Spur Editor Is Victim Of Attack

Writing -30- quickly across the conclusion of his career at the helm of a country newspaper, W. D. Starcher, 53, died on the streets of Spur Friday afternoon of a heart attack, only a few minutes after he had signed papers disposing of his newspaper, The Dickens County Times. Mr. Starcher had published the Times for approximately 20 years.

Funeral services were held in the Spur Baptist church at 3 p. m. Tuesday and interment made in the Spur cemetery. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. W. D. Starcher, who was also his business partner and one son, Billie D. and a foster son, Sgt. William D. Starcher of the U. S. Air Corps, for whom funeral plans were delayed pending his arrival.

Former Matador Publisher
Mr. Starcher was well-known in Matador, having published the local paper during 1920. He later moved to Roaring Springs and operated the Roaring Springs News until he moved to Spur, about 1923.

In the transaction which Mr. Starcher sold his newspaper before his sudden death, Friday, the Texas Spur was sold to O. B. Ratliff who will combine both publications under the masthead of the Texas Spur, founded by Oran McClure. Mechanical equipment of both shops will be moved to the former Times building. H. G. Hull former Spur publisher, will continue as editor of the new combination.

Mr. Starcher was a member of the Baptist church, charter member of the Rotary club, first scoutmaster of Troop 35 of the Boy Scouts at Spur, member of the Masonic lodge, the Eastern Star, the Odd Fellows and teacher of the men's Bible class of the First Baptist church.

Henry H. Marshall Dies In Florida

Henry H. Marshall, pioneer cowboy of this area, who moved to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida and became Chief of Police, remaining in service to earn the 20-year retirement, died suddenly of a heart attack on August 30th, according to a message received by the Tribune from his widow this week. Mr. Marshall visited old friends here on a tour through this country three years ago.

Senators get Earful When Farley Talks

Cal Farley, Amarillo independent tire dealer and service station operator, was the hit of the day at hearings conducted by the Senate banking and currency committee on the Ellender Bill S1122 Wednesday in Washington. The bill, which seeks to divorce the retailer from the manufacturer and to otherwise limit the field of operations of tire companies, was protested by Mr. Farley. Other witnesses read their statements. Mr. Farley talked extemporaneously and before an imposing array of senators, not only posing their wholehearted attention but the applause of the gallery of spectators. Senators Wagner of New York, Meade of New York, Taft of Ohio, Ball of Minnesota, Toby of New Hampshire, Bankhead of Mississippi, McLelland of Arkansas, Maybank of South Carolina, Maloney of Connecticut, Capper of Kansas, Butler of Nebraska, Ellender of Louisiana and Wherry of Nebraska were committee members present.

Farley reviewed the history of the retail tire business telling how it started over the curbs with anyone able to get in and to handle it. He told how it grew until some were left behind. This was especially true in 1928 and 1929 when the super-service station idea came into vogue requiring a great deal of money and a large organization. This forced some rubber companies into the retail field to protect their interests.

"There is no company or chain store that can whip an independent if he can get up out of the rocking chair," said Mr. Farley. "I don't think you fellows can pass a law that will get the boys out of their rocking chairs unless they want to do so on their own hook."

The carnival held at the high school Thursday night was declared to be one of the most enjoyable and successful ever held here. Proceeds amounted to $278, after all expenses were paid, and will be divided equally between the junior and senior classes.

Hamilton, Mesdames Harry Willett, F. M. Jinkins, Luther Jameson, H. H. Schweitzer, W. F. Jacobs, W. Y. Higgins, of Matador, and Rev. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Harris, Mrs. Tom Tilson and Rev. A. E. Butterfield of Whiteflat.

MATADOR TO CLOSE FOR THANKSGIVING

Matador will observe today (Thanksgiving) as a holiday according to notices posted in most places of business for the last few days. A community Thanksgiving church service will be held at the Methodist church this morning at 11 a. m., with Rev. M. B. Carroll, pastor of the First Baptist church delivering the sermon. Special choir selections will be rendered by members from the choirs of both churches. A cordial invitation is extended everyone in the community to attend the services.

Returned Soldier Says Tribune Was His Only Friend

Friends and relatives may forget or become too busy to write boys in the service, but every week the Tribune goes through thick and thin, to the far corners of the world, bearing its message from home. Many a man in service who gets no other mail, receives his weekly copy of the Tribune. Evidence of this fact was brought home to the publishers last week, by a recently honorably discharged Motley county soldier, who must obviously remain unnamed.

Visiting the Tribune office when the mail sack of "singles" were being wrapped for over 350 men-in-service readers, he asked, "Are those for the boys?" When answered in the affirmative, he continued, "I know what it means to them. When I was in the army the Tribune was the only friend I had."

The Tribune considers the comment one of its greatest tributes. Perhaps other men in the armed service feel as this returned soldier. The Tribune has never refused a request for a subscription to be sent to a man in service, nor has a paper been discontinued as long as it could be delivered. The Tribune makes no distinction in rank, branch of service or activities of men in uniform. All are equally important; all are fighting for the things that are America.

Sincere appreciation is extended to every reader who has contributed to the plan of sending the Tribune to men in uniform, including the following unsolicited contributions received since last week: Mrs. J. F. Bridges $1, Mrs. A. M. Bourland $1, Bob Echols $5, Mrs. Otis Smith $2.

Truck Depot Moved To Uplown Matador

Local patrons of Miller & Miller Motor Freight Company are unanimous in their approval of the new freight depot location in the Crews building, formerly occupied by Turner Grocery, on the south side of the square.

Change of location from the old railroad depot on the eastern outskirts of Matador, was made last week, with local manager Floyd Webb, pleased with the new convenience. Mr. Webb said the change was made partly because of the saving in gasoline and tires made necessary by the remote location of the former depot and also to provide better service to customers.

The building, among the oldest in Matador, was the first home of the Matador Tribune, which moved to the Roaring Springs News on November 29, 1933 and became the Matador Tribune with its first issue in December. The Motley County News was purchased by the Tribune on March 14, 1943.

Mr. Webb extends a cordial invitation to friends and customers to visit him in his new "uptown" Matador location.

Czech Prisoner of Nazis to Talk

Joseph Carl Bartak, 20 years a missionary to Czechoslovakia, and Nazi internment prisoner, will address a community group at the Methodist church, Monday evening, November 30, at 8 p. m.

Mr. Bartak, once an immigrant to America where he was educated, later returning to his native land, will give a graphic account of treatment under the German heel. A cordial invitation is extended the public to hear his address.

Scoring of the five game was as follows: R. Springs 36, Patton Springs 6; R. Springs 45, McAdoo 13; R. Springs 6, Dickens 0; McAdoo 0, R. Springs 25 and Dickens 12, R. Springs 32.

ACCIDENT VICTIM IS GRANDDAUGHTER OF MRS. SEIGLER

Margaret Lela Vaughn, 13, of Lubbock, who was fatally injured Thursday morning when struck by an automobile at the intersection of Washington and Twenty-fifth street, in Lubbock, was a granddaughter of Mrs. G. W. Seigler of Northfield. Several uncles and an aunt also reside in the county.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the First Baptist Church, Lubbock by Dr. C. E. Herford, assisted by Rev. C. J. McCarty. Interment was in Lubbock cemetery.

Miss Vaughn stepped off the curb to catch a bus headed west on Twenty-fifth when a car driven by Mrs. Wynell Bowman, headed east at about 25 miles an hour, struck the girl, throwing her against the curb from which she had stepped. She was rushed to West Texas Hospital where authorities reported she was already dead when the ambulance reached there.

A tenth grade student in Lubbock High school and a member of the First Baptist church, she had lived in Lubbock and vicinity with her parents about eight years and was enroute to school at the time of the tragic event. Her father, Clovis Vaughn, is manager of Coffman courts. Besides her parents, she is survived by a brother, Clovis, Jr. 8. The girl's mother, the former Amy Seigler, is well-known in this vicinity, having been born and reared near Northfield.

Relatives Attend Funeral

Relatives from this and near-by communities who went to Lubbock to attend funeral services included Mrs. G. W. Seigler, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Seigler, Mrs. O. F. Etheredge and Mr. and Mrs. George Seigler of Northfield, Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Seigler and children of Matador and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Seigler and son Bruce of Kirkland, former Matador residents.

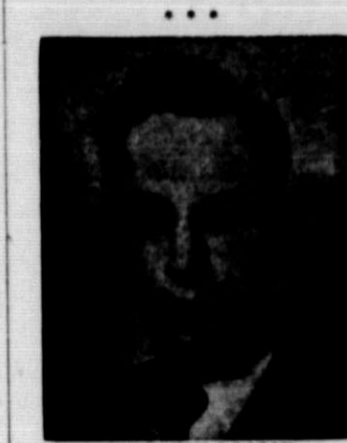

Owners Of Foreign Property To File

Citizens of Matador who own any property in foreign countries are notified by postmaster E. F. Springer that they must file reports of their foreign holdings with the Treasury Department before December 1.

Mr. Springer said that it is necessary for the government to have as complete information as possible on the American stake abroad to assist the military authorities and the civilian governments on the fighting fronts and to bring about sound solutions of the post-war problems.

"WITNESS" GETS PRISON SENTENCE

Pinkey Oliver Adams, 20, of Motley county was one of the three Jehovahs Witnesses to receive a prison sentence for violation of the selective service law from Judge T. Whitfield Davidson, in the U. S. District Court at Lubbock, yesterday. Adams and Gordon Lindsey of Plainview were sentenced to three years, while Keith Kratzer, 18, of Lubbock county was given 13 months and ordered sent to the El Reno reformatory.

Judge Cites Scripture

"We think it is commendable of you that you've tried to follow the teaching of the Lord, but the Bible to which you refer," Judge Davidson said, in pronouncing sentence, also says "Bear ye one another's burdens and fulfill the law of Christ." You claim the right to worship the Lord as you please, yet you say I won't fight for that right... And one of the burdens you must bear is to defend the right to worship the Lord as you please."

TRAWEEK HOSPITAL

Melton Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Smith of Roaring Springs, underwent tonsillectomy Saturday.

A daughter weighing 7 pounds, 6 ounces, was born Tuesday, November 23, to Mr. and Mrs. Peyton A. Ammons of Quitaque, in the hospital.

Jeff Williams On Program Arranged For December 9th

An Oklahoma "Sooner", born a Texan, raised (not reared) in Aransas, and past District Governor of the Rotary International, will make the principal address at the Matador Lions Club Ladies' Night banquet scheduled for Thursday evening, December 9th. Jeff Williams, humorist and philosopher, a successful and highly-regarded lawyer of Chickasha, Oklahoma, will not only make the principal address, he will constitute the entire program.

Many critics who have heard Jeff Williams throughout this nation, Canada and the British Isles, declare that he is one of the best of six outstanding speakers in the world. Since Pearl Harbor he has traveled more than 150,000 miles by air to speak in interest of the war effort and to entertain various branches of the armed forces. Being considered president material for the Rotary International he is at present chairman of the committee for relief of suffering Rotarians in conquered countries and has been instrumental in raising more than two hundred thousand dollars for that purpose.

Friend Of District Judge

Matador Lions Club has been able to secure Mr. Williams for the Ladies' Night meeting through District Judge Alton B. Chapman of Floydada. Regarding his appearance here, Judge Chapman, said, "Jeff is a long-time personal friend of mine and has never turned me down when I asked him to make a speech for any particular group. He is a real entertainer, a fine lawyer and a very great American." Mr. Williams will be accompanied by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Doan Farr, who will drive on to Spur after the meeting. Mr. Williams will speak in Ralls on the night of December 10th.

MATADORS END UP 3rd IN DISTRICT

Halfback Vance Campbell grabbed a fumble to run 97 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter of the Floydada-Matador game here Friday afternoon, to make the local eleven's only score in their final game this season, which ended with a score of 26-6 in favor of the visitors.

The Matadors ended their seven game schedule with third place in the district class A conference, with Floydada and Spur to play off the first place tie at Floydada today. The Matadors won two games during the season, both with Lockney. Scores were as follows: Crowell 30, Matador 0; Spur 19, Matador 6; Lockney 6, Matador 26; Floydada 39, Matador 0; Spur 25, Matador 7; Lockney 6, Matador 12; Floydada 26; Matador 6.

Members of the football squad presented Freddie Welling with a five-piece breakfast room set last week, as a token of their appreciation as serving as their coach for the season.

GO LIGHT!

Scorn Overweight Motor Oil this Winter of War

"The Lighter the oil the better"... Discover how very light, by changing to Winter OIL-PLATING

Have you ever been a new papa? Have you ever had to enlarge the hole in the nipple of baby's bottle? The hot milk, just about as fluid as anything, barely comes through. Far "skinnier" than small holes in nipples are many of the oil spaces in your car's engine. That's still true after it is middle-aged or beyond. Any oil...any oil...has a hard enough time coming through and spreading all around. Overweight oil—easily thickened by cold—is far worse. The lightest oil your engine can use this season is rightest. And you can know that light oil will more than stand the gaff when it includes the ability to give your engine internal OIL-PLATING.

Because a Winter change to Conoco Nth motor oil adds OIL-PLATING to engine parts, you can go your car's limit on lightness. Any good plating is a protective surface, and so is OIL-PLATING—attached all over your engine's insides, as if strongly "magnetized" there by a synthetic that's part of patented Conoco Nth. Now every moving part enveloped in its close-fastened OIL-PLATING must slide upon the rupture-resistant fluid film of Conoco Nth. Safety is multiplied!—though your economical Conoco Nth is so light that your battery, too, has every chance to outlive the Winter, and the War. OIL-PLATE at Your Conoco Mileage Merchant's—today. Continental Oil Co.

Dread Engine Acid Fought by OIL-PLATING

Normal combustion always leaves acids inside of your engine when it stops. Formerly it seldom stood idle long. Soon mileage and speed heated your engine enough to oust acids. But nowadays rationing may force long rests, while corrosive acids gnaw. To combat corrosion, metals are plated. You combat acid corrosion with your engine OIL-PLATED.

THANKS GIVING

The Tradition OF THANKSGIVING

THROUGHOUT the development of this nation, tradition has played its part. Advancing frontiers brought our holidays with them... mileposts in an advancing civilization. Among them has been Thanksgiving... a holiday that is really our own. It has contributed in no small measure to the happiness and prosperity of America, and other traditions have contributed equally. Through troublous times... wars and floods and panics... they have been remembered, standing for all that we in this nation hold dear. They are worth keeping, and guarding carefully... time tested traditions that can still serve us well.

Baptist W.M.U. Has General Meeting

General monthly meeting was held by the Baptist W. M. U. Monday night in the church basement following an enjoyable covered-dish supper. The tables, placed at right angles, were covered with a blue crepe paper, with a vest motif for centerpiece, consisting of a pumpkin, surrounded by hocks and ears of corn.

J. L. Woodruff was leader of the Royal Service program by members of the Burlington, on the theme, "The Song of the Witnesses." Group singing hymn opened the program, followed by reading of the Scripture by the leader and a Prayer for the week. The hymn, "Silent" was played by Mrs. A. Wilson on her accordeon. Mrs. Wilson gave an interesting talk on "The Witness of the Song," followed by Mrs. Fred Clower. "The Christian Singing" was given by Mrs. Ben Meador, and Mrs. M. B. Carroll, Jr., gave an interesting talk on "The Anthem of the Nations," using her violin to illustrate the different types of music discussed.

Meditation, "My part in the Song of the Redeemed" was read by Mrs. Woodruff, to piano accompaniment by Miss Earlene Laughlin.

Others present were: Mesdames J. D. Craven, Freddie Welling, Loyd Fulkerson, Arthur Fulkerson, Edith Sanders, Roy Reeves, Elbert Reeves, Vernon Doss, M. B. Carroll, Sr., L. Rattan, Herman Stanfield, Mutt Berryman, Ed

Pied Pinions

BY MRS. J. M.

The earliest harvest thanksgiving in America was kept by the Pilgrim Fathers at Plymouth in 1621 and was repeated often during that and the ensuing century. However, it was not until 168 years later that the occasion was made a legal holiday by the President, George Washington.

The First Thanksgiving Proclamation, as set forth by Washington in 1789, is as follows:

WHEREAS, it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of the Almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and humbly to implore His protection, aid and favors;

NOW, THEREFORE, I do recommend and assign Thursday, the 26th day of November next, to be devoted by the people of these Cammack, C. Warren, Cecil Shelton, Earl Laughlin, Clarence Kifer R. E. Campbell, Sr. and Misses Verlin Reeves and Thessia Godfrey.

In the absence of Mrs. Freeman Thacker, the president, Mrs. Cammack presided at a business meeting, in which plans were outlined for the W. M. U. Christmas party to be held the third Monday night in December, at which time, another box will be packed for Buckner's Orphans Home, to consist of cookies, canned goods and any other offering brought for that purpose.

SCAVENGER HUNT FEATURE OF PARTY

A scavenger hunt was the feature of a party given Tuesday night by Lewis and Frances Bostick when they entertained a group of their friends.

For refreshments, the wedding cake which Lewis won at the school carnival last week, was served.

Those enjoying the occasion were: Gordon Russell, Mildred Ann Roberts, Hal Courtney, Frances Schweitzer, J. P. and Wilma Faye Smith, Evelyn Shelton, Cora and Ruby Bostick and the hosts.

Miss Ruth Evelyn Keith, Texas Tech student from Lubbock spent the week-end last week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Keith.

States to the service of that great and glorious Being, who is the Beneficent Author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be; that we may then all unite in rendering unto him our sincere and humble thanks for his kind care and protection of the people of this country, and for all the great and various favors which he has been pleased to confer upon us.

Remember how "big" you were on your fifth birthday? Somehow, when you reach the ripe old age of five years, you have come to the first turning point in your life. You are no longer a baby, and your airs and attitude towards those younger than yourself suddenly become condescending. No wonder then, that auburn-haired, brown-eyed, Joann Darsey felt such keen disappointment recently when she became five. On the morning of the eventful day, she awakened, all a-quiver with anticipation of something mysterious which would transform her into the world of adults. Upon observing herself however, she exclaimed in consternation, "Well! I'm still the same as I was."

We should have been forewarned by the very fact that things in general have been running too smoothly for comfort over on the north side of town. But we weren't. Just continued our complacent way, with the thought in the back of our minds that a little matter of some varnish to be applied on the living-room floor should be attended to; so we finally talked our man Friday into covering the badly worn spots and then proceeded to invite some folks over for Sunday dinner.

Now in order to do a hurry-up job, we used the kind of varnish that dries in four hours, or overnight at the very least—but without proper consideration as to which four hours or over which night the drying process would most likely be completed. So for a succession of days and nights we gingerly "tested" the sticky surface, with growing apprehension as the hour approached for our visitors to arrive.

If you ever contemplate mixing fresh varnish with guests, we hope you are as fortunate as we were in having the homey kind of company that didn't mind being entertained in the kitchen because all the furniture in the living-room was still piled in the middle of the floor, while nauseating paint odors seeped in under the door.

Mrs. N.—But isn't your son rather young to join the army?
Mrs. O.—Well, he is very young, but then, you see, he is only going to join the infantry.

Presumably there are folks with money enough but with little enough common sense to spend $125.00 for the handkerchief which was advertised by a well-known firm this week. And we should think that a prospective bride would be especially wary of such a purchase, lest her affianced should discover in time, what might be expected of him in the way of financial up-keep.

Coach Entertains Team With Party

Coach Freddie Welling and Mrs. Welling were hosts Tuesday night of last week to the Matador Matadors football team and their partners, with a party.

Games included a treasure hunt with a football as the treasure.

Local Items

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sheridan had as their guests last week, Mrs.

Vance Campbell and Charles Payne were in charge of the entertainment.

Sandwiches, cookies, coca-cola and ice cream were served for refreshments. Everyone reported an enjoyable evening.

Sheridan's mother, Mrs. J. M. Jackson, and sisters, Misses Edith Marjorie and Anna Mae Jackson of Uvalde, and Mrs. Morgan Rogers and children, John Morgan, Mary Ann and Jack, of San Antonio. The visitors left Sunday to return to their homes.

Miss Jimmie Jean Hamilton left Wednesday morning to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hamilton, of Pampa, Texas.

D. A. "Uncle Dave" Full is visiting a sister in Idaho week.

Mrs. R. E. Campbell Jr. baby daughter, Carroll, and Jim Smith and small son, Paducah visitors Friday.

Visitors here Sunday home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Kifer were Laurie Carlisle, sister in the Floydada school, guest, Otto Klaus, of Beach, California.

That hits it on the nose!

IN RADIO STUDIOS when the actors see this sign language, finger pointing to nose, it means that the show is running like clockwork and will finish precisely on time.

That's the way you would like your motor to run... with split-second accuracy... and you certainly want it to keep going until that great day when new cars are again available.

"That is what this far-reaching bill will lead us to in America," said Mr. Farley as he closed. "That is all I have to say unless you have some questions."

Senator Toby spoke up to ask: "Is there anymore down in that country like you?"

"Hell, Texas is full of them," replied Farley as he turned from the table.

The spectators screamed as the Senators joined in the applause.

Mr. Farley flew to Washington and his testimony was highlighted by the Associated Press in its report of the hearing. Back home Saturday he said he had never talked before a more interested and attentive group in his life than the big Senate committee.—Amarillo Globe-News.

"COLD" FACTS About Your Refrigerator

REDDY: Say, Lady, are you posted with the latest facts about how to keep an electric refrigerator smiling? LADY: Why, of course not; whoever heard of keeping a refrigerator smiling? Its purpose is to conserve vitamins, and it was built to last many years. REDDY: Exactly, but now—it's different. The war makes it impossible to predict when you can buy a new one, so it's important that you take good care of what you've got. LADY: And how's the best way to do that? REDDY: Defrost it regularly. Cool food before putting it in the refrigerator. Have motor checked regularly. If yours has open type of mechanism oil moving parts of motor every six months. Treat it with "kid gloves." It must last for the duration.
