TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

Flexing under its great strain, the spring yields only in the amount of pressure applied through heat and frigid days it meets day without complaint, accepting ease in silence, the living steel responds with a ring in its soul; endless strength restores itself in labor. Suddenly, as if weary of its own weight, the spring snaps. There is no visible cause, nor defect in the metal. Frequently a man may break under some unseen weight; to fall beneath a burden resting too long on the spring of his heart.

In a pattern of the tides, civilization flows against the shoals of years and in the ebb of a million years, no trace remains of the noisy breaking. Forests and mountains vanish and courses of mighty rivers are buried beneath the patient dust of records. All the toys that man has carved from the drift wood of his dreams must perish; cities become silent and empty beneath the fusing sands. Time keeps its inventory.

Many an aspiring writer could spare the pain of disillusion provided with one of the recently manufactured new fountain pens that write two years without attention. Within a short time the writer would damp the pen and focus his ambition on some trade involving honest labor. Out of esteem for my merchant who sells better than I shall ever write, I am giving my pen for the fate it deserves, to write his obituary. Should the natural course of events threaten my plan, I am investigating various means of homicide, which will allow me to write the happy lines to him before the guarantee on my pen expires.

When my mistakes return like the unwanted cats that find their course back to my doorstep, I feel a morbid sympathy in their hungry eyes. With a little warmed milk of carelessness they soon become gentle and in an unsuspecting hour, I hear the mewling of their offspring.

Swinging on green ropes, the trelis, my morning glories look up with brave, blue eyes in an attempt to appear carefree. They are like children who have heard a fearful sound from the shadows of a whispering forest and speak soft, hopeless prayers. Autumn has condemned them to the white ax of frost, and they wait obediently, their heads on the block of time.

Tumbling from a boarded-up window in the past, a package of faded love letters fell at my feet recently when I watched a passing passenger engine set its iron feet against the rails and become motionless. When the train had gone I leaped through the yellowed pages and tried to read the awkward, boyish handwriting to remember the troubled hours in which they were written. But the spell had gone and the sweet rapture of youth had hardened in its tubes without a trace remaining on the bleached canvas of dreams. No scars remained from the pain of that hour in which the letters had been returned and retro-spection suffered from the need of an excuse to warrant my packing them in the tin-clasped suitcase on the day I left home. There was little else to keep them company on the journey; a few shirts fresh with my mother's ironing and concealing her tears, an extra pair of trousers, four wrinkled neckties, a safety razor in event my beard should grow. The package of letters slid to the lower end of the suitcase when it was tilted. It was so long ago. The whistling whistle of the train fresh coal smoke, either from the past or the empty tracks. A stranger was watching me with considerable interest and seemed relieved when I turned and walked away.

Armistice Day Plans Laid

City Drops Cash In Sewer Survey

A tidy portion of the city's funds, some $1,500 worth, was figuratively flushed down Matador's sewage system recently when the city council agreed to pay a Dallas engineering company to survey the Southwestern Sewer Company's plant which has served Matador for 17 years.

The purpose of the survey was to determine the value of the plant in an effort to discover the feasibility of the city purchasing the system.

However, this "purpose" backfired when one observing city employee (who asked to remain unidentified) discovered that the engineer who made the $1,500 examination was the same engineer who laid out the original plans of the system when it was first installed.

This fact, the engineer admitted, but added that he "didn't remember" any of the minute details of the system. The $1,500 fee, asked for the services of the engineer and his one helper, covered five days work.

An official approval of the survey was voted by the city council several weeks ago, shortly after the Southwestern Sewer Company, also a Dallas concern, had offered to sell out to the city.

Findings of the $1,500 engineering survey set the value of the sewage system at $45,723.11, but stated that the disposal plant had depreciated to the extent of 80 per cent of its original value. The life expectancy of the underground pipes was estimated at 75 years.

A few days after this $45,000 evaluation had been set, the Southwestern Sewer Company made known its selling price—$39,000. For tax purposes, the sewer company had previously evaluated the system at $14,000, and this value was only recently raised to $18,000 by the city's board of equalization.

Thus, the sewage company had rendered its evaluation for tax purposes at $21,000 below what they propose to sell their property.

Nevertheless, the city fathers' turned down on the proposed.

FUNERAL HELD FOR ROARING SPRINGS PIONEER TUESDAY

Funeral services were held at Roaring Springs Church of Christ, Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, for W. P. Cooper, who died Sunday at Stanley Clinic, where he was brought last Wednesday. Death was caused from a heart ailment from which Mr. Cooper had suffered for the past several months.

The services were conducted by C. V. Allen of Spur, and pallbearers were: Charlie Long, Mike Hoyle, Pete Smiley, Jack Bryan (Lockney), John Green and Lem Miller. Dalton Johnson of Spur was in charge of music.

Interment was made in the Roaring Springs cemetery under direction of Bryan McDonald, Funeral Home of Matador.

William Polk Cooper was born in Grayson County, Texas, March 15, 1885, and died September 29, 1946, at the age of 61 years, 6 months and 14 days. He had been a resident of Motley county for fifty years.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Ruby Cooper, one daughter, Rebecca Ann, three brothers, J. W. Cooper and L. E. Cooper of Roaring Springs, and John E. Cooper of Salinas, California, and one sister, Mrs. Victor M. Chalk, Dallas, all of whom were present for the funeral with exception of J. E. Cooper of Calif.

Attend Funeral

Relatives and friends from Matador who attended the funeral included the following: Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Meason, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. U. L. Willie and daughter, Clotelle, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Long, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Giessecke, Ed Russell, Henry Pipkin, and Mesdames W. W. Clements, L. C. Harp, R. E. Donovan, L. R. Bishop, and Earl Laughlin, and Mrs. Lemmie Day of Tipton Oklahoma.

Special Meeting Is Called For Tuesday

Matador's first full day observance of Armistice Day will be held this year on November 11 under the sponsorship of the Fleming Post, American Legion and other patriotic and civic organizations, according to Post Commander, O. V. Johnson.

Heretofore, Matador residents have usually locked up their businesses and left the town to attend out-of-town observances.

Details of the Armistice Day program will be worked out at a meeting of the Fleming Post at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the Matador High School gym.

Tuesday's meeting will be a combination business and social affair, supplemented with refreshments and games, Johnson said.

Tentative plans of the proposed November 11 observance will be divided into two parts, according to L. B. Robertson general chairman of the Armistice Day program.

The first portion of the day will be set aside more for the servicemen and their wives, and will include a ceremony honoring Gold Star Mothers, a military parade, an out-of-town speaker and a barbecue for servicemen and their wives, Robertson said.

The latter part of the day will include a carnival, the awarding of a new Chevrolet by the VFW post, and the auctioning of a "slave" by the Matador Lions Club.

Matadors Await First League Play

Pistol Shot Scares Prowler From Home

One shot from a .45 caliber automatic was fired at a prowler at 3:30 a. m. last Friday shortly after Norman Priest, manager of the MacDonald Funeral Home thwarted the attempt of a white man to gain illegal entry into the funeral home.

Later in the day, a 25-year-old ex-convict and dishonorably discharged veteran from California was arrested by sheriff H. H. Courtney for questioning in the incident.

Priest said that the prowler had at first knocked at the rear door of the funeral home, but made a retreat when Priest asked the man to identify himself. Priest, who was putting on his bathrobe, then rushed to the front of the funeral home where he fired a shot at the fleeing prowler.

Meanwhile, Sheriff-elect John Stotts was investigating the burglary of the Higginbotham-Bartlett Lubner company which occurred the week-end before.

Bookkeeper Raby Webb said that entry into the lumber yard's office had been gained through a broken window and that $21.65 was taken from the cash drawer.

Quitaque 11 Bow To MHS By 60-0 Score

Matador High School's grid-sters will begin their first conference game of the year at 8 p. m. Friday on Burleson Field when they meet the Crosbyton football machine.

To date, the Matadors are unscored on and have chalked up 94 points in their two pre-conference games. Last Friday the Matadors flattened out Coach Joe W. Bailey's Quitaque Panthers 60-0, and the week before rolled over Coach Bill Lane's Turkey team 34-0.

Nevertheless, any signs of over-optimism in regard to the coming games should have been squelched in Tuesday's scrimmage with the Floydada gridders in Floydada. That unofficial practice game went to Floydada by a tally of 23-13.

Coach Brady Thomas will probably not see his men plow under coach Dub Behrends' Crosbyton crew by any overwhelming margin. Last year, Crosbyton zipped by the Matadors 28-0.

Matador-Quitaque Game

The Matadors averaged a touchdown every six minutes of play during the first half, the first coming five minutes after the kick off. At the end of the half the score was 42-0, all made by 6-point scores.

Halfback Bonner Nelson made the two longest runs in the contest, both 85-yard sprints which were good for two of the second quarter scores. In both instances Nelson received the punt of Quitaque's Arthur Patrick and twisted his way across the goal line. For some unknown reason, the Quitaque Panthers then began kicking out of bounds when they wanted to get rid of the pigskin.

Fullback Billy Joe Stephens led his teammates in the matter of individual scoring with a total of 24 points. Halfbacks Tom Rufus Edmondson and Bonner Nelson shared second position with 18 points each.

First Quarter

Quitaque's Kenneth "Boss" Hamilton kicked off to Bonner Nelson, who raced from his 30 yard line for a 31 yard gallop to Quitaque's 38 yard line.

Three first downs were made by Stephens, Edmondson and Nelson on the following three plays, and on the fourth, the ball was snapped to Edmondson who raced from the 21-yard line for the first score. The first five minutes of the game had elapsed. The attempted field goal was no good, as were the 10 other attempts.

Five minutes and seven plays after the first touchdown, Billy Joe Stephens scored the second tally from the 11-yard line. The third first-quarter score was made by Edmondson

Fire Boys To Elect New Chief

A new chief of the Matador Volunteer Fire Department will be elected at the regular meeting to be held at Marvin's Cafe Monday morning, October 7th.

The new chief of Matador's volunteer fire fighters will replace Lloyd Fulkerson who is moving to Odessa. He has served as head of the department for about two years. Freddie Welling is assistant chief.

The group of firemen will be served during the meeting, according to secretary Earl McBride.

Shoes Will Go With Lion Slave

Public demand has made it necessary for the Matador Lions Club to include shoes with the "slave for a day", to be given away sometime in the near future probably November 11.

Since a slave owner must provide for his slaves, and with the price and scarcity of shoes being what they are, many prospective slave-owners have asked that shoes go in the deal. It is pointed out that many Lion members do not have shoes and may want the place just for a pair of shoes—with winter coming on.

Inquiries have been received from interested ladies. Yes, it is true that some one will be awarded a man for a day. He will do anything asked of him. He will not talk back. He will have shoes. You will not be obligated to feed him, however, a Lion slave will probably do better work with a little food. Complete instruction for the care and feeding of a slave will go to the fortunate person.

Announcement of a slave with shoes was made by Lion Douglas Meador at the regular meeting of the club held in the Methodist basement at 12:30 p. m., Tuesday. Other announcements included a report of the Lions directors breakfast, and a request from Lion J. S. Stanley to encourage any young woman interested in nurse training since there is an acute shortage of trained nurses. He said there are normally 1,500 in training in the state but at present only 300 are preparing for a nursing career.

Lion L. B. Robertson announced that plans are being made for an outstanding Armistice Day Program by the American Legion and requested the support of the Lions club. Brief program was sponsored by Lion John Hamilton. Varner McWilliams was welcomed into the club as a new member at large. Announcement was made that a football score board is being erected at Burleson field and that it may possibly be completed in time for the Friday night game. Visitors included Sam Weatherall of Paducah, Dewey McDonald of Lubbock, and C. G. Willie of Ft. Worth, brother of Lion U. L. Willie.

REV. VERNER AND FAMILY LEAVE FOR NEW PASTORATE

Rev. H. G. Verner, with his family left this morning for Whitharrel, in Hockley county, where he has accepted the pastorate of the Baptist Church.

Rev. Verner was pastor of Matador Baptist Church the past two years and half, and he and his family endeared themselves to many friends here, who deeply regret to lose them from this community. Rev. Verner did not confine his pastoral work to members of his congregation only, but extended his good works to anyone in the community who, he felt, needed him.

The various church organizations will miss the cooperation and fellowship of the Verners, and particularly their work among the young people, and especially will the young people miss the Verner daughters, Bobbie Lou and Theona, who have taken such active parts in Sunday School and church work while here.

To Have Service Sunday

Services will be held as usual at the Baptist Church here, Sunday, with Mr. T. E. Long, outstanding layman of the congregation, bringing the message for the morning.

Following the service, regular monthly conference will be held, since it is the first Sunday in the month.

Fuller Smallwood Dies Suddenly At Afton Early Today

Death struck suddenly this morning and claimed the life of Fuller Smallwood, 83, Matador resident for the past 28 years, as he was visiting with a son, W. A. Smallwood, of Afton.

The aged man had gone to Afton Wednesday afternoon for a visit in his son's home and was apparently feeling all right when he arose this morning. He died at about 9:30.

Funeral arrangements will be under direction of Bryan McDonald Funeral Home, Matador, and the services will probably be held Saturday at the Methodist church. However, definite announcements hasn't been made since final arrangements are not completed as the Tribune goes to press.

Three sons, 17 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren and three sisters survive.

No Tests Required For License Change

Automobile drivers who hold the regular operator's license may obtain the commercial or chauffeur's license permit without having to take state examinations, according to information sent to the sheriff's office by the State Department of Public Safety.

The let-up on the stricter rules for commercial and chauffeur's permits was brought about by an over abundance of drivers who are getting their operators licenses for the first time. Highway patrolmen will be kept busy giving examination to the new drivers and will not have time to give the regular tests for the other type of permits, highway department officials declared.

A commercial license is good for those who drive pick-up or heavier trucks and costs $1.00. The chauffeur's permit costs $3. Both are good for one year.

The city hall, constructed in 1929, at a cost of $12,000, was paid out May 1, 1942.

The city water works bond issue is rapidly becoming liquidated.

Floyd Association Gives $4,562.30 In Relief Drive

Pictured above are Dr. J. Howard Williams, Executive Secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, receiving a check for $4,562.30 which represents the contributions of Texas Baptists to World Emergency Relief and rehabilitation since July 1st.

The Southern Baptist Convention, meeting in Florida during May of this year, launched a campaign to raise $3,500,000.00 to be used in rehabilitating their mission work and in relieving the suffering in war torn and famine ravished countries in Europe and Asia. The 920,952 members of Texas Baptist churches were asked to accept a goal of $450,200 toward this amount. To date $650,000 or 120 per cent of the goal has been received and offerings continue to come in to the state office.

Dr. Williams, who served as director of the campaign in Texas, expects to report an even larger response to the annual meeting of the Convention at Mineral Wells, November 11-15. It is anticipated that 7,500 messengers from the 3,301 churches affiliated with the convention will attend this annual meeting.

A striking fact about this offering is that none of the gifts will be used to administer the distribution of assistance. This aid will be dispensed by the missionaries and other employees of the Baptist Foreign Mission Board who are already in residence in the needy areas. Where ever aid is extended to countries in which Baptists do not operate missions, such aid will be preferred through already existing relief agencies. Some aid has already been sent through the Friends Society.

Dr. Baker James Cauthen, a native Texan and Baptist Mission Secretary to the Orient, will supervise the distribution of aid for China and Japan through the over 200 Baptist missionaries in those areas.

Floyd Association, which includes the Baptist churches of Motley County, gave $4,562.30.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sheridan spent the week end visiting relatives in Amarillo.

Miss Ruth Evelyn Keith and Don Paul Keith, Tech students were home during the week end.

FARM NEWS BY MARVIN ALLEN

The Change Of Name:

About a year ago the official name of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, (AAA) was changed to Production and Marketing Administration (PMA). Due to this change we release information in connection with Agricultural Production and Marketing as well as information on soil conservation. This fact accounts for items that have appeared in this column at various times on the above mentioned subjects.

For instance: Production: 1946 Cotton Crop: a 9,171,000 bale cotton crop for the United States is forecast this year by the Crop Reporting Board, Bureau of Agricultural Economics. This compares with 9,015,000 bales produced in 1945 and 12,553,000 bales for the 1933-1944 average. No estimate of cottonseed production will be made until December. However, if the ratio of lint to cottonseed should be the same as the average for the past five years, production would be 3,732,000 tons. Production in 1945 was 3,664,000 tons. Marketing: Abundant Foods This Week Potatoes continue to head the list of abundant foods this week and will probably head the list on through the month of October. Other foods in plentiful supply include onions, lemons, canned citrus juices, fall apples, pears and celery. Chickens and turkeys are also abundant on local markets and are a good buy since other meats have been affected by supply and increase of price. Pork meat is hard to find at any price on local market.

ACA Bulletin Board:

A large bulletin board has been installed in the AAA office for the purpose of listing items for sale, swap or trade by any farmer or rancher in Motley County. For example the board works like this: a producer was in the office inquiring for seed wheat, his inquiry was put on the board and in less than five hours another producer was in the office on regular AAA business and noticed the request for seed wheat on the bulletin board and since this producer had wheat for sale, contact of the two farmers was made.

This board is thus at the disposal and for the benefit of all farmers. If you have anything to sell, trade or swap, drop us a card. We'll be glad to make listings of such on the board, or if you desire to buy anything in the agricultural line, seed, equipment, etc., let that be known

Weekly SURPLUS NEWS WAA

With the approach of cooler weather, blanket time is close at hand. A timely offering of over 15,000 blankets go on sale Sept. 25, and will last until supply is disposed of to commercial dealers. The blankets have previously been offered to veterans.

Enough pliers, 5,965, are now available for purchase through WAA in Fort Worth to satisfy a considerable list of purchasers. Small retailers may buy in lots of 100, wholesalers in lots of 350, with prices at 80¢, 76¢, and 60¢ respectively. Sale opened Sept. 20 and will continue until all of the 6 1/2" pliers are disposed of. Orders may be mailed to WAA, T&P Bldg., Fort Worth.

Veterans can now buy Army Scout Cars, 510 of them, located at Red River, Arsenal, Texas-Kana. These cars which cost the government $6130 each are now tagged at $350.00. Sale lasts until Oct. 3, and orders will be accepted at the WAA office in Fort Worth. Conditions of sale specify that veteran purchasers shall use the cars for own small business, professional or agricultural enterprise.

The people of many West Texas towns have received added fire protection since the WAA sold 32 surplus fire trucks to City and County Fire Departments in Texas, Oklahoma, La., and Arkansas.

These fire trucks were mostly 1944 and 1942 model International and Mack trucks that served their hitch in the service at Army posts and Air Fields in Texas, were sold at prices ranging from $1300 to $1700, and originally cost the government approximately $7000 each. Archer City, Breckenridge city, Olney, Ranger, Dalhart, Burnet, Sonora, Walnut Springs, Granbury, Glen Rose, Abilene, Dimmit, McLean, and Vega were among the recent purchasers.

According to the Texas Safety Association, 219 persons have been killed by drivers for the first six months of this year; 50 per cent of the drivers had no driver's license. If you drink, it's your own business. But if you drink and then drive an automobile, then it's everybody's business, says the Association. You may not care about your own life, but a lot of people care about theirs.

Miss Jane Eagle Of Lufkin Is Named Sponsor For Texas Forest Festival

"Rebuilding soils and forests is repairing war waste," is the theme of this year's Texas Forest Festival being held in Lufkin, Texas, October 7-12. Miss Jane Eagle, lovely 20-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Eagle of Lufkin, is comparing the sizes of a short-leaf pine seedling and a 35-year old mature tree, stressing the fact that forests can be rebuilt.

Miss Eagle, whose father is president of the Texas Lumber Manufacturer's Association, is official sponsor of the 1946 Texas Forest Festival and will join with the Lufkin Junior Chamber of Commerce in inviting all East-Texas towns to enter a contestant for the title of "Queen of the Pines," the said Queen to be selected the night of October 7. Last year, Miss Eagle was named as one of the ten most beautiful co-eds attending the University of Texas.

It was Edmund Burke who said "If I were an American and a foreign troop landed in my country I never would give up my arms."

100,000 Strawberry Plants Given Away

Since Mrs. N. G. Ellison of the Wyche community in Deaf Smith County set out 250 strawberry plants in 1938, she figures she's given away nearly 100,000 plants. And she's never sold a plant or a berry. Mastodon Gem is the variety which has proved so successful for Mrs. Ellison and which she has distributed so widely.

Until two years ago, Mrs. Ellison kept a record of the number of plants given away on the back of a calendar. At that time the number totaled 18,000; and since Mrs. Ellison has continued generously sharing her plants. Several months ago, for example, 22 members of her home demonstration club came and dug about 300 plants apiece. One, however, came back and got another 300.

The plants have been given to visitors from California, Colorado, Iowa, Illinois, Missouri, and Oklahoma as well as Texas. Numbers of Randall County home demonstration club women "got their start" from Mrs. Ellison, and a man from Nazareth, Castro County, took home a load in a pick-up truck.

Miss Sadie Lee Oliver, Deaf Smith County home demonstration agent, says Mrs. Ellison and her family have demonstrated that many other kinds of fruits can be grown successfully under Plains conditions. They have peaches (including Elberta, Halehaven, J. H. Hale and Indian Red varieties), goose berries, currants, raspberries, Montmorancy cherries, blue damson and yellow plums, quinces, apples, pears, and rhubarb. The blue damsons are a sure crop, Mrs. Ellison says, and she finds Bartlett pears do well, too.

Fresh milk, butter, fresh fruit juices, yolks of eggs, meat and cereals are foods particularly rich in vitamins.

Silage Is Named As Good Cow Food

Silage, as a substitute for pasture, is cheap, high in nutrient content and an excellent dairy cow conditioner.

When fed to dairy cows as silage, crops like corn, hogari, ferita, and red top will yield as much food nutrient as they would have if fed at harvest time, according to G. G. Gibson, dairy husbandman with the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. Silage is also cheap, if handled properly, because there is little or no waste involved in feeding.

Silage seems to have a cooling and slightly laxative effect on cows in dry lots and pastures or dry stalk fields, Gibson says, and serves as a tonic in keeping their systems in good working order. As a result, the cow has a better appetite. She will eat more feed, and in the case of good cows, more feed means more milk.

V. F. W., Matador County Memorial Post No. 6286, meets 1st and 3rd Tuesdays, 8 p.m. at the court room, Matador, Texas. All eligible ex-service men are invited to attend.

Farmers Know What a Profit Is For

AS his own boss, the farmer has long since found out that a profit is not just an extra sum, above the bare cost of doing business, which can be used as you please. It is the main source of funds necessary to pay for a new silo, buy better machinery, and improve the house and the barn.

In spite of the great rise in income, farm profits are no more than necessary to keep the farm plant producing efficiently. It's the same with the iron and steel industry which makes the materials for the farmer's tools.

In 1945 steel companies had left, after meeting all expenses but before paying dividends, only a little more than one-tenth of one cent on each pound of steel sold. The profit on each dollar invested was less than five cents. Year by year since 1941, when the war started, earnings have been declining.

Although last year's output of steel was 19 per cent greater than in 1940, the last prewar year, pay rolls were nearly double but dividends were lower.

There are many misunderstandings and misrepresentations about profits. Some people forget that reasonable profits are a necessary incentive of the American system, which results in abundant low-cost farm products and abundant low-cost steel products.

It is up to those who know what profits are for, and what they can do, to see that they are not destroyed—and with them our high standard of living.

Steel mills need all the scrap iron and steel they can get. The shortage is serious. Farmers can get extra dollars and help increase steel output by sending worn-out machinery, etc., on its way to the furnaces. AMERICAN IRON AND STEEL INSTITUTE, 350 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, N. Y.

Butterfat Prices Reach Record High

Butter fat, now bringing 70¢ per pound, its highest selling price in its history, is one of the scarcest products on the market, according to Matador creameries.

Bill Wason, owner of Matador Produce, said that he was receiving about 270 pounds of butterfat per week, which was about half the normal intake.

Both Wason, and J. R. Ratcliff cream handler at the L. R. Bishop creamery, attributed the slack to the drought which plagued the county during the early part of the year.

However, a more optimistic picture on future intake of butterfat was forecast by the creameries. The recent rains will bring about better feed and consequently an upswing in butterfat production, they said.

The 270 pound figure quoted by Wason is about half the amount taken in during the summer months, which is the slack season for the product.

Matador's immediate trade area for butterfat includes Teepee Flat, Darden Canyon, Fairview, Northfield and Roaring Springs. Most of the cream comes from within a six mile radius of Matador, Wason said.

Sixty five per cent of the world's population live on farms. Pilgrim's Progress was written by John Bunyan while he was in Bedford jail, in England, where he had been imprisoned because of his religious beliefs.

The Holland Tunnel, connecting New York City and Jersey City, and built under the Hudson River, is the most expensive automobile road ever built in this country. It is only 1.6 miles long, but cost $48,000,000.

One Candle on Our Birthday Cake . . .

October 15th is Our Birthday!

A Word of Appreciation . . .

We want to thank the people of Matador and Motley county for the generous patronage which we have received since purchasing this business one year ago. It would be unfair if we did not tell you that it has exceeded our most optimistic expectations.

While patronage is essential in business, the people of Matador have been more than generous in their friendship and neighborliness. We were immediately made to feel that we were a part of the community . . . as if the community was a large family and we were a member of it.

At the end of our first year of business in Matador we want to promise our patrons that we will continue the same policy of operation and that we will constantly strive to improve our services. We have new store equipment on order that will provide the most modern drug store facilities on the market. We are constantly seeking new and modern lines of merchandise which make it possible for our customers to buy any item in our store that can be found in large stores anywhere.

We want our customers to know that only the best and newest merchandise will be offered. We want them to know that our policy will never vary to permit any but the best and freshest drugs to go into our prescriptions. We want you to know that it is always a pleasure to serve you in any manner possible. Again, friends, our thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Stanley

GIRL'S AUXILIARY PRESENT PROGRAM AT W. M. U. MEET

Members of the Girl's Auxiliary, directed by Mrs. Vernon Doss, presented the program Tuesday night at a meeting of the Baptist W. M. U. sponsored by Henrietta Shuck Circle. The meeting was held in the church basement in the junior department.

Under leadership of Mrs. Doss and Mrs. H. G. Verner, the organization of younger girls has shown much progress in recent months. In the program Tuesday night, four were advanced to the position of "maidens" and three to "ladies-in-waiting" in the G. A. regime. As their education in W. M. U. work progresses, they may become in turn, "princesses" and "queens".

The program opened with a song, followed by prayer, and introduction given by Mrs. J. L. Woodruff. The G. A. girls sang "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations," and Dorothy Rattan sang "A Child of the King." Maidens who received badges after responding to an oral review conducted by Mrs. Doss, were: Maureen Plumlee, Jean Hines, Barbara Neighbors and Betty Ruth Smalley. Following a similar "quiz" Theona Verner, Doris Ann Doss and June Neighbors received white stars, the symbol of "ladies-in-waiting", to wear on their badges. Serving as ushers were Roma Jo Fulkerson and Donna Follis.

At the conclusion of the program, refreshments of hot chocolate and cup cakes were served by Mesdames Cecil Shelton, Howe Hines and Bill McCaghen to the girls, and the following ladies: Mesdames J. R. Moore, T. E. Cammack, Lloyd Fulkerson, V. J. Skaggs, J. Farris Fish A. A. Tipton, R. E. Campbell Sr., Harry Carter, J. C. Rattan, V. A. Rattan, John Plumlee, J. P. Neighbors, N. J. Smalley, L. Rattan, J. L. Woodruff, Velma Fulfer, J. A. Groves, Vernon Doss and Ben Meador, and Miss Maggie Bryan.

Ralph Horton of Carlsbad, N. Mexico, visited here over the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clements, as guest of their daughter, Mrs. Marian Boggus. Mr. Horton was an army buddy of Mrs. Boggus' husband, the late W. T. Boggus, who was killed in action during the recent war.

MISS JANE WARREN BECOMES BRIDE OF JIMMIE JOE LATIMER SUNDAY AT BRADY

Mrs. Jimmie Joe Latimer

The marriage of Miss Jane Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colquet Warren of Matador, to Jimmie Joe Latimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Latimer, also of Matador, took place Sunday afternoon, September 29 at 2:30 o'clock in a ceremony at the home of Rev. and Mrs. M. B. Carroll, of Brady, Texas.

As Rev. Carroll, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Brady, and former Baptist pastor here, read the impressive single-ring service, a violin presentation of "Salut d'Amour" (Elgar) was offered by Mrs. Carroll, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Norman Archer of Brady.

The bride wore a wool dressmaker suit of marine blue, with a pink blouse. Her black hat was trimmed with a pink feather, and her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Maid of honor was Miss Ruth Evelyn Keith, who wore a green wool dress with black and gold accessories, and a gardenia corsage. Lloyd Latimer served his brother as best man.

Across the mantle of the fireplace, before which the group stood, extended a vine of ivy joining a pair of crystal vases which held sprays of pink Antigonon and lavender daisies.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Warren wore a light blue suit and a corsage of white carnations. Other guests present were Mrs. M. B. Carroll, Sr., and Ann Carroll of Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Meador, Miss Charleen Ketchersid and George Conner, of Matador.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for the party, with Miss Ketchersid presiding at the silver coffee service, and Mrs. Meador serving the cake after the first piece was cut by the bride and groom.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Latimer are well-known and are popular in the young people's circles of this community, as well as in church circles in which they have taken active part. Mrs. Latimer was reared in Childress, graduating from high school there as valedictorian of her class. She moved here with her parents about three years ago to make her home, and attended West Texas State College, Canyon, during one term. After several months employment with the Tribune, she accepted a position in Austin as typist in the House of Representatives, and while there was enrolled in summer classes at the University of Texas. She returned home last fall to assist her father in the abstract business here and at Dickens.

The couple will make their home at Lubbock, where Mr. Latimer is enrolled at Texas Technological College. He is a graduate of Matador High School and is an overseas veteran, having been in service approximately 28 months, and in the Philippines about 16 months, during the past war.

selling price, which was somewhat out of line with the $25,000 which they were reportedly ready to pay.

Notified of Matador's disinterest in the $39,000 bid, officials of the sewage company have indicated that their franchise, which has some 33 years yet to run, will be sold to other interests.

However, under the conditions of the franchise agreement the city of Matador has retained the right to purchase the property at five year intervals. Also, the disposal plant, which is now operating on a full capacity basis, can be enlarged. And there is no restricting clause which can prevent the city from building their own sewage system.

City councilmen said that the desire to buy the underground sewage network was prompted by a desire to be able to lower the monthly $1.50 sewage tax. The lowest sewage rates of other Panhandle towns are municipally owned, records show.

Monthly sewage charges for other Panhandle cities range from zero (Amarillo and Canyon) to $2.50 (Quitaque). Abilene, Archer City, Brownfield, Childress, Dimmett, Lockney, Quanah and Plainview run their sewage systems on a rate of 50 cents per month, and one dollar a month is charged by Aspermont and Burkburnett. Paducah has a 25 cent and a one dollar rate, and Spur has a 75 cent and a one dollar rate. Floydada's monthly rate is 75 cents, and Albany's is $1.50.

from the five yard line six plays later.

Second Quarter

Matador took over ball possession shortly after the beginning of the second quarter on their own 45-yard line. They managed to work down to the one foot line, where the Quitaque gridmen got tough and held their opponents for two downs. Finally, on the eighth play after the start of the second quarter, Stephens crashed the center of the line for the fourth score.

It was five plays later that Bonner Nelson took the fourth down punt of Arthur Patrick and made his first 65-yard sprint for the fifth touchdown.

The sixth tally was set up by Edmondson, who took a fourth-down punt of Quitaque's Lit Bogan and raced from Matador's 30-yard line to the Panther's four-yard line. Quitaque held the Matadors for one down, and Stephens scored the sixth touchdown on a right end run from the four yard line. Only six plays had elapsed between the fifth and sixth touchdowns.

Stephens put the following kick off to Quitaque on the one foot line, and Bonner Nelson stopped the Panther's safety man on the five. On the first down, Patrick again kicked to Nelson, who again raked 65 yards for the seventh tally. The first half ended two plays later, with the score 42-0.

Third Quarter

Matador kicked off in the beginning of the third quarter, and Quitaque was unable to gain yardage on the following three plays. Nelson took Quitaque's fourth down punt and was off for another score, but Referee J. R. Emmons (Matador) called Nelson out on the 39-yard line. Five plays later, Edmondson scored tally number eight.

Two plays after the following kick-off, Matador regained the ball possession, thanks to the fumble of a pass. The Matadors worked up to Quitaque's two-yard line, were held for two downs before Stephens scooted across the goal for the 54th point.

Fourth Quarter

Touchdown number 10 was set up by Stephens, who returned the punt of Quitaque's

Roy Grundy from Quitaque's 40-yard line to their 11. It was from this point that Nelson made the final score.
