First Shipment Of The first shipment of salvaged papers and magazines, amounting to over 7000 pounds, made by the Matador Boy Scout Troop No. 60. left town Wednesday, according o Maurice Campbell, scoutmaster Scrap paper from Matador. Paducah, and Crowell was ship ped together, and was gathered by a large truck which was in Matador for that purpose, for the American Paper Co., of Dallas. Scoutmaster Campbell was informed that the newspapers will bring 40 cents per hundred pounds and magazines, 65 cents per hundred. According to further information, the paper is being used to make gun "wadding" and powder for shells.

A pen is being constructed this week near the Scout hut, to hold papers and magazines until time of shipment, and those having contributions of this nature are requested to aid the scouts by separating the magazines and papers and tying them in bundles of about 2 or 21/2 feet square.

Our Pig Growing Content is off to a rootin', mortin' start.

Just a couple of days ago, we picked out two frisky little porkers, both from the same litter. They were both fresh off their mama's bottle, and each a living image of the other.

We brought these two pigs into the store and put them in separate pens. There they will eat and eat until they make big hogs out of themselves. One gets all the grain he wants, and the
