Invasion Launched

Battle Of World Is Started Early Tuesday Against Coast Of Normandy

PUBLISHER'S NOTE: SINCE THE ATTACK ON PEARL HARBOR THE TRIBUNE HAS DEVOTED LITTLE SPACE TO WAR NEWS, EXCEPT IN INSTANCES WHERE IT DIRECTLY AFFECTED MEN IN UNIFORM FROM MOTLEY COUNTY. THE TRIBUNE BELIEVES THAT WAR NEWS IS IN PROVINCE OF THE DAILY NEWSPAPERS AND OTHER MEANS OF COMMUNICATION. THE EXCEPTION OF THIS ARTICLE IS WARRANTED BY THE IMPORTANCE OF THE INVASION AND THIS NEWSPAPER'S DEBT OF OBLIGATION TO PROBITY TO RECORD REACTION SHOWN IN MATADOR ON THIS FATEFUL DAY.

BATTLE OF THE WORLD is in progress. The long-awaited invasion of Hitler's fortress Europe began shortly after midnight on the morning of Tuesday, June 6. American paratroopers first set foot on the soil of France's Normandy coast, to be followed within the next 24 hours by over 10,000 planes and 4,000 ships that flung a hasty bridge across the English channel.

First news of the invasion was received here near midnight and was released by the German radio, picked up and relayed from New York. Allied confirmation by General Dwight D. Eisenhower was made several hours later. All radio stations of the nation remained on the air throughout the night after the invasion was confirmed.

Daily papers reaching Matador Tuesday did not carry stories of the invasion but bannered the fall of Rome to Allied armies in Italy reported Sunday.

MOST OF CITY ASLEEP

Most of Matador was asleep when a few scattering radios picked up the first reports of the invasion. Lights were on at the Tribune where Harry McDonald, representative of the Southwestern Sewer Company and publisher Douglas Meador manipulated the automatic job press and compared notes, opinions and prejudices as they worked. Lights were on at Bob's Cook Shack when they completed the assignment and Mr. McDonald suggested coffee before he drove the weary country editor home.

Bond Sale Chairmen To Meet

Community chairmen of the 5th War Loan drive will meet here Friday night, it was announced earlier in the week by Elmer Stearns, county chairman. One of the principal purposes of the meeting will be to decide on the actual date to begin the drive in Motley county. Nationally, the drive will start Monday, June 12. It is probable that the drive in this county will start some later than the nationwide schedule. Mr. Stearns declared, Motley county's quota for the 5th War Loan is $175,000, considerably less than had at first been anticipated.

Injured Veterans Coming

Two wounded servicemen from the government hospital at Temple will appear during a free motion picture show to be held at the Rogue theatre here Tuesday night, June 13th. The picture show will consist of actual battle scenes (photographed under fire) and other interesting events. No bonds will be offered for sale at the performance. Everyone is urged to attend, but the show is arranged for adults.

The two wounded World War 2 veterans will remain as overnight guests in Matador homes.

LIONS ARRANGE CHICKEN-FRY FOR LADIES' NIGHT

Plans were drafted earlier this week by the Matador Lions Club for a Ladies' night program to be held at the golf course, with fried chicken a la Pipkin as a feature attraction. The meeting will be held Tuesday night, June 20 and will take the place of the regular Lions meeting scheduled for that date. Lions and their lady guests are asked to arrive between the hours of 8:00 and 8:30 p. m. in order that daylight will be available for all or most of the picnic meal and brief program which will be held in connection. Each Lion is requested to bring his own chair or bench for his guest and self. Lions who will attend have been advised to notify C. A. Pitts, in order that sufficient chicken will be available for all who attend.

CHILDRESS COUNTY HAS START ON BOND DRIVE

Too "eager" to wait for the formal opening of the Fifth War Loan campaign on June 12, citizens of Childress county bought $265,531.25 in war bonds up to Tuesday afternoon as their small part in backing the attack of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and his allied forces in their invasion of the European continent. Childress county has a quota in the 5th War Loan drive of $595,000.

D. E. Pitts is Elected To Head Lions Club

Outstanding Lion Member Honors Go To J. R. Whitworth

D. E. Pitts, a charter member of the Matador Lions Club and one of the earlier presidents of the club, was named as Boss Lion to succeed Elmer Stearns at the beginning of the club's new fiscal year, July 4th, following a recommendation of the nomination committee at the regular meeting held in the Methodist church basement Tuesday.

President-elect Pitts was not at the meeting. Boss Lion Elmer Stearns, Lion Pitts and 2nd vice-president Henry Ford were out of town, while Lion Tamer Rufus Emmons, president as chairman. Other new officials elected were 1st vice-president H. K. Ford, 2nd vice-president J. R. Emmons, 3rd vice-president Vernon Doss, secretary-treasurer (re-election) J. R. Whitworth, Lion Tamer W. F. Jacobs, Tail Twister (re-election), H. H. Courtney. One-year directors, Lewis Eudy and Henry Pipkin, two-year directors, E. F. Springer and C. A. Pitts.

Secretary-treasurer J. R. Whitworth was awarded the honor for "distinguished service" or most outstanding service to the club.

Following the delicious fried chicken luncheon served by Methodist ladies Mrs. Tom Tilson, president of the Parent-Teachers Association made an address on child delinquency as the principal feature of the program. Visitors included CCM Claud Wilson of the Seabees, James Garth, Mrs. Tom Tilson, Bourland Keith, Dr. J. G. Ketchersid and R. L. White of Plainview.

Invasion Prayer Service

RED CROSS MAKES URGENT APPEAL TO GARMENT MAKERS

Mrs. B. F. Tunnell production chairman of the Motley county chapter of the American Red Cross makes an urgent appeal to women garment makers, or women able to sew and knit, in order to keep up the county's quota of production of hospital garments. Since news of the invasion has been received, Mrs. Tunnell stresses the increased demands which will be placed on the entire Red Cross organization.

"Possibly the greatest demand for hospital garments in the history of the world will be made this month," Mrs. Tunnell said, continuing, "every woman in the county is urged to help in getting hospital garments ready for shipment. We have an unfilled quota of 72 pairs of bedroom slippers and 172 bedside bags. Women of the Flomot community are finishing the pajama assignment."

It requires three hours to make a pair of pajamas, two hours to make a pair of bedroom slippers and 30 minutes to make a bedside bag. Can you spare that much time in a week to help our quota during the next three weeks? We cannot be blood donors in this county but surely we can help make hospital garments."

Baptismal Service To Be Held Sunday

First baptismal services in the newly constructed baptistry at the Roaring Springs Baptist church will be held Sunday morning, June 11, at 11:45 a. m. It has been announced by S. W. Badgett, pastor. Complete repair work on the church will soon be completed he said, making it a modern church plant in every detail. The baptistry is made of concrete and decorated with attractive drapes. Two class rooms have been added to the church. Three junior boys will be baptized Sunday by Rev. Badgett.

A cordial invitation is extended everyone to attend the Sunday services, which will conclude Rev. Badgett's services with the church Sunday school services begin at 10:00 a. m.

Mrs. Nolan Fulkerson and children, Gerald and Nola Lee of Grandfalls, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Tipton and other relatives. Mr. Fulkerson accompanied them here Sunday and visited his father, D. A. Fulkerson and other relatives, returning home Monday.

Mrs. John Brandon returned home Friday from Graham, where she has been visiting.

Roaring Springs Erects Honor Roll

The large imposing board will bear the names of all from the community who are in uniform. Painting of the 167 names was in progress yesterday afternoon. Friends and relatives of servicemen are asked to contact Mrs. M. S. Thacker or Mrs. J. D. Mitchell in event the name of any servicemen has been omitted. The honor roll is being erected through public subscription.

COUNTY SALVAGE DRIVE EXTENDED

Cards have been mailed by County Agent J. R. Emmons, notifying Motley county farmers and ranchers that the drive to secure more scrap iron and paper has been extended to June 14th.

Scrap iron may be left beside mail boxes where it will be picked up by army trucks. Paper, washed and crushed cans and scrap metals to be contributed to the war effort in Matador, may be deposited at the Farmers Gin until June 14th, Mr. Emmons declared.

Soldier's Wife Opens Station

Matador has a new service station. Its manager is Mrs. Zenobia Sims, wife of Sgt. Ray Sims now stationed with the American Air Forces in England. Mrs. Sims opened the station, located in the Moore building, corner of Main St. and Highway 18, early this week. The new station will be known as the Gulf Service Station, featuring a complete line of Gulf gasolines and oils.

Mrs. Sims said she would probably add a line of batteries in the future. At present her products include Good Gulf gasoline, Gulf Pride and other Gulf oils, Gulf spray and furniture polish.

"I will appreciate a share of the service station patronage," Mrs. Sims declared, "and extend a cordial invitation to the motoring public."

Two names have been added to the Home Service committee of the Motley county chapter of the American Red Cross, E. F. Springer announced this week.

Tom Spears will represent the home service committee in the Flomot area, while H. L. Smith will service the area of Roaring Springs.

Old Paper Records Interesting History

OLDEST available copy of a newspaper published in Motley county has been loaned to the Tribune by Mrs. J. M. Jackson. The issue is Vol. 1, No. 24 of the Motley County News, published in Matador, Thursday, May 19, 1892. Clarence Nugent was editor and proprietor. The entire issue was hand-set of 6pt. and 10pt. type. The two inside pages appear as "evergreen" or already printed as used by many papers during that period and still in use today. The two inside pages contain no date lines nor do they contain any local news.

Advertisers in the Motley County News, May 19th, 1892, were: Alfred & Co. of Childress, dealers in furniture, children carriages, carpets, dry goods, notions, clothing, boots, shoes, hats & caps, also a full line of coffins & funeral supplies, opposite the P. Last letter Mrs. VonSternberg had received from her husband was dated April 2, at which time he was in good health and apparently in good spirit. He advised that he had just received four letters from her, being the first he had received since taken a prisoner in August, last year.

Pvt. VonSternberg was cited for bravery and awarded the Silver Star early in the African campaign and also received the Purple Heart for wounds received in the "Hill 609" battle. He was a member of the famed third division which trained at Camp San Luis Obispo, California.

He was reared in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Readers Declare It A Privilege To Aid Paper Fund

It is a privilege to aid in the unsolicited fund for sending gratis subscriptions to the Matador Tribune to men in the armed service, according to F. R. Ramsey, with the Atlantic Pipe Line Company of Port Arthur, and Mrs. C. W. Eubank, Dallas, being two of many out-of-town Tribune subscribers who have similarly expressed themselves.

In a letter dated May 29, Mr. Ramsey declared, "It is with considerable pleasure that I am enclosing my check in the amount of two dollars to apply toward the good work you are doing in sending your paper to the boys in service."

"Judging by the letters from the boys that you publish each week, receiving their home town paper is a pretty important thing to them and I consider it a privilege to add my small part," Mr. Ramsey is the husband of the former Marie Chalk, teacher in the local schools a number of years ago.

Mrs. Eubank, mother of the late Lt. Paul Eubank of the U. S. Navy writes, "... It is a good morale builder for me and I know the boys in the service enjoy it very much. I really enjoy their letters. I feel like they are mine too. The enclosed $1 is for the Boys-In-Service paper fund."

The Tribune expresses sincere appreciation to Mr. Ramsey, Mrs. Eubank, and the following unsolicited contributors who supported the plan since last publication: Shelton Haynie (Flomot) $3, F. G. York (Roaring Springs) $1, E. D. Hutson (Roaring Springs) $1, Mrs. C. S. Washington (Flomot) $1.

Miss Bernice Ruth Patton is spending the week visiting in Plainview.

patrol ran a gauntlet of Japanese fire and escaped from the trap. Smallwood, being wounded, decided to wait until darkness and then try his escape plan. This he did—11 long hours every minute of which he was subject to Jap fire.

When it was dark, Smallwood and two natives who had been acting as guides, rolled to a spot where they could tumble in the creek. Once in the water they floated downstream right out of the Jap ambush 1,200 yards to a point of safety. The natives helped Smallwood out of the water and through the jungle for some distance until the Texan could go no further. One native remained with him and the other continued to the base camp and secured help.

Has Brother Overseas

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Smallwood, Matador, he has a brother, Private First Class Jessie W., who is in a coast artillery unit in New Guinea. He was inducted into the army in March, 1943, trained at Camp Roberts, Calif., and shipped overseas in September, 1943. He has been stationed in New Caledonia and Guadalcanal before arriving here.

Qualified as a sharpshooter with the M1-(Garand) and Browning rifles and machine gun, Smallwood's military duty is an automatic rifle gunner. He has been given the Combat Infantryman Badge for "combat action in a major operation."

Youth Plans For Post-War World

Addresses Reflect Concern of Future

GRAVE CONCERN for youth of today, and an optimistic look to the future, were reflected in the addresses of the principal speakers at commencement here Thursday evening, May 25th in the high school auditorium.

Salutatory address, "Youth Looks to the Four Freedoms" by George Doss, underscored the rightful heritage of our forefathers, as being the same principles for which we are fighting today.

"Freedom is not a material thing which can be secured and stored away," he pointed out in introductory remarks. "It is a thing of the mind and of the heart. . . . The youth of today are very much concerned with the problems of peace and those which may arise after the war."

In a concise and clear-cut manner, the youthful speaker discussed the four freedoms: Political, Economical, Social and Freedom from Fear, and their relative importance in the lives of today's youth. "The youth of democratic nations have always been interested in politics," he asserted. "We can stump-speech in any part of our land without being afraid; we can whittle and spit as a group on the street corners or in a country store; eye the pretty girls as they pass without an officers rounding us up and sending us to Huntsville as dangerous characters. . . . Our youths died the day the shot was fired at Lexington. . . . today these teenage boys are everywhere the Allied flag flies. . . . Political Freedom? We Americans become accustomed to it by the time we are able to crawl!"

Regarding social and economical freedom of the youth of today, he admitted that they were riding the crest of the wave. "We are all working, if we want to. We are making more in a week than our dads did in a month, a few years ago. . . . We are the majority in our communities. . . . We are getting burned by so much freedom. Some of us are longing for the good old days when we were kids. The social and economical freedom of the American youth right now is at its peak. What is worrying us is what will happen when the bubble bursts? In the fall someone will get hurt. That is a secret thought we have in the middle of the night sometimes."

When the war is over most of youth plan to continue school, or enter into business, he said. "We do hope we can live normal lives without spending a majority of it in a depression. . . . We, the youth of America beg those in authority, when they sit to make a treaty of peace, to look at the teenage victims of this war-torn world and hear their pitiful cries for bread, for shelter, for health and for peace, and above all for the opportunity to live the lives of normal youth."

Post War Planning
Don Paul Keith, in the Valedictory address, "Post War Social and Economic Conditions," suggested some cures for the ills with which the nation will be confronted in the era following peace.

"From millions of cards in the Census Bureau, one for you and every other American, comes a clear picture of profound social and economic changes just ahead for the United States," he declared. "Regardless of the war's final effects on us, certain clearly predictable changes are in store for you, your family, and every other American."

The prospects for any particular job, business or profession, the chances of making more or less money, the odds on whether a community will grow or slump, the future trends in American politics, religion, culture, all this and more, is in the cards, he asserted -- the half billion census bureau punch-hole cards with vital facts about every one.

In addition to changes to be expected in the professional and business world, he pointed out that "The drying up of the immigration stream will produce other dramatic changes in our national picture. . . . these changes (in population) will greatly alter our whole economic picture. . . . and our national psychology."

Brighter Prospects

That brighter prospects are in the offing, was borne out in the fact that as a people we will be healthier, better housed, better educated, better fed, clothed and equipped, and individually more secure.

"With the many changes taking place, the United States is going to be distinctively more American in appearance, language, business, politics. . . . More and more, our ideas, like our wares, will be stamped, "Made in U. S. A."

"We will undoubtedly be a greater, stronger, more dynamic and united nation; but we will have to work harder, think faster, and plan better. And you as an individual, will have to be on more on your toes than ever before if you want to hold your place in the world to come."

America's Fifth Freedom

FREE ENTERPRISE

This great bronze goddess is a symbol of the shining ideal of Freedom. Much is said about Four Freedoms . . . but they mean nothing without the Fifth—our keystone Freedom of Enterprise—the chance for every man to be really free and to advance as far and as fast as his ability will carry him. It was this kind of freedom which built the electric industry, made it possible for privately owned Electric Companies to be business-managed and business-operated, free to grow, to plan ahead . . . and the workers and management who built the companies had a chance to use foresight in planning a better electrical tomorrow for each new generation. Let this be our guiding light: Keep America the land of freedom—freedom of worship, freedom of speech, freedom from want and fear. This can only be accomplished by keeping freedom to strive for individual success, instead of just leaf raking.

Dear Ed. & Friends:

I thought several times of writing, but as you know there is always someone else to write, instead of the people that help along in life some way or other. I haven't received several copies of the Tribune, which I miss very much, and I think there's nothing else that I could receive much better (except a fifteen-day leave plus traveling time which happens I believe, once in a lifetime).

I want to congratulate your staff as a whole, for you are doing just as much as any citizen could, and also the public for their tribute to it. I wish every serviceman would or could take more time in expressing their views, for I am sure this is the most favored column at the time. As a saying goes, on Friendship, this is how I feel about my friends as well as my community that I am fighting for: "A man who throws down a friend tears down himself. The elixir of life is the love and affection of friends. A man who stands by his old friends, stands by himself. This is to put the matter on the most selfish basis; but at the same time all the beauty of life is shed abroad in the world by devotion to old friends."—Burrus Jenkins.

Well, Ed and all, I must close, and if any one wishes to write, they are cordially invited to do so.

Carpenter-Allsup Rites Performed Saturday At Baird

Miss Lela Carpenter, daughter of W. W. Carpenter of Matador, became the bride of John V. Allsup, ARM 3-c of the U. S. Navy, in a ceremony performed at Baird, Texas, Saturday morning, June 3, at 11:00 o'clock. The vows were exchanged in the parsonage, before Rev. A. A. Davis, pastor of the First Baptist church of Baird, who officiated.

The bride wore a light blue crepe dressmaker suit with white accessories. Her bouquet was of white gardenia on a white prayer book. She was attended by her sister, Miss Frances Carpenter, student at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, who wore a gray dress, with a bouquet of white roses.

J. Stanley Fikes of Hardin-Simmons, attended the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. Allsup was reared at Matador and following graduation from high school here, she attended Hardin-Simmons University, where she was a member of the well-known Cow Girl band. She received her degree in 1943, and returned here last fall to accept a position as teacher in the local schools. She is church pianist for the Baptist church here.

WAC RECRUITERS OFFER MANY PLACES IN SERVICE

Sgt. Helen R. Cunnison, Sub Station Commander of the United States Army Recruiting Station in Lubbock, today impressed the need of women in every branch of the Army but most particularly the need for women to serve as Medical Technicians in the Women's Army Corps.

Sgt. Cunnison who visited this city today stated that openings are available to all eligible women between the ages of 20 and 50 as X-Ray, Laboratory, Dental and Surgical Technicians and that no previous experience is necessary for this work in the WAC as doctors will train applicants themselves the need being so acute at the present time.

Openings at camps and posts near here are immediately available and women desiring to join the WAC and yet serve near their homes may now be classified in these jobs, doing a great service for their country and learning a profession that will be greatly beneficial after the war.

Many other jobs are also available at posts near here and at those in other parts of the nation. The new station and job assignment program makes it possible now for women 20 to 50 with 2 years high school education and no dependents under 14 to enlist in the WAC, choose the station where they wish to serve, the job which they wish to do and the branch of service in which they wish to work, the Army Air Forces, Ground Forces or Service Forces.

For full particulars interested women are urged to write or visit the Army Recruiting Office Room 203 Post Office Bldg. in Lubbock, the district recruiting headquarters for this city. Appointments will be arranged either in this city or in the Lubbock office, Sgt. Cunnison stated.

Thoughts Of Home . . .

Fighting men throughout the world are thinking of home . . . the home they dream of returning to . . . the home you keep for them. It need not be palatial or expensive. Perhaps it is a very simple little home, but they think of it often.

Why not keep it painted, repaired and comfortable for that day when they shall see it again . . . home!

I remember from school.

I once had to do a composition about world's greatest invention being wheels. I think of gear-wheels, water-wheels, and especially all the wheels for transportation. But right now the greatest thing of all, is to keep wheels going, keeping you in service, for instance. There's one oil and another. Now from what you know, the explosions in any engine produce acids, which brings up bright idea of safely oil-plating engine's insides with Conoco Nth oil. You want to prevent damage to acids... internal corrosion! Some are especially good at fighting corrosion and OIL-PLATING comes in that. Even chromium plating, just for comparison, couldn't stay closer to work parts than this protective oil-plating. It battles corrosion, so as to help preserve your transportation as you switch to Conoco Nth oil.
