EXILE TO SPEAK

COUNT JERZY CIECHANOWSKI
Exiled from Utopia because of his radical and revolutionary plans, Count Jerzy Ciechanowski, above, is now winging his way by clipper plane towards the United States to be the featured speaker at the Lions Ladies' Night program in Matador, Tuesday evening, March 18.

Ladies To Hear Count

Assuming that the lady visitors deserve nothing less than the best, Matador Lions Club program committee has secured Count Jerzy Ciechanowski, recent exile from Utopia, as a featured speaker for Ladies' Night Banquet to be held in the basement of the Baptist church, Tuesday evening, March 18. Dipping into the unlimited Lions Club coffers, the committee has spared neither expense nor effort to bring a 14 karat count to the program.

Only thru strong diplomatic affiliations of the committee, was it possible to make the arrangement. A Cablegram from the count accepting the assignment, commented, "It could not be much worse than Europe." Retaining his quaint Utopian customs, Count Ciechanowski will sleep under a brush-arbor on the court house square during his stay in Matador.

Amazed At Dryness
During one of the many transatlantic telephone conversations with Lion secretary Whitworth, the Count expressed his amazement that prohibition is still effective in this territory. Learning that Matador is dry, the Count declared that he would bring his own sweet cider in a goatskin container.

Other details of the program were arranged at a meeting of the program committee held at the First State Bank Tuesday afternoon. Visitors and members are assured one of the most unique programs ever staged in Matador. While details of complete plans have not been released to the press, certain surprise features of the program are expected to establish an entertainment precedent that may never again be duplicated.

Pioneer Rancher Suffers Stroke

Mr. and Mrs. Arvil Craven of Ralls, former Matador residents, visited here recently with his parents Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Craven.

Flomot set new records of outstanding success both in attendance and gate receipts when the fourth annual Golden Glove boxing tournament closed Saturday night, according to unofficial reports. Larger crowds attended the five sessions of boxing than any previous tournament and larger net proceeds, despite the extensive list of trophies presented, were realized.

Wichita Falls and Amarillo tied for team championship Saturday night. Wichita Falls champions were Hubert Gray, 105 pounds; James Russey, 115 pounds; Mitchell Dorsey, 126 pounds; and J. L. Rogers, 160 pounds. All four won on decisions in the finals.

Russey was in the finals for his third fight of the day, after eliminating Tremble of Amarillo and James Van Pell of Wellington. He outpointed them all.

Dorsey reached the finals by decisioning Young of Wellington, while Gray decisioned Cheldreff of Wellington in the semifinals Saturday afternoon.

Eliminated in the semifinals were Junior Anderson of Wichita Falls, decisioned by McDowell of Amarillo, and Weldon Wyatt who dropped a decision to Turner Wright of Amarillo. Barney Hewitt of Holliday, another member of the Wichita Falls team, lost a semifinal to Junior McLarin of Lubbock.

SERVICES TO CLOSE FRIDAY

Record Set At Meeting

A record for attendance was set at the first Father-Son banquet held at Roaring Springs school gymnasium Thursday evening. A total of 270 fathers and sons attended, which included approximately 25 from Matador.

Proceeds of the banquet, expected to net in the neighborhood of $70 will be used as a Boy Scout fund. It was estimated that over 90% of the fathers in Roaring Springs, Darden Canyon and Flag Springs communities attended.

Senior Is Toastmaster

Morris Britton, outstanding Roaring Springs high school senior was toastmaster. Invocation was made by Rev. L. A. Reavis, pastor of the Roaring Springs Methodist church. Welcoming address was made by Rev. W. L. Brian, pastor of the Roaring Springs Baptist church.

Senior Play Is Success

The second senior class play, "Grand Old Darling," presented Monday night in the high school auditorium, was declared a success by the audience, both in the acting and casting of the parts.

The three-act comedy was highly entertaining thruout the performance, and reflected excellent directing by Miss Zona Beth Faulkner and Principal Bert Ezzell.

Although original plans included presentation of two senior class plays during the year, the additional play was arranged that other members of the class might receive dramatic training. The first play was given in the fall, and the last one will be presented in April.

REPRESENTATIVE IS VISITOR HERE

Representative Paul Eubank visited friends here a short while Friday, having driven over from Childress, to which place he had accompanied friends from Austin.

Unusual interest was shown in the annual meeting of the Motley County Game Management Association, held in the Matador high school auditorium Tuesday evening, attended by over 100 sportsmen, ranchers, farmers, landowners and others associated with the county, state and federal game development.

Visitors included district game warden J. C. Cole of Paducah, federal game warden Yelton of Lubbock, regional game warden F. S. Henika, district game warden Waters also of Lubbock, Jack Parnell and E. A. Carlock of Paducah and R. E. Callendar, wildlife specialist Extension Service of College Station. Mr. Henika declared that much demand was

Ribbons Will Be Awarded 1st, 2nd and 3rd Places

Perhaps it is the cattleman's inherent admiration for horses that survives in this section that has aroused the unusual interest developing in the horse and mule show to be held in connection with the annual 4-H Club boys fat stock show here April 5.

While boys are rushing their calf and pig entries to produce the very best condition possible before the show, men interested in horses and mules are grooming their colt show entries with almost equal enthusiasm.

A committee for the colt show met here Saturday and announced the following classes for entries: Halfbreed or better, No. 1 one year, No. 2 two years, No. 3 over two; Cowboy class, any age, any sex, under saddle, No. 1 one year, No. 2 two years, Combination No. 1 one year, No. 2 two years. Mules No. 1 one year, No. 2 two years.

Plan Ribbon Awards

Members of the committee are U. L. Willie, chairman, Mervin Green, H. H. Courtney, Crable Jones and W. W. Carpenter. A committee on arrangements is composed of H. H. Courtney, chairman, Walter Russell and W. W. Carpenter.

Ribbons will be awarded on first second and third places in the colt show. Judges will be announced at a later date.

U. L. Willie declared that unusual interest is being shown as plans for the show progress despite the fact that a short time remains in which to condition colts. Everyone interested is urged to enter their colts.

Finne Calves To Be Shown

Stockmen and others who have observed calves to be entered in the annual 4-H Club show here April 5, are of the opinion that some of the finest quality and best conditioned livestock ever exhibited in this territory will participate. Probably no other single movement of equal progressive value has ever reached the magnitude of this rivalry to produce better livestock in Motley county.

Scouts To Compete In First Aid

Scouts of the Eastern District of the South Plains Council, Boy Scouts of America, composed of Motley and Dickens counties will compete Friday night in a First Aid Meet at the High School gym in Spur, David Guest, chairman, announced this week.

Patrols from Matador, Roaring Springs, Afton, Dickens, and Spur will assemble at 7:30 and problems will be judged by American Red Cross judges headed by Guest.

Those Patrols which qualify at Spur will be allowed to compete in the Council-Wide Meet at the Senior High School in Lubbock on Friday, March 21, at 7:30 p. m.

Dickens Troop 60 placed second and fourth in the Council meet last year.

Urges Members To Experiment

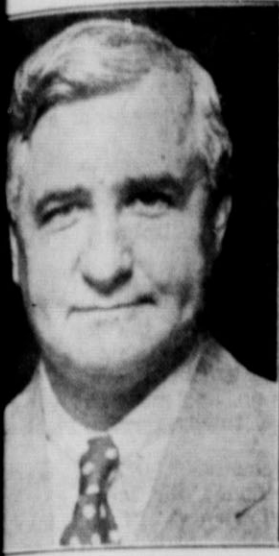

Mr. Callendar urged each member to try some new project and pass the results on to other members. He declared "Ranchers and farmers should look upon game produced on their land as any other crop of livestock." He praised the work of the Motley county group and declared few counties had such a record of advancement.

HOME-BUILDING IS THEME OF INSPIRING ADDRESS AT MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET

Over Two Hundred Attend Annual Affair For Girls

With "Home-Building" as a subject theme, Mrs. Dewey Smith of Childress addressed the women and girls of this community Tuesday night at the fourth annual Mother-Daughter banquet, held in the basement of the Baptist church. The affair, sponsored by the Matador Child Welfare Association, was attended by 222 guests.

In one of the most impressive messages ever delivered at a gathering of this nature, Mrs. Smith stressed the relationship between mothers and their daughters with reference to strong character building, placing special emphasis on a congenial home life.

"We, as women are the builders of home", Mrs. Smith stated, "and hold the highest place on earth. We are the custodians of personality in the home, and as the Queen mother prepares and trains the Princess daughter that she might take her place as queen to rule her subjects, so must we train our daughters that they might be equipped to meet the problems they will face."

Educational System Praised

Mrs. Smith paid tribute to the present-day educational systems which afford such excellent training for the girls, in augmenting their home training.

In offering suggestions for the foundation of a strong character, Mrs. Smith stressed the importance of perfect deportment, two important factors being obedience and understanding. "First lessons in obedience are received at home," she observed, "and with understanding comes the changing process. Choose carefully, the pattern for your life, and may it be as perfect as an architect's blueprint that the character which you are building now may bring peace and satisfaction instead of tears and regrets. For a perfect pattern, I give you Christ; only those who are patterning their lives after him, are building the best."

Enjoyable Program

Meeting in the church auditorium, the program began promptly at 7:30, with invocation by Mrs. W. M. Joslin, followed by group singing. Going immediately to the basement, the guests were served a delicious dinner at attractively decorated tables in St. Patrick motif. Green candles burned on hand-made shamrock doilies, and the shamrock and miniature pipe comprised plate favors. Greenery of vines was used down the center of the tables. The menu consisted of vegetable salad, boiled ham, buttered new potatoes, green beans, pickles, rolls, cocoa, ice cream and cookies.

Holeman Knoy entertained with accordian music during the banquet, which was enthusiastically received.

Mrs. Elmer Stearns, toast-mistress for the occasion, introduced each person on the program with clever anecdotes. Mrs. A. C. Trawick, Jr., president of the

MR. AND MRS. W. W. CLEMENTS, MGRS.

Pied 'Pinions' BY MRS. M.

So contagious is inspiration, that after attending a meeting last week of a writer's organization, I came home with the feeling that being the author of the world's next best seller would be a cinch. But now, as I sit here and twiddle these keys, my mind a vacuum, and no ideas for filling this space, I wonder, in fact, when I contemplate the fate of a recent contribution to the gods of literature, my doubts are confirmed. The manuscript was returned without any explanation whatever. Of course I didn't expect a personal letter of regrets from the publishers, but I still can't believe it was THAT bad; to warrant not even a rejection slip.

Some folks eat alone and like it; others eat alone and don't like it, while still others just don't like it and refuse to eat alone.

Most people enjoy companionship as they eat, and if it is a question of preparing and eating a solitary meal at home, or doing without, a majority will do the latter. However, a defender of the first class pointed out that the advantage of eating alone is that one can enjoy the privilege of having exactly what she wants without the necessity of regarding the wishes of others.

It is an undisputed fact that a man will usually go to town for his morning cup of coffee, rather than be bothered with the preliminaries of brewing his own in his own kitchen. There are exceptions, however, and we know of a nice arrangement one couple has, whereby they take turn-about in alternate weeks, arising first and making the coffee.

If you would look your very best, and have a flattering likeness of yourself do not visit the beauty parlor immediately before sitting for your photograph.

This advice comes from the photographers themselves who say that women invariably have their hair set before having their pictures made, and then are just as sure to be dissatisfied with the proofs. The older your present set is, the better, for the most satisfactory results. Your hair will then fall in soft, natural-looking waves and loose curls that will frame your face in a most becoming manner, instead of being in tight little cork-screws plastered to your head, which even persistent combing for the first day or two will not loosen up, but leave you looking like a jungle dancer.

Zippers in costumes of period design, as appearing on the screen continue to intrigue me. Assuming that they are not an oversight on the part of the technical advisers, but used more for the convenience in getting in and out of the garments, they nevertheless shatter the illusions of the past which the setting and costumes have established in the minds of the spectators.

When I left Missouri to come to Texas, I envisioned myself on a return visit, driving a snazzy automobile, and dressed in the latest, most expensive of ensembles. But it doesn't work out that way. By the time I manage to acquire a few new accessories to brighten up the old outfit carried over from a previous season, there isn't enough to make the trip. And if the trip is taken into consideration first, the remaining funds are insufficient to take care of the wardrobe situation.

The theorem will probably be solved in a day when my conveyance will be a wheel-chair, and my only necessary accessories, a woolen shoulderette and fascinator for my head.

Highlights of the Mother-Daughter banquet Tuesday evening: Holeman Knoy's accordian rendition of "I'll Take You Home Again Kathleen"; the excellent food, which was served piping hot; the inspirational and thought-provoking remarks of the speaker; the girls' chorus which reflected

Cotton Stamps To Place Vast Amount
Into Circulation

Texas merchants are eyeing with anticipation the $16,000,000 worth of cotton stamps the 640-000 cotton farmers in Texas could put into circulation this year if 100 per cent participation in the supplementary cotton program
were achieved.

The stamps which will be paid to cotton farmers who voluntarily reduce their cotton acreage in 1941, will be exchangeable in retail stores for any merchandise made entirely of cotton grown and manufactured in the United States.
W. I. Rushing, chairman of the county committee, declared.

Cotton piece goods, women's dresses and housecoats, men's shirts and pants, children's and infant's clothes, sheets cotton blankets and other household goods, work gloves, and stockings are but a few of the articles cotton farmers can buy with the stamps, the committee pointed out.

Allow 10c Per Pound
Under the supplementary program, a farmer who voluntarily reduces his acreage below the 1941 allotment or the 1940 measured acreage, whichever is the smaller, will receive cotton stamps at the rate of ten cents a pound times the normal yield of his underplanted acreage. Sharecroppers, tenants, or owner-operators may receive up to $25 worth of stamps for cooperating in the program, while producers on more than one farm, or operators of a farm with two or more tenants, may qualify for a maximum of $50 worth of stamps.
Any acreage reduction made to comply with the program will not in itself affect cotton allotments in 1942 or any subsequent year.

The supplementary program will be carried out in Texas jointly by the AAA, the Surplus Marketing Administration, and the Texas

A. & M. College Extension Service.

Below are some questions and answers pertaining to the supplementary program. More questions along this line will be published next week.

1. Q. How will cotton farmers be compensated for making an additional voluntary acreage reduction in 1941?

A. They will receive cotton order stamps, which can be used to purchase cotton goods. These stamp payments are in addition to the regular payments provided for under the 1941 Agriculture Conservation Program.

2. Q. Will underplanting of the 1941 cotton allotment affect the farm cotton allotment in future years?

A. No. Underplanting of the cotton acreage allotment on any farm in 1941 will not affect the cotton acreage allotment for that farm in 1942 or subsequent years, except in case no cotton is planted in 1941 on a farm on which no cotton was planted in 1939 and 1940.

3. Q. Does participating in the Supplementary Cotton Program
affect payments under other phases of the A. A. A. Program?
A. No. The Supplementary Cotton Program provides for additional payments and does not affect payments under other phases of the A. A. A. Program.

4. Q. Who is eligible to participate in the Supplementary Cotton Program?
A. Any farm owner, operator, tenant, or sharecropper entitled to share in the 1941 cotton crop or any farm which a cotton allotment was established for 1941, provided cotton was grown on that farm in 1940.

5. Q. How may a farmer earn cotton stamps?

Dramatic Director
Arrives

Miss Bee Smith, dramatic director formerly associated with the Little Theatre of St. Louis, Missouri and the University of Kansas, has arrived in Matador to direct a comedy drama of local school talent.

The play, "Swing Out", will be presented in the Matador High School auditorium Thursday and Friday, March 27th-28th, it was announced.

The special committee working with Miss Smith is starting immediately in the casting and other plans for the show.

Proceeds will be used to purchase new stage equipment and scenery for the school auditorium.
Miss Smith comes highly recommended as a capable director with original ability in furthering dramatic art.

VISITORS HERE

Miss Mary Sitton of Tyler, home demonstration agent of Smith county, and Misses Pauline and Florence McDiwell, Mrs. Maxie
Green and a Mrs. Hicks all of Lynnville, were guests of Miss Ruth Groves and her mother, Mrs.
J. A. Groves, and her sister, Mrs.
Elbert Seigler, Friday night.

The party was enroute to Fort Worth from Amarillo, where they had attended the stock show.

TO CHICAGO

Judge G. E. Hamilton, and Mrs.
Hamilton, left Friday afternoon
for a business trip to Chicago,
Illinois, and other points east.

The White House was the first public building erected in Washington, D. C. Its cornerstone was laid Oct. 13, 1792, and its first occupants were President and Mrs.
John Adams, who moved in during November, 1800.

A. By planting in 1941 an acreage of cotton less than the 1941 farm cotton acreage allotment or 1940 measured acreage for the farm, whichever is smaller.

6. Q. Is it necessary for every farmer to give advance notice of his intention to participate in this program?

A. Yes.

7. Q. Will there be any penalty for failure to carry out expressed intentions of acreage reduction?

A. No. The Supplementary Cotton Program is entirely voluntary.

8. Q. What is the basis of payment of voluntary reduction of cotton acreage?

A. A farm payment in cotton stamps will be computed at the rate of ten cents a pound times the normal cotton yield determined for the farm under the 1941 Agricultural Conservation Program times the acreage reduced for stamp payment.

9. Q. What is the maximum amount of cotton stamps that may be earned?

A. Each producer may earn a maximum of $25 worth of cotton stamps on one farm, except that producers interested in more than one farm or an operator of a farm with two or more tenants or sharecroppers may earn up to $50 worth of stamps. No one may receive more than $50 in cotton order stamps.

10. Q. What is the minimum stamp payment that will be made?

A. The minimum amount of stamps any eligible producer can receive is 50 cents worth; however no payment will be made to any producer on any farm for which the computed payment for the farm is less than $5.

11. Q. How are cotton stamp payments to be divided among tenants and landlords?

A. The computed payment for the farm will be divided in the same manner as the payment with respect to the cotton allotment is divided.

12. Q. When will cotton farmers who take part in this program get their cotton stamps?

A. As soon as possible after cotton on the farm has been measured and performance certified by the A. A. A. county committee.

13. Q. Can the acreage not planted to cotton under this Supplementary Cotton Program be used for other crops?

A. Yes. This acreage can be used to produce food and feed crops for home consumption, or any other crop or land use, except cotton or wheat.

Farmers Receive
Many Crop Loans

Farmers obtained nearly 161-000 emergency crop and feed loans in 1940 for a total of $19,470,625 according to figures released by S. P. Lindsey, Jr., Director of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan
Section of the Farm Credit Administration. This compares with 139,452 loans made in 1939 for $15,079,509 or an increase of 15.4 per cent in number of loans and 29.1 per cent in amount.

The early launching of the loan program in the storm and flood affected areas of the South, together with broadened activity in the Wenatchee-Okanogan district in the Pacific northwest, was the chief factor in the greater volume of loans made in 1940, the director pointed out. These loans are made for short periods to small farmers who cannot obtain loans from other sources for the production of crops or the feeding of livestock.

Altho these loans are made only to farmers who cannot obtain adequate short-term financing from regular credit sources, a high percentage of them are being repaid, Mr. Lindsey pointed out. In the entire nation 89 per cent of the amount loaned in 1939 for all purposes, has been repaid and on the 1939 spring crop loans 90.4 per cent has been collected. Over the entire period during which these loans have been made, 1918-1940, approximately 70 per cent of the amount loaned has been collected.

As an indication of the active character of unpaid loans made in previous years, farmers made repayments last year of more than $3,000,000 on 1939 loans and about $1,328,000 on loans made in 1932 to 1938. Repayments received on loans granted in 1931 and earlier totaled $322,000.

Texas has repaid 93.58 per cent of the money loaned for spring crop production in that State in 1939. The Eastern District of Texas, which comprises 125 counties in East and South Texas, repaid 86.78 per cent of these 1939 loans. The Western District of Texas, which includes the Plains, repaid 90.70 per cent, and Southwest Texas, known as the San Angelo District and including the El Paso region repaid, its loans 100 per cent.

These loans are now available at the office of the West Texas

Gin Company Joe Gaines, manager has announced.

A few weeds

Among the thousands of decent law-abiding beer retail establishments in America there may be a few disreputable "joints."

While it is the brewers' responsibility to brew good beer and the retailers' responsibility to sell beer under wholesome conditions, nevertheless the brewing industry is concerned about these undesirable places and wants them cleaned up.

We want them cleaned up because they endanger your right to enjoy good beer... and our right to make it.

We want them cleaned up because they endanger the 31,165 jobs and $21,076,182 payroll created by beer in Texas since re-legalization. Beer contributed $2,273,968.64 last year in taxes in this state.

These benefits are worth preserving.
You can help us, if you will, by (1) pat-that sell beer and by (2) reporting any law violations to the duly constituted law enforcement authorities.

FALL FASHIONS

It is not hard to close your eyes and fall. But bumped heads, bruised shoulders, and aching (never mind what) give evidence that you must not have the right technique. Practice makes perfect, and to fall, in style, you must practice.

The way to a man's heart is thru his stomach, but there is another way to reach his heart, too... that is to scare him half to death. And the way to do just that is to faint.

Now you must fall realistically if you wish to give your boyfriend a fright. Don't fall flat on your face. You can't see what is going on, and besides you might skin your nose. Noses are bad enough when they are shiny... but skinned noses... oh! You must fall gently; yet be sure that you leave the impression that you hit hard enough to cause an earthquake. (Some of you will).

You have all heard the saying, "She did not give a tumble." (Did Confucius say that?) She did not give him a tumble because she did not know how to faint in style, or she did not give a hoot.

Now, boys, don't give up the ship. It may not be hero stuff to faint, but there are always slick walks, and long stairs. To make your girl squeal with delight, give her a tumble down the stair, (you do the tumbling); you can do it—but it takes practice.

If you are able to move after practicing, you girls might have a chance... altho it is three years until another leap-year!

The Poetry Corner

Holeman Knoy handed in the following poem about three weeks ago, but because of the slam on girls, we couldn't decide whether to print it or not. Here it is, however; but just wait until we write one about boys!

Whoever there a woman with soul so dead Who never to herself hath said, 'To hell with men! Let 'em go bust! There's not a one a gal can trust!' Then eagerly grabs her hat and away To catch another man that very day.

KAMPUS KLATTER

Book Review: "Scandal Marches On" by the Kampus Kutup. This new, exciting book contains all the snappy, flashy, "educatin', prevaricatin', good-for-nothing dope high school students thrive on.

Chapter 1 page 1, contains a copy of instructions about the conduct in the EL MATADOR office.

- 1. Do not talk because noises disturb teachers whose hangouts are close by. 2. Do not walk on floors; they are weak and may fall thru. 3. Do not think in the office; sudden eruptions of the brain make us nervous. 4. Do not laugh, smoke the editor's cigars, or dip Stearns's snuff. 5. Do not smile, look at anyone, type, wink, study, breath or move at all when in this office, 'cause they just ain't none (or didja know?).

Chapter 2 contains a list of new romances, such as: Norman Merle and Pat Ballard. Aren't they the cutest couple... especially when they play tennis? By the way, the older Pitts—Ballard two-some is getting along splendidly, also.

Dot and Billy. They have found that they just couldn't get along without each other, much to the regrets of certain other students. Ida Belle and Spot. We don't know how long this one will last.

The Poetry Corner

now that Marshall Lee has started making eyes at her. But, as people say, "Ain't love grand?"

Bob and Ruth S. Nice that they sit near the front of the study hall, so that all the Juniors and Seniors can remark about the progress of the romance-in-the-making, now isn't it?

James Rufus and June. This is another old-new couple that always find each other again, no matter what. We hear they've been paintin' the town red the last two weeks... sorta celebratin', y'know!

Laverne and Cotton P., and Justice and Cotton S. These "Cottons"! But they're pretty swell guys, eh what, girls?

Diggings in Chapter 3 follow (seems to all be about Freshmen); Herb has at last entered the mad race for Grace Lavern's affections. Poor little George—we've afraid he's going to be left a mile behind if he doesn't get some action in his bones.

Glenda, the fickle little so-and-so, is seen with a new boy every night. Most of 'em live out of town, too!

Then of course, there's Dorothy N. who knows where everyone is, and whom he's with; and Frances Seiger, who's a regular night owl when it comes to late hours. Yes, these Fish sure know the way around town after the sun goes down.

What a climax! Senior play practice certainly has paved the way for several budding romances. Let me see, there's the threesome... Aurene, Wiley, and Alla Mae, who always managed to get away from the rest of the crowd; and there's Holeman; who accused Flora (of all people!) of making eyes at him. Jack flirted with all the girls, as usual; but James was heard to remark that he wished Oneita were a Senior... and in the play!

Unhappy ending... we've just found that Bennie Wayne's "Arthur" friend from Paducah belongs to Billy Jean. At least, that's what she said. Wait a minute! Bennie Wayne has already found a new beau! So we reckon Cinderella and Prince (Clovis, didja say?) will live happily ever after... we hope

Lubbock Market

To Open Mar. 15

Buyers for retail stores of the South Plains will be able to purchase the very latest Spring and Summer merchandise at the Western Wholesale Market to be held at the Lubbock Hotel, March 15, 16, and 17.

Reservations for the market closed March 1, and according to I. A. Stephens, President of the Association, more nationally known exhibitors are registered to participate at this showing than at any previous Spring market. The buyer's guide, listing all exhibitors, will be mailed to retail merchants over the area on March 11.

Bernie Howell's orchestra is to play for the buffet supper and dance on Monday night, March 17, to which all buyers visiting the market will be guests of the association. The dinner-dance last Fall was attended by 360 people, and a larger number is expected for the affair this Spring.

Cows Being Tested For Tuberculosis

Dr. Giles of the U. S. Department of Agriculture is now in Motley county testing milk cows for tuberculosis and will remain here for two weeks, according to J. Rufus Emmons, county agent. No charge is made for testing, the only requirement being that owners have cows in lots and assist in work. If possible, Dr. Giles hopes to test all milk cows in the county where his service is desired.

Cows reacting positive will be required by the state to be shipped directly to a packing company as T. B. animals.

Owners wishing cows tested should contact Dr. Giles at the Motley Hotel, the county agent's office or Foster Fulfer, local assistant in the work. Dr. Giles expressed belief that probably only a few cows were affected with the disease but said the work is necessary for this to be an accredited county.

INFESTATION OF SCREWORM ON INCREASE

COLLEGE STATION—Fall infestation of screwworm in the western half of Texas was general and above normal, and in the Laredo area was the highest ever recorded there in December, or for any time of year.

Quoting from a report on conditions by D. C. Parman, associate entomologist at the bureau of entomology and plant quarantine, Uvalde, Cameron Siddall, Extension Service entomologist for A. and M. College said that on the other hand, infestation along the Lower Gulf coast and thru east Texas was low and practically nil.

Temperatures thruout the entire winter survival area of the screwworm especially the western half of Texas, have been favorable for the carry-over of the fly. Rainfall conditions have been, and continue, favorable for a continued buildup of the screwworm fly from central Texas west thru all the states to California.

"Prompt and thorough treatment of all early cases will prevent the buildup of high population of the screwworm fly in the southwest and prevent losses of livestock and decrease the necessity of treatments later in the season," Siddall warned.

At the present time, he continued, infestation is indicated generally thruout the southwest and developed by late spring of a most disastrous outbreak of screwworms is in prospect. The season is too far advanced to expect reduction in the fly population thru the effect of weather to an extent that losses would not be expected over most of the area.

"However, prolonged unfavorable weather will reduce the probability of a disastrous outbreak;
