BRASELTON IMPLEMENT COMPANY'S GUARANTY AGAINST ROAD HAZARDS AND DEFECTIVE WORKMANSHIP AND MATERIAL

The Firestone Tire identified on the reverse side is guaranteed for its life against defective workmanship and material and guaranteed from date of purchase in passenger car service or passenger car in commercial service or commercial light truck for the appropriate period indicated below, against any condition that may render the tire unfit for further service, where such condition is due to ordinary wear and tear, or damage thereto caused by blow-outs, cuts, bruises, rim cuts, under-inflation, wheels out of alignment, faulty brakes, or any road hazard except running flat.

The liability under this guaranty is limited strictly, at the option of Braselton Implement Co., either to repairing the tire without charge or to replacing it with a new tire of the same type and size. If so replaced pairing the tire without charge or to replacing it with the applicable replacement rate shown below for each month purchaser shall pay for the replacement tire at the date of purchase. Such replacement charge shall be computed on any day within the last month of the guaranty period, one month's allowance at the above replacement rate shall be credited to purchaser against said replacement charge. PROVIDED, however, that if a cross appears in any of the following boxes:

Under-inflation Faulty Brakes Improperly Mounted Overloaded Wheels out of Alignment

such cross indicates that the tire identified on the reverse side has been sold as a replacement tire under previous guaranty, and this guaranty will not cover any damage to such tire resulting directly or indirectly from the cause or causes checked above. This guaranty does not cover repair or replacement of tubes under any circumstances, replacement of the tire if lost or stolen; repair or replacement of the tire if damaged by fire; repair of tire puncture damage; or any consequential damage. THIS GUARANTY AND THE TIRE DESCRIBED ON THE REVERSE SIDE SHALL BE DELIVERED TO THE BRASELTON IMPLEMENT COMPANY WHEN MAKING A CLAIM HEREUNDER.

Pied Pipers
BY MRS. M.

Having reached the advanced age of 20 before we took the fatal matrimonial step, we view with dismay, these dewey-eyed teen-agers who are so convinced that their current boy friend will be the man 15, 10 or even 5 years hence, with whom they will want to continue to share their life. We're so thankful that our spouse isn't any of the boys we had a crush on, at 15.

Two local matrons—neither old nor young, but holding their own in looks and figures, have discovered that this year when they celebrate their wedding anniversaries, they will have been married half their lives. It didn't occur to us at the time, but we reached that status some three years past.

It is interesting to note that probably about ninety-nine in every hundred brides, in selecting their wedding music will use the Bridal Chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin" and the Wedding March from Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream" before and after the ceremony.

The "Lohengrin" number from Wagner's opera of that name, was first performed at Weimar, in 1850, under Liszt's direction, while Wagner was in exile abroad because of his revolutionary activities. It had been composed several years previously. In the opera this is a chorus sung by the bridesmaids, and is a beautifully light and graceful little piece. The chorus opens with the words, "Faithful and True" and not "Here Comes

The story of the opera runs as follows—Elsa, princess of Brabant has reason to mourn the loss of her brother, who has mysteriously disappeared, and she is overwhelmed by being also accused falsely of witchcraft. According to the medieval custom, her trial is to take the form of a duel between two knights; but she knows of no champion ready to fight for her. The night before the trial, in a dream, she sees her destined champion, coming in a boat drawn by a swan. This dream comes true when the knight, Lohengrin, so appears, at just the critical moment when her hopes seemed vain, and he vanquishes his opponent, Telramund.

In accordance with her previous intentions she marries Lohengrin, although he is unknown and refuses to give any account of himself. Immediately after their marriage, enemies begin attempting to poison her mind against him, and despite his warnings, she plies him with inquiries as to his origin and home.

At length, overcome by her entreaties, he reveals his secret. He is a Knight of the Holy Grail and it is the nature of his vow that wherever he appears on any knightly errand he must remain unknown; otherwise he must depart at once from those who have learned his secret. Accordingly he bids farewell forever to poor, remorseful Elsa, but makes some amends by restoring to her, just before he departs, her lost brother, who, under enchantment, has been none other than the swan which drew Lohengrin's boat hither, but who now resumes his proper human form.

IN APPRECIATION . . .

During the four years I have operated Dillard Cleaners in Roaring Springs, I have enjoyed excellent patronage and I wish to take this means of thanking my loyal friends and customers. I am extremely grateful for the many friendships that have grown out of the business associations. I wish to recommend my successors, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Webb, and assure you they will continue the same policies of the firm. Again I thank you.

MRS. BEN DILLARD

The play is very evidently an allegory, hinting that perfect trust is one most necessary condition for enduring love. Not a bad thing for a bride to remind herself.

We would postscript however, that certainly the bridegroom should prove himself worthy of such trust.

HERE FROM UTAH

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moore of Salt Lake City, Utah, are visiting here this week with his sister, Mrs. Landy Irvin, and with a brother, Tom Moore and family at Northfield. Mr. Moore was reared at Northfield, and this is his first visit back here in 28 years. A reunion of his relatives was held Tuesday night at Childress in the home of another brother, Sam Moore and family. A sister, Mrs. Alfred Edwards, the former Ruth Moore, resides in Amarillo.

JUDGE JOE S. MOSS
The Law Can Be In Simple Language

Any document signed by a Motley county citizen may someday have to be interpreted by the Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo. In over 41 years the court has existed, it has decided over six thousand civil cases. It is to the interest of the people of Motley county that qualified men of the people sit on that high court. Judge Joe S. Moss of Garza county believes that legal papers and proceedings should be in the language of the people, rather than in legal fine print. Judge Moss will help simplify and speed up the machinery of the law. Ask the people who know him. Vote for Moss. A Civil Judge for a Civil Court.

ELBERT REEVES
Motley County's Candidate For STATE REPRESENTATIVE
(88th District, Donley, Hall, Childress and Motley Counties)

A NATIVE SON of Motley county, Elbert Reeves, is a candidate for State Representative of the newly-created 88th District. Since announcing early in the campaign, he has spent most of his time in Donley, Hall and Childress counties where he is receiving the support of community leaders.

Elbert Reeves deserves the united support of Motley county voters. He is one of the county's outstanding citizens who wants to go to Austin because he believes he can render a service to the people. He is spending his own money in the campaign and he will spend his own money when in Austin. (Average State Representative's salary is about $650 per year). This is an appeal to all friends and neighbors of this progressive citizen to unite in giving him an overwhelming VOTE OF CONFIDENCE at the polls Saturday, July 26. Friends of Mr. Reeves have assured him that he would not need to spend time and money campaigning in his own county. Other counties are aiding him because the people in Motley county are fortunate in having a candidate of Mr. Reeves' character to work so diligently for election. GIVE HIM YOUR VOTE OF CONFIDENCE.

MAKE FENCE MUCH FASTER with this post hole digger

Why wait to build fence because digging post holes by hand is such hard work? We recommend the Danuser post hole digger that attaches quickly to the Ford Tractor and can dig up to 600 post holes a day. Lifts and lowers by Hydraulic Touch Control. Pays for itself in time and labor saved. . . gets fence made quickly, between rush seasons or in spare time.

If you have seedling trees to set out, or holes to dig for building pilings or foundations, there's nothing like this post hole digger. Even use it for digging trenches. . . saves lots of shoveling. Several size augers. . . Ask for a demonstration.

Fine for setting out seedlings.

Makes holes for building foundations.

JULIA MARIE SAMS DESCRIBES EUROPEAN TOUR WITH BAYLOR PARTY IN DIARY FORM

In a day-by-day dairy-like account of her travels to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rowe Sams of 3416 Carondelet, Waco, Miss Julia Marie Sams is giving an interesting description of a European tour which she is making this summer with a group from Baylor University. She is a granddaughter of Mrs. Leonora Luckett of Matador, and has visited here on a number of occasions with her parents. Mrs. Sams is the former Marie Luckett.

Excerpts from an account of her trip, which appeared recently in the Tribune-Herald, Waco, are as follows:

If you were traveling with Miss Julia Marie Sams today, you'd be taking the noon train for Brussels, departing from the Hague where you had spent the morning seeing the Peace Palace and other points of interest in the Dutch city.

In Brussels you would visit historic sights and pay particular attention to that city's famous lace industry. You would have lunch, then take a train for Germany.

So goes the European tour schedule of Miss Sams, who is traveling with Mrs. Monroe Carroll's Baylor party, seeing England, Scotland, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Spain and France.

In London, the party spent four days before going to Edinburgh. The Baylorites were upset over a situation they found at Westminster Abbey, she writes.

"After the Parliament Buildings we went to Westminster Abbey—we were quite impressed with its historical importance but were disgusted with the money changers. They had a stand selling post cards over Browning's grave...."

They saw the many places of historical and literary significance in London and witnessed the colorful changing of the guards at Buckingham Palace. They made a boat trip on the River Thames and left the boat to see St. George's Chapel, where most of the kings and queens are entombed, and walked around the gardens of Windsor Castle.

They visited Eton, where "the schoolboys wear black tux—short coats for those under five feet and long tails for those over", writes Miss Sams. They walked through Hampton Court Castle, "which has a clock over 400 years old and still running." Climbs Over Fence

Of another bus tour Miss Sams writes: "When we got to Ascot we made a mad race for the golden gates through which the Royal Procession would come. I think we made it in better time than the horses. Shannon and I had trouble climbing on the fence—first I got up and she couldn't make it so I got down and boosted her up and nearly over; then when I jumped up I jumped completely over and landed head down and feet up in front of the Royal Procession. I scrambled to my feet and got a few pictures. After all this, we missed the main part of the races because of a bit of confusion about where they were going to race, but we looked just in time to see some of it.

The group also visited Stratford-on-Avon and the Shakespeare shrines there; Oxford University where "they all must wear black gowns, first year students have short ones and other long ones"; Warwick Castle and Sulgrave Manor where the ancestors of George Washington lived and where the group sang "God Bless America"; the Isle of Wight and the home of Alfred Lord Tennyson, Farringford Castle, where they were met by Sir Charles Tennyson, the poet's grandson.

Lots Of Silverware
The party of 28 Americans had arrived in Southampton on June 16. From there Miss Sams wrote her first impression of the British: "One thing we notice about Britishers is their sacrifice for formality. We had more silverware than you could shake a stick at, and no napkins. The waiters were in old-fashioned tails and the tablecloths were patched. So were the bed sheets, also of a very coarse material."

After their sojourn in London the young people were to spend two or three days in Scotland, seeing the Sir Walter Scott country, the Bobbie Burns country and Edinburgh.

They were to cross the channel to Holland Saturday, June 28, and spend the day in Amsterdam. Other exciting items on the tour schedule included a steamer trip on the Rhine River, a visit to Heidelberg University, excursions over Alpine passes and tenderfoot mountain climbing in Switzerland, a motor tour of Italy which will include stops at the Italian Lake District, Milan, Venice, Florence, Rome, Naples, Pompeii, Isle of Capri, the Italian and French Riviieras.

The party will spend five days in Spain, with two days stay in Madrid where they will see a bull fight.

Only a small portion of infected persons are clinically recognizable. When symptoms are manifested, they usually comprise an acute illness with fever, headache, and almost always a characteristic stiffness of the neck and spine. Some degree of paralysis may or may not occur during the first few days of illness.

During the poliomyelitis season the following measures are recommended:

1. Insist upon safe waste disposal so that human excreta is not exposed to disease transmitting vectors.
2. Insist on elimination of fly breeding sources and do not depend upon community wide airplane spraying or fogging machines as a substitute for basic sanitation.
3. Food supplies, including milk, must be protected against contamination.
4. Always demand safe water for drinking or swimming pools.
5. Insist that garbage be kept in covered containers and disposed of by incineration or sanitary fill.
6. Eliminate all insanitary conditions on your own premises.
7. Practice good personal hygiene, with particular attention to personal cleanliness.
8. Avoid excessive physical strain during poliomyelitis season.
9. Isolation in bed of all children with fever pending diagnosis by physician.

Sanitary Measures Safeguard Against Spread Of Polio

It is believed that the majority of adults have at one time been infected by the virus of poliomyelitis, usually without manifestations, says Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer. In view of the above it is expected that most of the recognized cases will be among children.

CLINIC IS SCENE OF RECENT BIRTHDAY PARTY HONORING SUSY LEE

Polio clinic in Matador was the scene recently of a party honoring Susy Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Lee on the occasion of her 6th birthday.

Susy, was her brother, Wylie Jr. who celebrated his 8th birthday on June 28. His party took place in the Matador City park, where birthday cake and punch were served to George and Sandra Smith of Roaring Springs, Mary Lee and Lou Groves, Carter and Jack Luckett, Veda Nichols, Edna Barton, Dean, Sarah and Linda Lee. Adults present were Mrs. James Smith, Ray Smith and Miss Thelma Davis of Roaring Springs, Mrs. J. M. Lee, Robbie and Mary Lee of Matador.

Susy's party was the 29th of June, and present were: Lee Roy and Wayne Hastings, Dean, Linda, Sarah and Wylie Lee, Jr., Mr. Sid Hastings, Mrs. J. M. Lee (the Lee children's grandmother), Robbie and Mary Lee, and the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Lee, all of Matador.

Roy Smith, manager of the City Bakery, baked the birthday cake for the two children and decorated it with, "Happy Birthday, Wylie and Susy". Pictures were taken of the children with the cake.

A PATIENT AT THE WEST TEXAS Polio Center, Plainview since the middle of May, little Susy Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Lee recently celebrated her 6th birthday. When she was brought to the Center, she could not move a muscle. Now she sits up, and even tries to walk a little. Doctors and nurses agree that she is the pluckiest little patient in her ward, and an inspiration to all fellow sufferers. She may be able to leave the Center sometime in the fall. Her parents, shown with her, above, visit her weekly.

Susy thanked Dr. Darnell for the privilege of being with her brother and sisters, declaring that's the best gift of all. She is doing fine and is walking now, although she won't be able to come home for some time. Dr. Heye, in charge of the clinic, reports that Susy has a strong will-power to get well and that she has made more progress in getting well than most children her age. Her willingness, he says helps and encourages others in the ward to try harder to get well.

While Susy takes her exercises each morning, she talks about folks at Matador. The doctors declare they would be able to recognize the mayor, the sheriff and deputy sheriff without introduction; and Mrs. Ralph Horton, Susy's Sunday School teacher, as well. "Susy seems to know nearly everybody in Matador. A good comrade, our Susy. We are very proud of her", they declare.

PICNIC ENJOYED BY YOUNG ADULT CLASS

A picnic supper in Matador City park was enjoyed Friday night by the Young Adult Sunday School class of the Methodist Church.

Those present included the teacher, Mrs. Fred Simpson; Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hurst and son, Rickey; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moss and son, Dickie, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hughes and children, Mr. and Mrs. James Priddy and daughter, Elizabeth Ann.

Old Fiddlers To Vie For Honors At Rodeo

A parade, an old fiddlers contest, and four nights of rodeo performances are on the schedule of activities for the Spur Cowboy Jubilee, July 30-31, August 1-2.

Old fiddlers from a wide area are invited to enter the contest, which is the first annual Community Day Old Fiddlers contest which the Spur Cowboy Rodeo Association has sponsored. This event will be held Wednesday, July 30. For an old timer to enter the contest, he must have reached the age of 60. Entries must be made to the Cowboy Association, headed by J. E. Swenson or to Grady Elder at the Chamber of Commerce.

Prizes for the best fiddler will be a $15 Stetson, presented by Proctors, and second prize will be $7.50 given by Burt Drug.

All old fiddlers who can meet the requirements are urged to compete in this contest.

Bill of Rights Guarantees Inalienable Privileges

The American "Bill of Rights" consisting of the first ten amendments to our federal constitution all adopted at one time in 1791 specifies in some detail a number of basic civil rights of the individual citizen. Unaltered by subsequent amendments and jealously guarded by our courts these privileges must be respected by our governing bodies today.

Among the most familiar of our constitutional guarantees are those relating to freedom of religion, of speech, and of the press. The same article protects the right of peaceable assembly and the privilege of petitioning the government for redress of grievances.

Another amendment secures our persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and specifies that no warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, and unless supported by oath or affirmation.

The due process of law amendment encompasses not one but several guarantees. Every American is secured against being placed twice in legal jeopardy for the same offense; against being held for trial for a capital (death penalty) or other infamous crime, unless upon a presentment or indictment of a grand jury. And, of course, no person may be deprived of life, liberty or property without orderly court procedures, on due process of law.

The right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury, in the locality where the crime was committed, the right to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation, and the rights to compel attendance of defense witnesses and to have the assistance of defense counsel in all criminal prosecutions are secured by another section of the "Bill of Rights."

Excessive bail and fines, and cruel and unusual punishments, are prohibited in Amendment VIII. Other articles insure the right to bear arms and ban quartering of soldiers in private homes during peace time.

J-P Courts Active
County Justice of the Peace courts also rolled up an impressive amount of business during the period Sheriff Stotts has been in office. In Precinct 1, a total of 665 cases have been recorded and the total amount of fines collected in this precinct is $13,146. Highway violations top the list with fines collected, amounting to $5,285 (speeding, overweight trucks, no RR permit, no drivers license, allowing unlicensed minors to drive and failing to stop at stop light).

Next in the JP court fine class are the 251 cases of "intoxication" paying $3,518. Fighting cases (38) paid $494 in fines. $398 in fines were collected in simple assault charges. Disturbing the peace (26 cases) charges paid $504 in fines. Gamblers (42 cases) paid $757 in fines and hunting violations (46 cases) paid $1,725 in fines. Swindlers (worthless checks, 30 cases) paid $390 in fines.

Justice of the Peace court in Precinct 4, Roaring Springs, has recorded 240 cases (drunks, fights and highway violations) and collected $3,640 in fines. Justice of the Peace court No. 5 (Flomot) has had 58 cases and collected $914 in fines.

NATIVE TEXAN TO RECEIVE HONOR AT TEXAS STATE FAIR

The State Fair of Texas this fall will inaugurate an annual "Texan of Distinction" award, honoring a Texan who has distinguished himself in industry, the sciences or the arts on a national scale. Fair President R. L. Thornton has announced.

Thornton also announced the appointment of a selection committee composed of men who are themselves distinguished Texans: D. A. Hulcy, president of Lone Star Gas Co. and chairman of the board of the United States Chamber of Commerce, chairman; Dr. Umphrey Lee, president of Southern Methodist University; Stanley Marcus, president of Neiman-Marcus Co.; Fred M. Mayer, president of Continental Supply Co.; and W. G. Vollmer, president of the Texas & Pacific Railway Co. No member of the committee is either an officer or director of

Tribune, Matador, Motley County, Texas, Thursday, July 17, 1952

FARMER CHAMPION Charles Robert Keith, above, is one of the two Motley county boys in Dallas this week to receive the coveted FFA Lone Star Farmer degree. Young Keith was president of the Motley county FFA in 1950-51 and secretary in 1951-52. He received the Matador high school agricultural medal as the outstanding farmer student in 1951-52. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keith of Matador. The other county FFA Lone Star Farmer degree winner is Pat Reeves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Reeves who received the Matador high school agricultural medal in 1950-51. Both of the youths have served this year on a FFA judging team in neighboring counties.—Douglas Meador photo.

The "Texan of Distinction" will be presented with a specially designed award that will be both impressive and valuable, Thornton said. The recipient must be a native born Texan who has lived in Texas at least 15 years of his life. "It is our intention to make this award by America's largest annual exposition one of the most prized honors that can be bestowed upon any man by his native state," Thornton said. "The purpose of the award is to focus national attention on the achievements of distinguished Texans, especially in industry. It makes no difference whether they have made their mark while residing in Texas or in some other section of the country. "Once a Texan, always a Texan."

Canada attracts two out of five Americans who travel outside of this country, according to the Texas Division of the American Automobile Association. Mexico is the second most popular outside attraction, with Europe third.
