally. We feel that the slogan that you merchants sometime use "KEEP YOUR DOLLARS AT HOME, PATRONIZE YOUR HOME MERCHANT", is a very wise one and we ask that you support it so that we may continue the production of milk in this area.

We ask that you give careful thought to what would have happened if Big Spring citizens should have had to depend on an outside milk supply during the war emergency. We have no assurance that this emergency won't face us again in the near future.
