Large Block Leased For Oil Test

The Tribune is reliably informed that a deal was culminated this week whereby a block of land consisting of 10,000 acres near Roaring Springs has been leased for making a test for oil and gas.

The block, which begins one mile east of Roaring Springs, was leased by Couch & Bursey of Vernon, Texas. Contracts call for operations to begin not later than July 1. Exact location of the well on the lease was not announced.

Cotton Compress Now In Operation

Full time work has started at the Producers Warehouse Company compress, recently constructed at Roaring Springs, it has been announced by John W. Crouch, owner of the new enterprise.

Mr. Crouch announced that 720 bales of cotton had been received for compression Saturday night and large amounts have been arriving daily this week.

W.R. Cammack Seeks Re-Election As County Judge

The Tribune is authorized to announce the name of W. R. Cammack as candidate for re-election to the office of County Judge and ex-officio county superintendent, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, July 25, 1942.

A Motley county pioneer, Judge Cammack needs no introduction to the voters. His record of service in the office to which he seeks re-election has received wide approval.

Regarding his announcement, Judge Cammack declared, "I feel deeply grateful to the people of Motley county for their past favors and in event I am re-elected I can only promise a continuation of my best efforts to execute the duties of my office to the best of my ability and to the best interests of the entire county.

"During the present war emergency I believe that I am qualified to best aid my country and my nation in my present position, since I am familiar with the various duties of the office.

"I will appreciate the consideration and support of all voters at the July primary."

The Chinese jubube, sometimes called Chinese dates, is extremely hardy and produces a crop of fruit yearly. It grows well in west Texas areas having 18 inches rainfall.

To Lead Campaign

Plans Started For Annual President Birthday Party

Mrs. U. L. Willie will lead the 1942 campaign for the celebration of the President's birthday in Motley county. Mrs. Willie's acceptance of county chairmanship has been announced by George Waverly Briggs, Dallas, vice chairman in charge of state organization for the vast fight on Infantile Paralysis. M. S. Patton has accepted the place as secretary-treasurer for the second year.

An advance sale of tickets for "President Roosevelt's Diamond Jubilee Birthday" celebration in Motley county, will be made. Mrs. Willie said that sale of the tickets will probably start within the next week. One half of the net proceeds of the celebration are retained in the county for aid to those afflicted by infantile paralysis, or other needy cause.

To Select Other Members
This year the campaign has been made doubly necessary due to the entrance of the United States into the world war. The health of the nation must be kept at a high level to make man power efficient and 100 per cent available.

Selection of other committee members will be made immediately to assist in the conduct of the local drive. Definite plans for the conduct of the celebration in the county will be made by Mrs. Willie within the near future.

MOTLEY COUNTY TIRE RATIONING BOARD SELECTED

D. I. W. Birnie has been named administrator of Motley county's war-time tire rationing board and office will be maintained in the Fleming Post American Legion building, it was disclosed yesterday by County Judge W. R. Cammack. The board which named Mr. Birnie as administrator is comprised of Sterling Price, Raymond Ross and George Henslerling.

No action can be taken on tire rationing, however, until the board takes oath of office as government agents, and complete instructions are received.

Motley county's quota of tires for passenger cars, motorcycles and light trucks is 9 for the month of January. Eight tubes are allowed for the same vehicle. Truck and bus tires for the same period is designated as 26 and the allotment for tubes for trucks and buses is 22.

Eligibility list has been supplied by the OPA and it in general covers vehicles whose continuous operation is required to maintain public health and safety, buses with a capacity of 10 or more passengers and necessary truck operations.

Oil Dealers Will Restrict Delivery

Five Motley county commission representatives of petroleum companies announce in this issue of the Tribune, a general restriction in delivery of kerosene, gasoline and oils requiring the use of trucks to various parts of the county. Daily delivery of products has been discontinued.

Rural customers are asked to anticipate their needs three or more days in advance, so that orders can be pooled and avoid needless and unprofitable driving to make small deliveries.

Oil dealers are faced with the serious problem of securing trucks and tires and other essentials of transportation, and may be forced to discontinue all delivery when their present equipment is no longer serviceable.

The announcement appears above the signatures of the Continental Oil Company, Magnolia Petroleum Company, Phillips Petroleum Company, Gulf Oil Corporation and The Texas Company.

Load Of Antelope Arrive In Night; Driver Drives On

While it is unusual to have someone knock at your door at 2 o'clock in the morning and an unknown voice announce that he has a truck load of antelopes consigned to you, Mrs. John Hamilton, wife of the District Attorney, was calm as the strange voice asked where to unload the animals. Mrs. Hamilton reflected that her husband was in Austin on business and that it was possible he had made some unusual purchase while celebrating the advent of the new year.

Later the truck driver announced that the animals were from the Texas Game Commission and consigned to Mr. Hamilton for distribution on various county ranches and game refuges. She called county agent Rufus Emmons for advice as to where to unload the antelope. Mr. Emmons attempted to secure a depot for the unusual shipment, but before he succeeded the truck driver had departed with his cargo of 25 antelopes.

District Attorney Hamilton said yesterday that the shipment had been taken to Briscoe county and that another shipment would probably be sent here later.

No announcement of the shipment had been received by Mr. Hamilton before the truck driver arrived at two o'clock Friday morning.

Mercury Drops To 4 Above

Winter followed 1942 into the Panhandle of Texas to set a season's record low of 4 above zero at 2 p. m. Monday morning. Light snow started falling in this area early Sunday morning as the temperature began its sudden decline. Spasmodic snow fell thru much of Sunday and into the night.

Old Man winter returned for an encore early yesterday morning after some moderation Tuesday, to again send the mercury sliding downward in thermometer. Dry snow fanned by a "bark-removing" north wind continued most of yesterday and the mercury stood at 9 above zero at midnight.

Considerable damage was reported in this section due to frozen water pipes and car radiators. Ranchers declared that the continued cold was causing some suffering to livestock where adequate feeding and protection could not be provided. No weather forecasts are available because of war precautions.

H. L. Smith Seeks Second Term As Commissioner

The Tribune is authorized to announce the candidacy of H. L. Smith of Roaring Springs for re-election to the office of county commissioner, Precinct four, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, July 25, 1942.

Mr. Smith needs no introduction to the voters of Motley county having spent his life as a county resident. During his first term as county commissioner his record has been one of unusual service.

With regard to his announcement, Mr. Smith said, "I wish to express my sincere gratitude to the voters of my precinct and to others in the county who have contributed in any manner to my past campaign. I have tried to fill the office to the best of my ability and in event I am re-elected, I will continue the same policy. I feel that my experience of the past term has better qualified me for the duties which a future term will hold.

Remember Pearl Harbor

When Pearl Harbor is mentioned to A. A. (Vic) Harp, he looks anxiously at the gun case in the Matador Hardware & Furniture Company here, where he is employed, and vengeance comes to his eyes.

Sailor veteran of World War I, Mr. Harp served over 18 months on the old battleship, "Utah," sunk by the Jap air raid in Pearl Harbor, December 7.

The newspaper dispatch regarding the ship, after Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox's visit to Hawaii, was as follows: "The Utah, target ship lost, had not been used as a combat ship for many years. It was subjected to furious attack because the Japs thought they were knocking out an aircraft carrier.

"The Utah was launched December 23, 1909, at the New York shipbuilding company yards. It was a former battleship being used as a wireless controlled target ship. It had 19,800 tons displacement."

Newspaper Printed On Ship
One of Mr. Harp's treasured possessions, is a page from "The Big U", a weekly newspaper that was published aboard the ship during the time of his assignment. The paper is dated Saturday, July 7, 1919, and bears the line printed

DRIVE IS STARTED FOR BOND SALES

More Men Examined For Army Service

Approximately 20 Motley county selective service registrants were examined here Tuesday night to fill the 38th call from the Local Draft Board, which must supply 15 on January 24th.

Mass physical examinations were held in order that local physicians might save time for both themselves and the men called in to service.

The 15 approved will go to Lubbock on January 24 where they will be examined by Army physicians.

Five selectees have been examined and accepted to fill a previous call for January 23. They are Alfred Barton, Jr., Norman Kankin Martin, Roy Lee George, Levi Robert Wilkinson and Carl Dillon (Dude) Mize. Mr. Mize is transferred from Antlers, Oklahoma, who will fill the transfer from Motley county of Robert William True, to Globe, Arizona.

Receive "Red-Rimmed" Letters
Several Motley county young men have received unmistakable "red-rimmed" envelopes through the mail, advising them that they have been recalled to service. The order applies to approximately 1,800 National Guardsmen in Texas. Included are men who have been discharged from active service (some because they were 28 or older, some because of dependency and some for other reasons) and assigned to the State Department under State control.

Three returned soldiers, Jim Duard Knight, Maldon Evert Simpson and Beecher White of Whiteface have received conspicuous notices, since war was declared.

Vibrations from a dynamite explosion have been detected as much as 2000 miles away.

A. A. Harp Once Sailor On Battleship "Utah" Sunk By Japs In Pearl Harbor

Excerpts from the page include the following interesting data: "In six months we have traveled more than 16,000 knots or about 18,000 miles. We have visited England, Ireland, France, the Isles of Cuba and Martinique and have enjoyed leaves and liberty in the world's two largest cities, New York and London. We performed duties assigned us in the greatest war in history and recently we had the honor of being indirect participants in the first trans-oceanic flight of heavier than air machine; a feat the credit for which goes to the Navy—we have been in European waters where often the fate of empires have been decided. In the blue waters of the south we cruised where Columbus sought and discovered the new world; where the old time pirates held their sway and where the galleons of Spain spread their canvas to the winds for hundreds of years.

"We viewed St. Pierre, the dead city by the sea, with the gaunt and now dormant volcano of Mt. Pelee in the background—we visited the little village where Josephine the first wife of Napoleon was born—"

Meetings In Every Community To Spur Greater Buying

Japan would have already taken us over if the rest of the people in the United States had been as reluctant with regard to buying U. S. Defense Bonds as the people of Motley county, according to a statement made this week by G. E. Hamilton, chairman of the county bond sales committee.

However, the interest in bonds and sales are expected to reflect a more patriotic sentiment after a series of community meetings get under way. The first meeting to be held at Whiteflat Friday night will be attended by leading businessmen of Matador. Various county leaders will make addresses and bonds will be offered for sale at the meeting. Other meetings are scheduled to be held at Flomot, Northfield, Roaring Springs and Dumont.

Greater Interest Needed
"We are far back in the line of progressive counties, in the purchase of defense bonds," Mr. Hamilton emphasized, "and it is our duty to part with every possible dollar to provide the necessary sinews of war for those who stand at the front and offer their lives for our liberty and the protection of our American way of life."

"We stand at the gateway of changing conditions, which will demand many sacrifices as this nation makes its greatest effort to preserve its principals of freedom. We are offered the opportunity to buy an interest in the security of our government, which will be repaid with interest, however, those who believe they can escape their duty in this trying hour, are due for a surprise. Taxes will require their support if they refuse to give it otherwise and taxes are not repaid.

SUDAN BANK IS ROBBED BY TWO GUNMEN

By Mrs. C. D. Kincaid
SUDAN, Jan 5—Two overalled bandits, blue bandanas over their faces, guns clutched in rubber-gloved fists, Monday morning robbed the Sudan First National Bank of $5,489. locked Assistant Cashier C. M. Furneaux in a vault and escaped in an automobile.

Sudan is in Lamb County near the Texas-New Mexico border. The robbery occurred at about 8:30 a. m.

W. H. Lyle, cashier, made the following announcement: "Furneaux went into the bank and was confronted by two men believed to have been from 25 to 30 years old. Time mechanism of the bank vault released the lock about the same time. The men, at gunpoint, forced Furneaux to open the vault and deliver to them bundled vault currency and the drawer currency.

"All bills were of $1 to $20 denomination. "The men had forced entrance through a back window by cutting a screen, prying latches. No one knows how long they had been in the bank."

Ox Warble Control Method Developed

COLLEGE STATION—An inexpensive method developed recently for controlling cattle grubs, also known as ox warble, has proved highly successful, according to Cameron Siddall, entomologist of the A. & M. College Extension Service. The grub is the offspring of the pestiferous heel fly.

The treatment comprises a mixture of rotenone, soap and water. During the time the grubs are present in the backs of animals it is sprinkled on the affected parts, which then are scrubbed vigorously with a stiff, fibre-bristle brush. Another treatment is dusting on the backs on infested animals a mixture of equal parts of rotenone and wettable sulphur, which requires no rubbing. Good results also are had by dipping cattle in a mixture of rotenone and wettable sulphur.

Treatments should be started as soon as the first grubs are noticed. Since they migrate from internal areas to the backs of cattle over a period of two to three months, one application is not sufficient to kill at one time all of the grubs which may be found in an animal.

The adult of this parasite is known as the heel fly. In the spring it deposits eggs on the hairs of the legs and under body of cattle. After hatching, the grubs begin burrowing into the skin and in the next seven or eight months work their way through muscle layers and localize under the skin at the animals' backs. After approximately 5 weeks there they emerge through holes cut in the skin, drop to the ground, and upon reappearing as flies five to six weeks later, complete their life cycle in about 12 months.

There is no practical way of destroying adult flies or preventing deposit of eggs by using repellent sprays. But Siddall points out that if the grubs are killed in that stage, development of another generation of adult flies is prevented. In many cases, he adds, the backs of animals become swollen and sore a few days after treatment, but the soreness disappears in a week or 10 days and the cattle suffer no permanent ill effect.

Texas' First Lady Called By Death

AUSTIN—A courageous losing fight against a disease which medical science has not yet mastered ended Saturday for Fay Wright Stevenson, 45 year old wife of Coke Stevenson, governor of Texas.

A few minutes after the chime clock in the executive mansion tolled off 7 o'clock, death which had been momentarily expected for the past two days ended her struggle against cancer. Members of the family had been summoned to Austin earlier this week when physicians warned that the end was not far away.

More than a year ago, Mrs. Stevenson slipped and fell while shopping downtown. For many weeks it was believed she had been injured by the fall. Doctors later said the fall resulted from the disease.

For a considerable time, only intimates knew of her illness. One of the friendliest and best-loved women the Texas capital has ever known, she was as cheerful as ever as she acted as official hostess for her husband, then lieutenant governor. Attending the inaugural ceremonies for her husband and for W. Lee O'Daniel during his second term as governor, she leaned heavily on a cane.

Interest In Red Cross Work Mounts With Entry of Nation In War

Many Volunteer To Aid Knitting And Sewing Projects

With the advent of the United States in war, the local Red Cross sewing room is experiencing a new problem with more volunteers to do the work, than there are garments to complete, according to Miss Mary Keith, Production Chairman. However, the shortage of material will not be for long, as new material will be available in the immediate future.

Yarn is now available for men's and women's sweaters for medium and small sizes, Miss Keith said, and can be obtained at the Red Cross sewing room which is located over the First State Bank, in the northwest corner room. The sewing room will be open Saturday afternoons from 3 until 5 o'clock, and those wishing yarn to knit are requested to call for it between those hours.

New Chairwomen Named

In addition to Miss Keith as Production chairwoman, others have been named as follows to serve for this year: Matador, knitting, Mrs. D. I. W. Birnie and Mrs. Harry Willett; sewing, Mrs. Scott Bolton, with an assistant to be named; for cutting, Mrs. T. E. Cammack and Mrs. B. F. Tunnell; packing, Mrs. Harry Willett and Mrs. David Gueft.

For Flomot: Sewing, Mrs. Ralph Stapleton; knitting, Mrs. C. M. Washington.

Sewed garments included 40 hospital bed shirts; 40 layettes; 85 cotton dresses; 101 boy's shirts and the following extra sewed garments: layettes, 15; girl's woolen dresses, 3; hospital pajamas, 1 pair; quilt tops pieced, 2; making a total of sewed garments, 287.

Nine of the "beanies" or caps, were knitted by grade school girls of Miss Thressia Godfrey's art class, including Jolene Bloodworth, Mary Franklin, Nell Webb, Ruby Lee Henderson, Earlene McCain and Mae Jo Russell.

A number of the layette dresses and girls' cotton dresses were cut and made by students of the Home Economics class, under the supervision of the teacher, Miss Zona Beth Faulkner.

Pied 'Pinions' BY MRS. M.

At last we've discovered the radio commercial, which if followed by other manufacturers, would put an end to all radio commercials. We didn't get out and take a vote on the subject, but it has been automatically brought up for discussion several times recently.

Instead of creating a desire for the product, it seems to have a tendency to make the women want to pull their hair or do some other such rash act.

We refer to the one that begins, "D-a-r-l-i-n-g, be sure and bring home some macaroni, some noodles and some spaghetti, and be sure it's—" well, if you listen to your radio, you know the rest.

If the pilot who zoomed his plane down to the roof-tops of this city Monday afternoon, wanted to give the populace an example of the excitement which would accompany the sudden appearance of enemy aircraft, he certainly succeeded. Those who didn't rush out to the sidewalks and stand with mouths gaping, rushed to cover, and it was reported that several new apartments appeared in floorings in an effort to use the basements for air-raid shelters.

Just what there is about an airplane that will cause folks to stand and gaze until the speck disappears from sight, is an unknown factor, but they'll do it every time, even though more than three decades have passed since aircraft was first introduced.

Into every conflict must be introduced some new device which becomes a permanent reminder of the horrors, in years to come. In the last war, the gas mask became a necessity, and in the present conflict, supplying them to civilians was one of the first precautionary measures taken by the British.

Long after the guns have ceased firing when the present warfare comes to a close, people will remember the sound of air-raid sirens, the bark of anti-aircraft guns, and the reaction to black-outs.

Just how this community will respond to its first black-out command remains to be seen. We trust however, that it will be different from that displayed on the west coast.

Our friend writes us, "Our 'black out' here several weeks ago was a farce—many streets were brilliantly lighted while others were dark as Egypt—it took more than two hours to turn off the lights, then the hoodlums got busy, and shot out all remaining lights and threw bricks into the windows of stores where any lights were discernible. The owners had left them, not knowing about the black out, and then they could not reach them as all traffic was stopped; so they found

Child Welfare To Meet Wednesday

The Matador Child Welfare Association will meet in regular monthly session next Wednesday afternoon, January 14, in the grade school reception room, at 3:30 o'clock.

An interesting program has been arranged, including special music by the fourth grade pupils. Mrs. Earl Laughlin will lead group singing of patriotic songs, "We Are Americans," and "Arms for the love of America."

Short talks will be made by Mrs. A. C. Traweek Jr., on the subject, "Should a child finish whatever he begins," and by Mrs. Joe Bloodworth, on "How appearance affects personality."

All mothers and patrons of the school are cordially invited to attend.

FORMER STUDENT IS COLLEGE POET

Poems by Holeman Knoy, graduate of Matador High School, appeared in the 1941 issue of the "Galleon", a literary magazine published by the students of McPherson College, Abilene, where he is a freshman. Names of his poems are: "Nature's Bugs", "Spice of Life", "The Eternal Female", "Regret", and "Conscience".

Holeman is majoring in Biology and minoring in speech. He is the son of Rev. W. J. Knoy and Mrs. Knoy of Whiteflat.

themselves with a great loss on their hands on returning in the morning—These hoodlums acted as if this black out were a Hal- lowe'en prank, an excuse to do anything that came into their empty, vicious heads—there were many accidents in traffic. The next night many headlights on the machines blossomed out in dark blue lights, then others aped them—only to find that they were not legal—then machines were halted on the roadway and the owners were asked to remove the blue cellophane paper they had tied over the headlights. One man refused to halt and a soldier shot at them, killing the woman outright. This soldier had only been authorized to furnish coffee to the various officers and took an unwarranted authority in this shooting—and so it goes."

Over at the bank Colton Thacker, who assumed duties there this fall, now proudly admits that he has become expert especially in two things; cancelling the checks on the perforating machine, and rolling coins in wrappers showing the various denominations, so that they come out even, with none left over. Then there was the customer several years ago who wanted to give his personal check to cover his overdraft. The idea does seem feasible, but for some reason just won't work.

Owners of Trucks And Busses Urged To Submit Reports

AUSTIN—Whether they realize it or not, thousands of Texans are hindering the War Department's national defense efforts, State Police Director Homer Garrison declared today. The Highway Advisory Committee to the War Department, of which Garrison is Texas chairman, sent inventory cards to all owners of trucks and busses in Texas several months ago. The survey was designed to provide the war Department with complete information on the availability of vehicles which might be used to transport troops, materials and evacuees in case of need. "The owners of about 100,000 vehicles still have not filled out and returned these cards," Garrison said today. "Texas, which has the highest ratio of men in the armed services, is lagging far behind other states in the simple matter of a truck and bus survey. If our young men are willing to offer their lives for their country, surely the truck and bus owners should be willing to say whether they will agree to lend or lease their vehicles to the government."

Four Local Lions Attend Zone Meet Held At Canyon

It requires more than zero weather to keep Lions from driving a mere 120 miles into the teeth of a blizzard to attend a zone district meet, especially when they are to hear the Lions International president make an address. Four hardy members of the Matador club, Lions J. S. Stanley, Henry Pipkin, C. A. Pitts and Paul Eubank drove to Canyon Monday night to attend the joint Zone meeting of zones one and two where George Jordan, International President made stirring patriotic address. Meeting in the Methodist church basement at 12:30 Tuesday p. m. the Matador Lions Club held its first 1942 luncheon with about average attendance. Paul Eubank Attends Representative Paul Eubank, who recently enlisted as a Naval flyer, attended the meeting and made a brief address after which he was awarded standing applause of his fellow members. Visitors included four Matador high school honor students, Ruth Keith, Mary Ann Cook, Don Paul Keith, and Bennie Wayne Marshall, and Mrs. G. E. Hamilton. Features of the program following a delicious luncheon served by the Methodist ladies, included singing of patriotic songs and an address by immediate past-president G. E. Hamilton stressing the necessity of greater purchases of United States Defense Bonds in Motley County.

More Beef To Be Needed For 1942

Farm Defense Program goals for 1942 call for slaughter of about 28 million head of cattle and calves compared with a probable slaughter of about 26 million head last year. Meeting this goal in 1942 will make the long-time position of the cattle industry more secure and help supply the increasing need for meat, according to J. R. Emmons, county agent. It is essential in this time of emergency that the Nation's workers and armed forces have an abundance of meat, and beef and veal will be needed in larger amounts as demand increases. Consumers will have more purchasing power next year than they have had for a long time and larger quantities of beef can be sold without depressing prices. By increasing slaughter next year, producers can take advantage of the opportunity to sell on a good market and prevent excessive marketings at some later time when prices and demand may not be as good. COTTON ACREAGE ALLOTMENT GIVEN

COLLEGE STATION—The total cotton acreage allotment for Texas in 1942 will be 9,864,569 acres as compared with 9,880,197 acres in 1941, George Slaughter, chairman of the Texas AAA committee, has announced. These figures include various additions to the basic allotment of 9,730,972 acres, the AAA official said, as provided for in the AAA program. Increased yields, a smaller national allotment, and a decrease in the number of farms growing cotton were responsible for the 15,528 acre cut in acreage, Slaughter, himself a cotton farmer, explained. "Under the AAA program, a farm on which no cotton is planted for three consecutive years loses its cotton allotment. In some sections of the state, especially in East Texas, many farms are being taken out of cotton production altogether," Slaughter said, "and as a result, the number of allotments and the total acreage in allotments has been going down in those sections. Off-setting part of this cut is the increase in the number of farms growing cotton in other sections, notably West Texas." The basic national cotton allotment for 1942 is 26,598,438 acres compared with last year's 26,699,917 acres. Cotton yields in Texas are considerably higher this year, primarily as a result of conservation practices adopted by farmers in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture's program.

COLD WEATHER HINTS

For the sake of the members of the family who go out to school or business, keep a thermometer outside their window, within easy reach—so that they can take a quick look in the morning and dress according to the outside temperature.

HEAT WASTES COLD

If possible, keep your refrigerator away from a stove or radiator. The closer it is placed to a source of heat the more current it will use. However, this does not necessarily hold true in case the refrigerator is placed near a modern well-insulated electric range.
