

Red Cross Fund Drive Tops Quota

Matador Tribune

MATADOR, MOTLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1945

PRICE 5c

Pace Is Set By Flomot School

ANSWERING THE CALL of the American Red Cross, Motley county has again exceeded its assigned quota of $3,200 in the 200-million national War Fund drive. Drive chairman M. S. Patton said late yesterday that a total of $3,484.54 had already been reported here, with Flomot incomplete and no report from Dumont or Northfield. Cash collected in contributions for the fund, by communities, was as follows: Matador $1,860.63, Flomot $1,025.71, Roaring Springs $354.70 and Whiteflat $243.50.

Pace for the entire county was set through the organized campaign conducted by the Flomot school. A total of $242.72 was collected from

Armament Chief

Master Sgt. Norris A. Ford, 26, of Matador, armament section chief of the Eighth Air Force Bomber base, stationed in England, examines the feed mechanism of a fifty calibre machine gun before mounting it in one of the turrets of a B-17 Flying Fortress.

M/Sgt. Ford is now a member of the 486th Bomb Group, commanded by Colonel Glendon P. Overing, Orange, Mass. The 486th is a unit of the Eighth Air Force's famed Third Air Division, the division cited by the President for its historic England-Africa shuttle bombing of the Messerschmitt factories at Regensburg, Germany.

The sergeant is the son of Mrs. J. W. Ford of Matador. His wife, Mrs. Beatrice Ford lives in Manchester, N. H.

Bond Quota Topped During Past Month

Motley county exceeded its monthly War Bond quota of $12,300 for the month of February, it was disclosed by county sales chairman Elmer Stearns at the Lions Club directors meeting held at the Magnolia cafe Monday morning.

"We exceeded the quota through some extra work," Mr. Stearns declared, "and members of my committee feel that the monthly quota can be reached regularly by receiving pledges from citizens to buy some bonds each month. We plan to perfect this work in the near future in order that Motley county may not again fail to attain the small monthly quotas assigned to us."

National Goal Announced

WASHINGTON, March 2. Secretary Morgenthau announced Friday a $14,000,000,000 goal for the Seventh War Loan, divided evenly between individuals and corporations.

The $7,000,000,000 quota for individuals is the highest ever assigned them. The series E quota is also more than Mr. and Mrs. America have been asked to dig up for that class of securities heretofore.

The total quota is the same as that of the Sixth War Loan.

In order to sell the unprecedented amounts of bonds non-corporate investors the Treasury set the longest sales period yet. The formal drive with its customary great promotional campaign will extend from May 14 to June 30—seven weeks as compared with four weeks in the Sixth War Loan from Nov. 20 to Dec. 16.

In addition to this seven-week drive, an "intensification of activities" in the sale of Series E bonds will be asked to enlarge their participation as a part of the Seventh War Loan.

Today's man without a country is the rescued European.

the Flomot school. A total of $242.72 was collected from 182 students: 1st grade (19 students) $12.01; 2nd grade (15 students) $7.37; 3rd grade (15 students) $9.39; 4th grade (15 students) $12.73; 5th grade (22 students) $15.10; 8th grade (12 students) $13.54; 9th grade (16 students) $13.40.

In high school 17 Freshmen contributed $45.28; 20 Sophomores contributed $19; 16 Juniors $80.50 and 12 Seniors contributed $14.40.

Regarding the outstanding success of the drive, Mr. Patton declared, "I want to express my sincere appreciation to everyone who has addressed service area and the Red Cross cause. I especially want to thank the many diligent workers who gave of their time and money to see that Motley county went over its quota, and quickly. Most of the solicitation was done in two or three days."

Sheriff Wins Fags

It is Democratic to vote (ask any Republican) and Sheriff H. H. Courtney found an election geared to his liking Tuesday evening when he was elected ugliest man in Matador at the high school carnival "Beauty and Beast" contest. Votes could be purchased for 1¢ each and Sheriff Courtney, elated over the bargain rate, won a full carton of cigarettes, regardless of how much of his own money went into the Junior-Senior till. Runner-up was Tribune editor Douglas Meador, who ran out of funds in the crucial closing minutes of the election.

The sheriff's wife, Mrs. Maggie Lee Courtney, won first place in the beauty contest for women, for which she received a box of chocolates.

When all of the change had been counted yesterday Juniors and Seniors found they had collected over $290 gross from the evening of entirely home-talent entertainment. Most outstanding event of the program was "Amateur Hour" held in the high school auditorium where there was displayed talent of a higher class than often shown by professionals. Tiny, beautiful, and gifted Glenda Filippin was awarded $5 cash for first place, while Frank Traweck, piano prodigy was named second by judges and received a box of chocolates. Unusual musical and specialty acts were presented.

Pie-walk, boxing, fun-house, fortune-telling, coffee-shop, music shop and many other events kept the large group of visitors entertained and reluctant to depart when the lights were dimmed. The classes and sponsors received enthusiastic congratulations for staging a most successful evening of entertainment.

Granddaughter Is Accident Victim

Jo Ann Jackson, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jackson of San Francisco, California and granddaughter of local residents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jackson was the victim of an accident on the 27th of February which resulted in amputation of both legs.

The girl was knocked down when she stepped in the path of an approaching street car as she and her mother got out of their parked car on a San Francisco street, their relatives here were advised.

One limb was removed above the knee and the other below the knee.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

BILL NELSON DIES AT HOME TUESDAY

Funeral services were conducted from the Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock for Frank (Bill) Nelson, who died suddenly at his home in north Matador, Tuesday morning.

Although he had been in poor health for several years and had undergone surgery for a throat ailment last year, he had apparently been improving and was able to be up through Monday and had rested well Monday night, his wife said. He was still asleep Tuesday morning when she went to her work in the local Office of Price Administration. The housekeeper called neighbors when Mr. Nelson was seized with a siege of coughing, and by the time his wife reached his bedside, he had passed away.

Rev. H. G. Verner, Baptist pastor, conducted the service. Pallbearers were: Jack Spray, Hub Swearingen, Bill McCaghen, Rufus Emmons, Alvin Stearns, and Pat Sheridan. Flower attendants were: Mrs. Dorothy Russell and Misses Dorothy Watson, Janelle Jackson, Frances Schweitzer, Velda Mae Rattan, Bobby Lou Verner, Alene Bloodworth, Elwanda Martin, Jeanne Hamilton and Bernice Ruth Patton.

Interment was made in East Mound cemetery under direction of Campbell's undertaking establishment of Roaring Springs.

IS NATIVE TEXAN

Frank Nelson, known by all his friends as Bill, was born in Hill County, Texas, December 17, 1900. He died at Matador, Texas, March 6, 1945, at the age of 44 years, 2 months and 19 days. He came to Matador from Kemp, Texas, in 1924, and was married to Miss Gertrude Groves, July 8, 1925. To this union were born two children, a son, Bonner, and a daughter, Dorothy, who is a student at Texas State College for Women, Denton.

Besides his wife and children, he is survived by three brothers and five sisters. They are Lee Nelson of Matador, Pete and George Nelson of Rusk, Texas, Mrs. Elmer Roberts, Sentinel, Oklahoma, Mrs. Felix Stonepaker, Midland, Texas, Mrs. Homer Collins, Rusk, Mrs. Max Morris, Lubbock, and Charles Downs of Terrell, Texas, all of whom, with the exception of George Nelson, were present at the funeral.

Other relatives and friends from out-of-town who attended funeral services included S/Sgt. and Mrs. Lee Roy Nelson, Mrs. Wanda Vaughn and Miss Glenda Nelson, all of Lubbock.

ARRIVAL ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vivian, former Matador residents, are announcing the birth of a daughter, Leatha Faye, on February 25, at St. Anthony's Hospital in Las Vegas, New Mexico. She weighed 9 pounds, 5 ounces.

Visiting the new arrival and her parents are Mrs. L. V. Vivian, the grandmother, of Matador, and Mrs. Opal Crume of Portales, New Mexico.

EMPLOYED AT LUBBOCK

Miss Minnie Mae Meador has accepted a position with Earl Pipkin's tailor shop in Lubbock, and assumed her duties there last week. Mr. Pipkin has recently purchased the cleaning and pressing establishment.

Recent visitors in the home of Mrs. Ward Rattan were her sister, Mrs. L. T. English and daughter, Sarah Louise, and a brother, Tyrus Scott, all of Vernon. The latter is entering the armed service in the near future.

Lions Add 2 Names To Roster

Names of two new Matador businessmen, Ober V. Johnson and C. W. Giesecke, were added to the roster of the Matador Lions Club at the regular meeting held in the basement of the Methodist church, Tuesday at 12:30 p. m. Another member of the club, Vernon Doss, who has changed from professional to business status recently, was recognized.

In a program sponsored by Lion L. C. Harp, Mrs. G. E. Hamilton presented unusual musical features by five of her students, including one student from Mrs. J. R. Whitworth's class in public speaking. The comely young girls taking part in the program were: Dorothy Woodruff, Mary Murphy, Mickie Roberts, Jerry Hays, and June Black.

The enjoyable luncheon was served by the Methodist ladies. Servicemen guests introduced included: Sgt. Glenn Woodruff, Ens. Norman Harp, Cpl. Amos Jones and Douglas Pitts, Jr. Mo. MM 3/c, of the U. S. Navy.

Committees were named for the Ladies' night program to be held in lieu of the next regular meeting, March 20. It was announced that the meeting would start promptly at 8:15 p. m.

Ex-Serviceman Is New Owner Of Modern Cleaners

His Navy uniform on an extra hanger, Ensign Ober V. Johnson, was back in civilian apparel Monday, his sleeves rolled up and working at a small mountain of clothing piled up in front of him. With more than two years of service behind him, including overseas assignments, Mr. Johnson recently received an honorable discharge because of physical disabilities and has returned to civilian life as new owner and manager of Modern Cleaners which he purchased from Henry Solomon in a deal culminated last week.

The establishment, Matador's only cleaning shop, had been closed for three weeks after OPA notified Mr. Solomon that he would be forced to reduce the price of cleaning and pressing men's suits from 65¢ to 50¢. Mr. Solomon immediately closed his shop and offered it for sale.

Pleased residents were bringing arm-loads of clothes to the shop early Monday after word had been circulated that it would be opened. Mr. Solomon is aiding Mr. Johnson until he feels that he can manage the business. Two members of the personnel, Miss Ona Jameson and Mrs. H. H. Courtney were formerly employed by Mr. Solomon. Mr. Johnson's wife, the former Wandell Berryman, will also aid with two new employees, Mrs. Raymond Steffey and Mrs. Lesley Yandell joining the force.

"We realize that it will probably require time to reach the high standard of service with which Modern Cleaners' customers have been accustomed," Mr. Johnson said, "but we will strive to provide the very best work possible and seek to deserve the continued patronage of former customers. We appreciate the many good wishes for success which have been tendered us and assure everyone that we selected Matador as our future home after due deliberation, because of the friendly, co-operative spirit, which makes it to us, the greatest community in the world."

RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Truett Bourland and daughter, who have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Bourland and other relatives at Flomot the past three weeks, left Monday for Adrian, where they will visit the John Bourland family, enroute to their home in California.

The brightest side of politics is on the inside.

MEMORIAL RITES ATTENDED BY MANY

Memorial rites for Pvt. J. C. McMahan, held Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist Church, Matador, were attended by many friends who joined the bereaved relatives in paying final respects to the memory of one of Matador's finest youths.

White lilies graced the pulpit, and the silk flag of the church, containing the names of men in the armed forces formed an effective background for a table containing vases of white carnations placed as a V.

Fleming Post, American Legion, led by Post Commander Vernon Doss, assisted in the impressive service which included a tribute by Mr. Doss, reading of the poem, "Gold Star Mother" by Mrs. J. R. Whitworth, representing the Legion Auxiliary, and a quartet composed of Roy Reeves, R. E. Campbell, J. R. Whitworth and Mr. Doss, who sang, "How Beautiful Heaven Must Be." Following presentation of the American flag to Larry Lamar, young son of the gallant soldier and his wife, taps were sounded by Cpl. Amos Jones of the Childress Army Air Field band.

Among out-of-town relatives and friends in attendance at the service were Mrs. A. C. McAfee, grandmother of the young soldier, and an uncle, Cecil McAfee of Sherman; an uncle, L. F. McAfee of Texarkana, Texas; an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ewell McAfee of Plainview; and an aunt, Mrs. G. A. McMahan and son, Jimmy Lynn of Lockney; Mrs. J. H. Wade and daughter, Bennie, who accompanied the parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. McMahan and their children, Mary Joyce and Bobby from McLean; Mr. and Mrs. Ted McInroe of Afton, Texas, and Frank Jameson and daughter, Eldora, of Lockney.

Addressing Plan For Servicemen Letters Is Lauded

Several new users of the Tribune who contributed in any way to enthusiastic in their praise for its convenience in writing to those in the armed services. Any number of envelopes may be addressed. There is absolutely no charge or obligation. While the Tribune has envelopes for sale, envelopes may be purchased anywhere and brought to the Tribune on Fridays and Saturdays for addressing. The free addressing service applies only to the 500 names in stencil to which are mailed weekly issues of the Tribune. Any size envelopes may be used. The Tribune hopes to bring more letters from home to the boys and girls in uniform.

Sincere gratitude is extended for the following unsolicited contributions in support of the servicemen's gratis subscriptions plan, received since last publication: Mrs. W. D. Long $2, C. C. Renfro $1, A. B. McCaghen $1, Georgia Hamiter (El Centro, California) $3, John Irwin (Flomot) $1, R. J. Merritt (Flomot) $1, C. M. Jones (Flomot) $2, Elsie Cook (Mt. A meeting of the executive committee will be held Monday evening, March 12, in the home of Mrs. Earl Laughlin, according to an announcement made by Mrs. Tom Tilson, president. All members of this committee are urged to be present.

Mrs. Eargle Advises Death Of Daughter

Tragedy has visited the home of Mrs. H. C. Eargle, former Matador resident, now of Dublin, for the second time within a month, in the death last Monday, of her daughter, Mrs. Sidney Thomas of El Paso, Texas.

Word of Mrs. Thomas' death was received here by Mrs. Leonora Luckett, in a wire from Mrs. Eargle, sent from El Paso, which stated that "Dorothy died March 5. Funeral to be at Dublin". No further explanation was contained in the message.

News of the death of Mrs. Eargle's husband, Dr. H. C. Eargle on February 5, was received here recently.

New Deputy Appointed

Williams Felts assumed duties Monday as deputy to Sheriff, Tax Assessor and Collector H. H. Courtney. Activities in the sheriff's department will include work in tax assessing and also that of deputy sheriff. Mr. Felts is well known here, having been employed by the Matador Company over an extensive period.

Ed Bishop Returns From Mayo Clinic

Ed Bishop, editor of the Dalhart Texan, Dalhart, has returned to his home after three weeks spent in the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn., where he underwent surgery for an ear ailment.

He was accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Bishop, and during their absence from home, their young sons, Donald Mack and Jerry Ed visited relatives at Floydada, and with their grandmother, Mrs. H. Williams and aunts, Mrs. E. F. Springer and Mrs. Edith Sanders, here.

Young Jerry, who has had several years experience assisting in his father's shop, "made a hand", for the Tribune Friday and Saturday when he offered his assistance in running off several printing jobs. The boys left Sunday to return to their home.

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

Thundering over the frozen deserts of space, the planes sound like weapons rumbling across a star-studded sky. There was dust and the beating of ten thousand horses' feet as they galloped against the dawn with the wings of destiny; there were tracks against the moon. The planes of distance fluttered briefly over the high shoe laces of a winged steed. From the dressing room of progress it will emerge in the morning of tomorrow; a blue cloth woven on the loom of time with warp tied to the old's four corners.

When violins are playing and my heart rides the hills of an entrancing sea, it is futile that my lips should speak again or that written words should leave my hand.

My friend used to climb mountains, not to climb the ladders. He was a climber. He had his seasoned pipe in his hands and the fire while others were climbing. It was his private view of the sun that was not worth the climb, since the clouds would later come to him.

He learned that the dreams will endure and that he would not sleep when they came.

He was a canopy of ecstasy under the moon. Beauty was in the sky like the lovers were melting over the flame of time and the flume of tears was in the sodden fields where they were. They heard the chains of narrow corridors, the hour's brief splendor of sweetness of flowers and thorns.

They were mute and eternal and having tried.

Waves of dust lay on the path between the porch and the gate. Half-buried parts in an old bicycle protruded from the grass near the decaying fence which cradled the long branches of a rose bush. The white house on the world like old eyes. The home bore the framed in silence. A cloud of smoke rose from the chimney and after a while in the field measured his hand and started to house as if reluctant to his dinner. Only two placed at the long table down slowly and then opened them through the window a small piece of cloth and four stars were at

A forgotten flower pages of memory, is my mother looking for a prairie dog that was pet. She would call the brown head would be the cone-topped den. The little body would rush to her. For a while she would stroke the chin then the deerskin piece of corn-cob, eager hands. Her remains through the window as she watched the prairie dog to its den, well wiggle of coarse hair it dropped from prairie dog was gone when my mother waited to call again. She returned to the prairie dog which was unclaimed. She watched and hilly but there was the echo of her prairie dog from the empty

West Texas Gin "Reliable Ginners"

A few words to the Farmers and Cowmen of our section:

Don't forget your bundles and cake when running cattle on wheat. This is essential to save loss.

About Cotton:

If you do not plant plenty of acreage this year you may be at a loss if the government starts acreage control next year. No lint yield, no acreage and no pay! Next year you will have machines to gather your cotton.

On the farm or ranch you must have hogs, chickens and cattle and you must feed them well to develop them into money.

If you will visit us we will tell you the the kind of cotton to plant on your kind of land, from the value of 20 years experience.

Eargle Riles Are Held At Dublin

Delayed information concerning rites held for former resident, Dr. H. C. Eargle, who died February 5, is contained in the following news item from the Dublin newspaper, which was sent to friends here:

"Dr. Henry Clay Eargle died at his home on Grafton Street, Monday morning, February 5, at 10:30 o'clock. Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church, Wednesday afternoon with Rev. Arthur Johnson of Cisco, former pastor of the Dublin Baptist Church, officiating. Interment was made in the New Dublin cemetery.

Dr. Eargle was born February 10, 1882 at Alexander, Texas. He attended the public schools of Proctor and Lamkin and later attended Add-Rand University. His medical education was acquired in Louisville, Kentucky and Fort Worth. He finished his medical course in 1905.

He began his practicing at Lingleville, Texas and has, through the years until his health prevented, had a large practice. At an early age he was converted and united with the Baptist Church.

Dr. Eargle's death came rather unexpectedly even though he had been in bad health for the past five or six years. He and his family came back to their home in Dublin about two years ago from Brownwood, where they had been living for several years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Harmon B. Eargle, whom he married in 1904, one daughter, Mrs. Sidney Thomas of El Paso, one grandson, Sidney Thomas who is in the armed service; two granddaughters, Jean Thomas who is attending T. S. C. W. at Denton and Henrietta Thomas, who lives with her mother in El Paso; two sisters, Mrs. Chester Cadieux of Tulsa, Okla., and Miss Cauty Eargle of Austin, Texas; one half sister, Mrs. Naomi Driscoll of Asheville, N. C., and one half-

BABIES DEDICATED BY EASTERN STAR

At the regular meeting of the Eastern Star Thursday night March 1, Mrs. Anne Kennedy of Clarendon, Deputy Grand Matron, of District No. 2, Section 5, Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star, made her official visit to Matador Chapter No. 66, O. E. S. She was accompanied from Clarendon by her daughter, Dorothy Kennedy and Mrs. Palmer and Miss Francis Phelps.

"Dedicating the Babies" was the entertainment that the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Maggie Hamilton had prepared for the evening. Speaking parts were given by Mrs. Margaret Whitworth, Mrs. Hettie Patton, Mrs. Ollie Pitts, Mrs. Maude Dean, Mrs. Vinie Keltz, Mrs. Vivian Jacobs, Mrs.

Ethel Emmons, Mrs. Virginia Willie and Mrs. Hamilton. Music was furnished by two girls' quartets with Jolene Bloodworth as accompanist. Those in the quartets were: Mary Murphy, June Black, Jerry Hays, Dorothy Woodruff, Mary Stevens, Ann Harp, Dorothy Traweck and Rosemary Bloodworth. Rosemary played an accordion solo and Frank Traweck played two numbers on the piano. The babies who were dedicated were Guy Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Campbell; Robert Thomas Darsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Darsey; Linda Hobbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buford Hobbs; and Ouida Jane McWilliams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McWilliams.

After Mrs. Kennedy had given her address and instructions to the Chapter, Mrs. Virginia Willie presented the visitor a gift from the Chapter.

The refreshment committee, Mrs. Mary Meason, chairman, with Mrs. Velma Moore and Mrs. Maggie Newman, served delicious cake and cocoa to the following members and guests: Mesdames Arlene Bloodworth, Grace Campbell, Faye Clements, Allie Cox, Winifred Darsey, Maude Dean, Ethel Emmons, Lucy Ford, Maggie Hamilton, Jewell Harp, Wilna Hobbs, Vivian Jacobs, Fannie Jenkins, Vinie Keltz, Diva King, Minnie Martin, Ruby McWilliams, Hettie Patton, Opal Pipkin, Ollie Pitts, Margaret Springer, Irene Traweck, Cyndia Watson, Margaret Whitworth, Virginia Willie, Myrtle Skaggs, Mary Thomas, Ethel Long, Palmer, Anne Kennedy, Misses Dorothy Kennedy, Frances Phelps, and Rachel Patton and Messrs T. E. Long, G. E. Hamilton, W. F. Jacobs, W. C. King, F. Z. Martin, W. N. Pipkin, J. R. Whitworth, and Dr. Albert Traweck, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Farris Fish of Lubbock were week-end visitors here.

SOMEBODY SHOULD TELL MRS. BROWN

Look, Mrs. Brown, you don't have to hoard electricity—no matter how much you value its convenience.

We make it fresh every minute and we keep plenty on tap all the time. There haven't been any shortages and there won't be.

And as for price, that's been coming down steadily through the years. What's more, it has stayed low, while other living costs went up with war.

Better fold up that big box, Mrs. Brown, and save it for scrap salvage. You can depend on our folks to deliver all the friendly low-priced electric service you'll ever need for your wonderful post-war appliances.

Cpl. James R. Rateliff, Sr., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rateliff, Sr. of Matador, is one of twenty-seven Texans among Communications Zone supply troops with the U. S. Supply Forces in France, according to a special news release to the Tribune from Headquarters of Communications Zone. These supply troops work long hours in day and night shifts with the Fifth Major Post organization in France, shuttling vital war materials to sustain fighting units on the Western Front.

When the Brittany Peninsula was overrun by the troops of General George S. Patton, there still remained the fortified port of Brest to be subdued. Brest fell to Gen. Patton's Eight Corps largely because of an exceptional job of handling supplies by men of the Fifth Post.

Pvt. Thomas F. Cooper of Roaring Springs, is a member of the 19th Combat Engineer Regiment, Mediterranean Theater veterans now maintaining roads, bridges and trails for the Fifth Army in rugged mountain terrain before the Po Valley in Italy, according to a special news release to the Tribune.

The 19th has maintained or rebuilt more than 4000 miles of road and built or repaired more than 200 bridges in the Italian campaign and has served in combat for more than 550 days, including action at Kaserine Pass, Tunisia, and Cassino, Italy.

Pfc. John B. Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simpson of Matador is fighting in Italy's Appennines before the Po Valley with the 362nd Infantry Regiment, which broke through the Gothic Line in one of its highest and best defended sectors, according to a special release to the Tribune. The 362nd is part of the 91th "Powder River" Division with the Fifth Army.

The 362nd's third battalion, fighting alone and out of communication with division and regiment, was one of the Fifth Army units that took Futa Pass, a feat that won the battalion a division citation.

Whole-Wheat Rolls in Jiq Time!

Make them with Fleischmann's yellow label Yeast—the only yeast with those EXTRA vitamins

SPEEDY WHEAT ROLLS

2 cups milk
2 tablespoons molasses or dark brown sugar
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 cake Fleischmann's Yeast
2 cups whole-wheat flour (Graham)
1 cup sifted white flour
4 tablespoons melted shortening

Scald milk; add molasses or sugar and salt; cool until lukewarm. Crumble in yeast and stir until dissolved. Add half the flour and beat until smooth. Add melted shortening and remaining flour, or enough to make an easily handled dough. Knead thoroughly, keeping dough soft. Place dough in greased bowl, cover and let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk (about 1 1/2 hours). When light, shape into rolls and place in well-greased pans. Cover and let rise again until light (about 1 hour). Bake in hot oven at 425° F. about 20 minutes. Makes 2 1/2 dozen.

MILL IRON

is Building for COMMERCIAL HERDS

Many years ago—
Mill Iron conceived a plan, whereby the commercial cattleman would be enabled to improve and develop his herd to a high point of selling value at low cost to himself.

The idea of producing quality Hereford bulls in quantity, to sell at reasonable prices has become an integral part of Mill Iron policy.

This fundamental idea is the basis on which, thru the years, we are building an enduring structure which will perpetuate the quality and uniformity of our Hereford line.

Each year Mill Iron is making new friends among commercial cattlemen, because they are learning that Mill Iron Breeding is the key to high meat quality.
