Two School Children Killed By Train Order Part Of Demobilization Of CWA By May 1

Car, Driven By Teacher, Struck At Eagle Ford

DALLAS (AP)—Two school children were killed and their teacher critically injured Friday when the automobile in which they were riding ran into the side of a fast passenger train at a crossing west of Dallas.

Evelyn Wayne Dalton, 8, and her sister, Mary Nell, 7, lost their lives.

Mrs. Pearl Newton, who had picked them up a short distance from the tracks, suffered severe head injuries. The automobile was demolished. The station agent said Mrs. Newton apparently did not see the train approaching.

The automobile struck the engine at its drive wheels. The Eagle Ford school, nearby, was closed after the accident.

820 Howard Farmers Sign Cotton Forms

Campaign Under Direction Of County Agent Closed February 15

Howard county farmers rallied beyond expectations to the 1934-35 cotton acreage reduction campaign.

Following a check up Friday morning, County Agent O. P. Griffin announced that 820 contracts, representing 38,500 acres had been signed before the campaign closed February 15.

The acreage reduction campaign originally was to have closed January 31 but time was extended to February 15 and the limit per acre was lowered from 100 to 75 pounds.

Griffin had originally expected to sign only 800 contracts. He revised his estimate downward when many landlords turned in all their farms under one contract.

Total acreage affected by the contracts was far in excess of that anticipated by Griffin and his committee.

The check up was accomplished at a meeting of county and community committeemen held in the county court room.

Peace Seen For Austria; Riots Cease

Washington By George Durno

Frank Roosevelt will take several gigantic rabbits out of his hat before Congress folds up. Watch it happen.

Federal integration of power under a new Power Commission is about to be consummated. The country is to be divided into three power districts—the territory east of the Alleghenies, the Middle West and the Pacific Coast. The new Power Commission is to boss coordination of power systems, storage of water for flood control, and river improvement related to power development.

Lined up with the plan are the St. Lawrence waterway treaty and early construction of power plants along that river. Federal regulation of power concerns will include supervision of rates and profits. Private corporations will be compelled to cooperate with federal plants wherever public interest demands it.

Senator Dill of Washington is shaping the bills necessary to put this across.

Stipborn battles between socialist and government forces, which took from a thousand to fifteen hundred lives, was ended.

Rumor told of a wholesale assassination plot against Chancellor Dollfus, and two vice chancellors. Socialist headquarters issued orders calling for a campaign of sabotage against utilities and public services, and for a general guerrilla warfare.

Socialist snipers Friday had taken to underground tunnels of Vienna, but no disorders were reported.

Boy Scouts To Collect Articles On Wednesday

If you have any old pots, pans, bedsteads, springs, cooking utensils, bed clothing, shoes, discarded personal clothing, start piling them up for the Boy Scouts of Big Spring to collect Wednesday.

All materials gathered by the scouts will be used for relief purposes.

They will make a thorough canvass of the entire city on Wednesday, calling at every home. They will be performing the "good turn" asked of them by President Franklin Roosevelt.

Work of the boys can be facilitated greatly if people will have their contributions already collected when the boys call on Wednesday.

General Retail Code Authority To Be Effected

A meeting will be held here the latter part of next week to form a code authority board to have jurisdiction over businesses operating under the general retail code.

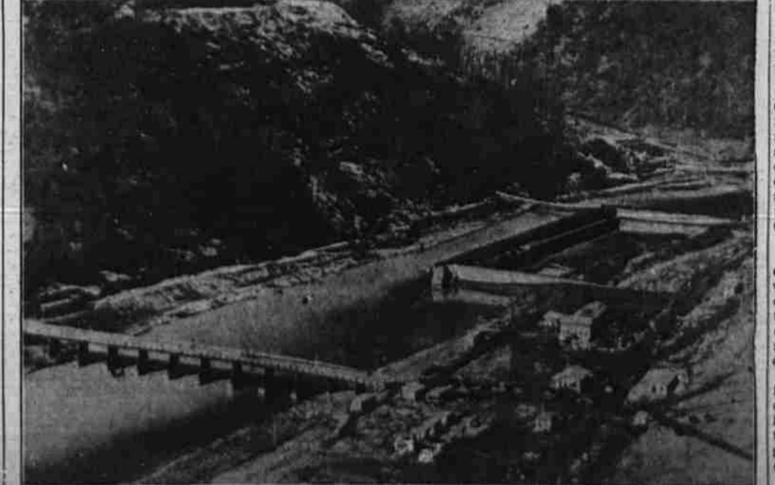

The meeting, which will probably be called on Thursday or Friday, is being convened on request from the state compliance director, Ernest L. Tutt of Houston.

Each line of business affected by the general retail code is supposed to have a representative on the code authority board. Prior to the formation of the board, each business should familiarize itself with hour, wage, and fair practice rulings of its code.

The code authority board will hear complaints of violations and infractions and if it fails to adjust differences, they are referred to state headquarters, from whence there is no appeal.

Among the lines of business to be affected by the code authority board are retail furniture, hardware, clothing and furnishes, dry goods, shoes, variety stores, and music merchants.

After that, it is scheduled to be accelerated until the force of 4,000,000 men and women have been demobilized by May 1st.

The demobilization effects every state equally. All persons living in households where another member is working, whether public or private employment, will be dropped first.

Service By Airmail To Be Stopped

No Mail Accepted Unless Delivery Be Made By Monday Night

Temporary discontinuance of airmail service through Big Spring has been confirmed by George Pfeuffer, local terminal manager of American Airways.

Pfeuffer received instructions to receive no mail for transport by airplane that can not be delivered at its destination by midnight Monday.

Discontinuance of the mail service does not affect the American Airways passenger schedule, he said.

Word is expected by Pfeuffer soon about new equipment to be flown on this route. Understanding is that the tri-motored Fordes will be replaced by Condors, equipped with 13 Pullman-type berths for night flying and having a cruising speed of 185 miles per hour. They will be flown to Cleveland and will afford sixteen hour connection with New York City.

On other runs, it was indicated, the line will fly single-motored Vultees with cruising speed of 225 miles per hour.

W. B. Currie Says If Rain Comes By June Crops Can Be Made

W. B. (Bill) Currie says he has no fears for the coming of rain in this section.

"We have always gotten it quite in time last year to make a good crop. If we get rain as late as April, May or June of this year, we will be sitting pretty. Rainfall by that date will be soon enough for the ground to get plenty of soaking, so that the crops may grow. All this stuff you hear about rain not coming in time is all the bunk—and there is no reason to get alarmed, as we have nearly always got it," said Mr. Currie.

New Signs Warn Against Parking Cars

Ordinance Regulating Parking Of Cars To Be Enforced

New signs went down on downtown streets Friday as a warning against center parking.

Numerous complaints led to the announcement that the ordinance against double center parking will be enforced more rigidly.

Main is the lone downtown street on which center parking will be allowed. On that street it is permitted for unloading purposes and trucks and other vehicles parking in the center must stay within the ascribed lanes.

Traffic in the business district has been congested many times each day lately due to center of double parking on narrow streets.

M. Segal, formerly of this city, was in town Friday.

Shooting At Granger Claims Two Officers

GEORGETOWN (AP)—Two murder charges were filed against Louis Cernok, a farm hand, as officers investigated the shooting at Granger Thursday which cost the lives of Henry Lindsey, city marshal, and Sam Moore, constable.

Lindsey was killed instantly. Moore died later at a Taylor hospital following a shooting in the justice of peace court after Cernok had been arrested.

Excitement against the farmer had quieted down Friday.

'Ma' Submits Bill Giving State Right To Condemn Lands

A bill giving the state authority to condemn land for right of way purposes has been submitted by Governor Miriam Ferguson to the legislature, now convened in special session.

Progress of the measure is being keenly watched here since passage of it would make possible the opening of Highway No. 9 through Glasscock, thereby connecting Sterling and Howard county segments.

Should action on the proposed bill lag, C. T. Watson, local chamber of commerce manager, will join Culbertson Deal, San Angelo board of development official, in a fight at Austin to have it converted into law before the special session is ended.

Cleaning

A clique of lawyers practicing before the Bureau of International Revenue is slated for dissolution.

When Secretary Morgenthau took over the Treasury one of the first things he discovered was that a certain group of attorneys had held an inside track at the Bureau of Internal Revenue for years.

They call them "lives informally." "The Washington 'tax bar.'" Handling income cases through the short cuts their internal connections of long-standing affords, they have lapped up the cream of this lucrative practice.

Henry, Jr., decided to mop up this "bar."

First National, West Texas National In Merger

Named First National Bank In Big Spring

New Institution Opens For Business Tuesday February 13th

PINER AND PRICE ARE ACTIVE HEADS

L. S. McDowell, Chairman Of Board; B. Reagan, President, Inactive

The First National Bank in Big Spring will be the name of the city's new banking institution opening here Tuesday morning, February 13th, in the West Texas National bank building, as a result of the merger of the First National bank and the West Texas National bank, which became effective at the close of business Saturday, February 10, officers of both institutions announced Saturday.

The comptroller of the currency at Washington, D. C., on February 2nd issued the approved charter, and has given the new charter number as 13984.

As Monday, February 12, is a legal holiday, the new bank will open for business Tuesday, February 13th. The task of moving money, books and records of the old First National to the West Texas bank building will be done over the week-end.

Officers of the new institution will be as follows:

L. S. McDowell—Chairman of the board.
B. Reagan—President.
Robt. T. Piner—Vice President.
R. L. Price—Vice president and cashier.

R. V. Middleton—Assistant cashier.
E. H. Hurt—Assistant cashier.
Ira L. Thurman—Assistant cashier.

Following will be directors: L. S. McDowell, Mrs. Dora Roberts, B. Reagan, Robt. T. Piner, R. L. Price, Ellis Douthitt, J. B. Collins. All of the officers will be active except the chairman of the board and president, it was announced.

Capital $100,000
The capital of the bank is $100,000, surplus $40,000 and undivided profits $10,000, all fully paid. The deposits in the bank are approximately $1,200,000.

Merger Discussed For Year
Consolidation of these two pioneer banks here is the consummation of plans which the directors of both institutions have been considering for a year or more, and was finally agreed upon solely because it was felt that the elimination of one bank from the town was advisable, would be beneficial to the entire trade territory, and was also in line with the government's plan for fewer and stronger banks in every locality.

The combination brings together some of the most substantial financial interests in West Texas, in an institution with ample capital and whose assets are all sound and written down to actual present day values, it was said.

State National Buys Building
The State National Bank of this city has purchased the building occupied by the old First National, and will move into its new location about March 2nd, it was known.

The building on Main street occupied by the State National at the present time becomes the property of the old First National.

Some repairs to the old First National building will be made before the State National moves into the quarters about March 2nd, officers of the latter bank announced.

Death Comes To Pioneer Of Coahoma

Mrs. Naomi Shive, 62 Succumbs To Long Illness Here

Mrs. Naomi Gutherie Shive, 62, Coahoma, succumbed to a lengthy illness in a local hospital Saturday 11:30 a. m.

She had been confined to a hospital since early January. Born in Lea county, Texas, in 1872, Mrs. Shive became a member of the Presbyterian church at Tanglewood in her early childhood. She was a charter member of the Coahoma Presbyterian church and her name figures prominently in the progress of that institution.

Her husband, John Willis Shive, well known pioneer who brought his wife to Howard county and Coahoma in 1894, died in August 1899 and is buried in the Coahoma cemetery. They were married in 1887.

The body of Mrs. Shive will lie in state at the Eberly Funeral Home until 2 p. m. Sunday when it is to be taken to the Coahoma Presbyterian church for last rites.

Surviving children are Mrs. Fred Hale of Coahoma, Mrs. Leon Moffett of Big Spring and Mrs. Frank Lovelace of Coahoma and Percy and Dewitt Shive of Coahoma. Another son, Ray, is deceased. She leaves one brother, R. V. Gutherie of Coahoma, the last of his family.

C. E. and A. L. Shive, nephews of the late Mr. Shive will be among the many attending from here. Clarence, Will and J. Rowland, Lorraine, nephews of Mrs. Shive will attend from Lorraine.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Sunday at the Eberly Funeral Home.

Buckeye Loses Its Charm For Watson

C. T. Watson's presidential buckeye is turning Jonah.

While in Washington recently lobbying for local interests, Watson called on C. A. Cobb, director of the cotton division of A.A.A. On Cobb's desk was a box of buckeyes gathered from the White House lawn.

Shining one profusely, Cobb gave it to Watson with the promise, "It will make things happen your way from now on."

Watson placed it, according to tradition, with his left hand in his left pocket.

Immediately afterwards he missed his plane. Friday he received word of President Roosevelt's action in cancelling air mail contracts which will probably nullify the success of his efforts in obtaining a grant for airport improvements here.

AUTO LICENSE FEE EXTENDED TO MARCH 31

AUSTIN (AP)—Governor Ferguson Friday signed the bill extending the time for payment of motor vehicle registration fees to March 31st.

It became effective immediately. The law also set the same date as a permanent annual time limit for registering motor vehicles. It replaces the old statute that required payment of fees before midnight February 1st.

Under terms of the new law persons who failed to register vehicles before February 1st would not be assessed a penalty. Those who paid penalties are to be refunded.

Johnson New Director Of State Relief

Former Austin City Manager Named To Westbrook Post

AUSTIN (AP)—Adam Johnson, former city manager of Austin, Monday was named director of state unemployment relief by the Texas Relief Commission.

Johnson was elected over J. P. Reed, Galveston, who had been acting as director since resignation of Lawrence Westbrook.

Reed immediately tendered his resignation and refused appointment as assistant director. He said "politics was responsible for selection of another man."

President Asks Scouts To Gather Old Things, Clothing For Needy

One hundred and one scouts and scouters assembled in the city auditorium Saturday 11 a. m. to hear President Franklin D. Roosevelt issue a "Call to Service."

Gathering of local scouts and scouters was a part of the national mobilization program planned for Saturday by Boy Scouts of America when nearly one million of the organization were due to hear the President's plea for a "national good turn."

Speaking briefly and to the point President Roosevelt, who has accomplished the program, said 18 days should be allowed for accomplishment of the "good turn."

Chief Scout Executive Dr. James M. West, in suggesting means of accomplishing the program, said 18 days should be allowed for accomplishment of the "good turn."

Paying tribute to scouting, President Roosevelt said "the aim of scouting can be summed up in one phrase: To build up better citizenship. I believe we have contributed greatly toward that objective."

The members of the West Ward Parent-Teachers Association drew out the largest number of parents in the history of its organization Thursday evening when it observed Father's night with a party, in connection with its annual observance of Founder's Day.

So many mothers and fathers were present that one room could not hold the crowd.

Miss Chloe Stripling's room had charge of the program and presented the third and fourth grade pupils in a series of choral numbers and songs, including "Little Moon" and "Bring Back My Bonnie to Me."

The members of the Rhythm Band gave two enjoyable numbers, one of them a Valentine number. The closing number was a pageant depicting the history of the organization. A large birthday cake lighted with 37 candles was placed on a table spread with a beautiful lace cloth. Six women of the local group came in carrying candles and representing different phases of P-T-A work.

Each made a short talk telling the group what the P-T-A had accomplished along this line.

Mrs. Roy Tucker, president, told the origin and history of the P-T-A. Mrs. W. D. Cornelson represented the national congress; Mrs. Raymond Winn, the state organization; Mrs. Frances Youngblood the general council; Mrs. Tom Roberts, health; Mrs. Johnson, recreation; Mrs. L. L. Gulley, vocational guidance.

There was no business session. After the program the guests were served slices of cake and coffee. Favors were small Valentine in the P-T-A colors of blue and gold.

Loan Concern Set Up To Aid Debt Payers

Organization Would Take Care Of Delinquent Accounts

A loan company with the purpose of aiding in the payment of delinquent accounts has been organized here.

Capitalization has been completed and the company will be ready for business Monday in the Retail Merchants Association office. L. A. Eubanks, head of the association, will be in charge of the loaning facilities.

"If a person is employed and owes some accounts," said Eubanks, "and wants to pay but cannot pay all at once, this company will pay all accounts and make a contract with the debtor to pay a stated amount each pay day and make the payments so small they can be met."

Merchants realize, continued Eubanks, that many have been thrown out of employment and have become delinquent in their accounts. Many of this group have now obtained jobs and wish to clear up their obligations, he said.

No money will be loaned for future obligations or on automobiles or anything other than for payment of delinquent accounts, he asserted. "We want," he said, "to help people get out of debt."

A similar organization was established in San Angelo in 1929 and has loaned almost a quarter million dollars. Abilene organized such a company the same year and has loaned $180,000.

Forsan Wins County Cage Championship

Forsan experienced no great difficulty in winning the county chess championship Saturday evening over Coahoma, 21-19.

Knott junior girls won the county title for their division by beating out Richland, 28-8.

The chief executive was introduced by Walter Head, president of Boy Scouts of America. Mr. Head in turn accepted the President's challenge.

Scouts heard a few words from Lord Robert Baden-Powell, chief scout of the world and founder of the organization.

George Gentry, chairman of the Big Spring district and who presided over the local mobilization, said he had called a meeting of scouters of the district for Monday 5 p. m. on the Settles mezzanine.

He stressed the importance of district committees and troop committees being in attendance as well as scoutmasters and assistants. Dr. Lee Rogers is activities chairman, Dr. M. H. Bennett, finance, D. W. Webber, promotion and W. C. Blankenship, court of honor. Stanton, Coahoma and Forsan are included in the Big Spring district.

Plans will be completed Monday to carry out the "good turn" here, he said. Gentry expressed a desire to do the job quickly.

He tendered thanks on behalf of scouts to the city for use of the auditorium and to Anderson Brothers Music company for installation of a radio for the occasion.

City Manager E. V. Spence addressed the scouts briefly.

Troops represented at the meeting Saturday were: Troop No. 1, 11 scouts and 2 scouters; Troop No. 2, 8 scouts and 3 scouters; Troop No. 3, 14 scouts and 3 scouters; Troop No. 4, 12 scouts and two scouters; Troop No. 5, 23 scouts and 1 scouter; Troop No. 7, 14 scouts and 1 scouter. There were eight other visitors, except for scouters present. Two from Troop No. 1 arrived too late to be counted.

The French Federation of Labor, which called the strike, estimated it is 8 per cent effective.

Violence often seemed near, but only a few minor clashes between workers and pickets was reported. The strike was called amid reports that Premier Doumergue would ask dictatorial powers. It was a gesture of protest against any resort to fascist control.

Boy Training Safety Move, Says Pastor

Teachers and pupils are entering this week their seventh month of school work. Mr. and Mrs. Miller certainly have been very successful in spite of having nearly eighty pupils in ten grades.

Unless the school term is lengthened to a nine months term instead of the eight as has been planned, school will be out next month. A large number of the patrons are hoping for a nine month term as the children will be out doing nothing, as there will not be any crops or anything to employ the children. It certainly is hoped another room can be added to the building and another teacher employed for another year, as there is too much work here for two teachers. The school really needs four teachers.

The farmers certainly are becoming discouraged here about the continued dry weather, especially those that are having to haul stock water. The past crop being almost a complete failure, they feel that by keep farming they will make a crop this year.

The small patches of grain that were sowed here for winter grazing are nearly all dead for the lack of moisture.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and others from here attended a good singing at Knott Sunday afternoon.

The Sunday School attendance isn't very good, because of bad weather and so many don't have ways to get there.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller attended a supper given in honor of Knott teachers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Shortes Thursday evening. Those enjoying this affair were Mr. and Mrs. Miller, teachers at Brown, Mr. Jackson, Miss Floy McGregor, Miss Helen McCalle, Mrs. Goolsby, teachers at Knott. The others were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Castle and son, T. J. Mr. and Mrs. Earle Castle and daughter, Miss Ila, Mr. and Mrs. Lell Castle and Irland Martin and son.

There is an epidemic of colds here. Several pupils have missed school a few days on account of the epidemic.

People are still moving in here. There were two new pupils in school this week.

Tax Collector Is Refunding Car Penalty

County Tax Collector Mabel Robinson began Monday refunding penalty to more than 200 motorists who had registered cars after February 1.

Time for registering motor vehicles was extended last week by legislative action until April 1.

Highway patrol officers, while having scores to register cars, did not file any charges against drivers for unregistered vehicles after February 1.

Application for a refund of penalties paid must be made by March 15, according to law. If a car has been driven since January 1, a full year's license fee must be paid, Miss Robinson said. To date, 2,900 passenger cars have been registered in Howard county for this year.

Barrow And Moll Shoot Out Of Trap

Hamilton With Desperado, Route Officers With Gunfire

SPRINGFIELD, Mo.—Clyde Barrow, Texas killer and his gang of desperadoes including the cigar-smoking gunman, Bonnie Parker, shot their way out of an officers' trap near Reeds Spring Monday afternoon.

Nearing the outskirts of Reeds Spring the outlaws saw City Marshal Dale Davis in the highway and turned back. They left the highway, taking to a country lane, where they were bottled in by the three officers and Willard Kliese, Springfield stockman.

Hamilton and the two unknown bandits climbed from the car and the poorly armed officers. As the opened fire with machine gun on officers sought cover, one of their cars was disabled by the machine gun fire of the desperadoes, who quickly re-entered their car and sped southward.

Five Indicted For Breaking NRA Oil Code

Federal Grand Jury Opens Way For Test To Supreme Court

TYLER, (UP)—Federal grand jury Tuesday returned five indictments against East Texas oil concerns charging violations of sections of the NRA petroleum code, designed to provide a test case before the Supreme Court of constitutionality of the code.

Indictments charged violations of that part of the code which Federal Judge Bryant held invalid Monday, that of oil companies which have not signed the code and are doing an interstate business.

Nine men were charged in the indictments Tuesday, some with conspiracy.

All indictments were returned with names of the plaintiff as the United States of America. Defendants were ordered to enter their plea Tuesday.

Negroes Given Death Penalty

Three Convicted For Attack On Mississippi White Girl

HERNANDO, Miss. (UP)—As an angry crowd of men sought in vain to enter the courthouse, three negroes who confessed to criminal assaults on a 17-year-old school girl were sentenced late Monday to die on the gallows here March 16.

Adjutant General Thomas J. Grayson and a detachment of national guardsmen started the prisoners back to Jackson for safekeeping on a train which departed at 6:51 p. m. Several groups of men, muttering threats against the negroes, were still in evidence, but they gave the officers no trouble.

During the trial at least two attempts were made to break through the barred wire entanglements erected about the courthouse by national guardsmen, and one elderly man cut his hand against the fence.

Three hundred and fifty heavily armed militiamen stood on guard duty all day.

The conviction of the negroes, Ernest McGhee, 23; Johnny Jones, 23, and Isaac Howard, 25, came swiftly. A detachment of 150 guardsmen arrived with them early Monday in a steel-barred train in which the trip was made from Jackson where they had been held for safekeeping.

Shortly before noon, the grand jury returned indictments against them. They pleaded guilty. Since the state demanded the death penalty, a trial was unnecessary.

The jury was out seven minutes and returned with a verdict, "guilty, as charged."

Miss Jeanette Pickle Talks Before E. L. L. Parliamentary Club

The Emma Lard Longan Parliamentary Club had the largest attendance of the winter Friday evening when its members came out to vote on business matters and to hear Miss Jeanette Pickle speak.

The members voted to reduce the number of the quorum to five. Mrs. M. E. Tatum conducted the parliamentary drill. A nominating committee was named to present officers for the next three months.

Present were: Meses. Allen Hull, A. W. Underwood, L. Lucille New, B. F. Willis, M. C. Stuiting, Ruth Althart, E. W. Anderson, R. L. Bull, Roy Pearce, George W. Davis, Beth Parsons, Alfred Moody, H. B. Faw, M. E. Tatum, R. F. Blum, J. Fontaine Blair, Bob Stum, J. L. Milner; Messes. Jessie Morgan, Lillian and Wynnie Dell Morgan, and charged it.

Shettlesworth Called Again As Minister

First Christian Church Extends Pastorate For Three Years

Announcement was made to the First Christian church congregation Sunday morning that the board had unanimously extended a call to Rev. S. J. Shettlesworth as pastor for three more years.

Rev. Shettlesworth came here from Breckenridge in the spring of 1933, succeeding Rev. D. R. Lindley, who was called to a pastorate in New Orleans.

Pastorate of Rev. Shettlesworth here has been marked with singular success. During his tenure the church debt and local obligations have been paid, membership has enjoyed a 15 per cent increase and subscription to the church budget has boomed.

Members of the board describe the church as having one of the "finest spirits and fellowship ever seen" in the body.

Rev. Shettlesworth and family were the recipients of congratulations and expressions of appreciation following the announcement that his pastorate had been given a basis of permanency.

Glass Jar Meat Canning Classes Now Being Held

Miss Elma Carlton, representative of the Ball Fruit Jar Company gave a demonstration this afternoon and will give another Tuesday afternoon at the Big Spring Hardware Co., especially stressing the advantage of canning meats in glass jars as opposed to cans. She especially urged women not to use tin can rules for glass.

The demonstration today was put on with steam pressure cookers. She told how to make meat taste fresh, after having been canned, by not pre-cooking, but merely steaming it and exhausting the first three pounds, thus removing waste gases and obnoxious fleshy odors before the actual processing. She also urged women to bring the pressure up to 15 pounds instead of ten, as some people have suggested. Fifteen pounds is necessary to kill active and inactive bacteria in meat, she said, and all extension department bulletins stress the advantage of the full 15 pounds pressure.

She gave a time table for canning meats, poultry, fish and game by glass, all for 60 minutes at 15 pounds pressure and told how to prepare the meat beforehand.

Tuesday she will give individual instructions in addition to class demonstration. The hour is 2 o'clock. She invites women who can not attend to send for pamphlets concerning canning in glass jars and she will gladly mail these out.

Levy, Edward Hart, J. C. Smith, J. H. Hurt, J. A. Fletcher, S. H. Cowan, Herman Sparenberg, W. H. Gilliland, F. W. James."

Nearly 44 Years Old

The bank was opened for business on this date at the same site it has occupied these forty-four years, though in the beginning in a much smaller banking house than it occupies today. In later years the building was rebuilt and remodeled to accommodate the growing needs of the institution. The First National, the oldest bank in Howard county and this section of West Texas, would have been in existence for forty-four years on April 19, 1934.

Six Presidents During its existence the bank has been served by six presidents, as follows:

- W. H. Gilliland, 1890 to 1894.
- Edward Hart, 1894 to 1895.
- J. I. McDowell, 1895 to 1908.
- R. C. Sanderson, 1908 to 1909.
- A. E. Pool, 1909 to 1920.
- L. S. McDowell, 1920 to February 10, 1934.

Three Living Three of the above presidents are living today, as follows: R. C. Sanderson, of this city, A. E. Pool, now of Littlefield, and L. S. McDowell, Big Spring.

Original Signers Another significant feature of the original organization of this bank is the organization of the new bank is that three of the original signers of the First National charter are living, and two of them have signed the new charter for the First National Bank in Big Spring. The original signers of the old First National charter are Dr. J. H. Hurt, R. C. Sanderson, and L. S. McDowell. The latter two signed the new charter.

FORMER PRESIDENT

R. C. SANDERSON
R. C. Sanderson, one of the original founders and signers of the charter of the old First National bank, and president of that institution from 1908 to 1909, has been identified with banking interests in this city for practically forty-four years. He was one of two signers of the old First National charter that affixed his signature to the charter for the First National Bank in Big Spring. Mr. Sanderson is not identified in any official capacity in the new organization, but is a shareholder. He says he intends to always call Big Spring home, but that he will divide his time between here and Fort Worth, where lower climate appears to be more beneficial.

Became Bank Head In 1921 Mr. McDowell, although being president of the First National, has never been actively engaged in the conduct of its affairs. He has extensive ranch holdings in this and other counties that have demanded his attention. He served as president since January 1, 1921, succeeding A. E. Pool.

R. L. Price Active R. L. Price, vice president and cashier of the First National bank, and made vice president and cashier of the First National Bank in Big Spring, was first employed by the old First National bank as

DIRECTOR

ELLIS DOUTHITT
Ellis Douthitt, attorney of Abilene, and director of the old First National bank, becomes director in the new institution, The First National Bank in Big Spring. Mr. Douthitt has done a great deal of work in bringing about the merger of the two institutions, especially a large amount of the detailed and legal work required in the merger of banking institutions. Mr. Douthitt is well known in Big Spring, having formerly resided here.

BOARD CHAIRMAN

L. S. McDOWELL
L. S. McDowell, pioneer resident of Big Spring, was one of the original organizers of the old First National Bank in 1890, and has been identified in the ranching and banking business in West Texas for a long term of years. Mr. McDowell assumes the position of chairman of the board for the new institution, The First National Bank in Big Spring. While being inactive in the conduct of the business of the bank, Mr. McDowell's keen judgment in banking and business affairs fully qualifies him in this position. Mr. McDowell served as president of the old First National Bank since January 1, 1921, and also was a director of the institution.

PRESIDENT

B. REAGAN
B. Reagan, who for thirty-one years has been identified with the West Texas National as a shareholder, director and president, has been named president of the new bank, The First National Bank in Big Spring, an inactive officer. Mr. Reagan, a pioneer citizen of Big Spring, served as president of the West Texas National since 1924, succeeding W. P. Edwards. He has always taken an active part in the affairs of the bank.

DIRECTOR

J. B. COLLINS
J. B. Collins, of Collins & Garrett, Loans and Finance, secretary of the Building & Loan Association and a member of the Big Spring school board, has been made director of the First National Bank in Big Spring, and is one of Big Spring's most successful young business men.

J. M. Cunningham Served As Bank's First President

The West Texas National Bank was organized February 28, 1903. J. M. Cunningham was president; S. W. Moore, vice president; and R. D. Matthews, cashier. These three men, with G. L. Brown, Will P. Edwards, W. R. Cole, and B. Jones, constituted the first Board of Directors.

The bank opened for business on Main street, just across Second street north of the present bank building. The bank prospered from the very start, declaring its first dividend, 7 per cent, on Dec. 31, 1903.

In October 1903, the president, J. M. Cunningham, sold his stock, and W. H. Eddleman was elected president. Mr. Eddleman was not a resident of Big Spring, so vice-president, Moore, acted until W. P. Edwards was elected, in Jan. 1905. G. L. Brown was elected president January 1906 and served until January 1914, when W. P. Edwards was again chosen. Succeeding Mr. Edwards, in 1924, B. Reagan was elected. The three men having the largest number of years as president are G. L. Brown, W. P. Edwards, and B. Reagan.

city has purchased the building occupied by the old First National, and will move into its new location about March 2nd. It became known. The building on Main street occupied by the State National at the present time becomes the property of the old First National.

Some repairs to the old First National building will be made before the State National moves into the quarters about March 2nd, officers of the latter bank announced.

Merger Discussed For Year Consolidation of these two pioneer banks here is the consummation of plans which the directors of both institutions have been considering for a year or more, and was finally agreed upon solely because it was felt that the elimination of one bank from the town was advisable, would be beneficial to the entire trade territory, and was also in line with the government's plan for fewer and stronger banks in every locality. The combination brings together some of the most substantial financial interests in West Texas, in an institution with ample capital and whose assets are all sound and written down to actual present day values, it was said.

Traylor Dies In Chicago; Former Texan

Pneumonia Claims Banker, Who Was President First National, Chicago

CHICAGO, (AP)—Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First National bank and a candidate in 1932 for the democratic nomination for the presidency, died Wednesday night after a month's illness from pneumonia.

Death of the 55-year old banker and party leader occurred at 11:08 p. m. from an especially virulent type of the disease. He suffered seven relapses during his illness but rallied from each to the extent that doctors earlier today had given him a fair chance to recover.

Once in the east; hours this morning, Dr. William Cubbins, one of the five doctors attending Traylor said the banker's heart stopped for two minutes. Artificial respiration hastily was resorted to. Traylor most of the time during the last three weeks had been under an oxygen tent.

Born in a log cabin on the hillside of a Kentucky farm near Breeding, Traylor rose as a district school teacher, grocery clerk, self educated lawyer, and banker to organize the bank for international settlements at Basel, Switzerland, provided for under the Young plan to settle reparations arising out of German reparations payments.

Traylor as a reward for his work was mentioned for the democratic candidate for president in the 1932 race and obtained support from several states.

Traylor's wife, the former Dorothy Arnold Yerby of Hillsboro, Texas and their two children, Nancy and Melvin Alvah, Jr., were at the bedside when the banker died.

Doctors Sunday said they found present trielander's bacillus to complicate the pneumonia infection. The physician said at that time they could not be certain whether Traylor would recover or die, but today again held out hopes as he rallied from his last setback.

Until Traylor went to Europe in 1929 with Jackson S. Reynolds to represent the United States in organization of the international bank it was said that he had never been away from his work for more than three weeks at any one time. The 1929 task, however, consumed many months.

American Dies In Vienna As Riot Victim

Socialist Rebellion Fades Before Government; Italy Awaits Action

VIENNA (AP)—The socialist rebellion against the government of Chancellor Dollfus collapsed in the capital Thursday, but socialists continued to fight in the provinces, where, in some localities, they appeared to be worsting government troops.

Two thousand socialists surrendered in a group near Vienna early Thursday, but others were holding out. The death list is standing at between one thousand and fifteen hundred.

The socialists report 600 of their number killed. Meanwhile, O. Borovets, of New York, was informed Thursday by a cable that his daughter, Alice, 17, an American citizen, had died of wounds received in Vienna street fighting.

From Rome came reports that 75,000 Italian troops were ready for any eventuality and are posted at strategic points along the Austrian frontier.

"Why doesn't everybody buy the new Pontiac?"

The other day an owner said to us—"Why doesn't everybody buy the new Pontiac?" This owner had simply learned what we have known since we built this car, namely— that if everybody were completely familiar with the advantages of owning the new Pontiac, almost everybody would want it. Suppose, briefly, that everybody knew— that Pontiac is really a big car, with a wheelbase of 117 inches, and a Fisher body that is most generously roomy— that Pontiac has a big, smooth, powerful straight eight engine—really the equal in every way, of the very finest power plants— that Pontiac has "Knee-Action" wheels as developed by General Motors—

Catholic Priest as being somewhat similar to that of the West Point cadet, in that there were strict rules to be obeyed. He related that the task of receiving confessions some times presented a real problem. Replying to a question often put to him about a Catholic priest marrying, Father Francis said it was a restriction put on every candidate for the priesthood, due to the church rules, which state that a priest can better minister without the added responsibilities of a family. "To mention one of the biggest problems in my ministry in Big Spring," said Father Francis, "I would say that it is speaking and ministering to two people speaking different languages. As you probably know my duties are with the Mexican as well as the English-speaking people. "However, it is a real joy to work with the people of Big Spring, both in my church as well as others of other faiths."

other than the service clubs," said the toastmaster. Mr. Phillips said, as a member of the Rotary club committee, in preparing the program for the day, had asked Father Theo Francis, Catholic priest of Big Spring and a Rotarian, to speak on "The Life of a Catholic Priest."

It was stated Father Francis had previously rendered his classification talk at the Rotary club, both in Big Spring and Midland, but that he was sure the talk would do the Rotarians who had already heard it, plenty of good. "Life of a Catholic Priest"

In beginning his talk, Father Francis said that it was not his desire to attempt to "sell" the Catholic religion in any phase in making his remarks before the two clubs. He simply wanted to tell of some of the requirements, duties, hardships and problems that a Catholic priest encountered in his ministry as he had done on two other occasions before Rotary clubs. Father Francis stated the requirements in the schooling of a will be proved. The Federal Trade Commission has been at work quietly in the same filed since whiskey prices became so high that before repeal. The suspicion. A lot of New York brokers will go through the hoops in the Fischer Committee's attempt to expose pool operations in alcohol stocks. If this digging develops pay dirt it will give strength to the move to regulate stock exchange transactions. Because nothing makes Congress sorer than holding the price of booze.

Peekaboo—

The White House seems to be hazing George N. Peek. He was authorized to draw up a foreign trade plan on a huge scale to get rid of farm surpluses. Now the Export-Import Bank is organized to do this job with the Soviet Union, and Peek is out in the cold.

Robert Kelley represents the State Department as a director in this bank, and Chester C. Davis represents the AAA. Secretary Hull kicks against Peek's plan to transfer the consular service to a new foreign trade department.

NEW YORK By James McMullin

Acc— New York conservatives have played their ace. Now they're waiting to see whether it will be trumped.

Colonel Lindbergh's entry into the air mail controversy was sudden but for months he has been privately regarded by a select group of local big-timers as their best—and perhaps only—hope of starting a backfire of public opinion against the new deal.

Those who should know say several hints have been delicately conveyed to the Colonel in matters of national policy would be interesting to the public. Up to now Lindbergh has been deaf to such overtures—quietly but firmly maintaining that aviation was his business and his comments on other topics would be irrelevant. Then came the air mail blow-up—and it wasn't hard to convince the Long Eagle where his duty lay.

This doesn't imply even remotely that Lindbergh "sold out to the bankers." But his closest contacts of recent years have been conservative and naturally, he has absorbed their viewpoint. From the Board and Wall Streets angle it was a sweet break that raised an issue on which he was willing to speak.

Spearhead— Local anti-administration leaders intend to use Lindbergh—perhaps without his knowledge or consent—as a spearhead for a fresh attempt to mobilize public sentiment against the "Roosevelt revolution." Word will be passed to agents all over the country to start talking about Lindbergh's "keynote"—an appeal for fair play on behalf of established institutions under attack. The air mail contracts are a minor matter to these conservative generalists. They wanted a psychological symbol to combat psychology and think they've found it.

Some of them are so cocky as to predict that the tide will turn steadily from now on. Neutral observers doubt that even Lindbergh's popularity can achieve such a miracle. One thing is certain—the Colonel's name will be used freely from now on whether he likes it or not.

played upon. Then Morgenstern made his second gesture. He called upon Charles Burlingham, former president of the New York Bar association, to lend a hand.

Burlingham at the moment is in Washington revising the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

The new rules will be designed to electrify the rail in front of the "Tax Bar."

Test—

Local aviation circles are sitting tight and keeping their fingers crossed. Legal action in defense of their contracts is not their shining hope.

They have no hope of getting their subsidies back on any such lavish scale as before. They do expect—if they behave—a sufficient concession of federal aid to enable them to survive.

This will probably take the form of a direct federal grant—not a mail subsidy—to enable the transport lines to break even but not to show a profit unless they improve operating efficiency. Insiders say that any such step will be postponed until the managements of certain offending companies are thoroughly renovated.

New York gets word from excellent sources that Postmaster General Farley was opposed to such a sweeping abrogation of the contracts but that his recommendations were brushed aside.

The Texas oil decision favoring intra-state producers against the federal authorities confirmed the prediction of this column some weeks ago. The case will be rushed to the Supreme Court and is due to get there within ten days.

If the decision is upheld it wrecks the legality of a large group of recovery measures but even staunch New York conservatives anticipate a reversal. It will be a more important New Deal test than the Minnesota mortgage case.

The first day after the White House and Col. Lindbergh tangled on the air mail problem response admittedly was about 50-50. Telegrams and letters poured in taking sides.

None were made public because the White House didn't want to prolong the controversy. It nevertheless welcomed the wire from Col. Clarence Chamberlin, who has done a little ocean hopping on his own account.

O E Radford Heads Firm

Grocery Firm Elects Officers and Directors In Abilene

ABILENE—Omar E. Radford, 44, Thursday became president of the wholesale grocery house, J. M. Radford company, founded 51 years ago by his father, the late James M. Radford.

Radford's election to the presidency, by action of the stockholders in their annual session, was a piece of routine business. He has actively headed the company since his father's death last July 4, and will continue to do so. The stockholders then elected the new president's mother, Mrs. Bessie M. Radford, honorary chairman of the board (she was not present), and created two vice-presidencies. These were tendered to Rupert Harkrider, re-elected secretary of the company, and H. M. Harrison, re-elected treasurer. Directors re-elected were Mrs. Radford; the three active officers; and R. E. McDonald, Stamford; Joe Burgess, Alpine; and Oscar Clett, Cisco.

Managers of the company's 24 branch houses will assemble in Abilene, the home office, Saturday morning for their annual two days meeting. Then the company—large grocery jobbing house in Texas—will formally start its 51st year.

Born Here

The Radford company's new president is a native Abilenian, born August 25, 1889. That makes him 44 plus. As a child he attended the academy in Simmons college, then entered high school here, then had three years in Morgan Park, a military school in Chicago, from which he graduated. He completed his education in the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, in 1912, getting a degree from a Wharton school of finance.

At 22 Radford returned to Abilene, to enter business. For two years he was manager of the Gas and Electric company, owned by his father and associates. Two years later, in 1914, he entered the J. M. Radford company organization, starting in the warehouse pushing a truck. Successively he was traveling salesman, city salesman here, manager of the Big Spring and Lubbock branch houses, manager of company stocks, manager of all branch houses. Three years ago he was made vice-president and general manager of the company, taking over most of the administrative details from his father. He has been an Abilene city commissioner, president of the fair association, was elected president of the chamber of commerce but declined the election. He was married 17 years ago to Anna Bell Birdwell of Big Spring. They have one child, James Omar, 15.

Radford is high in Masonry. He is now eminent grand commander of Texas Knights Templar.

Pool Not To Be Paid For By City Tax

Natorium Loan Can Be Retired Only By Revenues

Refusal of a few to sign a petition, asking that a rehearing be granted on the natorium application and that it be granted, Friday provoked a reiteration that the swimming pool, if obtained, will not be paid by taxation.

The petitions are being circulated by Boy Scouts of the city to show that citizens favor such a project.

Only objection encountered by the boys in getting signers was that it would "increase city taxes."

Those who drew up the application declare emphatically that such is not the case.

They cited the ordinance which gives authority for the application. Repealment.

Method of repayment of the federal self liquidating loan, for which the city is applying, is described thus in the ordinance: "Certificates, notes or bonds shall be issued and delivered to the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, each of said certificates, notes or bonds to be for principal sum of $500 and due and payable as provided in Section 1 (which provides that they be paid out of a special 'swimming pool fund') of this ordinance and bearing interest at rate of 4 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually."

The ordinance continues to say that the certificates, bonds or notes shall be payable only out of the special fund provided for under this ordinance.

Not By Taxes

It continues, "in event of the failure of the net revenues (which comprise the swimming pool fund) from operation of said project to provide sufficient funds for payment of the respective obligations as they mature, the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, the United States, or its agents, or successors and assigns, shall have no right to demand or enforce payment of said obligations by the City of Big Spring out of funds derived from taxation or from any other sources."

The ordinance makes the provision that revenues from the natorium after the date of maturity shall be used to retire the obligation if sufficient revenues have not already been received.

Application Revised

City Manager E. V. Spence revised the original application and has been authorized by the city commission to present, or have a representative to present the application in person for a rehearing on February 21 in Washington.

The revised application provides for retirement of the $21,000 self liquidating loan in ten instead of seven years.

An ordinance passed Tuesday evening by commissioners authorized the use of one-half of receipts from the municipal golf course if necessary to retire the obligation within the allotted time.

The ordinance reads in part: "One-half of the said receipts by the city of Big Spring from said Municipal Golf course are hereby pledged as further security of the payment of said indebtedness and said one-half of said revenues shall not be paid out or diverted for any other purpose or use until said loan for said construction of said swimming pool is fully paid."

Estimated receipts from the natorium, plus the anticipated one-half receipts from the golf course, minus operating expense for the natorium, would retire the loan within ten years and leave an estimated surplus of $15,000, according to the application.

Figures are based upon an anticipated patronage of 150 persons per day for 100 days per year. Rates would be 25 cents per swim for adults, 15 cents for children under 15 years of age.

Water used for pool purposes would be utilized again for irrigation of the park, thus obviating any additional expense for water, the application pointed out.

Big Spring will be forced to bear its proportion of the $3,300,000,000 public works fund regardless of whether the pool or any other project is obtained, it was pointed out.

VIENNA, (AP)—All armed forces in Austria were mobilized Monday to crush a nationwide socialist uprising.

The battle began when government forces attempted to raid headquarters and socialists tried to beat them off with hand grenades.

In Linz, only one place in suddenly strife-torn Austria, the national socialist party called a nationwide general strike.

Chancellor Dollfus replied with a declaration of martial law in Linz and Vienna.

Box Supper Given Men By Cactus Club

Husbands Entertained At Jolly Valentine Party

The members of the Cactus Bridge Club returned the party given them by their husbands when the men entertained recently with a dinner party at the Settles. They invited the men to a Valentine box supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pendleton.

Valentine tallies were passed around in an old-fashioned box. Because it was a "heart" party a bonus of 150 points was added to the scores of those who bid and made gains in hearts.

At the refreshment hour the boxes prepared by the members and wrapped in shades of red and other attractive seasonal colors were placed on the table and auctioned off to the men by bridge points. Whatever each man had to bid to get his box was subtracted from his total bridge score for the evening.
