Old Settlers May Hold 1943 Reunion

made in the present rationing restrictions, Motley-Dickens Counties Old Settlers Association will hold a one-day annual reunion at Roaring Springs on Thursday, August 26th, it was announced here Saturday by C. C. Haile of Afton, president of the organization.

"Further restrictions on gasoline could hardly affect our plans or prevent our holding the one-day meeting," Mr. Haile, declared. We still have plenty of wagons, horses and saddles, and that is the only method of travel we knew in the days when the association was organized.

Mr. Haile declared that a memorial service and patriotic tribute to the men in the armed forces of the two counties would be featured. He cited the need for association and renewal of friendships during stress of these war days. Plans will be outlined for an oldtime rodeo on the afternoon of the reunion. A meeting will be called at Roaring Springs some time in July.

Faculty Members Leave For Summer

Several faculty members of the Matador schools, have left town since the close of school, to spend summer vacation with friends and relatives elsewhere.

These included Miss Ione Gideon, who returned to her home at Terrell, Miss Cleo Crabtree, to her home at Happy; Mrs. Harold Jones to join her husband at Ft. Worth, where he is employed; and Miss spend some time in El Paso during the summer with her husband. who is stationed at Ft. Bliss.

Dynamic Addresses By Young Leaders Of Local Schools

Silence prevails on the Matador school campus this week, following graduation exercises Thursday, which completed the 1942-43 school year.

Twenty-four pupils received diplomas from the eighth grade, in a program Thursday morning, and 20 from the 12th grade in the evening exercises.

Although small in number, the 1943 senior class was declared outstanding in high scholastic averages. Out of the class of 20, there were 14 who were on the distinguished list and honor roll. Program Of National Affairs

In a world at war, it was but fitting that the theme of the program centered about national affairs, and the effects on the youth With clear-cut vision, the part the high school student is playing in war and will play in peace, were set forth in the salutatory address, "The High School Goes To War" by Ruth Evelyn Keith, and the valedictory adman Merle Pitts. "After five decades of outstanding growth and achievement, the American high school today is faced with its greatest test. It must train and is training a new generation to wage war for the freedom of the world." Miss Keith pointed out in her introductory remarks. "In this war," she continued, "we need a Victory Corp that knows not only how to shoot but also what the shooting is a-. Youth has every right

In order that city dwellers may guard against this poisonous plant G. Eubank; an aunt, Mrs. A. H. by instant recognition of it, Dr. Matthews and Mr. Matthews, of Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued the following statement. "Poison ivy may be best TER-Stamp T, valid from April fruit. Each leaf is divided into 25 through May 31; Stamp F, from three leaflets, the margins of May 2 through May 31; stamp G, which vary from smooth to more first known plastic. tioned at Camp Atterbury, Ind., from May 9 through May 31: or less notched outlines. The symptoms of ivy poisoning range from slight redness and itching to exaggerated swelling and blisters, accompanied by severe burning sensations. There are all gradations between these excations. Applications are now be- tremes. In mild cases the skin is covered by numerous small blisters containing a colorless serum which is not poisonous. The poison cannot spread from broken blisters but pustules may form and infections may result as secondary consequence. Recovery usually occurs in from 10 days to three weeks. Occasionally a persistent skin inflammation follows.

"The best prevention is to recognize the poison ivy plant and stay away from it," Dr. Cox said. "The victim of ivy poisoning may not be fatally infected, but to say the least, the attendant discomfort and disability is far from pleasant and well worth avoiding.

On Saturday evening the friends of Wayland College and President McDonald gathered to pay proper tribute to him and his guarter century of service. A few days later | he will go to Brownwood to deliver the commencement address at Howard Payne College. In recognition of his contribution to Christian Education, that institution will confer upon him a doctor's degree. His friends everywhere congratulate him on his merited achievements.

Wayland Baptist College was founded primarily through the ef-forts of Dr. J. H. Wayland. Such an institution on the Plains of Wayland Baptist College was an institution on the Plains of West Texas had long been the dream of this pioneer physician, who came to Plainview in 1891. Dr. Wayland's original gift to the school was 25 acres of ground for a campus and $10,000 which was later increased to 30 acres and $100,000. Her first president was Dr. I. E. Gates. The first day the school opened with 60 enrolees. It is impossible to estimate the contribution that Wayland College has made to the world. From her halls students have gone out to become outstanding personages in many fields. There are doctors, lawyers, ministers, missionaries, business men, teachers, farmers ldiers, sailors and marines. For 33 years she has majored on building character along with scholarship. In that program she has been preeminently successful.
