

Negro Dies After Automobile Wreck

Woman Is Injured When Cars Strike East Of Matador

Leroy Williams, 30, negro shine at the City Barber Shop, died Tuesday afternoon from injuries sustained in an automobile accident at Fairview Filling Station, five miles east of Matador, about nine o'clock Sunday night. Williams was driving one of the automobiles which was also occupied by his wife and another negro man, J. Brown. Brown is declared to be in a critical condition.

Mrs. Clarence Burton of Childress is in the Traewick Hospital here suffering a broken leg, an injured arm and body injuries as a result of the accident. Euthel Squyers, who was driving Mrs. Burton's car, suffered several broken ribs and other injuries. They were driving east on Highway 28, after having accompanied Mrs. Burton's daughter to Lubbock to attend Texas Technological College.

Drinking Is Blamed

It was first believed that both of the negro men had been instantly killed and the Homer Sheats undertaking firm had been summoned, when it was found that life still existed. Williams' head had suffered a terrific blow and one of his eyes had been dislodged.

Local officers declare that charges of drunken driving would probably have been filed against Williams if he had lived. It is declared the accident occurred when the negro's car drove onto the highway from the south directly in the path of the car driven by Mr. Squyers.

Boosters Send Broadcast Out From Matador

Two large bus loads of boosters of the Panhandle-South Plains fair visited Matador Thursday, distributing literature, souvenirs and free children's tickets to the fair. Wednesday and Thursday, September 27-28 has been designated as children's days.

Before the colorfully-dressed group of trippers had their lunch, the regularly scheduled Hop Halsey's Cowboys' program was broadcast from the bandstand on the court house square. The program was sent to Lubbock over special wire where it was broadcast by radio station KFYO and returned here via the air to be heard by all. All local radios turned to the station.

The specially chartered buses bearing the boosters made the following stops Thursday: Abernathy, Hale Center, Plainview, Lockney, Floydada, Matador, Roaring Springs, Dickens, Spur, Crosbyton, Ralls, Lorenza and Idalou. Plainview schools were recessed to receive the visitors.

For several years the boosters have made arrangements to have their noon meal in Matador when on tour in this direction. Arriving here at the noon hour, making it possible for the school children to attend the programs without loss of time.

About 60 Acres Lost

It was estimated by deputy sheriff H. H. Courtney, Monday, that in the neighborhood of sixty acres of grass was lost from the vandal's actions. Two fires gained headway east of Tongue river to burn an estimated 20-acre and 40-acre scope before brought under control. In some places it was said that spots not much larger than a wash-tub would require immediate attention of officers and ranchmen, indicating that the firebrand was but a short distance ahead.

Officers in Childress, Cottle, Motley, Floyd and Dickens counties were notified, but no arrests had been made yesterday, it was declared. No witness of the incendiary action has been located. Due to rising feed prices and the extreme short range this season, ranchmen would suffer immensely in any loss of range grass and extra precautions are being made to burn fireguards and otherwise guard against further deprivations.

Many School Book Covers For County

Over 12,000 school book covers are being distributed free of charge to schools in Motley county and the territory served by the local Phillips Petroleum Company agency, according to Jack White, representative.

Texas law requires that all text books be covered adequately and presents a considerable problem to both the schools and the individual pupils. The covers supplied by the Phillips Company are of high quality material and protect the books through the school term where ordinary care is exercised.

The Phillips Company furnishes similar covers to the schools throughout West Texas, the requirements amounting to over 500,000 covers.

LIGHT SHOWER OVER SECTION

A light shower, amounting to 3/16 inch here in Matador, fell over this section about 10 o'clock Saturday night and relieved Saturday the extreme drought and heat condition that has prevailed throughout the summer.

No reports of heavier rainfall in the county have been received. However, it is believed that more rain fell on the grazing lands northeast of town.

Much later feed is reported to be withstanding the extreme weather in good condition while feed in nearby fields is lost beyond hope by possible rains. The condition of cotton over the county is considered critical, with little chance of benefit by rains.

Gins throughout the county have been humming but the season can last only a few weeks, if the weather continues dry and hot, farmers declare. It is impossible to secure estimates of the crop but careful observers believe that between four and seven thousand bales may be expected, depending on rainfall in the near future and the advent of freezing weather.

Prairie Left In Flames By Mad Firebrand

Officers Of Five Counties Seeking Unknown Vandal

Officers of five west Texas counties are seeking clues that might lead to the arrest of an unknown vandal or vandals that set fire to a 40-mile stretch of prairie grass in Motley, Cottle and Childress counties Sunday morning. Following close in the firebrand's terrorizing wake, ranchmen and officers were forced to give up the chase in order to extinguish the ten or more fires started in the drought-dried grass of the U. L. Willie lease east of Tongue river in Cottle county. The fires were started by throwing lighted matches from an automobile, it is believed, since the incinerating matches were found at the edge of the pavement along the route of Highway 28 between Matador and Paducah and also north of Paducah on the Childress to Paducah highway.

Neither team scored in the first quarter. Crowell made two touchdowns in the second quarter, but failed in making the extra points. County's Payments Aided By $16,452 Received Last Week

Motley county farmers received an additional $16,452 parity payment on 1939 government pledges when 182 checks were received by county agent J. Rufus Emmons during the past week. This, the fourth shipment of parity checks, brought the total to $53,833, while $42,000 still remains to be distributed as soon as it is received. Lowell Sharbutt, assistant county agent, said late yesterday that the office hoped to have received and delivered the remaining $42,000 by the first of October.

Equal To 2,280 Bales

Mr. Sharbutt said that these grants, designed to bolster the income of cotton farmers who have reduced the acreage this year in view of a towering cotton surplus, will add to the purchasing power of Motley county farmers in money equivalent to approximately 2,280 bales of cotton at current prices. This price adjustment payment of 1.6 cents per pound on the normal yield of the 1939 cotton acreage allotment is made to the 1939 producer.

Additional checks that will be received on conservation payments are expected in the amount of $159,173, bringing the total amount of government aid to more than $250,000. The conservation payments will probably arrive about the first of the year, it was declared.

Efficiency Commended

Motley county's agricultural office received high praise at an AAA meeting held in Floydada Tuesday when it was disclosed that not a single 1939 parity application had been suspended from this county. No other office in the territory was able to equal the record. County agent J. teachers and the other students. Juanita Mize thinks the students behave nicely in class. Her reason for this statement is our merit system and the fact that the students consider others.

We quote Lucille Plumlee as saying, "As a whole the students behave rather nicely in class. Altho sometimes they do become disinterested and talk of more interesting things."

Students, let us remember that we can profit by our mistakes. So if any of the above bad habits belong to one of us, let us do our best to correct it.

The public speaking class in a meeting held last Friday afternoon organized a dramatic club. This club will have a program for the class the last Thursday in each month.

COLLEGE PROF. SPEAKS HERE

Dr. B. F. Fronabarger, head of the English department at West Texas Teachers College at Canyon, spoke to the high school student body last week.

Getting Acquainted. Dr. Fronabarger is here getting acquainted with our students. He wants to become a friend to all but especially to those that are going to attend college at Canyon. He wants to know those students so he can be their adviser and show them the "ropes" at college.

Efficiency Important. Dr. Fronabarger stated that efficiency in written and spoken English was very important. He thinks that a student has a chance for better grades if his work is clearly stated, neatly written, and correctly punctuated. An application for a position is more favorably received if it is made according to this rule. He thinks that an efficient student will be happy in college.

Taught Here. Dr. Fronabarger is well known in this community. He taught his first school here over twenty years ago. Many of the parents of the student body went to school to him.

Etiquette... You Tell On Yourself

You tell what you are by the friends you seek. By the very manner in which you speak. By the way you employ your time. By the use you make of dollar and dime.

You tell what you are by the things you wear. By the spirit in which your burdens you bear. By the kind of things at which you laugh. By the records you play on your phonograph.

You tell what you are by the way you walk. By the things of which you delight to talk. By the manner in which you bear defeat. By so simple a thing as how you eat.

By the books you choose from the well-filled shelf. In these ways, and more, you tell on yourself. So there's really no particle of sense. In an effort to keep up false pretense. —Author Unknown

This and That

Dear me! We wonder who Miss Stearns would capture this year, and apparently the battle is on. (Should we speak so harshly?) We noticed her eyes dancing the "Dipsy Doodle" and "Big Apple" at the pep rally the other morning. (No siree, we aren't mentioning any more names.)

Romance blossoms in the strangest places! In Public Speaking Class, J. D. and Peggy (Payne and Hutson respectively) are always playing hands. Could it be real love or just infatuation?

My, my, how hearts do change! It's Wiley and Wandean this year. (But definitely, we hear!) As yet, data on the subject is somewhat lacking, but more will no doubt follow. (It's only a budding romance so far!)

We "wooden" know, but the sophs seem to be courtin' right along. Persons in question: Billy Tunnell and Dorothy Wason, James R. Fish and Jimmie Lee Guthrie. What darling couples! (As the saying goes, "aint love grand!")

If you're wondering why Wilena has been so sad lately, it's because a certain football star has been ill. No wonder she did not yell any louder at the game last Friday afternoon.

Myrnae's funds are declining rapidly according to Tommy and well. She likes buying coco colas for them very much (or is it forced upon her.) It seems there is a bet among them concerning her actions toward a certain senior boy. (If you don't get this, folks, don't feel hurt, 'cause we're sorta bewildered ourselves.)

PEP RALLY TONIGHT

Tonight there is going to be a pep rally at the band stand. Everyone is urged to attend in order to give the boys more pep for their game with Silverton tomorrow. The game is to be played on our own field, and it will begin about 3:30. Most of the boys will be in there doing their best even though the injury jinx has struck several times already this year.

BIG SHOW IS RESTYLED TO AMAZE CROWDS

Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus Air Conditioned And Abreast of Times

The big show—Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey—moving on four long railroad trains and carrying 1600 people, 50 elephants, 1009 menagerie animals, hundreds of horses and Garantua the Great, world's largest and most ferocious captive gorilla, now displayed for close-up views in the menagerit, will exhibit in Lubbock, Tuesday, September 26, with its huge big top air conditioned and restyled in rainbow hues.

Performances will be given at 2:15 and 8:15 P. M., the doors opening at 1 and 7 P. M.

Twenty-two air conditioning units, installed at intervals around the circumference of the world's largest tent, make it comfortable for the thousands who attend the big show. Drapes and gold tassels, gold and silver poles make the interior something new under the circus sun.

Terrell Jacobs, renowned trainer, presents the largest group of performing wild animals ever assembled in America—50 lions and tigers in an amazing display.

Dorothy Herbert, madcap rider of rearing and fire hurdling horses, back from European triumphs, heads a number with 70 girl riders on 70 Kentucky high school horses, all four-year-olds.

Under a blue big top ceiling, lighted as is a big New York musical show, the displays of The Greatest Show on Earth surpass all the massed attractions of former years.

There is a heavier contingent of steller European features with the circus than ever before, for John Ringling North, its president, scoured the Continent with an open purse last winter. The more important newly imported attractions are: the Great Arturo, breath-taking daredevil and comic of the high wire; the Pilades, sensational leapers over elephants and camels; the Zerbinis, the Ortans and Faludys, Europe's greatest teeterboard somersaulting acrobats; Albert Powell, contortionistic star of the flying trapeze; the Oicardis, jugglers de luxe; the Iwanows, thrillers on the aerial bars; Hubert Castle, England's wonder comic of the tight wire; the famous European clown Albertino, and Lula, most famous of women clowns.

The horse numbers of the show are extraordinarily appealing, with William Heyer and Tamara Heyer featured in new and sensational numbers. Tex Elmlundt again scores with new liberty horse acts.

The world famous Riding Christians, bareback thrillers, with Lucio and Belmonte starring; the two Flying Concello troupes and the Flying Comets, with Antoinette Concello, only girl triple somersaulter, the Walkmirs, aerial perch marvels; the Torrence Dolders, flying perch wonders; the Pallenbergs and their performing bears; the Rooneys, stellar double trapeze artists—these are some of the other outstanding features.

A great new horse fair tent adjoining the mammoth menagerie is open to patrons before the main performances commence.

Keith Patton, Editor Substitute Of Student Opinion CONDUCT SHOULD IMPROVE

The way a student behaves in a room is very important to the other students, and the teacher. From his conduct, others form an opinion which is seldom changed. When interviewing all students, we found there was a need for improvement in our conduct.

Mr. Hill thinks that, as a student body is composed of others and try not to disturb them from their work.

To Billy Tunnell the students' major fault is that of talking too much. Some are rude to the do not behave very well. Some of them speak out of turn and when someone else is speaking. Wiley Kennedy said the students made too many unnecessary noises. They talk to much without permission and interrupt the teacher when he is speaking.

NEW BOOKS

Matador City Library

ALONE

By RICHARD E. BYRD

Lat. 80° South... This is the book that Admiral Byrd was four years deciding whether to write—the account of an experience so intimate—and perhaps so catastrophic—that for a long time he could not bring himself to tell it. It is an experience that only one man could write about because it happened to just one man, and that man was completely alone in the South Polar night. Nobody else was there to listen. Nobody else was there to know. It is the account of Byrd's five months' isolation at Advance Base, the place, far south of Little America, where, in 1934, he nearly died.

The Decision

Advance Base was the outcome of an idea inspired by Byrd's first Antarctic expedition. The idea was to plant deep in the interior of that continent an outpost, manned by several trained observers whose task would be to study weather within the polar continent where weather breeds. Accordingly a hut was designed and built in the United States for that purpose during the preparation for the second expedition. And it was landed safely at Little America.

But the original plan thereafter never had a chance. The monstrous task of unloading the ships, together with the critical ice conditions at Little America, so depleted Byrd's transport that he had to face the choice of giving up the base entirely or else manning it alone. He decided to man it alone. This he did, fully conscious of his responsibilities to himself, his desire and right to find out what lay in the world's darkest dark and coldest cold, and what could be learned in such a place.

The Man

Byrd is the only man living who has stood over both Poles. He is now 50 years old. A grateful government has decorated him with its medals. He has sat at a thousand banquets in his honor, marching in as many parades. Nearly everything that the world has to offer a resolute man he had had. Everything but solitude. And that he discovered at Lat. 80° S.

None of the reassuring things of the past were of any help to him then. Not when his arm was lamed. Nor when he lost the cook book. Nor when the sun rolled beneath the horizon and darkness washed in from the south for good. Nor when fumes from the stove weakened him, and carbon monoxide from a small engine all but killed him. Nor when the radio went out. Nor, finally, when the blizzard scuffed endlessly overhead, the ice crystals thickened on the shack walls, the flame wavered in the pressure lantern, and the only living sound that side of the South Pole was the breathing of a man who was not yet sure that he would not die.

No one has ever before written such a book. For that matter, none could have written such a book. When you put it down, you will understand why.

Auto Title Law Starts October 1.

Public Safety Department officials have hurried preparations to set in motion the new certificate of title act which will affect thousands of motor vehicle owners after October 1.

Ralph L. Buell, Driver's License Division Chief under whose supervision the new law will be administered, said forms and instructions will be mailed to tax collectors by next Monday so they may begin to receive title applications by October 1, the date the law goes into effect. At least a million certificates of title are expected to be issued in the next 12 months, he said.

It was emphasized that this act, passed by the past regular session of the legislature, applies only to motor vehicles offered for sale, purchased or encumbered with liens on and after October 1. In other words, the present owner of an automobile does not have to secure a certificate of title until he sells his car or places an encumbrance against it—until January 1, 1942 (CQ). If a lien is placed against the vehicle before October 1, 1939, no certificate is necessary.

All Are Affected
All motor vehicles now required to be registered will be affected by the certificate of title law whenever their ownership status is changed. Only vehicles owned by Governmental agencies are exempt.

Pointing out that applications for titles must be made in the county of residence of the automobile owner and ownership definitely proved, Buell said the new law is destined to be a hard blow to automobile thieves and others who attempt sales of mortgaged vehicles. A fee of 25 cents will be charged for each original title and each reissuance. Ten cents goes to the tax collector and 15 cents to the state.

All new vehicles in the possession of dealers on September 18, 1939, will be required to have manufacturers' titles of ownership, according to the new law. Vehicles imported from other states and offered for sale in Texas will be certified through special affidavits and forms.

Whenever the owner of a motor vehicle transfers it by operation of law, as upon inheritance, devise, bequest, bankruptcy, receivership, judicial sale, or any other involuntary devesture of ownership, all official papers connected with the transaction must be attached to application for title. Foreclosure under terms of a lien must be noted by affidavit of facts, Buell said.

Tax collectors over the state will forward all title applications to the Austin headquarters of the safety department where they will be investigated, filed, and titles issued. Revocation and suspension authority for certain violations of the law was given state police, however, interested persons may request a hearing.

Local Businessmen Subscribe To Team

Local businessmen have pledged to donate about $60 per month for the next three months to aid in the program of the Matador Matadors, it was announced at the Monday morning breakfast of the Matador Lions Club directors.

In addition to the cash donations, several businessmen have given employment to members of the high school football team in order to make it possible for them to attend school, it was disclosed.

A driver and conveyance has been secured for members of the squad who live in outlying communities but must remain for practice after the regular school bus departs. This transportation is being paid for from the fund provided by the businessmen.

The Matador Lions Club will sponsor a safety campaign in the immediate future, it was decided at the directors' meeting, soliciting the cooperation of automobile and truck drivers. Especial caution is stressed regarding the dangers on highways at this season thru the use of improperly lighted vehicles driven by cotton-pickers. All farmers are urged to place reflectors or lights on trailers or wagons being towed to the bins, in order that dangers may be reduced as much as possible.
