TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

I would not confirm some of my fears lest the truth arrest my frivolous little freedoms and make them prisoners before the court of society.

My ambitions usually go away like hungry but discouraged hounds after I have made a few feeble attempts at providing them with the food of realization.

Frequently I am at the point of being convinced the handshake is the most revealing monitor of character man possesses. It discloses prisms of individualism which are often obscured at the beginning of an acquaintance.

Former County Resident Dies

Walter Marler, 56, former resident of Flomot, died Oct. 21 at the Peoples hospital in Floydada after an illness of several hours. He became ill early Monday night (Oct. 20) and died within a short time after he had been hospitalized.

Mr. Marler was born in Roswell, Georgia on June 9, 1896. He came to Texas in early childhood and to Motley County in 1908. He was married to Miss Mary L. Barker on November 26, 1916 at Flomot, where they lived until 1943, when they moved to Floydada. ### The Tribune Surrenders Its Mace HUMBLY and with sincere respect to the will of the people, this newspaper surrenders its political position. General Dwight Eisenhower is our President and we will support him with all the limited means at our command. His task is perhaps the greatest ever faced by any leader of this nation. A general is powerless without an army and a president is powerless without the support of all the people.

To Governor Adlai Stevenson we tender our most profound admiration. In defeat he was magnificent no less than would he have been in victory; one of world's truly great men. The truth he spoke will remain unchanged tomorrow and all the days that follow.

The campaign is over and the Tribune has no further quarrel with the Republican party so long as it seeks to justify the responsibility which the people have placed in its hands. Altho the challenge is exceedingly great, the opportunity for true leadership was never greater.

On the other hand the Tribune reserves the right to deal with the perfidious apostates of the Democratic party as it pleases. Altho defeated, it will remain a Democratic newspaper, sincerely pledged to the support of a Republican administration. It considers the Democratic trusteeship of responsibility was inexcusably tossed to perjury and that the men responsible for the disgrace should not escape contempt.

We are a little giddy from the inoculation, General Ike, but we are ready. Where does a recruit start?

Lions Casting for Gay 90's Review

Members of the committee include Jack Norman, chairman, Bill Seale, and Andy Hurst. Mrs. Glenn Woodruff is working with the committee and will be cast in a specialty skill.

Altho rehearsal time is limited the show promises to exceed last year's production in mirth-provoking qualities. Pre-sale of tickets is expected to start some time next week. New acts, new jokes and many new surprises are being written into the show.

Matadors To Meet Silverton

Last home game of the season will be played here Friday night when the Matadors tangle with the Silverton Owls, one of the most ominous teams of the district. The Owls are unbeaten this season and have been picked to win the district. They have defeated Lakeview 43 to 7 and Quitaque 34 to 12.

Halloween night the Matadors held the Turkey Turks to a tie, 6-6. It was the Turks third consecutive tie for the season.

The two clubs rocked along on even terms for three quarters until the Turks' James Fuster intercepted a Matador aerial on the Matadors' 38 and raced to the 2-yard line, from where Right Half Jerry George powered over for the score.

The passing combination of Quarterback Neal Pipkin to Left Half Dean Martin clicked three times in a row for a total of 28 yards to put the Matadors on the Turks 6-yard line, with about four minutes remaining. Fullback Dewayne Martin scored to tie the game and the extra point attempt was futile.

A POLITICAL HONEYMOON of 20 years duration Tuesday was brought to an abrupt conclusion. The voter embraced the Republican party and its groom, General Dwight D. Eisenhower, with open arms, rolling up one of the greatest political victories in history for the Presidency of the United States.

At five o'clock yesterday afternoon, General Eisenhower had received more than 55 per cent of the nation's popular votes and 431 of the electoral votes, to his Democratic opponent, Governor Adlai Stevenson's 100 electoral votes.

General Eisenhower broke the "solid South", taking such states as Florida, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Texas. Motley county followed the general pattern of Texas and the nation in the procession back to a GOP administration. In the seven polling places a total of 675 votes were cast for Ike and 513 for Stevenson. One lone vote (in Whiteflat) was polled for Stuart Hamblen and E. A. Holtwick, president and vice-president candidates of the Prohibition party.

Democratic Community There was one 100% Democratic community in the county, Union Corner, in the extreme southeast corner of the Motley county voted only 11 votes. All the votes went to Stevenson. Governor Adlai Shivers was crossed off all the eleven ballots and the name of Ralph Yarborough substituted.

Next in its attempt to remain Democratic was the Northfield community which polled three to one for Stevenson (39 votes) and 13 votes for Eisenhower. Flomot remained in the Democratic column with 81 for Stevenson and 68 for Eisenhower. The voters of Whiteflat community were equally divided with 50 voting for Stevenson and 50 for Eisenhower.

Roaring Springs went Republican with 151 votes for Stevenson and 111 votes for Eisenhower. Both Matador boxes followed the same pattern. In north Matador the vote was more than two to one for Eisenhower (159-72) while south Matador gave Eisenhower 209 votes to 72 for Stevenson.

In the absentee votes polled here Stevenson received 27 for Eisenhower's 25. The total vote polled in the general election in Motley county was more than 1,200, which exceeds all records for general elections. The votes counted totaled 1,188 but a number of ballots were mutilated and could not be counted, according to unofficial reports.

In Texas approximately two million voters crowded to the polls and swept the Lone Star state out from under the Democratic banner. At a late hour yesterday Texas had polled 955,000 for Eisenhower and 827,000 for Stevenson. The total national vote now exceeds 56 million and continues to grow with late reports.

Ambulance Takes Voter

Perhaps the most unusual voter in Tuesday's election was Walter Lewis of Roaring Springs. He had been a patient in Stanley clinic here and was returning home in a Eudy-Seale ambulance. Bill Seale was driving the ambulance, accompanied by S. J. Braselton. He asked Lewis if he would like to vote on his way home. Mr. Lewis said he would like to vote and he was taken by the Roaring Springs poll to cast his ballot.

Flomot Choral Club To Sing Over KFLD

INGENIOUS TRAILER UNLOADER — Charles Long of Roaring Springs, above, is directing the unloading of ensilage in a big trench silo on his farm. He fastened heavy hog wire to the end of a trailer bed, then spread it on the trailer floor. Ensilage is blown out of the cutter on top of the wire in the field. To unload, a tractor is hitched to an attachment at the end of the wire, and the pull lifts the feed from the trailer floor and dumps it into the silo. The water tank is used for wetting down the ensilage. The trench silo above holds about 100 tons of feed. —Douglas Meador Photo

SPRING THEATRE

Dear Patron:

I am taking this means to tell you of a most unusual motion picture, "The Miracle of Fatima," which opens at the Spring Theatre on Tuesday, November 11th. It is the story of a miracle that happened in our time and is destined to live on for all time.

It is the story of a young girl's simple faith that was to move millions. Standing on a hillside one day 35 years ago near the little town of Fatima in Portugal in which she lived, this little girl saw a vision from heaven — a lady who spoke to her and told her to pray for a better world and to come back at regular intervals to the hillside for further messages.

The inspired love in the girl's heart led her to trouble with the bigoted authorities as thousands descended on Fatima to participate in the child's miracle. How events transpire to make what is today one of the greatest shrines in the world is wonderfully told in this Warner Bros. picture filmed in WarnerColor.

We are scheduling a special matinee Tuesday afternoon as well as our regular showings Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Since this is a first run picture we must charge increased prices: adults, $1.00; students, 60c; and children, 35c for the night showings and adults, 60c; and children 14c for the matinee.

I urge you to see this humanly warm, uplifting film and to share and feel yourself its power and glory. I promise it will reach deep inside you.

Sincerely yours,

Do You Want A 3-Inch Rain?

PLENTY of precious water may be within 100 feet of your farm! During the past three weeks seven of our customers have become irrigation farmers, with ample water at 100 feet or less. If you are interested in drilling a well and perhaps increasing the value of your farm many times, we invite you to discuss your plans with us.

We are convinced there is profitable irrigation water under a great deal of the land in this area. In most instances it is shallow and the cost of development is much less than most people expect. The pumping cost from this depth is nominal.

During this week-end we will have a rotary rig in the area making water tests. The cost is 65c per foot. If you are interested in KNOWING about the irrigation water possibilities under your land, we invite you to come in and discuss with us the project you have in mind. We urge you to make arrangements while the rotary rig is available.

We will contract your well on a "turn-key" basis, furnishing all items necessary for development, including drilling, casing, pump, motor, etc. We are equipped to deliver a producing well to you.

Low Feeding Value Of Cotton Burs Shown In Reports

Farmers and ranchers of Motley county have been requesting information from County Agent Rufus Emmons, on the feeding value of cotton burs. The following information was supplied the agent by A. L. Ward, Director of the National Cottonseed Products Association, Inc., Dallas, Texas.

"The information which is reported by research workers is conflicting regarding the value of burs. However, in our opinion a summary of all of the reports which have been made and a combination of the practical experiences of cattle producers during other emergency periods, indicates that cotton burs have a very low feeding value, but they may be used during emergencies when other roughages are unobtainable.

An experiment was made at the El Paso Valley Experiment Station in 1950 in which cotton stalks were compared with cottonseed hulls and ground cotton stalks had even less value. The following statement, which appears in the summary and conclusions of the experiment, just about sums up the situation:

No Value Found
"Cotton stalks had no value in comparison with cottonseed hulls at $8 per ton, and gin trash at $5.92 per ton and cottonseed hulls at $8 per ton had equal value as measured by cost of gain."

It is important to observe in this experiment, as well as in others, that probably one of the principal reasons why the gin trash (cotton stalks) and related material has not produced good results in its lack of palatability.

In 1935, the experiment station at Spur compared ground cotton burs with cottonseed hulls in a ration for dry-lot feeding of Hereford steer calves weighing 450 pounds. The calves which received hulls were fed a daily ration of 2.5 pounds of kafir grain, and all of the cottonseed hulls they would eat. Another lot was fed in exactly the same manner, except ground cotton burs replaced the hulls. The following conclusions were reached in regard to this test:

"After 42 days the calves fed burs were so weak the test could not be continued on the burs. They had lost 1.7 pounds per head, while Lot 1 had gained 85 lbs per head. On replacing ground burs with cottonseed hulls and feeding in addition 2.5 pounds alfalfa hay, the calves began making big gains. Five Hereford range cows were fed burs (ground and unground) with 3 pounds of cottonseed meal per head daily, and lost weight. These old cows that were supposed to eat anything, did not eat more than 5 pounds of the burs per head daily."

"These reports indicate that cotton burs have a very low feeding value. However, I want to call your attention to the fact that in many areas of the South and South-Central Texas, last season, the feeding of gin trash was of material assistance in keeping cattle alive in those areas where it was almost impossible to obtain cottonseed hulls or hay. Under such conditions, burs certainly have some value.

Cotton burs have a more attractive analysis than do hulls in spite of the fact that experiments have not indicated that they have the feeding value of hulls. This chemical analysis may be misleading to some people and I am listing it here in order that you may be acquainted with it. Protein 8%, Ether Extract 2.6%, crude fiber 34.3% and nitrogen free extract 38.7%."

Chapter Observes National FHA Week

Flomot Chapter Future Homemakers of America this week is observing National F. H. A. week which began November 2 and will continue through Saturday.

Program of the week for the Flomot chapter includes church attendance on Sunday; Monday, Publicity; Tuesday, Daddy Date Party; Wednesday, sell magazines; Thursday, Assembly program; Friday, High School party after football game; Saturday, "Help-at-home" day.

The Flomot F. H. A. members have completed their yearbooks, which feature a western motif both in appearance and content. The covers are decorated in green and tied with red shoe string.

Future Homemakers of America is a national organization of pupils, who study homemaking in junior and senior high schools; who work together for better and happier homes for everyone, believing that building happy homes now and in the future is the most important thing that you can do for a democracy. This national organization was founded on June 11, fifteen years after a state organization was perfected in Texas. Here are their purposes:

1. To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking.
2. To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership.
3. To encourage democracy in home and community life.
4. To work for good home and family life for all.
5. To promote international good will.
6. To foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life.
7. To provide wholesome individual and group recreation.
8. To further interest in home economics.

Motto of the organization is, "Toward new horizons" and its flower is the red rose. Following is their creed:

"We are the Future Homemakers of America. We face the future with warm courage, and high hope. For we have the clear consciousness of seeking the old and precious values."

"For we are the builders of homes. Homes where living will be the expression of everything that is good and fair. Homes where truth and love and security and faith will be realities, not dreams."

"ONE OF THE 10 BEST PICTURES OF THIS DECADE!" LOUIS SOBOL
King Features Syndicate
Produced by WARNER BROS.

Few and far between are the motion pictures that can reach so deeply into the hearts of all!
This is the story of a young girl in a little farming town by the odd name of Fatima, in Portugal—an unusual story that jumped oceans and spread to this country—and to millions the world over. It tells of a simple faith in the face of guns—and of great human triumph in the face of evil. This is a true happening in our time—and its beauty and wonder and power will surely live for all time.
In order to bring you this first run movie we must charge increased admission prices.
