Subsidy Limit 'Hits' County Farms

Senate Votes To Limit Payments To $20,000

"It is strictly a guess at this point, but as many as 350 county farmers could be affected by a Senate vote on Wednesday," said Bailey County Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service office Manager Charles Daniel. "We don't have the actual figures at this time or the information as to whether or not the new ruling involves cotton, wheat and feed grain individually or collectively."

"Naturally, some of our county farmers, those who own a higher acreage of land, will be hit quite hard by the Senate ruling if the new limit is $20,000 to each farmer."

Daniel continued that the states most affected by the ruling will be Texas, Arizona and California where the larger, corporate type farms are located.

The Senate measure was allegedly designed to clamp the lid on the corporate farms which receive up to $4 million a year for not growing crops.

According to government figures, the subsidy program now costs $3.5 billion a year and benefits some 2.5 million farmers. The government statement was that most of the 2.5 million farmers receive payments averaging $1,400 and one-third of this number gets $500 or less.

With the new limit, Senator Ralph T. Smith, R-Ill., estimated a saving of $350 million to $400 million per year.

Rep. George H. Mahon, D-Tex., said House conferees should and would seek elimination of the limitation and added that he thought the house would not pass the measure.

Mahon, agreeing with a stand taken by Agriculture Secretary Clifford M. Hardin, said if payment limits are adopted, they should be written into the pending farm bill.

The Agriculture secretary has scheduled the hospital district and bond election suit for Tuesday, July 28.

He told The Journal Friday afternoon that the trial will be a non-jury trial.

During a regular monthly meeting of the Bailey County Hospital District Tuesday night, the resignation of Board Member Don Harmon was accepted, according to Secretary, Mrs. Bernard Phelps.

The board voted to go on record as commending Harmon for his outstanding work for the district.

She said several items of business were discussed before a question and answer session was held for the large group present for the meeting.

Hundreds In Earth For Rodeo

Parade, Barbecue Precede Festivity

Colorful cowboys and cowgirls, prancing, groomed horses, floats, sirens, flashing neon lights, old cars, beauties and music marked the annual parade preceding the 26th Annual Earth Rodeo Thursday afternoon.

With a theme of "Americanism" red, white and blue was used predominantly in the decorations for the long parade. Hundreds of onlookers lined downtown streets and sidewalks in Earth for the 5 p.m. parade.

First place adult division riding club was the Cochran County Sheriff's Posse and first place junior division riding club trophy went to the Y-L 4-H Riding Club. First place winner in the float division was KMP Pump Company with a 'Betsy Ross' float in keeping with the theme for the parade. Second prize in the float division was awarded the Rebekah Lodge and third place honors went to the Earth Roping Club.

As the colorful parade, with its bevy of beauties, featuring the 12 contestants in the Earth Rodeo Queen contest and other beauties, wended its way to the Rodeo Arena just west of Earth, cars, pickups and bicycles trailed behind. They were headed for the annual barbecue, which is cooked and prepared by the Earth Lions Club.

Hungry parade participants and individuals lined up at the livestock barn just east of the rodeo arena as the aroma of barbecue wafted across, teasing their taste, as they waited in the long lines. The aroma proved to be accurate, as the Lions Club served an excellent barbecue, with all the trimmings. A ticket to the rodeo, slated for 9 p.m., was the only admission price to also enjoy the high barbecue, cooked in outside surroundings.

At 8:45 p.m., preceding the 9 p.m. rodeo, the 12 contestants for rodeo queen rode into the arena and were introduced, although announcement of the winner was not made at that time. The young beauties displayed some of their horsemanship as they circled the arena in their brilliant western suits.

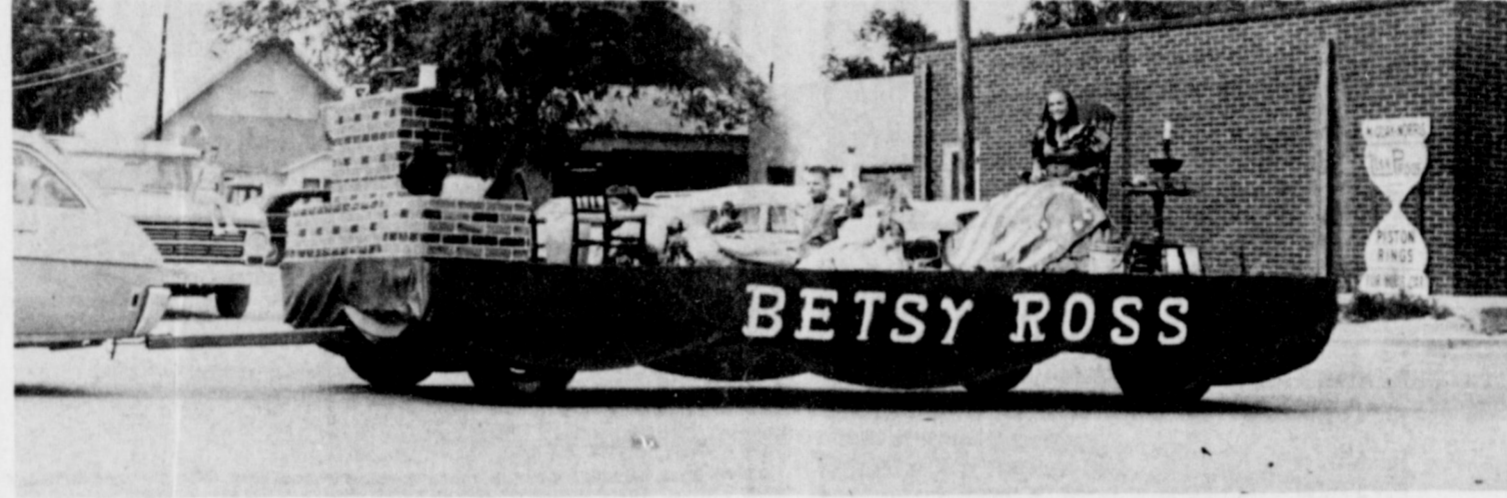

Leading the grand entry at 9 p.m. were two well-known persons in the rodeo circuit. Longtime Earth residents and ropers, G. Kellar and Bill Kellar, carried the United States and Texas flags as the Plainview Comancheros set the pattern for the grand entry.

Blonde, seventeen-year-old Joan Dudley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norlan Dudley was named Earth Rodeo Queen for 1970. She is a senior at Earth-Springlake Schools and has lived at Earth for two years. She has participated in rodeo activities for the past two years, and last year was a contestant for rodeo queen.

First runner-up was Welda Barton, 16. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Barton and a senior at Earth-Springlake School. She is a lifetime resident of Earth and last year was also first runner-up in the rodeo queen contest.

Jennifer Myers, 17, was second runner-up. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Myers and also is a senior at Earth-Springlake School. This is her first year to compete in the contest although she had lived in the Earth community for the past 12 years.

For the last 10 years, she has been active in rodeo activities. Fast and furious rodeo action

EARTH'S PRIZE FLOAT--Floats entered in the parade were judged for their keeping with the theme of the parade, "Americanism." This float, sponsored by KMP Pump Co., and entitled Betsy Ross, was judged the first place winner. The Y-L 4-H Riding Club from Bailey County was first place winner in the youth riding division and the Cochran County Sheriff's Posse was first place winner in the adult riding division. Hundreds of people lined the main street of Earth to watch the long, colorful parade.

It's Hotter This Year Than 1969

If you think it is hotter earlier and longer this year, you just may be right. Muleshoe has already logged at least one more day than last year to reach at least one hundred degrees, with the hottest part of the summer coming up yet.

The first day this year for the temperature to reach 100 degrees was on June 16 this year, compared to June 22 last year, with the official weatherman reporting 100 for each of the days. However, this year, on June 17, a blistering 102 was reported. Nights were still running cooler in June of 1969, with temperatures in the 50s being recorded, compared to the 60s being recorded during the same period of time this year.

June 10 of this year was the first day temperature of 90 degrees was recorded, but the night was a cool 58. But, with June 14, the nights moved into the 60s and have stayed there.

July 10, 1969 was a relatively 'cool' day, with the high being 93 degrees and the low, 67. July 10, 1970, unofficially reached 104 degrees with high humidity which knocked the area's evaporative air conditioners for a loop. Panting people stayed as near the slightly functioning air conditioners rather than move about outside except when necessary.

The last time for a real weather break this year was

June 22-23 when the temperatures were 79-55 and 83-56, respectively. Following five straight days of temperatures in the 90s late in June, the steady high 90s have been recorded and it has been no cooler at night than 62.

During August of 1969, the temperature reached 98 on August 14 and stretched out to 102 on August 18. By late August, it was 88 on the 24th and 77 on the 30th. The last day in 1969 for the temperature to reach 90 degrees was September 6. After that time, the lower temperatures consistently showed up on the official weatherman's temperature gauge.

Moisture received this year is approximately one-third of what had been recorded at the same time last year. On July 10, 1969, 10.26 inches has been recorded. This year on July 10, a total of 3.74 has been recorded. Many dryland farmers were unable to plant their cotton crops because of the unavailability of moisture.

So, all in all, if it seems hotter (and dryer) than it was at the same time last year, you are absolutely correct.

Swine Study Now Underway At High Plains

The second swine feeding study got underway last week at the High Plains Research Foundation.

Past swine studies at the Foundation tested the economics of raising swine in portable pens. Another feeding study, released in the High Plains Research Foundation's annual report in March compared feeding sorghum and Triticale as a base of feeding rations.

This study will compare wet and dry feeding rations utilizing sorghum based feeds.

The test will be in portable, raised slatted floor pens. Used in the study will be 100 head of swine from the Fred Breugel SPF swine operation at Dim-

DWI Charges Lead Arrests During Week

With the Bailey County Sheriff's office jailing two persons and the Muleshoe City Police Department jailing one person for driving while intoxicated, that charge led the arrests for the week.

Second on the list with two charges was disturbance, with both the city and county officers filing disturbance charges against individuals.

One person was jailed for assault and battery; one for drunk; one for contributing to the delinquency of a minor and one for no driver's license. A bondsman had one man jailed on a bond forfeit case.

One of the disturbance cases was a triple charge, with the person also being charged with drug addiction and mental.

Local officers reported a fairly quiet Fourth of July weekend, with the majority of the incoming calls to the Bailey County Law Enforcement Center concerning fireworks in the city limits.

Michelle Rush Struck By Car

Three-year-old Michelle Rush, daughter of Mrs. Loyd Waggoner, was rushed to West Plains Memorial Hospital by private automobile Friday night around 10 p.m. after she was struck by a car.

Hospital authorities reported her condition as 'fair' Saturday morning before press time and added that there are apparently no broken bones.

The little girl was struck by a car as she crossed a street near her home at South Main and Avenue F. The driver of the vehicle took the youngster to the hospital.

Local Baseball Teams Compete For Trophies

Babe Ruth Baseball teams in the Muleshoe area are again competing for championship trophies to be awarded by Aetna Life & Casualty.

General Agent J.L. Roe, head of the company's life division at Lubbock, said his office will present trophies to winners of Babe Ruth district play-offs in the area as part of a national Aetna-Babe Ruth awards program.

Countrywide, Aetna Life & Casualty will present more than 700 team and individual trophies to district, state and regional champions, and to competitors in the Babe Ruth World Series to be held at Brawley, Calif., August 21-29.

UP-UP-AND AWAY--Caught just as he prepares, unintentionally, to go over the top, is this young bareback bronc rider at the Earth Rodeo Thursday night. Thrills and spills such as this marked the three-day 26th Annual Earth Rodeo. Several local youths were entered in the rodeo, most of them making good times and good rides. The field of entries covered top names in the rodeo circuit.

New Grain Loan Structure Described

COLLEGE STATION -- No longer is there a terminal loan rate system for "terminal price oriented grains." The old system has been replaced by a more efficient, more economical county loan rate structure, John J. Seibert, Extension grain marketing specialist, said.

The new system eliminates terminal loan rates and establishes county rates that consider terminal market price relationships, cash prices received by farmers, export marketing patterns and other factors which involve grain marketing.

The system will be in effect for the 1970 crop of grain sorghum, wheat, barley, rye, and flaxseed.

Such a system will have the concept of "county plus" with respect to determining loan and settlement values for grain. This is in contrast to the "terminal minus" previously used, the specialist said. County loan rates are available through the county ASCS and county agents.

A USDA release on grain sorghum stated that in past years, county price-support rates for grain sorghum were established by subtracting from the applicable terminal rate the domestic interstate rail freight rate or export freight rate and truck receiving and loading out charges listed under the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement (USGA). Changing conditions in marketing, transportation and international trade have made the terminal-based rate obsolete.

Under the new system, grain sorghum moved by rail to warehouse to the freight paid-in-plus USGA truck-receiving and rail loading-out charges which will be added to the rate for the county of origin. When it is shipped by truck or barge, the loan will be based on the county rate where stored; and, when shipped by truck or barge to a designated terminal warehouse, the rate will be that of the county in which the warehouse is located.

The revision in the seven cent minimum price markup will bring the minimum resale price for grain sorghum and corn more nearly in line with the anticipated future relationship between the national average loan rates for these two crops.

Adjustments of county loan rates from the 1969 level were made to more nearly reflect historical price relationships, to minimize sharp price breaks between counties, and because of various freight rate changes.

followed the queen contest, with bareback bronc riding heading the list for openers. One injury was tabbed during the bareback riding, but the injured youth was not a rider. He was climbing the fence to help move out some bucking stock when a horse kicked him, breaking his leg. He was brought to West Plains Memorial Hospital in Muleshoe by Pearsons-Ellis-Singleton Funeral Home ambulance driver Herchel Hulcy.

Members of the Tullia Sheriff's Posse, who had challenged the Earth Roping Club riders for possession of the Pony Relay Race title, proved their point Thursday night as they regained the title and trophy lost to the Earth riders last year. They bested the Earth Roping Club, taking two straight races in a two-out-of-three race.

Rodeo action continued Friday and Saturday night, with a pancake supper by the Lions Club preceding the action each night.

Some of the top names in the rodeo circuit were entered in the varied events, with several states and towns represented.

er as a wealthy landowner, living in ease and comfort and doing relatively little for it."

He added that in recent years some $500 million, about 14 percent of total farm subsidies, have gone to less than one half of one percent of the total farmers receiving subsidies.

Bailey County ASCS Manager Daniel said the entire county would feel the effect of a "drastically reduced" economy if the House of Representatives approves the Senate approved farm subsidy measure.

Many reformers get confused and think the only way to save the world is to make everyone else like themselves.

The less you work the less you want to work.

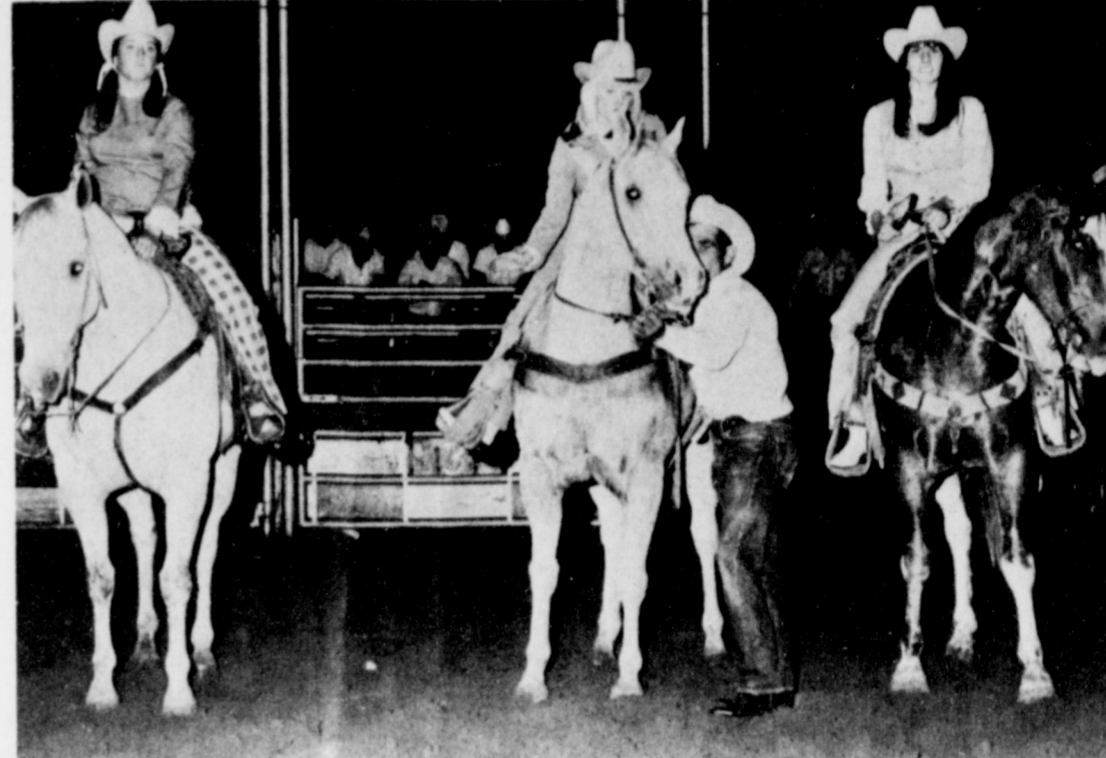

EDITORIAL A Political Issue

For several years, the protracted "strike" of table grape workers against grape growers in California has periodically been highlighted in the news. The public has been urged to support a boycott of California table grapes. The true facts of the whole sad story strip away the misleading appearance of a righteous cause carried forward against odds in the grape fields.

The grape boycott is a political, rather than an economic, issue through which consumers have been deprived of the right of free choice in the marketplace and a number of grape growers forced into bankruptcy. Moreover, calling the action in the grape fields a "strike" is a misnomer. Very few workers have rallied to the cause--perhaps only two percent of the total work force. During the years of the "strike", table grapes have continued to be picked. The provisions of those contracts that some of the grape growers have signed with the organizers are chilling--contracts that incidentally were not submitted to a vote of the grape pickers. Among other things, a closed shop is imposed, no provision is made for elections or worker determination of any kind, and no one can be discharged for incompetence. One clause requires continuation of the union contract as a condition of selling, leasing or transferring the owner's property. There is much more in a similar restrictive vein.

The threat to agriculture and to the future of food and fiber production, posed by the pressures exerted against California table grape growers, is beyond calculation. In recognition of the threat, a spokesman for the American Farm Bureau Federation declares, "We will work towards legislation that will protect farmers against political boycotts and strikes at harvest time; and that will protect farm workers in the selection or rejection of union representation in federally-supervised secret ballot elections." It is time that millions of consumers knew the facts about the California table grape "strike".

EARTH RODEO QUEEN AND RUNNERS-UP--Welda Barton, left, was first runner-up, Joan Dudley, center, was named Queen and Jennifer Myers, right was second runner-up for the 26th Annual Earth Rodeo Queen. They are pictured in the arena as they were recognized and honored during the rodeo Thursday night. The queen reigns over the three-day rodeo each year and relinquishes her crown on the following year to a new queen.

GOOD FISHING--Lee Pool, right, is pictured with Mrs. Pearl Hammock of Muleshoe and Carl Hammock of Dallas, Ore., at Winchester Bay, Ore. They are displaying two of the six-pound salmon they caught while fishing in that area recently. Pool reported he caught a three-pound flounder, a fish that is 'not supposed' to be found in waters there. He said he brought home a suitcase of frozen fish from the 10-day fishing trip. Pool commented, "I fished in some of the deepest 20 feet holes in water you ever saw."

Two Accidents Injure Two During June

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated two accidents on rural highways in Bailey County during the month of June, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area. These crashes resulted in two persons injured and an estimated property damage of $1,500.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first six months of 1970 shows a total of 18 accidents resulting in no persons killed, 11 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $13,048.00. During the first six months of 1970 in Texas, there were 1,482 traffic deaths which was twelve more as compared to the 1,470 traffic deaths for the same period of 1969. However, if past trends continue, the last six months will far exceed the first six months; as a matter of fact, the last six months of 1969 there were 2,081 traffic deaths. The Sergeant stated, "With a record of 38 traffic victims over the July 4 weekend, Texas is well on its way to establishing an all time record of traffic deaths in 1970."

Price Boosts Farm-Ranch Loan Program

The House Agriculture Committee approved two bills of interest to Panhandle residents Thursday. One, sponsored by Congressman Bob Price, will allow Farmers Home Administration to make maximum farm and ranch purchase loans of $100,000. The present limit is $60,000.

In testimony on his bill, Price pointed out that few economical farm or ranch units can be purchased for less than $60,000. "The Agriculture Department has stated that the average investment for 200 to 400 acres of land alone might run from $40,000 to $160,000. This means that the present relatively high acquisition and development costs of land render the $60,000 FHA loan limit obsolete. This increase is really quite modest when viewed in the light of farm sector credit needs," Price said.

A portion of the bill to raise the operating loan limit from $35,000 to $50,000 was deleted by the committee on a 15 to 9 vote.

The second bill will permit custom meat processors to sell inspected meat products without losing their custom processing exemption.

"At present the law prohibits a custom processor from selling so much as a can of soup made from meat even though the meat and product has been fully inspected. In many areas, particularly sparsely populated rural areas, the same establishment slaughters animals for their owners and sells groceries and meats. The Federal Meat Inspection Act requires these establishments to give up their retail business or the custom processing," Price added.

We would like to thank everyone for a tremendous 4th of July Celebration. We have to include everyone, because everyone in and around Muleshoe had a hand in making it a success. Adult Drivers School Bound For Violations

AUSTIN -- Adult motorists ticketed for moving traffic violations may soon be going to night school to learn better methods of getting from "here" to "there" in an automobile. Thirty new sets of driver training equipment will be provided to the 20 regional education service centers across the state to teach students by day and adult traffic violators at night, following approval of the plan Monday (July 6) by the State Board of Education.

Funds for the equipment and supplementary educational programs, expected to total $698,100, will be provided by the National Highway Safety Bureau through the Governor's office. "The new equipment, which will be mobile enough to transfer from one school district to another within the region, will help us concentrate on the classroom phase of instruction," Glenn Peavy, Agency driver education program director, points out.

The multi-media systems will include films designed to put students in simulated hazardous as well as route highway and city driving situations while in the classroom -- and then teach them how to make the correct decisions to avoid collision. Adult drivers may be assigned to special training on the classroom units by city, county, or state courts.

Adventures in

The story of P. K. Wrigley and

Wrigley chewing gum was so well known and had such a large distribution with the advertising, save that expense and make that much additional profit.

"I could ask the conductor of this train the same question," replied the financial genius, "This train is now going 60 miles per hour, so why not disconnect the engine? Advertising in merchandising is what a locomotive is to a train. It is the power which keeps it going."
