

Rain---It Comes To A Dry Motley

Reports Vary From Light Drizzles To Four Inch Showers

Early Wednesday to boost the total rainfall to 2.20 inches. Some hail accompanied the droplets.

Farmers coming into the AAA office in Matador said that cotton damage had been done, but the majority of the cotton raisers were all smiles. A little wheat was nipped, and all harvesting is temporarily halted.

Four Corners and the eastern portion of Flomot felt the change in weather to the extent of four inches, which was the greatest amount of rainfall reported by farmers.

In the Roaring Springs area came accounts of a two-inch drizzle, although the reports seemed to indicate a rather spotted covering of the area there.

One inch was recorded on the rain charts of Whiteflat and Turkey, but White Star could vouch for only a light sprinkle.

Just what the remainder of the week's weather would be was problematical, but overcast skies and a cool and humid temperature still covered everything late Wednesday.

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

We had a fire Wednesday, just after you left on your vacation. That $350 transformer that pulls the press went berserk and spread flames over by the paper stock when Burrell started the first run.

However, the only damage done was to the transformer itself and to the wooden base attached to the wall. Burrell says that it will take a paltry $250 to clean everything up. I got pretty smoky, but Chareen and Jessie were the only things in the shop which seemed to be bothered by the fumes.

Mr. Bradley came over from the West Texas Utilities office and saved the day for us in spite of his personal fire extinguisher. All the extinguisher did when called on to perform was to spew out some air.

But Bradley uncapped a bottle of fire extinguishing fluid and poured it over the flaming box and thereby conquered the blaze. So, we are still in publication.

We trust that you and Mrs. Meador are having a wonderful time.

Sincerely,
The Staff

P. S.:—Honest, we didn't do anything. The electrician said that the fire was probably caused by a bolt of lightning which landed nearby sometime last night.

Matadors Manager Claimed By Death

TRAIL of another pioneer cowboy leads from the dry, red canyons to a range of forever silenced spurs. M. J. Reilly, 65, local manager of the Matador Land & Cattle Company ranch for 23 years, died suddenly of a heart attack at headquarters about 7 a. m. Saturday. He was clad in pajamas, seated in his room before a partially-worked crossword puzzle, pencil still in his hand, when found by Elsie Cooper, headquarters cook, when he did not respond to her call to breakfast.

Mrs. Reilly had accompanied her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reilly to Boulder, Colorado, where he was to re-enter college this week.

Mrs. Reilly was accompanied back to Texas by Mrs. John Mackenzie of Denver, arriving in Amarillo by train late Saturday, while the Matadors, by automobile.

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. Tuesday at ranch headquarters located in the foothills of the Caprock about one and one-half miles southwest of Matador, conducted by Rev. G. E. Turrentine, pastor of the local Methodist church. Interment was made in the Matador East Mound cemetery.

Work on the range ceased as eight cowboys from "the outfit" served as pall bearers for "the Boss". Mist was behind the eyes of hundreds as cowboys and cattlemen from thruout West Texas stood silently and held broad-brimmed hats, to pay tribute to the genial, soft-spoken Irishman. M. J. Reilly had no enemies.

Twelve car loads of wheat were shipped from the H & M Elevator at Roaring Springs Tuesday, and at least 12 more car loads were predicted to come from Motley County.

Tuesday's shipment came from the county and represents approximately half of this year's crop, according to Ennis Moss.

THREE COLORFUL APRONS

APRONS are utility items, but they can be pretty enough to wear to a party. The plaid gingham style with ruffle-trimmed edges and pockets is a teen-age delight. San Angelo Boy Is Essay Winner On Army Enlistment

One hundred dollars will be given to Edward Davis, senior student in the San Angelo High School, by the Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma Coaches, Inc. The one hundred dollar prize will be an award for entering the best essay in a contest recently conducted by the West Texas U. S. Army Recruiting District, Lubbock, Texas. The winning essay, entitled "What A Regular Army Enlistment Has To Offer Me" reads as follows:

"There are two things I want before I start out to raise a family and earn a living. I want a good education and I want to learn a trade. The United States Army offers me these things if I will enlist for three years. I can learn my trade in the Army and when I have finished my education I have my college education paid for.

If you stop and think for a moment, that amounts to quite a sum of money. A private's pay for three years is eighteen hundred dollars, tuition for four years of college is about two dollars, subsistence allowance for four years of college is three thousand, one hundred and twenty dollars. All of this add up to six thousand, nine hundred and twenty dollars. There is no job I know of where I could accumulate that much money in three years in addition to earning a living.

But what of the other things? Money is not everything that the Army offers me. It offers me the chance to serve my country at a time when it needs me. It offers me a chance to broaden my outlook on life and become more tolerant in my thinking. I would be living with all kinds of people for three years and that would be an education in itself. It would give me a chance to travel over the world and to see other people as they are. I would then know them from first-hand experiences and they would no longer be unreal or be seen only through the minds of writers and reporters.

Some people might say that those three years would delay my education. My answer to that is, in three years I will be more mature. I will be sure of myself in choosing my life's work. I will realize my capabilities more fully.

E. L. Warren of Hot Springs, New Mexico, is visiting here in the home of his son and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Warren.

He declared that a one-cent-a-gallon tax on gasoline for four years would achieve his educational proposals. The foundation of a GI Memorial Act to insure loans on small farms and the minimum of $40 per month for old age assistance were also planks in Sadler's platform. Other points in the candidates speech included the payment of the federal bonus to soldiers, the immediate redistricting of the state, and a return to the tenets of the constitution as the bedrock foundation of the government. He also proposed that labor unions should be required to file reports on their receipts and disbursements.

Vote For John B. Stapleton for District Attorney
Former County Attorney of Floyd County, 44 months in the service, 28 months overseas, age 38, married, law graduate, worked way thru law school, practicing attorney since 1938. Qualified by training and experience for the job.

THE TWIN MEETS—IN RECORD-BREAKING TIME!—A new one-way speed record was set by this new Navy Neptune patrol bomber, a two-motored Lockheed P2V, when it sat down at Burbank Field, Calif., 2 hours 23 minutes and 2 seconds after its take-off from Floyd Bennett Field. This sliced 39 minutes off the previous best speed, despite poor flying conditions that forced the plane 150 miles off course. The Neptune was piloted by Commander Thomas D. Davies, of Chevy Chase, Md., and carried three naval crewmen and two civilian passengers.

Win Column Cut To Two Teams—Spur Tastes First Win
Only two teams remained undefeated when the dust of the third week of ball play in the Dickens-Motley Baseball League had settled last week. The perfect record of the Roaring Springs nine was blotted by a 14-6 drubbing when they met the undefeated Dickens unit at Roaring Springs.
The only other team remaining in the 1,000 per cent column is the mighty Afton machine—and the "unspoiled" column will probably contain the name of just one baseball team at the close of June 23. Afton is slated for a tilt with the Dickens men on the Dickens diamond at that date, and both teams will strain to uphold their perfect record.

On the same day, Roaring Springs will try to take the bitter taste of defeat out of her system by plowing through Midway on the Midway lot. Midway, like Whiteflat, has yet to win a contest in this series.
The remaining game to be played on June 23 will be a game between Spur and Whiteflat on Whiteflat's grounds. All games are called for 2:30 p. m.
Scoring in last week's series recorded the worst defeat yet handed to any club in the schedule. Whiteflat's fans saw their team go down by a tally of 31-3 when the Afton whammers accepted the challenge. Spur slinked by Midway 4-0 at Midway.
Just for the records, the current standings are:

Team	W	L	Pct.
Dickens	3	0	1.000
Afton	3	0	1.000
Roaring Springs	2	1	.665
Spur	1	2	.333
Whiteflat	0	3	.000
Midway	0	3	.000

7000 Chickens Are Entered In Contest

Nearly 7,000 chickens have been entered by poultry breeders in the Texas section of the national Chicken-of-Tomorrow contest, F. Z. Beamblossom of Texas A & M College, chairman of the state contest committee, has announced.
The best of these birds will be displayed and judged at a site to be selected by the state committee when the current fourteen-week growing period for the entries closes on August 21. The '46 winner will be awarded $100, while the state committee also has provided suitable run-ways or part of the $3,000 in regional prizes to be awarded in 1948 by A & P Food Stores, which initiated the three-year breeding program.
Beamblossom said the objective of the contest is to encourage poultrymen to develop meatier chickens which will have at least 10 per cent more meat in relation to bone structure, combining this with added meatiness with better egg-laying ability. Contestants include professional breeders, 4-H and Future Farmers Club members, hatcherymen and backyard flock owners.

Driver Injured In Wreck Recovering

Fred Dozier, former resident of Falls and Fort Worth, truck driver who was critically injured Wednesday when the truck he was driving turned over five miles south of Roaring Springs, was reported by attendants at Stanley Clinic to be recovering.
Dozier's main injuries are a fractured pelvis and a fractured vertebra. Clinic attendants predicted a prolonged confinement in a body cast for the driver.
Before being taken to the clinic, Dozier told witnesses that his truck and trailer turned over when he attempted to avoid collision with an automobile driven by N. M. Freudrenrich, a farmer of Roaring Springs.
A hitch-hiking youth, approximately 13 years of age, who was riding with Dozier, fled the scene before officers arrived. Dozier was pinned beneath his truck, and approximately 20 head of cattle in the truck's trailer broke loose.

FARM NEWS

BY MARVIN ALLEN
 Motley County ACA
 Administrative Officer

VISITS KING RANCH

A visit to the King Ranch was made by Roy Burleson, W. L. Williams and Lawrence Washington, AAA County Commissioners, and Marvin Allen, Administrative Officer, for the purpose of viewing results of applying superphosphate to pasture land.

The King Ranch is composed of slightly less than one million acres in eight Texas counties. It reportedly has 80,000 head of cattle alone on its ranges and is thought to have the biggest deposit of oil in the world. The ranch is located about 20 miles southwest of Falfurrias or about 100 miles northwest of Corpus Christi. It is one of the largest ranches encountered while on the trip. This was a very interesting and the results of the experiment were indeed astonishing. The experiment with superphosphate was begun by the King Ranch in 1937 and is continuing to date. The experiment now underway is as follows: In carrying on the present experiment five different groups of cattle are being used. In the group 1 pasture, 36 cows have only native grass and water. A 20% (7 calves) calf crop was all that was obtained in 1945. A large due to phosphate and other mineral deficiency. These cows averaged 879 pounds in weight at the beginning of this year. This pasture is stocked at the rate of 1 cow or animal unit to every 15 acres.

There are 43 cows on pasture native pasture, water, and bone meal supplement free choice in self feeders. There was an 83%

(36 calves) calf crop on this group of cows in 1945. This pasture is stocked at the same rate as the No. 1 pasture while the average weight of the cows on this pasture is 1000 pounds.

The group III cows consists of 43 head and are stocked at the rate of one cow to each 15 acres. This group of cows is on native pasture and receive soluble sodium phosphate in drinking water. The calf crop is about the same percent as the number 2 group and the average weight of the cows at the beginning of the year was 1000 or the same as group II.

There are 40 cows in the group 4 pasture with a 95% (38 calves) calf crop in 1945. This pasture is stocked at the same rate as groups 1, 2, and 3. The average weight of the cows is 1,061 pounds. They are on native grass and receive plenty of water and disodium phosphate in self feeders, free-choice.

The group 5 pasture consists of 640 acres which was fertilized with approximately 200 pounds of superphosphate per acre in 1941. This pasture carries nearly 50% more cattle than any of the other pastures or 1 cow to approximately each 10 1/2 acres. All these 57 cows have to eat the fertilized native grass with plenty of water. This group of cows had a 95% (55 calves) calf crop in 1945.

It will also be interesting to note that each pasture consists of 640 acres. The first four groups or pastures were originally stocked in 1941 with 43 heifers and also the same ac-ording to weight of cattle in each pasture while pasture 5 was stocked with the same average weight as the cattle in the first four pastures. The same bulls have been used thruout the experiment as they were moved from one pasture to another each 28 days.

As you will note and can figure, 232 head of heifers were used to start this experiment. 43 head were put in each of the first four pastures and 60 head on the fifth 640 acres; each of these heifers were of the same breed, approximately the same age and weighed approximately the same.

The cows on each of the last four pastures where phosphate is being received is averaging a calf crop every eleven months whereas the period is becoming longer for the cows on pasture No. 1 as a calf crop is being realized every 13 or 14 months from these cows. It is therefore easy to see that the cows receiving phosphate will gain a calf crop about every 10 years. That item alone is something to think about and the fact that the pasture fertilized with phosphate is carrying 50% more cattle is also something to think about.

The average weight of the calves in pasture No. 1 at one year of age was 450 pound average while the calves on pastures 2, 3, 4, and 5 averaged 550 pounds. All calves were weaned at 240 days old. From these figures and those above can be figured for each respective group.

The procedure was explained by L. H. Tash of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Bureau of Animal Husbandry who is in charge of the experiments.

The King Ranch has applied phosphate to approximately 66,000 acres to date and they have three large machines that never stop, according to a representative of the ranch. It might also be interesting to note that where this phosphate is being applied now and where the experiment is being carried on they have received only 4 inches of rain this year.

The cost per acre for applying superphosphate is about $4.50. Since the AAA will pay ap-

New Mexico Takes Charge of Check Passing Suspects

A 32-year-old woman and her 16-year-old daughter, arrested here last Saturday on suspicion of a series of check passing which victimized several Matador merchants, have been turned over to New Mexico authorities for trial in connection with check passing in Portales.

A man companion of the women will also face trial on the same charge. The women and man were at first thought to be the trio which victimized Matador businesses, but a check with Sheriff's officers in Portales proved otherwise, Sheriff H. H. Courtney said.

The pair were arrested near Bob's Oil Well after Sheriff Courtney saw them with approximately $100 worth of women's ready-to-wear material.

Connally Issues
Statement On Eve
Of Paris Journey

Senator Tom Connally, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, last Thursday gave his views on the Italian and Balkan peace treaty conferences as he boarded the plane with Secretary of State Byrnes to attend the meetings of Foreign Ministers in Paris.

The veteran senator expressed a hope that the conference would be more successful than was the last. He advocated the practice of drawing up separate peace treaties between the warring countries if the Ministers Council proved unsuccessful.

"It is unreasonable to allow a veto by one foreign minister to upset the whole peace program," he declared.

Another "separate peace treaty" remark made by Connally was that "The nations who fought the sacrifices to win it constitute the only legal authority for making peace with Italy and the other defeated countries."

Apparently answering recent Russian charges, Connally declared "The United States is not in a bloc with Great Britain or any other European nation. We are not only not a member of any bloc, but we are opposed to the formation of blocs by other states. We believe that in a strong United Nation lies our best hope for world peace."

Training Program
Announced By Gulf

Between 45,000 and 50,000 persons will be trained by a personnel program being instigated by the Gulf Oil Company, company officials at Houston have announced.

The nation-wide program will be to bring forth a "dream" type of postwar service station service and to equip the company's personnel with basic information necessary for their work and the necessities of their customers, it was said.

More than 1,000 instructors have been recruited to direct courses similar to the Army's speed-up visual educational program, according to the announcement. The instructors will conduct the courses at training stations or will bring the complete course to individual stations, company officials declared.

TEXAS POWS TO MEET
Texans who were former prisoners-of-war will be eligible to attend the first postwar meeting of the Texas Kreigle Club in Austin on July 5 and 6. Governor Stevenson will address a stag dinner at which officers will be elected.

The club was formed at Stalag Luft 3, near Sagan, Germany, in July, 1944.

LOGGERS REJECT CIO
Plant workers and loggers of the Temple Lumber Company plants in Hempil and Pineland recently rejected an offer of the International Woodworkers of America (CIO) to be their bargaining agent. The vote was 329 to 244.
