Clean-Up Day Slated For May 11

On May 11, beginning at 8 a.m., a small army armed with hoes, yo-yos, and rakes will attack weeds, trash, and debris at the Matador City Park. Members of the centennial committee ask everyone to join in the task of cleaning up the city for its visitors during graduation and the activities planned around May 25. Bring tools and join your friends in helping the county put on its best face.

Business establishments are requested to please join in the campaign by cleaning up weeds in the sidewalks or around their buildings and doing a spring spruce-up.

A Bake Sale is planned for May 4, 9 a.m., on the sidewalk in front of the library. Donations of baked goods as well as buyers will be equally appreciated.

A moveable piano is needed for the entertainment at the gazebo. If you have one available for loan, call Barbara B. Jameson.

A souvenir centennial program booklet will soon be available at the Tribune. Included in the twenty pages will be a short sketch of the county's organization and courthouses, listings of county schools, post offices, and officials, immigrants, the earliest census, and occupations, names, and businesses of early residents. Illustrations of historic sites by Joy Archer and Lorene Lancaster spotlight different portions of the county. As a special bonus, some booklets will be packaged for mailing in envelopes with the commemorative postage cancellation.

The postage stamp cancellation will be available at the Post Office on Saturday, May 25, from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. Postmaster Freddie Morren will take your letters to be stamped before that time but will not post them before that day.

The parade route was clarified as 17 members of the Motley County Centennial committee met. Participants in the parade will gather at 9 a.m. at Spears Gin site, at the far north end of Main Street.

At 10 a.m. it will travel south on Main, turn east at Dan Brandon's house, then north on Eubank Street to north side of Courthouse, then return to the old gin yard to disband. The program will commence at the courthouse square at 11 a.m., followed by the barbeque and an afternoon of entertainment and activities.

A bevy of Motley County beauties decorate a 1929 Dodge and remind all owners of classic cars of any vintage to enter their autos in the Centennial Parade and Classic Car Show on May 25. Prizes will be awarded in a wide range of categories. Maybe your classic will also attract the attention of the following young ladies: (top l-r) Heather Hobbs, Dana Monroe, Tonya Hoyle, Natalie Burkes, Christy Potts, Lisa Jones and Amy Stephens; (bottom l-r) Aimee Pipkin, Renee Davis, Brandee Spray and Penny Mars.

Tutt Garnett Wins Big At Drag A Roping

Tutt Garnett, Elgin, Texas, was the trailer winner at the Drag A Steer Roping on Sunday, April 28. Tutt won the "Open" Steer Roping with a time of 65.01, beating Arnold Felts, Sonora, Texas, by twelve tenths of a second. Tutt is the son of Matador's Tutt Garnett. He won the Open and a saddle in the 1988 Drag A Ranch Steer Roping.

Jim Davis, Bandera, Texas was third in the roping with a time of 68.51. Roy Cooper, Childress, had the fastest time of the day with a 10.65 followed by Guy Allen with a time of 11.90 and Larry Dugan with a 12.33.

Shaun Burchett, Pryor, Oklahoma, was the winner of the Match-Roping with a time of 105.21 on six steers, compared to Guy Allen's, Vinita, Oklahoma, 13.627 on the six steers. Both young men are professionals in their field and would be tough competition for any roper.

Saturday's weather was beautiful for the steer ropers to show their skills. The day started with a "C" or "Novice" Steer Roping. A young man, Kenyon Burns, Lovington, New Mexico, took home the belt buckle, and it was well deserved, with a total time of 72.12 on 3 steers. He will be a professional roper before too many years.

A new comer to our area, Ryan Miller, Uvalde, Texas, was the buckle winner in the IRSA "B" competition with a time of 52.52. Another young man with natural talent, Bobby Thompson, Paducah, Jim Boyles, Canyon, and Charles Plemmons, were the runner ups in this roping.

Saturday finished with the "A" ISRA Ropers. The man who went home the big money winner and the buckle, was Bill Pearson, Happy, Texas. Wayne Dendy, Hereford, Texas, Mark Spencer, Pawkusk, Oklahoma and Steve Harmon, Beaver, OK were the runner ups.

Through all kinds of weather it is said a roper will prevail, how true that proved to be on Sunday in the dust, wind and competition. Senior ISRA members started the day at 9 a.m. Super Senior winner was Dr. T.K. Hardy from Denton, Texas, won the buckle. Jeff Smith, Aspermont, won the buckle.

Kelly Keltz, 35, is seeking a place on the City Council for the City of Roaring Springs.

Kelly was born and raised in Matador and graduated from Matador High School in 1974. He and his wife, Pennie have two children, Kevin, 12 and Kandi, 9. Kelly is very active in the community of Roaring Springs, serving as secretary of the Roaring Springs Volunteer Fire Department, assistant leader of Royal Rangers in the Assembly of God Church and as a member of the Roaring Springs Lions Club.

He is employed at Thacker Jewelry in Roaring Springs.

When asked his reason for running for this position, Mr. Keltz replied, "I would like to take an active roll in helping meet the needs of people and the city of Roaring Springs." "I believe that working together with the community, we can succeed."

When asked his feelings on Economic Development for the city of Roaring Springs and Motley County, Mr. Keltz replied, "I feel very strongly in favor of economic development for our city, because small rural towns are fading away, and if we don't act now, it will be too late."

Alvin Alexander, 46, is seeking a place on the Motley County ISD School Board. He was born in Haskell Texas and attended Benjamin Public Schools. He received a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering from the University of Texas at El Paso. He is a registered Professional Engineer with the State of Texas.

He and his wife, Seven, have two children, David, 18 and Daniel, 15, both students of Motley County High School. He is employed with Elf Asphalt, Inc., of Lubbock.

When asked his reason for running for this position, Mr. Alexander stated, "I wish to see and be a part of continued growth in the programs offered the students of the Motley County School System." He stated, "We need to continue to improve education in the basic skills as well as develop meaningful honors and fine arts programs," when asked his plans for bettering our school system.

As an incumbent, Mr. Alexander states, "I feel that I have been fair and open minded and have brought to this position a strong conviction that our students deserve all the opportunities that we can reasonably present to them. Anything less than that effort will leave them unqualified for the best opportunities in higher education and life in general."

Vann Francis, 48, is seeking a position on the Motley County ISD School Board.

He was born in Wichita Falls and attended school there and college at Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

He is married to the former, Sondra Stevens, and they have lived in Motley County for 30 years. They have two children, Pam Wilson, 28, and Rob Francis, 26. Mr. Francis is a self-employed rancher and farmer.

Mr. Francis stated, "As a past board member, I believe that a neutral point of view could be beneficial for all concerned, and as taxpayers, we should all be involved in giving our students the best possible education for our tax monies. Our school system is one of the largest businesses in Motley County and as in our own personal businesses, we all want the best our money can buy, and I think we all want to obtain the best future possible for our youth. We have a unique community, good kids, supportive parents and a school system that we can all be proud of. Talk to people from other communities and you will find this is a great place to live and raise children."

"As we all know, the school board functions include, setting annual educational and financial goals, adopting and evaluating educational policies, delegating administrative duties to the superintendent, and last but certainly not least, serving as a bridge between the community and the school."

"If I am elected to serve as your school board member, I will try and make decisions in the best interest of our students, teachers, and community, as the school board represents you as a community and the decisions made will concern each of us. Whether you vote for me or not, please vote, your vote does count!"

Marisue Burleson Potts, 49, is seeking a position on the Motley County ISD School Board.

She was born in Matador and attended school in Floydada and graduated from Floydada High School. She and her husband own and operate a ranch for Commercial Hereford cattle, 12 miles west of Matador, and have other business interests as well.

When asked her reason for running for this position, Mrs. Potts stated, "As the mother of four boys who participated in sports I fully appreciate the discipline, the pride, and the leadership that program develops in our young people, but as a woman and a mother I will seek to represent those interests who seek a counter balance by emphasizing the fine arts and academics."

When asked if she has plans or ideas to help better our school system, she stated, "Emphasize the positive" would be motto. I would like to see more cooperation between parents and the school system, an improvement in morale among our teachers with an appreciation of the difficult job they are doing, and more positive reinforcement for our students."

He was born and raised in Motley County and graduated from Matador High School in 1937. He attended Tarleton State University and graduated from Texas A&M in 1941. He served in the Air Force, WWII, 1942-1945.

He is a rancher in Motley County. When asked his reason for running for this position, Mr. Campbell stated, "I feel I have experience beneficial to the city and tax payers. Our water, trash and sewage cost are well below other area towns, regardless of size."

Mr. Campbell stated, "Due to new federal regulations, we are being forced to update our dumpground and sewer system, while trying to keep our cost at a rate people can afford, or at least much cheaper than other area towns," when asked if he had plans or ideas to help better our present system.

Former Roaring Springs Resident To Head West Point

Lt. Gen. Howard Graves To run military academy

NOTE: This article was taken from the Lubbock Avalanche Journal.

Former Roaring Springs resident Lt. Gen. Howard D. Graves was named superintendent of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y., the Pentagon announced recently.

Pentagon spokesman Pete Williams said Graves, 51, will succeed Lt. Gen. David R. Palmer, who is retiring after 33 years in the Army. Palmer, a native of Ada, Okla., has been superintendent of the academy since 1986.

Graves graduated from Amarillo High School in 1957. He then attended West Point and was commissioned a lieutenant with the Army engineers in 1961.

Graves currently is assigned to the Pentagon and serves as an assistant to

Gen. Colin Powell, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, according to The Associated Press.

The announcement came as a big surprise to Graves' relatives, including his younger brother, Dan, city manager of the Panhandle town of Fritch.

During his 29 years in the Army, Howard Graves had been stationed in Vietnam, West Germany and the Dominican Republic. He also has been an instructor at West Point on two different assignments.

The three-star general served as an aide to former U.S. Defense Secretary James Schlesinger and had been part of the U.S. arms negotiations team with the Soviets in the 1980s, Dan Graves said.

He most recently accompanied U.S. Secretary of State James Baker to the Middle East on peace overtures in the region, Dan Graves said.

Mr. Palmer stated, "Each of us must be challenged: Parents, Students, Teachers and Administration, to perform at a higher level," when asked if he had plans or ideas to help better our school system.

Billy B. Hand, 67, is an incumbent candidate for the Roaring Springs City Council. He was born in Dumont and

by Amy Woolsey

Sometimes as we live our everyday lives we become filled with our own self importance. We can all see our own point of view and neglect to consider the other point of view. What a person believes at any point in time can really be just a reflection of their state of mind. Worry, stress, illness, etc., can sometimes change the way we view a situation or conversation.

Coming to the end of school, everyone has their own worries and stress and we always think we know what is best. There are U.I.L. contests to worry about and tests and who's going to take you to the prom, for example. Teachers get irritated at the students. That's when we all get fed up!

I think we all need to take a deep breath and realize how we are acting. We are driving the ones we care about crazy and we need to apologize to them. All it is is Satan trying to pull us down and take our friends with us!

Look to these last 3 weeks of school with positive thoughts and happiness and I'm sure everyone will enjoy it and maybe even learn something from you! Give it a try - I will!

Early Indians And Settlers Relied On Yuccas For Needs

For centuries - as far back as 12,000 years - the Yucca, described as "the versatile lily of the West" has provided food and tools to desert dwellers. This fact, with other interesting information, was learned by Matador Garden Club members in regular meeting Monday, April 15. Mrs. Bill (Judine) McCaghen was hostess, and the program, "Texas in Bloom", designated as a conservation program on wildflowers, was presented by Mrs. E.D. (Rhea) Lawrence.

Mrs. W.N. (Opal) Pipkin, president, called the meeting to order, and after the secretary-treasurer minutes and report, committee reports were given. Interest centered on getting the new flower pots placed and planted before the Centennial Celebration of the town and county, May 25. Mrs. Ted (Bailey) Elliott and Mrs. Edgar (Winifred) Lee are in charge of this project. The club voted to sponsor a booth during the celebration, and to sell tickets on a wheelbarrow, to be given away in a drawing. They also plan to have plant seed in attractive containers, to sell.

Members brought to the meeting a wild flower bloom for a "show and tell" roll call.

Mrs. Pipkin was leader for the program, which she turned to Mrs. Lawrence. Quoting from a Texas Highways magazine, Mrs. Lawrence disclosed that "Yuccas once were a matter of life or death to early settlers who had to rely on desert plants for their survival," and that

"Soon after Indians settled in present-day West Texas, they began to use yuccas as they did so many other desert plants....they ate the buds, flowers, fruits, and stalks. Various parts of the plant would be boiled, roasted, ground into meal, or eaten raw."

Indians also discovered that they could use the dried leaves to fashion footwear and weave baskets, Mrs. Lawrence said. "They could twist the tough fibers to make ropes, weave them into mats, or cut and bind them together to make brushes. They could even use the sharp spines on the tops of the leaves to pierce the skin and relieve a poisonous snake bite."

Other uses included shaping the woody yucca stalks and stems into tools for hunting or digging, and from the hard points at the end of the blades they made a possible awl. "Centuries after the Indians arrived in Texas, Spanish, Mexican and American settlers also learned the uses of desert plants, Mrs. Lawrence quoted. "Even today, rural Mexicans mix salves to treat wounds by combining crushed yucca leaves with goat or sheep tallow. From the juice of the fruit, they prepare fermented drinks."

Perhaps the most unusual products from the plant might be soap and shampoo. Some varieties of yucca are called soapweed because the plants contain a toxic substance which some Mexicans and Indians use to make soap by removing the bark and crushing the roots in water to produce a soapy cleansing solution.

"The late naturalist Euell Gibbons recalled that the Navajos would use yucca shampoo, claiming that it had hair-restoring qualities. When asked whether the shampoo worked, the Indians replied, "have you ever seen a bald Navajo?"

Yuccas grow bloomstalks that yield hundreds of flowers. Some are said to grow stalks that weigh as much as 60 or 70 pounds and rise 20 feet or more, but are generally shorter. A Swiss botanist who came to Texas in the 1820s frequently mistook yuccas for palm trees. The plants could be called the harbingers of spring, as the blooms burst forth around Easter time in West Texas. The white creamy blossoms look like clusters of bells ready to ring in another spring.

Mrs. Pipkin concluded the program with a quiz, "Is it fruit, or is it a vegetable?" from the Lone Star Gardener magazine, identifying various items in both categories. She also read the year-book thought: "Full many a flower is born to blush unseen and waste its sweetness on the desert air." (Gray)

Mrs. Alvin (Bertha) Stearns served as co-hostess with Mrs. McCaghen in serving refreshments of cake, cookies, finger sandwiches, and nuts, with fruit punch. The table was laid with a white Madeira cloth and centered with an arrangement of red amaryllis in a matching vase. A profusion of roses from the gardens at the Lowell Jr., and Lillie Barkley homes, also from Rachel Patton, decorated rooms throughout the home.

Present were Winifred Darsey, Bailey Elliott, Winifred Lee, Opal Pipkin, Rhea Lawrence, Rachel Patton, Bertha Stearns, and Lila Meador, in addition to the hostess, Judine McCaghen.

MANAGING MONEY DURING A RECESSION

Economic indicators show the United States economy has officially entered a recession. Some sound financial management steps can help you handle the tight money situations usually brought on by recession.

Don't wait for a job layoff, a health emergency, or an impossible mortgage payment to jog you into action. By adopting a few smart money measures, your finances will be easier to manage if your economic situation worsens.

Here are some tips:

- * Begin now to organize your financial papers. Select a central location and accumulate family financial information. Record all bank accounts, retirement plans, investments, and other assets. Include the institution where they are held, phone numbers and contact person if you know a name, account numbers, and accounts. List mortgage information, including financial institution address and phone number, account number, balance, monthly payments and contact person. Also, record all charge cards. Include the financial institution through which they are held, phone numbers for customer service and account numbers. Write down insurance companies, agents and phone numbers for health, home, life and auto insurance. Keep a record of social security numbers for all family members. This will all be useful information in time of crisis.

- * Analyze your financial situation. Calculate the total amount of cash available to you in case of an emergency. Every household needs an emergency fund, preferably equaling three to six month's worth of income. Most households have nowhere near this amount on hand. List any amounts you owe and total them so that you can get a picture of your overall debt situation. Track how much you spend for one month and compare to your income. Note what items could be trimmed down if necessary.

- * Lower your debts. Pay off a little at a time, and do not continue to charge. As a general rule, monthly payments other than mortgage should total less than 20 percent of take-home pay. If you are feeling over your head in regard to debts, consider going to a no-charge credit counseling office for assistance.

- * Increase your cash on hand. If your family's emergency fund needs beefing up, try to come up with ways you can add to the total. Make a practice of adding any raises, bonuses, overtime pay, or "extra" money directly to the emergency fund.
- * Consider your job situation. If your company or individual job situation seems at danger during hard economic times, prepare for the worst. Begin to notice what jobs are available for which you would be qualified if you lost your job. Update your resume. Do not change jobs unless you can see major advantages in the change, so that any seniority you have accrued will be safeguarded.

- * Don't worry, be happy. Find ways to entertain yourself and your family that don't cost much. Concentrate on having fun, not saving money!

Matador Cemetery Association Meets

The Matador Cemetery Association met at the courthouse Monday night, April 29 at 8:00 p.m.

There were a large number of people in attendance. The meeting was called to order by Gary Lancaster. After several discussions of different aspects of cemetery care were carried on, the following officers were elected: Gary Lancaster, President; Mrs. L.B. Campbell, Vice President; Hazel Donovan, Secretary-Treasurer.

After some discussion it was decided that a board be elected consisting of four people. This board is to serve for six months. Those elected were Pat Seigler, Joyce Archer, Billy Wason, Mary Meason.

After the general meeting was over, the board, president and vice-president, met for a brief meeting. In the general meeting, there were discussions about vandalism in the cemetery. A suggestion was made for a barrier to the entrance of the cemetery. Pat Seigler stated that this had been done at the Paducah Cemetery and had made a great difference in vandalism there.

In the board meeting it was agreed for a barrier to be placed at the road leading to the cemetery. That barrier is to be unlocked at 7:00 a.m. and locked at dark in the evening.

Another agreement made by the board is that any type of headstone may be erected in the new section of the cemetery. There will be no curbing in the new cemetery and the graves will be smoothed out and left flat. This will enable caretakers to keep the cemetery better mowed and edged.

The water has been turned on at the cemetery. The city is furnishing 50,000 gallons of water for $15.50 per month. This will certainly help to beautify the entire cemetery.

The board will meet again Monday night, May 6 at the City Hall.

The association urges that people keep up their donations to the Matador Cemetery, and if possible, donations would be appreciated for further repairs and improvements. If donating for repairs, please mark your donation, "For Repairs". Send your donations to Hazel Donovan, Matador, Texas.

DREAMS CAN COME TRUE

Some dream of winning a spot on the USA Olympics team, racing in the Indy 500, or playing in the World Series. Bass fishermen dream of fishing in the B.A.S.S. Classic. Sure, it's only a dream, because out of several million fishermen, only five 'club' fishermen are selected to compete against the best professional anglers.

Sometimes dreams do come true. Ask MICKEY TROUSDALE of TUCUMCARI. He has defied all the odds and earned an all-expense-paid trip to the 1991 Classic. This dedicated angler has become a legend by winning tournaments on Ute, Conchas and Elephant Butte in a borrowed bass boat, his uncle's rig.

Mickey, who works for the Ford dealership in Tucumcari, is a frequent guest on Southwest Outdoors, my weekly Wednesday evening TalkRadio show on KGNC. He has been our expert on New Mexico lakes and now will be the expert on B.A.S.S.

Win or lose, Mickey Trousdale is a class act, and I can't wait to see him on TV as proof that dreams can come true. Good luck Mickey!

Some lucky person will win a fishing boat during the WEST TEXAS SPORTSMAN SHOW at the Fairgrounds in LUBBOCK on May 10, 11, 12. Jim Martin of MARTIN MARINE in Levelland has donated a 14 foot aluminum fishing boat and any one who drops by his display can register. I will draw the name of the lucky winner on Sunday - Mother's Day.

During this outstanding three day sportsman show, enjoy free fishing seminars by bass experts like former Dallas Cowboy RANDY WHITE, DR. LOREN HILL, and TED MILLER. Learn more about trout fishing by attending seminars by TI PIPPER, the author of Fishing New Mexico.

The WEST TEXAS SPORTSMAN SHOW will display the newest in boats from all the boat dealers on the South Plains. See the full line display of the newest Recreation Vehicles, from the practical fold downs to the magnificent motorhomes. Visit the three casting tanks for seminars and hands-on demonstrations of the newest fishing tackle. Don't miss the INDOOR ARCHERY RANGE or the GUN SHOW.

The cost of all this great sportsman entertainment is only $3.50 for adults, $1.50 for kids.

SPECIAL DEAL FOR MY READERS -- Present this copy of my column and save $1.00 off the cost of an adult ticket. Limit one per adult, please. Stop by and visit our SOUTHWEST OUTDOORS booth.

First and third Thursday evenings at 6:00 p.m. are Fun Tournaments. The second Thursday evening at 6:00 p.m. are Fun Tournaments at White River. All Fun Tournaments are catch-and-release, three fish events with $20 entry fees and if 100 anglers enter, the winner takes home $750.

Betty's Tax Talk

by Betty Luckett

Do you know how the appraisal district determines the value of all the taxable property in the county?

Before the work of appraisal can begin, the appraisal district compiles a list of the taxable property. The listing for each property contains a description of the property and the name and address of the owner.

HOW IS YOUR PROPERTY VALUED?

The appraisal district must repeat the appraisal process for each property in the county at least once every three years in what is called a reappraisal.

To save time and money, the appraisal district uses mass appraisal to appraise large numbers of properties.

In a mass appraisal, the appraisal district first collects detailed descriptions of each taxable property in the district. It then classifies properties according to a variety of factors, such as size, use, and construction type. Using data from recent property sales, the district appraises the value of typical properties in each class. With the help of numerical modifiers that look at differences between individual properties — such as differences in age or location — the district uses the typical property values to appraise all the properties in the class.

For particular properties, the appraisal district may use three common methods to value property: market approach, income approach, and cost approach.

The market approach is most often used and simply asks "What are properties similar to this selling for?" The value of your home is an estimate of the price your home would sell for on January 1. The appraisal district compares your home to similar homes that have sold recently and determines your home's value.

The district uses other methods to appraise other types of properties that don't often sell, such as utility companies and oil leases. A more complicated method, the income approach is based on what an investor would pay in anticipation of a reasonable rate of return. The cost approach asks the question "How much did the property cost new, how much has it depreciated in value because of age and use, and how much would it cost to reproduce?"

WHAT IF YOUR PROPERTY VALUE INCREASES?
A notice of appraised value will let you know if the appraisal district intends to increase the value of your property.

Chief appraisers send two kinds of notices of appraised value. A long notice contains a description of your property, its value, the exemptions, and an estimate of taxes that might be owned. This notice is sent under three circumstances:

* If the value of your property is higher than it was in the previous year (the appraisal district's board of directors can decide that the district will send long notices only if a property's value has increased by more than $1,000);

* If the value of your property is higher than the value you gave on an rendition;

* If your property wasn't on the appraisal district's records in the previous year.

The chief appraiser will send a short notice — without the estimate of taxes — if your property was reappraised or changed hands.

The chief appraiser must send you a notice of appraised value by May 15 or as soon thereafter as possible. If you disagree with the value, you have until May 31, or 30 days from the date the notice is delivered (whichever is later), to file a protest with the appraisal review board.

The notice of appraised value explains how you can file a protest with the review board if you disagree with the district's action.

WHAT IS RENDITION?

A rendition is a form you may use to report the taxable property you own on January 1 to the appraisal district. The rendition shows your name and address, identifies and describes your taxable property, and gives the location of the property. You may also give your opinion of your property's value on the rendition form, but you don't have to report a value. Business owners must render their personal property. Other types of property owners may render if they choose to.

Deadline
File your rendition with the appraisal district after January 1 and no later than April 1. The chief appraiser will automatically extend the deadline to April 30 with a written request from you.

Requirements
If you own tangible personal property that is used to produce income, you must report this property on a rendition form every year. Businesses, for instance, must report their inventories, equipment and machinery on a rendition.

If your property is appraised by more than one appraisal district office. This

1991 Family Land Heritage Program Begins Registration

AUSTIN -- Agricultural Commissioner Rick Perry announced today that registration for the 1991 Family Land Heritage Program will open May 6 and extend through August 16.

"TDA is looking for all the farms and ranches in Texas that have been active and productive for the same family for at least 100 years. We want to recognize the families who have provided us with farm and ranch products as a matter of long-term tradition," Perry said.

The Family Land Heritage Program was created by the Texas Department of Agriculture in 1974 to honor farms and ranches throughout Texas for maintaining continuous agricultural production for a century or more. Since the program's inception, more than 2,500 properties in Texas have been registered.

The program's basic requirements are: the land must have been agriculturally productive and owned by members of the family for 100 years or more; a minimum $50 per year income for a farm or ranch of 10 acres or more or $250 minimum income for those less than 10 acres; and immediate family members must actively manage and direct the everyday operation of the farm or ranch. If all of the land has ever been rented to someone outside the family it will not qualify.

Caprock Jamboree To Celebrate 2nd Anniversary

A large crowd of county and area residents are expected at the 2nd anniversary celebration for the Caprock Jamboree, Saturday, May 4th.

The Briscoe County Activities Association will be selling hamburgers cooked over a mesquite grill, along with all the trimmings, beginning at 6:00 p.m. They will also be serving a free piece of anniversary cake.

Throughout the night lots of drawings will be held for door prizes donated by local merchants and loyal supporters. Free chances will be given at the door. A large variety of gifts will be drawn for, such as a beautiful handmade Texas shaped clock, gift certificates for local merchants, baked goods, and many, many more nice gifts.

A very special drawing will be held at the conclusion of the show, before the "Jam Session", for a Realistic Concertmate 750 Keyboard that has been donated by Jimmy McKay from Kermit Electronics, Kermit, Texas. Chances will be sold throughout the show for $1.00 each. The proceeds from the keyboard will be used to purchase other equipment for the Jamboree.

Influence

One of the basic principles used by our law enforcement people in crime detection is, that no two fingerprints are identical. No other person on this earth has the same fingerprint which you have.

Your influence is just as singular! There is no other person on this earth who possesses the same influence or can wield the same force that you exert on our society. No other person can do the same work which you are fitted to do. This should fill each of us with a sense of sacred importance. With that comes a very sobering thought -- if you don't do the work God has fitted for you, that work will remain undone for eternity. No other person has your unique potential to some particular task.

The important thing is for each child of god to find the task he or she can best perform, and then faithfully serve. It is a comfort to us to know that the statement of Scripture is not, "Well done, thou good and successful servant," but rather, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of they Lord."

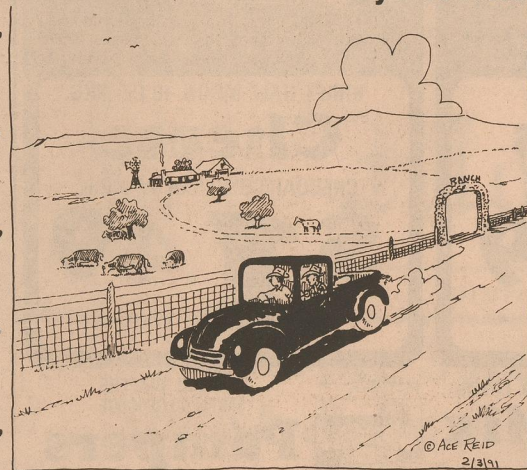

We may not be so highly successful as others, and not so renowned as some, but we can remain as faithful as any. We can use what our Lord has conferred upon us.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

Michael A. Guido
Metter, Georgia

A man was having trouble with his lights and he took his car to a mechanic. He examined it and said, "Your battery's weak."

"But," said the owner, "the horn honks loudly."

"Sure," he replied, "but it takes more power to make a light than to make a noise."

There are many people who go around shouting, not shining. But one example is worth more than a thousand arguments.

Lights on a landing strip don't make a noise, they shine; and by shining they woo and warn.

"You are the world's light," said the Lord. "Let your good deeds glow for all to see, so that they will praise your heavenly Father."

What are you doing - shouting or shining?
