By DOUGLAS MEADOR

Hair all serves a useful purpose and its need is frequently reduced by regular perspiration.

Pieces of the day lay shattered and soft clouds that drifted down a golden channel in the sky...

At intervals the little brown white spotted bug would fly over the felt weather-strips...

Courtesy is such a small thing that it has almost lost its splendor...

Life is tossed into depots like into a hopper, fed now by milled band of Mars.

Brotherhood can never be lessened yet it is frequently colored by modern conventions.

Harsh word falls like broken on the pavement where tread.

Permanent measure of a is not what he has accumulated but what he has given.

Rites Are Held For "Mother" Burleson

Final rites were held here at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. A. D. "Mother" Burleson, 92-year-old pioneer Motley County resident...

Mother Burleson, as she will always be lovingly remembered by those who knew her, passed away at 3:30 o'clock Monday morning...

Last surviving charter member of the First Baptist Church here, and for many decades an outstanding Baptist lay leader of this area, Mother Burleson was the 'main spring' of this church's successful new building campaign...

Until about a year ago, Mrs. Burleson had enjoyed unusually good health for one of her advanced years...

Mrs. Burleson, her late husband John L. Burleson, and their six small children moved to Motley County from Comanche county in August of 1891...

THIS TAKES GOOD MANAGEMENT!

It's a neat feat to navigate a windy corner with a pile of packages and keep skirts down to a modest level. We're facing a somewhat similar problem during these stormy war years—carrying bigger power loads, higher costs, heavier taxes—and still keeping prices at low pre-war levels. We're rather proud that electricity hasn't been rationed and hasn't gone up, like so many household necessities. In fact, the average family actually gets about twice as much electricity for its money today as it did 15 years ago. This takes good management, too.

Remember MOM

Just a worn baby shoe... neglected tennis racket... or mellowed high school diploma to anyone else... but to her they are links between the past and the present. At their touch her heart beats faster and memories of your childhood come racing back to her mind's eye. Then, softly sighing, she'll close the squeaking trunk - square her shoulders and face the future. Yes, it was hard—there were many dark and selfless sacrifices to make, but in a mother's eyes they were glorious adventures. To watch you grow... see love and worship reflect in your eyes was her reward. Unflinchingly her faith inspired courage and comfort in your living—gave purpose to your pursuit of happiness. Now, in a world rocked to its foundations by war, she still remains a bulwark of strength unchanged in a changing world. Her implicit faith in America and the freedoms for which you fight coupled with simple trust in your sincere efforts to do your best... and to succeed wherever you are—in whatever you do... is ammunition for your soul. It gives power to your conviction to win this war and confidence in the peace to come. Tradition claims the second Sunday of each May as her day... as a tribute to the magnitude of her loving devotion. Make it another day for her collection of memories... try in some small measure to brighten the life of one who shaped and guided your life as an American... YOUR MOTHER!

Dear Ben:

It is time to write my friend again. I appreciate very much, Ben You have so much for us soldiers, and marines of Motley. I don't know how we find words enough to thank consider you a good soldier if there are very many in Texas or the United who have thought of their boys as you have. I wrote few days ago, but wasn't ed with it, because I felt hadn't expressed enough.

I still want to mention my Ernie Pyle. This little man smw with the troops in the last summer meant a lot. His fine reports and won- spirit buoyed us up and we feel like better men. His came out in our paper,

I have been planning on writing you for the last eight months. I am not putting it off any longer. First, I want to express my sincere thanks to you, and to the people of Motley County, for the home-town paper. The past six weeks I have received only one copy, but that is because I have been moved around so much. I am sure they will all catch up with me in due time.

I don't have a permanent address at the present, so please continue to send the paper to this address, until I let you know different. Give my regards to all, and thanks again for the paper.

Yours truly,
Pfc. Raymond Rattan.

You can't afford to be careless about your equipment. Farming is too essential an occupation. We have a good stock of tools, building supplies and plumbing parts. NOW is the time to put everything on your farm in A-No. 1 working order.

Everything For the Home, Farm and Ranch
Higginbotham-Bartlett Co.
LUMBER, BUILDING SUPPLIES AND HARDWARE

THIS WAR IS SURE DOING THINGS FOR FARM EQUIPMENT!

BONDS TODAY WILL BUY IT TOMORROW!

OUR implement industries engaged in the war effort are learning a lot. Today, this growing knowledge is going into the tanks and planes and guns with which our boys are doing such a magnificent job on the fighting fronts. But when the war's over, that "know-how" will go into new equipment for you. The tractors and cars and machinery which will replace your present equipment will be more efficient, easier to use. The manufacturers' post-war catalogs of new lines will make your mouth water!

Well, you'll be able to order as much as you want—if you have War Bonds stored away with which to pay the bill. On farms and ranches all over the country, wise, foresighted owners and tenants are keeping track of all the places where money will have to be laid out when the war is over. And against these future expenses they are salting down their dollars in War Bonds.

Your boy is learning a lot while he's away fighting. When he comes home he's going to know what first class equipment is, and he isn't going to be satisfied unless you have it. Right now, of course, the War Bonds you buy help back the attack and hasten the day of victory. But after the war, the money you invest in them will come back, for you and the boy to use together on the farm.

War Bonds are backed by Uncle Sam. That makes them just about the safest thing in the world. They're the easiest way to save your money, because you can buy them at bank or postoffice or Production Credit Association. They come in large or small denominations, and in different kinds, to suit your needs. The important thing is—keep on buying them!

YOU NEVER GET LESS THAN YOU LEND! And you can get 1/2 more than you invest. When held 10 years, Series E War Bonds yield 2.9% interest compounded semi-annually. You get back $4 for every $3.

Of course, no one should cash a Bond unless he has to; but if an emergency comes along, Uncle Sam will redeem them in cash—at full purchase price—any time after you've held them 60 days. Don't hold back a single dollar unnecessarily from the purchase of War Bonds. YOUR HELP IS NEEDED TO WIN THIS WAR.

FACTS
About War Bonds (Series E)

The LESS Uncle Sam:	Upon Maturity you get back:
$18.75	$25.00
$7.50	$10.00
$7.00	$10.00
$5.00	$10.00
$3.00	$10.00

You can buy War Bonds from your bank, postoffice, retail and carrier or Production Credit Association. Don't wait. Do it by mail if you can't get to town!

For America's future, for your future, for your children's future—keep on buying WAR BONDS

Let's all KEEP BACKING THE ATTACK!

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
 The State of Texas:
 TO: J. C. Clay Defendant;
 GREETING:

You are commanded to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday after the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this Citation, the same being Monday the 11th day of June, A. D. 1945, at or before 10 o'clock A. M., before the Honorable District Court of Matley County, at the Court House in Matador, Texas.

Said plaintiff's petition was filed on the 27th day of April, 1945. The file number of said suit being 1187. The names of the parties in said suit are:

Christine Clay, as Plaintiff, and J. C. Clay, as Defendant. The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to wit:

A suit for divorce and the restoration to plaintiff of her maiden name, Christine Jacobs.

The plaintiff alleging that she and defendant married on the 12 day of March, 1944, and separated on the 9th day of October, 1944. That soon after said marriage defendant assumed toward plaintiff a coarse and complaining attitude and often cursed her and called her vile and vulgar names, frequently flying into fits of anger at her.

That in the month of September, 1944, defendant was sued by a woman, who claimed to be his lawful wife, for divorce and support of herself and his seven children, who claimed to reside in

Nacogdoches county, Texas, and although defendant denied to plaintiff that he had ever married said woman, but finally did admit that he had lived with her for eleven years, as his wife, upon learning which fact, plaintiff asked defendant to take her back to her parents, telling him that she could live with him no longer.

That he flew into a rage and struck plaintiff with his fist and told her that if she went back to her folks she would be carried in a coffin. That she did not know he had ever lived with said woman, and on account of such cruel treatment, she abandoned plaintiff and has not lived with him since, and asks for divorce.

Issued this 27th day of April, A. D. 1945. Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Matador, Texas, this 27th day of April, A. D. 1945.

It sure is a headache!

Sure, everybody knows that right now quality oil is more important than ever before...but even motorists who are twenty times as old as our troubled little friend, don't know how easy it is to choose a quality lubricant.

They may be misled by bad advice from well-meaning friends, befuddled by claims, or low in sales-resistance to high-pressure selling. So choosing a quality oil can become a chore, a bore, and a headache.

Well, Phillips puts an end to your oil worries, and tells you how you can pick quality with certainty every time.

You know that oils may differ greatly...in chemical composition, in lasting power, in stability...and in other ways. And Phillips offers a number of differing lubricants to meet various preferences of car-owners.

But if you want our best oil, remember that Phillips tells you frankly that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality...the highest grade and greatest value...among all the oils we offer to motorists like yourself.

Don't forget! It's time to drain and refill with fresh, summer-grade Phillips 66 Motor Oil.
