PIONEER COWBOY VISITS MATADOR

Clee Rothwell of the Mill Iron ranch located in northeast Motley, Hall and Childress counties, was visiting pioneer friends in Matador, Tuesday.

Mr. Rothwell has been employed continuously on the Mill Iron ranch, now owned by the Hughes estate, for the past 43 years. He is at present in charge of the thoroughbred Hereford cattle owned by the ranch which are declared by local cattlemen to be among the finest Herefords in the nation.

City Election Is Scheduled Tuesday

Election of five city officials will be held at the City Hall, Tuesday, April 7. No announcement or campaign had been made by any of the six candidates whose names have been printed on the ballots.

Mayor G. T. Edwards, City Secretary Howard Edmondson, Aldermen W. N. Pipkin and M. S. Dermen seek re-election. The only opposition in the election is between L. J. Barkley and M. P. Fulkerson for the office of city marshal.

J. ROSS BELL IS CANDIDATE FOR APPEALS JUDGE

The Tribune has been authorized to announce the candidacy of J. Ross Bell of Childress for the post of chief justice of the Court of Civil Appeals of the Seventh Supreme Judicial district, which sits in Amarillo, subject to Democratic primaries, to succeed Chief Justice M. J. R. Jackson, who will voluntarily retire Jan. 1, 1943.

Jurist Bell is well-known in Motley county since he has frequently been associated with cases in the local courts over a period of many years. Mr. Bell has practiced law in Childress for the past 14 years and previous to that time was a member of the law firm of Bell and Bell at Paducah.

"I am aware," Mr. Bell, said, "that it will be difficult to secure interest in Texas elections this year because of the tense war situation, but I shall endeavor to see as many voters as possible."

"I will conduct the most sincere campaign within my power despite the vast territory embraced in the 46 counties of the Texas Panhandle and south plains which comprise the Seventh Supreme district."

"Through this medium I wish to appeal to the voters of Motley county for their vote and support during my campaign. I feel that I am fully qualified for the post I seek and in event of my election, I pledge complete execution of my duties to the best of my ability. I wish to express in advance my sincere appreciation to those who may find it possible to support me."

Sheriff Buys New Car For Old Tubes

Sheriff H. H. Courtney had a good set of four puncture-proof inner tubes, but his tires and car were showing considerable wear. Since new automobiles are becoming difficult to buy, even for one in the "blessed class," which includes law enforcement officers, Sheriff Courtney started out to find a new automobile to fit his inner tubes. His quest ended in Denver, Colorado where he found a car of the make he wanted.

He rolled in home this week with a new car and new tires, but using his puncture-proof tubes. He traded automobiles at Lubbock but Denver was the nearest dealership where delivery could be made.

Goal Is Mother Of Triplet Kids

Try to get Charlie Parks' goat. Confidently, it would be much easier to get Mr. Parks to tell you about his goats. He is exceptionally enthusiastic about the productive spirit of one mother goat that surprised him with triplet kids one morning last week.

Sharing a confessed ignorance with the Tribune reporter regarding the usual number of little goats that may be expected, Mr. Parks believes his "nanny" may have established some kind of a record. Again he cited the possibility that the goat may be patriotic and feels her duty increased because of the country's emergency.

Mail From Philippines Is Received

World history was written in the delivery of three letters received in Matador Friday morning by Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Reinhardt, from their son Malcolm Reinhardt, Jr., member of the Marines stationed in the Philippines.

Mystery of the letters' delivery from the isolated, battle-scarred islands were merely intensified by perusal. Each letter was a brief note with the appearance of having been written on the Marine's knee while he paused between attacks of the enemy. The three letters were written around the 20th of January and expressed complete faith that the Japs would soon be conquered. It was the first message Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt had received from their son since December 26 when telegraph service from Manila enabled him to send his parents' Christmas greeting.

Only One Stamp

One of the three letters received Friday bore a Philippine postage stamp, but none had been postmarked. Each letter had been stamped "Censored."

One possible solution to the mystery which covers the delivery of mail from the besieged United States possession, was held in Australia of a hospital ship with wounded men from General MacArthur's forces. It is believed that the letters might have been carried by the ship out of the Jap controlled zone and then sent to the United States by empty ship returning from Australia. Another theory is that the letters were brought out of the Philippines by submarine or planes making secret contact with American forces.

Car Registrations One Short Of 1941

At a late hour yesterday Motley county passenger car registrations were only one short of the same date in 1941, according to Miss Rachel Patton, deputy for Sheriff Tax Assessor and Collector H. H. Courtney.

At the close of business April 1, 1941, a total of 717 passenger cars had been registered. Yesterday 716 had been registered for 1942.

Farm truck licenses on April 1, 1941, showed 146. This year 131. Commercial trucks were 109 in 1941 and 89 this year.

Marine In Hawaii

A. A. ALSOP

THROUGH THE ACTION of Pearl Harbor on December 7, Marine A. A. Alsop, above son of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Alsop of Matador, is now a battle-seasoned veteran. The young Marine volunteered in 1940. In the above picture two medals awarded for marksmanship are partially visible.

Matador Youth At Pearl Harbor When Japs Make Attack

This nation was at peace when A. A. Alsop, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Alsop of Matador, volunteered in the Marines in June 1940 but he was destined to see action in the historic attack of Pearl Harbor 18 months later which plunged the United States into war with Japan.

In a letter to the Tribune, he says, "I want to thank you again for sending the Matador Tribune. I appreciate it more than I can express. It gives me so much pleasure to read the news from my home town."

"I joined the Marines in June 1940 and was sent to San Diego for training, where I remained until September 28, 1940. I spent ten months on the U. S. ship "Chicago" and went to sea on two different trips, once as far as Australia. I was in an accident in July 1941 and confined in the hospital for a month. Upon my release I was placed in the Marine barracks here at Pearl Harbor and went through all the action on December 7th."

Air Raid Wardens To Be Appointed

Air raid wardens for Motley county will be appointed next week by Sheriff H. H. Courtney, according to announcement made yesterday by authority of County Judge W. R. Cammack.

Capt. W. W. Legg of the Texas Highway Patrol, whose headquarters are at Lubbock, will be in Matador at 2 p. m. Wednesday, April 8, to give general instructions on local defense and specific instructions to air raid wardens.

Problem for local citizens is the appointment of air raid wardens who have had required first aid training. This point was stressed by Capt. Legg who was here Monday. He declared that rules governing Civilian Defense Committees demand that air raid wardens have the first aid training. Another point to be considered by Sheriff Courtney will be that of appointing men who are not eligible for military service.

Probably 12 Wardens Here

Sheriff Courtney will probably select 12 air raid wardens for Matador regulars with six alternates, or 18 in all for the city. Number of wardens is based on population with one warden for each 100 citizens. He will name wardens for every community in the county.

Registrants in Civilian Defense are requested to remember the date and hour of Capt. Legg's meeting (Wednesday, April 8th at 2 p. m.) and be on hand to receive as much instruction as possible.

Sheriff Courtney will notify men selected for air raid warden duty and ask them to report for the meeting.

Barkley; Jewel McCoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gray; Kara and Marie Hunsucker, daughters of Mrs. Charlotte Hunsucker; and Miss Lela Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carpenter. Their other daughter, Frances arrived home last week.

Assembly Of God Meeting To Start

N. L. Locke, pastor of the Matador Assembly of God church has announced an old-time revival meeting to be conducted by Sister L. R. Cartwright, evangelist of Crosbyton.

Starting date was not disclosed but it is assumed the meeting will begin this week. Evangelist Cartwright will be assisted by Brother and Sister Warren, also of Crosbyton.

An invitation is extended the public to attend.

MOTLEY FARMERS VOICE SUGGESTIONS TO IMPROVE VALUE OF AAA OPERATION

A representative group of Motley county farmers meeting in the district court room here Saturday recommended that the state AAA Committee consider allowing soil building payments be paid for stalkfields unpastured. Approximately 45 farmers in which every community was represented, made suggestions which will be considered by the State Committee in planning the 1943 AAA program.

The recommendation for leaving stalkfield unpastured was suggested by farmers in the blow-sand sections of the county since wind-erosion is a greater problem to them than water erosion which confronts other farmers of the county. In event the recommendation is accepted, farmers who desire to pasture their stalkfields may do so by forfeiting his payments on the stalkfield and earning it on other soil-building practices. A payment of 35c per acre was suggested for consideration in leaving the stalkfields unpastured.

An increase in payment for eradicating mesquites was recommended to vary from $2 to $4 per acre instead of the compensation of 50c to $2. Because of the present excessive growth of mesquite it is estimated that actual cost of the work may be from $5 to $10 per acre.

Ask Payment For Interplanting

Another unanimous suggestion made at the meeting was for interplanting feed crops with peas (legumes) for soil-building purposes. Most farmers favored planting one third to one half in legumes which would be one row of peas and two rows of feed or two rows of peas and two rows of feed. If accepted farmers would receive (See FARMERS Back Page)

Plans Made For School Carnival

Plans for an all-school carnival to be held at the Matador high school Friday, April 10th, were made public yesterday by Superintendent B. F. Tunnell.

The carnival will include many unusual features and is to be the outstanding event of the school year. The "Matador Album" will feature a room in which is hung many pictures of Matador pioneer residents. Each picture will be numbered and those entering the contest will identify the persons whose portraits are on display.

Cafeteria service will be offered continuously during the evening where delicious food may be purchased at moderate prices.

An Amateur contest will start in the auditorium at 8:45. Any person or group may enter the contest with any feature of wholesome entertainment. Contests are open to all schools in the county.

The carnival will open in the late afternoon and remain in progress during the evening.

All foods are being donated by children of the school and the entire gross proceeds of the carnival will be used by the school athletic fund.

A general invitation is extended the public with assurance of good entertainment and delicious food.

Additional Funds Are Contributed

Again the Tribune desires to express appreciation for unsolicited funds supporting its policy of sending the home newspaper to county residents now in the nation's armed service.

During the week-end R. L. Jameson contributed $1, J. R. Emmons $2, and W. A. Campbell $1, which will be used in purchase of newsprint, ink, labor and postage required to send the Tribune to Motley county boys training to defend our country. Copies of the Tribune are sent each week to almost every training camp in the United States, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippines. While it is hardly probable that the newspaper is now reaching the Philippines, no notice of failure to make delivery has been received. Again our thanks to Messrs. Jameson, Emmons and Campbell.

The Tribune extends additional appreciation to Ben Keltz for $5 and Joe Meador for $1 contributions made yesterday.

Paul Bolton is one of the chief correspondents at the State Capitol. He is clever and brilliant and this writer stands in awe of clever and brilliant people.

Reversing the well-known phrase, Bolton is probably my best critic and severest friend. "Mirrors of Austin" in that sterling publication, State Observer, is largely his handiwork. Recently, he wrote: "The columnist wrings his friends for the penultimate drop of their knowledge, their wit, their wisdom, if any. No remark is too innocent to be hoarded against the day when material is scarce. The man who is a friend of the columnist never knows when some thoughtless remark will rise up out of the printed page and hit him between the eyes. Even his own family is not safe. The children have to watch what they say or they'll be perpetuated in print for their 'bright sayings.' Even the family dog may make the papers.

"He (the columnist) is starved for affection. He responds to a kind word like a dog to a pat on the head. He lives in constant fear of repeating himself. He specializes in unimportant items about unimportant people."

And here I had been feeling flattered at being mentioned so many times in "Mirrors!"

Happening to land in Hawkins when oil boom hit, a hitchhiker bought a lot for $1,000. He didn't have the money but drew a draft on his father in another state. To be on the safe side, the owner of the lot placed a long distance call to the bank. But, as there was only one phone in Hawkins and folks were standing in a long line to get to it, the call wasn't put through until late in the afternoon—and by that time, the hitch-hiker had resold the lot for $10,000!

This interesting sidelight was narrated by E. S. Shoaf, publisher of the Wood County Democrat, when he visited Fort Worth not long ago.

Letters From England

Tonbridge, Kent, England
Feb. 20, 1942

Dear June,
I'm so sorry you have not been hearing from me but I'm sure I did answer all your letters almost at once. I'm still alive and kicking. Well, I hope you will be able to graduate this year.

Yes, I quite enjoyed my Christmas. I had a number of presents including a crepe-de-chine slip, silk stockings, and scarf and gloves to match. Also a box of "Evening in Paris" cosmetics. I also had some money and a photograph album.

You did have a lot to dinner at Christmas. We had a very quiet one and only went out to a late party on Xmas night. I went home to London for Christmas. We had two weeks holiday.

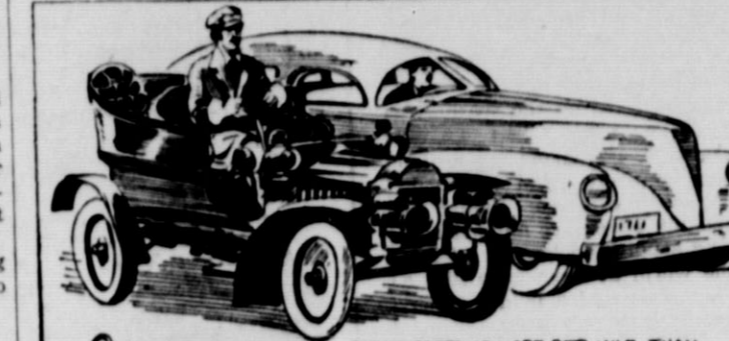

No, none of your letter was blue-pencilled. You mustn't let this war get you, you know. Your last letter is considerably sadder than usual; perhaps it is because you are getting old. We shall soon be seventeen! Golly, I feel quite ancient. But we mustn't get ratty because that is what old Nasty wants us to do, and morale counts a lot in this war.

We have had quite a lot of snow since Xmas, but Christmas itself was very foggy.

Well, the Red Army isn't quite in Berlin yet, but it is still on the advance. Only a week ago we heard that we lost Singapore. Pretty rotten, but we can't fight tanks and planes with rifles. It's been the same question all through this war. You know those beastly little Japs are not brave. They're mad! I heard that when the Americans tried to capture them on the Philippine Islands they committed suicide.

We had a big Warship Week in Tonbridge about two weeks ago and collected 141,000 pounds. We are going to buy a gun-boat with it. I took part in a concert here in which we sang sea and folk songs. I was in the choir of 140 people, half boys and half girls. We had two distinguished artists, a viol-

Bob's Oil Well

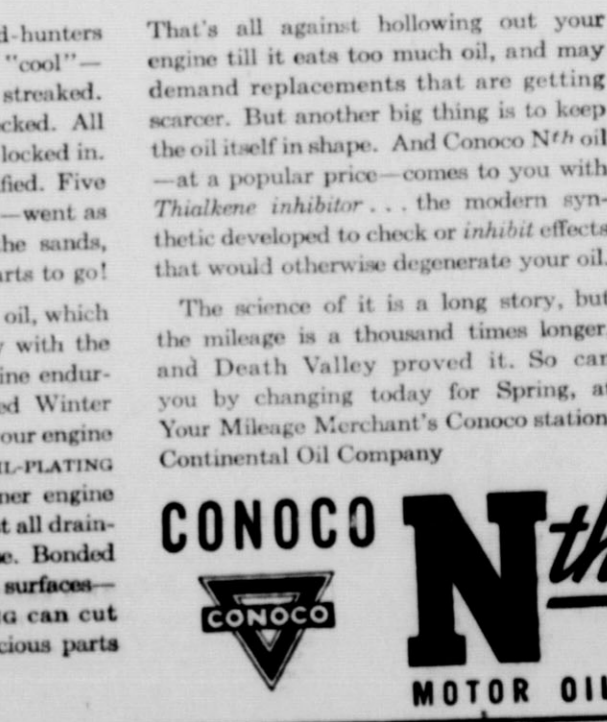

Authorities insist: CHANGE OIL FOR SPRING. And you can insist on this oil that outlasted five other big quality brands by far. Not one came nearer than 58% of its mileage!

DOWN where the desert slew gold-hunters down where 100° heat is "cool"—down in Death Valley six cars streaked. All were alike . . . all ran till wrecked. All started with 5-quart fills of oil—locked in. All conditions were alike—certified. Five cars—five boasted brands of oil—went as dead as the cattle skulls in the sands, while the other oil still had quarts to go!

That was Conoco Nth motor oil, which can refill your crankcase today with the Nth degree of mileage and engine endurance. Changing from weakened Winter leftovers to Conoco Nth gives your engine OIL-PLATING for Spring. And OIL-PLATING is closely fastened all over inner engine parts as if "magnetized" against all draining back down to the crankcase. Bonded in place—even on straight-up surfaces—even overnight—OIL-PLATING can cut down the raw rubbing of precious parts during starting and running.

That's all against hollowing out your engine till it eats too much oil, and may demand replacements that are getting scarcer. But another big thing is to keep the oil itself in shape. And Conoco Nth oil—at a popular price—comes to you with Thiakene inhibitor . . . the modern synthetic developed to check or inhibit effects that would otherwise degenerate your oil.

The science of it is a long story, but the mileage is a thousand times longer, and Death Valley proved it. So can you by changing today for Spring, at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company

Recital Is Given In Hamilton Home

A recital was given Thursday evening, March 19, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Hamilton, by the voice pupils of Mrs. Hamilton, in the presence of friends and relatives.

The program consisted of selections which the pupils entered in the Panhandle Music Festival at Amarillo recently, and after each number, Mrs. Hamilton played recording of the song, on records made while in Amarillo.

Included on the program were the following: Rosemary Bloodworth, John Farris Fish, Jolene Bloodworth, Gordon Russell, Jimmie Lea Lawson, and Mrs. Hamilton. One pupil, Joe Wilbur Shirley of Childress, was unable to attend, but his voice was heard on the phonograph record which he had made.

The house was decorated in keeping with the Easter season, and after the program, each guest and pupil was given a candy rabbit souvenir.

Out-of-town guests for the occasion were, Mrs. W. H. Tittle and Mrs. B. M. Carter of Childress, sisters of Mrs. Hamilton. Others present were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bloodworth, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McWilliams, Mr. and Mrs. Farris Fish, Mrs. Knox Lawson, and Miss Margie McInroe of Afton, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Russell, Mrs. Ola Winn, Dorothy Woodruff, Sarah Frances Springer, Zona Ruth Scaff and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Doss.

Pied 'Pinions

BY MRS. J. M.

The pen might be mightier than the sword, but personally we had rather be stabbed with a few words than undergo decapitation by the blade; if we had our choice that is, and especially in these trying times when words seem so powerless.

With one accord, since the great conflict first began in Europe, we the people of this nation have waged a war of hatred and indignation against Hitler and Mussolini as instigators of the greatest outrage in the annals of civilization. But when we were hurtled into the maelstrom by a shove from behind, we blasted our fury against the offending race with mottoes such as, "Rap a Jap," "Slap a Jap," etc.

Now, after an interval of yelling our heads off, we suddenly stop long enough to catch our breath, and to look about for the sinister director who is responsible for Act III, Scene I of the miserable tragedy. The name? Tojo. As simple as that.

At long last it is the man's pocketbook which becomes the catch-all, as he endeavors to retrieve his driver's license in a maze of such items as federal tax license, draft registration card, poll tax receipt, hunting license, car registration papers, health certificate, birth certificate and marriage permit.

And speaking of marriage licenses, the question is advanced as to the probable number of renewals if they were issued for a limited period of time and liable to expiration dates.

A few issues ago a bit of verse appeared in this space, regarding tire rationing; a sort of "Lament a la Femme," so to speak, inspired by the fact that folks seem to be minding the curtailing of small luxuries more than the necessities of life.

For the purpose of acquainting Mr. and Mrs. America with just what they might expect in the forthcoming months, perhaps years, a national woman's magazine has made extensive investigations, and here are a few of their findings:

An anticipated shortage in certain dyes; an increase in demands for meat, with chickens heading the list of obtainables, since the Department of Agriculture is urging an increase in egg production; less tin containers than formerly; shortage of Vitamin A as a medicine, but not in diet, since it comes from yellow and green vegetables; greater shortage of wool and cotton than previously estimated; and a very low estimate on candy making.

"Save" and "Conserve" have become American household watchwords, with all loyal citizens rushing to do their bit in the home ranks.

Study Club Features Style Show In Unique Program Thursday Afternoon

One of the most unique and outstanding programs of the current club year was presented before the members of El Progreso Study Club meeting Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. G. E. Hamilton.

Mrs. J. R. Whitworth, leader of the "Style Show" program, gave a detailed description of "Styles Through The Years," augmented by modeled examples of clothing worn in former days. First of these was "Puritan Styles," worn by Doris Ann Doss and Dean Stotts as they sang a prayer, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Hamilton.

Imogene Archer and Dorothy Woodruff danced the minuet and gave a "Minuet" reading, attired in Colonial dress, with Mrs. Whitworth at the piano. This was followed by a reading, "Grandma and Grandpa's Elopement," by Geraldine Waybourn and Marcia Ann Gilbert, depicting "Antebellum and Reconstruction Period Styles."

Gay Nineties Live Again

"Styles of the Gay Nineties" were worn by Jolene Bloodworth and Frances Schweitzer as they danced the "Tuxedo Glide," accompanied by Marjorie Ann Thacker at the piano, and two old war songs, "Over There" and "Long, Long Trail" were sung by Gladys Marie Springer and Marjorie Ann Thacker, who modeled "World War Styles." Mrs. Hamilton accompanied them.

Following a discussion of "Spring Forecasts" by the leader, Dorothy Woodruff and Imogene Archer illustrated "Hats" with a reading and drill, using fancy hat boxes containing headgear which they modeled at the conclusion of the drill.

The program was concluded with the song, "Easter Parade" by the program cast, who paraded past the audience in their fancy costumes. Several of the club members had also worn styles of another era.

Members present were: Mesdames A. J. Daffern, F. G. Simpson, U. L. Willie, G. C. Springer, L. C. Harp, Mae McKenzie, A. C. Traweck Jr., Miss Mary Keith, and honorary members Mesdames D. C. Kieth and J. L. Moore. Mrs. Joe Bloodworth was welcomed back into the club.

Clubs Consolidate

In a recent arrangement agreed upon by members of El Progreso Study Club and the Sorosis Study Club, the two organizations have consolidated "for the duration," due to decrease in membership, and upon advice of Mrs. J. W. Walker, state president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

At this meeting, Mrs. John Hamilton, Mrs. Henry Solomon and Mrs. Freeman Thacker, former Sorosis members, were welcomed into the membership of El Progreso Club. Others have expressed intention to retain their club affiliations in future attendance.

COME TO CHURCH Easter

USE THE PRECIOUS PRIVILEGE FOR WHICH MEN ARE GIVING THEIR LIVES.....

EASTER, SYMBOL OF HOPE rises with significance and power from the pain and tears of the world's great conflict. Strong, brave and free men are giving their lives that you may have the privilege of religious worship; that you may have peace, liberty and security. What more fitting tribute of your gratitude than your presence at the church of your choice this Easter?

Millions in less fortunate nations cannot speak of God, or kneel to worship. They are denied the comforts and blessings of religion. They are deprived of their Bibles, their homes; faith. This Easter their prayers must be silent as they work as slaves for tyrant masters.

Religion and freedom to worship according to individual desire has led this mighty nation to an envied position among the people of the earth and this priceless treasure is yours by heritage.

Leave the burdens of your heart on the church altar this Easter. Let the might of God's power bring new hope and faith into your heart.

W. S. C. S. MEETS WITH MRS. FRANK POHL WED.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Frank Pohl for a study from the book, "The Christian Home."

Ladies present were: Mesdames W. B. Vaughn, David Guest, H. H. Schweitzer, Frank Pohl, Lewis Eudy, Paul Patton, John Hamilton, Homer Jenkins, Julian Edmondson, W. Y. Higgins and J. R. Whitworth.

D. Price of Mt. Duro, New Mexico, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Beauchamp of Dumas, were visitors here Wednesday of last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Beauchamp.

none to believe in him, many bitter hours were spent in the experiment to defy the restrictions against colonial manufactures by making glass more beautiful than England could supply. To forget his own misery and to convince his business partners, his family, and the one woman who held his heart, there seemed only one thing to do — to amass money in the face of their doubt. So he ventured everything on the glass business. And failed.

So from feudal lord with factories, town and country homes and all the luxuries of his day, he ended his industrial enterprises in a debtors' prison. Ill health followed his release from prison, but in the end, with the companionship of his beloved Diane, he found a humble and unexpected happiness.

About The Author
The author, Mildred Jordan, was born in Chicago in 1901, but has lived in the Pennsylvania country which forms the background of "One Red Rose Forever" for a decade and a half.

Miss Jordan first became interested in Baron Stiegel some years ago, when with her husband she drove past his old house in Manheim. In its finished form, this her first novel, represents four years of solid work in meticulous research as well as careful writing and re-writing.

Donated By Mrs. Isaacs

The book was donated to the Matador City Library by Mrs. Sam Isaacs of Canadian, Texas, who is associated with the public library of that place as treasurer and chairman of the book-buying committee.

It is now available to the subscribers of this library, which is open each Tuesday and Friday afternoons from 2 to 4:30 war time. The library is located in a north room in the grade school building, with Miss Mary Keith as librarian.

Pep Easter Nests Made In Ten Minutes

Chief charm of these delightful, crunchy nests is the speed with which they can be turned out! But take note—they require no sugar. Milk chocolate, Pep cereal and jelly beans are the only ingredients. Happily, the cereal is vitamin-enriched so that these attractive Easter sweets have a "good-for-you-ness" as well. The recipe follows.

Make Your Own Easter Sweets Minus Sugar

NOT even a sugar ration card can stop the Easter bunny this year! It's the time to follow loved traditions rather than discard them. And for youngsters, Easter, next to Christmas, is the gayest, happiest day of the whole year. But if Easter sweets are to be made at home they'll have to be turned out without benefit of sugar. Actually, that's no chore. Here are three dandies: Pep Easter Nests (pictured above); Marshmallow Dream Candy, and Maple All-Branch Creams.

Pep Easter Nests
1/2 pound milk 1 1/2 cups Pep, vitamin enriched wheat flakes
1/2 pound egg-shaped jelly beans

Melt chocolate over hot but not boiling water; stir in Pep, vitamin enriched wheat flakes. Place table-spoonfuls of mixture on wax paper and form into shape of a nest. Allow chocolate to harden. Fill nests with colored jelly beans to represent eggs. (Use as favors.)

Jovial Spirit Is Predominant When Lions, Ladies Meet

Tension of the quaking world, worries of war and the weight of personal duty were momentarily lifted from members of the Matador Lions Club accompanied by their ladies in the club's first semi-annual Ladies' Night meeting this year.

Held in the basement of the Methodist church Thursday evening and attended by almost the entire membership, accompanied by their wives, the program was unique in that no long speeches had been arranged.

The banquet was arranged through the request that each couple bring a "covered dish" and large quantities of delicious food were left after the entire group had finished.

Interesting Antique Contest

Of unusual interest was the "Antique Contest" when members and visitors displayed various old "keepsakes" and explained a brief history associated with the object. The first prize of $2.50 was awarded Mrs. Farris Fish for her entry of a pair of scissors used by her great grandmother. Mrs. Don Martin received 2nd place in an auxiliary contest made necessary when five entries were tied in the first count of votes.

Two members, Dr. J. G. Ketchersid and L. J. Cunningham were initiated with usual ceremonies.

Chevrans were presented to nine charter members, including Farris Fish, C. M. Glenn, L. C. Harp, Henry Pipkin, D. E. Pitts, Elmer Stearns, A. C. Traweek, Sr., Harry Willett and J. R. Whitworth, and monarch chevrons were presented to five 10-year members, including R. E. Campbell, Sr., Henry K. Ford, G. E. Hamilton, B. F. Tunnell and T. B. Edmondson.

Why America Needs More Cotton Production

Secretary of Agriculture Wickard has called upon growers to plant their Full Cotton Acreage Allotment—4,000,000 acres more cotton than we planted last season—because the United States vitally needs more of the products of cotton and cottonseed. These needs include:

MORE COTTONSEED OIL to supply the nation's need for food and industrial fats, and to replace oil formerly imported from Pacific areas.

MORE COTTON LINTERS to supply the increasing needs of the munitions industry for this essential raw materials.

MORE COTTONSEED MEAL AND HULLS to supply feed needed by livestock producers for the efficient production of "Food for Victory."

MORE LINT COTTON of certain qualities and grades, especially longer staple cotton, to meet increasing needs of the United Nations in their war efforts.

COTTON IS THE ONLY CROP THAT SUPPLIES ALL OF THESE PRODUCTS.

HOW YOU CAN HELP GROW MORE COTTON

In order to produce this cotton, it is highly essential that every cotton grower throughout the South follow these sound practices;

PLANT THE FULL COTTON ALLOTMENT: Be sure that you plant every acre of cotton which the AAA legal allotment permits. Replant as often as necessary to insure a full stand on all of this acreage.

PLANT GOOD SEED: By using quality planting seed, with a high germination test, you will help to insure maximum yields.

FERTILIZE ADEQUATELY: Be certain that you use adequate amount of fertilizer, adapted to your own soils, on every cotton acre.

FIGHT THE INSECTS: No cotton farmer can afford, this season, to suffer costly losses from insects. Poison promptly and as frequently as needed to reduce insect damage.

KEEP IT CLEAN AND PICK IT CLEAN: Keeping fields free of weeds and grass, and picking all of the cotton this fall, moving it promptly to the gin, are important to insure maximum production.

In addition to distributing this information as a public service to the Nation and the Cotton Industry, our Cotton Oil Mill will gladly assist you in any way that we can to insure maximum cotton production. Call on us for any service that we can render.

Kampus Klatter

Hey! What's all this talk about J. C. and Paula? And just when we had decided that he and Doris Q. would make a cute couple, too. Dorothy Mae and Sonny seem to find each other's company enjoyable. At least, that's the impression we received.

Phil and Virginia are the newest couple we've found. We hope THIS one lasts.

We have two triangles to report this week. The first one is C. D. June, and Tom Ed, and the second one is Delbert, Morris, and Velma. Say, don't you kids know that three is a crowd? Mack and Rachel, as well as Mack and Geraldine, are still on very friendly terms. It's not enough that all the Soph girls go to Roaring Springs, but all the boys as well.

How to become A SKILLED DRIVER

By RAY W. SHERMAN
Courtesy of the FORD GOOD DRIVERS LEAGUE

HOLDING THE WHEEL

Your left hand should be above the center and your right hand just below the center, or in other words, like the position of the hands on a clock at 10:20. This position gives you the best control—it enables you to put your arms, shoulders and all your strength into steering if you have to.

A hand at the bottom of the wheel has no power. Try it and see! With today's good roads, many drivers forget the importance of gripping the wheel correctly and let their hands sort of lie in their laps while the cars roll. But it's a dangerous habit. A tire can blow. In that case you've got to fight the wheel, whereas if you were in the right position, all you'd need to do would be to tighten your grip and ride it out.

Who? Alvin has been down to see a lassie named Juanita Smith.

Say, these girls really work together! While Wanda entertained her soldier friend, Dorothy led Louis around and this left Dorothy's Turkey friend, all to Glenda. Pretty nice little set-up, I'd say!

My. My. What fun—Algie has at least found the one—This time it is that lucky Betty Green. Everyone seems to have noticed that they can't seem to keep their eyes off of each other. Oh, well—not everyone can have a football hero.

This senior English Class is coming to something. We just don't know what yet. Anyway, Ida Bell looked very sad all week long. We know it is because Jr. wasn't there. Jr. has about found the one he has wanted for a long time—nice going kids.

If anyone should wonder why we juniors go around yelling "oh" everytime someone touches us, here's the reason. Believe it or not, we received fewer demerits than any other class and as a reward, we were given a holiday. After quite a bit of discussion, everyone agreed that Lost Canyon would be the very place to go.

Fortunately, no one fell off of a cliff, but most everything else happened. Betty and Rachel got left and had to walk about two miles; Estelle fell in the river; Algie ate too much; and everyone got a beautiful sun burn. We had sandwiches, ice cream, cookies, potato chips, lemonade, and a little sand. There was only one thing wrong and that was that it didn't last long enough.

JIM HAWKINS

When I first saw Jim Hawkins, I pitied him deeply. He was seemingly a sickly boy who had stayed indoors most of his life, even though he lived on the seashore.

However, after I had known him awhile, I changed my notion of him entirely. Jim was truly courageous, cautious, though a thoroughly adventure minded boy. Having a pure wholesome interest in the world at large gave him a quick temper and a bold manner, especially with strangers.

His sharp, dark eyes gave one the impression that he was quick to see advantages and to use them to their utmost value.

As I was going on a trip in the near future, I asked Jim's mother about letting him go along for his own benefit. She gave her wholehearted approval.

While we were away, Jim proved to be a faithful helpful boy, overflowing with daring. His appearance had begun to make marked changes.

When we arrived back at home, eight months, two weeks and three days from the time we started, he was a well-tanned, healthy-looking boy.

Jim Hawkins was indeed a remarkable boy.

The origin of the name "Alamo" is unknown. According to one legend, the Alamo took its name from a grove of trees nearby, since alamo means poplar or cottonwood. Another story tells that the Alamo was named for a group of soldiers bearing the name who were quartered there.

Farmers of America—Uncle Sam Needs Your Scrap Iron!

Industry Is Asked To Cooperate In Scrap Collection

Industrial leaders here were today asked to co-operate in a south-west-wide industrial scrap collection campaign to help the War Production Board to "get in the scrap."

Announcement of the co-ordination of all southwestern industrial scrap collection activities and appointment of George C. Gibbons of Dallag as their regional director was received here today from George T. Weymouth, chief of the WPB's industrial salvage section in Washington. The southwestern industrial scrap program will use chambers of commerce, trade associations and other bodies already prepared to help their members collect and move the scrap metals and rubber now needed for the nation's war program.

Mr. Gibbons is executive vice-president of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association which has just sponsored a Texas petroleum industry scrap drive which netted over 65,000,000 pounds of scrap. Serving the government as a dollar-a-year man, he will continue his association duties in addition.

The campaign of local industries to collect the scrap from their own plants supplements the general domestic salvage drive now under way. Mr. Gibbons emphasized in a statement accompanying the announcement.

"The shortage of scrap is so acute we must get in more of it immediately if we are to keep the stream of tanks, ships and planes moving," Mr. Gibbons said. "For that reason, the War Production Board is asking Texas industrial leaders to coordinate the collection of their own scrap iron, steel, aluminum and other metals and rubber, in a southwest-wide drive conducted by themselves."

"In many places, this work is already well under way. In others, it will be organized at once through the chambers of commerce, trade bodies and other groups. The campaign does NOT conflict in any way with the general domestic scrap drives. In fact, it will supplement these so as to get large quantities of scrap back to the mills needing it, in the shortest possible time."

Heads of industries here and throughout the southwestern states are being asked to see that all the scrap metals and rubber now at their own plants, yards and other properties are gathered and sold to scrap-dealers. The government has requested that the scrap NOT be donated, but sold to established scrap-buyers. Mr. Gibbons stressed.

Included in Mr. Gibbons' region are Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas, New Mexico, Mississippi and Colorado. Besides acting as regional director, Mr. Gibbons will serve the War Production Board in Washington as technical advisor for the industrial salvage section and petroleum specialists for that industry.

FINE STOCK FROM TWO STATES AT LUBBOCK SHOW

LUBBOCK—A large collection of top quality livestock from 30 counties—27 in Texas and 3 in Eastern New Mexico—will be on exhibit at the twelfth annual Junior Fat Stock Show in this city, April 6, 7, and 8.

Entries received by Clyde G. Tatum, general chairman for the affair, indicates that a large number of animals which have placed as champions in numerous county and community stock competitions during recent weeks, will be brought here for the regional show. In addition, other entries are being received from 4-H and FFA boys who have outstanding calves, pigs and lambs, which have not been first place winners in the local shows.

Chairman Tatum, together with C. C. Jobson, Lubbock county agent and general superintendent for the exhibit, and Vernice Ford, finance committee chairman, have had a large number of Lubbock business and professional men working on various details of the affair for several weeks, and all arrangements for a successful show are complete.

Animals entered in the various divisions will be sold for top prices and cash awards will be distributed to the boys owning the winners.

On account of war conditions, the downtown parade heretofore a feature of the show has been cancelled. Several entertainments will be provided for the club boy exhibitors.

ENTIRE PANHANDLE WILL HONOR FRIONA 6-STAR MOTHER MONDAY

AMARILLO, Texas, March 31—The entire Panhandle will pay tribute in Amarillo Monday to Mrs. George M. Baker, Friona, one of the two Six-Star Mothers of America, at the Army Day parade and celebration that promises to set a new record in events of the Southwest.

In fact, the entire Army Day celebration here is built around Mrs. Baker. The Panhandle, as if one is proud of having a mother like Mrs. Baker in our section of the state and when the nation's other Six-Star Mother and the sole Seven-Star Mother meet here Monday, the entire nation will know of the home West Texas pays their distinguished guests.

Mrs. Baker agrees with Mr. Baker that they are proudest of the fact the boys all enlisted voluntarily.

Of 13 children in the Baker home, eight of nine boys are living Melvin, one of the elder boys, having several dependents, is not in service, while the youngest, Duke, declares he will enlist when old enough to do so.

Oldest of the boys in service is Capt. George F. Baker stationed at Camp Shelby, Miss. The other son and their posts are First Sgt. Elmer L. Baker, Camp Walters, Mineral Wells, Tex. Corp. Arthur M. Baker, Fort D. A. Russell, Marfa, Texas; First Sgt. Oliver W. Baker, Fort Bliss, El Paso, Tex; Sgt. Raymond B. Baker, location not revealed by war department due to military reasons, and Gilbert L. Baker, recently enlisted in the air corps and not yet stationed.

The father, who has been invited here Monday by the City of Amarillo as the distinguished man guest for the day, is planning to contribute his bit to national defense by working at a fire station in Fort D. A. Russell, Marfa, where his son, Corp. Arthur M. Baker is located.

Friona officials have advised that not only will that city be here 100 per cent for next Monday's celebration honoring their native mother but that the entire western section of the Panhandle will accompany them.

Gov. Coke Stevenson has announced special citation on behalf of the State of Texas would be awarded the famous mothers here during the celebration. Washington is being asked to cite the mothers here Monday as well. The Panhandle will pay tribute with all the enthusiasm Westerners can muster for such a patriotic occasion.

The American Legion Auxiliary has erected a special float for the mothers to lead the parade. An honor guard consisting of a representative of each woman's club in the city has been named to accompany the float.

The thousands that will line the parade route are going to pay tribute to every mother that has a son in service by tossing flowers upon the float as it passes in review. The press of the nation refers to this gesture as the "shower of flowers" and camera men are anticipating some of the best parade pictures ever made during this touching homage.

Gene Howe, publisher of the Globe-News, is giving a luncheon for the mothers and honor guard following the parade.

Interstate Theatres of Amarillo are having the mothers and guard as guests of the Paramount theatre following the luncheon and city manager, Jack King, of the theatre promises a magnificent tribute for the occasion.

But above all the Panhandle Texas is paying tribute to its own Six-Star Mother, Mrs. George M. Baker of Friona and her nine famous mothers of the nation in Amarillo Monday.

According to the most reliable records, the oldest child in Texas were San Antonio, Tiguas, 1682, later known as Nuestra Senora del Carmine, San Miguel del Socorro, which was located a short distance southeast of El Paso.

The word "Texas" is thought to have originally been an inter-tribal watchword, meaning "friendship." Its origin is dated from the expedition of De Leon and Father Martin, 1689. Before then, the territory comprising the state of Texas known variously as Anahuac, Florida, Apachera, (Luzon, Apaches), Nueva Filipina (Philippines) and Quivira.

The four ships which made up the Texas Navy during Texas Revolution were named: Invincible, the Brutus, the Independence and the Liberty.

$1.50 per acre for the actual amount of land in peas.

During the 1941 season farmers who participated in the program to leave cane and sudan stalks for soil-building purposes were confronted with a great difficulty in plowing their fields for another crop. Recommendations were made at the Saturday meeting that they be allowed to use a stalk-cutting machine on their fields in the fall and leave the stalks until the following spring. If accepted by the State Committee, the plan would not prevent farmers from cutting a feed crop off the land by sacrificing the 75c per acre payment, in event the feed should be needed.

Less Change in Allotments Another cardinal feature sought by Motley county farmers for their 1943 program would be the yearly change in cotton acreage allotments. It was suggested that allotments be made for three to five year periods. Principal bene-

Time Limit Set For Pig Guessing

Guesses on the weights of the two pigs being fed at the L. R. Bishop Feed Store must be registered during the month of April, according to L. R. Bishop, manager of the store and sponsor of the unique contest staged to provide concrete proof of the growing value of Purina Mills "Hog Chow."

Any one may register a guess from today until the store's closing time on Thursday evening, April 30. Only one guess is allowed each person and prizes will be awarded.

The two pigs are from the same litter and started their weight race within three pounds of the same weight. They are in identical pens and given identical treatment except one is being fed Purina "Hog Chow" and grain, while his companion is receiving only whole grain. The contest is expected to run approximately 90 days.

Mr. Bishop said that names for the pigs had been suggested but that he withheld accepting any of the suggestions. One visitor had suggested the Purina "Hog Chow" pig be named MacArthur and the smaller one named Tojo.

Remarkable differences are already evident in the pigs which should be of great interest to all hog producers.

Land Bank System Reaches Its 25th Anniversary Year

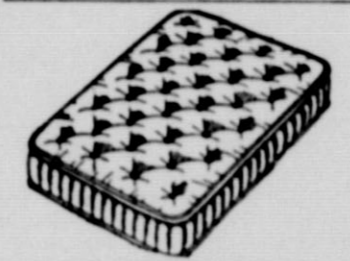

The pressure of the all-out war program has cancelled any thought of an elaborate celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Federal Land Bank of Houston on April 3, Sterling C. Evans, president of the institution announces.

However, the members of the 300 national farm loan associations, which have on their books more than 99,000 loans in Texas, will make note of the anniversary year in their coming annual stockholders' meetings.

The 25-year mark finds the Land Bank with its loans in the best condition in 10 years and steadily improving. Mr. Evans reports, "The flow of the farmers' cash into debt retirement is heavy. Increase in new loans indicates no expansion of outstanding farm debt but rather a desire to put long-term obligations into safer position under prevailing low-rate amortized loans. We believe farm and ranch families are stirring themselves to get their business in order and to avoid mistakes of the last war period."

The Federal Land Bank, which reflects the combined condition of the farmer-owned local associations, has more than $11,000,000 in capital stock and the earned surplus and legal reserve exceeds $30,000,000.

During the past 25 years the bank has made 143,000 loans to Texas farmers and ranchers, for a total of $419,000,000.

The Land Bank system pioneered in lowering and equalizing interest rates, in the establishment of long terms of repayment out of earnings and in the policy of normal production value appraisals rather than market trends," he said. "The normal value policy helped to prevent wholesale foreclosures during the depression and aided in keeping prices from dipping over lower. Now, in better times, this same policy should serve to keep prices from rising to an unsound level."

A Dennison woman, telling her minister how much she enjoyed a sermon by a visiting minister, remarked, "He put so much thought into his speech, and was so full of his subject." The subject, forgotten by the lady, was "Hell."
